"God is our refuge and strength, a tested help in times of trouble. And so we need not fear even if the world blows up, and the mountains crumble into the sea. Let the oceans roar and foam; let the mountains tremble! There is a river of joy flowing through the City of our God-the sacred home of the God above all gods. God Himself is living in that City; therefore it stands unmoved despite the turmoil everywhere. He will not delay His help," (Living Psalms 46: 1-5).

For Detective Night wear trench coat, dark glasses, black hat and come see Sherlock Holmes in "The Hound of Baskerville." Read the CLUE below and identify the MYSTERY PERSON and WIN 2 IMPERIAL TICKETS!!!!!!

With an office in Burke
This guy has some very unusual quirks.
Ambidextrous in an odd way -
Confusion plagued him in softball play

Having a restless minister father,
Travel and moving were the rules
So much, in fact,
He went to eight different grade schools.

Today you could possibly find him at Dionne's in Mokena-Eating French.
Or anywhere that would please,
His taste for Chinese.

Considering these first clues in every way -
You Sherlocks out there have only two days to find out who this person could possibly be.
Success could leave you with two Imperial tickets totally FREE!

THE GOSPEL CHOIR will meet in the E. W. Martin Board Room at 7 p.m. TONIGHT, February 3.
(This is a change of place for our rehearsal originally scheduled in Chalfant Hall.)

"Praise the Lord! Yes, really praise Him! I will praise Him as long as I live, yes, even with my dying breath. Don't look to men for help; their greatest leaders fail; For every man must die. His breathing stops, life ends, and in a moment all he planned for himself is ended. But happy is the man who has the God of Jacob as his helper, whose hope is in the Lord his God—" (Psalm 146:1-5).

Watch for further information as to exactly when WKOC will be on in the afternoon.

Remember - you can hear Chapel services daily at 6:30 p.m.-Monday through Friday. Mondays and Fridays are choice chapels from the past and Tuesday through Thursday is the Chapel from that day.

"You made my body, Lord; now give me sense to heed Your laws. All those who fear and trust in You will welcome me because I too am trusting in Your Word. I know, O Lord, that Your decisions are right and that Your punishment was right and did me good. Now let Your lovingkindness comfort me, just as You promised. Surround me with Your tender mercies, that I may live. For Your law is my delight" (Psalm 119: 73-77).

"In the farthest corners of the earth the glorious acts of God shall startle everyone. The dawn and sunset shout for joy! He waters the earth to make it fertile. The rivers of God will not run dry! He prepares the earth for His people and sends them rich harvests of grain. He waters the furrows with abundant rain. Showers soften the earth, melting the clods and causing seeds to sprout across the land. Then He crowns it all with green, lush pastures in the wilderness; hillsides blossom with joy. The pastures are filled with flocks of sheep, and the valleys are carpeted with grain. All the world shouts with joy, and sings," (Psalms 65: 8-13).

FROM THE DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE With spring semester classes ending Friday,
May 20, here is some important information for ALL students. Residence Halls close at 9 p.m. that Friday evening and the last meal served is supper at 4:30.

"The one thing I want from God, the thing I seek most of all, is the privilege of meditating in His temple, living in His presence every day of my life, de-lighting in His incomparable perfections and glory. There I'll be when trouble comes! He will hide me. He will set me on a high rock out of reach of all my enemies. Then I will bring Him sacrifices and sing His praises with much joy," (Psalms 27: 4-6).
