Ike's Doctrine Interpreted By Dulles At Quiz

WASHINGTON (U-P) — Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States would not invade any Middle East country to overthrow an already-installed government — no matter how that government got there.

Chou Raps U.S. Mid East Policy In Soviet Visit

Communist Chinese Premier Plans Tour Of Poland, Hungary

MOSCOW (U-P) — Premier Chou En-lai flew into Moscow today for a three-day stopover en route to visits to two of the most crucial areas of the Communist world — Poland and Hungary.

The announced purpose of Chou's trip to Europe was to make a promised state visit to Poland where Wladyslaw Gomulka, the new party leader, is apparently anxious to convince the Chinese Communists that he is on a proper path. Tass reported from Peiping that Chou would continue on to Budapest for a meeting with the Janos Kadar Government.

Soviet President Klement Voroshilov, Premier Nikolai Bulganin and party boss Nikita Khrushchev were waiting to grasp Chou's outstretched hand as he emerged from the plane.

ALSO ON HAND were Deputy Premiers V. M. Molotov, Anastas Mikoyan, Lazar Kaganovich and Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov. In an airport speech here, Chou declared the Eisenhower doctrine to take the place left by the British and French (in the Middle East) has already aroused the disapproval of all peace-loving states and peoples.

He added that "the furious attacks by the imperialists on our socialist countries are doomed to failure. The friendship between our countries is eternal and unbreakable."

Observers in Hong Kong considered Chou's extension of his tour to rebellion-torn Hungary did not mean any possible change in Peiping's support for the regime of pro-Russian Premier Janos Kadar.

INSTEAD THESE sources believed the visit to Budapest is aimed at gathering more ammunition to support the current Red Chinese line that Soviet military intervention was necessary to keep Hungary from tumbling out of the Communist orbit.

The Chinese radio said Chou, who also is foreign minister, was accompanied by Vice Premier Marshal Ho Lung and Chief Foreign Minister Wang Chiao-siang. After his visits to Moscow, Warsaw and Budapest, Chou will complete his interrupted Asian tour with visits to Nepal and Afghanistan.

Chou's visit to Poland and Hungary so soon after the upsurge of the wave of anti-Sovietism in those two countries was viewed both in Hong Kong and Moscow as evidence that the Chinese regime is playing an increasingly influential and independent role in world communism.

All-Purpose Shots Against Viruses, Dream Of Salk

He listed two big reasons for seeking such an all-virus vaccine. 1. Perhaps many diseases which hit adults stem from childhood virus attacks which weakened nerves, but gave no sign at the time. These ailments might include back pain, ulcers or high blood pressure.

2. Certain viruses might "sleep" in the nervous system for years until some stress made them active and caused trouble.

Salk, Pittsburgh scientist who created the Salk polio vaccine, made his proposal in a talk prepared for the opening of a three-day conference on cellular biology, nucleic acids and viruses.

Salk said the widespread successful use of polio vaccine might prevent many future cases of ailments whose cause is not clear. This could include some cases of low-back weakness, curved spine, weakened stomach muscles and leg and arm troubles, he said.

Red aggression plus economic aid,

Dulles gave this answer to the House Foreign Affairs Committee as members pressed for details on the meaning of the Middle East policy resolution President Eisenhower wants Congress to approve.

IN HIS OPENING testimony before a standing-room-only crowd of spectators, Dulles also told the House group that:

1. The United States, in order to work for peace in the Middle East, must quickly make it clear that armed Communist attack would be met if necessary by American armed forces.

2. The Middle East resolution would heighten tensions with Russia, but would "stop world war III before it starts."

The House committee has been asked to give speedy approval to the Eisenhower resolution which would allow the use of American military might against "overt armed aggression" by the Reds in the Middle East. Eisenhower also asked for 400 million dollars to help carry out a special two-year economic aid program for the area.

Rep. Bolton (R-Ohio) and Zabolocki (D-Wis.) both asked what the United States would do if the Communist took over a Middle East country by subversive means — not overt aggression.

The United States, Dulles replied, would not "invade any country to overthrow its government, however it gets there."

"This may be said to be a weak spot, but it is necessary in the world we live in," he added.

DULLES PICTURED Eisenhower's Middle East program as being able to head off Communist subversion through helping the countries in the strategic area to stand better on their own feet.

He was the first of a parade of administration witnesses called to detail the proposal which President Eisenhower presented at a special joint session of Congress Saturday.

In an exchange with Chairman Gordon (D-Ill.), Dulles said the Soviet Union is seeking to make "an area of turbulence" out of the Middle East, and he added:

"We must recognize that this action may temporarily at least increase tensions with the Soviet Union."

Glamorous English Judge

Rose Heilbron, 42, shown wearing the solemn white wig of the profession, is England's first woman judge. The petite, good looking wife of a surgeon and mother of an 8-year-old daughter, is considered one of the finest legal minds in the country. Admitted to the ranks of England's barristers in 1933, she fought her way to the top despite male prejudices of other barristers, judges and even prisoners she was appointed to defend. Actress Tells Tale Of Kidnaped 'Body'

HOLLYWOOD (U-P) — A blonde gave her version of a 24-hour ordeal which she claimed began last Thursday night when two zoo-suit-type youths kidnaped her from her $85,000 home.

Miss McDonald said an "enemy" may have arranged the kidnaping because "any one else would have taken my baby."

LOS ANGELES DETECTIVES said they know more about the case than they have revealed and "in a few days we should have it all out in the open. We have to lay all the facts before our superiors first."

Marie's theory as to who may have master-minded the bizarre kidnaping was one point of her story that she revealed for the first time since returning to her Encino home late Saturday by private ambulance from India where she was found wandering along a desert road.

"They must have pushed open the electric gate," she said as she rested in the bedroom of her early American-style house.

Kadar Unveils Hard Policy For Hungary

Hodge Given More Time To Pay Back Funds

Judge Warns He Hasn't Complied In Making Restitution

CHICAGO (U-P) — Orville E. Hodge, former Illinois state auditor, heard a judge's warning today that he hasn't yet met conditions for escaping half his 20-year prison sentence.

Judge John P. Barnes of U. S. District Court continued until March 4 a hearing on suspending 10-years of the prison sentence.

He told Hodge that when he summoned the former auditor from Menard prison last week for the hearing he felt that the application for suspending half the prison sentence should be denied. He said:

"When the writ was issued I thought the defendant was not co-operating in making restitution, but what he can't do he can't do. What he can do he should do and do it promptly."

JUDGE BARNES did not spell out how "a felt Hodge had failed to make restitution of embezzled state funds to the best of his ability."

Hodge's lawyer, Arthur Fitzgerald, told the court that Hodge had done "everything in his power" to make restitution, even to the extent of turning over deeds to all real estate he owns.

However, Hodge's wife has filed suit in Sangamon County, claiming that some of the property Hodge turned over to the state belongs to her. Authorities say her suit could delay liquidation of Hodge's assets for a year or more.

Hodge is serving the federal term and a 12 to 15-year state term concurrently at Menard State Penitentiary in Joliet, Ill. He has pleaded guilty to embezzling state funds which investigators say run to at least 1 1/2 million dollars.

Grenville Beardsley, first assistant Illinois attorney general, has estimated the value of assets surrendered by Hodge at $600,000. The state also collected $50,000 on Hodge's security bond.

Barnes announced when he sentenced Hodge Aug. 15 that he might grant the one-time state Republican leader a 10-year probation if Hodge proved he had paid back as much as he could.

IN COURT today, Judge Barnes called on Hodge to give "careful thought" to what he had to say. "I am not going to deny probation at this time," he said. 2 Continued on Page 6, Column 2

Grand Jury Sworn In; Foreman Is Selected

The January term grand jury was sworn in after a brief delay this morning, with Dempsey Edwards, 995 S. Seventh Ave., being appointed foreman by Circuit Judge C. D. Henry.

A delay developed when an extra juror had to be called to fill the panel of 23. Fred Davis of Aroma Township was summoned from the supplemental panel to complete the jury.

State's Attorney Frank W. Curran indicated he has enough cases scheduled to keep the jury busy all week.

THE GRAND JURY decides if there is sufficient evidence to warrant criminal charges in the cases it investigates.

A petit jury of 12 persons was impaneled to try the sanity of William Wilhoit, 26, RR 1, Bourbon, Mo.

Wilhoit is in court originally on a motion to revoke probation granted in March, 1955, on a burglary charge. After hearing him testify Dec. 14 Judge Henry ordered today's hearing.

The five-day forecast calls for colder Tuesday and Wednesday, a warming trend Thursday, and colder again Friday and Saturday.

One-half inch of powdery snow during the night was reported by the Kankakee airport weather station, where the mercury dipped to 22 after a high of 34 Sunday.

Temperatures were expected to continue averaging about normal, a low of 17 and a high of 33.

Highway crews salted and cleared roads early today. Route 54 was reported virtually clear before the temperatures started rising to a predicted 40 degrees. Route 45 was reported 75 per cent clear.

Packed snow which resisted scraping made other roads slippery for morning motorists, although few accidents were reported in the immediate area.

State police said the slippery roads extended to a line from Quincy through Mason City and Danville.

ROAR IN HEAD LIVE ROACH!

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (U-P) — Frank Rogers, 31, complained to doctors at City Hospital of a "regulating roar" in his head. Doctors investigated and last night removed a small, live roach from his ear. Rogers said the insect apparently scrambled into his ear while he slept. The patient left the hospital feeling fine.

Russians Guard Premier After Announcement

Nationwide Purge Feared; Resolution Defies Laborers

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UP) — Anger surged through the Hungarian people today in the electric atmosphere that followed announcement of the nation's return to the chains of a "dictatorship of the proletariat."

Soviet tanks appeared before Budapest's public buildings again to enforce the announcement by Dictator-Premier Janos Kadar that aroused new fears of a nationwide purge.

The Kadar announcement all but crushed the last hope of Hungarian patriots for political freedom. Any optimism that Hungary would become another Poland vanished.

The defiant 10,000-word statement of the return to Stalinism was a blunt and brutal warning to the other satellites — Czechoslovakia, Bulgarian, Romania, Albania and East Germany — to be content with their lot.

THE DECLARATION was drafted in a four-day Budapest meeting of satellite leaders with Soviet Communist Party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev and former Premier Georgi Malenkov.

As the announcement was broadcast, Russian tanks clanked into position before the modern headquarters of the secret police — the first target of the revolutionaries in their October revolt.

The nation waited tensely for reaction among the workers, for the Kadar resolution defiantly ignored or rejected all demands they have made.

The resolution pushed back the clock even beyond the somewhat eased political situation just before the revolution began. While it ruined Hungarian hopes for limited political freedom, it shattered Kadar's last shred of popularity.

IT LEFT KADAR dependent only on Soviet armor to remain in power in his heavily-guarded parliament building.

The Kadar government for the first time openly accused former Titoist Premier Imre Nagy and his regime of "treason." Previously Nagy had been described as a "weak" man who made the "mistake" of permitting revolutionary elements to seize control.

The declaration attacked "Western imperialists" but it held out hopes for Western aid to help restore the $1 billion losses it said the nation had suffered through the revolution. It also promised major financial help from the Soviet Union and the Communist nations.

Egypt Uses Terror Campaign, Jews Say

NAPLES, Italy (U.S.A.)—A shipload of Jewish men, women and children has arrived here from Egypt, telling a story of terrorism, imprisonment, expulsion and forfeiture of property.

An officer on the Egyptian passenger ship Misr, which brought the 937 Jews from Alexandria, denied the account. He said the Jews were well treated and left of their own accord.

Many of the arrivals said they expected the rest of Egypt's 40,000 Jews to leave soon. The Egyptian said those he brought out were mostly stateless and that two-thirds of a country's Jews, who have Egyptian citizenship, will choose to stay in the country.

FEWER THAN 100 of the arrivals have passports—as citizens of France, England, Italy or other countries. The families of many of the stateless have been in Egypt for three, four or five generations. They said it was hard to get Egyptian citizenship.

A once-wealthy Cairo Jewish businessman gave this reason for the exodus: "It has become a panic. It is a planned campaign of terror."

Another gave this account: "We were expelled. The police came at night to our homes and threatened us. We were taken into custody and our shops and factories were closed."

"We or our friends were hustled away in the night to concentration camps where we were told of any charge against us. We were in chairs or in tiny crowded cells. Then we were called before the police and were told: Sign this paper and you can go."

"THE PAPER said, 'We swear that we wish to leave Egypt voluntarily.'"

The Jews said the Egyptian authorities told them they could take 100 Egyptian pounds ($288) per person and one or two small pieces of luggage not valued at more than 50 pounds. They paid for their passage.

About 100 of the Jews named various countries to which they would like to go, but most were asked: "When is the next boat to Is-r-a-el?"

One Illinois Crop Duster Sees—

Battle Of Insects Won In Air

The battle of the insects on Illinois farms is often won in the air. At least that's the view of 35-year-old Robert Bankson, president of the Illinois Aerial Application Association at Liberty, Mo., an organizer of a dozen Illinois crop dusters which offer aerial crop dusting and spraying services to Illinois farmers.

"Those two men came in, calm as anything, and knew every inch of the house. They made me get out the notepaper and newspaper for the kidnap note.

"I think they were high on something. One of them had a gun. We got in a car and they blindfolded me and we just kept going round and round. Once we stopped for gas and they made me lie on the floor of the car."

SHE SAID SHE telephoned friends while being held prisoner in an O'Neil LaFond, 25, N. 25th, suffered head and face injuries and LaFond suffered a back injury and a cut nose.

According to state police, the car ran into the side of a new on the Big Four branch of the Train and Hotel Railroad.

he added that "I have never thought it well to place a defendant on probation who defies the law."

The purpose of today's hearing was to review Hodge's efforts to repay the state $816.47 which he specifically accused of stealing under the federal indictment.

Frank McFarland, first assistant U. S. attorney, told Judge Barnes his office had no recommendation to make.

Hodge is scheduled to appear Tuesday before a federal grand jury in Springfield. The grand jury is investigating a $33,000 fee paid to Hodge by the Union Electric Co. of St. Louis. The money was "discovered" among Hodge's holdings by investigators who said the company paid it to obtain favorable legislation in Illinois.

After Maria was found wandering on the desert near Indio early Saturday, police quoted her as saying she had been raped. A doctor later said she had not been raped. Today when asked about the reports she cried, "Oh, please, I can't talk any more."

Detectives say they plan to question her today regarding a seven-carat diamond ring she says the kidnapers stole.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK (U.S.)—Spurts of heavy selling drove the stock market down early this morning by police Sunday evening.

Key stocks declined from fractions to around two points. A few issues took losses far beyond this range.

Wall Street observers said oils with big resources in the Middle East fell on uncertainty over Egypt's attitude once the Suez Canal is cleared for shipping and that steel producers were concerned over the lag in orders from the auto industry, their biggest customer.

A tendency toward renewed oil war fears was reported since President Eisenhower's proposal for a firmer Middle East policy became known last week but no special impact was reported in the market.

Amounts of damage have been estimated for two nearby buildings—Carter Grain Co., 257 N. East Ave., $1,000 and Kankakee Motor Coach Co., 253 N. Schuyler Ave., $3,000.

The loss to the Troop Lumber Co. has been set at $300,000 by officials of the fire.

U. S. government bonds were generally lower.

Four Corners Oil Boom In The Southwest

DENVER (NEA) — On a cold, snowy November day, all eyes from 30 of America's biggest companies sat in the circular, theater-like building which houses the Tribal Council of the Navajo Indians at Window Rock, Ariz.

They watched and listened, sometimes in suspense, sometimes with exhilaration, as G. Warren Spaulding, general superintendent of the Navajo Reservation, opened sealed bids requesting the right to drill for oil on Navajo lands.

Before that day was over, bids totaling $274 million dollars on 100,000 acres of tribal lands had been received.

NAVAJO CAPITAL AT WINDOW ROCK: From three November sales, $3 million dollars.

It was the biggest dollar sale of Indian lands in history. The high bid of $2,187 for a 2,000-acre tract in Utah and the record high average of $275 per acre provided spectacular testimony of the oil industry's faith in the oil future of the desolate Four Corners area, where New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and Utah touch.

SINCE THEN, the Navajos have received another six million dollars in oil bonuses. A year ago, the Ute Indians of southwestern Colorado collected five million dollars in a lease sale.

Cold facts and shrewd reasoning underlie the sensational rush of the oil industry to the Four Corners.

Last spring, the Texas Co. brought in a discovery well near the isolated Utah-Colorado border, just west of a lump-like mountain known as the Sleeping Ute. This, the first producer in the Aneth Pool, flowed 1,704 barrels of oil a day — an initial potential comparing favorably to initial fields of the great West Texas Field.

Since, a half-dozen more wells have been tapped, flowing 1,000 barrels a day and up. And others know that 200 barrels is a good well.

Further, geologists estimate proven reserves in the area contain more than 225 million barrels, worth half a billion dollars plus at present prices.

THE FOUR CORNERS play is the latest in a series of good oil finds in the Rocky Mountain West since World War II. Such discoveries, principally in Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and North Dakota, have brought mountain region production to more than 600,000 barrels a day. Development already has cost the industry a billion dollars, and they're drilling wells at the rate of 5,000 a year.

The Four Corners oil rush, concentrated in much of the same area as the mountain boom, has even the dusty little village of Farmington, N. M., grow from 2,500 to 15,000 since 1950, and Cortez, Colo., from 2,000 to 5,000.

The industry says now that major development will be delayed only by the lack of sufficient money. The Suec crisis has spurred talk of at least three such lines, running to the West Coast, to Salt Lake City, to southern New Mexico and west Texas.

OF PERHAPS MORE immediate human significance is the impact the spectacular lease sales have had on the American highest — and poorest — Indian tribe.

The Navajos, 80,000 strong and scattered over a 14,000-square-mile wasteland the size of West Virginia, long have been the disesteemed, half-starved, ill-housed, illiterate remnants of a great nation.

Now, they have $3 million dollars in the till from the series of three November sales — and every penny of it is to be spent for overall tribal benefits.

According to a long-range program outlined by Tribal Council Chairman Paul Jones (in effect, the chief), the tribe will use at least part of these funds for:

1. A major program of water development and distribution.
2. Construction of a huge saw mill, processing products from the Navajo's 850,000 acres of forests, 1200 employing 1,200 persons in a new town of 3,000 population.
3. A five million dollar scholarship program for young Navajos.
4. Continued development of the furniture industry, comparable to the furniture factory in Gallup, N. M., which now employs 100 Navajos.
5. Major new facilities for recreation, housing, food, education and welfare programs.

Four years after the British Museum found the shell of an Egyptian desert snail on exhibition, William Dally of New York, IBG general president, and Albert W. Delmonico of Cleveland, IBG president.

If the government wins its case, the three men would be liable to a year in prison as well as up to the $50,000 fine for each IBG and DGO would have to pay.

It's Contract Signing Time Again

ST. LOUIS (UP) — The St. Louis Cardinals Saturday announced the signing of Al Dark, who'll be 33 years old Monday and facing a battle from younger aspirants for his shortstop position next spring.

Bonus kid Dick Schofield, 22, and Eddie Kasko, 24, also are among the 20 Cards signed for 1957. Schofield hit .255 with Omaha in the American Association, and Kasko batted .306 for Rochester in the International League.

NEW YORK (UP) — Second baseman Billy Martin has signed his 1957 contract and became the third member of the New York Yankees to agree to terms for next season, the club announced Saturday.

As usual, no figures were revealed. Catcher Yogi Berra and southpaw pitcher Whitey Ford are the other members of the club's championship who have signed for '57.

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — University of Nebraska regents Saturday granted a $2,500 per year pay boost to football coach Pete Elliott and in effect tacked a one-year extension on his original three-year contract. Elliott's salary now will be $14,500.

PITTSBURGH (UP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers Saturday announced the signing of their second draft choice — Bill Michael, a 6-2, 230-pound lineman from Ohio State University.

Michael, a resident of Hamilton, Ohio, played both tackle and end for the Buckeyes. A Steelers spokesman said he probably will wind up as a defensive end.

REGINA, Neb. (UP) — Bill Glass, 21-year-old All-American guard from Baylor who was the first draft choice of the Detroit Lions, has signed a contract to play with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, club president Don McNair announced Saturday.

CLEVELAND (UP) — The government opens its anti-trust case against the International Boxing Guild today before Federal Judge James C. Connell.

The IBG and others are accused of plotting to fix prices in restaurant fights, the Boxing Guild announced last year, took $1 million from the IBG general president, William Dally of New York, IBG general president, and Albert W. Delmonico of Cleveland, IBG president.

The "others" named in the indictment returned a year ago are the IBG, the Boxing Guild, and three officers of the two organizations — Charles Johnson of New York, IBG general president; William Dally of New York, IBG general treasurer, and Albert W. Delmonico of Cleveland, IBG president.

If the government wins its case, the three men would be liable to a year in prison as well as up to the $50,000 fine for each IBG and DGO would have to pay.

MADRAS, India (UP) — The third of India's quintuplets has died, officials at Pondicherry Hospital said the other two-week-old girls are "getting on well."

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UP) — Mr. and Mrs. George O. Myers of New York City are hoping for wholesale rates from Charleston General Hospital.

Mr. Myers, 57, went to the hospital for an appendectomy and within six days was followed by Mrs. Myers, 55, who was followed by their son, 12, in pneumonia; Joyce, 12, in influenza; and Nancy, 13, in pneumonia; and their daughter, 14, in pneumonia.

Two days later, Linda Sue, 13, and Nancy, 14, underwent surgery for appendicitis.

Nanaimo, Canada, intentionally built narrow streets. This slows down traffic and has completely eliminated traffic fatalities.

Happy Hiker

Three-year-old Charles Leslie Dees is a happy youngster as he hugs his pet English Shepherd, Buster, at Montgomery, Ala., after he was found about four miles from his home.

Adoption was the result of frequent sightings of a two-hour search by sheriff's staff and highway patrolmen. The dog accompanied the boy on his long hike.

National Prep Group Adopts 3 New Grid Rules

CHICAGO (UP) — Three major rules changes have been approved by the football rules committee of the National Federation of High School Athletic Associations and the Junior College Athletic Association.

The groups, meeting in Chicago, represent 10,000 high schools and junior colleges.

Center, guards and tackles will not be permitted to move after they have taken a playing position. The rule is the result of frequent attempts on the part of offensive linemen to draw the defense offside.

The committee said the new rule will not in any way limit shifts or other changes in offensive formation.

Another new rule provides for a 15-yard penalty for grabbing the face mask of an opponent. The third rule change permits one player from each team to confer with the coach on the sideline whenever a time-out is charged to either team.

Paul Arizin, one of the National Basketball Association's most prolific scorers, keeps right on rolling along, but his Philadelphia Warriors teammates can't seem to pick up the cue this season.

Arizin, who led the team in field goals last season, is popping 'em in, in accustomed style again this season. The 6-foot 4-inch veteran cannot 37 points Sunday night, but the Warriors, who rode to the Loop championship last year, took 111 points, in a 121-111 decision, the streaking Syracuse Nationals.

The loss dropped Philadelphia four full games in back of the Western Division pace-setting Boston Celtics, who defeated the Fort Wayne Pistons, 118-82.

Realism Too Much For Movie Director

Hollywood Gives Up On Casting Scrawny New York Models, Gets Well Fed Stars

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Director Robert Aldrich is all for getting up a fund to send those hapless New York models to camp.

"These girls actually are starving while earning $50 an hour," says the director, a little on the overnourished side himself.

Aldrich recently shot most of the footage for the movie, "The Garment Jungle," in the heart of the big city's vast garment industry along 10th Avenue.

"It was a pleasure," he confesses, "there was not one scrawny, not one hollow cheek and not one applicant carrying her femininity in a hatbox."

"Models are an important and glamorous part of the garment industry," he says, "but those New York girls are ridiculous."

One key scene in "The Garment Jungle" has veteran actor Lee J. Cobb fill a model's dress, piece by piece, just to demonstrate the amount of material in it to his skeptical partner.

"The model winds up in the scene with only her flimsy undergarments," Aldrich informs. "Had I chosen one of the New York models I interviewed, she would have been laughed off the screen. I'm sorry to say that too many of them looked more like boys than girls in brief attire."

GLORIA PALL, who once had a local television show where she was billed as "Voluptua," got the job. She measures 38-23-35.

Aldrich had to conduct the search for models all over again.

Seed Malibu Fire Area; Trucker Needs Ladder

HELICOPTERS EQUIPPED to carry 200 pound loads of rye grass seed, are racing against the winter rains to seed the blackened hills of the Malibu, Calif., fire disaster. The $40,000 program is about a 10-day operation, said head deputy forester in charge of the planting. Only sharp slopes and canyon areas of the 25,000 acres of destroyed watershed would be seeded. Knowland Won't Run For Senate Again

Republican Leader's Decision Prompts Presidency Hints

WASHINGTON (UP)—Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland's decision to retire from the Senate prompted speculation today that he will make a bid for the presidency in 1960.

The 41-year-old Californian stunned his Senate colleagues and caught California political leaders by surprise in announcing Monday that he will not seek reelection when his current term expires in 1958.

Some senators quickly concluded that Knowland, a veteran of 11 years in the Senate, will try to win the California governorship in 1958 and use it as a stepping stone to the White House in 1960.

Knowland had planned to seek the Republican presidential nomination last year before Mr. Eisenhower announced his intention to seek a second term. After the President made known his intentions, Knowland withdrew.

The constitutional prohibition against presidential reelection will prevent Mr. Eisenhower from running again.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon considered by many to be a front-runner for the 1960 GOP presidential nomination, issued a statement here praising Knowland for service "in the highest and best traditions of the United States Senate."

"I know I reflect the sentiments of his many friends in California and throughout the nation in expressing the hope that the President will announce yesterday he will return to public service in the future," Nixon said.

In California, State Controller Robert C. Kinkaid, a Republican, said he would run for Knowland's Senate seat in 1958. He said his political philosophy is "wholly in accord with the great Eisenhower movement."

Knowland, a conservative on most issues, has sometimes been at odds, as Senate GOP leader, with the President's views. But Senate Republicans again picked him as their leader for the new session of Congress which opened last week, and Knowland said he would retain the post until his retirement from the Senate.

California Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, whose term expires at the same time as Knowland's Senate term, exclaimed, "I must say I'm surprised" when informed of Knowland's decision.

Knight said he expected to discuss the development with Knowland when he comes here for President Eisenhower's Jan. 21 inauguration.

Request More Voting Precincts In City

A request which might lead to the establishment of additional voting precincts in Kankakee was heard during the city council meeting Monday night.

Leo Klonowski (D-1) requested that new polling places be established in the First, Second, Third and Fourth wards.

Klonowski said he believed that the size of these wards warranted such action.

In other actions Monday the council also:

Gave the purchasing committee power to purchase some 300 feet of 1 1/2 and 2 1/2 inch hose destroyed or damaged in the Troup Lumber Co. fire last Thursday, at the request of Al Stang (R-4), chairman of the fire committee.

Referred to the planning commission a request for rezoning of the northwest corner of Court St. and Fifth Ave. from class C (2-family dwelling) to class F (commercial).

Held in abeyance a recommendation from the planning commission that a site at Maple St. and Nelson Ave. be rezoned from class C to class E (local business), providing that certain requirements be met.

Filed a report from the State Department of Public Health stating that water furnished by the Kankakee Water Co. had been examined for mineral content and was found to be "effectively softened, sufficient for domestic use."

NEWSPERSON ASKED... Knight whether he intended to find out from Knowland whether the senator might be a GOP candidate for the gubernatorial election.

"It's entirely up to him to discuss if he wants to," Knight replied. "I won't endeavor to cross-examine him in any way."

It has been widely assumed in California that Knight would run for a second term as governor. But Knight refused to say Monday.

13 Stranded Ships Leave Suez Canal

CAIRO (UP)—Thirteen ships stranded in the Suez Canal since the Anglo-French invasion sailed out into the Mediterranean today through Port Said.

The ships, which originally had been headed south when the canal was blocked two months ago, were turned around by tugs and eased past the canal obstructions between El Qantara and Port Said.

These charges were the latest in a series in which Britain and the Red Sea state of Yemen recently have accused each other of raids along the ill-defined border between Yemen and Aden, both of which lie at the southern extremity of the Arabian peninsula.

Wayne Dyer, counsel for the association, produced copies of the contracts, executed in 1941 and 1946, providing for rates of the "same scale and in like manner" as those charged village residents.

VILLAGE ATTORNEY Sam Shapiro contended that the rate ordinance was not subject to the terms of the contract since it establishes classes of users. Meadowview residents, he said, happen to fall into that class of users who do not receive water from Bradley or whose premises have not been assessed for a sanitary sewer. These users are charged the higher rate.

Dyer said the town with users was "utterly irrelevant." He contended that the village law was "unfairly irrelevant."

Hungarians Flee Purge By Kadar; Fighting Flares

Reds Harassed In Mountainous Terrain Near Yugoslavia

VIENNA (UP)—Hundreds of Hungarian patriots fleeing arrest and possibly death under the new Red reign of terror are fleeing into the trackless forests, swamps and mountains to join the hard freedom-fighter bands, refugees said today.

Hungarians who risked their lives to cross the Austrian frontier to escape the return to the "proletarian dictatorship" in their homeland also reported renewed fighting between partisan bands and Russian troops.

Clashes between Hungarian patriots and Red army troops have increased in the past 24 hours, according to the newly-arrived refugees. They said the heaviest fighting took place in the rugged country centered around Pecs. Pecs on the Yugoslav frontier was a rebel stronghold in the revolution crushed by Soviet steel.

THE PRO-RUSSIAN regime of János Kadar announced Monday a new purge of opponents. The cleanup was expected to hit members of the Hungarian parliament as well as die-hard patriots.

The Hungarian refugees said it was estimated some 10,000 Hungarian patriots are hiding out against Soviet and Communist Hungarian forces in the outlying provinces. Rebel bands were said to be active in the Bakony Forest in western Hungary, the Matra Mountains in northeast Hungary, and in the swamp lands along the Hungarian-Yugoslav border.

The refugees said the patriots were able to hold out indefinitely in their almost-inaccessible strongholds. They said the freedom fighters are provided with food by peasants and farmers, and obtain weapons and ammunition by raids on Red army supply columns.

Hodge entered the grand jury room shortly after 10 a.m. He was the only witness to be heard today.

His two accomplices in the 2 1/2-million-dollar raid on the state Treasury, Edward A. Epping and Edward A. Hitt, will be brought here from prison Wednesday to appear before the grand jury.

Hodge, on "vacation" from his state prison cell, appeared before the grand jury on Monday and was wanted to make partial restitution for 2 1/2-million-dollar he embezzled from the state or spent as extra 10 years in prison.

HODGE WAS TAKEN to the Pontiac State Reformatory for the night after his appearance before Federal Judge John P. Barnes, and was escorted to Springfield today by reformatory guards.

The grand jury is investigating an alleged $35,000 lobbying fee paid by the Union Gas & Electric Co. of St. Louis. The money wound up in a secret "envelope account" maintained by Hodge at the Southmoor Bank and Trust Co. in Chicago.

Following his testimony here, Hodge will be returned to the state prison at Joliet to serve out his federal term and a 12-1/2-year state sentence.

State officials said they have recovered only $30,000 of the state treasury, despite his promise to make restitution to the full extent of his resources in exchange for leniency.

BARNES GAVE Hodge until March 4 to reach an agreement with his wife on restitution and to repay part of the money he stole.

Mrs. Hodge originally joined her husband in signing over most of the state treasury funds.

Northeast Storm Kills 6 Persons

BOSTON (UP)—New England today counted at least six dead from a Northeast storm which left up to 19 inches of snow Monday.

The storm was blamed for the heart-breaking deaths of four persons while driving on icy roads, and others after walking through the heavy snow.

County Board Committee To Study Building Code

The Kankakee County Board of Supervisors today set machinery in motion to tackle one of the major problems which Chairman George E. Luehrs has outlined for solution this year.

It authorized Luehrs to appoint a committee to study procedure for establishing a county building code.

Luehrs called for a meeting of the board of directors of the county building code committee to discuss action necessary to put county zoning into effect.

The action followed the reading of letters from the Kankakee Building Trades Council and the Chamber of Commerce board of directors endorsing a building code.

COUNTY ZONING and a building code are considered related programs to guide the county's growth along constructive lines. Existing property uses would not be affected, spokesmen say.

Luehrs said a committee would have to be named to carry out county zoning. The board already has authorized appointment of such a group.

The present committee with which Luehrs will meet in the near future to discuss the zoning program consists of Donald Gray, chairman; Larry Power, Russell Hendrickson, Clyde Schierholz and F. J. Suprant.

A letter from Edward Putz, secretary of the Kankakee Building Trades Council, had this to say about a building code:

"Please be advised that the Kankakee Building Trades Council heartily endorses a proposal for enactment of a building code for Kankakee County."

"With the establishment of such a code it would eliminate the erection of sub-standard housing and alleviate the need of condemning them in the future, together with the necessity of placing a hardship on those who purchase these homes due to lack of knowledge in the construction industry."

"May we also observe that methods of sanitation are becoming very obvious and construction methods are merely bypassed in the erection of such sub-standard building."

"We trust you are aware of the urgent need of a building code and urge you to give this matter your utmost consideration."

THE OTHER LETTER said that the Chamber of Commerce board of directors "went on record favoring such a building code with adequate inspection from the county health department for the safety and welfare of our citizens."

This letter was signed by Henry B. C. C. manager, who said that he and Wayne Freese, chairman of the Chamber's construction and housing committee, had at a meeting at which a building code was discussed.

The city of Kankakee has its own building code, but there is none in unincorporated areas.

In other fact this morning, the county board approved $9,774 in motor fuel tax for maintenance of more than 154 miles of county highways under 1957.

The money will be used to maintain 124.28 miles of blacktop county highways and 30,135 miles of crushed stone roads built with motor fuel tax funds.

Howard Schwark, county highway superintendent, said $9,930 was appropriated last year, and a balance of $1,000 is available.
