NEW YORK (U)—Time and the weather are messing up some parts of the economy. Nothing you say about the weather can ever apply to all parts of this nation. But large and economically important sectors are having a cold and wet spring. This delays crop planting, affects commodity markets, shrinks sales of such warm weather items as autos and spring suits — and benefits fuel dealers.

Time — or, rather, man's tinkering with nature — will spread confusion in some industries next Sunday when many industrial and financial centers will go on daylight saving time.

IT WILL BRING the usual headache for transportation services which will have to decide where and how much to alter schedules between places that do and places that don't change over for the summer.

News services will also be reporting some things like the New York Stock market in standard time cities and other things like sport events in old time regions — an hour later for papers going to press on new time.

Television and radio programs will have to be arranged, as best as possible, for a mixed audience — some on new time, some on old. In some states where there is a shortage of local opinion on daylight time — some industrial centers switching over and other parts of the state leaving the clocks alone.

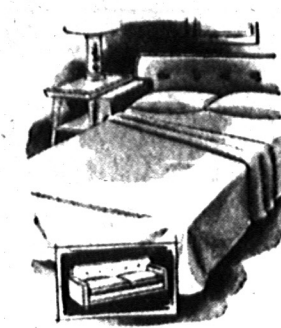

DAYLIGHT saving is supposed to let commuters get home in time to take care of their lawns and gardens. But in many suburbs this doesn't mean much these days. Cold and rain, and occasional snow, have made these outdoor chores a mockery.

Some creatures of habit who put in a new lawn anyway report that excessive rains have washed it out.

For the farmers it's nothing to laugh about. Delayed crop planting can be serious. And if the Weather Bureau's long-range forecast is to be believed more rain and below normal temperatures can be expected at least until mid May.

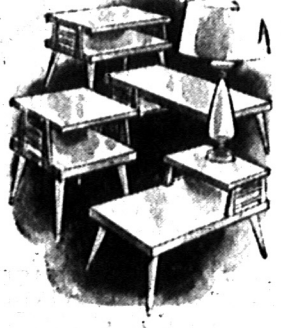

Commodity markets have been reflecting this possible threat to crops perhaps as much as they have been influenced by late and ups and downs of farm legislation in the Congress. Crops can still be planted, but late crops are more risky, either of running into hot weather too early in their growth stage or of suffering from early frosts before matured.

One early casualty has been the maple syrup industry. In some parts of the northeast and a shabby crop of the waffle sweetener is expected.

Offer New Farm Bill For Action

Latest Legislation Contains Most Of Ike's Proposals

WASHINGTON (UP)—House Democratic farm leaders today put forward a new farm bill containing much of what President Eisenhower wants and few provisions to which he is opposed.

It was the most conciliatory proposal since the Democrats drafted the bill 11 days of maneuvering and false starts since the President's veto of the first farm bill.

In the face of strong Republican opposition, Chairman Harold D. Cooley (D-N.C.) of the House Agriculture Committee Thursday said he would push for restoration of 90 per cent of parity price supports for basic crops through compensatory payments to producers.

COOLEY INSTEAD offered a new bill which contains all provisions of the administration-sponsored $12 billion soil bank except for the pay-in-lieu feature. Republican leaders said they would fight to include that in any new farm bill brought on the House floor.

Cooley's bill also contained one of the half-dozen provisions of the original farm bill which the administration opposed — higher price supports this year for producers of oats, rye, barley and grain sorghums who voluntarily participate in the soil bank.

It also contained all of the non-controversial provisions of the vetoed farm bill, including an additional $500 million to top prices of perishable foods and an additional $500 million for disposal of surpluses abroad.

COOLEY SAID he would call a meeting of his committee Monday and hoped it could finish voting on the measure in one day. Rep. Clifford R. Hoeg (Kan.), senior Republican member, said this was possible. Hoeg said Cooley's measure appeared to be a "fair compromise."

Cooley predicted it would clear the committee without much delay. Cooley said the compensatory payment plan he offered as an amendment on the House floor, and, if so, he would support it.

SCIENCE and industry have worked hard to put the odds of a successful crop in the farmer's favor. He can purchase plant food by the sack or truckload and spread it on his fields.

He can select the variety of seed that does best in his soil and climate. He is no longer at the mercy of a multitude of insects, for he has an equal number of highly effective insecticides.

But sunshine to give the plants the energy they need and moisture to make the food in the soil available to the plant are the elements that keep farming a gamble.

Season Of Big Gamble Opens For The Farmers

(Editor's Note—To give urban residents an idea of what is going on right now on the farms of the Kankakee area, Joseph Larson, Journal farm editor, writes the following article which points up the fact that the farmers are as busy as ever with their No. 1 job — that of producing food for the nation.)

For the information of townspeople who sometimes take farming for granted, this is the season when area farmers make their down payment on a year's wages.

It's actually a gamble, although they take less risk today than their grandfathers did. In effect, the farmers are betting a year's income that the sun will shine and the rains will fall.

It doesn't seem possible to city dwellers that they can lose. And the farmers in this area haven't lost in better than 10 years. But crop failures remain fresh in the farmer's mind long after his city cousin has forgotten them.

Nixon Says He Will Run Again; Ike's 'Delighted'

Expect Vice President To Do Major Share Of GOP Campaigning

WASHINGTON (U)—The Republicans' 1956 ticket was all but wrapped up today. Vice President Nixon said he would run again. President Eisenhower said he was "delighted."

Nixon seemed likely to shoulder a major portion of the GOP campaigning this year.

Sen. Kenneth C. Culver, Senate Republican leader, said even the drafting of a platform ought not to present much of a problem. "It will be based on the Eisenhower administration record," he said.

His wife, Barbara, played an important factor in persuading Nixon to retire. Shortly before he called the news conference, Mrs. Nixon telephoned Vice President Nixon and told him her husband was quitting.

She explained she had been "pleading and begging" with him for her sake and that of their daughter, Mary Anne, to give up boxing.

From Jersey Joe Walcott in 13 rounds at Philadelphia Sept. 2, 1955, and defended it six times.

His professional purses were approximately $1,700,000, but of course he could keep only a fraction of this.

Unbeaten Champion Marciano Retires

NEW YORK (U)—Rocky Marciano, never beaten in his 49 professional fights, retired today as heavyweight champion of the world.

He made it stick. Gene Tunney retired unbeaten as champion in 1926, but his record was marred by an earlier defeat as a light heavyweight. James J. Braddock retired in 1935 and Joe Louis in 1936, but both came back later and were beaten.

His professional purses were approximately $1,700,000, but of course he could keep only a fraction of this.

Search Of Ruins Delayed By Fire In Apartment

Tragedy Touched Off As Cigar Owner Tries To Light Gas Heater

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (U)—A gas explosion and fire made a giant torch of an old three-story combination business and residence building today, leaving 10 persons dead or missing.

Six hours after the blast was touched off when an elderly restaurant operator lit a match to a gas heater seven charred bodies had been found by searchers in the smoldering wreckage. Three others were missing and believed dead.

The explosion lifted the roof of the old structure and let it crumple inward and rocked the old business section of this manufacturing town of 9,000 at about 8 a.m. It smashed windows in nearby buildings and sent brick and rubble cascading into the street.

THE RESULTING fire leveled the building that housed a restaurant, two shops and a Salvation Army transient home on the ground floor and apartments for seven families on the two upper floors.

Mrs. Eugene Welch, a daughter, Lillie Mae, 22, and two sons, Garland, 16, and Victor, 12, were killed. Mrs. Good, 76, a long time resident of the transient home, and its only occupant Thursday night.

Mrs. Minnie Akers, Mrs. Helen Denton and a grandson, Clark, 9, were seriously injured. (A granddaughter, Norma Jean Mabe, 12, was blown away and killed Thursday night.)

MINNEAPOLIS (UP)—Michael Abbott, 14, killed his father with a rifle shot Thursday night because he wouldn't let him use the family car.

The boy gunned down his architect father, Loren, 44, in the kitchen of their suburban Edina home, police said. Then he smashed his father's rifle against the floor, breaking the stock, and went to his room to await police.

Officers said the eighth grade student told them "I was tired" and "I was mad" because he was too young, police said.

When his mother and two brothers saw him coming with the gun, they started to flee to the basement. They were still on the basement stairs when Michael leveled the rifle at his father from six feet away and shot him, police said.

Storm Caused Fire Guts Illinois Radio Station

WAUKEGAN (U)—Broadcasts on the Waukegan radio station were halted today by a fire which destroyed the station's interior.

Joseph Kirby, manager of the 1,000-watt station, said arrangements were being made to broadcast from a temporary location by Saturday. He estimated damage at between $50,000 and $100,000.

The fire in the one-story brick building, on Rte. 120, about one mile west of Waukegan's city limits, was discovered by Ken Smith, a station newsman, when he reported for work at 8 a.m.

Smith summoned firemen who extinguished the blaze, which they said apparently had been burning for about three hours. Fire Chief Sam Dada of nearby Gurnee said the fire apparently started after lightning struck the station during an electrical storm which hit the area during the night and early morning.

Heavy Rain Floods Many City Streets

Flooded streets and a few flooded basements were almost everywhere this morning as a heavy downpour Thursday night and another rain this morning ended the long spring dry spell.

There was hail mixed with the rain late Thursday night but no damage was reported. The deluge came faster than sewers could carry it away and the streets took on the aspects of rivers for a few moments at the height of the rain.

Leo Treault, superintendent of the street and alley department, said crews worked throughout the morning cleaning storm sewer intakes and expected all streets to be drained by noon. Treault said there were no reports of flooded basements but that some outlets were probably not large enough to carry away the streams of water which shot out of downspouts.

The rain this morning was especially welcome by farmers for the benefit it will bring to oats and seedlings and to pastures.

The Kankakee airport reported that 64 inches of rain fell Thursday evening and 41 inches fell this morning. The high temperature reading at the airport Thursday was 62 and the morning low was 47. In Kankakee the high was 61 and the low was 51.

Farmers could rejoice in the forecast for the weekend which predicted showers and thunderstorms tonight, Saturday and Sunday.

Treault said streets throughout Kankakee were flooded Thursday night. He said one of the things which added to the flooding was that many homeowners had raked and cleaned lawns and terraces which speeded the run off of the water but much of the debris had collected in sewer intakes.

Vision Becomes A Reality

School Serves 16 Parishes

An educational story which began about two years ago reaches its most interesting chapter Sunday when Bishop Martin D. McNamara of the Joliet diocese dedicates the new St. Patrick's Central High School. Located on Brookmont boulevard south of Center avenue on a 20-acre site recently annexed to the city of Kankakee, the school has drawn international comment because of its unique round construction.

THE PROJECT began as an idea in the minds of Kankakee County Catholics who were interested in the education of their children. The old St. Patrick's High School in Kankakee was originally built as a parish school, but requests to attend were coming in from throughout the county.

The old school was too small to serve these requests so a large building which could serve the needs of 16 parishes in the county became a vision. The final reality will be seen Sunday when hundreds of persons are expected to tour the building following the dedication ceremonies.

In April of 1955 a fund drive which eventually totaled more than $200,000 began in all the parishes. Ground breaking ceremonies were held Feb. 20, 1955 and construction contracts totaling about $530,000 were awarded.

SOME 500 STUDENTS and staff members moved in on Feb. 6 of this year. The school is designed to serve about 800.

The Rev. Eugene Hoffman, CSV, is principal.

Kankakee area school houses special education rooms. Around the circumference of the circle are a shop, typing room, domestic science room, chemistry, physics and biology laboratories. In addition to the cafeteria, boiler room, one classroom and a lecture room.

The inside of the first floor circle includes boys' and girls' shower and locker rooms and other physical education facilities. A store room, first aid space and a band room. In the center is the gymnasium.

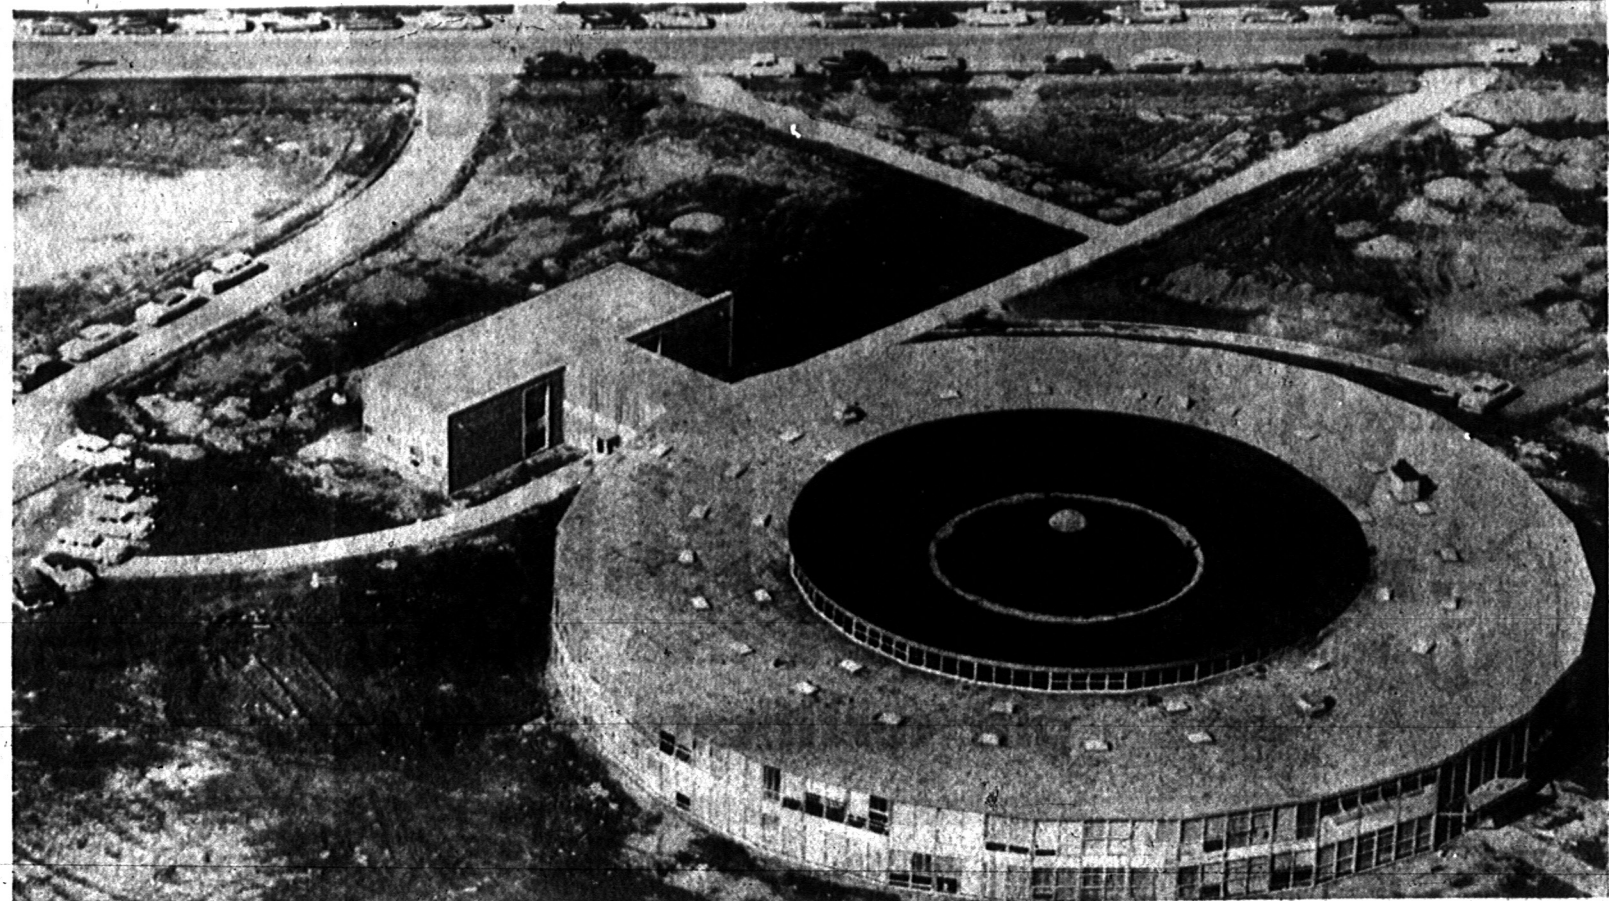

Extending from the north end of the circle is a T-shaped structure housing administrative offices on the ground floor and a library and reading room above.

In the upper story are 19 classrooms, including a small chapel, and the bleachers for auditorium seating. Halls circling the entire structure provide inside access to rooms on both floors.

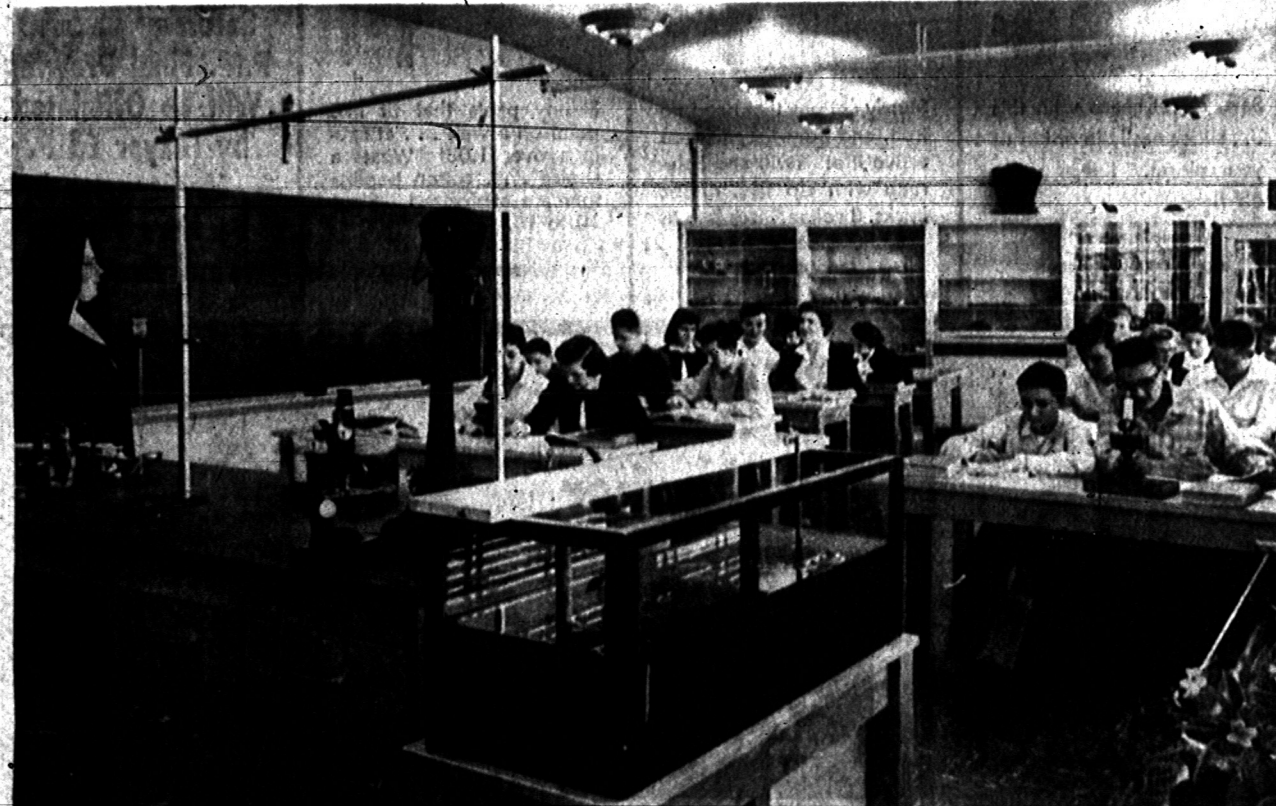

HEATING IS BY forced air convective system. Lighting is fluorescent, aided by the skydome for second floor rooms. Toilet facilities are located on both levels.

Landscaping plans for the 20-acre site include concrete walks, macadam drives, a parking area for vehicles, and a complete athletic layout with two football fields, one practice area. The building is located in the northwest quarter of the school site.

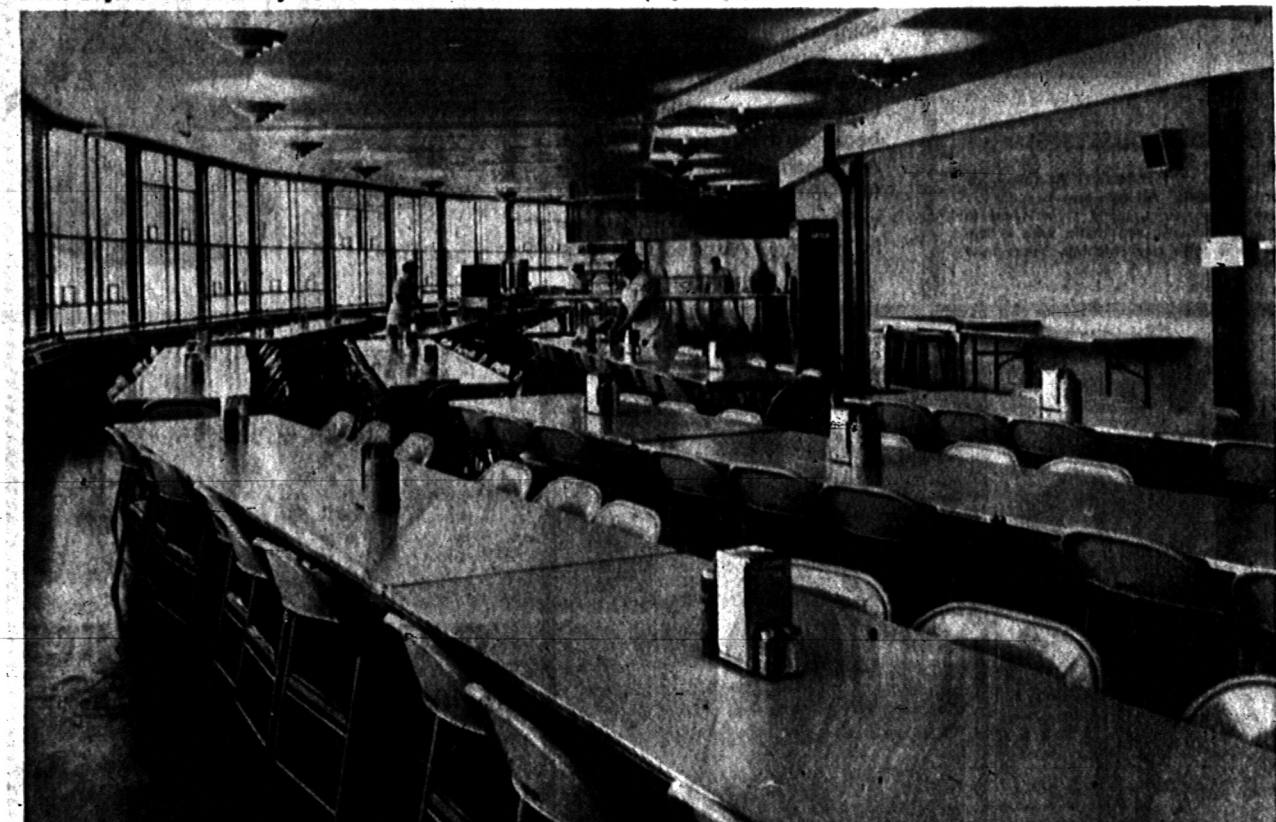

The outer first floor of the new

UNIQUE SHAPE OF St. Patrick's Central High School, one of the first educational structures of its kind ever built, is clearly apparent in this aerial view. Across the top of the picture runs Brookmont boulevard. Notice the plastic skydome in the center which is located directly over the center of the gymnasium and the smaller skydomes which admit light to other portions of the building. The rectangular building houses a library and administrative offices. The structure will be dedicated by Bishop Martin D. McNamara of the Joliet diocese Sunday. (Journal photos)

TYPICAL OF THE science classrooms in which St. Patrick's Central High School students study is the biology laboratory shown here. Physics and chemistry labs are also included in the new building. Some 500 students and staff members occupied the modern structure last Feb. 6. The Rev. Eugene Hoffman, CSV, is the principal.

A VIEW OF THE cafeteria in the new $530,000 St. Patrick's Central High School clearly shows the round shape of the building as it appears from inside. The cafeteria, plus food preparation and storage rooms, occupy nearly one-fourth of the outer portion

Cite Need For More Leaders In Youth Work

The need for more voluntary adult leadership in youth and recreation work was cited by almost all Red Feather agencies at a meeting Thursday afternoon.

Agency representatives had been requested to study the survey made by the youth and recreation committee of the Western Council and to report how the survey, applied to individual agencies.

W. J. Charlton, chairman of the youth and recreation committee, said the next step in using the survey is to chart, in order of importance, the things that will increase participation by children in agency programs.

The opinion was frequently expressed at the meeting that an increase in voluntary adult leadership must accompany an increase in youth participation. Sam Mount, executive secretary of the Community Chest, said that over 5,000 youngsters were counted in the survey but there were only about 15 professional workers.

Almost all of the agencies reported that building facilities are being used to capacity. It was pointed out that the additions to the school and the inclusion of "all purpose" rooms in the schools

Stalin Wasn't All Wrong, Reds Say

MOSCOW (UP)—The authoritative magazine Kommunist today called Stalin "one of the strongest Marxists" and said it is wrong to consider recent criticism as a rejection of all his works.

"All that is of value must be taken from Stalin's works, examining with a critical eye the wrong concepts there are in them," said the magazine of world communism.

Second Showing Of Bradley High Play Tonight

Romance played second fiddle to a chemistry lab and a formula for making persons disappear Thursday night as members of the senior class of Bradley-Bourbonais Community High School presented their annual play, "To Blush Unseen."

Second performance will be at 8 o'clock tonight in the school gymnasium. Tickets for the affair will be on sale at the door.

While romance seems to feature most school plays these days, "To Blush Unseen" highlighted the antics of three college students and a formula they stumbled upon which caused things to disappear.

The formula was successful on a dog and before the play was over three persons had done a disappearing act through the formula.

Before the curtain came down on the three-act comedy, however, everyone had been returned to his original form.

Roles of the three college students are played by Carl Koerner, Don Lynn and Steve Hensley.

Rounding out the cast are Sharon Mulligan, Mary Floyd, Carmelita Pence, Karen Emme, Susan Satorke, Diane Vadeboncor, Beverly Broseau, Beverly Osega, Barbara Scott, Darlene Hensley, Boyd Foen, Terry Hebert and Andy Andrews.

CHICAGO (UP)—Thieves broke in to a North Lake Shore Drive apartment Thursday and stole furs and jewelry valued at some $30,000.

Dwight Residents Act To Brighten Up Town

DWIGHT (JNS)—Acquisition of a new factory in Dwight took a back seat temporarily to a general "brightening up" of this Livingston County town of some 4,000 persons during the latest of the Community Development Program's town meetings Thursday night at the high school.

The 230 persons who heard reports from committees, participated in "buzz sessions" to discuss current developments and saw their opinions coordinated in an ensuing panel discussion went on record as favoring and being willing to work for: new recreational equipment for the town's parks; a complete village garbage collection system financed by taxes; a cleanup week May 14-21; general repairing of streets.

LATEST REPORT ON the position of the Ohmrite Mfg. Co. at Skokie, which has been considering Dwight as a location for a new factory, revealed that meetings of representatives of the Dwight development group and the board of directors of the company had been held recently. Although the Dwight program has announced it is willing to have the factory and will try to help in the financial arrangements, the company has not definitely decided on Dwight as a factory site. Its final conclusions are now pending on a labor survey and information to be gleaned through the cooperation of the development committees and townspeople.

"We did come out of the meeting optimistic," the Dwight residents were told by L. Doren Bush, chairman of the industry committee who gave the report.

James Dingwall opened the Thursday session explaining the law in financing and initiating a streets improvement program. He concluded from his study of the problem that the financing, if possible, should be handled locally rather than through a "more complicated and more expensive" bonding company plan.

JOHN GIBSON, chairman of the beautification committee, pointed out as the number one problem in beautifying the city, a "uniform garbage collection once a week." He said the Community Development

Sunspot Storm Blacks Out Some Cable Systems

A spokesman said it is "the worst sunspot storm" in 30 years. The Weather Bureau said it has received numerous reports that northern lights or aurora borealis are interfering with communication relay waves.

The lights are a luminous phenomenon seen frequently in arctic regions but usually visible in clear southern climes only on clear winter nights. The bureau said the sight seldom is seen this late in the year in the eastern part of the United States.

'Missionary' Poses Legal Problems For Kankakee Officials

A man who billed himself as a "U.S.A. missionary" posed a knotty legal problem for authorities in Kankakee Thursday.

Orville F. Libbey, 61, Aurora, was arrested shortly before noon Thursday and charged with vagrancy. Libbey carried a basket containing cards with religious messages on them and accepted donations from passers by.

He was arrested at Court St. and East Ave., and was wearing a military style cap with "U.S.A. Missionary" printed on the frontpiece of the cap.

Libbey carried copies of letters from Aurora Mayor Paul Egan to Soviet authorities in which Egan said that freedom of speech was being stifled in the United States.

Libbey did not deny authorities here but blandly told Police Magistrate Paul Davidson that he did not keep any books or records of his income and he spent the money he collected "just helping folks along the way."

Libbey was finally charged with soliciting without a license. Judge Davidson continued the case until Saturday and released Libbey under $15 bond.

The plaque, which singled out the company for its outstanding achievement in sales during 1955, was presented by Marc Lefebvre of Chicago, regional manager for the nine-state area and a vice president of Pepsi-Cola Co.

C. E. Sinks, plant manager of the home office of the firm's national headquarters in New York.

THE DEVELOPMENT program's recreation committee announced that a Dwight Community dance will be held May 5, the proceeds to help develop recreation. A Lions Club and school faculty basketball game is scheduled for Tuesday, the proceeds to finance a post prom ment program had been promised full cooperation from the town board which voted at the last meeting to hold an election to decide whether or not the town wants a special assessment for a more complete garbage pickup service. Gibson said the assessment would amount to a "minute figure."

James MacDevitt, subcommittee head for the recreation committee, of which Mrs. Howard Kelley is chairman, suggested that a park improvement day be scheduled for some Sunday following party for Dwight high school juniors and seniors.

It was announced that the Senior

Stockholders Get Dividends As Firms Grow

NEW YORK — Stockholders are doing right well just now in their age-long struggle with expansion-minded corporate management and Uncle Sam's tax collectors for a share of business profits.

While the earnings reports flood in — many of them quite fat — the boards of directors of American corporations are meeting and handing out the news the stockholders want to hear: How about that dividend?

In the first half of this week there were dividend announcements for holders of 23 corporate securities.

IN THE MAJORITY of cases the dividend rate was maintained. Sometimes this was done even if the profit report showed a slip from the same period a year ago. In at least one case Westinghouse Electric the usual dividend was declared although the company showed a serious loss for the first three months of the year because of a prolonged strike.

In only two cases was the dividend rate reduced.

Dividends were increased on six corporate issues. One company re-purchased paying them after a full year of no dividends. Another company's dividends were ordered paid to stockholders. And in seven cases the directors decided to pay more stock as a dividend payment.

This is only a small sampling of what has been happening. But the Department of Commerce, which watches such things, has been reporting a steady gain in dividend payments for sometime. It has been ranging as high as 12 per cent over the previous year on an overall basis. For February (the latest reported) payments totaled 233,333,333 dollars, compared with 239,333,333 million a year ago.

THIS IS BEING watched particularly closely just now because of the announced plans of many corporations to expand their plant and equipment. This will take some 25 billion dollars just this year, with many projects running over into future years.

The money will come from a variety of sources — from retained profits and plowing them back into the business.

Just after the war this latter practice was "wide spread and many a company's stockholders got small shares of the profits, most of what was left after taxes being earmarked for growth. In the last two years the tendency has been to plow less money back into the business and give more of the profits to the shareholders.

There's not much the stockholders can expect from the tax collector except more money.

But at annual stockholder meetings they are asking management what its dividend policy will be — how much to pay out as dividends, how much to retain as funds to expand on new plants and more machinery and other equipment.

Youth At School Council Election Set At Bradley High School

Schools Turn Out 7,000 Doctors Yearly

America's 81 medical schools are graduating a record 7,000 doctors a year, and the size of the graduating classes has grown at a faster rate than the U.S. population.

This was reported by Dr. Charles Allison when he discussed "Medical Education Week" before World Rotarians here Thursday.

In the past 45 years, the nation's population has grown 60 per cent, while the size of the medical school graduating classes has increased 120 per cent, he reported.

The widespread belief that medical schools are lagging behind the general population growth is unfounded.

The 22,000 physicians in the United States provide an average of one for every 120 persons, the speaker reported. The ratio is the best in the world except for Israel, he said.

America's medical schools have become world leaders, said Dr. Allison, and students come from all over the world to study here.

With advances in medicine and surgery and increased emphasis on research, the medical school's cost of educating has soared, said the speaker.

During 1956 American medical schools will spend over $100 million, he said, and will be operating at a deficit of $10 million.

Bringing this deficit in the goal of the National Fund for Medical Education established in 1949.

Medical schools are "extremely dependent on endowments, gifts and grants, the speaker said. Tuition pays only 15 per cent of the cost of from $10,000 to $12,000 required over a period of four years to train a physician under the reported.

In addition to training doctors the medical schools carry on research that has added 21 years to the average American's life span since 1900.

The speaker said medical school deans are "harassed" by the "myths" that only a student can hope to get into medical school. Last year, for example, only 17 per cent of the entering freshmen class had pre-med averages of "A," while 60 per cent were "B's" students and the remaining 14 per cent were "C's" students.

HE SAID DEANS fear many promising youngsters become discouraged and fail to prepare for medical school as a result of the "frivolous rumor" about grades.

Of the basis of operating budgets for medical schools this year, government funds provide less than 40 per cent of the budget. Research and teaching grants from outside sources total over $61 million, which finances 95 per cent of all the important laboratory research now being conducted. The cost of research equals two-thirds of the

Replace Pipes On Court Street

"What's Going on — what are they doing?" were frequent questions Thursday and today as motorists turned right and left to avoid excavations, in the 200 block of E. Court street. The answer to the questions is that the Kankakee Water Co. is replacing service pipes which run under the street to business places in the block. The small pipes are being pulled through the earth under the ground to avoid the necessity of digging a trench all the way across the street. The work is slated to be completed today.

Princeton Quiet As Hiss Speaks

PRINCETON, N. J. — An Alger Hiss spoke on the heavily guarded Princeton University campus Thursday night in a calm and dignified manner.

It was his first public speech since his release from prison. Protests against the heretofore convicted spy were held in the campus before a student debating society had led to rumors of possible demonstrations.

But all was peaceful. After speaking on foreign policy, Hiss slipped out a back door of the meeting hall to avoid a waiting crowd and returned to his New York City home.

Hiss' speech was restrained, wholly unexciting. He called it the "meaning of Geneva" and used last summer's conference among the heads of the United States, Britain, France and Russia to illustrate what he said are the two most significant developments in the world situation today.

He said, "I don't happen to believe that Yalta was such a serious occasion."

A query from a student during the question period led to the reference to the 1945 Yalta conference among the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the then British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the late Russian Premier Joseph Stalin.

Hiss, then a high-ranking State Department official, was an adviser to Roosevelt at Yalta. Five years later — in 1950 — he was convicted in New York City on perjury charges for denying before a federal grand jury that he passed out State Department secrets for a Soviet spy ring.

Hiss was well received Thursday night by members of the American Whig-Cliosophic Society who had invited him to address them.

"They laughed at his quietly phrased jokes, and his easy-going, pleasant manner," Hiss said frequently during his speech.

Hiss SEEMED to enjoy the experience. He spoke effortlessly, and appeared as relaxed as a professor delivering a routine lecture. The students made no reference to his trial and conviction during the question period.

University officials told reporters earlier that they "deplored" the invitation to Hiss, and they took elaborate precautions to avoid any incidents.

U.S. GIVES REDSUPLIFT

WASHINGTON (UP)—Among the most strategic goods which the United States freed Thursday for trade with Russia were brassieres and bust supporters.

It was a first public speech since his release from prison. Protests against the heretofore convicted spy were held in the campus before a student debating society had led to rumors of possible demonstrations.

But all was peaceful. After speaking on foreign policy, Hiss slipped out a back door of the meeting hall to avoid a waiting crowd and returned to his New York City home.

Attorney Gets Delay In Tax Evasion Case

CHICAGO (UP)—Pleading that he was short of cash to organize his defense, a former lawyer for gangster Al Capone was granted a delay in his trial on charges of evading $87,283 in 1950 and 1951 income taxes.

Abraham Teitelbaum asked that trial be delayed to allow him enough time for more legal assistance. He said he is without funds, and unable to pay for accountants to assist in preparing his case.

U. S. DISTRICT Judge Joseph Sam Perry granted the continuance and set Sept. 10 for resumption of the trial.

Teitelbaum already has been convicted of failing to pay $135,000 in income taxes for 1946 and 1947. Sentencing on this conviction has been postponed pending outcome of a motion for a new trial, which will be heard by Judge Perry Monday.

There was no action Thursday on the government's motion to get the government to give him back in taxes in 1950.

Wife Nagged Him, Pastor Says In Admitting Killing

GREENVILLE, S. C. (UP)—A 41-year-old church of God minister has admitted, police say, that he killed his wife by putting rat poison in her food.

The Rev. C. C. Cooper, 41, signed a statement Thursday before Deputy Sheriff George Loumon and County Investigator Paul Batson in which he admitted that he mixed rat poison in a plate of beef stew he served his wife Eleanor, 40, last Oct. 24.

"She would continually nag me about my work and accuse me of running around," he said. "I could not bear it."

The Cooper's son, 19-year-old Maxie, quoted his father as saying from the pulpit the Sunday before his mother was taken ill that "someone in the church now... would not ever be in the church again."

Mrs. Cooper was taken ill the next day.

H-Bomb Test Still Scheduled For May 8

HONOLULU (UP)—Officials of the task force which will stage this year's nuclear tests in the Pacific said today indications are that the program will start as scheduled with a "public" H-bomb shot around May 5.

This test, to be witnessed by 15 newsmen, will be a high air burst of an H-bomb equal in power to several million tons of TNT. It will explode above the waters near Bikini.

MEANWHILE, the task force is getting things ready at the proving ground. Public information headquarters is being set up here and at Bikini. Some of the reporters-observers are here already and others will report by May 1.

They will live and write their dispatches on the USS Mt. McKinley, a World War II amphibious transport which has been converted into a news communications and radio-TV broadcasting vessel for the public tests.

The Mt. McKinley is going through runs to determine whether its equipment is equal to the task. Officials believe it will be.

But mindful of fallout incidents accompanying the 1954 H-bomb tests at Eniwetok, Bikini, the weapons here this time intend to explode the big one so high it will not be a fallout menace. It is expected to go off at least 10,000 feet up.

George Bohac Heads Braidwood School Board

BRAIDWOOD (JNS)—George Bohac was elected president of the Braidwood Community Council School Board at a meeting Wednesday night in the school.

Thomas Berger, Jr., newly-elected member, was named vice president. James Arthur was elected secretary.

Other members of the board are William Kennedy, Patrick Mullin, Earl Freckleton and Paul Bohac. Following the election, the board canvassed the recent school election. There were no changes in the board.

MEMBERS of the grade school eighth grade attended a matinee performance of "Oklahoma" Wednesday afternoon in Chicago.

Mrs. Doris Frost, school music teacher, Mrs. Jo Barnett, eighth grade teacher, and Don Gilgley, school superintendent, sponsored the trip.

Dave Brown is a patient in Dwight Veterans Hospital, where he recently underwent surgery. He expects to remain there another week.

Piper City Girl Marks Birthday

PIPER CITY (JNS)—Betty Winter celebrated her eighth birthday Sunday in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Holm, Gibson City.

Guests included Mrs. Clara Winters, Mrs. C. H. Walters, Mrs. Louise Stuber, Linda and Cynthia Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Opperman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duane White, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Winter and family, all of Piper City.

Mrs. Larry Miller is a patient in Fairbury Hospital.

Ple. Jerry O'Mara and Ple. James Guthrie are home on a 30-day leave.

Mrs. Mary Agnes Johnson, who teaches fifth grade, received her position in the Piper City Grade School, effective at the end of the school year.

Mrs. Belle Sternberg returned Tuesday from London, where she had spent the winter.

Call Girl Tells Of Chicago Vice Racket

CHICAGO (UP)—Police said a woman they described as a part-time call girl related a story of an organization drive by three men who told her there was too much "free lancing" and she would have to join up at $1,000 a month.

Capt. Thomas Harrison said three men named by Miss Leslie Sullivan, 27, were seized by police and held without charge for investigation. Harrison said Miss Sullivan identified herself as a model and part-time call girl.

The men refused to answer police questions, Harrison said, adding: "Undoubtedly this is a crime syndicate operation."

At least two B32s have flown from here in recent days to undisclosed destinations in the West. They could have been headed for Eniwetok, Bikini's partner atoll in the Pacific proving ground.

The May 8 shot will be big enough to pick up millions of tons of radioactive earth and water, if exploded low enough for its incandescent fireball to contact the surface.

Woman Dies Of Burns Despite Postman's Efforts

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—An alert postman, smothered flames covering Mrs. Clara H. Stiebling's dress but the 70-year-old woman died of burns several hours later.

William A. Eaton said he heard faint cries from the home of Mrs. Stiebling while he was delivering mail. He found her in the kitchen with her dress in flames. He put them out with a blanket before police arrived.

Mrs. Stiebling told hospital attendants her dress caught fire from some papers on the kitchen stove.

"There's too much free lancing going on. You'll have to join up," he said she related the men badgered her for weeks and promised her "choice dates" if she joined the joining price was lowered from $1,000 a month to $100 a week when she said she didn't make enough to pay $1,000.

Harrison said Miss Sullivan called in police for her own volition.

County Tax Bills Go Into Mails This Week

Current tax bills totaling $5,817,000, an increase of $70,615 over last year, will go into the mail to Kankakee County taxpayers starting Monday.

June 1 is the deadline to pay all personal property taxes and one-half of the real estate taxes without penalty.

Taxpayers have until Sept. 1 to pay the second half of their real estate tax, or may pay the second half with the first half.

PAYMENTS MAY be made at the county treasurer's office either in person or by mail. Tax bills should be kept on or mailed with the payments to the county and property credited and the bill received.

Residents can save their own time and greatly help the treasurer's office by paying by mail.

The county treasurer's office has nothing to do with the amounts of the taxes, but acts as collecting agent for the taxing bodies which levy them.

The property valuation being conducted by the county supervisor's office has no effect on this year's tax bills, since the work of equalizing assessments was not yet far enough along to be applied to this year's taxes.

School districts will receive 67.5 per cent of the tax money, townships about 10.5 per cent, the county 8.3 per cent, cities and villages a little under 8 per cent, and fire protection, park and other districts a little under 5 per cent.

THE AMOUNTS billed for each type of district include: schools—$3,206,422, up $548,610 from last year; county—$485,509, up $123,076; townships—$810,172, up $52,230; cities and villages—$322,655, up $42,013; and other taxing bodies—$271,880, up $36,690.

The law permits up to 5 per cent to be added to the tax unit levies for construction, the contracts must be filed with the county clerk's office.

The total tax rate for all purposes on property in the city of Kankakee is $2.563 per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 49.9 cents.

This rate of $2.563 consists of the following individual rates:

COUNTY—21 cents, up 5 cents as the result of a 5-cent federal aid matching tax for road construction.

KANKAKEE PARK DISTRICT—14.1 cents, up 2.2 cents.

KANKAKEE SCHOOL DISTRICT—111-1886, up 42.6 cents following approval of a classroom building program and a tax rate to equip and staff the new school.

KANKAKEE TOWNSHIP—3.6 cents, up .3 cent.

KANKAKEE TOWNSHIP road and bridge—8.6 cents, unchanged.

Here's How Your Tax Bills Were Figured

Kankakee County taxpayers will receive their tax bills this week. Here is how they were figured:

A year ago at this time, each township tax assessor assessed, or evaluated, the property in his township as of April 1, 1955.

His assessments were turned over to the County Board of Review, which checked them and ruled on complaints filed by property owners after publication of the assessments.

Then the Illinois Department of Revenue computed a multiple tax rate which included what the assessors' valuations up to the county clerk's office. This was done by comparing assessed valuations with actual sale prices of real estate in the county.

THE MULTIPLIER given to Kankakee County was 5, so all the assessors' valuations were multiplied by 5.

Meanwhile, each taxing body in the county was determining how much money it would need to operate for another year.

The County Board of Supervisors determined how much money the county needed. Each school board adopted its tax levy, following a regularly advertised public budget hearing.

Each city and village board adopted its budget and tax levy after they had been made available for public inspection.

TOWNSHIP LEVIES for general and relief purposes were adopted by the county clerk's office. When the amount of each bill was computed, the figures went to the county clerk's office, which typed the amounts on each individual tax bill.

THEN, ABOUT MAY 1, each year, they are mailed to taxpayers.

The county treasurer's office will mail the bills this week. (Continued on Page 6, Column 1)

County Disaster Teams Planned By Legion Units

Plans for disaster teams have been made by the American Legion posts of Kankakee County, working in conjunction with Sheriff James W. LaFond.

The teams would direct traffic, serve guards, and carry out any duties the sheriff finds necessary.

The plan calls for the commander of each Legion post or his representative to have his name and telephone number on file at the sheriff's office for contact in case of emergency.

The teams would go to the scene of an emergency only when requested by the sheriff's office.

They would be equipped with suitable arm bands to identify them as official workers.

LaFond said the men could help in times of emergencies such as tornadoes, in which Legion posts provided many volunteers, or the recent fire at the Herscher gas storage dome, where firemen had to spend their time directing traffic.

H. M. Davis is the Legion's county chairman of disaster relief.

St. Mary's Hospital Addition Plans Made

(Picture on page 8)

Construction of St. Mary's Hospital $2,000,000 addition will begin about July 1, 1957, and the addition will be ready for occupancy in December, 1958.

Architects Fugard, Burt, Wilkinson and Orth of Chicago presented this information, preliminary sketches and an architect's drawing of the addition Saturday to hospital authorities.

Under the terms of the $700,000 federal grant which will be used for construction, the contracts must be let not later than July 1, 1957, the architects explained. An allotment of $167,000 from the Federal Foundation also will be used to help finance the five-story, 100-bed addition.

The building will be of fireproof construction throughout, with large expanses of glass to provide ample natural light to the patients' area. The exterior will be of brick with limestone trim.

The entrance, at the northwest corner on Fifth avenue, will be provided with a canopy for protection of visitors entering from automobiles.

The addition will not only enlarge the bed capacity to 286 beds, but also will provide the most modern outpatient facilities.

Such services will include an emergency department, complete with treatment, cast and X-ray rooms adjacent to the ambulatory entrance.

A PHYSICAL THERAPY department will be added. (Continued on Page 6, Column 1)

Arrest Man At Braidwood In Tax Fraud Case

Gives Address In Joliet; Schemed To Get Fake Refunds

BRAIDWOOD—A Joliet man was arrested Saturday by government agents who said the arrest in connection with a tax fraud scheme to get fake income tax refunds.

Agents from the Internal Revenue Service and the Post Office department seized Frank O'LaBiollo, 45, who gave his address as 111 N. Summit St., Joliet, according to news wire services.

O'LaBiollo was seized about 9 a. m. Saturday when the government agents suddenly entered the post office. At least two other persons were in the post office at the time. They were Mayor George Bohac and Carol Valra, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Valra of Braidwood.

O'LaBiollo surrendered to the officers without resistance. Miss Alice Dillon, Braidwood postmaster, said she was not aware of a rumor that O'LaBiollo had attempted to seize the Valra girls as hostages.

According to one report the federal agents had waited in a garage across the street from the post office and swept into the post office immediately after the suspects.

D. J. Luippold, acting director of internal revenue, said the government tax refund checks which were obtained fraudulently were found in O'LaBiollo's pockets. Three more government checks were waiting for him in a box he had rented a week ago in the Braidwood Post Office.

Luippold said that O'LaBiollo also carried a list of 21 checks he had sought to obtain through refunds from fraudulent income tax returns. The fake returns, Luippold said, were calculated to yield refunds averaging about $200 apiece.

A team of agents headed by Frank Smith, an internal revenue agent, nabbed O'LaBiollo as he opened the box he had rented in the name of Thomas Essex.

Luippold said that O'LaBiollo filed the fake returns from various parts of the country. After filing them, he sent change of address notices to postmasters of the cities where the tax returns were filed.

A number of the address change forms listed the post office box at Braidwood, about 20 miles north of Joliet.

O'LaBiollo was held without bond Saturday.

Rains Fine; More Needed

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—For the fourth straight day, gentle rains Saturday bathed almost all sections of Illinois whose rich lands have been suffering from an early season drought.

"We've a difficult still," Joseph E. Ewing, federal-state crop statistician, said.

At stake with the weather is an overall farm crop that usually runs above a billion dollars.

SPRINGFIELD night and blazes of cold, Canadian air sent temperatures plunging into the Midwest.

At least 12 tornadoes raged across the Midwest, some of them apparently breaking up before they reached the Midwest.

One of the benefits of the dry weather has been that farmers could spend most of the spring in the fields, advancing field work at beyond usual progress at this early date.

"This rain won't alleviate the water shortage in weeds," he said. "It takes a long time to bring levels up." Some farmers have been hauling water to livestock.

Tornadoes Sweep Across Southwest

CHICAGO (UP)—A small army of tornadoes marched across the Southwest Saturday night and blazes of cold, Canadian air sent temperatures plunging into the Midwest.

Ike Winning Farm Bill Veto Battle

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Big Three western powers believe the danger of imminent war in the Middle East has been staved off by United Nations action, diplomats reported Saturday.

Their guarded optimism was dispensed as diplomats prepared for important talks on the Middle East in Paris next week by the League of Nations.

These conferences will coincide with a secret report to be filed with the United Nations Security Council by U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld on the results of his Middle East mission.

A month ago, Washington, London and Paris were pessimistic about chances that war could be avoided in the Middle East. It looked as though the major fighting might start any time and there were predictions it was almost certain to come some time this summer.

The Israeli-Arab flareup also looked as though it would lead to a general war between the two sides. The United States said it would oppose aggression in the area within constitutional limits.

The latest administration estimate on peace and war prepared by the President's staff in the Middle East was given by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee at a private meeting Friday.

It was learned that Dulles, who takes off for Paris Tuesday afternoon, told George that the situation in the Middle East is "a bit more stable" at this time than it was a month ago. He said a longer range forecast must hinge on Hammarskjöld's report.

State To Get Big Share Of Road Funds

WASHINGTON (UP)—Illinois would receive an estimated $223,000,000 in federal money for road building during the next three years under the giant highway construction bill passed by the House.

The House bill, which goes to the Senate, calls for $15 billion dollars worth of new roads over the next 13 years.

Preliminary estimates for the first three years show that Illinois share would be $75,000,000 for the fiscal year 1957 beginning July 1, $110,000,000 for 1958 and $138,000,000 for 1959.

Of these amounts, $32,100,000 would be available in 1957 for primary, secondary and urban roads and $77,900,000 in 1958 and $108,000,000 in 1959 for the interstate system.
