52 Killed As Airliner Strikes Egyptian Hill

Answers Sought In Arabian Deal

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower's decision to ship 18 tanks to Saudi Arabia after all left the State Department still confronting two tough questions today. The department must decide this week:

1. What to tell Israel? Ambassador Abba Eban served notice he would plead with increased insistence for approval of Israel's Nov. 16 request for 50 million dollars worth of U.S. arms. He likely will seek an appointment with Secretary of State Dulles, expected back Wednesday from a two-week Bahamas vacation.

2. What to tell Congress? Chairman George (D-Cal.) said the Senate Foreign Relations Committee wants an explanation of the tanks-for-Arabia deal from Dulles as soon as possible.

ISRAELI SET February sometime ago as "crash month" in its campaign for arms and security guaranty from the United States. A U.S.-British-French committee, aware of the March 1 deadline, is meeting again this week to search for a joint course of action to prevent Middle East war.

Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser refused obliquely to all deadline Sunday night. In a speech at Cairo as half a dozen Soviet-built jet fighters roared overhead, Nasser said Egypt should brace for a possible Israeli assault in the spring.

Ambassador Eban, in a television interview, said Israelis are "very much worried" with everything they have "lying in the shadow of an aerial preponderance possessed by the Egyptian dictator, 12 minutes flying time away."

Eban said a Middle East arms race already on, with Russia, the United States and Britain all supplying weapons to the Arab states. "The question," he said, "is whether it shall be a one-sided arms race leading us to disaster or an arms race from which Israel is able to reduce the disparity."

HE SAID the administration's agreement to ship 18 tanks bought by Saudi Arabia, its subsequent embargo on all arms shipments to the Middle East and, finally, its lifting of the embargo, only aggravated Israel's feeling of being at the mercy of the Arabs.

Eban said the $100,000 in ships to Israel freed when the U.S. embargo was lifted Saturday night had been made into a "spurious and artificial issue." He said it involves merely spare parts having no bearing on Israel's security.

"You might as well cut it cans of beer or lemonade," he said. The State Department has described as training vehicles the 18 M41 Walker Bulldog tanks or which Saudi Arabia reportedly had more than two million dollars. It said it had been decided their shipment, and that of some repair parts to Israel, would conform with the arms embargo.

First Robin? You Can't Be Sure Anymore

Time was when the "red, red robin" was looked upon as the most reliable harbinger of spring—much more accurate than the questionable groundhog and his dubious shadow.

But no more—at least not in the Kankakee area.

IN THE OLD DAYS the self-respecting robin left this cold climate sometime in late fall and didn't show his red breast again until the first sign of spring.

Nowadays the little creatures seem to follow no such pattern. Early each year the Journal receives many calls from people who have seen the first robin of the season. But this year such calls are so fast on their heels that it is hard to keep track.

For three instances of robins spending the entire winter here have been received by this newspaper. Two were reported in Kankakee, one in December and another in January.

And now from our Martin County correspondent comes word that one of the birds has been stalling around in the snow in that community.

WHY HAVE THEY stayed? Well, it might be for one of these reasons:

1. Our winters are less severe.
2. The three robins in this area are publicity hounds and mean to hog all the news space at the expense of their late-arriving brethren.
3. Costs of winter vacations in the South are too high.
4. Just early birds who want to be sure of getting the first worm of Spring.
5. Just too lazy to make the long trip, and no one offered them a ride.

41 Escape Injury In Crash Landing

CHICAGO (UP)—A four-motored Capitol Airlines Viscount plane in flight from Detroit with 41 persons aboard made a belly landing at Midway Airport today when the landing gear collapsed and the plane came in police report.

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (UP)—President Eisenhower today decided to prolong his vacation until Friday or Saturday.

White House Press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen decided to announce late Friday, after the stock markets close, whether he will seek a second term. The President has indicated he will disclose his political plans around March 1, possibly at a news conference.

IN RESPONSE to questions, Hagerty said he was assuming that Eisenhower's next news conference will be Feb. 29 in Washington. The press secretary declined to say, however, whether the President's answer to the big question would come at that time.

The press secretary said Eisenhower had decided to prolong his stay a few days because he is getting a lot of good, from a health standpoint, from his vacation. Also Hagerty said, Eisenhower has no Washington engagements which require his mid-week return.

There is an atmosphere of tension here as the time for the President's decision approaches. The tension is perhaps reflected to the greatest degree here among the 40-odd Washington newsmen who are with the President—all somewhat uneasy any time they

Crash Occurs In Attempt To Land

CAIRO, Egypt (UP)—A French airliner on its way from Indochina to Paris dipped too low in approaching Cairo airport today, hit a desert sandhill, crashed and burned, killing 52 of 64 persons on board.

It was 12 hours after the crash before officials of the French airline were able to confirm and announce that 64 persons were aboard.

The officials said the four-engine DC8B carried 55 passengers and 9 crew members. Only 12 of the 64 survived—6 crew members and 6 passengers. Most of the survivors were in critical condition, though all but possibly one were expected to recover.

PILOT CAPT. Charles Bilet was among the survivors. He said his co-pilot was dragging the plane in low over the desert toward the international airport in pre-dawn darkness when "he became too low."

"When I realized he was flying too low it was too late to avert the crash," Captain Bilet said. The four-engine American-built DC8B of the French Airlines TAI (Transports Aeriens Intercontinentaux) banged belly first into a low desert hillock and burst into fire. The red lights were on warning us to fasten our seat belts," said a French army officer who survived. "I was struggling to get mine fastened when there came a terrible crash."

Airline officials here spent nine hours sorting out varying reports of the number aboard the plane before announcing the final count was 61, including 52 passengers and 9 crewmen. Many of the passengers were children. Most were French. The airline at Karachi, the plane's last stop, had said 64 were aboard. But the Cairo officials believed this was based erroneously on the fact three others were looked to board in Cairo—where the plane never arrived.

THE FIGURE of 12 survivors was given by Andre Decamps, the French consul general. The disaster was the third major one to strike world aviation within three days. The death toll in the three crashes was at least 139.

Friday night 40 U.S. Marines were killed when a Marine Corps transport plane, military version of the DC4, smashed into a densely wooded ridge near the Oakland, Calif., naval air station, on the side of San Francisco Bay.

Saturday a British Royal transport plane carrying British troops home to England from the Suez Canal zone crashed on takeoff from Valletta, Malta, killing all 50 men aboard.

THE DEMOCRATIC Union is a coalition of seven parties which include the United Democratic Left-Wing (EDL), a camouflaged Communist group. A Democratic Union victory would give the Communists a foot in the door of the government and jeopardize Greece's relations with NATO.

Sources close to George Papandreu, 68, leader of the Democratic Union, said Army friends had tipped him that the minister of interior was holding back "bad" election results until early this morning to keep the streets deserted and quiet.

The sources said the friends also warned him that a military coup was all set if required to prevent the union from taking over.

Danville Gambler Settles Tax Claim

CHICAGO (UP)—A $132,773 federal government tax claim against Warren O. White, 44, former Danville, Ill., gambler, was settled today for $73,000.

White and his one-time handbook partner, Ralph H. Smith, 49, are currently serving four-year prison terms imposed for tax fraud Jan. 10, 1955 at Springfield, Ill., by U.S. Dist. Judge Charles G. Briggie. The settlement, covering taxes for 1945 through 1950 amounted to $47,000 in actual taxes and $26,000 in penalties, Solon said. White formerly owned the Lamplighter and Hob Nob bars at Danville.

Open Public Investigation Of Donation Probe Again

WASHINGTON (UP)—A special Senate committee headed by Sen. George (D-Ga.) suddenly called new public hearings today on a $2,500 campaign fund offered to Sen. Case (R-SD) during the Senate gas bill fight. George said the group had decided to expand the scope of its investigation.

After a morning closed-door meeting of the Committee, George announced it would reopen public hearings this afternoon.

George said Donald R. Ross, who resigned last week as U.S. district attorney for Nebraska, may be one of the witnesses. He gave no reason for the decision to call him.

George said the committee also will call back to the witness stand Howard B. Keck, president of the Superior Oil Co. of California, and Elmer Patman, a lawyer for the firm.

George said that in resuming the public hearings the committee had decided to look into "the general pattern" involved in the campaign fund.

REPORTERS asked whether this meant a search for evidence that other senators may have received offers similar to the one to Case. "In a general way," George replied.

In previous hearings, the committee developed that John M. Neff, of Lexington, Neb., a lawyer-period for Superior Oil, left $25,000 bills with friends of Case for the senator's campaign fund. Testimony was that Neff got the money from Patman who testified it came from Keck's personal funds.

It was brought out also that Ross introduced Neff to Nebraska's two Republican senators, Hruska and Curtis, to discuss the natural gas bill.

Ross is a former mayor of Lexington and longtime friend of Neff. Ross said in resigning as U.S. attorney that he had done nothing wrong but was concerned that his activities might bring "unwarranted criticism" of the Justice Department.

Subcommittee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the group asked Foreign Aid Chief John B. Hollister to attend today's hearing along with General Counsel Philip A. Ray of the Commerce Department and Mansfield D. Sprague of the Defense Department.

Brotherhood Week Feb. 19-25

Why Brotherhood Week?

Brotherhood Week was established by the National Conference of Christians and Jews in 1934. In each subsequent year the President of the United States annually proclaims the special week as a brief period during which we Americans should emphasize respect for each other's rights. That means Americans of all racial origins and creeds.

We have been asked some rather pointed questions about Brotherhood Week and we've tried to answer them. For example, here is the way the conversations usually run:

QUESTION: You say that Brotherhood Week is to reaffirm our respect for each other's rights. Who do you believe should observe the week?

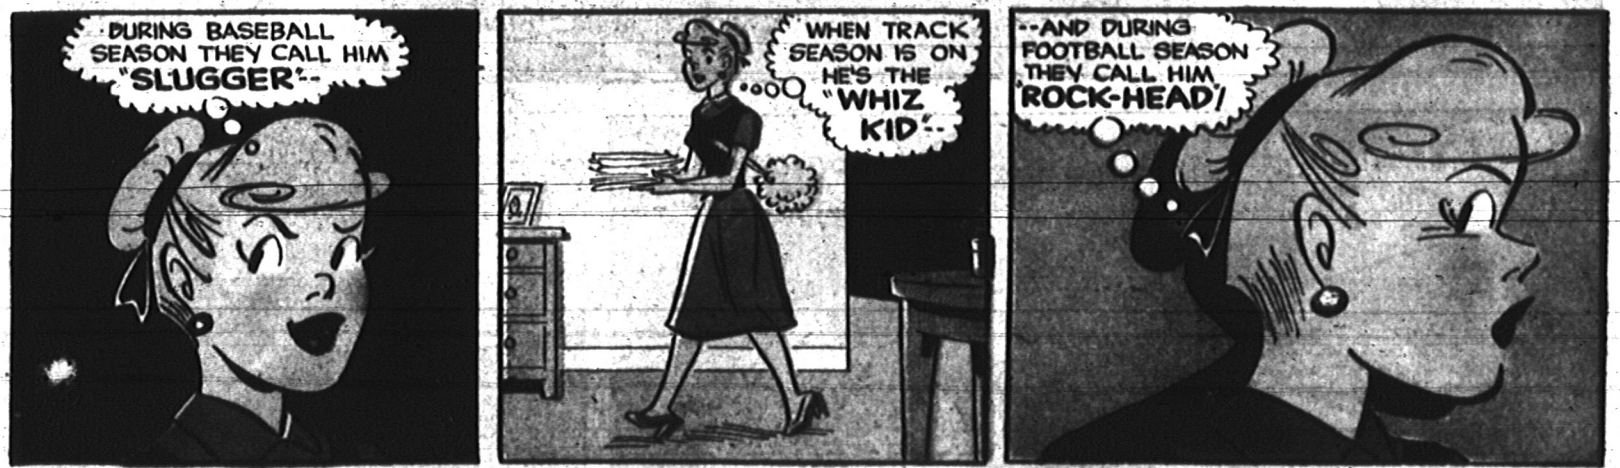

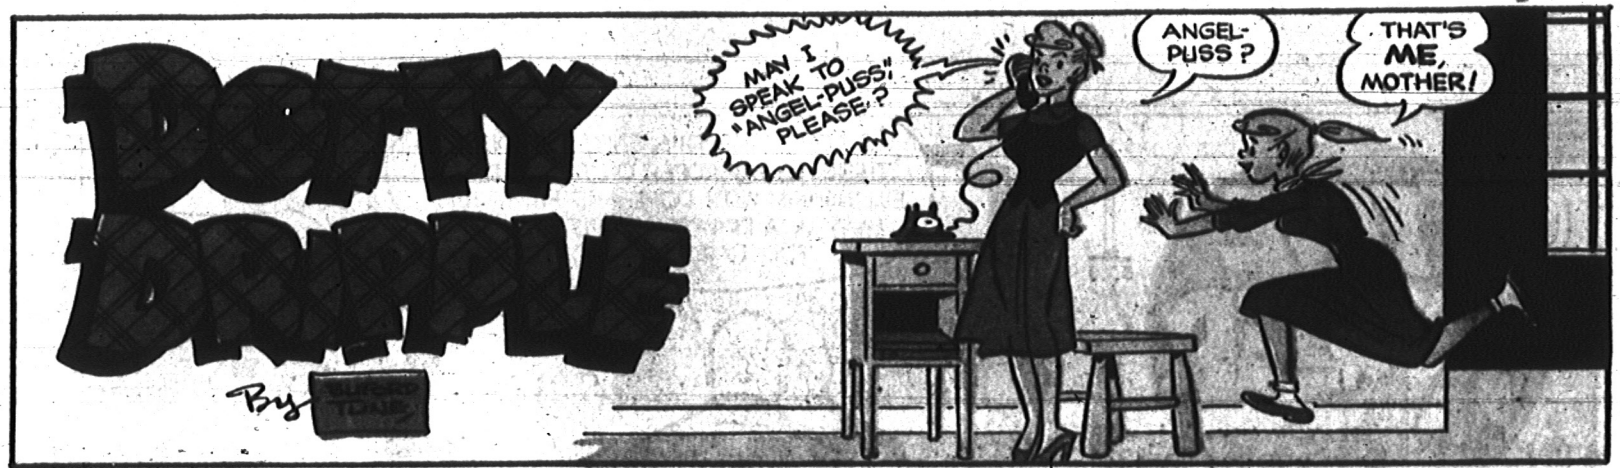

ANSWER: All of us.

Death Toll Nears 700

Europe Faced By Famine As Cold Wave Continues

LONDON (AP)—Dwindling food stocks brought fresh misery and the specter of famine to ice-stricken Europe today. Vegetable prices rocketed as spring crops rotted under a three-week pall of snow. The known death toll rose to 676 in the worst winter in living memory. The Seine River was frozen from bank to bank 25 miles south of Paris. The Thames was iced solid outside the "grey stone walls of Windsor Castle."

IN ROME, potato prices doubled to nine cents a pound. Olive oil hit an all-time high of 90 cents a quart. Electric fires sizzled over the North Sea as fresh Arctic blasts marked visibility to a few yards. Road patrols reported the dire conditions in Britain the worst ever and warned motorists "keep off the roads unless you absolutely must travel."

The death toll by country: France 150, Turkey 72, Italy 88, Yugoslavia 70, Britain 51, Denmark 33, Germany 32, Greece 30, Holland 33, Austria 21, Spain 19, Portugal 17, Switzerland 12, Belgium 13, Sweden 6, Poland 4, Norway 2.

Youth Fellowship Hear Talk On Holy Land Life

Members of the Kankakee Presbyterian Youth Fellowship were taken on a "trip" to Jerusalem Sunday night by Harry Dufan, Kankakee college student and former resident of Jerusalem.

Dufan, who spoke to the youths about life in the Holy Land, came to the United States three years ago with a twin brother. Up to that time he had spent his entire life in Jerusalem.

The youths, whose parents moved to Jerusalem from Turkey, explained that Jerusalem is divided into two parts—"old Jerusalem" which is controlled by the Arabs, and "new Jerusalem" which is controlled by the Jews.

"There is a tremendous difference between the two parts," he explained. "New Jerusalem has modern buildings, wide streets and is very progressive. Old Jerusalem is still living in much the manner as it always has."

The college discussed with the youths the fighting which has occurred between the Arabs and the Jews and gave his impression of what the future may hold for the area.

"The Jews have done a tremendous job in building up their section of Jerusalem," he explained. "It hasn't been easy for them and it especially was difficult during 1948, 1949 and 1950 when the population increased so rapidly. In Jerusalem we looked upon the returns of the Jews to Israel as a prophecy in the Bible being fulfilled."

During the business meeting president Terry Chapman announced that John Westerhoff had been named vice president of the group to fill a vacancy. Devotional services were led by Gary Mander.

Don't Forget To Deduct Amount Paid In Gas Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—In figuring your federal income tax for 1955, you probably can deduct from your income the amount you paid in state gasoline taxes regardless of the state in which you live. But there are only three states in which the cigarette tax has been ruled deductible by the revenue service.

Adenauer Backer Ousted In Ruhr No Confidence Vote

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer suffered a sharp political defeat today. His party was ousted from power in the booming Ruhr Valley state of North Rhine-Westphalia.

One of Adenauer's top lieutenants, State Premier Karl Arnold, was voted from his job on a motion of nonconfidence by an unusual position of rightwing and leftist political parties in the bustling Ruhr.

Arnold, one of the founders of Adenauer's Christian Democratic Union, was replaced as Premier by a Socialist, Fritz Steinhoff.

The change in the government of North Rhine-Westphalia means that Adenauer's strength in the upper house of the West German Parliament will be sharply reduced. It may mean the Chancellor will be unable to carry out some of his plans for West German rearmament.

200 Volunteers Kept Costs Down

Town Of 400 Builds Own Hospital For $112,500

WINCHESTER, Kan. (AP)—It took three years and a lot of elbow grease but Winchester, a town of less than 400, is ready to dedicate its new 25-bed hospital Tuesday.

The cash outlay was only $112,500. That includes $31,000 worth of equipment.

The money was raised almost entirely in this plan-sited community 40 miles northwest of Kansas City and neighboring hamlets even closer. Winchester couldn't even well afford more.

BUT ITS people could, and did, pitch in to an extent which makes their triumph Jefferson County Memorial Hospital a remarkable do-it-yourself project.

Without the volunteer workers, Mrs. B. Keys said, the hospital would have cost twice as much, far beyond the community's reach.

Keys, 64, has a farm with 150 cattle to feed. As chairman of the Winchester Hospital Committee, he spent many hours of tough work on the building site.

"All the common labor was done by volunteers," he said. "We didn't build under a general contract. We had a lot of volunteers who helped with the wiring, plastering—as the money became available."

Farmers hauled supplies, mixed concrete, hammered nails, poured cement. Women drove trucks, hauled wheelbarrows. A preacher dug holes.

CONSTRUCTION began in April 1953. Subcontractors, ready mixes and similar expedients could have speeded completion.

But they would have increased costs. And 101-year-old Winchester, which has been dreaming of a hospital of its own for generations, was in no particular rush.

Volunteers work naturally fell off around harvest time.

"We never stopped, though," Keys said. "At times we had as many as 30 volunteers at the scene."

All told, Keys figures some 200 men and women donated their time and labor to the hospital.

"Until today, we were 25 miles from the nearest hospital," Keys said. "This will be a wonderful convenience for our people. And it may save a life sometime."

Nightmare Illness Claims 12th Victim

MANILA, P. I. (UP)—Medical authorities today reported "no progress" in attempts to track down the cause of the "nightmare" sickness which claimed its 12th victim Sunday.

The latest victim was Rodrigo C. Doles, principal of an agricultural school on Negros Island. Like the others, Doles appeared in excellent health and had eaten a heavy meal before going to bed.

The foundation reports on a case study of the experience of the Port of New York Authority which operates bridges, tunnels, and airports. The foundation reports that in 1949 the Port Authority began looking for an automatic system that would record, account for and audit tolls on its bridges and tunnels—some 35 million separate transactions a year. Cost and other considerations stymied it.

In 1954 THE Port Authority set up an Electronic Research Division. It found 35 employees qualified for the 12-hour examination, which eight passed. From oral interviews three were selected for work in the division.

Postponing for the time being its search for the machine to do the toll computation, economically, the Port Authority last year decided to lease a general-purpose electronic computer. It will be installed this fall. At first it will work on airport cost accounting and revenue accounting, other tolls. The machine is expected to do in two weeks what it took nine to do before. Later the machine may be put to ledger-keeping and financial statements, and possibly to payroll accounting.

The Foundation points to this long, slow and difficult-strewn experience in warning businessmen to expect planning problems.

Lutheran PTA Hears Talks On Polio

Dr. R. E. Gustafson was guest speaker at the meeting last Monday of the Lutheran Parent Teacher Association in Fellowship Hall.

His subject was poliomyelitis and the research that has been done on it. He said a vaccine was tried in 1930 that failed.

According to the speaker, Franklin Roosevelt was responsible for creating greater public interest in research on polio and in 1938 the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was formed.

He said it has been discovered that polio is caused by a virus which enters the body through the mouth and through the blood stream, then reaching the nerves and resulting in paralysis. Three types have been discovered that cause the crippling effects of the disease. A serum was necessary that contained immunization against all three. In 1953 gamma globulin was discovered but it gave immunization against only one of the three types and proved too costly to make.

A search for live virus was ended when it was discovered in the kidney cells of the monkey. In 1953 Dr. Jonas Salk, of the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, perfected a serum that contains immunization against all three viruses. This serum gives protection of 70 per cent against the first virus; 100 per cent against the second and 90 per cent against the third. Sixty live medical schools in the United States are using this serum. It costs $25 million dollars have been spent on the project.

Following the talk by Dr. Gustafson, Miss Esther Adams, a teacher, spoke on the art work done by the third, fifth and sixth grade pupils. The group's work was on display.

The parents of the third grade pupils were in charge with Mrs. Elmer Ramsey and Mrs. George Nofke as co-chairmen. Refreshments were served.

How A Baby Learns That First Word

By DOROTHY V. WHIFFLE, M.D. AP Newsleader

A baby makes his first sound at the moment of birth when he fills his lungs with air for the first time. For the next few weeks the cry and a few grunts and growls and scowls are the only sounds he makes. These sounds are hardly in the realm of speech.

When the baby is between one and two months old he begins to use his vocal apparatus to make voluntary sounds. The first are the deep guttural sounds which the baby makes on an out breath. For weeks your baby will practice this sound. You will see him lying in his bed waving his hands aimlessly about and hear him practice his voice. After an especially good "gug" he will smile to himself and wiggle all over with pleasure.

At the months pass he discovers he can modify the guttural sounds. He can add a first syllable by taking a breath just before he lets out his "gug"—then we get the adagio. Before long the learner to use his tongue, and later his lips to produce a vast array of different sounds. You will hear him, as he lies in his crib practicing over and over all the sounds he can make.

He isn't old enough yet to know that sounds can have a meaning. He just likes to use the muscles of his throat and make them do what he wants them to do. Some- times around the first birthday the idea that his sounds can be used to communicate with people slowly dawns on the baby. Then we find him using special sounds to really mean special things. He can control his face and tongue.

Following the talk by Dr. Gustafson, Miss Esther Adams, a teacher, spoke on the art work done by the third, fifth and sixth grade pupils. The group's work was on display.

The parents of the third grade pupils were in charge with Mrs. Elmer Ramsey and Mrs. George Nofke as co-chairmen. Refreshments were served.

See if you don't like your steak this way. Have the meat one inch thick and pleat it two inches from the source of heat. For rare steak, broil 15 to 20 minutes; for medium, 20 to 25 minutes; for well done, 25 to 30 minutes.

While preparing the meats, the high protein content gave me a full feeling—and I didn't want to nibble. Because of fluid retention, I do not salt any of my food—doctor's orders.

"I want to get my weight down this way. Have the meat one inch thick and pleat it two inches from the source of heat. For rare steak, broil 15 to 20 minutes; for medium, 20 to 25 minutes; for well done, 25 to 30 minutes.

"I feel so good I would like to shout about it from the house tops. I do not get tired and my nerve are so much better. Best of all, the pain has gone. I am the type of person who will always have to feel better, look better, and now I'm having fun. I'm 5 feet 6 inches, and according to my build, I believe I can weigh 145. Is that correct? I still have a long way to go, but thanks to your inspiration and information, I have come a long way too."

Congratulations that you had the strength to reduce now while you are still young... this will make all the years ahead more fun. Your normal weight is between 140 and 145. Be content to lose a little more slowly now, and while into shape-ups to tell the pounds where to get off. With your buoyant spirit, you'll reach your goal.

From Michigan comes a resounding success story of restored health. "At 30 I am a very happy woman, 5 feet 3 inches tall and weigh 132 pounds. Six months ago, my weight was 185. I had pain around my heart night and day, and I felt so bad I wanted to die. Today I feel like a new person.

"You might be interested to know that unflavored gelatin was a great help to me. Out of habit, I used to eat more while getting a meal than I did after I sat down to the table. So, before getting started in the kitchen, I would put a glass of unflavored fruit juice overnight to make up her mind and stir it well. I would drink this to follow suit.

The Worry Clinic Ideas To Entertain Restless Children

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
Jimmy B., aged 9, is a bundle of atomic energy, to judge from his father's restless below.

"Dr. Crane, Jimmy never seems to sit still for more than a minute." "He is restless and always on the lookout for something to do. Much of the time he gets into mischief."

"And when we go to visit his grandparents, it takes about three hours via automobile. He is fit to be tied after the first 30 minutes of the journey. He quarrels with our two younger children and gets me irritable. I have found that 'Furthermore, when we arrive, and he is with his cousins, they usually want to play in the house at the very time when the women folks are busy and would prefer to have them romp outdoors.'"

"I'm not very talented as a father, for I get irate and yell at them a lot of the time. But what else can I do to make the kids behave?"

KEEP A BUNDLE of tricks under your hat, for use in such emergencies. By that, I mean sprout some clever idea that will hold the attention of children for possibly 15 to 30 minutes.

For example, I have found that a "penney hunt" is usually good for half an hour when a large crowd

Molotov Also Raps Stalin's One-Man Rule

MOSCOW (UP)—Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, one of the last of the "old Bolsheviks," joined in the mounting chorus of criticism of the one-man rule of the late Josef Stalin, the Russian people learned today.

Molotov, one of the few remaining original followers of Stalin. He has been foreign minister of the Soviet Union since 1939 except for a brief period after World War II.

Molotov's criticisms were delivered before the 20th Communist Party Congress Saturday. The text of his remarks was printed in the official party newspaper today.

THE POLICY STRATEGY against the "cult of the individual" was stressed by Party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev in his opening address Tuesday.

"We do not need a god, czar or miracle-working hero," Khrushchev told the assembled chiefs of Soviet and world communism. The theme has been echoed by succeeding speakers.

Molotov told the congress that the Central Committee of the Communist Party will support the principles of collective leadership against the "cult of the individual."

The organ also published the text of Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov's address to the congress Saturday in which he hinted that the Soviet Union may have ocean-spanning rockets that can drop a hydrogen bomb or atomic bomb on the United States.

Catholic Lawmakers Plan To Defy Louisiana Archbishop's Letter

NEW ORLEANS (UP)—A group of Catholic lawmakers proceeded with plans to prevent integration of Louisiana Catholic schools, despite a pastoral letter from Archbishop Joseph Rummel condemning segregation as "morally wrong and sinful."

The six-page letter was read at all Masses in the 120 churches throughout the archdiocese of New Orleans and clearly indicated the archbishop intends to end segregation in church and school facilities as soon as a special committee completes a study.

The archbishop gave no hint when that would be, but church spokesmen previously have used the target date of "sometime after September 1955."

Rep. E. W. Gravolet Jr. of Plaquemine Parish said the pastoral letter would have no effect on his group's plans to restore parochial schools to Louisiana's 1954 school segregation laws when the Legislature meets in May.

THE STATE's segregation laws were declared unconstitutional last Wednesday by a three-judge federal appeals court which ordered New Orleans public schools to begin carrying out the 1954 U.S. Supreme Court decision banning school segregation.

"We're going to appeal that decision," said Gravolet in behalf of other Catholic lawmakers supporting his proposed bill to head off parochial school integration. "If the appeal fails then we'll come up with some new segregation laws. Catholic schools definitely at the insistence of Archbishop Rummel.

New Orleans is one of the few cities in the country where more children attend parochial than public schools. The city's parochial school system is the state's largest single school unit.

Test Of One-Way Streets Proposed

Four streets in Kankakee's downtown district may become one-way routes as the result of a recommendation made at the city council meeting Monday night. The proposal involves two blocks each of Merchant street, Dearborn avenue, Oak street and East avenue.

Council Denies Rezoning To E. Court Street

Upholds City Plan Commission Ruling In 1500 Block

Kankakee City Council upheld a recommendation of the city plan commission to deny the rezoning of the 1500 block on the south side of E. Court street Monday night.

The commission had considered a petition that the block be rezoned from its present classification of "D" multiple family dwelling, to "E" local business. In its report to the council the commission pointed out that a similar petition was considered and denied in December 1954. It stated that there had been no material changes in the area to cause it to change its original recommendation and that the addition of E. Junior High School and the completion of Trinity Lutheran Church weighed against the rezoning of the 1500 block from a dwelling zone to business zone.

The motion to concur in the recommendation of the commission was made by Wayne Cunningham (R-4) and was seconded by Harry Shaffer (R-2).

A resolution approving the fifth addition to Marycrest subdivision was referred to the street and alley committee and City Attorney Victor Cardol after the plat had been submitted by the plan commission. Weldon Wadleigh (R-7) said that since aldermen had adopted a more cautious attitude in the acceptance of plats and since it was urged that two streets in the addition were not completed, that the rezoning be delayed for further study. His motion was seconded by Maurice C. Deneau (D-7).

ALDERMEN APPROVED recommendations of the board of local improvements and accompanying ordinances for two special assessment projects. One was for the installation of curbs and gutters on Duane street, from Prospect avenue to Justice drive and the other was for the same improvement on Willow street from Schuyler avenue to Indiana avenue. They were approved on motions by Cunningham, Henry Wulfe (R-4) and Leo Klonowski (D-1).

Also approved were ordinances which amended the West Junior High School property to the city and one which provided a service charge for breaking curbing and the installation of driveways. The latter is part of a change in city regulations governing the installation of driveways into service stations.

Mayor Ed P. Madison was empowered to enter into a contract with George and Viola Gruber for Continued on Page 6, Column 1

May Use Force To Get Facts On Trade Curbs

Fear Public Report Would Violate Pact With Western Allies

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Investigations subcommittee considers today whether to try to force federal officials to disclose some details of the easing of East-West trade curbs.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) told the group Monday a contempt of Congress citation "should be voted" if Secretary of Commerce Weeks does not produce some requested documents, "and the case should go to the grand jury."

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) in a stormy exchange with Philip A. Ray, Commerce Department general counsel, hinted he also might have in mind a test of executive agencies' right to withhold subpoenaed material.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE is exploring this country's part in a 1954 agreement to end some embargos and ease other restrictions on free world sales of goods to Russia.

At the time, the then foreign aid director, Harold E. Stassen, said the net result would be of advantage to the free world. McClellan, however, contends Russia's "war machine" has been strengthened by free world shipments behind the Iron Curtain.

In a letter delivered to the subcommittee, Herbert Hoover Jr., undersecretary of state, refusing to open certain documents McClellan says should show who in Washington recommended that this country agree to the relaxation.

HOOPER SAID he spoke for the Departments of State, Commerce and Defense, and the International Cooperation Administration, which administers foreign aid.

Hoover agreed to provide at public hearings a list of items struck from Continued on Page 6, Column 2

$350,000 LOSS IN LANG GARAGE FIRE

Shops Destroyed In Night Blaze

Smoking ruins of a group of buildings in the 400 block of N. Harrison avenue were examined today for the origin of a blaze which caused an estimated $300,000 to $350,000 damage Monday night. Firemen from five departments fought the flames, which lighted up the night sky over Kankakee and caused explosions heard throughout the city.

Destroyed were a group of four connected buildings at 410 to 430 N. Harrison Ave. owned by the Paul Lang Motor Sales firm. The gutted structures housed a body shop, an auto parts jobbing distributorship, a machine shop and a finance office.

Jerry Corcoran of 512 N. Blaine Ave., Bradley, a salesman for the Lang firm, first noticed smoke coming out of the buildings at 8 p.m. and the fire department was immediately notified.

"Acting Fire Chief James P. Marrell said the blaze apparently started in the rear of the machine shop, spread to a paint shop and worked north and south. The flames were fanned by a wind estimated at 20 miles per hour.

MARRELL SAID that the wind at one point shifted toward the east, blowing the flames and burning embers onto the Lang auto showroom located across the street. Large plate glass windows in the showroom were cracked by the heat and some damage was done to the roof. Marrell said he would continue to investigate today to discover the cause of the blaze. He said the damage estimate of $300,000 to $350,000 is not definite and that it would probably cost more to rebuild the buildings and buy all new merchandise.

Roy Lang, manager of the firm, described it as a "total loss." He said that nothing was saved from the burning buildings. Among the destroyed items were 18 autos in the body shop, some of them customer cars and some owned by the company. Two trucks were also destroyed.

Lang pointed out that the loss will include many thousands of dollars in parts of the Lang firm's jobbing distributorship for dealers within a 50-mile radius of Kankakee.

ALSO LOST IN THE blaze was 300 feet of fire hose which was burned by the terrific heat. Besides contending with the wind, the firemen worked in temperatures which dipped to 17 during the night. Besides the Kankakee department, fire fighters were present from Bourbonnais, Bradley, West Kankakee and Manteno.

The Kankakee department's equipment was at the scene until 8:30 a.m. today, and three firemen were stationed at the structure after the equipment left. The rest of the fire fighters began the chore of cleaning up and straightening out equipment at the station. Marrell said that every available fire fighter, including off-duty men, was called to the scene.

Four firemen suffered injuries. Perry Chamness of the Bradley department was overcome by smoke and was kept overnight at St. Mary's Hospital. Marrell was hurt, not seriously, when a steel bar fell on his foot while he and Bourbonnais Chief Armand Lecuyer were directing fire fighting.

Two Kankakee firemen, Sam Sarakine and Tom Patti, suffered minor injuries who they were knocked to the street by one of the explosions.

THE EXPLOSIONS which erupted periodically during the fire were caused by containers of antifreeze and automotive paint. A 3,000-gallon gasoline tank under a gas pump at the front of the buildings did not explode.

Marrell said that all electricity in the area was out until Public Service Co. crews arrived to repair damage. The police and fire department radio system was out Continued on Page 6, Column 2

Extend Probe Into Use Of 'Oil Money'

WASHINGTON (UP)—A special committee probed further today into the use of "oil money" for political contributions while the Senate edged toward a broad investigation of campaign donations, lobbying and legislative influence.

The special committee looking into the use of "oil money" was set up during the natural gas bill debate called Joseph W. East, Nebraska state Republican finance chairman, for questioning about a like contribution from John M. Neff, lawyer-lobbyist for the Superior Oil Co. of California. It was Neff, an attorney from Lexington, Neb., who made the offer to Casper's campaign.

BY THE SENATE committee and a federal grand jury are looking into the contribution of the Nebraska GOP committee as part of an investigation of the proffered $250,000 donation to Casper.

Neff has insisted no strings were attached. Testimony has been the money came from the personal funds of Howard B. Keck, president of Superior Oil. In voting against the natural gas bill, Casper said he was not involved.

He also underscored the new concept previously laid down by the current meeting of Communist Party leaders here that various countries can go through the transition to communism by peaceful means, sometimes through parliamentary action.

He coupled his call for communism-through-peace with a declaration that the Soviet Union is ahead of all countries in the world in developing atomic energy for peaceful uses.

In a four-hour speech to the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party, Bulganin echoed the theme laid down by Khrushchev last week in his keynote address to the gathering of Soviet and world Communist leaders.

Three Admit Part In Chicago Gang Fight

CHICAGO (UP)—Three members of a teen-age gang were seized by police today and admitted taking part in the assault and stabbing of two young men Monday night in a North Side sandwich shop.

Detectives who arrested the three youths and are searching for one other member of the gang, said one of the trio admitted striking Walter Muller, 21, and Roland Wood, 20.

They also admitted, the detectives said, that they were "just looking for a fight" when they went into a sandwich shop.

The detectives said William Jansuch, 19, reportedly expelled last November from the University of Illinois for absence and insubordination, admitted stabbing Muller with a knife.

He was seized with Muller's brother, Roy, 17.

They told police one of the gang, slugged a door in Roy Muller's face, that an argument ensued and that the elder Muller and Wood were stabbed by one of the youths who flashed a pocket knife. The gang fled.

He also contended that he drew his knife in self-defense after Muller threw a punch at him. Muller denied this, saying he was "just looking for a fight" when they went into a sandwich shop.
