Firemen Battle Blaze In Home; 2 Overcome

A stubborn house fire at 197 W. Charles St. this morning resulted in damage estimated at several thousand dollars. Two firemen were overcome by smoke and 15 firemen devoted nearly three hours to fighting the blaze.

The two firemen overcome were Capt. John Marquart and Fireman Lester Chinski. Marquart, 39, was taken to St. Mary's Hospital where he was reported in satisfactory condition. Both Marquart and Chinski were overcome about 10:30 a.m. They were revived at the scene and both went back into the action. Fifteen minutes later Marquart was overcome again and this time he was taken in the emergency truck to the hospital.

The fire was discovered at 8:12 a.m. by one of the occupants, Mrs. Donald Skinner. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner and the latter's daughter, Miss Marlene Hess, reside in the first floor five-room apartment. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Elston and SMOKE BILLOWS from the attic window of the home at 197 W. Charles St. as firemen poured water on an unseen fire that stubbornly took three hours of their time this morning. Firemen extinguished a basement blaze but then had to venture when the fire suddenly crept out again, with the bulk of the billowing smoke emanating from the attic.

THE FIREMEN WERE forced to battle the fire in the midst of dense smoke which caused the overcoming of the two. Marquart was overcome both times while in the building while Chinski was overcome while pouring water into the attic from a ladder.

Fire Chief Marnehl eventually had to call in five extra-duty firemen.

The structure is owned by Mrs. S. E. Boudreau, 152 E. River St. The Elston family has resided in it since June while Mr. and Mrs. Skinner have been living in it less than a month. The Skinners moved there after their marriage.

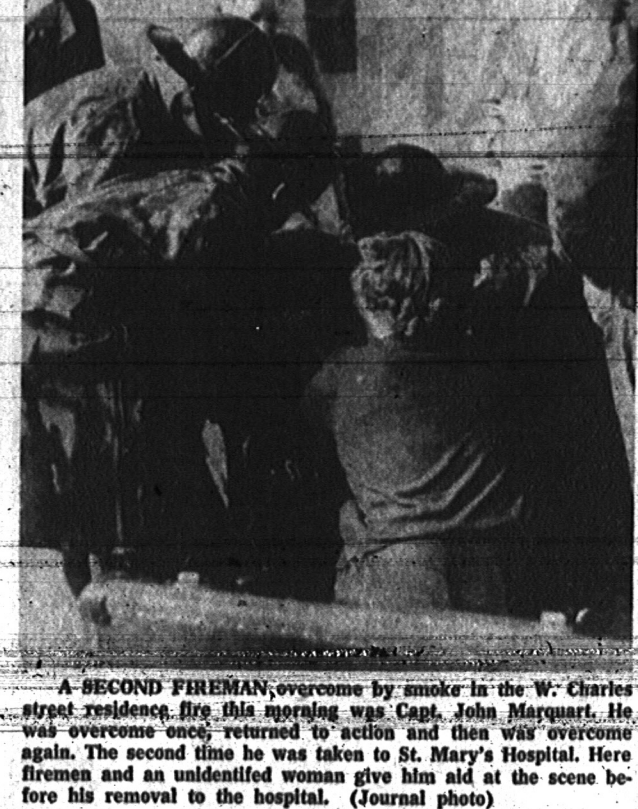

Original damage was to the basement — the furnace, partitions, etc. — and water and smoke damage to the two apartments. The outbreak of the fire, however, resulted in damage throughout the house. Firemen prevented the fire from spreading to a service station just a few feet east of the house and to a three-car garage attached to the north side of the house.

The Weather Bureau predicted fair and warmer for today, with an overnight low of about 49 and a high Thursday of around 70. Tuesday's high temperature was 73 in Kankakee.

The freezing-temperature-overnight trend covered a wide section of the Midwest today, but general warming occurred. The cool air mass still blanketed the eastern portion of the nation.

Clear skies aided the mercury in dropping to near or below freezing over most of Minnesota, Michigan and the northern sections of Illinois and Indiana.

Light showers and rain dampened the Pacific Northwest, but the Weather Bureau said a severe drought is prevailing over the central and southwest portions of the nation.

Annual Harvest Of Harmony Oct. 28

The annual Harvest of Harmony show will be presented Sunday, Oct. 28 at 2:30 p.m. in Kankakee High School auditorium by the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America.

Top quartets will feature this year's sixth annual edition of the barbershop song parade, according to William Blanchette, chairman of the event.

Both male and female quartets will be heard. Highlighting men's harmony will be the Kord Kings of Oak Park, a quartet which appeared in finals of the international SPEBSQSA competition at Minneapolis, Minn., last June.

In addition to competing in many such international contests, the Kord Kings are well known in barbershop singing circles for the trip they made to entertain troops in Korea.

THE FEATURED FEMALE quartet will be the Nona-Belles, also of Oak Park, international champions in 1955. The Nona-Belles are members of the Sweet Adelines, a women's organization which corresponds to, but is not a part of, SPEBSQSA.

Also on the program will be the Fugitives of Belleville-Alton, who took fourth place in Illinois district quartet competition at Joliet last weekend.

A new feature of the program this year will be the appearance of the Music Males, a girl's quartet organized and coached within the last year by Ross Milk, president of the Kankakee chapter.

The Kankakee chapter chartered by Kenneth Green of Clinton will also be heard, as well as the Keen Keys quartet, the oldest organized foursome in the local chapter.

HARVEST OF Harmony master of ceremonies will be Robert Hockenbrough of Broadfield, who is the author of a column in the SPEBSQSA international magazine.

Following the show an "afterglow" will be held at the VFW hall. This event will be sponsored by the local barbershop chapter in conjunction with Alpha Omega chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi Sorority.

Supper will be served at the afterglow and the show quartets will make brief appearances.

Committee chairman — assisting pianists are: Remmel Rogers, printed programs: James Baker, tickets: Kenneth Green, musical program: Robert Milk and Jack Fugate, stage setting: Ross Milk, news and advertising.

Usherettes will be furnished by the sorority.

Minstrel Show, Amateur Talent Contest Oct. 19-20

An old-time minstrel show and an amateur talent contest will be sponsored Oct. 19-20 in the Kankakee High School auditorium by the Omega chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi Sorority.

The "Ebony Minstrels" is an old-fashioned entertainment with modern innovations, according to Mrs. Marvin Reed.

Grand winner of the talent contest will receive an all-expense trip to New York City.

Five winners will be selected and later will appear on a talent program on WKAN. The winner, to be selected by the listening audience in a postcard vote, will receive a wrist watch and compete in an all-winner program in which the grand winner will be chosen by postcard vote.

Advance sale of tickets is under way. They also will be on sale at the door both nights of the show.

Nixon Says Small Business Will Do Better Under GOP

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (UP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today small business will fare better under four more years of the Eisenhower administration than it would under the Democrats.

Nixon barnstormed four cities in his native California in the second day of a 10,000-mile flying campaign tour.

He replied to Democratic charges that the Republicans favor big business over small enterprises.

"It should be the responsibility of government to see to it that small business does not suffer in the hands of either big business or big government," Nixon said.

Nixon, in a speech prepared for a small business procurement conference in Oakland, said the Eisenhower administration has taken "positive steps which certainly are going to help small business."

He said the American economy needs small-medium-sized and big business to be healthy.

Under the direction of Miss Grace Burnham, sang. Miss Genevieve Fetherling was accompanist.

Mrs. Robert Dannehl was in charge of the decorations. Hostesses were Mrs. Winslow, Mrs. Clute, Mrs. Gail Rice, Mrs. T. C. Elder, Mrs. Gordon Sowers and Mrs. Lowell Eastburn.

Say NYC May Cut Passenger Train Service

NEW YORK (UP)—The New York Central railroad reported today it is seeking to drop a total of 20 passenger trains operated in various sections of its 10,000-mile system.

The railroad lists the trains in applications to various state agencies for permission to curtail or abandon service.

The New York Central System, second longest in the nation, extends from New York, Boston and Montreal in the east to Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis in the west. It reaches south into West Virginia and to the southern tip of Louisiana at Calip.

CASES IN WHICH hearings have not yet been completed include: Chicago and Harrisburg, Ill.—Two trains providing 22,700 annual train miles. The trains pass through Schenck and Swift hills, and applications have been filed with public service commissions in Illinois and Indiana.

Chicago and Harrisburg, Ill.—One train providing 20,772 annual train miles. Applications to abandon this daily eastbound local have been filed with Illinois and Indiana commissions.

In all passenger abandonment cases, the Central claimed there were too few passengers to warrant continuing the service.

8 Brink's Bandits Get Life Terms

BOSTON (UP)—Eight Brink's bandits began serving life sentences today and locked up with them was the secret of what happened to the terms were imposed Tuesday by Superior Judge Felix Frankfurter in a two-car collision on the Amherst River bridge near here in which a woman was seriously injured.

SENTENCED WERE Joseph F. McGuinn, 33, gang mastermind; Adolph (Duke) Maffie, 45; Anthony Pino, 45; Vincent J. Costa, 42; Michael V. Geagan, 46; Henry Baker, 56; Thomas F. Richardson, 48; and James F. Faherty, 45; all of greater or lesser notoriety.

The most impressive array of armed with shotguns and removed by special van to the 100 million maximum security prison at Walpole.

ONLY $50,000 has been recovered by investigators. The FBI had the money totting in a better cooler during a surprise raid last June on a Boston contracting office.

For one man not present, the sentences came as a final stroke of vengeance. Joseph (Boss) McKee, confessed bandit, who "I was there" story sent him to prison, gave a statement satisfied when told of the punishment.

McKee, who faces sentencing later, testified he was "robbed of his share of the Brink's loot."

But the danger of the disease is evidenced by U. S. and Illinois health departments. From February through July in 1956 the state laboratories have positively diagnosed 64 cases of animal rabies in Illinois, the county veterinarian reported.

A total of 790 people have been given the human rabies prophylactic treatment.

"In order to protect the health of children, as well as all of the people, see that your dog wears a 1958 vaccination tag," Dr. Mudd concluded.

Off Duty Officer Seizes Two Men After Robbery

CHICAGO (UP)—An off duty traffic policeman captured two men a few minutes after they robbed a Milwaukee railroad worker of $100 early today.

Policeman Abraham Troop, 31, was stopped by one of three men who told him the other two men had robbed him. He was Ernest Alfieri, 33, a switchman.

The other man fled but Troop, after a short chase near the Loop between Clark and LaSalle Sts., caught them in an alley. Troop said Alfieri's wallet with $108 was found in possession of Charles Skaggs, Jr., 31.

Troop said Skaggs and his companion, Michael Felanes, 35, admitted robbing Alfieri. They said they met him at a bus station, helped him with his luggage and then offered to buy him a drink. They were held in jail without charge.

Davis found the small bat hanging from a tree near his home. It bit him on the right thumb. Davis didn't think about the bite and placed the bat in a jar. It died and the boy preserved it for his class. He sealed the jar and put it in a freezer.

Monday the family physician found out about the bite and urged a test. The bat was found to be rabid.

Offered Position

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—The producer who made Grace Kelly's last picture may be the next president of MGM. Sol Siegel, 33, confirmed today that he had been approached for the job which will become vacant Nov. 15 when Arthur Loew's announced resignation takes effect. He said he has reached no decision.

Bridge Collision Kills Illinois Man

CHARLESTON (UP)—Omar Reid, 48, Mattoon, Ill., was killed Tuesday in a two-car collision on the Amherst River bridge near here in which a woman was seriously injured.

Authorities said the crash ripped 30 feet of railing from the bridge and left Reid's auto dangling halfway over the side of the bridge.

Mrs. Arthur Buntin, Ashmore, Ill., driver of the other car, was taken to Union Hospital at Terre Haute, Ind., with broken legs.

Pliers Snip Off Band On Girl's Finger

CHICAGO (UP)—A little girl put stainless steel band on the little finger of her left hand Tuesday but she couldn't get it off.

Neither could attendants at three hospitals where she was taken by her mother.

Also stumped was a fire department rescue squad.

Mrs. Olive Woodard, 34, first took her daughter, Darlene, 7, to the Provident Hospital, to have the band removed. Attendants tried water and soap, but no soap, the band didn't budge. They suggested the Cook County Hospital.

Doctors and nurses at the county hospital tried clipping off the band with ring snippers, which didn't work on stainless steel. They suggested a visit to Illinois Research Hospital.

Attendants at Illinois Research had no luck and called a fire department rescue squad. The firemen failed to remove the band.

Burglars Net $1,670 From Momence Post

About $1,670 in money, merchandise and equipment, including about $1,000 worth of liquor, has been stolen from the Momence American Legion post 40.

Someone broke down a door between 8 p. m. Monday and 3 p. m. Tuesday, according to Deputy Sheriff Arnold Pepin and Robert Dobberhoff of the Momence police.

A telephone circuit was broken about 8:45 p. m. Monday, it was reported. The building, located northeast of Momence, is closed Monday.

The list of items stolen includes the liquor, $250 in bills and change, a public address system worth $200, a money changer, approximately $100 in change from a juke box, about $15 in cigars and money from a vending machine, five boxes of cigars, a mixer worth $32 and $15 in loose pennies.

Navy Plans New Balloon Assault On Altitude Mark

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — The Navy will attempt to send two men more than 15 miles above the earth's surface to a new altitude record for manned balloons.

If successful, the attempt would wipe out the old record of 72,335 feet, or somewhat less than 14 miles, set in 1931 in Sour, Dakota.

Originally the flight was planned for late this month, but the Navy said in Washington Tuesday it now is "doubtful" that it will be made before the end of the year. It said technical difficulties would delay the first flight in a series of "strato-lab" research ascensions.

The launching is expected to be at the University of Minnesota air port at suburban New Brighton.

The first flight of the series will have an 80,000-foot altitude target, but later the Navy hopes to send manned balloons as high as 100,000 feet.

Demos, GOP Debate Issues In Waukegan

WAUKEGAN (UP)—An all-Mitchell political debate failed to come off Tuesday night because James Mitchell, secretary of labor, did not appear.

Stephen A. Mitchell, former Democratic national chairman, presented his party's side. Sam Young, Glenview, chairman of the Illinois Republican Speakers Bureau, substituted for the cabinet member who, Young said, had a conflicting speaking engagement.

Contrary to Republican claims, Stephen Mitchell said, the cost of federal government has gone up twice since 1932. Congress has raised the debt limit, he said, adding:

"The truth of the matter is that instead of economy the cost of the civil end of the government is up while the defense expenditures are down."

Young declared "There can be no doubt but that President Eisenhower, the most qualified man to head the nation another four years."

As accomplishments of the present administration to support his statement, Young declared the Korean War, ended under Eisenhower, and the new peacekeeping settlements by the U. S. of international differences, reducing the national debt, rising employment, strengthening of the armed forces and reduction of the cost of living.

Both speakers in the forum sponsored by the "Real World" mentioned the state political campaign.

As Fiancee Attempts Rescue Bear Claws Trainer To Death

LIBERTYVILLE (UP)—An animal trainer was fatally mangled Tuesday by a 500-pound performing bear as his fiancee tried desperately to lure the bear away.

Paul Lemery, 26, of Nashua, N. H., died en route to a hospital a few minutes after the bear had been shot.

Authorities said Lemery, 26, was outside the cage at the time. She took a seven-foot pole and began to beat the bear, without any success.

They led for all six of the territory-wide offices "at risk," although by narrow margins in some cases. They led for 18 seats in the territorial House of Representatives, while Republicans were ahead for five out of seven territorial Senate seats on which voters had been called to establish a trend. One of them, however, was by only a one-vote margin.

The swing in favor of the Democrats came, largely on big blocks of votes from the populous Anchorage and Fairbanks districts, although it was at Fairbanks that three of the five Republicans were leading for the Alaska Senate.

MISS RODRIGUEZ then tried to coax the animal away with sugar, also to no avail.

At this point, authorities said, Robert Bellefleur, 26, operator of a nearby leather goods shop ran in with a deer rifle and killed the bear.

Police said they arrived at about the same time and pulled Lemery, still alive, from the dead animal's grasp.

Lemery had recently been employed as a trainer for the Hawthorne-Melody Farms, a dairy near Libertyville. He recently went into business for himself with four bears.

GOD, CHAIRMAN George Hill, said, his Democratic opponent, Earl Butler, were asked to report on contributions received and expenditures made by their parties during September.

Commenting on Butler's proposal, Gore said that he would prefer to let all contributions to federal election campaigns and have the government foot campaign bills. But he said that idea was impractical in view of "complex and intricate" federal laws.

The local unit rated 100 per cent in membership according to Mrs. J. C. McChang.

Donation Plan For Politics Said Too Low

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) today termed an estimated $20 million plan for reasonably low individual contributions to political campaigns.

The proposal was made by Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, in testimony Tuesday before a Senate subcommittee on campaign spending.

The group today called for testimony from the national chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties; from officials of advertising agencies for both parties; from Assistant Attorney General Warren Olney and from Captain G. Ketchum, Pittsburgh campaign fund raiser.

GOD, CHAIRMAN George Hill, said, his Democratic opponent, Earl Butler, were asked to report on contributions received and expenditures made by their parties during September.

Commenting on Butler's proposal, Gore said that he would prefer to let all contributions to federal election campaigns and have the government foot campaign bills. But he said that idea was impractical in view of "complex and intricate" federal laws.

99.4% Of Highland Park Eligible Voters Register

HIGHLAND PARK (UP)—This Chicago suburb of 24,000 has registered a record 99.4 per cent of its eligible voters for the November election, it was reported today.

Mrs. Howard I. Lee, chairman of the registration drive, said 278 persons registered to vote in the Nov. 8 election Tuesday, the final day of registration.

It increased total registration to 12,590 persons, only 79 short of the 12,669 eligible voters.

The community was competing with Waukegan, Wis., in an attempt to get 100 per cent registration. Previous high mark for registration was 85 per cent of eligible voters, set last April at Davenport, Iowa.

Powell, Daley Predict Victory

Gov. William G. Stratton Tuesday night charged "Democratic bosses in Cook County" are trying to run the state with "handpicked" candidates, and Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter accused the Democrats of making a circus of the Hodge scandal.

The Democrats, meanwhile, met in a "charmony" gathering at Springfield and heard State Rep. Paul Powell, dovish State leader from Vienna, and Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, predict a party victory in November.

Referring to U.S. Senate Banking Committee hearings in Chicago on the Hodge case, Carpenter said he was "tired of hearing criticism" from Democrats on the Hodge matter and "the indignities that office holding in Illinois is at a low level."

He said the Democrats were making a "hippodrome" out of the Hodge case.

POWELL SAID he had stood at a meeting eight years ago in the same room where the Democrats met Tuesday and predicted the party's victory.

"I can assure the meat cooking again," Powell said.

A $50,000 drive to elect Democratic opponent, Richard B. Austin, was "running up and down the state making loose charges against every office but the office of governor."

"It is evident that the hand-picked candidate for governor knows nothing about the high office of the chief executive of the state," he said. He said Austin had offered "no program" and is "utterly ignorant of the operation of government."

The group was preceded by a business meeting at the school, conducted by President Paul Brown. Mrs. Jerome O'Connor, leader, Mrs. Harold Veranda, and Mrs. Frank Murry, co-leaders, and Mrs. Joseph Knaga took the girls to the farm.

He said the sole protection in the amendment is a prohibition against the levy of a graduated income tax.

"Another major criticism of the amendment," said Mote, "is that it opens the door to excessive classification of personal property."

Good Times Reflected In Bank Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—Good times are reflected in the nation's banks, reports from around the country today show the financial institutions turning in earnings reports for the summer months anywhere from 10 to 35 per cent above those for 1955's third quarter.

They have profited both by the cause and effect of tight money. The cause—the setting down of loan rates—has put more banks in the position of lending out every dollar they can lay their hands on. The effect—higher interest charges—has sweetened the returns on loans they make.

Most of the reports, however, show little if any increase in total deposits. Many report a decline in deposits, and report losses on the sales of securities. In both cases tight money again gets the blame.

Tight money and higher interest rates have meant that depositors—as well as the banks—can find profitable investments and tend to keep their money at home rather than leaving it in the bank.

In their search for money to lend at higher interest rates to meet a growing demand for loans, banks have sold their fixed-interest securities at a loss. This is because as money tightened and yields went up on other investments, the price of the fixed-interest bonds and government securities fell.

The banks took a loss in selling them. But they were able to take a tax deduction on the loss and use the cash they got to lend to businessmen at higher interest rates. An exception was J. P. Morgan & Co., which reports profits on its security investments, compared with a loss last summer.

BANKS' PRIME RATE—that charged their biggest and highest credit rating borrowers—is now 4 per cent, compared with 3½ per cent a year ago.

How loans to business have been soaring is shown in the report of New York banks which now have nearly 11 billion dollars out, a gain of 2½ billion over this time last year.

Truck Driver Dies In Freak Accident

BELLEVILLE (UP)—A 31-year-old truck driver was killed in a freak highway accident near Belleville, Tuesday.

He was Erwin Jung of 723 N. Church St., Belleville.

Illinois highway police said Jung was thrown from his pickup truck when a trucking company being towed hit the side of a bridge on Ill. 181.

He was dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

U of I Ready To Aid Junior Schools: Henry

EAST ST. LOUIS (AP)—President David D. Henry of the University of Illinois said the university stands ready to help junior colleges with senior college courses whenever it can.

Henry Tuesday night told a meeting of St. Clair and Madison County educators that the university views with approval the establishment of locally operated junior colleges whenever the need is clear and the necessary resources are available.

HE SAID the university is ready to assist communities measure their needs for junior colleges, to help them determine how best to meet the required educational standards and to make some supplemental offerings through its extension division.

Illinois hasn't reached a clear policy, Henry said, for the establishment of university branches in metropolitan areas.

Should the state do so and make the resources available, Henry said the university would make plans for such branches and avoid consideration of the Madison St. Clair County areas as well as Cook County (Chicago).

Good And Bad News For Autumn Beauties

From a beauty point of view, there's good and bad news in the fall fashion picture. On the whole, though, we'd say style is especially good this year, for they've varied enough to flatter every figure type.

Under good news, we list the following:

Coats have improved no end. Even non-fitted ones are molded along slim lines, just miss hugging the figure. They're even so much more becoming than the tent-like yardage that passed for a coat just a few seasons back. The new look is slimming, too.

The slim girl can look forward to dresses cut on Empire lines, with raised waistlines, the flaring of a cape and the snug fit of knits. All are the fashion. All will look well on her.

Miss Fatty can also take a peek at some of the blouse-back styles in casual clothes. They're a good bet if her figure problem includes an unsightly over-the-shoulder roll.

In a few fashions, there's bad news:

Hats can be summed up in one word: Horrible!

Those big, broad-brimmed styles that mushroom over lady's head become instantly anyone at all. The thin girl is lost under such an enormous headstall and the fat girl looks even fatter.

Draped bodices — and you see them on any number of evening gowns — aren't the greatest, either.

In the veterans day cigarette to the department of Illinois and $10 to the Community Chest. The auxiliary will also donate five flags and stars for cub scout troops in Bradley.

The Rev. E. S. Worley officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar beaded with arrangements of white gaidoli and chrysanthemums flanked by lighted tapers in branch candelabra. An archway was covered with white satin ribbon and white flowers.

Miss Barbara Mayotte was pianist and accompanied Dean Harding, soloist, as he sang "I Love You Truly," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional processional and recessional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Causticity lace underlined with satin. The fitted bodice featured long tapered sleeves and a matching neckline. The bouquet skirt was worn over a hoop and was accented with scallops of lace.

A JULIET CAP of lace and satin secured her fragrant veil of French illusion which had been made by Mrs. Ray Laird. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, stephanotis and white ribbon which extended into long streamers tied in lover's knots and lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Donna Wall of Crescent City, cousin of the bride, and Miss Barbara Deane of Sheldon was bridesmaid. Both wore light turquoise taffeta ensembles with a long torso waistline, neck lines cut to a low V in the back and full, pleated skirts with bustle bow effects. Their silver necklaces were gifts of the bride and they carried arrangements of white shagbuds chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon.

The bridegroom's attendants included Terry Bowman of Bloomington as best man, Carroll Kennedy of Sheldon as groomsmen and Arnold R. Mayotte, brother of the bride and Eldon Barnhill of St. Anne, cousin of the bridegroom, as ushers.

A RECEPTION followed in the church basement with Mrs. Ray Laird, Mrs. Elizabeth Hickman, Mrs. Freda Mayotte and Mrs. Lucille Hiltz in charge. A four tiered, decorated cake centered the bridal table. It was baked by Mrs. Howard Barnhill, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Grace Tietz, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Ray Leonard, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Charles Darrough and Miss Mary Ellen Prater poured; Mrs. Ernest Yabick and Dorene Quilley, cousin of the bride assisted with serving and Mrs. Robert Schuler, cousin of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the new Mrs. Lottinville selected a gray dress with black and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The group voted to donate $5 to the veterans day cigarette to the department of Illinois and $10 to the Community Chest. The auxiliary will also donate five flags and stars for cub scout troops in Bradley.

Mrs. Delmar Gagnon, cancer chairman, announced there will be a special party on Oct. 19 at the club rooms.

Mrs. Lionel LeBaron, auxiliary hospital chairman, reported there will be a party at Manteno State Hospital Oct. 25 at 6:30 p. m. and the evening of each party.

An announcement was made by Mrs. Victor Maxson, department hospital chairman at Manteno State Hospital, that there will be a party at the club rooms at 6 p. m. at the club for transportation.

The auxiliary will sponsor a cooked food sale Nov. 17 at 25 W. Broadway. Bradley, all proceeds will go toward the department chairman's project at Manteno State Hospital. The committee in charge of the cooked food sale will be Mrs. Richard Owen, Mrs. Donald Chalkin and Mrs. Victor Maxson.

The gown was cut on princess lines and was detailed with a band of silk-embroidered with pearls and sequins across the bodice.

A PLATEAU HEADPIECE of jeweled lace secured her veil of imported silk illusion and she carried an arrangement of red roses.

Adventures In Good Eating By Duncan Hines

Guinea Squash Pie

Northern folk, Florida-bound, never miss an opportunity to enjoy a meat at the "House-by-the-Road" in Ashburn, Ga., for their food is superb. One of their unique dishes that deserves admiration is guinea squash pie. Serve it to your family and listen to their praise. This recipe serves six people:

Peel 1 medium-sized eggplant, and boil it in salted water. When done, drain and mash. Soak 3 slices of toasted bread in a little milk, until soft. Mix with the mashed eggplant. Beat 1 egg slightly, and add to the above. Blend in with the mixture 1 chopped onion, 3 tablespoons melted butter, 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper to taste. Pour into buttered casserole. Pour 2 tablespoons cream over top and bake in 350 F. oven for 25 minutes until a golden-brown.

But I realized they were well suited for each other in religion, family backgrounds, and general social attitudes.

"When you attend a movie with Clint," I advised, "be sure you sit on his left side."

ANNE LOOKED puzzled and asked why.

"Because that's the side where he carries a handkerchief in his front coat pocket," I continued.

"Such advice may seem trivial to you, but often a magician's trick cannot be performed if he accidentally picks up his equipment with the wrong hand."

"So—struggle—against—Clint's shoulder during the climax of the movie. If he picks up his cue and tries to hold your hand, be sure you cooperate."

"And when passion occurs, don't hesitate to let the tears flow. Men like to see their girl friends sympathetic at such times."

"Just don't snifle so loudly you attract the attention of other moviegoers in your row."

THEN BLINDLY reach over with your free hand and take the handkerchief out of Clint's coat pocket. Use it to dab at your tears.

"Afterwards, you can apologize for being so sentimental and offer Mrs. Arthur a handkerchief for him."

"He has dated you long enough now to know what a fine girl you are and to feel the effect of your vital personality."

"So what I have just advised will help suggest that you look to him in a crisis. That will inflate his ego. And your use of event his pocket handkerchief will further increase his feeling of oneness with you."

Simple Trick Concludes Experiment In Love

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Place A, 20, is the code which I selected for Clint's experiment, as described Tuesday.

"Dr. Crane, Clint and I have been dating steadily for the last three months," Anne began.

"And I am growing so fond of him, if you know what I mean. For he hasn't really told me he loves me, though I have often felt he is going to tell me he loved me."

"He seems to be fighting himself, too. For example, he may grow almost confessional and act as if he is going to tell me he loved me."

"Then in a moment of time, he will draw back and act almost sarcastic. He is afraid of love? And what should I do?"

Keep In Trim

The Latest Diet From Hollywood

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Many overweights inquire wistfully if there isn't some novel plan of calorie curbing that can help to make dieting less boring and wear a smaller size. But the third day, interest wanes and they slip back to their old eating habits, which unfortunately have proved to be only a teaser.

From Hollywood comes an ingenious reducing system: A West Coast reader has devised a diet plan that she claims is guaranteed to take the boredom out of calorie curbing. Here it is in her own words:

"I would like to pass along a 'sure fire' diet plan I have been using. It's my own idea and since it works, I have no rigid meal hours, but back to 1,600 calories for a week, for me, I thought perhaps it might be helpful to other overweights. I've tried all kinds of diets, but found them impractical—an ounce of this and a spoonful of that proved to be only a teaser.

From Hollywood comes an ingenious reducing system: A West Coast reader has devised a diet plan that she claims is guaranteed to take the boredom out of calorie curbing. Here it is in her own words:

"I would like to pass along a 'sure fire' diet plan I have been using. It's my own idea and since it works, I have no rigid meal hours, but back to 1,600 calories for a week, repeating the calorie curbing cycle. "WHEN I STARTED three weeks ago I weighed 160 pounds (152). I now weigh 140 pounds and have slimmed down from a size 18 dress to size 16. Feel wonderful!"

"Each morning I arrange a tray with calorie counted servings of just what I feel I would like to eat that day. Then I place the tray in the refrigerator. No further fuss. "The day's menu is always planned around the foods you turn protective—eggs, fruit, vegetables, meat, salad greens or tomato, meat, skim milk, cheese, bread and juice. I have all the black coffee and tea I wish. On the 1,000 calorie allowance day I include a sweet, for the day, and then keep it to a small serving.

"I have no rigid meal hours, but select and prepare some food whenever I feel the urge. When the food on the tray is gone—that's it. Believe me, when you know that's all there is, you stretch it out for the day. Dieting is really fun this way and I never felt any hunger pangs.

"Everyone compliments me on how wonderful I look. I didn't tell anyone I was dieting—too many kiltzlers! Do hope my program helps someone else."

While this novel system isn't according to the usual recommended plan for changing food habits, the proof is in the results. This diet does have the protective foods daily, and the lost weight successfully. To each her own select and prepare some food when-

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Renz of 1529 42nd St., Brooklyn, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois to Ronald P. Erlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Erlinger of 183 S. Alton Ave. No date has been selected for the wedding.

Judith Ann Mayotte Weds Gaylord Lottinville

Wedding vows were exchanged Sept. 29 at 2:30 p.m. by Miss Judith Ann Mayotte and Gaylord L. Lottinville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Mayotte of Sheldon and the bridegroom is the son of Harold A. Lottinville, also of Sheldon.

The Rev. E. S. Worley officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar beaded with arrangements of white gaidoli and chrysanthemums flanked by lighted tapers in branch candelabra. An archway was covered with white satin ribbon and white flowers.

Miss Barbara Mayotte was pianist and accompanied Dean Harding, soloist, as he sang "I Love You Truly," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional processional and recessional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Causticity lace underlined with satin. The fitted bodice featured long tapered sleeves and a matching neckline. The bouquet skirt was worn over a hoop and was accented with scallops of lace.

A JULIET CAP of lace and satin secured her fragrant veil of French illusion which had been made by Mrs. Ray Laird. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, stephanotis and white ribbon which extended into long streamers tied in lover's knots and lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Donna Wall of Crescent City, cousin of the bride, and Miss Barbara Deane of Sheldon was bridesmaid. Both wore light turquoise taffeta ensembles with a long torso waistline, neck lines cut to a low V in the back and full, pleated skirts with bustle bow effects. Their silver necklaces were gifts of the bride and they carried arrangements of white shagbuds chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon.

The bridegroom's attendants included Terry Bowman of Bloomington as best man, Carroll Kennedy of Sheldon as groomsmen and Arnold R. Mayotte, brother of the bride and Eldon Barnhill of St. Anne, cousin of the bridegroom, as ushers.

A RECEPTION followed in the church basement with Mrs. Ray Laird, Mrs. Elizabeth Hickman, Mrs. Freda Mayotte and Mrs. Lucille Hiltz in charge. A four tiered, decorated cake centered the bridal table. It was baked by Mrs. Howard Barnhill, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Grace Tietz, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Ray Leonard, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Charles Darrough and Miss Mary Ellen Prater poured; Mrs. Ernest Yabick and Dorene Quilley, cousin of the bride assisted with serving and Mrs. Robert Schuler, cousin of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the new Mrs. Lottinville selected a gray dress with black and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Who 'Foots the Bill' for Trading Stamps?

REMEMBER THIS? Last February, Rudy published the results of actual price surveys of stamp-stores and Rudy's. TRADING STAMPS ADD TO THE COST OF DOING BUSINESS-- AND THE COST IS REFLECTED IN THE PRICE OF THE ITEMS YOU BUY! Proof was given that Rudy's EVERYDAY LOW PRICES ON NAME-BRANDS enable you to buy so-called "premiums" at FULL RETAIL PRICE in LOCAL STORES and have plenty of money left... that, for example, you had to buy $2,790 worth of groceries to receive a G. E. Vacuum Cleaner (retail price, $79.95) on a Stamp Plan... but that Rudy's price structure for the same groceries enabled you to buy the cleaner and still have more than $200 CASH SAVINGS left over! Now, in October, Rudy is again happy to call attention to a significant Trading Stamp Report-- this time from the one-and-only READER'S DIGEST!

TRADING STAMPS— BONUS OR BUNKUM?

By Albert Q. Maisel

LATE FALL in Minneapolis a ten-year-old boy strolled longingly through the city's leather goods store, eyeing genuine leather "soccer" footballs. His mother, who was leading in his eyes, sat, seeing the little booklet from Drew & Co. and went into the store. A few minutes later, without having made a purchase, she returned with a penny in her hand and the coveted football.

The other youngsters went through the same performance and more the mothers responded; before the Christmas season was over, under scrimmage season, some 6,000 Minneapolis parents saw some 600 Minnesota parents buy some 600 on as many bud-dying quarterbacks. The prestige of football ownership, no money had changed hands. Every one of these footballs was paid for with trading stamps.

Within the past two years, according to a story, more than three million of the housewives of Minneapolis have become the happy victims of trading stamp fever. Nor is Minneapolis alone in the stamp craze. The United States, it is being said, has bitten the little blue stamp bug. The United States, the United States, each requires a ten-cent purchase, are exchanged for tens of thousands prestige of football ownership. Every one of these footballs was paid for with trading stamps.

Within the past two years, according to a survey, more than three quarters of the housewives in Minneapolis have become the happy victims of trading stamp fever. Nor is Minneapolis the only city where the stamp-saving virus has bitten half the population in the United States; the little villages of gummed paper, each representing a ten-cent purchase, are being exchanged for tens of thousands ered to redeem them in stamps and a recent purchase of 1000 of them, representing 70 cents in cash or a dollar's worth of merchandise. Soon other Millwaukee merchants began to buy the stamps and give them to buy the stamps and so for 65 years to their customers. That city have had a special stamp for making a check for women in prison, and a stamp for the de-mo-shopping.

It took two resourceful promoters, however, to fulfill the full promise of Schuster's simple plan. In 1896, in Bridgeport, Conn., John A. Sperry and Sheller Jr., Thomas Schuster's son, began a trading aggressively fighting the competition of the new-fangled chain stores, bought stamps as a means of hanging onto their customers.

Later, during and just after World War II, merchandise shortages forced a seller's market and stores found little need and storekeepers as a sales prop. Many of the stamp collecting companies folded up even so. H.P. operated a folding-up business.

A new stamp boom got started when a Denver supermarket itself lured customers to new-cutting prices to mop up larger chain groceries. In the meantime, dollar. Boston's may have repeatedly encouraged the poor to buy stamps, but it proved more effective than prices. A St. Louis drawing women offered to give extra stamps on a single purchase of $1 or more during its last Saturday day promotion. The offer was advertised only in circulation. In a paper with 65,000 readers, yet the next morning women from all over the city's entrance lined up deep as the doors to open. Before the day ended 32,000 of them had clambered their way in, in a mad scramble to earn a stamp worth about 12½ cents.

Stamp-saving had less caused many a shopkeeper to think twice before he chose his prices. The manager of one Cincinnati grocery store, for instance, had a lot of store of his price. Cincinnati was a concentration of men, assuming this was a concentration reduction, immediately came out with this: a sneaky plan: "planned; in this, a sneaky plan: 'cheat us out of an extra stamp!' The diminished manager pointed out the stamp she had thought she had lost was worth only two cents of a cent. But she refused to listen and ran out of the store.

What is the cause of this epidemic of trading 'stamp fever'? Everybody likes to think he is getting something for nothing. Eugene Peterson, from research for "Love Vouchers" believes that part of "mad money" stamps can be used for luxury purchases as well as for luxuries, but whites with no need to account to their husbands.

Dr. Bertrams, a class of the Stanford Research Institute made a study of women shoppers' subconscious reasons for saving stamps and came to the conclusion: "stamp saving helps most women to satisfy two deep yearnings simultaneously. It brings them the gratification they desire while still letting them feel that they are shrewd budget managers."

Is this in feeling justified? It would be; if trading stamps were actually "something for nothing," and the glamour items actually "free gifts."

Dr. Bertrand Kloss of the Stanford Research Institute made a study of women shoppers' subconscious reasons for saving stamps and came to the conclusion that they do two things: they want to satisfy long-contingent yearnings for luxuries they cannot afford to buy now, and they want to bring them off by letting them depreciate while still letting them manage to buy them. They are thrifty budget managers.

Is this feeling justified? It would be, if trading stamps were actually "something for nothing" and the glamour items at the premium counters were actually "free gifts."

that stamps has boomed so fast, collectors, singly or in groups, are estimated to have bought an additional 20 percent of the stamps for the extra cost of 15 to 20 percent. The average supercollector's sales volume alone has increased until it is now $100,000. And as competitors fight back with stamps of their own, but no magic increase in the consuming capacity of a community. Eventually, the cost of stamps hike up for the added cost of stamp sale, the most of which is the cost of the added postage. Some of these prices exceed the extra price increases. Sometimes the stamps are bought in bulk, for example, in Alameda, Calif., a stamp supercollector bought 100 stamps for $128. At a competing store that was identified by the collector as $128. Hence, the identical stamps that were sold at the store for $128, the collector paid 88 percent higher prices to get stamp dividends that were only two percent of the stamps' purchase price.

But in hundreds of stamp-collecting swamped towns, consumers have no choice but to do much of their buying at stores that have joined the stamp brigade. If you're in such a community you can still make the most of your shopping dollars by following a few simple rules:

1. Shop for value rather than for stamps. Check the advertised prices for goods of equal quality are lower. A fifth to ten percent saving is a fair trade for more than two percent discount given to you in trading stamps.
2. Always take all the stamps you are entitled to. Storekeeper who refuse to take care of the stamps if you forget your stamp book, then they get an extra profit. Spend your filled stamp books as you're going to a redemption store. The actual cash value of the stamps is a small amount.
