Delay Third Shot Until All Children Get First Two Polio Vaccinations

Ike, 19,000 Kids Enjoyed Easter Party

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower had an unusual musical waiting in his office today and his back lawn was its usual sedate self. The annual White House Easter egg roll was over.

Even before the last of an estimated 19,000 youngsters and parents were ushered out of the White House gates at 4:30 p.m. EST Monday, cleanup crews were hard at work ridding the south lawn of egg shells, lunch bags, newspapers, candy wrappers and what not they left in their wake.

A crew of 50, armed with rakes and brooms, handled the cleanup. A street cleaner truck riddled the hundreds of eggs smashed into the paved drives. That required several runnings with the water on full blast.

BUT IF THE annual frolic meant work to some, it meant fun to the kids, babies-in-arm up, from the minute the gates opened up at 9 a.m. EST, Monday morning.

President Eisenhower obviously enjoyed it, too, when he and Mrs. Eisenhower stepped out of the White House to welcome the egg rollers. As he moved along a protective fence, jammed close with kids and their relatives, he swapped eggs back and forth with the kids, patted babies on the cheeks, waved smilingly for camera photographers to adjust their cameras, and ended up with a fancy Easter basket of his own.

(Editor's Note: It is a year since Salk polio vaccine was made available for widespread use among children. Now another polio season is coming up. Millions of parents are asking whether their children need booster shots, whether they are protected by only one or two injections. To get the answers, the United Press went to the man who probably speaks with more authority than any other, Dr. Jonas E. Salk himself.)

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Dr. Jonas E. Salk is strongly against giving third polio shots to any children this year while supplies are short. He said two injections will protect most children during the coming polio season. Third shots, recommended for the long run, are to be delayed to make vaccine available to children who need it most.

Illinois Square Dancers To Meet Here On May 5

The East Junior High School gymnasium will be filled with swirling, gayly costumed dancers on May 5 when the Illinois Federation of Square Dance Clubs holds a state-wide session here.

Over 1,000 dancers from over 100 clubs throughout the state are expected to attend. Starting at 2 p.m. on May 5 a clinic will be conducted on folk and square dancing. In the evening dancing will start at 8 o'clock and continue until midnight with many exhibitions.

Frank Sullivan is program chairman. Sullivan said that in addition to the square dancing there will be specialized exhibition numbers including a quadrille and contra dance group from LaGrange and the Metropolitan Folk Dancers of Greater St. Louis, directed by Lucian Ziemba. Both the traditional dances and new ones will be presented.

Sullivan said there will be 30 tables.

An "after glow" will be held on the afternoon of May 6 at Bradley Villa Hall with an entire new program scheduled. A similar gathering was held in Kankakee in 1954.

children expect this year if they have received only one or two shots? Salk, who speaks with more authority on this subject than perhaps any other man, provided this guide:

ONE SHOT: Between 60 and 100 per cent of the children who get one dose receive protection against paralytic polio. This dose sensitizes the body's defensive mechanism so that it reacts quickly and powerfully if polio virus threaten to invade the central nervous system. Since the first shot does not produce an immune response in all children, however, a second shot is recommended.

TWO SHOTS: Between 95 and 100 per cent of the children who receive two shots can expect protection. This is particularly true if the second shot is given at least two and preferably four, six or even more weeks after the first.

THREE SHOTS: Indications are that between 95 and 100 per cent of the children who receive three shots are protected. In addition, the level of their immunity appears to be equal to—and in some cases greater than—the immunity found in recovered polio victims.

The great remaining question is how long this vaccine-induced immunity will last. Will booster shots be needed every year? Or will a few doses provide long-range protection as in the case of smallpox and diphtheria?

Salk now is devoting much of his time and considerable energy to this problem.

He is running tests on thousands of children who have received the vaccine since that historic day in 1955 when he gave his first human injections in the D. T. Watson

Home for Crippled Children near here. He also is doing extensive animal experiments.

"We still haven't got the final answer on the need for booster doses," Salk said. "But all the evidence so far indicates that the effect of the vaccine declines very slowly."

"Our studies have progressed to the point here we will be able to advise everyone well in advance if it becomes apparent that more than three doses will be needed. A fourth dose at this time would be a waste of vaccine."

Kankakee Town Meeting Urges Health Department

(Editor's Note: Town meetings and budget hearings were held in all Illinois townships Tuesday. This news article and various others in today's Journal describe the proceedings at the meetings held in the Kankakee area.)

Again urging formation of a county health department, the Kankakee town meeting Tuesday adopted township health regulations as a temporary measure until county health regulations can be established.

The 18 electors at the meeting adopted a budget that included $1,000 for enforcement of the health standards.

The health code and an ordinance regulating house trailers also adopted Tuesday are patterned after the city of Kankakee's, according to Victor X. Cardosi, attorney for the town board.

They apply to areas in Kankakee Township outside the city limits. The action was taken on recommendation of Town Clerk Thomas R. Houde, who also is township health officer.

The rules empower the township to order abatement of public health hazards.

THE SUPERVISOR is designated as a board of health and the township clerk called for the township health officer.

A fine of $3 to $25 is provided for refusing to abate a health nuisance or obstructing the health officer.

Licensing of trailer camps would be left to the state, Cardosi reported.

The meeting again adopted a recommendation of Houde, the health officer, that the county board of supervisors be urged to form a county health department.

Cardosi, an assistant supervisor, said county health standards are being studied by the county board.

The financial report of Supervisor Mark Conway showed the township government has been operating on an economical basis while still providing for the needy through the general assistance fund.

Conway announced that for the fourth straight year no tax levy will be needed in the general assistance fund. There is a balance of about $76,500, and expenditures last year were $12,997.

THE BALANCE of more than $8,500 in the town fund is the largest in eight years, according to Houde, the town clerk.

This permitted a reduction in the town fund levy for the first time recently. The meeting adopted a levy of $29,000, a drop of $7,755 from last year's $36,755.

No War Unless Congress Okays It, Ike Says

A series of tornadoes and destructive windstorms struck with unabated fury across 10 states in the mid-continent Tuesday, killing at least 35 persons and injuring more than 300 others.

The violent spring storms, battering areas from the Midwest prairie lands southward into Mississippi, came in the wake of tornado winds which raked the Southwest earlier Tuesday and Monday night.

The casualty toll in the two days was at least 45 dead and more than 225 injured. Property damage was estimated in the millions of dollars.

Western Michigan, in the Grand Rapids district, suffered the heaviest death and injury toll. Latest reports showed at least 18 dead, 14 identified and 4 unidentified. More than 200 were injured. A dozen twisters hammered the area, destroying scores of homes. Some 2,000 were reported homeless.

Eight were killed and more than 50 injured in two Wisconsin communities. Also in the path of the storm for fresh destruction.

THE U. S. PLAN differs significantly from an earlier Russian proposal in that it would set up a "stopping block" to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons and production as well as limitations on conventional armaments. The Soviet plan, offered last week, dealt only with conventional weapons.

This was a reversal of previous Russian demands that nuclear weapons must be banned as a first step to planning disarmament.

The U.S. plan also would limit military forces of America and the Soviets to 2½ million men each, while the Russian proposal would restrict them to 1½ million.

A spokesman said the United States regards its plan as workable in the world now as we live in "a world divided and torn by tensions in many areas. He termed the draft an informal framework which can be revised.

Under the U.S. plan, the nuclear phase of disarmament would not be started until reduction of conventional armaments.

ROOSEVELT, youngest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Tuesday night called for the election of a "Republican president and Congress this year, and the election of a Republican governor in New York state in 1958."

Roosevelt appeared as a guest speaker representing the Citizens for Eisenhower Committee at a dinner of the Dutchess County Republican Committee. He supported Eisenhower in the 1952 presidential campaign.

Roosevelt warned the President and the Republican party against "complacency in the coming campaign." He also said Richard Nixon was his "personal choice" for vice president.

FDR's Son Calls For Relection Of Ike, GOP Congress

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (UP)—John Roosevelt, youngest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Tuesday night called for the election of a "Republican president and Congress this year, and the election of a Republican governor in New York state in 1958."

Roosevelt appeared as a guest speaker representing the Citizens for Eisenhower Committee at a dinner of the Dutchess County Republican Committee. He supported Eisenhower in the 1952 presidential campaign.

Winds Whip Dust Storm In Area

Tons of Kankakee area farm land, whipped by winds of 40 to 50 m.p.h. literally got into every crevice of the town.

Reported as one of the worst local dust storms in years, the billowing dirt obscured visibility on highways and robbed farmers of precious top soil.

There was no relief from the dust and winds from mid morning until about 4:30 p.m. when rain fell on most of the county.

The dust was swept off of fall plowed fields and uncovered light sandy areas. Farm fields with minimum cover, such as winter wheat or last year's corn stalks and soybean stubble, escaped the strong winds.

Fields plowed north and south were hit the worst. Many farmers attempted to strip their plowed fields with a disk, but most gave up.

Jack Paschke, soil scientist with the Soil Conservation Service area office in Kankakee, said about every open field took a beating Tuesday.

BESIDES THE strong winds, lack of soil moisture was a factor for the huge amounts of dust in the air. Paschke pointed out that this area has been an extremely dry spring.

"It's not uncommon to see the light sandy soil blow, but when the heavy black soil on the west prairie is blown, the dust is very dry, the ground must be very dry," he said.

Alphonse Bourgeois, St. Anne farmer, said he remembers dust storms of longer duration in the area of the country. But Richard Grob, Redick farmer, said Tuesday's dust was the worst he had seen.

None of the blazes caused any major damage. They were quickly smothered.

Guards said apparently none of the nearly 7,000 visitors who filed through the White House were aware of any disturbance.

Hagerty and Secret Service Chief U. S. Baughman described the woman as "not quite lucid." They said she had been sent to a hospital for observation. The woman identified herself as Mrs. Julia M. Chase, 51, born in Hagerstown, Md. They said she admitted setting the fire and attempted to start two more.

The White House fire was set in the second floor room, traditionally used by the president's wife for receiving guests and for private entertainments.

Warren Wright Speaks At Meeting In Kankakee

Warren E. Wright, one of the five candidates for the Republican nomination for governor, spoke at a meeting here Tuesday night.

Wright said he was not disappointed at a turnout that numbered about 30 persons, and listed "some of the reasons why I am a candidate for governor and why I expect to win." Wright is the present state treasurer, an office he previously held in 1941-42.

He said he is proud of the fact he is a former state employee "who came up through the ranks."

William Kiley, Chicago attorney who introduced Wright, said he filed a petition earlier Tuesday asking a Supreme Court rehearing on the Illinois toll road bond issue. Wright has sought court action against issuance of the bonds.

Raymond Schild, state past president of the VW, also addressed the meeting briefly. Richard Palinski of Kankakee presided.

Wilmington Will Eliminate $25 Tobacco License

WILMINGTON (JNS)—The city council voted Tuesday night to eliminate the tobacco license of $25 starting May 1.

Retailers were required to purchase the license from the city before engaging in the sale of tobacco items.

The decision came in view of the fact the city now imposes a half cent sales tax.

Councilmen also discussed the possibility of eliminating the law requiring Wilmington residents to purchase motor vehicle stickers at a cost of $5 for cars and $5 for trucks.

Rep. Arends To Address GOP Here Tonight

U.S. Congressman Leslie C. Arends will be a speaker before an open Republican meeting of Fourth Ward men voters at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Jellison & McBroome building, 529 Main St.

The congressman arrived in Illinois late Tuesday by plane from Washington and attended several meetings in Danville today before departing for Kankakee. Due to a delay in his flight from Washington, he arrived in Kankakee too late Tuesday afternoon to make a scheduled talk before Fourth Ward women voters. Tonight's meeting will be the congressman's only scheduled appearance in Kankakee prior to the primary election next Tuesday, which he is a candidate.

A new bio-chemical department has been set up at the Armour Laboratories and G. F. Smithkamp has been named general sales manager of the new department, according to an announcement today from Edgar L. Patch, general manager of the pharmaceutical plant.

Smithkamp has been purchasing manager at the laboratories for the past five years. J. H. Walker, former bulk sales manager, has been named sales manager of the new department.

Patch announced that the bio-chemical department will offer a complete sales and technical service in the fields of formulation, process engineering and product developments.

The department, he said, will supply, either in bulk or unlabeled final containers, various liver fractions, tyrosin, cholesterol, pituitary derivatives and other products made at the Kankakee plant.

Kankakee Mayor Ed P. Madison is a member of a committee of "Mayors for Gov. William G. Stratton," announced today by Mayor Paul C. Johnson of Moline, Ill., past president of the Illinois Municipal League.

In announcing formation of the committee, Johnson said:

"Gov. Stratton, by his action in allowing greater home rule for all cities and municipalities in the state, has endeavored himself to those of us who are familiar with the many problems affecting our communities."

"The fact that Gov. Stratton is the first governor to do something about the perplexing problems faced by all of our cities proves that he is one man who deserves the support of our municipal officials everywhere in Illinois," Johnson said.

The committee is comprised of 57 mayors from throughout Illinois. In addition to Mayor Johnson, the committee endorses Gov. Stratton. It includes three others who are past presidents of the Illinois Municipal League: William V. Stohr, mayor of Dixon, A. E. Turngren of Harvey and Ernest L. Hoagland of Jacksonville.

May Still Enter Tennis Tourney

Registration is still open for the Catholic Youth Organization grade school boys' table tennis tournament.

Don Betourne, director, announced 30 boys already have registered and tourney play will get under way later this week. Registrants, he said, include not only CYO members who attend the center regularly, but members whose residence permits less frequent visits.

Some of the proven players have been seeded, making the tourney a wide open contest according to Betourne. There are no early favorites, he added.

The tournament is open to all grade school boys members of the CYO. Tourney players will be given preference in the use of ping pong facilities and tournament play will be at times mutually set by contestants.

Preliminary plans and registration are under way for the grade school and high school girls' ping pong tournament, Betourne said.

Kankakee Building Permits Show Upswing

The issuance of building permits in Kankakee during March boomed to a new high for the month, a check of the records of Building Inspector Richard Tyson revealed today.

Tyson issued 32 permits during the month with a total valuation of $407,591.

Home building was the major factor in the increase with 21 of the permits issued for new homes with a combined valuation of $237,000. Ten of the home permits were for new detached single-family dwellings with a combined valuation of $108,500.

For a comparison of building permits issued during March of this year Tyson noted that the value of permits issued in March 1955, 1954 and 1953.

In 1955 there were 43 permits issued with a total valuation of $176,327. In March 1954 there were 32 permits with a valuation of $286,500 and in 1953 there were 40 permits which carried a valuation of $108,579.

Gray Sets Lions Club Right On Civil War History

Gen. Grant did not capture Richmond, Va., during the Civil War, said a young lieutenant colonel named Godfrey Weitzel, Donald Gray told members of the Lions Club Tuesday.

The study of the Civil War is a hobby with Gray, a Kankakee attorney. He said the lieutenant colonel said stage to Richmond but it was actually Weitzel who went into the city and took possession of it.

Gray said that the Confederate generals and military leaders were more brilliant than the Union leaders. He said Lincoln showed poor judgment in his selection of military leaders in the early phases of the Civil War and it was not until later in the war that the Union forces had adequate military leadership.

Approximately four million slaves were freed by the emancipation proclamation, Gray said. He added that in many instances the plight of the slaves was worse after they received their freedom because they had no personal belongings and no way to make a living. Gray said that even today many colored people live in the South under worse conditions than their ancestors did under slavery.

Cadillac

A Little Vacation In Every Day!

What's it like to take the wheel of a 1956 Cadillac?

If you don't already know, then we hope you'll come with us now on a little imaginary journey in the "car of cars". Suppose, if you will, that you're in the driver's seat.

How wonderful you feel. Those deep, luxurious cushions hold you in perfect comfort—your hands rest naturally on the slender wheel—and all about you are vision... and beauty... and luxury.

It's an inspiration just to watch the miles go by.

And how quiet and restful it is! The car is so smooth and silent that your only sense of motion comes from the sound of the wind and from the passing landscape.

Driving? Well, what could be more relaxing! Starting... stopping... turning—all are regulated with the lightest touch of toe and hand. You simply lean back and enjoy the ride... and the car does all the rest.

We've heard it said that a drive in a new Cadillac isn't really a drive at all; in the normal sense of the word. It's a time for rest and pleasure and relaxation.

As one of our friends put it—"It's like having a little vacation every day!"

Better come in for a visit some day soon. If you should decide to move up to a Cadillac, it will be our purpose to make you as pleased with your relationship with us, as your dealer, as you are certain to be with the car itself.

The Cadillac name has long been a symbol of automotive integrity and honesty of purpose—and we make every effort to have our own business reflect the same ideals in our dealings with owners.

Piling one perfect glass of beer atop another is the only way we know to make friends

Did you ever see anyone taste a glass of beer and then jump up and down for joy at its perfection? We never have either...not in all our one hundred and five years of brewing Blatz.

The enjoyment of beer is a calm and friendly pleasure. And folks who like Blatz are never taking this pleasant perfection for granted. That's fine with us. You should take perfection for granted when you ask for Blatz. You know that every glass of Blatz has more of everything—more life, more flavor, more fun. More of everything...but water. Try it. Tonight?

Town Fund, Assistance Budgets Cut At Manteno Town Meeting

MANTENO—Manteno's Town Meeting Tuesday revealed reduced budgets and termination of indebtedness in sight.

Eight residents, including the moderator, A. J. McNeil; town clerk, Orell Simeur; and Township Supervisor, Eugene A. Smith, attended—no objections and little comment were offered in the 1½-hour session. All issues were approved by unanimous vote.

Reduced were the Town Fund Budget, to $3,400 compared to the $3,500 levied for the fiscal year of 1955-56, and General Assistance Budget (welfare), cut to $700 compared to $1,000 levied in the previous fiscal year.

Budgets were approved as offered by Supervisor Smith for the fiscal year beginning March 27, 1956 and ending March 25, 1957. Moderator McNeil reported a balance on hand in the general fund of $2,031.12 after subtracting $3,428 expenditures from $5,660.12, the total receipts and balance on hand from the previous year.

ROAD AND BRIDGE fund balance was reported at $5,000.42, with $1,200 unpaid accounts. Receipts in the fund amounted to $11,178.52 and expenditures, $11,178.10.

In the special road and bridge fund account, according to Smith's report, there is a balance of $870.65. Total receipts for the past fiscal year were $9,745.65 and expenditures amounted to $7,875, bond indebtedness and interest due.

"We've been lucky," Smith said, referring to the relatively small expenditure of $455.06 from the well-fund during the past year. A balance of $3,056.63 remains in the fund, Smith reported. The small expenditure indicated the cut of $300 in the tax levy for the fund this year, Smith said.

Balances of $91.20 in the Drainage District 3 fund and $106.61 in the Drainage District 11 fund were identical to last year's balances since no expenditures were made.

IN THE ANNUAL report of Highway Commissioner Oliver Ward it was revealed that the Township Highway Department graded and maintained 48 miles of stone road and hauled 1,500 tons of stone for patching. The department let one contract to Larry Dieckert to haul and spread 2,082 tons of stone for one mile of road six inches deep and 10 feet wide, running east and west between sections 27 and 34. Four miles of dirt road was graded and reshaped and a new white oak plank flooring was constructed and four corners of the truss frame repaired on a bridge two miles west and one mile north of the village.

The group voted to retain Manteno State Bank and the First Trust and Savings Bank of Kankakee as depositories for township funds. Supervisor Smith was reappointed to prepare the budget for the 1957-58 fiscal year.

Lloyd G. Mitten, Bourbonnais village treasurer for the past six years, submitted his resignation to Board President Adair Bissell during the first April meeting of village trustees Tuesday evening.

The resignation is effective at the end of the village fiscal year May 1. Mitten's written statement said he was resigning to give more time to other duties.

The board accepted Mitten's resignation and passed a motion "in appreciation of his sincere efforts and for a job well done." No action has yet been taken to name his successor.

A special meeting to consider the annexation of Bon Aire Sub-division was scheduled for Thursday, April 12, at 7 p.m. in the town hall. Clerk John Grimes was directed to write a letter inviting members of the Bon Aire Improvement Association board to attend the meeting.

Permits approved for Building Inspector Eugene Lambert included:

Building, water and sewer permits for Clarence Houde, a $13,500 home in Drummond Subdivision; Thomas Avery, a $10,000 house in Greenwood Subdivision; Upton Hardy, a $12,500 home in Green Acres Subdivision.

An alteration permit was approved for Arthur Lambert at Olivet Nazarene College.

In post-meeting session are (left to right) Ronald Vanderkerry, town clerk; Lester Day, township supervisor; and Edwin Anderson, cemetery association trustee. A short discussion was held on the possibility of building a dam in the Kankakee River in Aroma Township to project the river, which is filling in, according to statements made at the meeting. NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK—The stock market sagged today with prices down moderately in the early afternoon. Losses usually were small but went to around two points while the price of a point or a little more were found in the list.

Trading pace was around 2½ million shares compared with 2,700,000 Tuesday.

The market has been going up consistently for many weeks, and brokers are holding caution signals. They think a quick consolidating reaction could cut prices sharply at any time. They also are calling attention to the high degree of selectivity in current markets, with constant shifts into stocks best calculated to withstand any upset in the market.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

WORKHOUSE REWARD LAWRENCEBURG, Ky.

everybody knew that Johnny Lyon had worked like a horse on a factory job. But do you think his fellow workers patted him on the back for being such a workhorse?

Well—yes and no. They sent a check for one year an amnesty law and included persons engaged in anti-Hungarian propaganda.

THE Rev. and Mrs. John I. Osborn and son, David, went to Paris on Sunday afternoon where they visited relatives, returning home on Monday.

There is an accurate rescue work, the Air Force has successfully parachuted dogs in tests to aid "stranded" men.

VIENNA, Austria (UP)—Communist Hungary held out another lure today for refugees living abroad to return to their homeland.

Radio Budapest said the country's presidential council Tuesday extended for one year an amnesty law and included persons engaged in anti-Hungarian propaganda.

Industrial Kankakeeland—29th In A Series—

Whine Of Sawmill Becoming Familiar

ED FOLEY of Kankakee, (right), proprietor of the C. C. Lumber and Pallet Co., near Gilman, one of the few sawmills operating in this area, checks over a felled tree with Denton Watson of Crescent City. They are marking the fallen log into the proper lengths for cutting. By carefully scouting around for wood, Foley figures he can operate in this area for about 10 years.

THE RULER held by Alfred Wisdom (right) of Gilman tells at a glance how many board feet of lumber is in this huge log. Watching at left is James Short of Gilman. This 10-foot section of sycamore tree weighs 7,000 pounds. The whole tree (lying cut up in background) was 75 feet high and was estimated at 100 years old.

LEFT—Huge circular saw bites into a big log and trims away excess bark. The logs first go through this saw which trims them into large boards. These boards then go through other saws which cut them down to proper size. Operating the saw is Cecil Reese of Gilman (behind screen) and Pete Watson (far right). The trees used in this operation are native hardwoods such as oak, elm, sycamore, hickory and ash.

RIGHT—50,000 pounds is the approximate weight of the 8 by 8s loaded on this flat bed semi. This load of 16, 18 and 20 foot long timbers was headed for an industrial firm in Chicago. All the wood turned out at the C. C. Lumber and Pallet Co. is used by industries in the form of pallets, bracing and blocking lumber. Factories in the Kankakee area buy much of it, but some is trucked to further away areas. In the foreground are a bundle of finished boards and some of the logs used as raw material. (Journal photos)

The sharp whine of a big circular saw ripping its way through a recently-felled log might sound familiar in a heavily wooded region. But that same sound now is heard on the flat sparsely-treed Illinois prairie north of Crescent City on Route 49. That is the site of the C. C. Lumber and Pallet Co., the 29th firm to be featured in the Journal's Industrial Kankakeeland series.

Owner and operator of the business is Ed Foley of 693 S. Roosevelt Ave., Kankakee. He has been running his sawmill near Crescent City for the past six months in buildings formerly occupied by a CCC camp. Foley formerly operated a sawmill near Braidwood.

How about supply in this area? "We go out about 30 miles for our wood and we haul in a certain amount," from the South. I think we have enough supply here to run for about 10 years," Foley said.

HIS MILL TURNS OUT about a million board feet of hardwood lumber per year. It's used for industrial purposes—for pallets, bracing and blocking lumber. Factories in the Kankakee area buy most of the products, but some are shipped to other vicinities as far away as Chicago.

"The market for our lumber is very good right now," Foley commented. "We can't keep up with the demand."

He employs about 10 men at present—two cutting, two hauling and the rest at the mill, cutting the big logs up into useable sizes and making pallets. The trees used are native hardwoods such as oak, elm, sycamore, hickory and ash.

The mill cannot use all the trees in a woodlot; the loggers have to choose ones large enough to be commercially useable. Many times the logging truck has to break through a large area of smaller trees and brush to get to a particular tree.

AND SOME OF THE cutting is done in lowlands along creeks, and which is rough and not easily accessible.

Once they get to a tree the loggers work like any others. A notch is made with a double-headed ax on the side where the tree is supposed to fall.

Then the loggers attack it with power saws and it's not long before a 50 to 75 foot tree is prone on the ground. The power saws rip off the limbs and the log is marked for length and cut.

These lengths are loaded onto a truck and taken to the mill. Their first journey is through a huge saw which trims away the excess and produces large boards. These go through other saws which slice the wood down to its proper size.

Flat-bed semis which haul finished products away from the mill contain as much as 50,000 pounds in one load.

The Kankakee area may not have much importance as a logging center, but if you're tramping around in the Crescent City vicinity and someone yells "Timber!", don't forget to duck.

8 Perish In Wisconsin Tornadoes

BY CARL EFERST

BERLIN, Wis. (UP)—The tornado-torn Berlin and Bancroft areas in central Wisconsin looked like a battlefield today.

Six women and children were dead in Berlin, 2 were dead near Bancroft, and the 2 areas were strewn with the wreckage of buildings, furniture, tangled telephone lines and uprooted trees.

The twisters injured more than 50 persons, 16 seriously.

A 30-second tornado blast ripped through the southeast corner of this town of 5,000 late Tuesday.

I walked through the shattered area in the dark and watched men saving what possessions they could from 8 to 10 wrecked houses.

THE HARDEST HIT family was that of George Popelka, who was working and escaped the storm.

His 35-year-old wife and 6-year-old son were killed in the family home. His son, Bruce, 2, daughter, Florence, 13, and 72-year-old father, Anton, went among the injured in Berlin Memorial Hospital.

Richard Schendle, also at work, returned "home" to a pile of debris.

The body of his 5-year-old daughter, Susan, was found a block away. His wife, 1-year-old son, Daniel, and 8-month-old daughter, Patti, were taken to a hospital.

The other dead here were Mrs. Clara Mashock, about 50; Mrs. Clara Montie, about 75, and Mrs. Lillian Merritt, 67.

Two persons killed in the Bancroft area two counties north were Mrs. Susan Lortbeck and Gilbert Hoffscheld. The twister in that area demolished farm buildings and uprooted trees.

Rescue workers recovered 22 bodies. It was feared there were others in the debris of demolished homes and stores.

More than 200 were injured and property damage ran into millions of dollars. Some 2,000 people were left homeless.

HARDEST HIT was the town of Hudsonville, 2 counties north of Berlin. Scores of homes were demolished and at least 12 persons killed.

Three bodies were found in a devastated trailer camp on Grand Rapids' northwest outskirts. A farm woman was killed when an nearby tornado battered the Traver City area, 100 miles north.

Nearly 1,000 National Guardsmen were mobilized to assist in rescue operations.

Firemen, state and local police, and civil defense workers labored through the night, probing through wreckage in a search for the injured and dead. Others stood guard to prevent looting.

Communication and power facilities were knocked out, isolating several communities and leaving them in total darkness.

Hospitals in Grand Rapids, and nearby Zealand and Holland were jammed to capacity and all available medical help was summoned.

Donald Hatch, owner of a drug store, said he saw the black funnel bearing down and shouted to clerks and customers to "hit the floor."

"Everybody did," he said.

The murder charge, police said, stemmed from the June 28, 1954 robbery of the Merchants National Bank at South Bend by the John Dillinger gang. The gang escaped with $25,000 after slaying a policeman. Perkins was charged in connection with the robbery when witnesses identified him as participant.

Perkins was charged with reckless driving and driving on the sidewalk after the crash Monday night. Joseph Wolpert, 36, and Thomas Harold, 45, were injured when they were struck by the careening car as they walked into the Bankers Building.

Harold, who lost his left leg as a result of injuries suffered in the mishap, was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where he was reported in critical condition. Wolpert and Perkins were treated for minor injuries.

A woman, who some witnesses said was riding with Perkins, also was taken to a hospital from the crash scene with minor injuries. However, she disappeared before police could question her and is missing. Witnesses said the woman, who identified herself to ambulance attendants as Sharon Lee, 34, of Toronto, Ont., may have been driving.

Perkins told police he was alone in the car. He was released on $100 bond pending a hearing April 30 in Traffic Court.

Ladies Of St. Anne Sodality, L'Erebe, Conducts Session

L'Erebe (JNS)—The Ladies of St. Anne Sodality met in the convent hall on Monday night with the president, Eva Dutour, presiding.

A party will be held on April 15. Centennial plans were discussed. The small statue of St. Anne was taken to be refurnished. Gloria Demers gave material to be made into clothes for the missions.

A prize was won by Eva Dutour, donated by Mrs. LeRoy Rabidon. Cards were played and prizes were won by the Rev. E. T. Langan, William Dutour, Mrs. Otto Schulte and Horace Patnaude.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Louis Calteux, Mrs. Rosal Calteux, Mrs. Horace Wauthier and Mrs. Herman Wauthier.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schulte visited the former sister, Sister M. Consolida, in Beaverville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kieffer and family, Barbara Kieffer and Ivan Kieffer, visited State Cor. Mrs. Kieffer in Beaverville on Easter Day.

Twisters Kill 22 In Western Michigan

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UP)—Vicious spring tornadoes tore across western Michigan Tuesday night, leaving a vast trail of death and destruction.

Bond Posted, Communists Get Assets

NEW YORK (UP)—The Communists have recovered the seized assets of their newspaper and their national headquarters office by posting a total of $4,500 in cash toward income tax liens.

Possession of the padlocked newspaper offices and headquarters were regained Tuesday night, a week after they were seized by Internal Revenue Service agents.

The party and its newspaper got released by signing an agreement with Donald R. Mooney, district director of internal revenue.

The newspaper, which had continued to publish through its separate printing plant, carried a headline in today's issue proclaiming "We're back. Free press scores victory."

These amounts for the seized assets—consisting mostly of battered office furniture and equipment—were applied against an income tax lien of $38,205 on the party and one of $46,400 on the newspaper.

The Communists contend no income taxes were owed. Revenue agents have seized Communist assets in six other cities in a series of raids which started last Tuesday. All were on income tax claims.

HIS MAJESTY "TRIMMED TO SIZE" IS

THE RUDY WAY

The King of the Beef Kingdom is the young, fat steer. For many years, the American farmer has been striving to bring to the American consumer a more desirable and higher grade of beef. Forced-feeding methods have put the beef cattle on the market at a very tender age. The result is a truly choice product — with a flavor, a tenderness, a juicy melt-in-your-mouth quality that shouts, "Ah, HERE'S eatin' at its BEST!"

The sizzling steak, the glistening roast — they can be yours at ECONOMICAL cost . . . providing you get ALL the goodness and none of the "extra baggage."

At Rudy's, His Majesty is "trimmed to size" — which means simply that excess bone and fat (which have contributed mightily to the flavor) are removed BEFORE weighing and packaging.

Rudy brings you the very finest in flavorful beef. And you don't have to pay for the excess fat and bone which helped make the "eatin' meat" itself so delicious. See for yourself. Below are actual before-and-after photos taken at Rudy's.

WHAT IS A . . . KAPONETTE?

A KAPONETTE Frying Chicken is the result of a scientific development that has made it possible for us to offer you a plumper, better finished, greater meat-to-bone ratio fryer at a much younger age than was before possible.

This "chicken of the future" that is available to you today, has built-in SUCCULENT JUICINESS beyond compare.

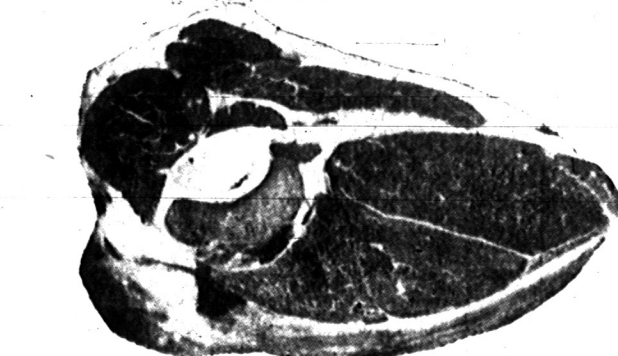

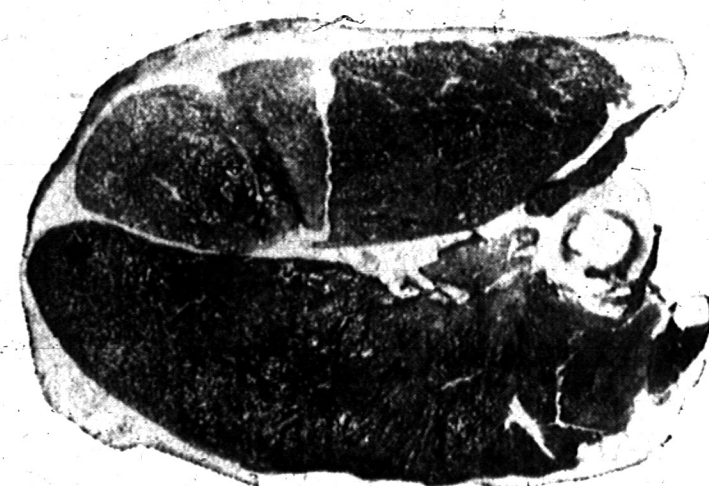

You will find KAPONETTES require LESS COOKING TIME, have a FINER MEAT TEXTURE, and a "JUST WONDERFUL FLAVOR."
