It's going to be the event of the year.

COLLEGE CHURCH "My spiritual life seems to always be up and down. I feel like giving up!" Ever feel that way? Is there a positive side to up-and-downness? What does sanctification mean in the Thursdays of my life? Why, how, and when is sanctification? Is there life after sanctification? These kinds of issues will be treated this Sunday, October 18, as the College Department meets together for a combined session in the Ludwig Dining Hall for Sunday School, 9:45-10:35 a.m. Join us, won't you.

College Church wishes to thank all ONC'ers for participating in the nights of special class emphasis during the recent Fall Revival. We further want to extend our appreciation to you for being a part of Adopt-A-Student Sunday. Our records show that over 150 students were adopted as lunch guests by families of College Church. Thanks for your cooperation!

All prospective graduates planning to participate in the May 1982 Commencement must have had a "grad check" by the Registrar's office at least six months prior to graduation. Make an appointment now if you have never had a "grad check," or if you still are not positive of what needs to be taken before completing your requirements.

All changes in Registration must be properly processed in the Registrar's office. A grade of "F" is given for courses if you stop attending without processing the form in the Registrar's office. It is too late now to drop any Block I classes. The last date to drop a full semester-length course is the second Friday after the distribution of mid-term grades, which will be November 6!

Preregistration for January Term and Spring Semester will begin November 16. To preregister, student accounts must be paid. Make plans now to be ready for preregistration.

Final Issue
Fall Semester 1981
December 10, 1981

Thank you for your splendid cooperation in chapel during this fall semester. The Lord has truly visited us. On behalf of the administration, faculty, and staff, I wish our students a blessed and happy holiday season and a merry Christmas.

Dean of Students Ted R. Lee

THE ANNUAL ALL-SCHOOL CHRISTMAS BANQUET is this Friday, December 11. Tickets are available in Ludwig during mealtimes today and tomorrow when I.D. is shown. Times for the meal are 5:15, 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, and 6:15 p.m. The entertainment will begin at approximately 7 p.m. Cost for faculty, staff, and non-resident students is $3.75. This will be a great time for the Olivet family.

THE BOOKSTORE AND LUDWIG FOYER will be closed Friday afternoon after 1 p.m. in order to decorate and set up for the All-School Christmas Party Friday evening. Also, the seating area of the Red Room will be closed this evening but the serving area will remain open for the purchase of food.

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE Ludwig Center will close at 8 p.m. Friday, December 18, 1981, and reopen Monday morning, January 4, 1982.

The residence halls will close December 18 at 6 p.m. and reopen January 3 at 2 p.m.
All college offices will close December 24 at noon and reopen January 4.

HEALTH OFFICE HOURS DURING INTERIM Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday - 1 p.m.-4 p.m.
Thursday - 10 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

The school physician will be on campus on Thursdays; call the nurse for an appointment.

SENIORS Graduation announcements are now available in the bookstore at $3.50 for a package of 10. December graduates should stop by and make their purchases right away.
Boxed Christmas cards are now on sale at 10% off.

STUDENTS WHO HAVE GUARANTEED LOANS The Financial Aids office has received word from the Internal Revenue Service that the 5% Origination Fee and the 1% Student Fee may be used as deductions for income tax purposes. The deduction may be taken only by the borrower, however, parents cannot list it on their own 1040 even though they may have paid it.

CAREER CENTER Pastor Derl Keefer (Lombard Church of the Nazarene in Lombard, a northwestern suburb of Chicago) will have a table display in Ludwig Center on December 15 and would like to talk with graduating seniors who would like assistance in locating job possibilities. Feel free to bring a resume for him and get acquainted with him.
