HERITAGE WEEK:

In 1957, Olivet Nazarene College celebrated her 50th anniversary. We celebrated the event by having Mary Nesbitt, one of Olivet's first teachers, to speak in our Chapel services. It was called Founder's Day. Since that time we have celebrated Founder's Day by having a special Chapel service and using college personnel, church leaders, and alumni as our speakers. Two years ago, we changed the name from Founder's Day to Heritage Week. We are honored and delighted to have Dr. Paul Rees as this year's special speaker for our Heritage Week emphasis. Dr. Rees will be speaking in all of our Chapel services as well as Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7 p.m. in College Church. We welcome Dr. and Mrs. Rees to our campus.

ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT:

The Training Center for the disabled is looking for a house parent for 8-10 handicapped individuals. They will live near you in other apartments. You will be provided with an apartment and salary. No cooking or cleaning is required. Your job consists of drop-in-services. For more information call Barbara Wilbur at 932-4022.

AWARE:

Last week's offering for the Chicago Project was $148.00. Along with today's Tigertalk is being distributed pledges for this project. Please fill out and drop in the box near the cafeteria entrance. Only 491 fasted last Wed. which only gave $200.00 towards the project. This money goes to Africa. We will have a chance again next month to share in this project for Africa. This month's project is Papua, New Guinea. Let's try for 100% participation either in fasting or giving.

CAREER PLANNING & PLACEMENT:

The pastor of Westbrook Church of the Nazarene is looking for a custodian. Call in the mornings at 939-7291 and afternoons at 937-5597.

CHAPEL FOR THE WEEK:

Tuesday: Cultural Series is sponsoring our Chapel service today with Mrs. Suzanne Johnson singing. She has recorded six albums of sacred songs. One album titled, "Get Involved" on the Four Most label, was given the award for the "Best Female Record of 1971" by the National Evangelical Film Foundation. Her two latest albums on the Impact label of the John T. Benson Publishing Company are "Come, Praise the Lord", and "God Gave The Song". On the "Alleluia" album by Ronn Huff and Bill Gaither, Suzanne gives her spoken testimony and sings "Because He Lives". At home Suzanne is the wife of Dick Peterson, a kitchen and bathroom remodeling specialist in his firm 'Quaker Maid Kitchens of Chicago' and the mother of three sons; David John, Paul Richard, and Stephen Carl.

Wednesday: Olivet Nazarene College Band under the direction of Harlow Hopkins.

Thursday: HAVE A GREAT THANKSGIVING!

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT:

If you are having a problem deciding on a major, or consequently a career, you owe it to yourself to complete the career choice check list. The career choice check is a free Career Planning and Placement program available to all ONC students at the Placement Office. Start on this important program today.

Seniors who may be interested in Christian work opportunities, 1000's of jobs are available. Perhaps, inter-cristo can help you. Contact C.P.&P. Office for further information.

Full-time bookkeeper, secretary, and accountant positions are available through the Kankakee Community Action Program. Contact Mrs. Zelpha Whatley at 937-5910 extension 49 for information.
