Professor Franklin Garton

1988

Faculty Member of the Year

Prof. Franklin DeFoe Garton and his wife, Irene, moved to Olivet Nazarene University in 1979. He is currently the Director of Counseling Services and Associate Professor in the Department of Psychology. He also teaches Creative Photography in the Department of Art.

Frank is writer and host of GARTON'S NEW DAY, an early morning inspirational program of music, conversation, and comments heard over Olivet Nazarene University's radio station WONU.

Prof. Garton grew up in Muncie, Indiana, where he attended high school. He was an early morning newsboy, participated in sports, was active in class plays, drama and the Latin Club. He competed successfully in high school speech contests in Indiana.

Frank received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Olivet Nazarene University in 1958, a Master of Arts degree from Ball State University in 1965, and a second Master of Arts degree from Olivet Nazarene University in 1987.

Prior to coming to Olivet, Frank pastored for twenty-two years in Indiana, Missouri and Michigan.

Mrs. Garton is a public school instructor of child care and director of a lab-school at the Kankakee Area Career Center in Bourbonnais. Frank and Irene have two daughters: Mary Elizabeth and Valery Joy Garton Krueger.

Along with other community professionals in the Kankakee area, Prof. Garton has helped establish a "Grief and Loss Support Group," which has served over 1000 families. He is a night chaplain at Riverside Medical Center and a member of the Kankakee County Board of Health. Frank is a member of the Educational Honor Society, Kappa Delta Pi. He is a professional photographer and has served as editor for more than twelve limited production books created for various educational corporations.

Prof. Garton is a man of many gifts and great energy. He is a team person and is much appreciated for his many contributions beyond the call of duty. Frank Garton, we salute you as the 1988 Faculty Member of the Year.

President's Special Recognition

Mr. Dennis Seymour

1988

Staff Member of the Year

Mr. Dennis E. Seymour is Director of Computer Services at Olivet Nazarene University.

Born in Nassau Bahamas, Dennis graduated from R.M. Bailey High School and C.R. Walker Technical College. He moved to the U.S. in 1978 to attend Olivet graduating in 1982.

While a student at Olivet, Dennis participated in Track and Field, and Vikings. He was employed at the campus computer center and in 1980 held the position of Hardware Manager.

Dennis is a member of Associated Information Managers, Data Processing Management Association and an avid reader of Computer World and P.C. Week. He has served on his local church board, as NYI President, and choir director.

Dennis met his wife, Cheryl, at church in 1976. And on August 8th they celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary. Cheryl is the Administrative Assistant to Dr. T.R. Lee.

In addition to his interest in music, Dennis is a member of the YMCA volleyball league and a seasoned tennis player.

During this past year, Dennis has been deeply involved in the installation of the new campus-wide computer system Prime 9755 (with the colleague software provided by the Datatel Corporation). He worked many nights and Saturdays to get the job completed for the opening of the 1988 Fall term.

Dennis is highly skilled but easy to work with and a man who lives his faith. We all appreciate him for what he is as well as for what he does. Dennis Seymour, we salute you as the 1988 Staff Member of the Year.

ALMA MATER, OLIVET

Byron M. Carmony

---

To Alma Mater, Olivet, We lift our voice in praise

For noble standards which we'll hold 'till ending of our days.

The Time we spent within these halls will ne'er forgotten be,

For here we learned to know of truth, and truth will make us free.

My Olivet, Our Olivet! Though life may lead us far apart,

I'll still revere you in my heart.

My Olivet, Our Olivet. I'll love the Christ you gave first part,

And you, old Olivet!
