The Academic Regalia

In its essential features, the academic regalia worn at American College exercises had its beginning in the Middle Ages.

The oldest Universities of Northern Europe grew out of church schools, and both faculty and students were regarded as a part of the clergy. Hence as their regular costume they wore clerical garb, borrowed largely from the monastic dress of their day.

The academic gown and hood were apparently first regularly adopted by the University of Cambridge in 1284, and by the University of Oxford a little later. The custom was transplanted to this country in Colonial times by King's College in New York, now Columbia University.

In 1895 American universities and colleges decided to standardize their academic styles, and developed the intercollegiate code of academic costume. The style follows in the main the Cambridge tradition. The distinctive caps, gowns and hoods worn at present day college and university functions denote the institution that granted the degree, the field of learning in which the degree was earned, and the level of the degree—bachelor, master, or doctorate.

The gown is usually of black material (serge or worsted for bachelors, the same or silk for masters, and silk for doctors) Bachelors' gowns have pointed sleeves; masters' have long pouch-like sleeves which reputedly were once used to carry books, sandwiches, etc. Doctors' gowns are faced with panels of velvet down the front and three bars of velvet across each sleeve.

The hood, worn around the neck so as to hang down the back, is the principal emblem of the nature and source of the degree held. The colors in the hood lining are the colors of the school conferring the degree. The color of the border indicates the scholarly field of the wearer. Hoods may be worn only after the degree has been granted.

The cap, the square mortar-board in American universities, but a round, soft, flat velvet hat in British, Canadian, and some European universities, bears a tassel which may be black or it may be colored according to the scholarly field of the wearer. Only the doctors' cap may be of velvet.

The degree colors are appropriate to the category of the degree, rather than to the scholar's major subject. For example, the appropriate color for degrees in Arts and Letters (B.A., M.A., B. Litt.) is white; in Commerce, drab; in Education, light blue; in Engineering, orange; in Fine Arts, brown; in Humanities, crimson; in Law, purple; in Library Science, lemon; in Medicine, green; in Music, pink; in Pharmacy, olive; in Philosophy (Ph.D.), dark blue; in Physical Education, sage green; in Science, golden yellow; in Theology, scarlet. These colors are used for the edging of all hoods, and may be used for the velvet facing and sleeve bars of doctors' gowns and tassels on bachelors' and masters' caps.

“LEAD ON, O KING ETERNAL”

Lead on, O King Eternal
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home.
Thro' days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong;
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal,
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper
The sweet Amen of peace.
For not with swords' loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums;
With deeds of love and mercy,
The heav'nly Kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal.
We follow, not with fears;
And gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears.
Thy cross is lifted o'er us
We journey in its light.
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might.

“HOLY SPIRIT, BE MY GUIDE”

Holy Spirit, my heart yearns for Thee:
Holy Spirit, abide in me.
Make me clean; oh, make me pure!
I must know the double cure!

Refrain:

Holy Spirit, be my Guide
Holy Spirit, my door's open wide.
Make me to know Thy will divine;
Holy Spirit, be Thou mine!

Never, never shall I be set free;
Never, never, till Thou purgest me!
“Come just now,” my cry, my prayer;
Inbred sin I cannot bear!

Ne'er my trust will be in vain,
Naught to lose and all to gain.
Take my life, my self, my soul;
Burn the chaff and make me whole!

READING OF THE SCRIPTURE

If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever;

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him: for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you.

These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me;

And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
