Record $38 Billion Asked For Military Spending

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower sent Congress today a record peacetime military spending bill of $38 billion. He said it would provide "a wise and reasonable degree" of security against continued threats to world peace.

His budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 called for a $2 billion boost in armed forces spending to keep 3,500,000 men under arms and speed the transition to even more awesome nuclear weapons and guided weapons. Once planned manpower cuts would be postponed indefinitely.

MISSILE SPENDING alone would be increased by $533 million over the current year, to top $2 billion for the first time.

The Air Force would get 100 more B-52 hydrogen bomb-bombers, bringing its total program to 600.

The Navy would get its first nuclear-powered aircraft carrier.

The increase in spending was a great deal less than the military wanted, and the administration faced a stiff congressional battle to hold the line at $38 billion.

Mr. Eisenhower scheduled a cut of 8 wings in current Air Force strength—from 133 wings to 125. The former, much-publicized goal of 127 wings which was to be reached by next June 30, was dropped.

One reason was that Army missiles now can take over some ground support work formerly done by Air Force fighters. Also, the Strategic Air Command will lose its escort fighter planes.

The budget also proposed a cut in Army divisions from 19 to 17 in the new fiscal year.

The President said this country will continue to expand its nuclear arsenal until there is a foolproof arms reduction agreement.

OUR NUCLEAR WEAPONS and our ability to employ them constitute the most effective deterrent to an attack on the free nations," Mr. Eisenhower said.

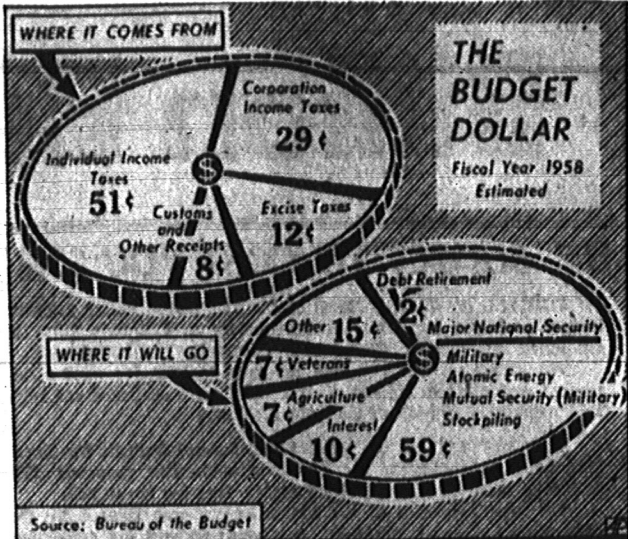

The budget provided for operating aircraft fleets totaling more than 30,000 Air Force and Navy planes. Many obsolete types would be winnowed out. About half the planes are to be combat types together.

The Navy and Air Force together were set to order from 2,750 to 2,850 new planes during the year, compared with about 2,600 this year.

The budget called for a $112 million rise in shipbuilding expenditures, putting them over the $1 billion mark.

The Navy got a go-ahead on 19 new warships, including the atomic carrier to cost $310 million.

The new budget called for the Army to organize six atomic commands to support U.S. and Allied divisions on the battlefield. They

Expect New Census In Bourbonnais Soon

The Bourbonnais village census is now awaiting action by the Bureau of Census Chicago regional office, Samuel H. Shapiro, village attorney, reported at a regular meeting of the village board of trustees Tuesday night.

Shapiro read a letter from the Bureau of Census acknowledging receipt of eight copies of the village map and a check of $402 to be applied on the cost of the census. Information has been forwarded to Theodore P. Olson, regional supervisor in Chicago and he will make an assignment of a staff member to take the census as soon as possible, according to the letter.

SHAPIRO TOLD THE BOARD that it will be necessary for the board to provide a room for the enumerators to work, supply a list of possible workers to be interviewed by the census supervisor as enumerators, a telephone and a typewriter.

The village attorney reported that village maps prepared by the Fyson Engineering Service would be available to the village at a cost of $5 per map under an agreement that any maps which are to be resold will be sold at $2.50.

Also reported by Shapiro was the progress of the legal firm of Chapman and Cutler regarding bonding ordinances for the projected sewage disposal system and connected projects. The firm improvements to be followed later on by a public hearing for all property owners along the street. The procedure is necessary because a portion of the cost will be assessed to property owners along the street.

In other action at Tuesday's meeting, the board:

Received a communication from the Public Service Co. noting installation of street lights at Oliver and Williams streets and Spencer court and Spencer drive and an annual increase in the village's street lighting bill of $34.56.

Received a report from the state of October municipal tax receipts of $191.86 net to the city.

Discussed setting up a uniform system of street numbers and divisions and referred the matter to the street and alley committee for study and a recommendation.

Vapor Shrouds Kankakee River Dam

Continued bitter cold in the Kankakee area caused vapor to rise from water spilling over the Kankakee River dam today. The week-long cold wave forced the mercury down to 15 degrees below zero at Kankakee airport early today. And the weatherman offers little hope of any real relief, though the prediction for tonight is "not quite so cold" with a low of zero to 5 below. (Journal photo)

Wilmington Council Adds 4th City Ward

WILMINGTON (JNS)—A fourth ward was created in this community Tuesday night at a meeting of the city council.

The city approved a motion to adopt an amendment for the redistricting of wards and the creation of an additional ward. This becomes the first time in 50 years a new ward has been added in Wilmington.

According to the council, everything north of the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad tracks to north section line 25 and east to the city limits will be in the first ward.

The second ward will take in everything south of the GM and O tracks to River street, including the island.

The third ward will be comprised of everything south of River street to the city limits.

And the fourth ward will include everything west of the Kankakee River to the city limits.

UNDER THE three-ward system, there were six aldermen in Wilmington. With the additional ward, there will be eight.

However, the redistricting of city wards complicates the matter of who will and who will not run in the April elections.

Under the old program of three wards, three of the six aldermen would have completed their terms.

presented by Atty. John Irving Pearce in behalf of residents on the west side. Pearce pointed out the law enables cities with 3,000 to 5,000 population to have eight aldermen and thus a fourth ward. Wilmington's population, according to the 1950 census, is 30,336.

The councilmen, whose terms expire this year, are Jay Hubbell, Francis Kurth and Emil Vercelli. Mayor Robert Carter has not indicated definitely whether he will again seek the office of mayor.

During the adjourned meeting, the council voted to contact the city of Minneapolis, Minn., in regard to the purchase of 12 voting booths, four ballot boxes and 12 lights for the booths. Minneapolis has several of these items for sale. They are a year old.

Mayor Carter announced an application for a federal grant to assist in the financing of the city's sewage disposal plant was received, signed and returned to Chicago for action.

It was announced the Soldiers' Widows' Home water project was completed and that final tests are being sent to Springfield.

At a meeting of the council last week, a civil defense ordinance was adopted. Action on such a law had been pending three years.

Robert Stowell of Wilmington was appointed Red Cross disaster chairman for the year and will attend school in Joliet on Jan. 25-26.

Bear Brand To Lay Off 80 Persons

A total of 80 persons will be laid off at the Bear Brand Hosiery Co. mill in Kankakee at the end of this week. "About half of the number being laid off are part-time employees, the others are full-time workers."

A company spokesman in Chicago said the lay-off was the result of excess inventories and a general depression in the industry. He was unable to predict whether conditions would improve enough in the foreseeable future so that the persons laid off would be re-employed.

AT SAMUELS

leaving three holdovers on the council who would not have had to run for two more years.

But with the shuffle of ward boundaries, the three holdovers wound up in one ward. The law allows only one holdover alderman in each ward, stipulating if there are two or more holdover aldermen, they must draw lots before the city council.

This leaves seven vacancies on the council. Voters will fill them in April, electing a two-year and a four-year alderman in wards 1, 3 and 4 and a four-year alderman in ward 2.

ACTION TO establish a fourth ward was prompted by a petition

Human Relations Course For Adults Offered At KHS

Business, industrial officials and parents have been invited to join teachers in a college level human relations course at KHS.

The course would be taught by Dr. Anthony Marinaccio, Kankakee superintendent of schools.

It will be offered for credit as an extension course of Bradley University. Adults also may enroll on a non-credit basis under the Kankakee District's adult education program.

The course in educational psychology will apply that field to industry, business and even the home, as well as the classroom, Marinaccio said.

"We will discuss various basic human traits that bring about certain types of individual behavior and apply them to boys and girls in school and people in industry, business and the home," he said.

The course is offered on both the graduate and undergraduate level, as well as for anyone who wants to take it on a non-credit basis.

Those taking it for credit will pay the regular $30 extension course fee to Bradley University.

Others taking it can enroll by paying the regular adult evening class fee of about $15.

The organizational meeting of the class will be 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 31. Anyone interested in enrolling should call 3-3115 and leave his name and address.

The class will meet on Thursday for a total of 16 weeks.

4 Tavern Keepers Fined $100 For Possessing 'Slots'

Four tavern keepers pleaded guilty Tuesday to possessing a slot machine and were fined $100 each by Justice George Genette.

They were Vito Bertucci, an operator of Vito's Five Acres east of Mokenca; Tom Clark as operator of a tavern at Birch St. and Hobble Ave.; James Lentini, as operator of a tavern across the street from Clark's; and Delmar Len Jensen, as operator of Del Mar lounge along Route 54 north.

Slot machines were confiscated at the four places Saturday night. State police first reported incorrectly that the machine taken from Del Mar lounge was taken from Tiny and Effie's restaurant.

State Attorney Frank W. Curran obtained an order in Circuit Court Tuesday for destruction of the machines.

They will be destroyed by the sheriff's department and the money in them turned over to the county.

Mrs. Russell Perkins, center, is pictured with her five children, Ronald, back row left, Carol and Sandra, front row, and Stephen and Mark, back row right, with a portion of the luggage they will carry with them when they embark for Manila. (Journal photo)

Family To Move, Bag And Baggage, To Manila

It's a fairly universal opinion that it takes a good deal of preparation to take a trip or move from one locality to another. But when six people — plus six rooms of furniture — move from one country to another the preparation takes on momentous proportions.

Mrs. Russell Perkins and five children, Carol, 12; Sandra, 14; Mark, 7; Ronald, 10½; and Stephen, 6, serve as good examples. They will leave the latter part of January for Manila to join their husband and father who is stationed there with the United States Air Force.

They have been preceded by three trunks and six complete rooms of furniture, with the exception of rugs, but including two washing machines, a stove and refrigerator. With them they will carry a total of eight pieces of luggage.

THIS KING SIZED moving project is taken in stride by Mrs. Perkins and brood for moving has been much a part of their lives for the past 18 years.

Although this is their first jaunt out of the country they have lived wherever Perkins has been stationed including California, Michigan and South Dakota.

"The children love the traveling," Mrs. Perkins says. "That is with the exception of Sandra who has reached an age where she would prefer to establish more permanent friendships. The only complaint the other children have ever made were in relation to the shots necessary for this move — they've had 14 apiece."

The Perkins will leave the West Coast Jan. 21 by boat. They plan several times, until you feel buoyant and pleasantly stretched.

A SIDEWARD BEND just naturally follows. Standing with feet well apart, left arm stretched upwards, right arm down at side. First stretch smoothly along left side, then slowly ease into a side-ward bend to the right, sliding the right hand down the thighline. As you bend, chant, "Silken slim and supple." Ease back to starting position, stretch right arm up over head and bend smoothly sideways toward the left, chanting, "Bending makes for a willowy waist." Stretching and bending to word pictures takes all resistance out of exercising.

A swing movement is wonderfully hip slimming, so swing through this: Standing, for balance graze hold of a chairback with left hand. Now swing right leg forward free and easy, and swing back, bringing the leg to past a 45 degree angle so as to reach the left hip muscle. Use the beat... swing and away... swing forward and back again... hips a-wa-y. Keep swinging, it's streamlining. Change sides and swing with the left leg to slim hips in a hurry.

As you stretch-bend-pull, making the movements smooth and flowing, you pull out bulges and restore tone to little used muscles. Hold the movement for a few seconds as you think, "Lift and flatter, young and supple. Don't strain... let it be fun and freeing!"

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gas, bloating or gripes

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "stiff" colon that, instead of relaxing muscles as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so that straining to defecate or to stimulate the bowels to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.
To make bowel regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowels must be rehydrated. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to make the "stiff" muscles relax and act; to a normal urge to purge.
And, of all laxatives, only Coloman, the amazing new laxative discovery, possesses Coloman's great moisture.

Minoso Sends Back White Sox Contract

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The major league holdout then opened officially today when outfielder Minoso began his annual tug-of-war with the Chicago White Sox.

The White Sox received Minoso's unsigned contract from Havana Tuesday with the notation: "It looks like this contract was intended for the Minoso of 1953 or 1954, not the one who had such a fine season in 1956. Please send corrected contract."

Minoso, who batted .316 last year, reportedly was offered $32,000, the same as last year.

WITH THE EXCEPTION of the Washington Senators, none of the major league clubs have come up with any serious holdouts and most top-line players are coming into the fold without argument.

Others who signed Tuesday: Shortstop Joe Mauer, Milwaukee; infielder Jim Flanagan, Detroit; outfielder Jim Rivera, White Sox; infielder Henry Thompson and pitcher Ray Grissom, Boston.

Yankee star Mickey Mantle sent back his first contract, but his case isn't regarded as serious yet.

"With the contracts we're getting back, assuming they finish up, I think we're going to have a better year."

Cadilli Tonight

BOSTON (U)—Rugged Miguel Berrios of Puerto Rico, a top-ranked contender for Sandy Saddler's featherweight title, meets stylish Gil Cadilli in a scheduled 10-round bout tonight at Mechanics Building.

Berrios and Cadilli will be making their New England debut. The bout will be telecast nationally, 9 a.m. EST.

The Puerto Rican, managed by Jimmy Gomez who handled former heavyweight contender Roland La Starza, is seeking a shot at Saddler's title. Angelo has offered a $15,000 guarantee to the featherweight champion to defend his crown against Berrios.

Cadilli, one of the best fighters in Sid Flaherty's stable, has lost only five of 37 fights. He has defeated Willie Pep and the Chestnut.

Cousy, Johnston Lead East All-Stars To Victory

BOSTON (U)—Playmaker Bob Cousy and shooter Neil Johnston made such an unbreakable combination that opposing National Basketball Association players are grateful they aren't teamed regularly.

The fabulous pair made the difference Tuesday night in carrying the East to a 109-87 triumph over the West in the seventh annual All-Star Game at Boston Garden.

Cousy, the 6-1 Boston Celtics' backcourt ace, won the game's Most Valuable Player award for the second time. He has appeared in each of the All-Star games since 1954 and was named MVP in 1954.

BESIDES HIS 18 points, Cousy contributed amazing passes and fired a key-breaking attack which eventually won down the ball.

For the 11,178 fans who braved bitter near-zero weather to watch the classic, the highlight might well have been a fuke goal by Johnston, 6-3 center from the Philadelphia Warriors, tossed in 19 points when they really were needed.

The combination was devastating in the third period when the East rallied from a two-point deficit to a 74-66 lead in the longest in Garden history.

IN ALL, COUSY grabbed five rebounds and received five assists. Bob Pettit of St. Louis and Maurice Stokes of Rochester did yeoman work for the West. Pettit scored 13 points while Stokes hit for 19 and topped rebounders with 11. They just didn't have enough.

"We have refused invitations to meet before," said AAU Secretary-Treasurer Dan Feriz. "In view of the current political situation, I strongly doubt that we'll change our attitude."

Russia Invites
U.S. Cindermen

NEW YORK (U)—Russia would like to have a U.S. track team compete in the "friendly sports" games for youth at Moscow next summer, but indications today were that an invitation would be turned down.

"We have refused invitations to meet before," said AAU Secretary-Treasurer Dan Feriz. "In view of the current political situation, I strongly doubt that we'll change our attitude."

U.S. Payroll Exceeds Swedish Population!

WASHINGTON (U)—Speaking of the dangers of inflation and the high cost of government, as President Eisenhower was doing today in his budget message, here are some off-beat facts and figures.

The Tax Foundation, 30 Rockefeller Center, New York, recently calculated that the number of persons on the United States government payroll exceeds the population of Sweden: 7.4 million and 7.2 million, respectively.

ON A ROUGH estimate of $500 as the average annual cost of government employment, the federal payroll would be about $36 billion.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) has heaped presidents for years to the federal payroll. This is the straightest road to economy, says Byrd. The trend, however, is to expand it.

Mr. Eisenhower was in the red last couple of years, but he balanced the budget with a surplus to boot in 1956. He expects to repeat in the current fiscal year. The public debt has increased over $1 billion since he took over in 1953.

From 1933, when FDR entered the White House office, to the end of the Truman administration, the public debt during the past quarter-century has increased from $89 billion in 1933, when FDR took over, to $17 billion in 1956.

World War II and the Roosevelt-Truman policies of deficit financing substantially increased the public debt during the past quarter-century. The annual interest on the public debt increased from $89 billion in 1933, when FDR took over, to $17 billion in 1956.

WHEN THE TREASURY comes up at fiscal year-end with a surplus, which hasn't been often for many years, the administration must decide whether to cut taxes or the dogs.

U.S. Writer Reports From Red China

NEW YORK (U)—An American writer, who has been in Red China for several months, reports today that the first interview granted a Westerner by the Chinese government was to a reporter with an American prisoner in Red China.

Correspondent Guy Searis said on the program "World News Roundup" that William Wright, correspondent for the Baltimore Afro-American, reported from Shanghai he had interviewed captured Lutheran minister Paul Mackensen.

Mackensen told Wright he was undecided whether he wanted to return to the United States or stay in Red China. His sentence is scheduled to be completed March 7.

ACCORDING TO Searis' report, Mackensen, who is the son of the Rev. Paul J. Mackensen, Baltimore, also told Wright he had been in Red China since he was a child.

From 1933, when FDR entered the White House office, to the end of the Truman administration, the public debt during the past quarter-century has increased from $89 billion in 1933, when FDR took over, to $17 billion in 1956.

Doctors Say Boy Never Had Leukemia

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—Physicians here today said a 15-year-old boy who had symptoms of leukemia had not had the fatal disease.

Fifty doctors attending a meeting of the State Medical Society of Wisconsin Tuesday heard a team of doctors explain the case history of little Tommy Ethun.

About 18 months ago the boy was diagnosed as a victim of leukemia, a fatal cancer of the blood for which there is no known cure.

Doctors say today that Tommy's blood count is normal and he apparently is a healthy boy.

A society spokesman said after the study that he thinks Tommy never had leukemia. He said the case looked "very much like leukemia, but it was not."

"BUT WE MAY HAVE to swallow those words," he added. "Whatever happened here is a very rare thing."

"I would say that on the basis of blood smears and bone marrow, doctors were justified in treating it as leukemia," he said.

On the basis of present evidence, he said it seemed to be "pseudo-leukemia from the very beginning."

While physicians studied his case, Tommy posed for pictures in his "best suit," waved goodbye to his reporters and doctors and departed with his parents for his home in DeForest, Wis.

Where Eisenhower Doctrine Must Operate

Middle East Background Ripe For Red Penetration

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two world wars started in places where few Americans knew about. It was in the Middle East that the world's first nuclear war was fought.

If there is another, it could start in a place called Mosul, or Aleppo, or some other unheard-of dusty outpost of the Middle East.

The Eisenhower doctrine says the United States will fight any Communist invasion of the Middle East. But will the United States fight to save the Middle East from communism? That fight is much more difficult.

The Russians already are attacking one of the Arab Worlds. The Communists care little for the world of the Arab leaders. They are more interested in the world of the Arab people, and particularly that small world of educated Arabs whose pent-up bitterness against the West makes them invulnerable to the sort of indirect attack Communists use.

THE ARABS themselves are hopelessly divided on virtually every question except common enemy. For Israel, they are highly vulnerable to the sort of indirect attack Communists use.

Even on the question of Israel there is no real agreement. Many Arabs would like to turn their backs on the problem and devote themselves to trying to bring about some measure of stability in their world.

Israel leaders, I have interviewed say they would gratefully welcome such an attitude. They too say they believe only stability among the Arabs, in government and economies, offers any chance of peace.

But in the Arab East there is a desperate poverty of leadership. Much of it is leadership by demagogues. Arab politicians can arouse passions over the Israeli issue, and this is an invitation to violence.

For many reasons, Soviet armed attack in the Middle East seems unlikely. But the Communist world covets the Middle East for its own sake.

SAUDI ARABIA—King Saud has ruled the world since 1932. He is a young man, but he has a youthful restlessness characteristic of the whole area. His economy depends wholly on oil dollars.

Lebanon—A little country of 1½ millions, half Christian and half Moslem, Lebanon often seems to an outsider an oasis of sense in an illogical world.

The government, backed by a small but ably commanded army of about 7,000, remains a staunch friend of the West and a possible bridge between West and Middle East.

Yemen—This feudal country of 4½ millions provides a quick test for the Eisenhower Doctrine. The Yemen, a feudal monarchy ruled by its king, has been in a deal with Russia for arms to use against the British in the neighboring Aden protectorate.

Nothing in the Eisenhower Doctrine seems aimed at stopping this sort of penetration.

Egypt—Israelis and Westerners alike say they had great hopes for the Arab world when Egypt's revolution ousted King Farouk in 1952. Washington contemplated rosy hopes for young Gamal Abdel Nasser, who took over as premier in 1954 and later made himself president.

The young officers announced a planning program which someday might rescue the unshod, unwashed and disease-ridden peasantry from their eternal misery.

But events interrupted the dream. Nasser, claiming desperate need to defend Egypt from Israel, got from Russia the arms he could not get from the West.

Nasser tried to move the Arab world toward the Communist world. Created in 1948 when Britain left Palestine, Israel has built a modern nation in the heart of a backward, medieval world. The Eisenhower Doctrine says Israel must open up new land in the Negev Desert. Syria says it will not have the Jordan River water.

Rayburn Supports Mideast Doctrine

WASHINGTON (UP)—Speaker Rayburn today threw his full support behind President Eisenhower's request for military and economic powers to meet the Communist threat in the Middle East.

The Democratic leader told reporters he wanted to put a stop to "passing on my position" on the Eisenhower Doctrine.

He had previously been reported undecided or opposed to granting Mr. Eisenhower discretionary authority to spend an extra 200 million dollars in economic aid this year in the Middle East.

HE ALSO HAD BEEN reported as favoring giving Mr. Eisenhower a statement that Congress supports the President in his Middle East negotiations in place of an actual grant of authority to U. S. military forces, if necessary, to block overt Communist aggression in the area.

"I think we have got to give the President this military authority about as he asked for it," Rayburn said.

He said he meant a grant of legal power to use U. S. forces to support the President in his Middle East negotiations in place of an actual grant of authority to U. S. military forces, if necessary, to block overt Communist aggression in the area.

Paring Budget Expected To Be Difficult Job

Foreign Aid Funds May Be Target Of Most Legislators

WASHINGTON (UP)—Economy-minded congressmen promised today to try to trim the budget of President Eisenhower's record peacetime spending budget of $118 billion. But they conceded it would be a tough task.

No one believed that the budget could be trimmed enough to justify a general tax cut and still keep the government operating in the black.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), a leader of the economy bloc in the Senate, said, "My experience has been that it is almost impossible to cut a president's budget." Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) agreed, particularly "in times like these" when the nation is prosperous.

FOREIGN AID FUNDS will be the principal target of the economy advocates.

Mr. Eisenhower proposed spending in the new fiscal year beginning July 1 $14.3 billion on foreign military and economic aid, an increase of $200 million over this year. He requested $4.4 billion in appropriations, against $3.7 approved by Congress for the current year.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) said this request "ought to be drastically reduced." Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) proposed cutting it in half.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), ranking Republican on the Senate Appropriations Committee, said "the most serious economic problem of the world today is the lack of money."

3 Dead, 7 Hurt In Wednesday Night Explosion

Bloomington Area, 40 Miles Away, Feels Today's Shock

PEORIA (UP)—A mysterious explosion rocked Peoria today, hours after an earlier one tore apart a two-story building and killed at least three persons.

The second blast, still unidentified, first was reported in the north section of Peoria and rattled windows throughout the area. But reports that one person had been killed could not be verified.

It was definitely some kind of explosion, but if a house or building had blown up, we certainly would have found it by now," he said.

PEORIA REPORTER Frank Barry said the newspaper office, which also was shaken by the noise and shock waves, was flooded with calls inquiring about the blast.

Barry said some persons in West Peoria, the area in which the building was destroyed Wednesday night, were so frightened they were packing their bags and leaving their homes.

Barry said a check of the local airport and of all air force installations in the area indicated no jet planes had been in the vicinity which might have caused the noise and shock waves by breaking the sound barrier.

The noise and shock waves from the mysterious blast were reported as far away as Bloomington, 40 miles southeast.

JOHNSON ALSO SAID police officers were checking the theory that it might have been the result of a high speed plane, but they had found nothing.

Earlier firemen recovered the body of an 81-year-old boy missing in the rubble of a two-story building.
