Is Ike Following Coolidge Pattern?

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower picked one right out of the Coolidge bag of tricks today when he joined a platoon of House Republicans at a White House breakfast.

Way back there in the boom time 1920s, President Coolidge's breakfasts were frequent, famous and positive puzzles to his guests. Rarely did they ever learn why they were invited.

Eisenhower, recovered from his stomach upset, is having the House Republicans in to make friends and influence people. Congressional Republicans have been complaining that they have had too little contact with the President. The breakfasts are to mend presidential political fences.

NOT SO THE Coolidge breakfasts. Ike Hoover indicated in his remarks that Coolidge played breakfast host mostly because he was lonesome and wanted to talk. He used to write of Coolidge as "silent Cal" but it was a misnomer. Coolidge was a talker.

Hoover for 42 years was chief White House usher. On retirement, he wrote that Coolidge used the breakfast technique more than presidents who preceded him. Ike Hoover believed Coolidge's enthusiasm for White House entertaining largely was grounded on knowledge that Congress shortly before had authorized a White House entertainment expense account.

"They were simply one of his diversions," Ike Hoover wrote of the Coolidge breakfasts. "He would have one whenever the notion presented itself and many times on very short notice. Often we had to seek guests at midnight."

"GENERALLY HE would ask members of both parties and the meal was charged to 'official entertaining.' Many of the Democrats and even some of the Republicans would hesitate about accepting. They did not like the early hour, night of week."

With few exceptions the breakfasts seemed to have little objective. In fact, we frequently heard a guest inquire upon leaving, "Why did he have us here?"

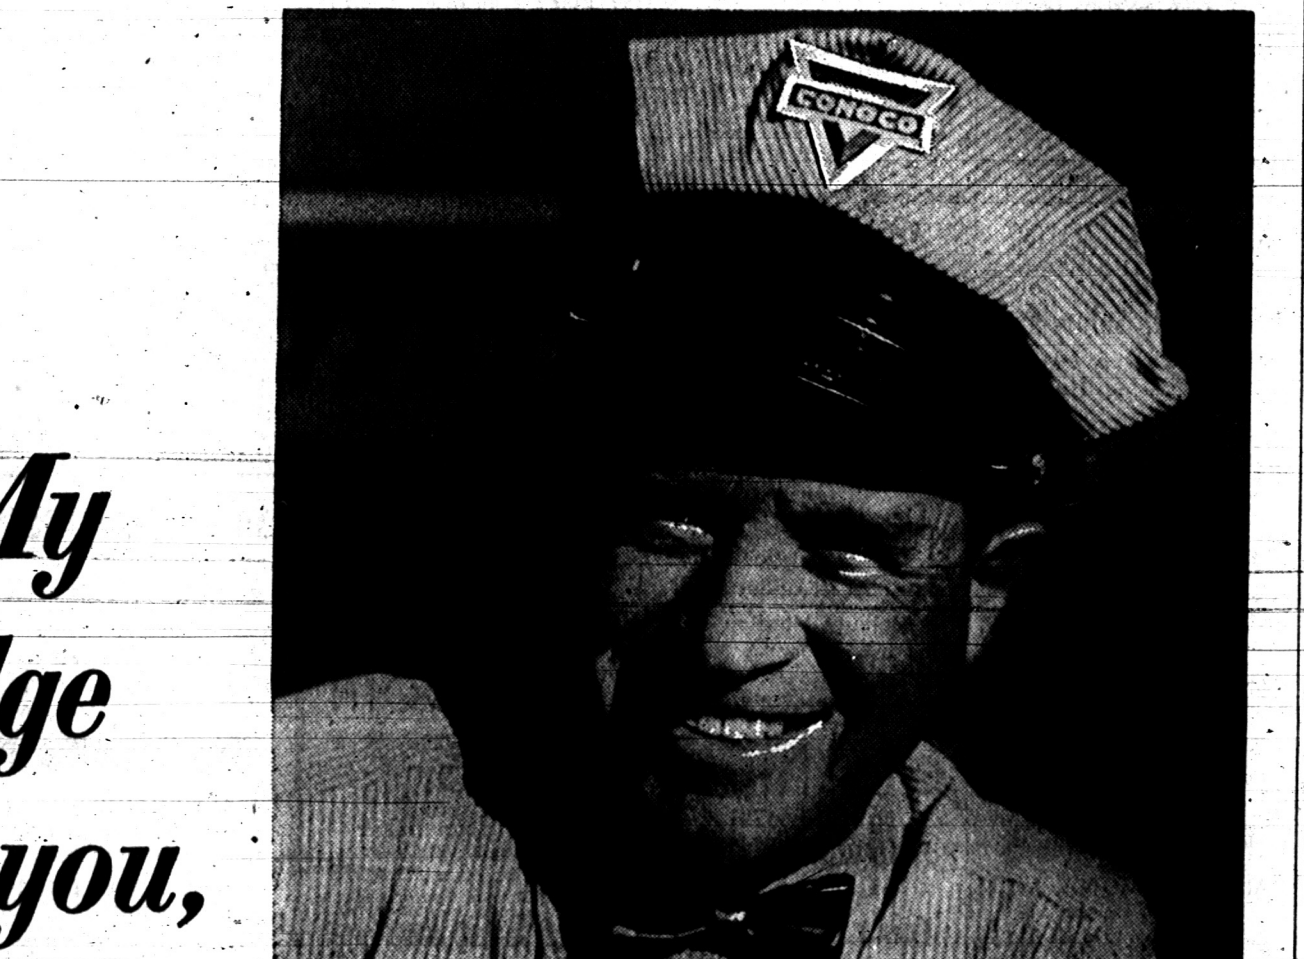

If there is a lesson in all of this for Eisenhower, it may be that the breakfast hour should accommodate itself to the habits of a military man or a New England socializer rather than to the early rising custom of a politician.

Red Cross Water Safety Aids Get Instructions For Summer Work

Kankakee County youths who will be assisting in the mammoth Red Cross swim program in the county this summer attend a water safety aid instruction course at the Kankakee swimming pool. The group here is listening to Miss Sharon Wacholz, director of the swim program, explain some of their duties. The course is being held each morning this week. Beginning Monday the youths then will assume duties as water safety aids at the Kankakee pool, Lake Manteno, Essex and Bonfield for the Red Cross program. The aids do such things as serve as junior instructors, take roll call, work in the check room, etc. Some will be starting their fourth year with the Red Cross program. (Journal photo)

Also covered were Quartermaster Corps ceremonial expenses. The bill contained $607,186,800. The Army Engineers, a reduction of requests by $1,708,200. Eisenhower had reduced the requests by more than 13 million dollars before the committee began work on the proposal.

Scores of persons arose early for a glimpse of the tiny bark which was on the 34th day of her voyage from Plymouth, England. Thousands of persons were expected to be on hand for the official welcoming ceremonies later today.

The Mayflower skipper, Capt. Alan Villiers, had hoped to make the entire voyage without a tow.

SOME OF THE EDGE was taken off the Plymouth reception at Provincetown, Wednesday. The square-rigged galleon halted there to reenact the signing of the Mayflower Compact, just as the founding fathers did 328 years ago.

The Mayflower was virtually commandeered by eager tourists. Coast Guard cutters circling the 82-foot craft were unable to pry away an excursion boat hugging the side of the official committee launch next to the Mayflower II.

The Mayflower II, exact replica of the original, lurched into Provincetown at the end of a 50-yard tow line from the Coast Guard cutter Yankton. Fifteen to 20-foot waves plucked the tiny craft.

"It bothered me a little," Villiers said, "to come in on a tow line. But it would have bothered me more to be out there battling those winds."

Villiers was high in praise for his 32-man crew. He said: "The Lord was with us during the trip and the ship handled very well."

Public Works Budget Slashed By $61.6 Million

WASHINGTON (UP)—The House Appropriations Committee slashed $61,639,977 from President Eisenhower's public works program today to bring it to its 1957 level.

If the $14,413,023 bill is approved without change, the House will have cut $4,042,555,929 from the program.

The funds are for the next fiscal year starting July 1. They were reduced more than $2 million below spending for the present fiscal year.

Ike's Recovery Complete: Doctor

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower's doctor today pronounced him "completely recovered" from his stomach upset.

The physician, Maj. Gen. Soydemer, reported the President "almost recovered" on Tuesday and again Wednesday.

Eisenhower was stricken Sunday evening and was confined to bed for three days. He was attending physicians described as a "mild" case of stomach distress.

The doctor attributed the illness to "light over indulgence" in some types of food.

An injury resulting in death. Convicted murderer, John J. Lee, was shot and killed Jan. 30.

The officer, who had been quoted by name or rank, said that the statement of Specialist S.C. Victor Nickel of the 44th Army Corps of Engineers was "not a reliable source of information."

Japanese officials said it was not among court records in the case. A witness said he had seen a "lighting bolt" grenade launcher attached to his rifle.

The U.S. decision to trial Girard was over to Japan for trial has stirred a storm of protest in the United States and court action seeking to return Girard there.

Injured In Ashkum Accident

Stretchers bearers go to aid of Harold C. Ziemer, RR 1, Kankakee, whose left leg was broken in collision involving two steel trucks and an automobile at junction of Routes 49-52-114 east of Ashkum this morning. (News story and photo on page 6.) (Journal photo)

THREE SERIOUS injuries were caused today when these two vehicles collided on Highway 54, about five miles north of Kankakee. The collision was caused when one of the drivers attempted a U-turn, it was reported.

Walter H. Larsen, 302 Olivet St., Bourbonnais, professor at Olivet College suffered a broken arm and head injuries. He complained of pain on his chest and having difficulty breathing. He was a passenger in a car driven by his son, Lauren Larsen, 1957 graduate of Olivet College. Lauren received cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Millie Baymiller, Manteno, a passenger in Mrs. Calouette's car received cuts, bruises and a possible fractured shoulder.

According to Lauren Larsen he was going south toward Kankakee, when Mrs. Calouette attempted to make a U-turn and cut in front of his vehicle.

Mrs. Baymiller said she and Mrs. Calouette had been shopping in Kankakee and were attempting to turn around to go back to the city when the collision occurred.

Both cars were damaged beyond repair. Parts of both vehicles and glass were strewn over the entire highway. The windshield of Mrs. Calouette's car was completely torn out when she was thrown through the window.

Sex Fiend Sought In Detroit Girl's Killing

ATLANTA (UP)—The condition of Walter F. George, veteran former Democratic senator and President Eisenhower's special ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, was officially listed today as one stage short of critical.

His physician at Emory University Hospital said that he had spent a fairly comfortable night, felt somewhat stronger but his condition remained serious.

Hospital spokesmen explained that the serious designation came next to last in accepted terminology rating a patient's condition as good, fair, fairly good, serious or critical.

THE PHYSICIAN, who asked that his name not be used, said George was receiving anticoagulants, drugs used to prevent the blood from forming clots.

George arrived in Atlanta by train from Washington Wednesday and entered the hospital for a series of diagnostic tests.

Before entering the hospital, the statesman said his future as an ambassador of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would depend on the results of the examinations.

George served in the Senate for 34 years. He did not serve reelection in 1956.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Navy officials described an isolated incident today the shore fired by a Communist Chinese shore battery at an American plane which they said apparently strayed off course and was damaged slightly.

They expressed the opinion based on "shaky dispatches" that the incident is not likely to produce any significant military repercussions.

The Navy announced Wednesday that the plane, flying from the carrier Hornet, was "fired on and slightly damaged by Communist Chinese anti-aircraft" in the area of the Formosa Strait.

"IT APPEARS that the aircraft concerned was to the westward of its plotting position, being about eight miles off the coast when it was fired on," the Navy announced. It added, it said the plane, otherwise unidentified, was on a routine training flight at the time.

First word of the incident came from Beijing radio, which said in a broadcast heard in London that the Hornet and four destroyers, sailing from Hong Kong, "invaded" part of the South China Sea within the territorial waters of China.

The Red Chinese version said the planes taking off from the carrier "intruded into the Swatow area."

Mangled Body Found In Dump Near Her Home

Dad Assails Society For Encouraging, Producing Such Men

DETROIT (UP)—Six-year-old Mary de Causon was found slain today in a dump two miles from her home in Ecorse Township in Detroit's downriver area.

The girl's head was almost severed and her hands were tied behind her back. The body was unclothed.

A resident of the neighborhood, Paul Panter, found the body when he went to the dump to throw out a basket of rubbish. The dump is near the heavily traveled Dix and Trenton roads.

Police roped off the area, hoping to keep it clear until they searched for foot prints and tire tracks.

The finding of the body ended an overnight search aided by nearly 1,000 volunteers. The girl had been missing from her home since 5:30 p. m. Wednesday.

PANTER HAD NOT taken part in the search for the girl but he knew she was missing. He telephoned Ecorse Township police.

Police said the girl apparently was killed at the scene. Her arms were bound.

Mary was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund de Causon Jr. The child's mother, Gervaise, 36, reported her missing after she failed to return home.

The father said bitterly, before the body was found, "assuming the worst has happened, I wouldn't blame the man as much as the society which produces such men. It's a society that allows sex magazines on news stands for kids to read, a society that measures Hollywood stars by their bosoms, and a society where the telling of dirty stories and the use of foul language is common place."

"THESE THINGS produce sex perversity out of people who have the slightest abnormal tendencies. They are encouraged by everything around them."

"Until the day society changes its fundamental moral principles and re-asserts a belief in God, we will have sex perversion."

Mary was a first grade student at St. Paul School in Ecorse Township. She was the grand-

Maunoury New Premier Of France

PARIS (UP)—A resigned, reluctant National Assembly elected today confirmed Maurice Maunoury as France's 22nd post-war premier by a majority of less than 50 votes. The action ended a three-week Cabinet crisis.

Both the preballed debate and the 248-194 vote itself reflected the Assembly's lack of enthusiasm. Seventy-three deputies abstained.

Bourges-Maunoury fell 58 votes short of an absolute majority of the Assembly's 565 members. But only a majority of those voting was needed to install him.

Bourges-Maunoury's program on which he took office virtually duplicates that of his predecessor, Socialist Guy Mollet. The new Cabinet chief, who was Mollet's defense minister, promised the Assembly continued vigorous military action against the Algerian rebels, limited political reforms and the rebellious North African territory, new taxes and lower imports to rebuild France's almost-gone stock of foreign exchange.

THE NEW Premier got the support of all but eight members of his own Radical Socialist party, a middle road group. He also was backed by the Socialists and most of the conservative Independent Republicans.

Opposing him were the Communists, the extreme right-wing Poussinists and the Assembly's lone wolf, former Premier Pierre Mendes-France. The other parties abstained.

Bourges-Maunoury at 42 becomes the country's youngest premier since 1835. The average age of his 14-man Cabinet is less than 50 and includes 37-year-old Felix Gaillard in the key post of finance minister.

Wearing a colonel's army uniform and sitting erect on his horse, Elizabeth paraded before an estimated 25,000 persons in the glorious "trooping of the colors." It was her last full-dress function before her visit this fall to the United States and Canada.

Hours before the colorful ceremony, thousands of persons crowded the sidewalks outside of Buckingham Palace along the main to the Admiralty Arch and the Horse Guards parade grounds. Many were there before dawn, carrying huge open picnic lunches.

FLANKED BY OTHER OFFICIALS and facing news cameras, Willis Gale, chairman of the Commonwealth Edison Co., Gov. William Stratton, and Francis McCune, a vice president of General Electric, helped bolt a steel column in place during the ground breaking ceremony Wednesday at the Dresden Nuclear Power station near Morris. The station is expected to produce 100,000 kilowatts of electricity, enough to supply a city of 250,000.

Begin Major Work On Nuclear Power Plant

Northeastern Illinois took another step toward the atomic age Wednesday.

That was the significance behind all the fanfare when the Dresden Nuclear Power station officials began major construction of an atomic generating plant only 36 miles northwest of Kansas City.

Located in an area studied with strip mine spoil banks and water-filled ditches, the station is scheduled to be in operation by 1960. Site of the plant is near the confluence of the Kansas, Illinois and Des Plaines rivers, east of Morris.

Some 400 persons attended the ceremonies Wednesday, including federal and state officials and representatives of Commonwealth Edison Co., which will own and operate the $45-million plant with eight other private utilities. These companies are known as the Nuclear Power Group.

COMMONWEALTH WILL pay $30 million of the cost and the associated companies will contribute $15 million as research and development expenses. The Bechtel Corp. is building the plant as contractors for General Electric.

Rep. Carl Durham of North Carolina, chairman of the joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, told the group that he is not sure that the committee would like to see more of these prototype power reactors. He said the Dresden plant will be the largest nuclear power station in the United States.

Thomas E. Murray, member of the Atomic Energy Commission, urged immediate construction of two or three more large reactors. "Without a nuclear industry," Murray said, "we cannot hope to fulfill responsibilities which derive from mounting shortages of power throughout the world."

Gov. Stratton, a resident of nearby Morris, called the Dresden project "one of the most revolutionary developments of our age."

Nominations are scheduled to be reported at the club's regular luncheon meeting next Wednesday.

A motion picture, "The Riches of the Earth," was shown to the club Wednesday noon by Oscar Lugubinski.

The film was produced by the National Film Board of Canada.

Lugubinski was introduced by Harold Menzies.

2 Cars Damaged In Collision

Two cars were damaged in a crash near Court St. and Chicago Ave. about 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The drivers were Michael A. Guesette, 19, 600 W. Henry St., and Jerome Denault, 25, 542 S. Third Ave.

The police report said that Guesette, traveling west on Court, stopped for traffic and his car was struck in the rear by Denault's auto.

Miller was fined $125 and costs by County Judge Irene C. Taylor for driving while under the influence of liquor.

Mann said Miller was westbound, turning south on the first curve north of the west end of Kankakee, when the car went off the pavement and spun.

Soft drink bottles were scattered in an accident at 2:45 p. m. Wednesday on Route 52 one mile south of Donovan.

The driver of the soft drink truck, William H. Bays, 51, Danville, was charged with illegal passing by State Policeman Ralph Locke.

Locke said the truck sidestepped a vehicle driven by Willard E. Meents, 31, 653 E. Vandewater St.

The rear door of the truck became caught on the car, causing both to leave the road.

Bays' truck overturned in a ditch at the George Bard farm, where a fence was damaged. Damage to the truck was estimated at $150 and to Meents' car at $150.

Harvey Claims Election As Fourth Judge

Raymond J. Harvey, Democratic candidate in the June 3 judicial election, has filed a demand in Will County that he be certified as the fourth judge elected in the 12th Circuit.

Harvey said he intends to file similar demands with Kankakee and Iroquois county clerks.

Harvey contends that the circuit is entitled to four judges, instead of three, on the basis of emergency legislation approved March 19.

The legislation provides that in a circuit containing a state institution providing educational or welfare facilities for more than 15,000 persons, four judges shall be elected.

He says this is the basis on which the circuit including Champaign County elected four judges.

Harvey's letter to Will County Clerk Joseph H. Hartley contends that Kankakee and Manteno state hospitals have a population of approximately 16,000 and that there are 5,000 in penal institutions at Joliet.

HARVEY SAID HE will ask the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus forcing certification if the county clerks do not act.

The Will County clerk has turned Harvey's request over to the state's attorney for study.

Harvey's claim apparently raises some interesting points. The patient population is about 4,200 at Kankakee State Hospital and about 8,100 at Manteno. Kankakee has slightly under 1,000 employees and Manteno has about 1,465, should these be counted.

The state penitentiary system is under the Department of Public Safety, one official here pointed out.

In the June 3 voting, three Republican judges were elected, the results showing Judge Roscoe C. South 16,669, Judge C. D. Henry 16,667 and Harvey 1,436.

Refer Charge Of Drunken Driving To County Court

A charge of drunken driving against Evelyn O'Brien, 790 W. Charles St., was referred to County Court when she appeared before Police Magistrate Paul Davidson today.

Davidson also levied a $104 suspended fine against her for leaving the scene of an accident.

The woman was arrested Tuesday after her car struck another auto at Schuyler Ave. and River St.

Frank Salzgiver, 23, 307 N. Chicago Ave., was ordered held in county jail in lieu of $72 assessed against him for reckless driving, illegal transportation of liquor and active in the YWCA, the Women's Recreation Association, Women's Advisory Board and was Women's Representative at Large on the student council.

Immediately following her graduation, Norma is planning a trip to Europe with a group from her college. This trip includes visits in England, Germany, Italy, France, Switzerland and Holland.

She will sail on June 18 from Montreal and fly back to Chicago just in time to take up her duties as a second grade teacher in the education and she is planning to teach in the elementary grades.

Norma is a graduate of Herscher High School.

A disorderly conduct charge cost Bryan Eubanks, 62, 282 N. Greenwood Ave., $104. He was arrested about 8:30 p. m. Wednesday at his home. The charge involved his actions with minor children.

Two young men from Plover were each fined $54 for petting a dog. They were David Wilson, 17, and David Wallace, 18. Police found two stolen hubcaps in Wilton's car. The hubcaps belonged to Harry Bergman, 1302 S. Sixth Ave.

James Edward Barr, 19, of 455 Locust St., was fined $10 for driving without an operator's license and James Baldwin, Oak Lawn, paid $19 for speeding.

4 School Districts To Vote On Consolidation

Residents of four Pembroke Township grade school districts will vote Saturday on whether to join together in one single grade school district.

The districts are Fairmore District 10, Doney District 85, Gobin District 90 and Hopkins Park District 239.

The polls will be open from noon until 7 p. m. in the Doney School school fund, which is being liquidated.

THIS COULD eventually be used for the new building, spokesmen say.

This year, the four districts had an enrollment of about 470, including about 35 at Fairmore, 187 at Doney, 79 at Gobin and 188 at Hopkins Park. At one time there were only 75 in the four schools.

They have built additions or moved other buildings in at their enrollments grew.

The territory voting Saturday takes in some 45 or 50 square miles. It has an assessed valuation of about $2½ million. This is low in proportion to the number of pupils, making the schools dependent to a large degree on state aid, spokesmen report.

THE NEW DISTRICT, if approved, would levy up to 90 cents per $100 assessed valuation in the educational fund. The rates in Fairmore and Hopkins Park are 90 cents now, and the rates in Doney and Gobin are 75 cents. The district could levy up to 25 cents for building purposes and the purchase and improvement of school grounds.

The territory is in St. Anne High School District, but the high school is not affected by the election.

The election was called on the basis of a petition filed with the county superintendent.

A Change For Canadians

The Conservative party turned in a stunning upset in Canada this week when the Liberal party, which had controlled the government for 22 years, was ousted from power.

The Conservative victory of 110 seats to 103 for the Liberals left both parties without a majority in the 265-member House of Commons. The balance of power will be held by the Social and the Social Credit parties. While they might not join a coalition cabinet, leaders of these two parties have indicated that they would support any satisfactory Conservative program.

The Conservatives, nominally more to the right than the Liberals, have given no indication that they would change the welfare aspects of the long Liberal regime. In fact they have promised to boost old age pensions while cutting taxes.

Why the upset if the two parties are so much alike? Canadians by the thousands wanted a change. And another reason is the tremendous expansion that has taken place in Canada. Our friends across the border welcome the huge American investments of the past years but they don't go along with the pattern of American control in various companies.

All isn't sweetness and honey between the two northern democracies. Canadians do not like to think of themselves as a secondary nation in any phase of mutual activity. It is doubtful that there will be much of a change, however. The two countries complement each other. It is realized that they must stand together. There is high regard and mutual respect, and the people of Canada and the United States will continue to think alike when it comes to basic principles.

Every Day Is Father's Day

Special recognition will be given the "head of the house" this Sunday when Father's Day is observed nationally. From all indications Pop will be showered with a variety of gifts, mostly things he might not buy for himself but which he will enjoy all the more.

This particular day of remembrance, which originated in Spokane, Wash., in 1910, has held national distinction since 1924. This year the sponsors have created a special menu, featuring chicken, a special color, blue, and a theme "Integrity Starts in the Home."

Actually the day will serve to impress fathers with their responsibilities in creating the right family spirit and as to their position of example-makers for the other members of the family. The example set by the fathers will have considerable influence over the way the children accept the laws of the land and the rules of living in a free society. The gifts and honors will be tendered and received with complete sincerity. But the underlying message will be one of emphasis: the contribution that Dad makes—or can make—every day of the year in providing protection, guidance and inspiration for every member of the family.

Hope For The Pie Eaters

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—(UNION)

A big bite of good fortune may be forthcoming from the Legislature for those who eat and love chicken pies.

Persons who have sunk their chopsticks into chickenless chicken pies will be especially interested in a bill by Sen. Paul L. Byrne (R-Chico).

Byrne's bill identifies him, without qualification, as a champion of the chicken pie set.

If his bill is victorious, the State Department of Agriculture will decide how much chicken should be in a chicken pie. Presently, the department is authorized to set forth requirements on the components that may go into commercially produced chicken pies, but there is some doubt whether they can specify how much of each.

Pie eaters hope the department might increase the federal standards, which decrease that every eight-ounce chicken pie must contain at least one and one-eighth ounces of chicken meat.

Odds Still On Adenauer To Win Elections

BONN, Germany — Although Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democratic party has lost considerable strength during the past two or three years, the latest German public opinion poll, held last month, shows it remains a slight favorite with the voters.

In its poll last month, ENNID, the public opinion polling organization in Bielefeld, found that of all German voters interviewed, 41 per cent favored Adenauer's Christian Democrats, 41 per cent Oljenauer's Social Democrats (socialists), 8 per cent the Free Democrats, 4 per cent the Refugee party (BHE), and the remaining 4 per cent were divided among various other small parties.

It should be noted, however, that these percentages refer only to those voters who had opinions. Of considerable importance is the fact that 26 per cent of those interviewed said they had no opinion. Those 26 per cent represent no doubt the independent voters and those who voted for Adenauer's Christian

Democrats four years ago but are not certain whether they will do it again this time.

ASSUMING, HOWEVER, that the Christian Democrats get their relative share of these 26 per cent undecided voters, they should emerge in September as the largest single party once more.

But even the Christian Democrats themselves, with whom I have recently talked, think they will get 41 per cent of the total number of the seats in the federal Legislature or Bundestag. One prominent CDU legislator with whom I had lunch in the Bundestag last week, Mrs. Maria Probst, from Bavaria, said she thought the CDU would secure 45 per cent of the seats this time.

She felt that the two small parties, the German party and the Free People's party, which recently merged their activities, may get as much as 10 per cent of the total votes in the fall elections. If these are added to the 45 per cent the participants the CDU will receive, she foresees a new coalition government next fall headed by Adenauer and controlling 55 per cent of all the seats in the Bundestag.

RECENT PUBLIC opinion polls do not sustain Mr. Probst's thesis that the combined German party and Free People's party will get 10 per cent of the total votes cast in September. In February of this year in an ENNID poll, only 4 per cent of all Germans interviewed who had opinions said they favored these two small parties. Since February the number has dropped 2 per cent.

Should these polls prove accurate as to how people will vote in September, it looks as if Adenauer's Christian Democrats will need more than the votes of the combined German-Free People's party to command a majority.

PERHAPS IF THE Christian Democrats could secure, in addition to the support of the German-Free People's party, that of the small Refugee party (BHE) they might then squeak through with a bare majority. Many Christian Democrats are convinced that this will happen and will make it unnecessary for them to form a coalition with the Free Democratic party in order to secure a majority.

If the hopes of the Christian Democrats are realized, then the Free Democrats will be left out in the cold and won't be in the strategic position of holding the balance of power they now anticipate.

It is too early as yet safely to predict just how the September elections will turn out. It will depend largely on the behavior of the voters who haven't yet made up their minds. But this much, at least, appears certain: Adenauer's Christian Democrats will emerge as the largest single party once more and will win more than 40 per cent, but less than 50 per cent, of all the seats.

Reds Win Major Victory In Cold War

WASHINGTON — Sometimes the biggest news is invisible, glossed over, or minimized because advancement itself doesn't speak out about the dangers of what is happening contemporaneously. For something very alarming has just happened that could be one of the steps which would force a world war — on the American people — in the next decade.

The question might well be asked: what is the experience — are the free nations, including the United States, prepared to arm the enemy and LAWRENCE will they thereby accelerate the time when a third world war may sweep the globe?

The decision on the part of Great Britain to break faith with the United States and seven other nations by relaxing the embargo on trade with Red China is a sensational development. It is unquestionably a turn of affairs which spells a weakening of the position of the free governments in the "cold war."

Hitler bought his arms from British colonies and territories and kept supplying his munitions stockpile up to almost the very month when the second World War broke out in 1939. The Allies paid for that mistake—in human lives lost.

BRITISH MERCHANTS kept on trading with the enemy through the United States and its allies nearly three years of the first World War at the same time that American trade with neutral countries was being interfered with by the London government. This prolonged the conflict and the casualties.

Had there been an economic embargo against the dictators as the League of Nations proposed in the 1920s, would never have been a second World War. Had the British ceased their trade with the enemy earlier than they did in the first World War, the conflict would have been terminated sooner.

Now is history to repeat itself? For the sake of material gains, are the Red Chinese to be industrialized so that they can become a menace to Japan, to the Philippines, to all of Southeast Asia as well as to Indochina and perhaps India?

PERHAPS IF THE Christian Democrats could secure, in addition to the support of the German-Free People's party, that of the small Refugee party (BHE) they might then squeak through with a bare majority. Many Christian Democrats are convinced that this will happen and will make it unnecessary for them to form a coalition with the Free Democratic party in order to secure a majority.

If the hopes of the Christian Democrats are realized, then the Free Democrats will be left out in the cold and won't be in the strategic position of holding the balance of power they now anticipate.

It is too early as yet safely to predict just how the September elections will turn out. It will depend largely on the behavior of the voters who haven't yet made up their minds. But this much, at least, appears certain: Adenauer's Christian Democrats will emerge as the largest single party once more and will win more than 40 per cent, but less than 50 per cent, of all the seats.

Manners For Moderns

Generally speaking, the person who makes a telephone call is the one who ends it. But sometimes a talker who doesn't know how to say goodbye gets you on the line. Then it's necessary to disregard the rule and end the conversation. You can often manage this by thanking him for calling.

But if that doesn't work you can always "have something on the stove" if you are at home or be wanted on another telephone if you are at the office.

By George Sokolsky

New Secretary Of Treasury

The new secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson, will take that position after resigning from Ventures Limited, a Canadian company, with tangible net worth of about $22,000,000 and which either owns or has a huge interest in a large number of other companies throughout the world.

Canada does not object to the cartel system of operations and it would be a question of legal definition rather than private opinion whether many of Canada's industries have been cartelized. There seems to be no objection to the cartel in capitalistic countries other than the United States. At any rate Ventures Limited is acknowledged to be one of the largest holding companies in the mining field. Its income derives from dividends paid by various companies in which it has made its investments.

Ventures Limited was chartered on Jan. 27, 1928, with an original authorized capital of $10,000,000. The genesis of the enterprise has undoubtedly been T. Lindsay, the chairman of its board of directors, who was born in the United States and came to Canada in 1917, as a geologist, and became interested in various mining properties. G. Sokolsky, which eventually became Ventures Limited. The indicated value of the stock ownership in subsidiary and related companies of Ventures Limited is about $12,000,000.

IN 1944, THE VARIOUS OIL interests of Ventures Limited and Frobisher Limited, a subsidiary, were consolidated into Geol Limited, a subsidiary of Frobisher Limited. (The use of numerous subsidiaries, piling tier upon tier, has become customary in all countries in the income tax payments.) Ventures Limited owns about 1,350,000 shares in Geol Limited of which R. B. Anderson was a director. These interlocking directorates would indicate that these companies are all controlled by more or less the same interests, brought together by T. Lindsay, chairman of Ventures Limited. Geol Limited operates not only in Canada but also in the United States, particularly in Louisiana, where it has substantial oil interests.

Ventures Limited, which is the controlling shareholder of Frobisher Limited and Geol Limited, operates through its subsidiaries and related companies in Canada, Africa, South America and the United States. Geol, for instance, has a 50 per cent interest in Trans Border Limited which owns the Williston Oil and Gas Limited which operates in the United States with great success.

IT IS INTERESTING THAT this enormous Canadian enterprise found an American to be its president and that he replaces as secretary of the Treasury, George Humphrey whose Mark Hanna Co. also holds enormous mine properties in Canada. The economic relations between the two countries are important and perhaps interlocking to a greater degree than is generally assumed. Many financial companies and financial devices exist which bring the business of the two countries together. Furthermore, many Canadian enterprises are financed in London, and Canada may serve as a bridge between the London and New York markets, providing financial organizations which facilitate investment but which are now forbidden in this country. The Toronto Stock Exchange, for instance, is a much freer institution than the New York Stock Exchange. Current status of the invasion of Canadian capital into the United States would indicate that they are larger than has generally been assumed.

THERE HAS BEEN SO MUCH mystery about the new secretary of the Treasury that I thought I might as well research Ventures Limited and introduce the gentleman properly to the taxpayer. A quiet businessman, working in Toronto since he ceased to be secretary of the Treasury, he has been as well known to the American people as a successor to Alexander Hamilton should be. His first political appointment was secretary of the Navy, in the Eisenhower administration, although he is a Democrat. His views on various subjects are not known at all.

For instance what are his views on the budget, tax cuts, the evasion of taxes by corporations by means of their subsidiaries scattered all over the world, etc., etc.? Anderson has not had anything to say on these matters at all and therefore he cannot be unpopular because no one knows what he is for or against. However, it is to be presumed that he cannot be too antagonistic to George Humphrey's position because no big businessman could be, and in due course, events will require statements on various subjects.

Ike Keeps Team Lined Up

WASHINGTON (NEA)—President Eisenhower at times uses his press conference to put in their places members of his administration who dare to differ with him on matters of high policy.

He gave this treatment to his disarmament specialist, Ex-Gov. Harold Stassen, at his last meeting with reporters. Stassen had been in Washington during the United Nations Disarmament Subcommittee recess.

The word had been passed around pretty generally that the United States would be willing to negotiate an agreement with the Russians on limiting atomic weapons testing. The President has now cut this word from under Stassen's feet with a very brief press conference. This was to the effect that limitation of tests could be achieved only as part of an agreement to ban use of all atomic weapons under full inspection.

To arm this leaves Stassen's bargaining position at the London arms talks a little harder to figure. Since this is a key point, it could make the talks futile.

THE PRESIDENT'S ACTION in this instance is regarded as in marked contrast to his handling of Adm. Arthur W. Radford a few weeks earlier.

While Stassen had been whipping up the prospects for a disarmament agreement with the Russians, the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff had raised strong warning against making any deal the Russians might not keep.

At his next press conference, the President rebuked Radford's stand with a ringing plea for open-mindedness and willingness to meet the Russians half way.

The President did this without mentioning Adm. Radford's name, but it was just as bare as a public reprimand.

ANOTHER NEW Eisenhower policy that made its surprise appearance at a press conference was "univis." Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's blast at National Guard for being "draft in trying to maintain the difference-doggers."

Speaking as a general himself, the President said an Army's range of operations was not more than several hundred miles and there was no point in its trying to develop longer-range weapons.

In spite of this press conference clipping of its wings, the Army has gone ahead to launch successfully the first Jupiter ICBM, ahead of the Air Force Thor. But missile research program was left in doubt.

Only once has the President had to back out of a press conference veto of a subordinate's view. That was when he labeled as "univis" Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's blast at National Guard for being "draft in trying to maintain the difference-doggers."

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and selected issues paced the stock market as a further climb early this afternoon in fairly active trading.

Moving over more into new high ground for 1957, pig-iron prices posted gains of fractions to a point or more. Some specialties were up to 12 1/2 points.

While there was little in the way of bullish news as the session began, there were some encouraging items later. The Commerce Department reported cash receipts in the first four months were 3 1/2 per cent higher than for the same period last year.

U. S. Steel and Crucible Steel were up around a point each. They were up to 12 1/2 points.

Business Forges Ahead Despite Ups And Downs

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A split personality in business shows up today in two ways:

1. The split between current conditions and future plans.

2. The split between falling manufacturing employment plus shorter work weeks in factories on the one hand and the increasing totals of over-all employment and personal incomes on the other.

These could add up to a breath of life in manufacturing — without quaking as to the long term trend.

The split shows up when you compare figures just released by the government on trends in employment, retail sales, and revised business plans for spending on new plants and equipment.

THE NUMBER of workers in factories and other plants in June was 12,000,000, or about twice the usual dip for that season, the Commerce and Labor departments report.

The average factory work week declined to 38.7 hours, the shortest week since September 1954.

But are manufacturers downhearted by this slide off from boom times? Apparently not. The Department of Commerce and the Securities and Exchange Commission report that new plant and equipment spending is estimated at just under $7 1/2 billion.

The full in some areas of business just now apparently hasn't reached businessmen's view that another boom will be coming along.

DESPITE THE dip in factory jobs, outdoor work increased in May and total employment rose by 81,000 to more than 65 million, with unemployment held around 2 1/2 million, or four per cent of the total labor force.

Jobs, appliance building material and home furnishings sales are lower than hoped. Department of Commerce figures show retail sales per cent above last year. But sales so far this year for chain and mail order firms are running 7.3 per cent above a year ago.

These diverse trends show how business spending is changing. A usually unpredictable factor in business forecasting.

But as long as retail sales hold large, and government spending increases, the soft spot in the economy seems unlikely to spread and cause general trouble.

Oil Wells Rush In Where Hollywood Golfers Tread

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Movie cowboys who once rode the "range" on the 20th Century-Fox studio backlot while drawing "bat" classic celluloid lines, "There's gold in them thar hills," are blushing today.

So are golfers who gave up their memberships in two adjoining country clubs after their amateur divot digging inspired the classic fairway enter, "Careful, boy, you'll strike oil!"

Gold—black gold—was right under the boots and spurs of those movie cowboys and golfers and they didn't even know it.

Ten oil wells are now pumping 4,000 barrels of oil a day, along with 1,000,000 cubic feet of gas, on the 200-acre Fox backlot where Shirley Temple once played with her dolls and where "The Robe" was filmed. By 1953, it is said, 21 producing wells will be in operation, giving the film studio a predicted net profit of $6,000,000 a year. At the moment the studio's yearly profit is close to a reported $3,000,000.

The oil fever at Hillcrest, where Jack Benny, George Burns, Jerry Lewis and other stars roam the greens, has resulted in a ban against members selling their memberships to anyone but the club. Candidates who filed for membership later than Jan. 1, 1952, aren't even being considered.

Who cares about movie grosses and gross scores?

There's a "little Texas" snack dab in the middle of Beverly Hills. Not with those unsightly oil rigs, of course. The one drilling rig moving about the Fox lot is typically Hollywood—it's shrouded in baby blue nylon and has fiber glass soundproofing.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (U) — A weaker tone developed in grain futures today after the market had displayed little change most of the session. Oats also were off almost a cent at times.

Soybeans showed a more firm trend than grains, with some buying influenced by export reports. Japan is to buy 700,000 bushels of U. S. soybeans Friday for July and August shipment. Denmark plans to buy up to 350,000 bushels.

Heavy rainfall in the corn and soybean belt caused some strength in both these pits.

Estimated carlot receipts for Chicago: wheat 2, corn 70, oats 2, soy 17, barley 6, soybeans 3.

Old wheat closed 1/4 to 1 1/2 lower, July $2.02 1/2 to $2.04, new wheat 1/4 to 1/2 lower, July $2.02 1/2 to $2.04 1/2.

Oil Wells Rush In Where Hollywood Golfers Tread

There's a "little Texas" snack dab in the middle of Beverly Hills. Not with those unsightly oil rigs, of course. The one drilling rig moving about the Fox lot is typically Hollywood—it's shrouded in baby blue nylon and has fiber glass soundproofing.

Once a well has been drilled, silent underground pumps take over.

ADJOINING PRIVATE property owners have leased oil and gas rights for some of the slant drilling on the Fox lot. One-time star Rochelle Hudson is one of those getting a monthly check from an oil well she can't even see four blocks from her home.

"There's gold in them thar hills" at Universal-International studio in San Fernando Valley, too. Literally. The studio is selling its backlot hills, some of them 500 feet high, to the state of California's freeway construction at the rate of 80 cents a yard.

New Trench Unit In Chatsworth

The back-breaking job of digging for drainage in Chatsworth is being made considerably easier by the purchase of back-hole equipment by the village board. The new trenching apparatus shown above was delivered to Chatsworth about 10 days ago and was put to use immediately to correct faulty tile conditions in parts of the community. Operating the unit at Fourth and Ash streets are (from left) John Robberia, Albert Beckoff and Chester Bayston. (Journal photo)

GI Denies Luring Victim, Tells Of Army Pressure

OTTAWA (UP)—William S. Girard has told his older brother in two separate transatlantic telephone talks that the Army Far East Command "is putting pressure" on him.

Name Doughnut Day Chairman For Beecher Area

BEECHER (JNS)—Miss Lynn Wunderlich has been appointed local chairman for "Doughnut Day," the Salvation Army's annual tag day to be held Friday in Chicago and more than 150 suburban communities.

Her appointment was announced by Mrs. Howard Olson of Elmwood Park, suburban chairman of the drive.

Miss Wunderlich will direct the activities of Beecher women who volunteer as "Doughnut Day" taggers in raising funds for the social welfare services the Salvation Army offers.

Miss Wunderlich invites Beecher women to give just two or three hours of their time to sell the brown paper doughnut tags.

As in all communities outside of Cook County, 20 per cent of the funds raised in the Beecher drive will remain here to meet disasters or emergencies in the community and to finance unduplicated programs of health care or other services. The other 80 per cent of the contributions will be used to partially finance the comprehensive social-welfare program maintained by the Salvation Army in the Greater Chicago area.

RONALD A. KIEDAISCH, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kiedaisch, Beecher, was one of 299 June graduates at Valparaiso University. He received a bachelor of laws degree.

Japanese Gives His Version Of Slaying On Rifle Range

(Editor's Note: Only two persons—a soldier companion of William S. Girard and a 28-year-old Japanese farmer—witnessed the fatal shooting of Mrs. Naka Sakai on a U. S. firing range at Sonagahara, Japan last Jan. 30. A key issue in the case has been whether Girard scattered empty cartridge shells to entice the woman scrap metal scavenger before shooting her, as Japanese quarters have charged. Girard's soldier companion, SP 3C Victor Nickel, Inkster, Mich., has refused public comment on the charge. Hidetsugu Onozeki, Mrs. Sakai's companion on Jan. 30, today gave United Press his version of the incident.)

By HIDEITSUGU ONOZEKI
SOMAGAHARA, Japan (UP)—There were about 70 or 80 villagers at the firing range that day, watching the American soldiers conduct an exercise. Mrs. Sakai and I were among them.

First the soldiers fire live ammunition. Then they divided into two groups—one group went up the hill and the other stayed below and loaded their guns with blank ammunition for an attack on the group on the hill.

When the exercise was over, the soldiers lay down to rest and we (the villagers) moved toward them to see if they would give us some empty shells to sell for scrap.

Some of the soldiers got up and shouted at us, "Get out of here."

All the villagers started to run away. But Mrs. Sakai and I were a little way apart from the group, so we were behind the others.

Mrs. Sakai and I were about 10 yards from two soldiers by a machinegun. One of them (the man I later identified as Girard when Army officers took me to Camp Wilmington) held up about 10 small cartridges.

HE SAID TO Mrs. Sakai, "Mama, here is much brass," and threw the shell casings on the other side of a shallow trench. Mrs. Sakai and I ran to pick them up.

Then Girard threw some more shells but these went into the trench and Mrs. Sakai went in to get them.

Girard had denied that he tossed the shells out to entice the Japanese.

I was about to run over to the trench to help Mrs. Sakai when I saw Girard pointing his rifle at me. It looked very dangerous but I thought he was joking.

Anyway, I started to run away from the trench.

Bible School Will End Friday In South Wilmington

SOUTH WILMINGTON (JNS)—The vacation Bible school of the Methodist Church will close Friday morning.

At 8:30 p.m. in the school auditorium, parents and friends will be able to hear about the lessons learned. They also will have a chance to view an exhibit of the articles made during the school hours.

JAMES JENSEN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jensen, entered the St. Joseph's Hospital, Joliet, on Monday for treatment. James was injured in a motorcycle accident last September.

returned soon with another soldier who had a first aid kit.

The other soldier opened Mrs. Sakai's clothing and touched her over the heart. Then he cleaned the dirt from her mouth and tied her mouth shut with a bandage.

Japanese police and some other soldiers, including officers, arrived then. Girard was driven away in a jeep.

He Backslid On Egyptian Tonic

Fuzz Elates Worry-Less Bald Boy

By ELMER WHEELER
I really believe I'm getting places.
My "cowardly hair" seems to have stopped charging rearward. Or at least slowed down.
It may be my imagination, but honestly, I am not finding so much hair on my comb these days.
Too, I believe my hair is getting a little luster back, for I have spent several weeks now using the mildest of tonics (my doc says they are O.K. if used conservatively, that even too much water can drown a person).
I'm now washing my noggin twice a week, not enough to make it look like a worn-out rug or my sheep dog when he comes in out of the rain, but enough to keep it dust-free and unclogged in the pores.
I'm joining up on nutrition now. I'm releasing from my Fat Boy's book what foods to eat to promote better health, and I'm keeping track of my vitamin count to make sure I am not one of those people with flat stomachs, yet "starving from malnutrition."
WHAT IS MORE, I'm not upsetting my mind with worry. I'm trying to take things in my stride. Not trying to do everything today. Using a little manna.
Fact is, I took three weeks' vacation this year instead of two. Instead of motorizing madly to some resort, burning up nerves and pistons, I flew to Mexico and really relaxed.
In Merida, Mexico, I learned about another hair treatment. I was tempted to try it, but my wife said "Nix," wasn't I getting along better by not thinking about my hair?
Only one more time I "fell off the wagon" and took to the bottle, that is, the tonic bottle.
Somehow or other you always feel tonics of other lands have more value, and when I found a bottle from Egypt in a Mexican store, I figured maybe some secrets of the Nile were passed on to the maker and I tried it.
TWO DAYS LATER my wife complained of the enormous number of flies. For awhile I figured it was the area we were in, but suddenly it dawned on me it was my tonic they were after.
I bathed that night hard and fast and swore never again to be tempted with fancy hair stuff until I had given my doc's program an honest try.
I did watch my diet though. I ate dark breads with lots of wheat germ. I ate proteins galore such as chicken, fish and meats. I had cheese and fruits for dessert.
I began to notice, or rather the wife did first, that I wasn't scratching my head so much so often. Maybe cleanliness was removing the itch.
Nor was I brushing off those invisible butterflies any more on my shoulder, so I guess my nerves were relaxing, and I was improving on my physical and mental well-being which reflected in all parts of Elmer, including his hair.

Bail Jumper Suspect In Triple Killing

LOS ANGELES (UP) — A 34-year-old golf caddy today faced questioning about the murders of three boys in Chicago after local authorities eliminated him as a suspect in the sex slaying of a Hollywood nurse.
Charles Dahlquist was being held pending the arrival of Chicago authorities. He had jumped bail in Chicago on a sex perversion charge in 1955. He indicated he would waive extradition and return to Chicago.
DAHLQUIST was picked up Wednesday by police on a traffic violation and a check revealed he was driving a stolen car. Chicago police said they had new evidence which might link Dahlquist with the slayings of John Schuessler, 13, his brother, Anton, 11, and Robert Peterson, 13, in October, 1955.

Local authorities after intensive questioning virtually cleared Dahlquist of suspicion in the murder of Marjorie Hipperson in her apartment Monday. Officers said fingerprints found in Miss Hipperson's apartment did not match those of Dahlquist.
Police believe that a depraved prowler strangled the pretty nurse with her silk stockings after beating and attacking her.
NEW MODERATOR To Pick Delegates
NEW CONCORD, Ohio (UP) — Dr. Robert N. Montgomery, newly elected moderator of the United Presbyterian Church of New America, was to name delegates to 20 committees as business sessions at the church's 99th general assembly got under way today.
Dr. Montgomery, president of Muskingum College, elected moderator Wednesday night to succeed Dr. Robert W. Gibson, president of McCormick (Ill.) College.
The new moderator was elected over two other candidates. Dr. C. T. R. Yeates of Des Moines, Iowa and Dr. John Simpson of Oak Park, Ill.

NOT SACRED!

BLOXI, Miss. — Police are checking for clues in the theft of three items which disappeared during the annual meeting of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Association.
Two police areas and a parking meter were stolen Wednesday from the convention's exhibition hall.
Nor was I brushing off those invisible butterflies any more on my shoulder, so I guess my nerves were relaxing, and I was improving on my physical and mental well-being which reflected in all parts of Elmer, including his hair.

Calls Arctic Open Skies Plan 'Comical'

HELSINKI, Finland (UP)—Soviet party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev said today the idea of an Arctic open skies inspection zone sounded "quite comical."
It is "quite comical to think of an inspection zone in an area of ice and snow," Khrushchev told a final day news conference here.
He did not elaborate except to say that the idea of inspection zones had not met with approval in the West after Russia had produced a Far East-Alaska-Western U. S. zone at the London disarmament talks.
The proposal was an outgrowth of President Eisenhower's original "open skies" plan for aerial reconnaissance to detect any buildup for attack by East or West.

KHRUSHCHEV SPOKE at a news conference winding up his visit here today. He said the Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin's visit here. Bulganin did not speak at the news conference. On German reunification, Khrushchev said there can be no solution to the problem "behind the German peoples' backs" and that the Germans must settle the problems themselves.
He said Russia was a "bit perturbed" by Denmark's and Norway's adherence to the NATO pact, a repetition of earlier Soviet statements of disapproval.
Khrushchev said he and Bulganin planned to visit certain other foreign countries this year but that these would not be announced immediately.

Sheldon Firemen Held Monthly Dinner Meeting

SHELDON (JNS)—The monthly firemen's dinner was held Tuesday evening in the fire hall.
Following the dinner, Chief Harold Marketto conducted the business meeting. It was reported there were no fires during May.
The Eastern Illinois Fire Association will meet in Beaverville on June 26, it was announced.
Russell Jensen, "explorer," scout was awarded a fireman's merit badge.
The pre-school class of the Community Bible School visited the fire house on Wednesday morning. Assistant chief James Eagle conducted a tour of the building and let each child climb through the cab of the fire truck and ring the fire bell.

Tribesmen Slay 45 To 60 In India

CALCUTTA, India (UP)—Rebel Naga tribesmen hacked to death 45 to 60 of the 80 male members of a Naga village and kidnapped the victims' wives, reports from Assam today.
The head-hunting tribesmen who inhabit the wilderness of Assam in far northeastern India near the Tibetan border have been in revolt against the New Delhi government for months.

Seek To Link Marcus Slaying To $600,000 Cook Fund Shortage

CHICAGO (UP)—An ex-banker's gang-style murder may be solved by an investigation of a $600,000 shortage in county funds, Cook County State's Atty. Benjamin Adamowski said Wednesday.
Adamowski said he had found a "direct tie-in" between the slaying of banker Leon Marcus and the missing funds.
"If we keep digging, this might lead us to the individuals who were interested in disposing of the money," Adamowski said.
Marcus, 61, was kidnapped on a South Side street March 31, and a few minutes later, was shot to death. His body was dumped in a vacant lot. His killers have not been found.
Adamowski, who heads an investigation of the Cook County fund shortage, said Marcus personally approved a $3,654 check fraudulently drawn against the county. It was cashed at the Southmoor bank, he said.
Adamowski said money from the phony county check went to Lionel Ives, a South Side gambler and a friend of Marcus. Ives also was one of the organizers of the Southmoor bank.
Ives, 47, is now reported to be living in Florida. Questioned after the slaying, he told police he knows no reason why anyone would want to kill Marcus.
Another fake check drawn on the county and cashed at the Southmoor bank was turned up, Adamowski said. This one was for $7,408 and also went to Ives, the state's attorney said. He said he "suspected" his check also was personally approved by Marcus.
Both fake checks were made out to an Edward A. Morin, Adamowski said he believed the name to be "fictitious."
The checks were among $34,000 repaid to the county by former treasury employees, who were suspended when the shortage was discovered in the tax foreclosure department.

Donovan High Alumni Holds Banquet, Dance

DONOVAN (JNS)—The Donovan High School Alumni banquet and dance was held in the high school Saturday evening.
A total of 162 were present at the dinner served by sophomore class members and their mothers, under the supervision of Mrs. Irene Stuckey.
Ralph Moore, a former teacher, was master of ceremonies. The class of 1952 was honored as the 25 year group of which nine were present.
Musical numbers during the dinner were performed by Jack Tatro, Wayne Langellier and Karen Norie.
The decorations were red and white. Mary Dewitt of Martinton had charge of arrangements and Duane Light was appointed chairman for the coming year.
MR. AND MRS. Ivan Johnson and sons of Bloomington were Saturday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bard.

Ex-Showgirl Peggy Hopkins Joyce Dies

NEW YORK (UP) — Peggy Hopkins Joyce, former Broadway showgirl whose six marriages made her an international celebrity, died Wednesday night of throat cancer.

Andrew C. Meyer, her sixth husband, was at her bedside in the Memorial Center for cancer and allied diseases.

The blonde, blue-eyed beauty was born Marguerite Upton, 64 years ago in Farmville, Va. Her father was a barber.

ALTHOUGH SHE was one of Florenz Ziegfeld's "Glorified American Girls," and also "appeared in Earl Carroll's 'Vanities,'" it was her matrimonial ventures during the 1920s and 1930s that brought her international publicity.

Mrs. Joyce ran away from school at the age of 16 to marry Everett Archer of Denver in 1910. Her first marriage was annulled six months later.

Her next matrimonial venture was with Washington attorney, Sherburne Hopkins, from whom she later was divorced.

During a stage appearance in Chicago she met James Stanley Joyce, a wealthy lumberman.

They were married in 1920 and divorced a year later. Joyce gave up her career to become a housewife.

She did not marry again for 17 years. Miss Joyce's fifth marriage was to Anthony Easton, a British-born engineer, in 1945.

"You can say this is the last marriage," she said at the time. It too ended in divorce.

Stolen Treasure Found On Arthur Godfrey Property

MIAMI BEACH (UP) — Arthur Godfrey's oceanfront property has yielded a $100,000 "hidden treasure" of stolen bonds and jewelry which police said two convicts had buried in the sand.

Detectives using a rough map drawn by the convicts now confined in Mobile Ala., on robbery convictions led detectives Wednesday to three strong boxes buried under a sand dune.

Police said the bonds, $75,825 in non-negotiable U.S. savings certificates and upwards of $25,000 in transferable utility stocks, were buried 300 yards north of the Kenilworth Hotel, owned by the television star.

Officers said Godfrey knew nothing about the cache on his property.

Chicago GI Held For Murder Of 'Warm Friend'

HONOLULU (UP) — Army authorities at Schofield Barracks have announced that PFC John Costello, 22, Chicago, will be court-martialed for the fatal shooting of another soldier.

Costello was charged with admitted firing the shot from his carbine which struck Pfc. Louis Bradley, 22, East St. Louis, Ill., in the head May 29, killing him instantly.

Costello, who was on guard duty at the time, said the shooting was accidental.

Costello and Bradley were said to have been "warm friends" since their basic training days.

"There had been no bad blood between them," the spokesman said. Costello was charged with unpremeditated homicide which carries a maximum penalty of life imprisonment.

Billy's Crusade Has New York Talking Religion

BY LOUIS CASSELL

NEW YORK (UP)—Is Billy Graham's New York crusade a "success?"

The answer depends on what measuring stick you use. If you expected the crusade to produce an overnight transformation in the morals and manners of Babylon-on-the-Hudson, you will be disappointed.

There seem to be just as many bars on 52nd Street, just as many drunks wandering along Times Square, just as many nea-neoed girls cavorting in the night clubs, just as many avarice in the canyons of Wall Street, as there was before Billy Graham came to town. There is one immediately detectable difference: Religion has become a topic of conversation. It is by no means the only, or even the main, topic. But you do hear people talking about the crusade, sometimes jestingly, sometimes very earnestly, in places where the name of Jesus Christ has not been spoken except in blasphemy for many years.

IN PURELY statistical terms, the meetings which began May 15 in Madison Square Garden have been the most successful Graham has ever conducted. Attendance to date has averaged 17,000 nightly, close to the seating capacity of the Garden. On several evenings, the crowd has been so great that 2,000 or more had to be turned away. The number of people coming forward to make "devotion" or "Christ"—Graham calls them "inquirers"—rather than "converts" has averaged 575 each night and on occasion had approached 1,000.

With the crusade now extended until July 27, it seems likely that Graham's total New York audience will exceed 1 million. The response is doubly impressive when you take into account the fact that only about 8 per cent of the city's residents are Protestants like Graham, while 27 per cent are Roman Catholics, 10 per cent are Jews, and 55 per cent have no church affiliation.

THE SHARPEST critics of the Graham crusade have come from among Protestants, who dislike the methods of highly-organized evangelism and doubt the value of mass conversions in a revival atmosphere.

The Christian Century, an old and respected magazine with a wide circulation among Protestant clergymen of all major denominations, has asserted in editorials that "there is something horrifying in this monstrous juggernaut rolling over every sensitivity to its sure triumph."

Others, like theologian Reinhold Niebuhr and Dean Francis B. Sayre of Washington Episcopal Cathedral, have accused Graham of stressing personal reform at the expense of social reform, of failing to put enough emphasis on the "collective sins" of society such as racial discrimination.

Graham has also come under fire from extreme fundamentalists, who protest his refusal to steer converts to strictly "evangelical" churches; from theological liberals who boggle at his insistence on taking quite literally what the Bible says about sin and salvation, heaven and hell; and from middle-of-the-road Protestants who worry about the disillusionment or despair that may come to "inquirers" who discover that instantaneous conversion at a revival meeting is only the first step in a long process of growth in grace which must continue throughout a Christian's life.

I asked Graham about these criticisms and mixings during a long private interview in his hotel suite. He declined to talk about some of the sharper, more personal attacks.

"There are enough divisions among Christians already," he said. "I decided a long time ago that I wouldn't answer some of these things. I don't believe the Lord called me to add to the controversy in His family."

NO DOGMA OR ORIGINALITY. MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Chairman in charge of judging student houses decorations for the University of Wisconsin's football homecoming are up in arms about the competitors' lack of originality. The chairman says every theme submitted to the committee by student houses so far has been based on the same song title "You Ain't Nothing But a Hound Dog."

Ruth Millett Teens Can Share Work At Home

Nobody pretends that there is a single cause for the alarming rise in juvenile delinquency in the so-called "good times" our country is enjoying. But most of those who have made a study of the breakdown of parental authority and the rise in juvenile crime point out that the "lack of chores" for children to do is one reason.

It's true that a child brought up in an apartment or in a house on a small suburban lot isn't needed as much to help with everyday chores as one brought up on a farm. But in running any home there are still plenty of chores that have to be done every day. It's not from a lack of chores to do that today's older children and teenagers are suffering. They are suffering from the modern notion of parents that their children must be free to have a good time, while the parents do all the drudgery.

I'll wager you know parents with high school age sons who either hire someone to use a power mower or get out and do it themselves. Either way it is easier than telling Junior that keeping the lawn mowed and trimmed is his responsibility.

AND MANY A housewife does all the yard work while her teenagers ride around in the family car "looking for something to do." It may be good for the housewife's figure, but it isn't very good for the character of her teenage children.

In any home today, no matter how many labor-saving devices there are, there is plenty of work that could be shared by every member of the family. Sharing this work would not only keep children busy, it would make the leisure time they earn by doing their share of the work prized enough to be enjoyed.

With summer here, parents would do better to demand some help from their children than to turn them loose to simply have fun all day, every day.

For A Better Fit—Alter Your Middle Measurement

By IDA JEAN KAIN

The typically feminine phrase "I have nothing to fit to wear" really means your present wardrobe no longer fits. Also, the middle measurement has spread. What happens to the fine network of muscles designed to brace the front and hug the waist at the side boundaries? As time goes along, they lose their grip . . . their tone.

The muscles that form the abdominal wall are probably the most neglected in the body. Due to modern living, we tend to take less and less physical activity. Every day activities do not provide sufficient exercise to keep these important muscles toned. Consequently, they become soft, lax and fat infiltrated. The spread is on . . . worse, you feel dragged down.

Specific conditioning exercises are needed to restore tone to the long front muscles and the side abdominal muscles.

Position: Sit on floor, with feet wide apart. Lean back as far as you can without losing balance, then place palms of hands flat on floor, side back.

Movement: Without shifting position of the body, place hands on hips—the stomach muscles are at work. Hold for a 10-second count of six. Repeat three times.

To progress with this bracing exercise . . . from the same lean back starting position, place hands behind head (instead of on hips). Again hold for slow count of six. Repeat three times.

Position: Lie on back, both knees pulled to chest.

Movement: Clasp hands around knees and roll forward to sitting position.

Give Beauty Desk Room

By JEANNE D'ARCY

ENVIRONMENT'S important. Keep this in mind if you find it hard to settle down and get going when 9 a.m. rolls around and you're at your office desk feeling as though you'd like to do nothing at all.

Maybe you need to feminize that desk, and add a few little accessories that are nice to look at and that personalize the office for you.

But a word of warning: don't overdo it to such an extent that the boss says: "Horror! Next thing you know, she'll be hanging chintz curtains."

The kind of things we mean are, for example, a gay pottery mug to hold sharpened pencils; maybe a plant or, now that garden weather's with us, a small vase of flowers. It's fun, too, if you have the space for a framed picture or your desk-top that's subject to change when you're out of it or see another color that strikes you fancy.

Of course, no smart secretary's desk is complete without a beauty drawer of aids that will keep her well-groomed during the day and help her to glamorize for an afternoon date.

Be neat when you prepare that station—it will be most-appetizing if the ingredients for it are sliced evenly or cut the same size.

You can add unflavored gelatin to a seasoned clear stock and have a good cold soup. Chill the mixture, then break it up before serving.

Pin Your Hopes On This Snack

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

WANT TO HAVE SOME FUN? Make up a batch of our yeast dough and get yourself some clean non-spring clothespins. Wind strips of the rolled-out dough around the pins and bake. Pull the pins out and fill the "scrolls" with a savory cheese mixture, then reheat and serve with tomato juice or some other cold drink for an unusual party snack.

We kept some of these scrolls in a tightly covered container for about a week, and although they hardened we filled them with the cheese mixture and heated them. We liked them just as well then as we did when they were fresh, because they were so crisp.

Ingredients: 1/2 cup milk, 1/4 cup sugar, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon shortening, 1/2 cup warm (near 100 degrees) water, 1 package active dry yeast, 1/2 (about) cups sifted flour.

Momence School Board Reviews Tax Situation

MOMENCE (JNS) — The Board of Education was designated by the school board Monday to prepare a tentative budget for the 1957-58 school year for filing with the board secretary.

During the meeting, major attention was given to district tax data. Charts were presented showing that the present assessed valuation of $19,654,178 represented a decrease of almost $19,000 compared to the 1955 valuation.

The total school rate of $1.71 per $100 is the highest since the formation of the unit. However, in comparison with 12 other Kansas counties, the total school rate is lower than in eight of these and exceeds three. These three communities, with unit districts, have per pupil assessed valuations ranging from $20,900 to $31,700 while Momence is the lowest of county units in this respect, with $19,654.

While on a county basis, schools account for 67.5 per cent of the total bill, in the Momence district this percentage ranges from 53.97 per cent to 63.73 per cent, depending on whether residence is inside or outside the corporate limits.

In the Momence district, lands account for 49.29 per cent or almost half of the total valuation. Lots are 21.18 per cent, personal property, 10.55 per cent, and railroads, 10.4 per cent. The Momence district showed decreases for 1956 while the other townships in the district had slight increases.

Various building items were discussed, with approval given a bid for painting work. A decision was made to replace two previously removed trees on the high school front lawn and a contract was awarded Gaylord Jensen, low bidder, for removing two dead trees at the Elementary School.

The board also considered lunch program finances, unpaid elementary school book rentals, and student insurance cost increases. It postponed discussion of transportation until the July 24 meeting and made reservations for a division meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards.

Housewives Expected To Feature Beef

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef will be the most popular item in grocery "specials" this weekend, and chuck roast, the least expensive cut of beef, will be prominently featured in many places.

In addition, one chain will advertise stuffed turkeys at the normal price for overcooked birds and another will have small turkeys at the price normally charged for larger turkeys.

Still another chain will have a special on the round section of a whole beef at 49 cents a pound. People with freezers can get about 70 pounds of steaks, roasts, stew meat and other portions cut to order.

Also outstanding this week are radishes, last fall's Maine potatoes from storage bins, Romaine and big Boston lettuce and both bunches and topped beets. Listed as good buys are snap beans, cucumbers, asparagus, new potatoes from California and South Carolina growing areas.

Rhubarb again tops the bargains at fruit counters. Oranges, grapefruit and lemons also are good buys.

'Anything Goes' In Decoration Of Cakes

By MARY JEAN HOUDÉ

Special occasion cakes are a specialty with Mrs. Wesley Prault of Clinton. The origin for her decorations can be a magazine picture or just an idea and she says that practice is the secret of success. When the need for a special occasion cake arises, Mrs. Prault advises that imagination be given reign. She says that in cake decoration these days "almost anything goes."

The cook can make the job of decoration easier by using a miniature of some kind, depending upon the occasion.

Mrs. Prault, mother of four, is the former Juanita Mullinax of Kankakee. She is a member of the Clinton unit of the Home Bureau, is a past president of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Peter's Church in Clinton and serves as a den mother. Her children are James, 15; Mickey, 9; Carla Anne, 7; and Vincent, 2.

Suitable cake decoration can go far in making a party or family gathering a success, according to Mrs. Prault. She made up her mind as a child that when she had a family she would make a big occasion of every birthday and special event. She had lost her own mother at an early age and missed some of the "little things" a mother can do to make growing up a pleasure.

The recipe for decorating the cake pictured, which is for a graduation party, and others from Mrs. Prault's file are printed here:

Graduation Cake
Make a 8-inch layer cake and cup cake. Set the cup cake on the side on top of the cake and frost the cake and cup cake with favorite white frosting.

Cut raisins or chocolate chips in shapes suitable for the eyes and eyebrows and put in position on cup cake. A buttercream chip may be used for the nose. Draw the mouth with a toothpick dipped in red food coloring.

Use small star tube filled with chocolate frosting to make the hair. Make a bow tie from ribbon and stick on cake. Make desired border for cake.

To make the mortarboard, cut a strip of black construction paper 7 inches long. Staple or scotch tape ends together. Cut points in front and back. Cut 3-inch square of black paper and center base of mortarboard on it; tape together, putting tape inside of cap.

Roll plain paper for diploma and tie with ribbon of class colors. If a gift of currency is to be given, it may be rolled inside the diploma.

The same principle may be used for a small child's cake. Make a clown from the cup cake by substituting a colored miniature marshmallow for the nose and covering an ice cream cone with frosting for the cap. Then decorate in gay colors or colored candies.

Orange Pop Cake
3/4 cup shortening
2 cups sugar
3 eggs
3 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt

Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and beat until smooth and creamy. Sift dry ingredients together and add to first mixture alternately with 1 1/2-cup bottle of orange pop, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Make three 8-inch layers and bake in 30 degree F. oven.

ONE OF MRS. PRULT'S special occasion cakes is pictured, in this case a graduation party cake. The face on top is a cup cake on its side, decorated with raisins, chocolate and buttercream chips and red food coloring. The mortarboard is made of black construction paper and the diploma is made of rolled plain paper. If a gift of currency is to be given, Mrs. Prault suggests rolling it inside the diploma.

Shoppers' Guide

Strawberries, from Michigan, are available for weekend shoppers and the quality is said to be very good. The harvest is in full swing and the market is probably as low as it will get this season. Good strawberries for canning can be purchased for about 25 cents a quart. The freight price is low because they are available from nearby areas.

Potatoes are a little higher in price this week but the market is temporary and they should be cheaper in the next 10 or 15 days. The reason for the rise in price is that we are between shipping seasons in different areas.

Salad vegetables are fairly cheap this weekend. Celery is a good buy and lettuce is expensive but a lot cheaper than it was last week. Tomatoes are reasonable, peppers and cucumbers are priced a little lower and green onions and radishes are cheap.

There is still some home grown asparagus on the market. Green beans are very reasonable and there are good buys in carrots from Texas this weekend.

Novelty items include cantaloupe, which is quite a bit cheaper this weekend, and watermelon, at a very low price for picklers.

Small fruits, such as plums, peaches, cherries, grapes and apricots, are just beginning to arrive locally and are still a little expensive.

Press chocolate pieces into butter. Beat 2 egg whites until stiff. Gradually add 1 cup brown sugar;

Clever Trick For Summer Cooks

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

Your family like plenty of gravy? This recipe is one you may want to try. For not only is there gravy in abundance, but it's special with strips of ham and slices of mushroom added.

The chicken pieces are rolled in flour seasoned with salt, pepper, paprika and monosodium glutamate before being put into the skillet and fried in a small amount of butter or margarine. Then the chicken is removed and kept warm while the gravy is made in the same skillet. This rangtop one-on-one poultry dish is just right for summer cooks.

FRIED CHICKEN WITH HAM AND MUSHROOM GRAVY

Ingredients: 1 broiler - fryer chicken (2 to 2½ pounds ready-to-cook weight), ¼ cup flour, ¾ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup julienne strips cooked ham, 1 can (8 ounces) broiled sliced mushrooms, 1 can (1½ ounces) clear chicken broth, ¼ cup heavy cream, ¼ teaspoon sugar.

Method: Have chicken cut up 2 pieces of breast, 2 wings, 2 drumsticks, 2 second joints, 4 pieces of bonny back. Wash chicken and drain well. On a piece of waxed paper mix together the flour, salt, pepper, paprika and monosodium glutamate. Rub flour mixture into chicken pieces. Heat butter in a 12-inch skillet; add chicken pieces and fry rapidly, turning as necessary, until golden brown. Cover skillet tightly and cook until tender over low heat; browning and cooking will take 30 to 40 minutes. Remove chicken and keep warm. Add ham to drippings in skillet; cook and stir for several minutes over low heat. Stir in flour thoroughly. Add mushrooms, including liquid in can and undiluted chicken broth. Cook and stir constantly over low heat with wooden spoon, scraping up particles adhering to bottom of skillet, until thickened and bubbly. Stir in cream and sugar. Serve gravy separately with fried chicken. Or carefully place chicken pieces, skin side up, back in skillet and reheat over low heat. Before serving fried chicken or reheat in skillet, the two pieces of breast meat will be cut in half to make four. Serve with steamed rice and celery or cranberry-nut marmalade.

ONLY ONE SKILLET is needed in cooking this chicken and gravy - real "gravy" for the cleaner-upper.

Baked Stuffed Egg--A Substitute For Meat

Here is an excellent idea for a good meat substitute in these days of high meat prices--Baked Stuffed Eggs. Mounds of savory yellow egg yolks framed in white and baked in a well-seasoned tomato and mushroom sauce to bubbling goodness lifts these Stuffed Eggs definitely out of the appetizer class--and makes them the hit of your meal. This dish can either be served for luncheon with a light dessert, or for supper with a substantial dessert to polish off the final course. To stuff 12 hard-cooked (boiled 20 minutes) eggs, cut in halves lengthwise. Slip out the yolks and mash with a fork. Add 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon dry mustard and about 6 tablespoons of salad dressing or vinegar or cream (enough to moisten). Refill whites with egg yolk mixtures, heaping it up lightly. Place in casserole. Heat 1 can of tomato soup in top of double boiler. Add ¼ pound butter, one 2-ounce can sliced mushrooms plus the juice from the mushrooms, one 2-ounce can of Tabasco American cheese, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, a dash of Gabel's sauce, and salt and pepper to taste. If too thick, add cream enough to make right sauce consistency. Pour over stuffed eggs. Bake in 325 F. oven for 20 to 30 minutes.

First U.S. Diesel Engine Retired To Hall Of Fame

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (UP)—The "No. 100," the first diesel-electric engine that took the steam out of American railroading, was to retire today.

After 31 years, the little engine built for service on a U. S. railroad—is going to railroad's hall of fame, the Baltimore and Ohio museum in Baltimore.

Although it has less horsepower than some of today's pleasure automobiles, the engine signalled the beginning of the end of steam locomotives in America.

No. 100 spent most of the time chugging around the Jersey Central's freight switching yard in New York City after it went into service in October 1925. Three years ago it was transferred to the line's Elmhurst yard.

The next meeting will be on June 21.

Review Ends, Ships Stay On Exhibit

NORFOLK, Va. (UP)—The great international review fleet today

gala above and began dispersing for the ocean of the world.

The Navy ordered 35 ships of the 15-nation fleet including the American heavy cruiser Des Moines to return to port before dawn.

At the same time, a powerful task group led by the command cruiser Northampton prepared to sail for Rio De Janeiro during the day. The rest of the 11-ship fleet began the difficult precision operation of returning to their Norfolk piers by sunset.

ALL 33 FOREIGN ships were scheduled to return to port with the remaining American ships. The fleet will remain open to the public until Monday.

The Navy estimated that nearly 300,000 people saw the great fleet—mightiest peacetime collection of ships in history—Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson reviewed it Wednesday from the missile cruiser Canberra.

Crowds jammed the grassy dunes and beaches from Norfolk to Cape Henry for good vantage points to watch the international naval celebration of the 350th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown.

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (UP)—A 19-year-old miner buried under 50 tons of shale for 36 hours in a coal mine cave-in was found dead Wednesday night.

Hope had waded for Frank Purnick as the searchers, working in shifts, were hampered by sliding rock and walls of the shaft that had to be shored.

However, Mrs. Elizabeth Purnick was waiting by the cave-in when her son's body was brought out. Also standing by were friends, relatives and the miner's teenage girl friend, Jean Kershner. Miss Kershner collapsed.

Savory Beets Are Less Tart Than Harvard Beets

Several miles east of Gratiot, W. Va., at Thornton, is The Inwood Restaurant. Their fried chicken and baked ham are served with vegetables that have raised in their garden, along with their own homemade jellies and jams. Their Savory Beets are interesting, being not quite as tart as Harvard beets but with a little onion for added flavor. To serve 6:

Saute 2 tablespoons minced onion in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine until tender. Add 2 tablespoons flour and blend. Add 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon granulated sugar and 3 tablespoons vinegar and cook until smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Add 3 cups hot sliced beets, cooked or canned, and heat well.

Club steak—as you like it! Accompanied by tomato slices topped with a little slice of onion, this dinner is one that Dad really deserves. The tomato and onion accompaniment is broiled with the steak while it completes cooking on the second side.

It comes but once a year... Father's Day. There is no finer way to provide tribute to the family provider than through an invitation to a dinner fit for a king. Undoubtedly, steak is the leader in meat talk when planning an entire for Father's Day.

There are many steaks from which to choose... rib, club, T-bone, porterhouse or sirloin. Any of these steaks adds an element of speciality to a meal. For a large family gathering perhaps a sirloin steak would be your choice, but if your family is small, individual club steaks provide a noteworthy entrée. The club steak is the smallest steak in the short loin. As an identifying characteristic, the tenderloin has practically disappeared. All of the steaks which come from the sirloin, short loin and rib sections are tender and therefore can be cooked by dry heat methods... either pan-broiling or broiling depending on the thickness of the steak. Steaks cut 1 inch thick or more

WILTED SPIRITS can get a lift during the summer with tall, frosty glasses of iced coffee prepared in special ways.

Iced Coffee Can Be Made By Many Special Methods

By GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Food and Markets Editor
A tall, frosty glass of strong iced coffee is the perfect restorer of wilted spirits. We asked Ellen Sallendoff, noted expert on coffee preparation, for some suggestions.
Iced coffee can be made in several ways. One of the best and quickest requires hot extra-strength coffee. This compensates for dilution when ice melts in the glass. For four generous servings, brew three measuring cups of water and six standard measures (or 12 level measuring tablespoons) of coffee. Pour hot into tall, ice-filled glasses. Serve with sugar syrup, or sugar and cream. Coffee must be an interesting variation. Fill large, old-fashioned glasses with crushed ice. Pour extra-strength hot coffee into each glass. Serve with twists of lemon peel. (Scarcely a calorie in a gallon.)

Another excellent version of iced coffee, Miss Sallendoff adds, starts when you prepare an extra cup or two of coffee at breakfast. When it cools, pour the coffee into an ice tray and freeze. Then, in the heat of afternoon, you need only make a pot of regular-strength coffee and pour it into glasses filled with coffee ice cubes. Your coffee will be full-strength and full-flavored.

Lawyer Says He Doesn't Recall Killing

CHICAGO (JNS)—Attorney Bailey Stanton's statement that he doesn't remember a shooting in which he was blinded hasn't changed a police conviction he shot and killed his former wife, then shot himself.
Police Wednesday questioned Stanton for the first time since the shooting a week ago. Stanton, a patient in the Illinois Masonic Hospital, is recovering from a pistol wound in his head which severed an optic nerve. Physicians said it was doubtful he will ever see again.
Stanton, 44, told Police Capt. Leroy Stiffert he remembered having breakfast with his ex-wife, Dr. Margaret Stanton, 46, at a restaurant and walking toward her auto in which the shootings occurred. But he insisted he could recall nothing beyond walking toward the auto.
STIFFERT READ to Stanton a long letter in which Stanton said he and his former wife had entered a "suicide pact" as the only way to settle their difficulties. Stanton said he wrote some portions of the letter, but certainly not those portions referring to a suicide pact and to funeral arrangements. Police had found in Dr. Stanton's purse a telegram purportedly from Stanton begging her not to marry Dr. Max Forstman, asked about that, Stanton said his former wife had asked him to marry her while they were in the restaurant. The questioning was interrupted by the arrival of Stanton's lawyer, Richard Gorman, who advised Stanton not to answer any further questions.
Capt. Stiffert told, however, Stanton's reply had not altered police convictions that he killed Dr. Stanton then shot himself.

Curbs To Space Travel Listed By Scientists

SAN FRANCISCO (JNS)—Three curbs may space travel until scientists perfect auxiliary power systems to keep occupants of the rocket from suffocating, say three rocket experts said today. Development of these systems will require about as much effort as the main engine of a rocket ship, D. G. Burdick, P. L. Wood and J. D'Abaco told the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Simple auxiliary power systems already are in use in rockets for steering, pumping fuel, sending radio signals and receiving instructions from control posts. However, the big space ships additionally will need independent power sources to supply heat, cabin pressure and even a substitute for gravity, said the three, from Aerojet-General Corp. Aerojet is a producer of large rockets.

Cards Win 8th In Row; Game Out

Reds, Phillies Fizzle As St. Louis Spurts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The St. Louis Cardinals, rocketing along while the rest of the hot shots fizzle, finally have themselves a spot in the National League's first division—a fourth-place berth that's only a game removed from the lead.

In a week's time, the Cards have won eight in a row, making up 5½ games on the leaders in a rash that's been carried by three pitchers and a couple of old pros named Stan Musial and Del Ennis. Wednesday night they defeated Philadelphia 4-0 to gain a share of fourth with the falling Phils.

First-place Cincinnati was slugged a third time in succession by seventh-place Pittsburgh, this time in a 4-3, 10-inning decision. That left the Redlegs half a game ahead, five percentage points in front of Milwaukee and Brooklyn, deadlocked for second after the Dodgers put an end to a four-game skid with an 11-9 victory over the Braves.

THE NEW YORK Giants, with all their runs unearned, defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in the other NL game.

Stock Cars Try For More Marks Friday

Officials of the Kankakee Fairgrounds Speedway hope to get their schedule of night stock car races underway Friday.

Promoters thwarted the weatherman, who had cancelled two previous Friday shows, by holding the races rained out last Friday on Sunday afternoon and the program produced three record-breaking performances.

Two of the three marks were set by Harry Montgomery of Montgomery, Ill., who won the 10-lap race in 3:21.69.

He also hung up a new mark of 4:03.01 in the 12-lap handicap event. The third record was the 118.53 timing of Don Walzberg in the one-lap trial run.

Track officials say that the three records prove what they have convinced the fans: that the track and cars are faster than ever before.

Sox Win But Oh! That Mickey Mantle!

CHICAGO (U)—Thousands of fans filed out of Comiskey Park early today shivering because of the wee-hour chill and the awesome display of power of Mickey Mantle.

The Chicago White Sox won the marathon game from the New York Yankees, 7 to 6, and thereby stretched their American League lead over the Yanks to five games, but Mantle stole the slugging show.

Mighty Mickey was terrific. He sent a mass shudder through the crowd of 40,033 in the ninth by blasting a two-run, 425-foot homer into the center field bullpen that left the Yankees just one run behind the Sox.

THAT ONE WAS Mantle's eighteenth of the season. He clouted the Sox in the first inning.

He also hit a home run in the second and a two-run homer in the fourth. He collected four hits in five times at bat during the long evening. Mantle now is hitting at .378 clip, topped only by Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox with .383.

All told, there were 25 hits in the game—14 by New York and 11 by Chicago.

Bill Skowron and Hank Bauer also belted home runs for the Yankees and Walt Dropo and Jim Rivera hit homers for the White Sox.

It was a night to remember, and a long one too. The game was delayed and interrupted by rain, and didn't end until 12:20 a.m. CDT.

Mantle's homer in the first and Skowron's home run in the second gave the Sox a 2-0 lead. But Dropo's two-run homer in the Sox half of the second tied the score.

A hit batsman and three singles in the fourth gave the Sox two runs and a down on more other drivers.

THE NEW HAVEN event promises to be a hotly contested one at the track. Previously known as the "Big Boy" race, the 10-lap trial run offers cash to the first three finishers and points to be credited toward the season championship system.

Time trials start, as usual, at 7:30 o'clock and the races at 8:30.

Ho Hum! 'Stan' The Man' Sets Another Record

PHILADELPHIA (U)—In about a week the St. Louis Cardinals' most valuable, and certainly most popular player, a fellow by the name of Stan Musial, will step to the plate somewhere in a National League park and another record will be broken.

There will be an announcement over the public address system. The fans, however partisan and in whatever city, will cheer and they'll really mean it. And the sportswriters and announcers will make quite a thing of it.

That's the kind of person he is, this big husky 36-year-old power hitter, infielder, outfielder and all around nice guy.

MUSIAL APPEARED at Comiskey Stadium Wednesday night in a 10-inning game, setting a National League record and promptly slashed out a single for the first hit of the ball game.

The Cards later won 4-0 from the Philadelphia Phillies.

He's been setting these records almost as long as he's been getting those hits. But the boredom of repetition isn't the reason Stan takes record breaking so seriously. It's just his nature. It's just his nature to be the quiet unassuming person that he is.

At a post-game party in the Cardinals club house honoring their favorite teammate, someone asked: "What's the difference between your game and the first one you ever played?"

"IN THIS ONE," came the typical Musial reply. "I wasn't nervous."

Musial's appearance Wednesday night broke a record set by Gus Suhr, former Pittsburgh Pirates pitcher, between 1931 and 1937. Stan started his current string on opening day of the 1952 season. The genial Red Bird now ranks fifth among the all-time iron men of the majors behind the immortal Lou Gehrig, who had a record of 2,139 consecutive appearances; Everett Scott; Joe Sewell and Eddie Yost.

Gehrig didn't miss a game in 13 consecutive seasons. Musial has played in nine full seasons and has appeared in 2,192 of his team's 2,229 games since he joined the club 14 years ago.

A. O. Smith took over first place in the Jaycee Little League Wednesday when Ron Chandler hurling a no-hit, no-run game to lead his mates to a 6-0 win over previous leader Sinclair.

In another game Dairy Queen edged Topping 4-2.

Chandler was up against Sinclair's Tom Moriarty who had pitched two consecutive no-hitters but he was more than a match for the no-hit kid. Chandler gave up three walks during the tilt and received excellent fielding support from his mates.

The Smith team landed on Moriarty early as it counted three runs in the first inning. It gained three more insurance runs in the fourth but Chandler didn't need them. Johnny Hedlin paced the winners at bat with three singles.

Dairy Queen broke a 3-2 deadlock with a run in the final inning to nip Topping. The winners had jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning only to see Topping get back two of the tallies in the second and knot the count with a run in the fourth. Greg Housheffer gave up one hit in getting the win. Bob Belter was picked for three safeties in suffering the loss.

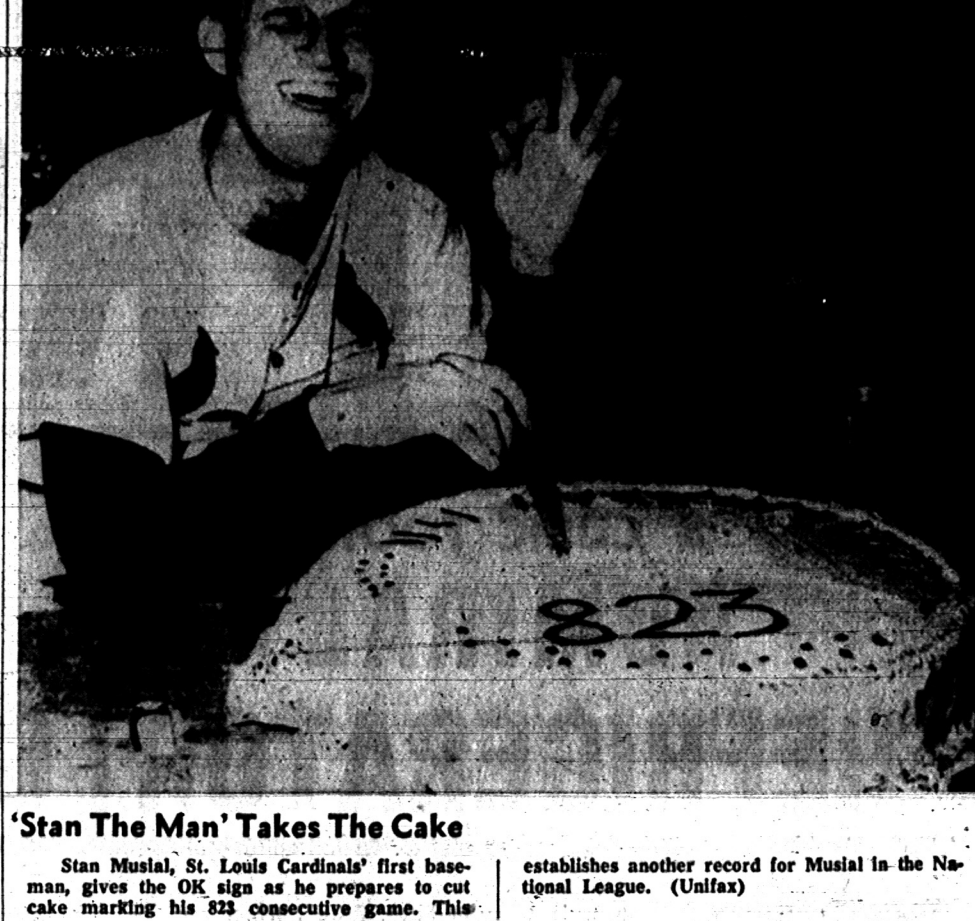

"Friday the league will mark Little League Foundation Day which has been proclaimed by Gov. William Siratton. Proceeds from the evening will go to the foundation."

Booming Bat May Lead Luke Easter Back To Majors

BY UNITED PRESS
Dancing feet and a booming bat add up to a combination that may rocket gigantic Luke Easter of the Buffalo Bisons right back into the major leagues.

The former Cleveland Indian slugger, pushing 38 and pushing back to a combination that may rocket gigantic Luke Easter of the Buffalo Bisons right back into the major leagues.

International League hurlers, bashed his 15th homer Wednesday night to highlight Buffalo's 4-1 triumph over the league-leading Richmond Virginians. Easter's homer topped a four-run second inning.

Satchel Paige, the pitcher who rolls along like an old man river, stopped a six-game Miami losing streak as he relieved teammate Earl Huggins to give the Marlins a 6-4 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs. The defending pennant winners took the nightcap, 5-4, behind Humberto Robinson.

tended right along—that the track and cars are faster than ever before.

Larry Jackson, a relief pitcher gone square, won his eighth of the season, with a nine-hitter. The right-hander, who has been in the eight-game string, as have veteran Murry Dickson and bonus kid Lanky McDaniel.

The Dodgers had a 9-1 lead after two innings as winless Gene Charlie Neal drove in the winning run with a single.

Four Brooklyn runs with a triple and home run, Frank Torre, Ed Matthews, and Hank Aaron, who home runs in the last two frames for the Braves. Ed Koebuck, relieving Johnny Podres, needed relief himself to win his first.

MATTHEWS' home run was his 20th in the majors, a club record. Wally Berger hit 199 for the old Boston-Milwaukee record.

The Redlegs blew a 3-1 lead. A single by Gene Freese beat reliever Tom Acker. Roy Face won it in relief. Ted Kuszewski, just off the disabled list, hit into a forecourt in a pinch-hit try—his first appearance with the Redlegs since April 25.

Mantle, who now has 18 home runs after hitting seven in eight games and four in his last three, was 4-for-5, throwing a late score into the Sox with a two-run, 425-foot homer in the ninth. Walt Dropo batted in three for Chicago, with a two-run homer that tied it in the second and a single that brought across the first of two fourth-inning markers that gave the Sox the lead for keeps. Yanks Hank Bauer and Bill Skowron and Jim Rivera of Chicago also homered.

JACK HARSHMAN failed to finish, but won his second in 10 decisions with the Yankees, Johnny Rock's last.

Cleveland scored five runs in the second, four of them unearned as loser Bob Porterfield uncorked an error and also balked. Al Smith singled home a pair in the big frame, which brought Don Mossi a fourth victory.

Jim Bunning fanned seven in a six-hitter against the Orioles. He walked none, but gave up homers to Bob Nieman and Bob Boyd in winning his sixth. J. W. Porter smacked a two-run homer off loser Art Ceccarelli.

Willie Mays', three-run homer tied it for the Giants in the sixth. Then he stole third in the ninth and jogged home with the winner as catcher Cal Neuman threw wild on the theft. Al Worthington won his seventh in relief.

A Hero One Day—A Bum The Next

CHICAGO (U)—Lindy Faragalli of Paterson, N. J., hit the jackpot and then the skids—in the "bowling stars" tourney.

Faragalli got the journey off to a spectacular start Tuesday by beating two opponents and winning $14,100 in various prizes. But Wednesday he was defeated by George Young of Detroit.

Each match winner continues to face challengers until he is defeated. Prizes totaling $50,000 are posted for the tournament, which will run until June 20. Films of the matches will be shown next fall on television.
