How Well Would You Score?

What Young People Think

How Do You Rate? Test Your Knowledge Of '56 World Events

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Gilbert Youth Research Co.

As a teenager, do you think you average up fairly well against others in your group on knowledge of news events?

Or, as an adult, are you one of those people who have a lot to say about the shadowy thinking and superficial interests of teenagers?

Either way, you might be interested in matching wits with a bunch of typical youngsters that we interviewed recently around the country.

We put 10 questions to them about national and international personalities and events.

You won't have to do at all well, actually, to score better than the interviewed youngsters. It could be a fact — and we wouldn't be a bit surprised — that boys and girls are more interested in dates, and in their studies, and in what's going on in their own groups, than they are in what's going on in the nation and the world. Also that many adults center their major interests on their jobs, their families and themselves.

BUT WHATEVER your age, you probably will be astonished at how much you have forgotten about what you read in the papers.

Of the teenagers interviewed, only a tiny fraction came close to perfect scores. The boys averaged three correct answers each, while the girls averaged 2.4.

On the other hand, a few adults that we talked to on a hit-or-miss basis averaged only 4.3 correct answers each — which isn't a great deal better.

Questions touching on foreign affairs ran into the densest fog of ignorance, as did one with a scientific slant. The girls did uniformly better than the lads, a point from which you can draw any conclusion you like.

This is the point of the young-

A Word Picture About Future Passenger Rocket Ship

Here's How You May Whirl Away To Mars

NEW YORK — Step aboard passenger rocket ship for a trip to Mars.

It looks like a flying saucer. It spins like a merry-go-round. You actually walk on the wall, sideways to the floor as you whirl through space at 25,000 miles per hour.

For exercise you sit in a vibrating chair that does all the exercise work for you.

IF YOU LIKE, you can visit the garden on this space ship, a garden producing the oxygen to keep you breathing.

All these features — each with good reason — in a rocket passenger ship conceived and sketched by Lovell Lawrence Jr., assistant chief engineer of the Chrysler "Missile" Operations of Chrysler Corp., and associates.

"Space travel is inevitable, and the only question is when," Lawrence said.

In a year or so man will send little artificial moons whirling in orbits around the earth. What they radio back and tell by their flight about space travel, the rocket ship, the first step toward human travel to the moon, Mars or other planets.

The sketch, by engineers producing rocket missiles for the military, meets — most requirements — now known, Lawrence said.

THE SHIP IS ROUND and thin like a flying saucer, because that's the sun, to present the least amount of surface.

This tilt, and the ship's fins, don't affect the control of your flight in space. For space is empty, there is no air to act on the ship.

There's another reason besides aerodynamics why the ship is a thin saucer, Lawrence said. "In space the temperature is absolute zero. But the sun's rays are terrible intense, and heat up any solid object they strike. To reduce this temperature, the ship is tilted in space so that its edge always faces

ADENAUER CALLS FOR World Ban On Nuclear Arms

BONN, Germany — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today suggested a "worldwide agreement" to ban thermonuclear weapons. Adenauer said his proposal at a crowded news conference in which he said: "Thermonuclear weapons no longer can be considered as a means of waging war."

He firmly declared a "definitive solution" of outstanding problems can be attained only through the complete abolition of these weapons. The 81-year-old Chancellor did not spell out how he thought this could be achieved or whether he felt some system of controls would be essential.

GOP Chairman Hall To Resign

WASHINGTON — Leonard W. Hall announced today he is resigning as chairman of the Republican National Committee effective Feb. 1 and the White House indicated broadly that he will be given a high post in the federal government.

Hall issued his expected announcement after visiting President Eisenhower at the White House.

The President followed through with a statement of his own saying that after Hall takes a vacation "I sincerely hope that his wisdom and his long years of experience as a legislator, judge and chairman, will continue to be available not only to the party but to the nation in the years ahead."

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Hall is going to Florida.

"I WOULD THINK Mr. Hall's great talents would find suitable use after Mr. Hall has completed his vacation."

On the basis of past performance, the Eisenhower and Hagerty statements clearly could be taken as pointing to a federal job for the resigning head of the Republican National Committee.

Just what position the administration has in mind for Hall was uncertain.

A reporter noted that "Eisenhower's statement referred to Hall's being available in the future to the party and the nation, but said nothing about New York State. Hagerty merely laughed at that. Hall is a resident of Oyster Bay, N. Y., and there has been widespread speculation that he may try for the governorship next year."

Eisenhower had praised for Hall's service as chairman and an expression of regret that he is leaving.

Among those mentioned as possible successors said Hagerty, Ray C. Bliss, Ohio state chairman and chairman of the 21-state Midwest and Rocky Mountain State Chairman's Conference, and Ohio Railway, voiced the opinion of many experts when he said the banking system has failed to keep pace with the nation's industrial growth.

Eaton, concerned that a lack of federal banks capable of making individual loans ranging up to $100 million dollars, is about double the present loan limit for the nation's biggest commercial banks.

I. Judson Morhouse, 42-year-old New York state chairman from Ticonderoga.

Fred C. Schirmer Jr., of Portland, Maine, general counsel of the Treasury Department and former general counsel of the GOP National Committee.

H. Meade Alcorn Jr., national committeeman for Connecticut and vice chairman of the party's 1952 national convention arrangements committee.

The 24-year-old Graham had no special requests on the eve of his execution.

Gov. Steve McNichols made it definite there would be no last-minute executive clemency.

Rules School Law Unconstitutional

NORFOLK, Va. (UP)—Federal District Judge William H. Hoffman ruled today that Virginia's pupil placement plan to maintain school segregation is unconstitutional.

Hoffman ruled against motions for dismissal of segregation suits against the school boards of Norfolk and Newport News.

The attorneys for the two school boards had asked that segregation suits be dismissed because Virginia's pupil placement plan offered administrative remedies for the Negro plaintiffs should seek before going to the federal courts to the French government.

Hungarian Police Slay 5 Workers As Violence Breaks Out At Mill

BUDAPEST, Hungary — New labor troubles erupted at the big Cecep textile mill today when at least five workers were reported slain by Hungarian police gunfire today. The Communist government said 5,000 workers defied police and assembled to hear speakers mounted on trucks. Soviet and Hungarian forces moved to the island from the rest of Budapest. There were no reports that the workers took part in the firing.

Trouble also broke out at the Gyor Railway car works and pair shops. Police said they fired into the air to halt a demonstration. Four workers said some workers had been wounded by police gunfire, but later reports said nothing about any wounded.

THE WORKERS WERE said to have left their jobs partly in opposition to the renewed Stalinism of the government, partly because of reduced wages, partly because of reduced wages. Hungarian workers who want to keep working found an unexpected ally today in the Communist trade union organization.

The union organization expressed support for workers' action during the revolution, apparently in an attempt to gain some of the prestige among some of the party members who had been elected to the government.

A statement from the trade union organization complained that workers he given their annual paid vacations now instead of being held off. It also called for the abolition of the public works program.

To help alleviate unemployment, the Communist trade union group suggested in a statement that workers be given their annual paid vacations now instead of being held off. It also called for the abolition of the public works program.

Democrats May Try To Weaken Ike's Doctrine

WASHINGTON (UP) — A ranking House Democrat today is drafting a two-day substitute for the Eisenhower Doctrine which would embody the ideas of former Secretary of State Dean Acheson on stabilizing the Middle East.

Rep. Clement J. Zablocki (D-Wis.), author of the substitute, is a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The President has asked Congress to grant him standby authority to use U. S. troops, if necessary, to block any Russian aggression in the Middle East. He also wants approval of a $400 million program of economic and military aid to strengthen the Middle East.

In his State of the Union message at Concordia, Missouri, he said he would ask Congress to approve his plan in a matter of days.

Argentine Air Crash Kills 6, 4 Missing

BUENOS AIRES (UP)—A twin-engine Vickers Viking plane of the Argentine state airline with 20 persons aboard crashed into a concrete wall on takeoff today.

An Argentine air force medical officer said there were 20 survivors, 6 dead and 4 persons unaccounted for.

The plane took off from the Aeroparque Airport in northern Buenos Aires on a flight to the resort city of Mar del Plata, 230 miles to the south. It failed to gain altitude and caught fire in the air.

THE PILOT TURNED the plane toward the nearby River Plate in an attempt to make a water landing and put out the flames. But he failed to clear high trees bordering a scenic drive along the river.

The plane smashed into a concrete wall and immediately was enveloped in flames. An unidentified army colonel and a year-old baby were reported to be among the survivors.

Weathermen estimated that five billion tons of snow fell in the storm which struck at the eastern tip of the nation. It moved out into the Atlantic Ocean Thursday night after pounding Norfolk, Va., and Annapolis, Md., with winds of more than 70 miles per hour.

Windsor, Ont., measured 31 inches of snow, New England had 10 to 12 inches and New York state 4 to 8 inches.

Issue Report On Employment For Period To Nov. 15

Unemployment in Kankakee County rose by 100 persons during the 60 day period ending Nov. 15, 1956, the number of jobs is still 75 less than at the same time in 1955.

On Sept. 15, 1956, unemployment was estimated at 375. Two months later the jobs total was 475. These figures are contained in the latest analysis of labor market conditions released by Roy Robinson, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service office in Kankakee.

The report said that since it had been compiled, additional cutbacks in fabricated metals and other industries had increased the jobs total.

And the outlook for the ensuing months points to a moderate employment reduction centered in non-manufacturing concerns.

DURING THE SAME period of Sept. 15 to Nov. 15, overall employment increased 25 as reported by the major employers in the county.

The report said that employment in manufacturing had increased slightly, but these gains were partially offset by cutbacks in textiles and chemicals.

In durable goods, the effect of small increases in furniture and fabricated metals was wiped out by personnel cutbacks in non-electrical machinery.

Non-manufacturing experienced mixed trends during the 60-day period as gains in construction, transportation and trade were offset by staff reductions at service establishments, mostly in the hospital group.

On Nov. 15 the total number of employed persons stood at 13,889 in the Kankakee County firms, compared to 13,855 on Sept. 15 and 13,890 on Nov. 15, 1955.

Pentagon B52 Bomber Cut Said On Way

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Defense Department is preparing to cut planned production rates for B52 hydrogen bombers—directly reversing action taken in the heat of the 1956 Senate aid program investigation.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson raised the goal from 17 to 20 a month during the 1956 controversy over relative American and Russian air strength. Before Senate critics, he personally took credit for pushing the big jet bomber program "faster than the Air Force."

The committee will make regular surveys of all departments for hazardous conditions and follow through with recommendations for corrective action. The group will also evaluate suggestions made by employees and patients. Drafting a fire and safety regulations manual for the hospital is another committee responsibility.

The move is linked partially with the tight new military budget that goes to Congress next week. It also indicates that the Pentagon expects to hold the Air Force to 11 B52 wings of 45 planes each instead of the 17 wings proposed by the Air Force.

Safety Committee Named At MSH

Dr. R. J. Graft, superintendent of "Manteno State" Hospital, has appointed an executive safety committee to implement a safety program for the protection of employees, patients and visitors.

Glen E. Morris, assistant superintendent, is chairman of the committee which is composed of seven other department heads. They are Joe McInnis, Otis Baker, Mrs. Lorraine Bagby, Jennings Wright, L. A. Willett, H. C. Piepenbrink and Vivian Dahman. Vivian Acord, publicity director, will be in charge of communications as an ex-officio member of the committee.

The committee will make regular surveys of all departments for hazardous conditions and follow through with recommendations for corrective action. The group will also evaluate suggestions made by employees and patients. Drafting a fire and safety regulations manual for the hospital is another committee responsibility.

The move is linked partially with the tight new military budget that goes to Congress next week. It also indicates that the Pentagon expects to hold the Air Force to 11 B52 wings of 45 planes each instead of the 17 wings proposed by the Air Force.

1956 Care For Polio Victims Cost $25,000

Patient care for Kankakee County polio victims in 1956 cost $25,000, Howard F. Meents, chairman of the Kankakee County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has said in a fact sheet being used in connection with the current March of Dimes program.

Meents points out that in 1956 there were six new cases of polio including one of the serious bulbar type. All were complete recoveries. The largest sum spent for any one case during the year was $3,000 for the care of the bulbar case.

During the year an average of 20 polio cases per month received some type of treatment once or twice a week. The physiotherapy is paid for by the Kankakee County chapter, Meents points out.

During the year the chapter aided 32 cases. Estimated hospital bills for these cases were $15,000.

An estimated $15,000 will be needed in the county in 1957 to provide treatment, braces, wheel chairs and feeding devices, hospitalization and surgery expenses.

In the past 10 years 60 polio cases have received assistance from the Kankakee County chapter, Meents reports.

The county chairman suggests that all persons, both children and adults, who have not had Salk or polio vaccine shots, see their physicians immediately.

CHICAGO (UP)—The Illinois division of the American Civil Liberties Union has criticized the burning of allegedly lewd and obscene magazines by the Chicago Post Office as "symbolic of suppression and censorship."

Begin Razing Building For Hospital Addition

Work has started on the razing of a building to make room for the 1957 addition to St. Mary's Hospital, according to Mother Rosemary, hospital superior.

The large frame house just north of the present hospital is being torn down from the interior. This structure has served as a nurses' home, housing for the sisters and more recently for storage.

Mother Rosemary said that J. Thomas McCarthy, hospital administrative consultant from the State Department of Public Health was to visit Kankakee today to discuss financial measures which must be taken preliminary to actual construction.

Next Tuesday, John R. Fugard Jr., from the architectural firm of Fugard, Burt, Wilkinson and Orth of Chicago will bring complete preliminary drawings to Kankakee. These must be approved by local hospital officials before working drawings are made.

Mother Rosemary said that the time schedule calls for bids to be awarded and construction contracts signed by June 30 to meet the deadline for $700,000 in federal bonds, already allocated to St. Mary's.

Completion of the hospital is expected in about 1½ years after construction begins.

The superior said that collections on expansion fund pledges now exceeds $250,000 and several new pledges have been made recently.

This is an indication that the people of this area recognize that need exists," Mother Rosemary said, "and that this project has the support of the Kankakee residents."

He would present for Queen Elizabeth's approval "in a few days."

He paid tribute to his "old and very dear friend Anthony Eden," and appealed for united support.

Eden removed himself from the main arena of British politics. He announced today with "real sorrow" his resignation from the House of Commons, saying he did not have the health nor to carry on.

Following tradition, Queen Elizabeth II offered Eden an earl's title and a seat in the House of Lords.

Macmillan's Conservative party colleagues and leaders of the opposition Liberal party pledged support for the new government.

THE LIBERAL PARTY, a minority group between the Conservative and Labor factions, could possibly exercise wide influence in the event of a close struggle between the two major parties.

The Labor party issued a demand for new national elections, declaring the "whole country should pronounce its verdict" on the changes in the political lineup.

But Macmillan, asked by reporters if he planned to go to the voters, replied, "No. If there was (an election), we would win it."

The Conservatives' term normally would not expire until early 1960.

Cairo newspapers, which earlier hailed Eden's resignation as a triumph for President Nasser, said Macmillan was a supporter of Eden's policies and expressed fears those policies would be continued.

LESLIE SMALL—

Small, assisted with campaign plans and took an active part in the election as a day and night of citizenship.

During the administration of his father, Les Small, as Illinois governor for two terms, from 1921 to 1929, Leslie Small served as director of the State Department of Purchases and Construction.

In this capacity he was responsible for the supervision and construction of all state public buildings, including the construction of the Illinois Waterways and all state public buildings.

Over the years he carefully saved a reserve for the construction of a new newspaper building and the installation of a new press and other equipment. It was the culmination of long, patient planning and saving, when construction of the Journal's new building was completed in 1951 and new equipment installed.

MEMBER OF A FAMILY that has traditionally loved the soil, Leslie Small all his life has been deeply interested in agriculture. Having become the owner of three farms, he personally supervised, he was a practical farmer, possessing knowledge of agricultural practices in addition to his professional interest in new developments in soil improvement, crop diversification, and the like.

He is survived by Mrs. Small, the former Grace Burrell whom he married Oct. 30, 1912, sons Les, H. and Burrell L., grandchildren Susan, Len Jr., Leslie, Stephen, Thomas and Jennifer Small and a brother-in-law, Arthur E. Ingles, all of Kankakee. Mr. Small is also the grandfather of the Illinois State Fair at Springfield and many other state buildings and projects.

Previously Mr. Small served as a member and secretary of a three-man commission set up under Gov. Charles S. Deneen to study penal institutions in all parts of the country and to recommend a plan and location for a state penitentiary at Joliet.

OUT OF THIS COMMISSION'S work came a plan for the present Stateville penitentiary at Joliet, the first to be built with circular cell houses and to this day is one of the model penal institutions of the nation. Later, as director of the Department of Purchases and Construction, Mr. Small let the contracts and was responsible for the construction of the Stateville Penitentiary.

The son of Len and Ida Moore, Small and his wife were both the descendants of pioneer local settlers. He was born in Kankakee on May 24, 1886; and spent his early years in typical farm life. He attended the former Beth District School which stood along what is now Highway 25S near the present WKAN radio tower location.

From his boyhood Leslie Small shared his father's personal responsibility in the success of the old Kankakee Interstate Fair, a Mid-west exposition which at its height was one of the largest in the nation. As a boy he helped to erect post-boards to advertise the fair and performed similar chores. As a young man his participation in the fair's operation increased. Toward the later years of the fair he was largely responsible for the employment of grandstand performers, compiling and publishing the premium list and catalogue, advertising, accounting and many other aspects of a huge undertaking.

The close congregation grew from 700 communicant members and about 1,000 in the congregation in 1922 to 1,300 members today and a congregation of 1,800.

Since 1927 he has participated in the two services each Sunday at the Kankakee church. The growth of the Lutheran church since he has been in Kankakee has been from 100 to 1,300 members. He has a staff of eight teachers and more than 200 pupils today.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK — The stock market closed narrowly to the upside today after a fairly active trading.

Leading issues gained from fractions to around a point. There was a scattering of losses.

On average the market was poised just about at the interim high attained in September, an area of supply where selling has caused declines on past occasions.

BRITISH—

He would present for Queen Elizabeth's approval "in a few days."

He paid tribute to his "old and very dear friend Anthony Eden," and appealed for united support.

Eden removed himself from the main arena of British politics. He announced today with "real sorrow" his resignation from the House of Commons, saying he did not have the health nor to carry on.

Following tradition, Queen Elizabeth II offered Eden an earl's title and a seat in the House of Lords.

Macmillan's Conservative party colleagues and leaders of the opposition Liberal party pledged support for the new government.

THE LIBERAL PARTY, a minority group between the Conservative and Labor factions, could possibly exercise wide influence in the event of a close struggle between the two major parties.

The Labor party issued a demand for new national elections, declaring the "whole country should pronounce its verdict" on the changes in the political lineup.

But Macmillan, asked by reporters if he planned to go to the voters, replied, "No. If there was (an election), we would win it."

The Conservatives' term normally would not expire until early 1960.

Cairo newspapers, which earlier hailed Eden's resignation as a triumph for President Nasser, said Macmillan was a supporter of Eden's policies and expressed fears those policies would be continued.

Woman's Civil Defense Role Told To JWC

The important role which the social worker plays in the civil defense program was outlined to members of the Junior Women's Club at their Wednesday evening meeting by Walden Wadleigh, county and city civil defense director.

With the Civil Defense Organization beginning active functions in Kankakee, Wadleigh explained how training prepares social workers and volunteers for effective service in emergencies and how it gives individual workers skills that they would need to help others and preserve their own lives in an emergency.

Social workers have knowledge and skill needed by other groups in civil defense. Training for workers must be multidisciplinary. Social workers should obtain training for themselves and should assist with the training of others.

As a project for the JWC, Wadleigh suggested the members form individual or collective groups as speaker's groups to talk to other women's organizations and explain the value of being prepared in the case of a major disaster, be it war, tornado, train wreck, etc. Through these speaking groups the clubs could spread their knowledge to other organizations on how to be prepared in the event of a major disaster.

A woman in the home can carry

Wadleigh said his talk by over Illinois" which shows the impact of what would happen in the event of a major disaster.

The first meeting of all committee chairmen will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Miss Rose, 757 S. Myrtle Ave.

At the next meeting of the club on Jan. 23, a vote will be taken on the project.

THE GROUP VOTED TO donate $25 for the fund for the proposed hospital legal fees and $50 for an emergency fund to be used for Hungarian relief in Kankakee, should the need arise.

Civic Activities May Affect Home

It's fine for a mother to be a civic leader. But the fact that she is president of this and head of that doesn't make up to her children for her neglect.

For instance, Dorothy has a mother who is intelligent, charming and a hard worker in civic affairs. She leads a busy life and feels she is making the most of her life.

But Dorothy doesn't have it so good. As a plain-looking teenager who is shy and unsure of herself, she needs a mother's help, wisdom, encouragement and just plain convincing to become one of the teenage crowd.

She needs a mother to help her pick out the right clothes, to see that she has the most becoming hair style; to be at home to listen to her problems and help her work them out; to make it easy for her to entertain her friends; to do all of the things a wise and understanding mother can do to help a daughter find a place for herself in her own teenage world.

BUT DOROTHY'S MOTHER doesn't have time for these things. In fact, she is so busy "doing good," she doesn't even have time to see how much Dorothy needs her or how badly Dorothy is being cheated in comparison with other girls her age.

When a woman neglects her first job, that of being a wife and mother and home-maker, there is nobody to take over.

But other jobs can be filled by someone else. So every mother, before taking on an outside activity, ought to ask herself one important question: "Can I do it without neglecting the job that only I can do?"

Learn How To Apply Cosmetics Properly

By JEANNE D'ARCY

There are some beauty products a girl shouldn't use if she can't use them properly.

Among these are the following:

1. Nail polish. Don't wear it if you're unable to manicure nails regularly. Plain nails look far prettier than nails with chipped and worn polish.
2. Hair dye. Manufacturers have certainly done wonders in perfecting dyes that color hair so beautifully no one would guess the shade wasn't natural. But don't have hair tinted if you can't devote time to touch-up treatments. There's nothing beautiful about a blonde whose hair shows dark roots.
3. Eye shadow. Here's a real glamour cosmetic, but how it's misused! Most women don't know how to apply it so it really is just a "shadow" of color.
4. Rouge. It's not use but over-use eye shadow to "paint" your eyelids. It's safe to say you'd look more attractive if you stopped using it completely.

Jollyettes Elect New Officers

The Jollyettes held the first meeting of the new year Monday evening at the home of Mrs. William Sullivan of 1307 English Ave.

Mystery pal names were drawn and sewing was the diversion. New officers elected were Mrs. Harry Ahrens, president and reporter and Miss Marie Woodrich, treasurer.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in a Japanese motif. The hostess received a gift from Miss Darlene Woodrich.

The next meeting will be Jan. 21 at the home of Mrs. Emile LeCoco.

Women Will Be Comfortable For A Change

They'll Skirt The Issue In Easter Fashions

NEW YORK (U)—Hobble skirts, tunic skirts, panel skirts and Peg-top skirts will enliven next spring's Easter parade.

That's the forecast of New York designers previewing their 1937 collections for the nation's fashions.

Some 250 fashion editors representing newspapers throughout the country converged on New York today, preparing for a crowded week of spring style shows by members of the couture group of New York Dress Institute. They will get a daily preview of the clothes that will appear in shops across the nation within the next few weeks.

THE BIG NEWS of the spring openings is suits designed to make women comfortable for a change. No straggling nipped-in waists, no astringent skirts, no exaggerated bustlines are evident in the spring suit lineup. The silhouette is slim, but not tight. There's room to breathe in the new clothes, room to walk, climb into a taxicab or even sit down in comfort.

Skirt lengths are about the same, or very slightly longer. Jackets are short, never below the hipline length, and come in a number of silhouettes, of which the cape is of prime importance. Next is the semi-fitted waist-length jacket, shaped to follow the natural lines of the body but not to restrain it at any point. The belted and slightly bloused jacket also is present and popular, as is the barrel jacket with bloused or gathered back. Boleros are with us, sometimes cropped just below the bust, sometimes extending to the waistline.

FOR TALL WOMEN the tunic skirt is to be a spring suit favorite, with the panel front or back a close runner-up. The peg-top silhouette looks like an early winner, retaining the basic slim line but allowing ease around the midsection.

Fabrics are light and crisp, with tweeds and flannels in feather weight versions, designed for three-season wear. They are for spring and fall and worn under a coat in winter. There are many new and handsome blends of wool and silk or the new miracle fibers, with enough body for precision tailoring but light enough for warm-weather wear. Cottons and silks look like wools, worsteds look like chiffon, synthetic fabrics look like all of them.

In all categories the new spring fashions have a ladylike air, with the covered-up look strong in swim suits and evening gowns, a new awareness of formality and a definite division between daytime, cocktail and evening fashions. No skirt is it possible to wear a casual sports dress to a dinner party and not feel out of place.

Hats retain their importance in the spring fashion picture, accessories take on new significance, there is careful attention to the correct gloves, handbags and shoes for different costumes, and the general feeling is one of more formality in all occasions.

Strategic Air Command Takes Care Of Its Own Wives, Families

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The hand that rocks the cradle has a lot to do with the efficiency of America's long-range bomber force — the Strategic Air Command.

At Lockbourne Air Force Base here and other Strategic Air Command installations, commanders say most of their men are not missing the girl they left behind. Today's man in uniform brings that girl along as his wife. But if a military man's personal life has changed in recent years, so has his profession. Both changes have brought new problems.

AT LOCKBOURNE AFB, for example, an airman or officer may have a wife and children goodby and not see them again for three months or more.

During that time, he will have flown to a distant base and practiced the steps SAC would take to launch its long-range aircraft at any for threatening the United States.

Or orders may come, transferring the man — and his family, if the new location has dependent facilities — to another military installation hundreds or even thousands of miles away.

Such a move means finding a place to live in a community where the family probably has never been before. It means getting along up to household goods arrive. Frequently, it means stretching the budget.

U.S. Oil Price Hike Over Suez May Not Last

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The wake of the Suez Canal crisis is lapping the coasts of the United States today—just as it is muddying the political waters of England.

Gasoline and home-heating fuel oil are going up in price—although some in the petroleum industry wonder if the price hikes can be made to stick.

Blocking the Suez Canal gave the urge to raise crude oil prices here its needed push.

BEFORE that the big stocks of oil and gasoline on hand, with the industry turning only part time hamstrung—the desire to meet higher operating costs by raising prices.

When one or more squadrons from Lockbourne are on training missions elsewhere, volunteers and friends keep in touch with the families left behind to make sure everything is going right.

Emergency transportation and child care are arranged when needed.

Although friends and wives of fellow squadrons members normally are quick to respond, the DAP also is glad to assist when a Lockbourne man is killed or injured.

Marine Charges Father Beatings Killed His Son

CRIVITZ, Wis. (UP)—A father has charged that his Marine Corps son died recently at Camp Pendleton, Calif., as a result of beatings by a drill instructor.

Casey Gruszynski said he has requested a formal inquiry by the Marines into the death Monday of his son, John.

In Milwaukee, Marine Corps Capt. T. C. Smith said Thursday he has received Gruszynski's request for an inquiry and forwarded it to higher headquarters.

Gruszynski said he has letters from his son in which the Marine told of beatings from a drill instructor at Camp Pendleton.

The father said the beatings took place about a year ago.

Since then, Gruszynski said, the youth complained to him in letters that he suffered severe headaches.

The Marine is reported to have died of a brain hemorrhage.

The home of the victim's father is said by the National Geographic Society to be the island of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean. The island is British, but the natives speak a French dialect.

of Allied Gas Co., which serves Paxton, Rantoul and Rochelle, Ill., and from C. E. Holmes, a vice president of the pipeline.

Plea To Curb Wage-Price Hikes Comes With Living Costs At High

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower's plea for business and labor to go easy on price and wage hikes comes at a time when prices have been rising almost steadily for a year and wages are at a record level.

Government economists said there is a possibility that wage control settlements this year may fall more or less within the President's formula for holding the line against inflation. They were uncertain on the price outlook.

In his State of the Union message Thursday Mr. Eisenhower called on business to avoid unnecessary price increases, particularly those induced solely by high demand and material shortages.

He called on labor to keep increases in wages and fringe benefits "reasonably related" to increases in productivity. Wage hikes that follow productivity—out put per worker—do not cost management any money.

In the past year wholesale prices have risen 4.4 per cent, and consumer prices 2.4 per cent, following several years of relative stability. That stability, however, was due largely to declining farm prices which offset price rises in other fields.

The initial and unofficial reaction of labor economists to Mr. Eisenhower's productivity formula for wage increases was a flat "no." They said he overlooked labor's fundamental point in bargaining: Where profit margins increase, wages should go up, regardless of productivity.

But the fact is that a number of major wage contracts, including those in the so-called wage "pattern-setting" steel and automobile industries, are long-term pacts that provide for automatic wage hikes this year.

The bulk of these "built in" wage hikes run from six to nine cents an hour and are lower than increases negotiated last year. They may set the pattern for wage negotiations in other industries in 1957.

Government economists said the productivity rise this year, in manufacturing at least, may outstrip the wage boosts or offset them.

On the price front, they are more uncertain because of the demand in such basic items as steel and oil. Steel prices have been rising and shortages have developed in steel for highway and other construction. The Suez Canal shutdown set off price rises recently in oil and products such as household oil and gasoline.

Tells How Pipeline Will Increase Gas Output In Illinois

WASHINGTON (UP)—A utility spokesman has told a federal hearing that Rockford and Freeport, Ill., will get an extra 11 million cubic feet of natural gas daily if a proposed 76 million dollar pipeline is approved.

J. J. McConnell testified at a Federal Power Commission hearing Thursday on a request by Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America to construct a 415-mile line from Beatrice, Neb., to Joliet, Ill.

The line would boost the daily gas capacity of Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co. and its subsidiaries by 455 million cubic feet daily. McConnell said the two cities now get about 25 million cubic feet of gas daily, but there is a backlog of orders from prospective new customers.

Earlier, the pipeline's case received support from C. E. Coulter

Gas Shortage Spells 'Death Of Salesman' In England; Auto Industry Hard Hit, Too

LONDON (NEA) — "Death of a Salesman" has been lifted out of the theater to become a grim reality for thousands of Britons. For the traveling salesman is the first victim of Britain's gasoline rationing.

Immediate cause of death, fuel starvation, is compounded by a black-out of the Suez Canal.

The salesman's basic gasoline ration is 300 miles a month, which is only 100 miles more than that allotted to private motorists and not enough to keep the average commercial traveler on the road more than one day a week.

The result is that traveling salesmen are joining the jobless queues at their local employment exchanges in droves.

NOT ALL COMMERCIAL travelers have thrown in the towel, however. One was overheard in a roadside cafe explaining how he expected to get to a town 15 miles distant with a half-gallon of gas in his tank.

"I get up a bit of speed, then I freewheel," he declared listlessly. "It is dreadfully depressing, but I do get there if I am lucky."

Independent taxi-drivers have also been hard hit. Cabbies now all pick and choose their customers, turning down all long hauls (they cannot afford to travel long distances with gasoline 20 cents a gallon dearer).

The big cab companies, for their part, have yanked the radios out of their cabs in order to discourage drivers from cruising for fares, and thus wasting precious petrol.

Hardest hit by the fuel shortage is the motorcar industry. Two-thirds of the 35,000 workers at the Ford plant in Dagenham started working a three-day week on Dec. 31 in order to avoid mass layoffs.

OTHER MOTORCAR companies have cut back their production schedules and are putting workers on short time. A "dangerous crisis" is forecast for the British motor industry by Lord Todder, chairman of the Standard Motor Co.

Meanwhile, gasoline rationing has started a stampede to Commonwealth countries, particularly Australia, Canada and New Zealand. Australia has received more than 5,000 applications and inquiries concerning emigration since the end of November, with the number stepped up sharply since the start of the gas ration on Dec. 17. Canada House reports that the flow of emigration inquiries is now four or five times what it was at this time last year, while the number of applications in November to emigrate to New Zealand was double that in October.

Curiously enough, very few Britons want to go to the United States.

Gasoline rationing has also brought back the "spiv," the black market dealer who is the scourge of the nation. Spivs can be found in all parts of London. "Flogging" gas ration coupons at anything from 25 to 50 cents apiece.

The spivs have had plenty of time to set themselves up in the illegal gas racket, for the government signalled its intention to institute rationing weeks in advance of the actual rationing operation.

So far gasoline rationing has been what an American would call "glorious confusion."

PRIVATE MOTORISTS were given an over-promise, basic gas allowance of 200 miles a month in the hopes that there would be no requests for supplementary ration coupons. The Ministry of Fuel retained

U.S. Must Act Fast in Mideast, Says Dulles

Inaugural For Stratton Gala Event Monday

Fifth Republican Governor To Succeed Himself

SPRINGFIELD — William M. Stratton, the fifth Republican governor in Illinois history to succeed himself, awaits installation Monday in inaugural ceremonies expected to eclipse those of four years ago.

Then Stratton was presented before a similar joint session of another Republican-controlled Legislature as the fourth youngest governor of the state. He was 38 and the state's 32nd chief executive. It was the first time since the 1890s that the GOP held all eight major elective offices, including superintendent of public instruction and clerk of the Supreme Court.

Now 42, and with four strenuous years behind him, Stratton is still regarded as relatively youthful and vigorous in his leadership of another full GOP official family.

IN HIS INAUGURAL address, which legislators and a capacity crowd of 8,000 were invited to hear, Stratton will outline the policies he will pursue in his next four years, especially in the areas of reform and finance.

Warns Reds May Dominate Western Europe

Release Secret Testimony Before House Committee

WASHINGTON — A warning by Secretary of State Dull that Soviet communism is likely to gain bloodless domination over Western Europe unless the United States rushes aid to the Middle East Saturday night sharpened the big debate over foreign policy. Dull, in testimony last made public, said that unless the United States acts fast with help for the strategic Mideast "it is our definite belief that this area is very likely to be lost."

"And if it is lost," Dull said, "it will be the greatest victory that the Soviet Communists could ever have gained because if they get this area they in effect will have gotten Western Europe without a war."

DULL painted this grave picture of the situation and closed session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee last Tuesday. The committee had been making public its testimony after making security clearances.

It was testifying for President Eisenhower's plan for economic aid to Middle East nations and for authority to fight if necessary to counter any overt Communist aggression in the area.

Meanwhile, it was reported that the committee had made public its testimony after making security clearances.

SEN. KNOWLAND of California, in a speech last week, had urged that the committee should make public its testimony after making security clearances.

Youth Admits Ike Leaves Today On Part In 25 Burglaries

A youth who Police Chief Waldo Flannery said has admitted staging 25 burglaries in the city area is scheduled for a hearing in court today.

Flannery said James Christian, 20, 119 S. Harrison Ave., will be specifically charged with the theft of a radio from a service station. Then if the case goes to the grand jury, Flannery said that evidence pertaining to the other cases will be presented.

Christian has reportedly made statements implicating himself and another youth in the burglaries which occurred since last October. He is said to be an escapee from a Michigan training school.

CHRISTIAN, who says his family lives in Waterloo, Mich., was arrested Tuesday on a vagrancy charge after a W. Court street restaurant reported the theft of some money from a cash register. Christian had been employed by the restaurant as a dishwasher.

Capt. George Fred and Sgt. Bill Paulauskas said they found that the youth had been paying his bills with small change. They Continued on Page 6, Column 1

24 Indictments Are Returned By Grand Jury

Report Cites Need For New Kankakee County Jail

The Kankakee County grand jury has returned 24 indictments against 12 defendants.

As some of its predecessors have done, the jury also reported that the county jail should be improved or replaced with "a new and adequate" building.

The Kankakee County Board of Supervisors has started discussions toward construction of a new county jail and office building.

THE JURY said the present jail is "grossly inadequate as to size and facilities."

Defendants indicted by the grand jury are scheduled to receive copies of the charges Thursday.

The jury indicted Paul Rothermel, 25, R. 1, Channahon, on a charge of shooting his father, Gus Rothermel, 51, M. 2, Third Ave., with intent to kill the older Rothermel.

The Dec. 31 shooting in Otto Township climaxed an argument between the two, according to authorities.

An embezzlement indictment was returned against a Kankakee area couple accused of faking a hold-up at the service station where he was employed.

Jaycees Need Help To Get Home Today

Kankakee Jaycees were out in the cold early today.

Their position was reported "somewhere south of Chicago" and it was mighty chilly.

"Marching to Chicago and back for a penny a foot," the Jaycees needed thousands of dollars to come to their aid. They appeared for 5,000 persons to pledge $1 each and the cold marchers could get back into town.

The headquarters phone number where the pledges are received is 2-394 and members even offered to pick up the pledges.

The fund drive in support of the March of Dimes for the polio fund was reported to be lagging seriously Saturday night. It was estimated that the pledges were $2,000 to $2,500 behind.

JAYCEE MARCHING headquarters in Meadowview Shopping Center, from where the caravan left Friday afternoon, had a poignant moment Saturday when a 7-year-old polio victim from Channahon, Rebecca Alenta, jumped into the parade and carried a banner for the fund.

The marchers in Chicago met one of the home folks, Mrs. Robert Cogrove of Kankakee. As they greeted her, Mrs. Cogrove pulled out a dollar to add to the fund.

Chicago laid out the red carpet for the local Junior Chamber of Commerce members Saturday.

ON HAND TO GREET them in ceremonies at State and Madison were Benjamin Wham, general chairman of the 1937 March of Dimes, Col. Jack Reilly, representing Chicago mayor Richard Daley, and George Burdett, president of the Chicago Junior Association of Commerce and Industry.

Although the greeting was large, contributions were small so the Jaycees sent out an emergency call to the "folks back home" today.

"Please get us back home," the Jaycees said.

Baby, it's cold outside.

May Not Need Primary For City Offices

Only One Name On Each Ticket; List Alderman Candidates

It appeared last Saturday that a primary election might not have to be held in Kankakee for city offices this year.

City primaries are held only if there are more than one Republican candidate and one Democratic candidate for the various offices.

City Clerk Patrick Cleary also said that if there is no opposition at the time of the ticket, but there is a contest in any of the wards, primary voting need only be held in the contested wards.

At last Saturday evening, the Republicans had filed a full slate of candidates for mayor, police magistrate, city clerk, city treasurer and aldermen in all of the seven wards.

The Democrats had also filed for all these offices, with the exception of aldermen in the Fourth Ward.

Midnight Saturday was the deadline for candidate filing. Next Thursday is the final date on which a candidate may formally withdraw. The primary election date is set for May 16.

For the regular city election will be held April 16.

Freight Train Loses 62 Cars

CHICAGO (UP) — A Chicago North Western Railway freight train set out for a railroad yard north of the city with 122 cars early Saturday and arrived with only 60.

A switch engine was sent scouting and found the 62 missing cars 19 miles down the track, parked just beyond the interlocking at a highway where the train had halted for a period.

Police believe an exasperated motorist most likely uncoupled the cars.

Macmillan Regrouping Old Cabinet

LONDON — It looked Saturday night as if Prime Minister Macmillan's new Cabinet will be largely a regrouping of the old. The list of callers and unofficial reports indicated Macmillan is regrouping his Cabinet and is likely to have a new prime minister who served with him under Sir Anthony Eden than on finding new men for Britain's top jobs.

No official announcement is expected until late Sunday on what he is matching most and minister tries for "the troubles that he ahead."

BUT WHEN the team is named it will have problems — of rebuilding the British-American alliance, bolstering Britain's world trade and the pound sterling, tidying up after the Suez Canal adventure, settling the status of Cyprus, ending the peacetime rationing and checking inflation.
