

Olivet Nazarene University

Digital Commons @ Olivet

---

The Kankakee Daily Journal

University Archives

---

1-22-1957

January 22, 1957 (Tuesday) Kankakee Daily Journal

Kankakee Daily Journal

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.olivet.edu/dj>

---

Recommended Citation

Kankakee Daily Journal, "January 22, 1957 (Tuesday) Kankakee Daily Journal" (1957). The Kankakee Daily Journal. 317.

<https://digitalcommons.olivet.edu/dj/317>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at Digital Commons @ Olivet. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Kankakee Daily Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Olivet. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@olivet.edu.

New Drugs May Fight 'Rust' In System, Prevent Heart Attacks

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—New discoveries promise safe "antirust" drugs to prevent heart attacks.

Heart attacks have come because heart arteries become narrowed or clogged with fatty deposits, much like rust in a water pipe.

The antirust drugs would dissolve out some of the fatty stuff or prevent it from forming to keep the blood pipelines open. Such drugs would be a tremendous boon to thousands of people who already have had a heart attack, or who are headed for one.

ONE CHEMICAL, a salt of the metal vanadium, has succeeded in removing the fatty "rust" in the arteries of rabbits, and it is reducing manufacture of the fatty material inside the body.

Tests are planned to learn whether vanadium salts or something similar can do the same for humans.

The vanadium studies are described by Dr. George L. Curran and associates of the University of Kansas Medical School. They are one of the research teams working on this new preventive approach to heart attack.

A main ingredient in the fatty plugs or rust that blocks heart arteries is cholesterol, a fat-like material.

You get some cholesterol in various foods. But your body also manufactures it.

Eating low-fat and low-cholesterol diets is one way of trying to keep the amount down, so there won't be so much that could collect inside the heart arteries.

Heart attacks result when an artery becomes completely blocked by the plugs or plaques, or when there with the production, at least in rabbits. This means there is no excess production which can form plugs in heart arteries, or such a deficit in production that existing plugs are cut down in size.

A next step is to learn whether vanadium can reduce cholesterol production inside human bodies.

Vanadium salts in low amounts appear to be entirely safe, causing no bad effects, in rabbits. Safety in humans must also be determined carefully.

If vanadium, or something else, reduced the size of artery plugs by 50 per cent in a man aged 40, it could possibly add 10 years to his lifespan, Dr. Curran estimates.

Sheldon Christian Fellowship Plans Annual Supper

SHELDON (JNS) — The annual fish supper was set for March 8 at the Darrow Women's Christian Fellowship meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Leon Sherrill.

Mrs. Frances Conley opened the meeting with a fellowship prayer.

In charge of the supper were Mrs. Charles L. Curran, Mrs. Leon Sherrill, Mrs. Earl Newman, Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Mrs. Rosa Darragh, Mrs. Philip Jones, and Mrs. Frances Conley.

PTA Of Donovan To Meet Thursday

DONOVAN (JNS) — The Parent Teacher Association will meet in Donovan High School on Thursday evening at 7 p.m.

The change is due to the basketball tournament.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leslie Dusenberry entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mike Foster and the Harry Foster family at dinner Wednesday evening. A few neighbors came in later in the evening for a party in their honor.

Reddick EUB Church Holds Annual Event

REDDICK (JNS) — The annual congregational meeting of the Reddick Evangelical United Brethren Church was held Thursday evening.

Officers elected for this year are as follows: Frank Boyer and Howard Boyer, trustees; Fred Rieke, class leader, and Walter Boyer, assistant class leader.

Appointed were Miss Velma Shimm, pianist; Mrs. Frederick H. Raab, assistant pianist, and Miss Violeta Shimm, music committee chairman.

Ushers elected were Henry Shelly, Phillip Glover, Vernon Schrock and Norwood Shelly.

Sunday school officers elected are: Corvin Shelly, superintendent; LeRoy Rieke, assistant superintendent; Phillip Glover, secretary, and Mrs. Vernon Schrock, treasurer.

The congregation voted to ratify the report of the joint survey committee, that the union of the Reddick and Zoar EUB churches might be possible. A long time planning program will be required. Steps will be taken to start a building fund if the Zoar EUB Church will ratify the same recommendation.

PTA Of Donovan To Meet Thursday

DONOVAN (JNS) — The Parent Teacher Association will meet in Donovan High School on Thursday evening at 7 p.m.

The change is due to the basketball tournament.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leslie Dusenberry entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mike Foster and the Harry Foster family at dinner Wednesday evening. A few neighbors came in later in the evening for a party in their honor.

Morocco

A MEETING of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held in the Methodist Church at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Mrs. William Brunton will be worship and program leader. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Estelle Grant, Mrs. James Redden, Mrs. Leroy Hickman, Mrs. Robert Carlson and Mrs. William Sherman.

Mrs. DALLIS Bloomquist held several quilting parties last week.

Receive 11 New Members Into Reddick 4-H Club

REDDICK (JNS) — The Reddick 4-H Club met Wednesday evening in the agriculture shop of the high school.

Eighteen members and a guest, Mrs. Bernadette Hayes, were present. A special feature of the meeting was the receiving of eleven new members, Melvin Brunner, Gayle Kirschner, Alan Krieger, Jack Hayes, Charles Jensen, Susan Langhorst, Dorothy Jean Rieke, Glendon Lehman, Keith Tyler, Norman Krueger and Marvin Veprecht.

Plans for a family night on March 13 were made. Committees appointed included Tom Jensen and Jerry Joyce, entertainment; Robert Boser and Ivan Brunner, refreshments, and LeRoy and Ronnie Schweigert, invitations.

Jerry Joyce and Ronnie Schweigert were elected as junior leaders. Tom Jensen will serve as a delegate to the County 4-H Federation.

It was announced Rickey Weprecht was the winner of Kankakee County DeKalb two-acre corn contest.

Talks were given by Robert Boser, "Necessity of Salt in Animal Rations," and LeRoy Schweigert, "Minerals in Livestock Rations."

The next meeting will be at the high school agriculture shop on Feb. 13.

C. Ray Prussner and Lewellyn Rieke serve as leaders of the club.

SAVE NOW!

THE GIFT THAT STARTS HER FUTURE HOME

CLEARANCE SALE

OF FLOOR SAMPLES

FAMOUS LANE CEDAR HOPE CHESTS

Here's guaranteed moth protection in a stunning piece of furniture for any room in the home—and your chance to buy at this ridiculously low price. Come in and see the big selection!

$100 Down Delivers

NEED MONEY? USE OURS

TO PAY OLD YEAR BILLS AND MEET NEW YEAR EXPENSES.

KANKAKEE CITIES SYSTEM
Came in at 447-3427

SEVEN FLOORS OF FINE FURNITURE

TURK

126-134 NORTH SCHUYLER • KANKAKEE, ILL.

SAVE up to $30

on floor sample DINETTES

EASY TERMS!

7-piece DINETTE

$99.95 Value

$69.95

ONLY $1 A WEEK

- CHROME-N-COPPER OR BLACK-N-BRASS
- TABLE 30x48 EXTENDS TO 60"
- WEAR-RESISTANT PLASTIC BURL TOP
- WASHABLE PLASTIC SEATS
- DOUGLOCK CONSTRUCTION
- 8 COLORS: GREY, PINK, YELLOW, TURQUOISE, GREEN, CHARTREUSE

SEVEN FLOORS OF FINE FURNITURE

TURK

126-134 NORTH SCHUYLER • KANKAKEE, ILL.

To Sign $2,400 Contract Approve Traffic, Parking Survey In Business Area

Final approval of a contract to sign the $2,400 contract with the firm of Bartholomew and Associates. The money will come from parking meter funds.

The company agreed to determine the number of vacant parking spaces in the downtown area on an average day, to study the revenue and the costs of maintenance of off street parking lots, study traffic movement and recommend changes in traffic and to recommend possible changes in curb parking spaces, off street lots, the possibility of additional lots and whether they should be double-decked or provided in new areas.

The council will hold a meeting on a request by the State Department of Highways that the city pay an additional $20,000 as its share of the Schuyler Avenue Bridge improvement.

Originally the state had estimated the city's half of the cost at $100,000 and this amount was appropriated by the council. The final total amount was some $90,000 over the original $20,000 estimate.

On a motion by Henry Wulfe (R-8), the council agreed that the matter be referred to City Attorney Victor Cardosi, who is to object cost figures on the project from the state. The additional money would come from motor fuel tax funds.

Two 3-wheel motorcycles on a bid of $2,474, including an allowance of $300 as trade-in for a 1951 three-wheeler. This adds one motorcycle to the police department, making a total of three. The money will come from the parking meter fund, since the bicycles are used in checking meter violations.

Hits Stopping Of Night Bus Service

Alderman William Spillane (R-4) termed the local bus situation "a headache" during the Kankakee city council meeting Monday evening.

His comment was in regard to a letter from the Kankakee Motor Coach Co., stating that all bus routes will be discontinued after 7 p.m. each day.

The notification said the ruling would be in effect as of Jan. 21, or Monday evening.

Mose Arsenault, operator of the bus firm, said that patronage does not warrant continuation of routes after 7 p.m.

Spillane contended that the council had no previous notice of the evening discontinuance action. "I think the council is entitled to have the company show why these buses are not paying," he said.

"Previously the bus company agreed to continue evening routes to Kankakee State Hospital and to Bradley," the Fourth Ward alderman stated.

Spillane then made a motion, which was approved unanimously, that the council is "definitely opposed" to the bus firm's action.

The motion, seconded by Stang (R-4), also asked that the bus company bring records to the council's franchise committee to show the firm is operating in the division of a loss.

Wayne Cunningham (R-6) is chairman of the franchise committee.

City Extends Condolence To Small Family

A resolution of condolence in the death of Leslie C. Small, late publisher of the Kankakee Daily Journal, was voted by the city council during its Monday evening meeting.

The text of the resolution follows:

Whereas, Honorable Leslie C. Small has departed this life; and Whereas, the said Honorable Leslie C. Small during his lifetime served the people of the state of Illinois in a position of the highest trust and importance as head of the Department of Purchases and Finance, which committee to the Division of Waterways, during the incumbency of the late Honorable Len Small when governor of the state of Illinois;

Whereas, he fulfilled the duties of said office with credit and distinction to himself and with great benefit to the people of the state of Illinois; and Whereas, the Honorable Leslie C. Small as publisher of the Kankakee Daily Journal and its predecessors, Kankakee Republican-News and Kankakee Daily Republic, conducted the publication with public welfare and in the best public interest, conforming to the things to the most exacting standards of journalism at its best; and Whereas, said Honorable Leslie C. Small was a most active and influential participant in matters of civic importance and welfare of every kind, and in all public and private charitable activities, his most recent activity being even during his illness, honorary chairman of the St. Mary's Hospital expansion fund drive, which was only one of his many interests in matters of public welfare; and Whereas, in his lifetime, the said Honorable Leslie C. Small actively worked to secure for the greater Kankakee area many improvements of great public importance, many of them being works for the public good in which his activity was not publicly known;

Whereas, said Honorable Leslie C. Small, during all his lifetime, as evidenced by his personal life, his business life, his public life, his civic and charitable activities, exemplified the highest and best qualities of American citizenship; and his death was a great loss to the community;

Resolved, that the city of Kankakee extend its sincere condolences to the family of the late Leslie C. Small.

Tornadoes In 2 States Kill 11 Persons

SHEPHERD, La. (UP)—A tornado lashed through a rainstorm this morning and demolished half a dozen homes in Bayou Vista, killing at least three persons.

There were four persons known missing. Sheriff Willie Waggoner of Bossier Parish (La.) said the exact number of dead and injured would not be known for several hours.

The twister struck tiny Princeton in the northwest corner of Louisiana at 10:50 a.m. (CST). A few minutes later it smashed Bellevue. Every home—about 30—was damaged by the tornado.

GANS, Okla. (UP)—Tornadoes struck at several points along an almost straight line 100 miles long in southeastern Oklahoma Monday night and today, leaving several dead and injured.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol and Sequoyah County sheriff's office listed 8 dead and 19 to 12 injured in the Gans area, a few miles west of the Oklahoma-Arkansas border.

Some 400 firemen fought the conflagration in the 10-story elevator in a driving rainstorm. Three fireboats, were sent to the scene. The National Fire Protection Association, an industrial district on the far South Side.

Amid towering walls of flames, some three million bushels of grain were reportedly destroyed.

However, firemen succeeded in saving a newly built elevator, valued at 150 yards from the blazing 135-foot-tall structure. The new elevator contained about 35 million bushels of wheat.

THE FIRE was brought under control early today but firemen said they expected the ruins to smolder for several more days.

Julius Mayer, executive vice president of the Continental Grain Co., owners of the elevator, said the loss would amount to several million dollars.

Robert J. Quinn, fire commissioner, estimated damage at five million dollars.

The flames from the elevator, fanned at times by strong winds, were visible nearly into the Loop, demanding for seven paid holidays while insisting on a three year moratorium on other changes in wage and working conditions.

No injuries were reported. How-

Fact Finding Board Airs Rail Dispute

CHICAGO (UP)—A fact finding board appointed by President Eisenhower had today begun its investigation of a dispute between the nation's major railroads and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The union, claiming to represent 128,000 railway employees, has rejected an offer made by the railroads to settle wage and other contract issues.

Negotiations between the railroads and the union became deadlocked Dec. 3 when the union announced it was rejecting the railroad's offer of a 35-cent an hour wage boost. The union said it rejected the offer because the railroads refused to consider union demands for seven paid holidays while insisting on a three year moratorium on other changes in wage and working conditions.

Daughter Of Red Wins Americanism Honor From Legion

DETROIT (UP)—An Americanism medal has been won by the 14-year-old daughter of a one-time Michigan chief of the Communist party.

She is Vickie Wellman. Her father, Saul, is under a 4-year federal sentence for conspiring to advocate violent overthrow of the government. Her mother, Peggy, faces deportation as an undesirable alien.

Vickie's medal was awarded by the Charles A. Leonard American Legion Post Auxiliary. The medal is inscribed: "For God and Country."

Home Service, Scholarship. A citation recognizes Vickie's qualities "necessary to the preservation and protection of fundamental institutions of our government and the advancement of society."

Vickie's 16-year-old brother, David, won similar honors from the same legion auxiliary two years ago. Both reside with their parents.

"We are particularly pleased (with Vickie's award) in view of the family's circumstances," Mrs. Wellman told newsmen.

Laud Ike's Address Offering U.S. Leadership In Search For Peace

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congressmen today hailed President Eisenhower's second inaugural address as an historic bid to freedom-loving people everywhere to accept America's unselfish leadership for peace.

The brief and eloquent speech, which Mr. Eisenhower delivered after taking his second oath Monday, had a delayed-action impact on Congress. The lawmakers took the time to praise its implications today since they, like the President, were caught up in the hectic activity of the three-hour inaugural parade and the festive inaugural ball that lasted into the small hours of this morning.

By today, the strong one-world flavor of the President's address was sinking in, and with it, the recognition that Mr. Eisenhower had staked out for this nation an unprecedented, global responsibility.

"WE RECOGNIZE and accept our own deep involvement in the destiny of men everywhere," Mr. Eisenhower had said. "We must use our skills and knowledge and, at times, our substance, to help others rise to liberty, to peace, to the better life."

Some conservatives in both parties have expressed misgivings about the sweeping pledge of long-term, no-strings foreign aid implicit in those words.

But the strong one-world flavor of the President's address

Missing Chicago Sisters Found Dead

CHICAGO (UP)—The bodies of two young girls, believed to be those of the long missing Grimes sisters, were found today in a ditch near Suburban Willow Springs.

Sheriff's police reported the bodies were found near German Church and County Line roads in an unincorporated area.

The Grimes girls, Barbara, 15, and Patricia, 13, disappeared from their South Side home Dec. 25 after attending a movie.

A search that extended over several states has been conducted for the missing girls since they disappeared.

Police reported the bodies, both nude, were those of girls about 15 years old.

The spot where the bodies were found is several miles from Robison Woods where the bodies of three boys were found.

The discoveries were announced in early afternoon by Chief Clifford Dreyer of the sheriff's police.

The coroner was notified and representatives of his office left for the scene.

The killings marked the second multiple slayings of Chicago youngsters in 15 months.

The bodies of three Chicago schoolboys, Robert Peterson, 11; John Schuessler, 13; and his brother, Aaron, 12, were found in a forest preserve north-west of Chicago Oct. 15, 1955.

Mrs. Loretta Grimes, an office clerk and mother of the two girls, maintained from the start that the girls had not intended to run away from home. The girls took no clothing except what they were wearing.

SEIZE 'MAD BOMBER'

WATERBURY, Conn. (UP)—A mild-mannered 53-year-old toolmaker confessed today that he is the "mad bomber" who has planted 31 home-made pipe bombs in New York City in the last 16 years.

George Metesky told police his motive was revenge against the Consolidated Edison Co. for 25 years of semi-invalidism he blamed on a 1931 plant accident.

He confessed calmly and readily after police discovered in the home he shared with two elderly sisters the lathe on which he prepared the bombs. Police had pegged him as a "strong" suspect on the basis of letters found in Consolidated Edison files.

"This is the man," New York Deputy Police Commissioner Walter Armistead said. "We know it through his own admission and through analysis of his handwriting."

POLICE HAD WORKED quickly for 16 years building a description of the bomber whose explosive pipes, usually encased in a red pipe, had injured 15 persons in New York City. They took a calculated risk early last month and asked news media cooperation in throwing the light of publicity on the bomber's activities. The bomber paid off the gamble by writing to the newspapers.

It was new evidence of his grudge contained in those letters that finally turned up the convincing evidence in the long-thumbed Consolidated Edison files.

Metesky told police he never meant to hurt anybody but had vowed to continue planting bombs until he died or was captured.

He made them, he told police, from materials he bought in dime stores and stores in Bridgeport and New York City. He mailed the letters that accompanied his bombs on his way from Waterbury to New York City.

Toolmaker Cites Revenge As Motive

WATERBURY, Conn. (UP)—A mild-mannered 53-year-old toolmaker confessed today that he is the "mad bomber" who has planted 31 home-made pipe bombs in New York City in the last 16 years.

George Metesky told police his motive was revenge against the Consolidated Edison Co. for 25 years of semi-invalidism he blamed on a 1931 plant accident.

He confessed calmly and readily after police discovered in the home he shared with two elderly sisters the lathe on which he prepared the bombs. Police had pegged him as a "strong" suspect on the basis of letters found in Consolidated Edison files.

"This is the man," New York Deputy Police Commissioner Walter Armistead said. "We know it through his own admission and through analysis of his handwriting."

POLICE HAD WORKED quickly for 16 years building a description of the bomber whose explosive pipes, usually encased in a red pipe, had injured 15 persons in New York City. They took a calculated risk early last month and asked news media cooperation in throwing the light of publicity on the bomber's activities. The bomber paid off the gamble by writing to the newspapers.

It was new evidence of his grudge contained in those letters that finally turned up the convincing evidence in the long-thumbed Consolidated Edison files.

Metesky told police he never meant to hurt anybody but had vowed to continue planting bombs until he died or was captured.

He made them, he told police, from materials he bought in dime stores and stores in Bridgeport and New York City. He mailed the letters that accompanied his bombs on his way from Waterbury to New York City.

Metesky told police he never meant to hurt anybody but had vowed to continue planting bombs until he died or was captured.

He made them, he told police, from materials he bought in dime stores and stores in Bridgeport and New York City. He mailed the letters that accompanied his bombs on his way from Waterbury to New York City.

Metesky told police he never meant to hurt anybody but had vowed to continue planting bombs until he died or was captured.

He made them, he told police, from materials he bought in dime stores and stores in Bridgeport and New York City. He mailed the letters that accompanied his bombs on his way from Waterbury to New York City.

Chicago Grain Elevator Burns; $5 Million Loss

CHICAGO (UP)—A spectacular multimillion-dollar fire destroyed a huge, old grain elevator along the river front on the South Side Monday night.

Some 400 firemen fought the conflagration in the 10-story elevator in a driving rainstorm. Three fireboats, were sent to the scene. The National Fire Protection Association, an industrial district on the far South Side.

Amid towering walls of flames, some three million bushels of grain were reportedly destroyed.

However, firemen succeeded in saving a newly built elevator, valued at 150 yards from the blazing 135-foot-tall structure. The new elevator contained about 35 million bushels of wheat.

THE FIRE was brought under control early today but firemen said they expected the ruins to smolder for several more days.

Julius Mayer, executive vice president of the Continental Grain Co., owners of the elevator, said the loss would amount to several million dollars.

Robert J. Quinn, fire commissioner, estimated damage at five million dollars.

The flames from the elevator, fanned at times by strong winds, were visible nearly into the Loop, demanding for seven paid holidays while insisting on a three year moratorium on other changes in wage and working conditions.

No injuries were reported. How-

Newspaper Says Polish Reds Hold 13-Seat Majority

STOCKHOLM (UP)—The Stockholm paper Expressen reported today the Polish Communists won only a 13-seat majority in the new Polish Parliament.

Official results are to be announced Wednesday.

The United Workers (Communist) party now headed by Wladyslaw Gomułka had a majority of 121 seats in the outgoing Parliament. The Communists were prepared to accept a decrease of 50 or so seats in the interests of broadening the government.

Metesky, who also uses the name Mikulski, apparently the family's original Lithuanian name, appeared later in City Court and waived extradition to New York City. He was held in $100,000 bail and returned to the city jail to await transportation to New York.

THE UNARMED sisters who had lived for years over the basement in which Metesky built his hideout, were released today.

Communications from the state department of revenue indicated that December Motor Fuel Tax receipts totaled $3,658.82 and October municipal sales tax receipts $3,285.29.

Cold Weather Heeded Our Way

BY UNITED PRESS

A cold front sweeping down across the central plains collided with warm humid air and touched off tornadoes that killed at least seven persons in southeastern Oklahoma Monday night.

The bureau forecast scattered thunderstorms and a few tornadoes.

Connecticut Man Is New GOP Chairman

WASHINGTON (UP)—H. Meade Alcorn Jr. of Connecticut today was unanimously elected Republican national chairman. President Eisenhower had named him as his choice.

Alcorn was chosen by the committee on motion by L. Judson Morrissey, New York state chairman.

Harry Darby of Kansas, chairman of a subcommittee which conferred with Eisenhower at the White House, had just reported that Eisenhower "would like it very much" if Alcorn was elected.

Alcorn, 67, has been a member of the committee about four years. He was chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower organization in Connecticut in 1952.

Hall, retiring after more than three years service as chairman, plans a six-week vacation. When he returns, he may be named to a high administrative post as a prize to an expected bid for the New York governorship next year.

California Quakes

LAKEPORT, Calif. (UP)—A sharp earthquake jolted Lakeport, Lucerne, Santa Valley and other northern California areas Monday night. No damage was reported.

Acting Village Clerk, Bradley, Resigns Post

The Bradley Village Board Monday night accepted the resignation of Mrs. Mabel Pitcher as acting village clerk. John Ross of 347 N. Forest Ave. was named to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Pitcher said the pressure of her full-time duties as water and sewer collector prompted the decision to resign as acting clerk. She was appointed nearly two years ago when Glenn Mulligan resigned as clerk to fill an unexpired term on the board of trustees.

Metesky told police he never meant to hurt anybody but had vowed to continue planting bombs until he died or was captured.

He made them, he told police, from materials he bought in dime stores and stores in Bridgeport and New York City. He mailed the letters that accompanied his bombs on his way from Waterbury to New York City.

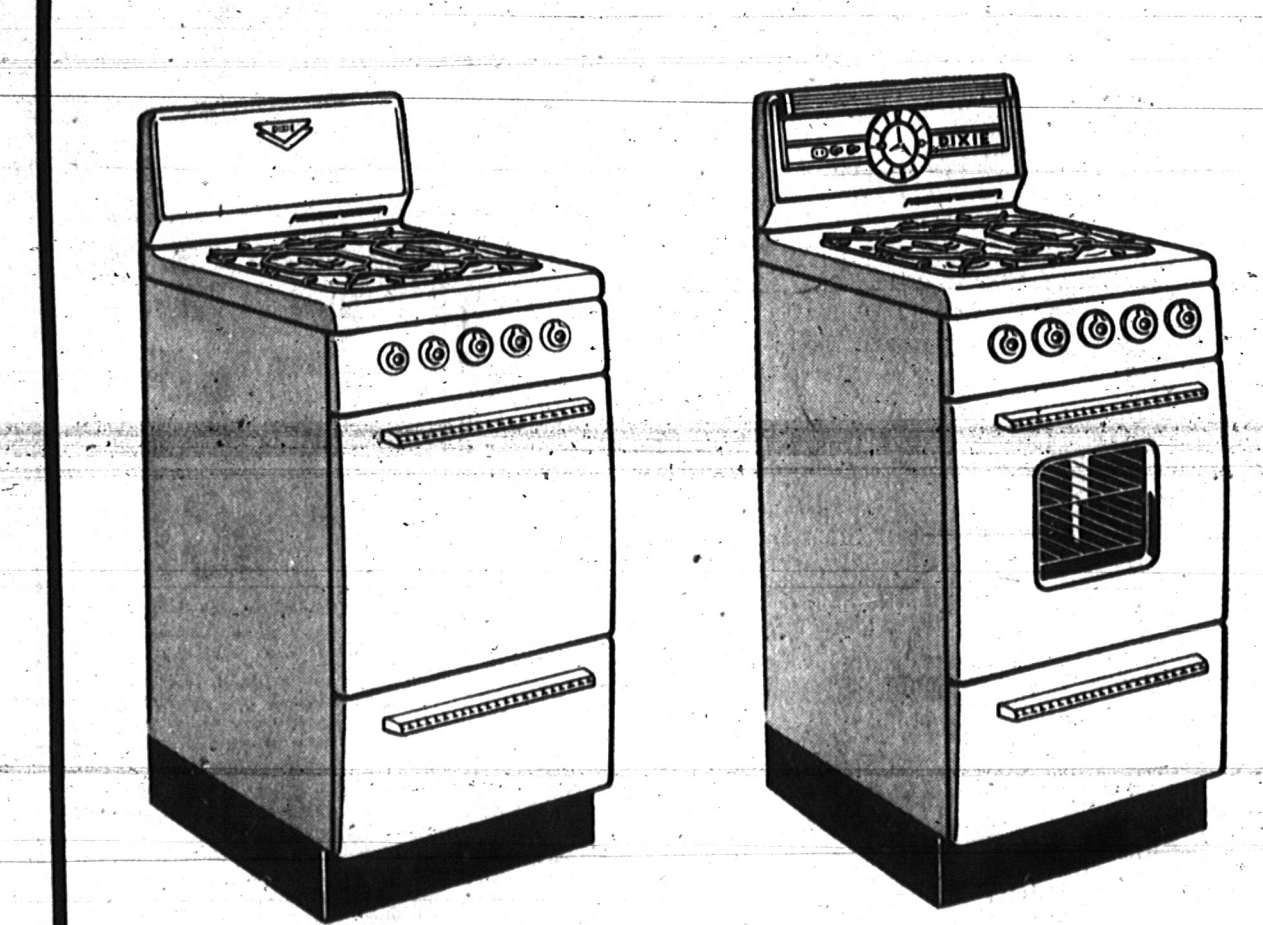

Metesky told police he never meant to hurt anybody but had vowed to continue planting bombs until he died or was captured.

He made them, he told police, from materials he bought in dime stores and stores in Bridgeport and New York City. He mailed the letters that accompanied his bombs on his way from Waterbury to New York City.

OUT THEY GO!

AT TERRIFIC JANUARY CLEARANCE PRICES

SAVE up to $20

Now $89.95 WAS $119.95

Now $119.95 WAS $139.95

The DIXIE SPACEMASTER... the biggest little range in any kitchenette! Two giant and two standard top burners. Oven can prepare a full-grown twenty-five pound turkey... Bright chrome-trimmed styling and the sturdy durability and cleaning ease that is the mark of a deluxe range.

Deluxe model is packed with luxury and convenience features: Electric clock and timer, appliance outlets, glass-door oven, 25 pound turkey-size, scratch resistant titanium finish, drop front broiler door with removable pan. A lot of range at a history making low, low price!

SEVEN FLOORS OF FINE FURNITURE

TURK

126-134 NORTH SCHUYLER • KANKAKEE, ILL.

Aroma Park Officials To Seek Reelection

AROMA PARK (JNS)—Dr. S. W. Reagan, president of the village board, announced Monday night he will seek reelection to office on April 16.

Also announcing their intentions to run for office again were James Humphrey, village clerk, and G. F. Saultkamp and Donald Thurston, trustees.

Clarence Blake indicated he will not be a trustee candidate this year.

The decisions were made public Monday during a meeting of the village board. As yet, no one has petitioned for the Blake vacancy. Those wishing to become a candidate may obtain a petition from the village clerk. Petitions must be returned by Feb. 25.

The board voted to charge a scavenger fee of $250 for any scavenger operating within the corporate limits of the village, with the exception of the village contractor's scavenger.

Violators will be fined not less than $25 or more than $100 for each offense, the board ruled. An offense will consist of picking up garbage or rubbish within the corporate limits.

Rates on building permits, in accordance with the building code passed by the board in December, were announced Monday as follows: $2 for the first $1,000 of construction, $2 for each $1,000 up to $15,000 and $1 for each $1,000 above $15,000.

Donald Thurston was appointed to assign lot numbers within the corporate limits. When completed, the permits will be notified as to the numbers of their homes.

It is understood that this action was formally necessary in order to release certain funds for the handling of refugees in local communities.

A HEARING will be held by the New York Central Railroad on ending express service at the depot here and maintaining it as a pre-paid station. The hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m. in Chicago.

Judge C. D. Henry ordered a mental hearing Feb. 18 for Paul Rohrbach, 23, RR 1, Channahon, accused of shooting his father, Gus Rohrbach, 51, 145 S. Third Ave. The court declined to appoint an attorney for Glenn Florant, 25, and his wife, Joan, 28, RR 1, after they told him they were purchasing a piece of real estate. In that event, the court said, they should be able to employ their own attorney.

Judge Henry continued the case till Jan. 29. The Florants are accused of embezzling $445.79 by staging a fake holdup at a service station.

The case of Florence Labarge, accused of embezzlement, was continued for plea until Jan. 29. She is charged with a death in her attorney's family.

Friday Last Day Of First Semester

Pupils in Kankakee School District 111 will be home early Friday as the first semester closes.

After the pupils leave, teachers will spend the rest of the regular school day working on semester tests and reports.

Lunch will be served at all the schools and buses will take the children home as usual, but the dismissal time will be earlier.

At the high school, students will attend the first four periods from 8:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Friday. West Junior High School pupils will be in session from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

East Junior High School classes will meet from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Elementary schools will be in session from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. with three exceptions. The exceptions are Lincoln and Franklin, which will close at 12:30 p.m., and Twaing, where dismissal will be at 12:45 p.m.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Midyear graduates will be honored Jan. 27 at a convocation at which U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy will speak. Following the convocation of the graduates, their families and friends will be guests at a reception given by President and Mrs. David D. Henry.

Hold Suspects In Sheldon Hold-Up

SHELDON (JNS)—The victim of an armed robbery Monday night at a package liquor store here today left for Pontiac to take a look at three suspects being held by authorities there.

Floyd Brown, night man at the package liquor store, owned and operated by Cyril Donahue during the last five years, will attempt to determine if the suspects were the ones who held him up at 11:41 p.m.

According to authorities, Brown was in the store alone when two youths, between 17 and 20, entered, with one of them brandishing a gun.

They ordered Brown to give them the money in the cash register. Brown turned around and took out $20 and handed it over.

According to the victim, they must have been experienced because they didn't bother to check whether he had given them all of the cash in the register.

Brown said they merely ordered him to stay put until they were gone. Another person was waiting in front of the store in a black coupe, which the two youths entered. The car drove away.

Brown immediately ran for George Meyer, chief of police, who was wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

One of the robbers was described as wearing a brown coat and a wine-colored cap. The other wore a wine-colored sport shirt and a suit coat.

Plan To 'Buy' Solutions To Other U. S. Major Unsolved Crimes

CHICAGO (UP)—A $100,000 reward has been offered for the slayer of three Chicago boys in a bid by a group of wealthy men to "buy" the solution to that and other major crimes around the nation.

The Chicagoans pledged the money to the newly-formed Crime Detection Institute in hopes that mammoth rewards will help stop crime in Chicago and elsewhere.

Institute chairman Col. Henry Crown, said "We hope that we shall be able to produce such dramatic and effective results here in Chicago that businessmen and private agencies throughout the country will cooperate with us in such a way that we can function on a national scale."

Crown is board chairman of the Material Service Corp. in Chicago and principal owner of the Empire State Building in New York. Other officers of the institute are Harold A. Smith, former president of the Chicago Bar Association, and banker Philip R. Clark.

Crown said this new crime-fighting organization will be primarily interested in certain crimes of violence that have gone unsolved throughout the country. He said it will devote much of its funds and efforts to the overall subject of crime prevention.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

New Institute Offers $100,000 For Tip Leading To Triple Slayer

CHICAGO (UP)—A $100,000 reward has been offered for the slayer of three Chicago boys in a bid by a group of wealthy men to "buy" the solution to that and other major crimes around the nation.

The Chicagoans pledged the money to the newly-formed Crime Detection Institute in hopes that mammoth rewards will help stop crime in Chicago and elsewhere.

Institute chairman Col. Henry Crown, said "We hope that we shall be able to produce such dramatic and effective results here in Chicago that businessmen and private agencies throughout the country will cooperate with us in such a way that we can function on a national scale."

Crown is board chairman of the Material Service Corp. in Chicago and principal owner of the Empire State Building in New York. Other officers of the institute are Harold A. Smith, former president of the Chicago Bar Association, and banker Philip R. Clark.

Crown said this new crime-fighting organization will be primarily interested in certain crimes of violence that have gone unsolved throughout the country. He said it will devote much of its funds and efforts to the overall subject of crime prevention.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Members of the institute included publishing magnate John F. Gunco, Albert Pick Jr., of the hotel chain, Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, George F. Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears football team, and Gen. Robert E. Wood, former board chairman of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

City To Take Further Action On Judgment

Further action to defend the city of Kankakee in the case of a $2,000 judgment was approved by the city council Monday evening.

The award was made last week by a Circuit Court jury in the death of Robert Eugene Bissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bissell, 107 N. Entrance, who drowned in Soldier Creek Jan. 21, 1936.

City Attorney Victor Cardoni told the council that the plaintiffs City National Bank for the estate of the youth had asked for a judgment of $2,000 and that the jury had set the $2,000 amount.

Cardoni said he believed that the questions of law involved are important enough for the city to ask for a new trial, or to take whatever legal steps might be necessary to get the judgment reversed.

The motion made by the council gives Cardoni the power to take action to protect the city's interests in the case.

Young Bissell fell through the ice of the creek between Fifth and Entrance avenues while en route to school. The creek flows through property owned by the

Blame Nurses In Fire Death Of Student

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UP)—A tragic "fire" which led to the death of a student nurse and serious injury to another, was blamed on two registered nurses Monday night.

Fire Chief Earl McDaniel said Margaret R. Devoe, 24, and Mary Frances Hutchinson, 21, both of Lexington, admitted in signed statements they doubted "two student nurses with half a pint of ether."

One of the nurses was smoking a cigarette. The fire occurred last week.

Kathleen Oehler, 19, of Frankfort, died Sunday night in the Lexington hospital. She was a student nurse at the Lexington hospital, still on the serious list. The cause of the fire was the incident which occurred.

McDaniel said officials will conduct today on the possibility of filing charges against the two. No charges were brought Monday night.

McDaniel said Miss Devoe and Miss Hutchinson told him ether had been used by others before "to make them jump." Ether fumes had been used when in contact with the ether.

The fire chief said Miss Hutchinson admitted pouring ether on Oehler's lap and Miss Devoe had poured it on Miss Smith when she was smoking a cigarette.

He quoted the nurses as saying Miss Smith "almost instantly went up in flames." The fire spread rapidly and the two nurses fled.

The chief said the nurses immediately pulled the two students from the lounge and put out the fire with the aid of an orderly.

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

LAUD—
(Continued from Page 1)
are willing to extend a hand of "friendship" to them when the Iron Curtain goes up.

SOME CONGRESSMEN, who endorsing Mr. Eisenhower's broad objectives, challenged the administration to produce deeds, not words.

"The words have been spoken," said Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (R-Wy.) "The time for leadership and action have arrived. It will be difficult."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said Mr. Eisenhower "set forth goals and objectives with which every American will agree."

"Our task is to find means that will achieve those ends," Johnson added.

Other congressmen offered praise without qualification.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wy.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the President "laid it right on the line, not only to the American people but to the world."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "it was a very bold and courageous act for our foreign policy. We have never had a goal like this."

Congressmen and diplomatic observers, analyzing the President's 2,000-word address, found it to be these major guidelines to U. S. foreign policy during the next four years:

1. AMERICA IS irrevocably committed to a role of world leadership, and will not retreat into isolationism no matter how difficult or costly our "involvement" in distant troubles may become.
2. Within cabinet of former President Hoover, architect of the "fortress America" concept, Mr. Eisenhower firmly tied his modern Republicanism to the conviction that "no nation can longer be a fortress, lone and strong and safe... isolation is an impossibility."
3. American economic and technical aid will not be restricted to military allies, but will be offered with no strings attached, "wherever in the world a people knows desperate want." To those countries, particularly in Asia and Africa, where nationalist pride is touching and nationalist spirit strong, Mr. Eisenhower offered assurance that they may "honorably receive" America's help, "for we no more seek to buy their sovereignty than we would sell our own."
4. U. S. policy toward Communist satellite nations was spelled out in terms designed to reassure the Kremlin that a country which slips the yoke of Moscow domination will not automatically become an American ally or a military ally of the West. "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom," the President said. But "we seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial institution of our society."
5. AMERICA WILL reassert its historic claim to leadership of the free world in the struggle for national independence. The birthplace of the American Revolution "does not fear" the "winds of change" blowing across the world from North Africa to the Far East. "These winds of change have helped to inspire, we can help to fulfill."

Arms Debate Enters Final Stage In U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP)—Delegates sought to end the polemic and turn the debate on the world's five nuclear powers.

The U. N. General Assembly's main political committee resumed the disarmament debate today.

The United States is expected to introduce a resolution sponsored by at least 10 nations recommending the disarmament question be referred to the U. N. Disarmament Commission and its five-power sub-committee.

The sponsors of the resolution included India and Yugoslavia and the five great atomic powers—Britain, France, Canada, the United States.

The Soviet Union, however, Soviet Russia, introduced two resolutions of its own last week. One called for an immediate halt to nuclear bomb tests, while the other recommended the disarmament problem to the subcommittee with a provision that the General Assembly be called back into special session on disarmament.

Another resolution, sponsored by Japan, Canada and Norway, asked "urgent attention" be given proposals to register nuclear weapons tests with the United Nations.

BIRTHS
The following births were reported today to St. Mary's hospital:

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Love of Herscher are parents of a girl and first child born Saturday. The mother is the former Sandra B. Love.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Meier of Clinton are parents of a girl and first child born Saturday. The mother is the former Sandra B. Love.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Seader of R. L. Kankakee, are parents of a girl and second child born Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hendon of Clinton are parents of a girl and fifth child born Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Kuzma of 4111 N. Harrison Ave. are parents of a girl and second child born today.

Mr. and Mrs. James Courtney of Brooklyn, N. Y., are parents of a girl and first child born Monday at Brooklyn.

The mother is the former Mary Ann Boggs of Bradley.

MARRIAGE LICENSES
Leonard Dydalek, 22, and Martha Whorral, 20, both of Kankakee.

Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

DEATHS
Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

DEATHS
Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

DEATHS
Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

DEATHS
Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

DEATHS
Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

DEATHS
Mrs. Fannie N. MacDonell, 63, former resident.

Mrs. Ella H. Broadhead, 62, former resident.

Mrs. Anna Oht, 62, Limestone Township.

Mrs. Mettie Cox, 50, Lake Villa.

Mrs. A. L. Sprigg, 51, South Lake Villa.

Mrs. L. Lauridsen, 61, South Bend.

Deanne Kuhlman, infant, Crescent City.

John Banyar, 60, Bradwood.

Joe A. Rouse, 60, Chicago.

4 Estates In County Court For Probate

Four local estates were filed or admitted to probate Monday in County Court.

First, the estate of Mrs. Frances Childs Evans, who died Friday in her home at 508 S. Indiana Ave., were held at 1:30 p. m. Monday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The Rev. James G. Parker officiated. Burial was in Mount Carmel cemetery. Fallows were Arthur Wunderlich, Walter J. Charlton, Lawrence Weeks, John York, Percy L. Wright and Walter Oertel.

Second, the estate of Mrs. Frank J. Berger of Essex Township, who died Jan. 11, left an estate valued at $38,000. His wife, Emma, then the real estate owner, was admitted to probate. The estate was valued at $38,000. His wife, Emma, then the real estate owner, was admitted to probate. The estate was valued at $38,000.

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK (UP)—St. Paul and Air-Crafts posted a moderate stock market uptick early this afternoon.

Pivotal stocks rose from fractions to a point or so.

Brokers regarded the rise as a technical rebound from an over-all decline following the recent series of general declines.

Steele's taken stock losses lately in reports of slackening demand for some products. The Air-Crafts have risen against the market, bolstered by their big order backlog.

Yankee's got a good part of an early gain of more than a point. Bethlehem Steel, which had been in a sharp advance, climbed to a point.

Charles remained on the uptick by a fraction. Leading railroads showed a parade of small gains.

Prices as of 1 p. m.:

IBM	140 1/2
AT&T	100 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel.	100 1/2
Am. Express	100 1/2
Am. Gas	100 1/2
Am. Ice	100 1/2
Am. Oil	100 1/2
Am. Sugar	100 1/2
Am. Tobacco	100 1/2
Am. Water	100 1/2
Am. Electric	100 1/2
Am. Chemical	100 1/2
Am. Pharmaceutical	100 1/2
Am. Textile	100 1/2
Am. Paper	100 1/2
Am. Printing	100 1/2
Am. Publishing	100 1/2
Am. Broadcasting	100 1/2
Am. Motion Picture	100 1/2
Am. Music	100 1/2
Am. Entertainment	100 1/2
Am. Leisure	100 1/2
Am. Travel	100 1/2
Am. Transportation	100 1/2
Am. Communication	100 1/2
Am. Defense	100 1/2
Am. Government	100 1/2
Am. Foreign	100 1/2
Am. International	100 1/2
Am. Global	100 1/2
Am. Universal	100 1/2
Am. World	100 1/2
Am. All	100 1/2

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK (UP)—St. Paul and Air-Crafts posted a moderate stock market uptick early this afternoon.

Pivotal stocks rose from fractions to a point or so.

Brokers regarded the rise as a technical rebound from an over-all decline following the recent series of general declines.

Steele's taken stock losses lately in reports of slackening demand for some products. The Air-Crafts have risen against the market, bolstered by their big order backlog.

Yankee's got a good part of an early gain of more than a point. Bethlehem Steel, which had been in a sharp advance, climbed to a point.

Charles remained on the uptick by a fraction. Leading railroads showed a parade of small gains.

Prices as of 1 p. m.:

IBM	140 1/2
AT&T	100 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel.	100 1/2
Am. Express	100 1/2
Am. Gas	100 1/2
Am. Ice	100 1/2
Am. Oil	100 1/2
Am. Sugar	100 1/2
Am. Tobacco	100 1/2
Am. Water	100 1/2
Am. Electric	100 1/2
Am. Chemical	100 1/2
Am. Pharmaceutical	100 1/2
Am. Textile	100 1/2
Am. Paper	100 1/2
Am. Printing	100 1/2
Am. Publishing	100 1/2
Am. Broadcasting	100 1/2
Am. Motion Picture	100 1/2
Am. Music	100 1/2
Am. Entertainment	100 1/2
Am. Leisure	100 1/2
Am. Travel	100 1/2
Am. Transportation	100 1/2
Am. Communication	100 1/2
Am. Defense	100 1/2
Am. Government	100 1/2
Am. Foreign	100 1/2
Am. International	100 1/2
Am. Global	100 1/2
Am. Universal	100 1/2
Am. World	100 1/2
Am. All	100 1/2

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK (UP)—St. Paul and Air-Crafts posted a moderate stock market uptick early this afternoon.

Pivotal stocks rose from fractions to a point or so.

Brokers regarded the rise as a technical rebound from an over-all decline following the recent series of general declines.

Steele's taken stock losses lately in reports of slackening demand for some products. The Air-Crafts have risen against the market, bolstered by their big order backlog.

Yankee's got a good part of an early gain of more than a point. Bethlehem Steel, which had been in a sharp advance, climbed to a point.

Charles remained on the uptick by a fraction. Leading railroads showed a parade of small gains.

Prices as of 1 p. m.:

IBM	140 1/2
AT&T	100 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel.	100 1/2
Am. Express	100 1/2
Am. Gas	100 1/2
Am. Ice	100 1/2
Am. Oil	100 1/2
Am. Sugar	100 1/2
Am. Tobacco	100 1/2
Am. Water	100 1/2
Am. Electric	100 1/2
Am. Chemical	100 1/2
Am. Pharmaceutical	100 1/2
Am. Textile	100 1/2
Am. Paper	100 1/2
Am. Printing	100 1/2
Am. Publishing	100 1/2
Am. Broadcasting	100 1/2
Am. Motion Picture	100 1/2
Am. Music	100 1/2
Am. Entertainment	100 1/2
Am. Leisure	100 1/2
Am. Travel	100 1/2
Am. Transportation	100 1/2
Am. Communication	100 1/2
Am. Defense	100 1/2
Am. Government	100 1/2
Am. Foreign	100 1/2
Am. International	100 1/2
Am. Global	100 1/2
Am. Universal	100 1/2
Am. World	100 1/2
Am. All	100 1/2

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK (UP)—St. Paul and Air-Crafts posted a moderate stock market uptick early this afternoon.

Pivotal stocks rose from fractions to a point or so.

Brokers regarded the rise as a technical rebound from an over-all decline following the recent series of general declines.

Steele's taken stock losses lately in reports of slackening demand for some products. The Air-Crafts have risen against the market, bolstered by their big order backlog.

Yankee's got a good part of an early gain of more than a point. Bethlehem Steel, which had been in a sharp advance, climbed to a point.

Charles remained on the uptick by a fraction. Leading railroads showed a parade of small gains.

Prices as of 1 p. m.:

IBM	140 1/2
AT&T	100 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel.	100 1/2
Am. Express	100 1/2
Am. Gas	100 1/2
Am. Ice	100 1/2
Am. Oil	100 1/2
Am. Sugar	100 1/2
Am. Tobacco	100 1/2
Am. Water	100 1/2
Am. Electric	100 1/2
Am. Chemical	100

EMPLOYMENT

INSURANCE
ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME
OPPORTUNITY

A-1 Company has opening in this territory for an experienced salesman offering the Big 4 of Insurance—full time.

1—25 fresh direct mail leads every week in protected territory.

2—Excellent non-can H & A, Medical and Hospital contracts.

3—Immediate high front money.

4—Continuous top renewals paid monthly.

Opportunity for advancement which adds up to a bright future. Sound too good to be true? For further proof, write Box 863, c/o Kankakee Daily Journal.

YOUNG LADY

General

Office Work

WITH BANKING EXPERIENCE, FOR DUTIES OF TELLER, BOOKKEEPER TYPE.

Apply In Person To

MR. NELSON

MARYCREST

Savings and Loan

Association

1537 EAST COURT STREET

WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM YOUR JOB?

You want to like the people.

You want security in the job and advancement.

You want an opportunity to advance in salary and position.

You want to take responsibility with authority.

You want an excellent income.

If you are the woman whose answer to these questions is "Yes," write to Box 863, c/o Kankakee Daily Journal, and we will send you a booklet describing our position and our qualifications.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED MECHANIC

Tractor man trained in all phases of automotive repair.

Good salary and working conditions. APPLY IN PERSON.

ANDREWS NETZEL

130 E. HICKORY ST.

WOMEN WITH SOME SALES EXPERIENCE

who enjoy children and understand the child psychology.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

to visit with parents and children daily—Kankakee, Ill.

REPAIRS

SALES AND SERVICE • to have the job done right

ALTERATIONS

TAILOR & FURRIER

Trunk, suit, dress, coat, etc. 44 years—19 E. Merchant, Ph. 3-811

CONCRETE & MASONRY

READY MIX CONCRETE

BLACK DRIFT

AZZARELLI MATERIAL CO.

401 N. WEST AVE. TEL. 2-7403

EQUIPMENT FOR RENT

Steel, Tubular

RENTAL SCAFFOLD

1—Week

For Rig, Trades, Industry,

Home and Farm. Phone 3-7481

DOYLE MATERIAL CO.

503 S. West, Phone 2-7481

ELECTRIC MOTORS

ARTHUR MOTOR WORKS

Repair and Repair on Electric

333 S. Washington, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

Herb White, Phone 3-3118

FURNACE REPAIR

NEEDS RE-REPAIRING

Call Associated Heating Co. Ask for

MERCHANDISE

NATURAL WOOD CABINETS

STYLED FOR MODERN LIVING,

DESIGNED FOR EFFICIENCY.

NO MONEY DOWN

PLANETARY SERVICE

BIRCH-MANAGERY-KOPEL

Kankakee, Ill. 601 S. West

F-R-E-E

PLANNING & ESTIMATING

ALEXANDER LUMBER CO.

RT. 40, P.O. BOX 144

PHONE 2-6704

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

REAL ESTATE

WE'RE DEDICATED TO

SERVE YOU

The Buyer and Seller of Real Estate

We strive constantly to give honest and competent advice in the fair sale or purchase of Real Property.

Ours is a business that requires constant study and active participation to serve you properly. It is not a part time job. In taking an inventory, so to speak, we find that the year

1956 was truly a successful one for us. YOU—the buyer, the seller—are responsible for the growth of our business.

WE SINCERELY THANK YOU and pledge our never ending efforts to continue meriting your confidence in the future.

Our inventory reveals further the need of more properties for sale by our agency. We receive calls daily for various types of homes, lots, acreage, farms and apartments. We want to help these people. Perhaps you contemplate the sale of all or part of your real estate holdings. If so, and you would like to discuss the matter and LIST YOUR PROP-ERTY with competent, sincere real estate counselors call

SPECKMAN REALTY at 2-7449 or stop in at our offices in the Volkman Building.

I would like to repeat to the buyer or seller of real estate:

WE ARE DEDICATED TO SERVE YOU CAPABLY AND WELL.

R. O. SPECKMAN, Owner

ASSOCIATES: L. J. SODDIE AND HARRY BROCK

LIVE LIKE A KING!

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

REAL ESTATE

FREE!

All The Help We

Can Give You To

Own Your Own Home

WEST MEADOWVIEW RANCH

Spacious 2 bedroom home with large living room, dining room, kitchen, bath, and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,

and more. Call for details.

Phone 3-3118

COMMUNITY AUCTION

EVERY WEEK, 7:30 P.M.

WE HAVE BUYERS FOR ALL TYPES

OF FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD

GOODS. Master bedroom and living

room, dining room, kitchen, bath,</

