OLIVET NAZARENE UNIVERSITY

2009-2010

OUR MISSION

Olivet Nazarene University, a denominational university in the Wesleyan tradition, exists to provide a university-level liberal arts “Education with a Christian Purpose.”

Our mission is to provide high-quality academic instruction for the purpose of personal development, career and professional readiness, and the preparation of individuals for lives of service to God and humanity.

“We seek the strongest scholarship and the deepest piety, knowing that they are compatible [and] ... a Christian environment ... where not only knowledge but character is sought.” (The quotation is taken from the Olivet Catalog, 1915.)

This mission provides the common ground for us as we blend our various gifts and interests together to impact each student. You will have many opportunities this year to live out this mission. Watch for those occasions, for they are moments of great possibility and reward. Through our mission, we transform lives for eternity.

WELCOME

Good evening, everyone! The Annual President’s Dinner for Faculty and Staff is an Olivet tradition that stretches back well over fifty years. Tonight we gather as colleagues and friends to set our sights on the horizon as we mark the beginning of a new academic year.

Each of us has the great privilege of being part of the work of Olivet. The University is not only a place; it is first and foremost a people — a people with an identity, a mission, and a focus on what we can accomplish together. You are Olivet!

Please take a moment to read the mission statement and think about your role in making that statement a living reality. It is my hope that our time together this evening will give each of us the opportunity to renew our commitment to the mission of the University.

You will also want to note the various accomplishments and milestones noted throughout the dinner program.

Sincerely,
John and Jill Bowling

To Alma Mater, Olivet, We lift our voice in praise
For noble standards which we'll hold
'til ending of our days.
The time we spent within these halls will ne'er forgotten be,
For here we learned to know of truth,
and truth will make us free.

My Olivet, Our Olivet! Tho' life may lead us far apart,
I'll still revere you in my heart.
My Olivet, Our Olivet. I'll love the Christ
you gave first part,
And you, old Olivet!

A BRIEF HISTORY OF OLIVET

Olivet Nazarene University's origins can be traced to the first decade of the last century and to the resolve of several families in east central Illinois who were committed to providing a Christian education for their children. In 1907, classes began in a home in the community of Georgetown, Illinois, and a year later, the founders acquired several acres of land in the nearby village called Olivet. There, they raised a modest building and added the secondary level of instruction. A College of Liberal Arts followed in 1909, along with the first name for this fledgling, but ambitious, institution: "Illinois Holiness University."

By 1912, the founders and trustees were aware of the school's need for a wider constituency and offered to give their educational work to the Church of the Nazarene. This young denomination accepted the school with a pledge to support and promote its ministry of Christian higher education. That early church commitment is still being perpetuated by the more than 800 Nazarene congregations throughout Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin.

The school grew slowly during the next decade. There were several acting and short-term presidents; the campus of 18 acres contained only a few small buildings; the first yearbook, the Aurora, was published in 1914; and a new school name followed in 1915: "Olivet University." In 1923, the name was changed to "Olivet College."

As was the case with many small church colleges in the 1920s, Olivet's financial base eroded significantly, forcing the trustees to declare bankruptcy in 1926. Then-college treasurer Dr. T.W. Willingham bought the school back at a public auction, outlined a new plan for solvency, and was elected that night to serve as president.

A devastating fire destroyed the main campus building in November 1938, prompting the newly elected president, A.L. Parrott, and the trustees to consider locating a new campus as an alternative to rebuilding at their rural site. They found and purchased the present campus in Bourbonnais in 1939 and moved the college in the summer of 1940. "Nazarene" was added to the college's name that same year.

At the time of Olivet's move to Bourbonnais, the campus consisted of 42 acres, which had been the site of St. Viator's College from 1868 until it closed in 1938. Four of the buildings purchased then are still in use today.

Receiving formal recognition and accreditation by the University of Illinois in 1939 was a major academic milestone for Olivet. The college catalogs of the 1940s reflected a School of Liberal Arts, a School of Music, a School of Religion, and a high school Academy. In 1953, under the skillful leadership of Dr. Harold W. Reed, president, and Dr. Willis Snowbarger, newly appointed dean, all areas of study were grouped into curricular divisions, still the model for Olivet's academic organization.

Dr. Harold W. Reed, president from 1949–1975, led Olivet through a period of remarkable growth, including the construction of 20 major buildings to keep pace with swelling student enrollments.

Dr. Leslie Parrott continued this focus on campus expansion, development and beautification during his 16-year tenure with a specific interest in the elevation of Olivet to university status.

In 1986, the school's name was changed to "Olivet Nazarene University" to reflect the diversity of academic programs and graduate studies.

In 1991, Dr. John C. Bowling became president and has led the University in continued growth and effective ministry.

During the decade of the 1990s, Olivet expanded and strengthened both its undergraduate and graduate programs. The University established a formal development program including planned giving and major gifts, an annual fund program known as Friends of Olivet, renewed grant writing, a comprehensive program of donor relations, and the "In Word and Deed" capital campaign. In 1994, a full-time chaplaincy program was established to give direction to chapel, student spiritual life activities, small-group ministries, missions, and compassionate ministry experiences.

Chalfant Hall was renovated; the Harlow E. Hopkins Alumni Center was established; Milby Clock Tower was reconstructed; Ludwig Dining Room, the Red Room, and the bookstore were renovated; the coffee shop, Common Grounds, was established; the Olivet computer, media, and communications network was created; the campus entrance was completed; and the Admissions Center was constructed.

In recent years, the Weber Center has been constructed, two parcels of land south of the Admissions Center have been purchased, Larsen Fine Arts Center has been renovated, and significant improvements to the athletic fields have been completed.

In the summer of 2003, the University continued to upgrade and expand its facilities. Olivet purchased from Provena Healthcare the former Fortin Villa property of 25 acres of land along Main Street, just south and west of the main campus.

On the main campus, in Birchard Gymnasium, the University turned the fitness center into a new varsity weight room, and the pool area into a new fitness center for students, faculty and staff. In Snowbarger Athletic Park, additional seating and a new press box were installed at Larry Watson Baseball Field; tennis courts were resurfaced and new nets and posts were installed; Ward Field was renovated to include a larger running track, a new entry building, fencing, refurbished bleachers, a new larger press box and an enhanced facade. Electric service was improved throughout Snowbarger Athletic Park.

In 2004, President Bowling introduced the theme "Promises to Keep" to students, faculty, churches and alumni. These "promises" included plans for a Centennial Chapel to seat about 3,000 for chapel and other events.

Information Technology expanded wireless access throughout the campus, including wired access to every classroom and residence hall room. In the academic realm, the radio station WONU-FM and broadcasting classes moved from the north wing of Benner Library to a former restaurant building next to the Admissions Center on Main Street. The Department of Communication and some art classes moved into the library space, including new television, graphic arts and photo studios. Campus athletic fields were improved with new sod, and lighting was added to Ward Field.

The School of Graduate and Continuing Studies established a Chicago Regional Center in Rolling Meadows, Illinois.

In 2005, North Central Association granted ONU continued accreditation for the maximum of ten years without conditions. A major reorganization of academic divisions, departments and schools was approved to begin in the fall semester.

The new plan includes the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Education, School of Professional Studies, School of Theology and Christian Ministry, and School of Graduate and Continuing Studies.

The top three floors of Burke Administration Building were remodeled for use by the Department of English and Modern Languages on the fourth floor, School of Theology and Christian Ministry on the third floor, and Institutional Advancement on the second floor. Offices for the academic vice president and the registrar are being expanded on the main floor. The Department of Mathematics joined the Career and Counseling Center on the ground floor.

The Bourbonnais offices for the School of Graduate and Continuing Studies moved to 21 Heritage Drive, north of the main campus. The former Fortin Villa property was readied for ROTC classes and intramural sports fields.

For three consecutive years, U.S. News and World Report selected Olivet Nazarene University as a Top-Tier University-Master's in its report, "America's Best Colleges."

In preparation for the fall 2006 semester, campus improvements continued to take place with major renovations in Williams Hall, Chapman Hall, Common Grounds coffee shop, first floor Burke, and the Decker Quadrangle. A new student hangout, Jazzman's, was added to Benner Library.

During the summer of 2007, the Hardy C. Powers President's House was renovated to house the Olivet Center for Student Success. A new residence for the president of Olivet was established at Reedy House on Olde Oak Drive. A major renovation of student housing was begun and new classrooms were established on the lower level of Burke Administration Building.

Improvement highlights for 2007–2008 included the expansion and remodeling of Ludwig Dining Hall, the remodeling of Benner Library and Resource Center, and the addition of a recreation center and additional parking to the Olde Oak Apartments.

In 2009, for the fourth consecutive year, the University was commended for the pursuit of excellence and ongoing Christian witness to the world by the Best Christian Workplaces Institute. Olivet Nazarene University qualified for certification as "A Best Christian Workplace" in the United States.

Construction has begun on the Hawkins Centennial Chapel and the Reedy Missionary House has been established.
