Pastor Says Capital Could Become Sickest 'Church City In America'

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The nation's capital is in danger of becoming "the sickest church-city in America."

That warning comes from the Rev. G. Edson Burke, pastor of National Baptist Memorial Church here and ex-industrial and institutional chaplain.

"People with serious personality problems are coming to many Washington churches and are not getting their problems answered," Burke contends. "This is because many Washington churches are still functioning in the context of a small-town provincialism, with the preacher as the top-man-on-the-totem-pole."

BURKE SAYS it is "very significant that many of these churchgoers are federal workers—some now in positions of authority and influence—and others who tomorrow may be guiding the reins of the greatest government on the face of this earth."

"Among these church people are the Congressmen who make our laws, the men from the Pentagon who make the military decisions on which our beloved nation may live or perish. Some are school teachers with the destiny of tomorrow's citizens in their hands. Many are parents of children who tomorrow may be running the affairs of a city whose population, it has been predicted, will soar to three-and-a-half million by 1960."

BURKE PICTURES the nation's capital as being populated mainly by persons from small-town and rural backgrounds, "with frustrations caused by the clash of these divergent provincial backgrounds of social, religious and economic prejudices." He adds:

"This frustration often causes a Washington personality to pull back into an island of loneliness and anonymity. A factor further frustrating the situation is caused by the transient status of the Washington constituency. The metropolitan church—especially the downtown churches—must be geared to minister to this type of person."

Burke says that while minister-congregants for a large industrial firm, he made a multi-city survey of 4,000 Washington homes of all income levels and said

Teacher Hunt Starts Early For Kankakee System

Dr. Anthony Marinaccio, Kankakee superintendent of schools, is interviewing teacher candidates at four Illinois colleges this week.

Marinaccio said he hopes to contact prospective teachers ahead of other school systems.

In past years, Kankakee administrators have made such visits after the first of the year, but this year's visits were moved up. The Kankakee district's actual teacher needs are not yet known, but there is an annual turnover caused by resignations. In addition, more classrooms have to be opened each year.

Last year the Kankakee staff examined papers of 900 persons to find 50 new teachers.

Dr. Marinaccio interviewed prospective Monday at Illinois State Normal University.

Today he was to address the student body at MacMurray College after interviewing prospective teachers.

At 4 p. m. he was to conduct the shock interview before the MacMurray education students. Marinaccio also planned to interview candidates at Illinois College while in Jacksonville.

He recently completed a five-year study of industrial America, analyzing labor-management relationships and morale problems.

Messiah To Be Heard In 3 Performances At Olivet College

The Olivet Nazarene College Orpheus and Apollo choirs, in conjunction with choirs of eight Kankakee area churches will present three performances of George Frederick Handel's Messiah this week-end. The Messiah will be sung Friday at 8 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m., and Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Church of the Nazarene—Bourbonais.

Choirs participating in addition to the college choirs will be from the Church of Christ, Central Christian Church, DeSoto Church of Latter Day Saints, Immanuel Baptist Church, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, First Methodist Church, First Church of the Nazarene and West Side Church of the Nazarene.

Dr. Walter Larson, chairman of the division of fine arts at Olivet College, will conduct the massed choir accompanied by a chamber orchestra and organ. Kenneth Bader, assistant professor, division of fine arts at the college and organist at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will be the organist.

THIS WILL BE THE 20th annual performance of the Messiah by the Olivet College group. Dr. Larson has conducted the annual presentation since its start.

Although there is no admission charge for the oratorio, admittance is by ticket only, upon request from the college. A third performance has been added this year to accommodate the increasing crowds and virtually all tickets have been requested. Groups from Manteno, Kempton, Chicago, Springfield, Harvey and Pekin have asked for tickets and will attend the performances.

The participants will include 12 soloists to sing the various solo parts. They are: Monagail Trotter, Flint, Mich., and Louise Fallis, Oskaloosa, Iowa, soprano; Nancie Davis, Indianapolis, Ind., contralto; John Schreffler, Kankakee, tenor; and Wayne Gallup, Reading, Mich., bass. Schreffler is a local businessman and well known tenor soloist with the First Methodist Church choir and director of the youth choir at the church. Other Friday evening soloists are students at Olivet College.

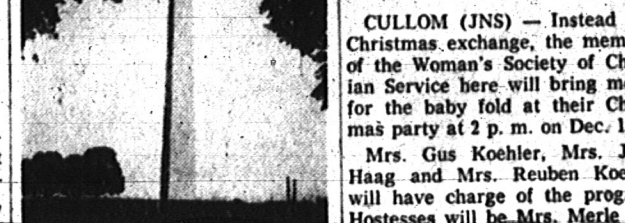

HEADING THE LIST OF Sunday soloists is Bruce Foote, nationally known bass soloist and professor at the University of Illinois. It will be his second consecutive appearance with the group and the fourth time he has sung in the Messiah presented by Olivet College. Foote will appear on both the Sunday afternoon and Sunday evening programs.

Sunday afternoon soloists in addition to Foote will be Elizabeth Hatcher, Detroit, soprano; Ruth McClain, graduate student from the University of Illinois, alto; and Charles Hasselbring, Olivet College instructor in voice, tenor. Sunday evening soloists appearing with Foote will be Linda Luttrell, Olivet student from Columbus, Ind., soprano; Mrs. Naomi Larson, professor of piano and voice at Olivet College, contralto; and Daniel Liddell, assistant professor of voice at Olivet College, tenor.

A 20 piece orchestra including several outside participants will accompany the performance.

Says West Can Hit Red Aggression

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UP) — Sen. Alfred Gruenther, former commander of NATO, warned Tuesday night the Western powers have "overwhelming capacity" to retaliate against Communist aggression.

Gruenther made the statement after receiving the "Tartarus" Medal presented by the University of Notre Dame as the outstanding Catholic layman in this country for 1956.

The general will become president of the American Red Cross next month when he retires from the Army.

He said the addition of armed forces of West Germany to the NATO force insured the defense of Western Europe. Long-range air power, he said, would assure retaliation.

Judy Hildenbrand presented the candidates for induction to W. W. Knecht, principal, who gave a short talk on the ideals and responsibilities of belonging to NHS.

While the newly elected members signed the register, Carol Worthell played a piano accompaniment.

David Dressler has been elected president of the "M" Club of Kankakee High School.

Other officers are Frank Bradley, vice president; Robert Senor, secretary; Clayton Katlin, treasurer; Fred Weisbach, reporter, and Edgar Jensen, sentinel.

75 More Midwest Communists Named

CHICAGO (U.S.)—A former FBI undercover agent in the Communist party identified more than 75 persons as Communists Tuesday, including a top official of a union ousted from the CIO for being dominated by Reds.

The agent, Anzell A. Czarowski, 60, of suburban Argo, also told a congressional subcommittee that at one party meeting he saw some Communists acting out "executions" of non-Communist sympathizers with parade rifles. He said the weapons were owned by the Argo-Summit Post of the American Legion and were stored temporarily in his house.

Among persons identified by Czarowski as Communists were Ernest De Maio, president of District 11 of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (U.E.R. & M.), whose group includes Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota, invoked the First and Fifth Amendments in refusing to testify.

The U.E. was expelled by the CIO in 1949 on the ground that it was Communist dominated. Atty. Gen. Brownell last year labeled the U.E. as "Red" before the subversive activities control board.

Two Chicago women, Ruth Heit and Helen Lewis, also refused to answer questions by subcommittee counsel Richard Arens.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Frazier (D-Tenn.), is seeking evidence as to whether numerous committees throughout the country formed for the announced aim of protecting the foreign born are Communist controlled.

Piper City Cub Scouts Earn Awards

PIPER CITY (INS)—The Piper City Cub Scout pack meeting was held Saturday evening in the Legion Hall.

Alfred Fuoss, cubmaster, opened the meeting with a discussion of the duties of Cubs. Questions from Cubs and parents were answered.

A new den was organized with Mrs. Leo Lovell as den mother. This makes a total of six dens for the pack.

Each den put on skits about Puerto Rico, the theme for November. Den mothers served samples of Puerto Rican food, including baked bananas and corn sticks.

Seth Lane, last year's cubmaster, presented awards to Ernie Martin, Greg Perkinson, Jim Kinkade, Teddy Jensen, Ronnie Ehlers, Steve Boma, Dennis McKee, David Penick, Kenneth Ruoss, Charles Kinkade, Greg Meyers, John Boma, Dennis McKee, Billy May, Lennie Jackson Bruce and Paul McIntosh.

Jim Stecher was taken into the pack as a new member.

Dick Boma read two poems, "A Boy" and "For We Have Seen His Star."

The theme for this month is "Christmas in America." There will be no pack meeting in January. The next meeting will be on Feb. 2.

DR. W. L. HAY, veterinarian, was involved in an auto accident Sunday evening. He was driving on a country road a mile north and two miles west of Cabery, when he missed a turn in the road. The car slid into the ditch. Hay was not hurt. Damage to the station wagon was in the right front wheel suspension.

Pole Primate May Visit Pope Soon

VATICAN CITY (UP)—Vatican sources said today Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński, Roman Catholic primate of Poland, may visit Rome before Christmas.

Advised of a report published today in the Warsaw newspaper Zycie Warszawy that the Polish primate would leave shortly to visit Pope Pius XII here, the source said:

"There is every possibility that this trip might take place soon, possibly before Christmas."

The source said the Warsaw report of the forthcoming visit by the cardinal is a sign of the "good progress" made in talks between Wyszyński and the Polish government.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Harold Nally, chairman, Mrs. William Gould, Mrs. Harry Voss and Mrs. Edward Snyder.

The puma, panther, cougar, cat amount, mountain lion, American lion are all the same animal.

Charred Debris, Twisted Girders Mark Scene Of Blaze

LACK OF NEARBY water mains hampered firemen in their efforts to fight the Lloyd's Supermarket blaze today. In this photo, fire fighters are using a hose from one of the tanker trucks at the scene. Although the store was gutted, firemen managed to save an adjacent business and prevent damage to nearby houses.

CHARRED DEBRIS and twisted metal was all that was left in the checkout area after fire gutted the Lloyd's Supermarket on W. Jeffery street early today.

Scorched grocery carts remain in place amid the wreckage in this photo. In the far background is the O'Connor and Moody Refrigeration Service store which was badly damaged. (Journal photos)

THE ROOF OF LLOYD'S Supermarket comes crashing down as firemen fight the blaze on W. Jeffery street in Kankakee early today. Damage to the building and contents had to an adjoining store was estimated at around $250,000. Firemen from 10 departments responded to alarms.

FIREMEN SEARCH through the blackened ruins of the Lloyd's Supermarket produce department after dawn today to find any last remaining embers. The fast burning blaze gutted the supermarket and damaged a nearby store. The fire started about 3 a.m. today.

FIRE HAS GUTTED out the interior of the supermarket in this photo taken at the Lloyd's store blaze today. The fireman is working in front of the main entrance to the store as steel beams and timbers crash down in front of him.

STREAM OF WATER is shot into Lloyd's Supermarket in an attempt to halt spread of the flames. Firemen had to string hose about 1,300 feet to reach the nearest fire hydrant in Greenfield Subdivision. At least three water tank trucks were at the scene.

One-Hour Domestic Drama At The Austrian Border

Wife In Hungary Refuses Husband's Plea To Flee

SCHUETZEN, Austria (UP)—A young Hungarian farmer stood today in the no-man's-land of the Austro-Hungarian frontier and pleaded in vain for his wife and children to join him in seeking a new life in America.

The farmer was Ignor Habetter, 30. He enacted the one-hour domestic drama with his wife, Maria, within earshot of Hungarian border guards standing by with their guns at the ready, and in view of passing Soviet soldiers. Habetter begged his wife to accompany him to New York.

IN THE END MARIA turned back to Hungary with tears in her eyes. She said she feared even shattered Hungary would be a better place to live than New York if war comes.

"If war breaks out it will be worse in America than here," she said.

The most she would promise was that eventually she might join him when it seemed "feasible."

Habetter fled across the border one dark night two weeks ago, leaving his wife and two children behind in the one-room shack they called home. He returned to the Austrian border post Tuesday afternoon and asked for help in getting word to Maria to join him.

He had received a letter from his sister, Mrs. Anna Gruber of New York, containing money and the promise of financial aid to bring the Habetter family to New York.

HUNGARIAN-SPEAKING Austrian border guards hailed a horse-drawn cart on the other side of the Iron Curtain and asked the driver to tell Mrs. Habetter.

Soon afterward the Austrian guards spied a woman running across the flat fields toward the large Austrian flag marking the nearest border crossing.

Lutherans Ponder Accepting Foreign Memberships

CHICAGO (UP)—The Evangelical Lutheran synodical conference today considered a proposal by its president to extend membership to a number of foreign churches.

The plan was suggested by Dr. Walter A. Baepfer, president of Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, at Tuesday's session of the conference's three-day, 44th convention.

He said "profound changes" are occurring in the Lutheran Church in the United States. He said the conference should be alert to one of its purposes, "to strive for true unity of doctrine and practice among Lutheran bodies."

May Ask For Deficiency Appropriation

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—State Auditor Lloyd Morey Tuesday reported it "begins to look probable" that a deficiency appropriation will be required for the state auditor's office.

Morey is the caretaker auditor appointed by Gov. William G. Stratton to fill the unexpired term of ex-auditor Orville E. Hodges, who was sent to prison for embezzlement and forgery.

Morey said the Dec. 1 balance of the auditor's office appropriations was $1,666,290, enough to cover an average monthly expenditure of $138,857 for the remainder of the biennium.

AS OF DEC. 1, Morey said, bills and commitments were due totaling $222,261. He said the cost of operating the office in November was $195,769, plus the auditor's salary, and $220,653 in October. The November, 1955 figure was $340,804.

Morey said "fraudulent expenditures" from the auditor's office funds by Dodge now stands at $682,722.

He said the "overall condition of appropriations" is favorable, "but the amounts available in certain appropriations are insufficient to meet necessary expenditures."

Morey also announced he and state Auditor-elect Elbert S. Smith have agreed to retain Ernst & Ernst, Chicago accountants, to audit the office accounts during the period of Morey's service.

STEADY BENEFACTOR KITCHENER, Ont. (U)—For the 11th consecutive year, an anonymous donation of $1,000 has been received by the Women's Missionary Society of St. Peter's Lutheran Church here.

See Congress OK Of British Waiver Plea

WASHINGTON (U)—Great Britain's plea for permission to pass up payment of nearly $2 million dollars due this country at year's end drew promises of sympathetic consideration from some key senators today.

The reaction at the State Department was similar, but officials, indicated the Eisenhower administration will ask Congress to rule on the British request.

Doubt was expressed that the executive agencies had authority to take final action.

Congress does not convene until Jan. 3. The payment is due Dec. 31, but it appeared that the question would be left hanging fire until Congress has had time to consider it.

THE LONDON APPEAL, coming on the heels of British-French invasion of Egypt, in effect amounted to a request to this country to share the cost of that U.S.-opposed venture.

Britain's chancellor of the exchequer, Harold Macmillan, told Parliament Tuesday his country's gold and dollar reserves have shrunk. He said the request to the United States was a step essential to protect the stability of the British pound sterling and save it from devaluation which would have repercussions around the world.

The $2 million dollars is an interest payment—71 million due on a U.S. postwar loan of 3½ billion dollars and 11 millions on a 600-million-dollar sum agreed to as settlement of Britain's World War II lend-lease account with the United States.

Also due Dec. 31 are payments of $1 million dollars in the principal on these two accounts. This is payable.

Reach Agreement Covering 25,000 Phone Operators

NEW YORK (UP)—The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Communication Workers of America reached agreement today covering 25,000 long distance operators and maintenance employees who had authorized a strike unless agreement was reached.

The new agreement, signed at 9:30 a.m. after a marathon, all-night negotiating session, provides a wage increase of $2 to $4 a week for beginning long line operators and an increase of $3.50 to $5 at the maximum six-year level. Wages will now range from $48 to $68.50 weekly.

Maintenance employees, described as "plant craftsmen," received an increase of $2 to $3 at the start of the pay schedule and from $3.50 to $5 at the top. Their weekly wages will now run from $52 to $119.

The new wage rates will become effective today if ratified by the union membership within 30 days.

Soviets Remember Joe's Constitution

MOSCOW (U)—This was the 20th anniversary of the proclamation of the Soviet Union's Stalin constitution, and Soviet workers enjoyed one of their four national holidays of the year. Soviet newspapers told them they were much better off than they would be if they lived under the United States Constitution.

The newspaper Soviet Russia made the claim that the U. S. Congress does not include a "single industrial worker or farmer."

Legislature Not Expected To OK Complete Fiscal Control Plan

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—The chairman of the State Budgetary Commission said today it was unlikely that the Legislature would approve "at one dose" a sweeping plan for tighter state fiscal controls governing out of the 2½ million dollar budget.

A number of commission members expressed doubt that the Legislature or the people would approve proposed constitutional changes to eliminate the state auditor and state treasurer as elective officers.

However, Commission Chairman Sen. Everett R. Peters (R-St. Joseph) asked the commission's investigators to draw up legislation embodying the changes.

Women Under 65 To Get Old Age Checks

WASHINGTON (UP)—About 300,000 women under 65 years of age will begin receiving federal old age and survivors insurance checks this week, the Social Security Administration said today.

The proposed reorganization was presented to the Legislature last Tuesday by State Auditor Lloyd Morey, Albert E. Jenner, and John S. Rendleman, who investigated the issue and were asked to draft legislation on the proposed changes.

The commission put off any immediate action on the proposals pending consultations with Gov. William G. Stron and public hearings on the matter.

In addition to abolishing the two elective offices, the 87-page report presented to the commission called for a reorganization of the state to require state candidates to list campaign expenses and contributions, a "conflict of interest" law, establishment of a legislative post-audit of all state spending, creation of a permanent crime investigating commission, and creation of a new department to regulate banks and similar institutions now under the state auditor.

MOREY TOLD the commission a report was "a complete and integrated plan for financial reorganization" and Jenner said the report was "guided by principle and practicality."

Peters said there "appears a very evident need for some reorganization of the state government."

But he said it was unlikely that the Legislature "would approve all these recommendations at one dose."

Sen. Frank Ryan (D-Chicago), a member of the commission, chided Morey for advocating adoption of all the proposals at public meetings before the report was placed in the hands of the commission.

The report also included recommendations for extension of the principle of centralized purchasing and competitive bidding on state work, increases in the fidelity bonds required of state officers, and enactment of legislation providing for public inspection of state records.

Appetite Depressants Not The Solution

By IDA JEAN KAIN

A recent review in this column of the pros and cons of appetite depressants produced a most interesting response among our readers. This is a typical letter...

"I have dieted on and off for years... going to doctors, getting pills to suppress appetite... The pills made me very jittery, but I would lose weight. However, as soon as I stopped taking the pills, all the lost pounds came back on again, and sometimes a few extra. This is so little, please send me the Stay Slim For A Lifetime Diet, for that's what I really want to accomplish."

The trouble with appetite depressants is that not everyone can tolerate them because of their secondary effects—restlessness, nervous tension and sleeplessness—very pointed out in this letter:

"Recently I was persuaded by a friend to take one appetite depressant tablet. Result — I could not sleep and found myself washing the bathroom walls at eleven o'clock at night. That was enough for me! Surprising what such a pill can do to an otherwise reasonable person. Please send me your hunger-control diet... no more pills for me."

To emphasize the importance of promptly reporting to the doctor any adverse reaction to appetite depressants, I am including a third letter which is on a more serious note.

"About ten years ago, in my early twenties, I decided to lose weight. My doctor gave me a prescription for an appetite depressant as a result, I developed such a nervous reaction that I couldn't relax or sleep at night. I never reported to the doctor, he made me stop taking them. When I finally reported to the doctor, he made me stop taking them. I do not feel well and I attribute it to the way I lost weight at that time. From my bad experience I would advise overweight people to count calories — never take drugs."

In justice to the doctor, it is obvious that this dieter made the mistake of delaying too long to inform him of her adverse reaction to the drug. Also, her drastically fast weight loss indicates the ineffectiveness of her nutrition.

Doctors do prescribe appetite depressants for certain over-weights who might never start dieting without this crutch, but the pills are given for a short time only.

The aim must be toward a change of food habits or there will be no lasting results. And daily fare should be deficient in calories only... all essential nutrients must be provided in adequate amounts.

2-Pronged Tight Money Drive Under Way

NEW YORK (U-P) — A two pronged drive on tight money—one on part of its cause, the other on part of its effects—is under way today.

One governmental agency aids the move to get people to save more money so it can be lent to those who need to spend.

At almost the same time another governmental agency is making it easier for our set-of-hoovers, home builders, to find money in a competitive market.

The first could increase the supply of credit, at least for one set of lenders, the commercial banks — the second doesn't.

ON THE OTHER SIDE of the financial street a group of economists forecasts credit will get still tighter before it gets easier. And electronically-controlled radar station, which includes an aircraft identification unit and a rocket launching equipment.

The age of automation is exemplified by a toy electronic brain, powered by a heavy-duty electric motor and capable of doing 20 different things, including moving in any direction and firing missiles. It has not been established whether it will do Junior's homework.

For future engineers there's a miniature Panama Canal designed for indoor-outdoor play with operating lock devices that raise and lower boats. So far, however, there's no playroom Suez.

For would-be astronomers and space researchers there is a miniature Mt. Palomar telescope, and a device for viewing the moon.

Food toys make toy departments these days, with a number of new kits for junior chefs. Cooking repertoire for the playroom now includes soup, sauces, barbecue, treats, chow-nagons, spaghetti and jelly making. To prepare these, there are miniatures of most of Mom's favorite appliances, such as stove and electric mixer.

Housing comes in for its share of attention with a variety of prefabricated structures of tough fiberboard, to be put together by the young builders. These range from split-level dream homes to frontier cabins and from a child-size fire department to a super-market.

Multi-use is stressed in a kit cycle that converts from boy's style to girl's. Waterproof crayons do triple duty as finger-paints, watercolors and regular crayons.

Turncoats Start Home By Plane

HONG KONG (U-P) — The two American turncoats who came back from Red China Sunday — Aaron Wilson and Alvin Pate — are en route by airplane to the United States.

They left early today for Seattle, Wash., at 8:55 p.m.

Pate, 26, lives near Carbondale, Ill. Wilson, 23, is from Urandia, La. Captured in Korean fighting, they were among 21 who returned after the armistice. The Army disbarred them, charged all of them.

It was disclosed Tuesday by Rep. Kenneth Gray (D-Ill.) that the State Department had authorized loans in the past for passage home after the armistice, appealing to his father for $800 to finance the plane trip. He said he wanted to be home for the holidays.

Toyland Enters Atomic Age

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Today's children will get a head start toward genius, through the electronic and mechanical marvels in Santa's 1956 toy pack.

The atomic age has come to Toyland, and every scientific miracle of the adult world is mirrored in miniature for the education of a precocious younger generation.

This year's Christmas toy pack will top a billion dollars, says Melvin Freud, president of Toy Guidance Council. Prices of individual toys are about the same as last year, and Americans ingeniously have produced a record number of new designs, providing multi-play use and extra durability.

Almost every business, profession, art and hobby is represented in the new toy crop. National defense is a theme of many scientific new toys such as the electronic field telephone and a jet pilot helmet with a microphone and loud speaker. There's also an electronically-controlled radar station, which includes an aircraft identification unit and a rocket launching equipment.

The age of automation is exemplified by a toy electronic brain, powered by a heavy-duty electric motor and capable of doing 20 different things, including moving in any direction and firing missiles. It has not been established whether it will do Junior's homework.

Nab Parolee For Thefts In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (U-P) — The FBI and Cincinnati police have captured at gunpoint a parolee from Stateville Prison at Joliet, Ill., wanted for two Greater Cincinnati holdups.

Walter R. Kneller, 33, who said his home is in Indiana, was seized in a restaurant Tuesday. He told arresting officers he "was going to pull two more quick building and loan office holdups and get out of town."

Kneller was sought in connection with the holdup of the Favorite Federal Building & Loan Assn. in nearby Newport, Ky., last September, and the holdup of the Mutual Savings & Loan Co. of Cincinnati Nov. 9.

Police were tipped off to Kneller's whereabouts by a jeweler who became suspicious of Kneller when he visited his store. Police posted men at the store and a nearby restaurant. When the jeweler spotted Kneller again Tuesday afternoon police followed him to the restaurant and arrested him.

Officers said Kneller tried to draw a pistol, but that it stuck in his waistband.

37 More Refugees Milwaukee Bound

MILWAUKEE (U-P) — A second group of Hungarian refugees is scheduled to arrive in Milwaukee tonight.

Charles O'Neill of the St. Vincent de Paul Society said there are 37 persons in the party. Their arrival will increase to 110 the number of refugees brought to Milwaukee. The first group of 73 arrived Nov. 23 to climax a flight directly from refugee camps in Austria and Germany.

The new arrivals will stay at the Schroeder Hotel, as guests of the management, until homes and jobs are found for them.

40-Foot Yule Tree To Shine At Hospital

The tallest Christmas tree cut at Kalespell, Mont., this year, will be erected in the patients' recreation hall at Kankakee State Hospital. Describing Kalespell as "the Christmas tree capital of the world," the Daily Inter Lake newspaper of that town sent the Daily Journal a picture of the tree being loaded in a freight car for shipment to Kankakee.

The Illinois Central and New York Central Railroads helped the Journal trace the carload of Christmas trees to John Panozo, who said he delivered the tree to the hospital, along with four 25-foot trees.

Mrs. Lucille Tooper, supervising recreational therapist, is in charge of decorating the tree. She said she and her co-workers plan to paint it white and shower it with glistening snow. Large, pastel-colored ornaments will be used for decorations and the tree will be flood-lighted.

The hospital's 40-foot tree was cut from a forest 10 miles from Kalespell, where the Christmas tree operations annually begin the first of November.

PATIENT STICKS NECK OUT

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A navy-sponsored medical research team is going to Africa to take the blood pressure of a giraffe or two. It hopes to find out why pressure strong enough to force blood up a giraffe's long neck to its head doesn't at least bring on the staggers when the giraffe lowers its head.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery

un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloot or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thirty" colon. A "thirty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite; robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the lower intestine. The dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to re-activate it. Third, it must be re-activated and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply the bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAX, the amazing new laxative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAX neither gags, bloats, nor irritates; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAX exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overindulgent eating, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAX in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price only 98¢ for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 1¢ per tablet.

NEITHER BATTLEFIELD nor housework defeated Molly Pitcher.

Her real name was Mary Ludwig Hays. As a child, she worked in the fields of her father's farm. And at 15, she began a career as a servant girl — washing dishes, scrubbing, and caring for other people's children.

On June 28, 1778, Mary came to Monmouth County, New Jersey, to visit her husband, an artilleryman serving in the Revolutionary War. When the battle of Monmouth began, Mary saw so much to be done that she just stayed.

How could a young woman help out on a battlefield? Under the torrid sun, she first carried countless pitchers of water to the exhausted and wounded soldiers. And when her husband fell wounded, she took his place at the cannon. Before the battle ended, Mary Ludwig Hays became famous as Molly Pitcher, one of this country's first heroines.

Of course few women serve their country and their husbands in such a dramatic way. But they serve, nevertheless. Today's battles are being fought on the economic front . . . and a family's sound financial standing depends as much upon a woman's ability to manage money as it does her husband's ability to make it.

So, whether it's Molly Pitcher on the battlefield or today's housewife fighting for economic security, a woman has a way of getting things done.

And, to make her way easier, here's a store dedicated to giving her more food for her money through low shelf prices on famous-brand foods every day of the week:
