First Night On New Job Is A Headache

Leonard Ray Miller of Edgewood will not forget his first night on the job as tower operator at Manteno for the Illinois Central Railroad. During a routine check of his station about 9 p.m. Wednesday, Miller was struck on the back of the head by a unknown assailant and robbed of between $30 and $35.

The 18-year-old operator was from where the brakeman found Miller.

The young operator was taken to Hillman Memorial Hospital for treatment to an injured right knee. His knee was injured when he fell to the bottom of the stairs. He apparently suffered no serious head injury from being struck.

Authorities speculate that the assailant was hiding in a small coal shed near the tower, and crept up behind Miller as he began to go up the stairs.

Railroad authorities said that the signal board at Manteno always shows red and must be cleared by the tower operator for each train that passes.

When the board showed red Wednesday night both a north and south bound train stopped. The brakeman of one of the trains went to the tower to see what the trouble was and found Miller.

The brakeman got Miller to his feet and helped him up to the tower, where Miller showed him Miller's keys which he used to clear the tracks so both trains could proceed.

"The Kankakee office of the Illinois Central was notified of the incident and a new tower operator was dispatched."

probably will be unnecessary," Nickerson said.

"Air Force officers accept, glamorize and publicize this incessantly," he said. "The Department of Defense has been sold on it far more than justified by the proven facts."

HE LATER CALLED this a "gross" overemphasis within the department.

He said the other theory called for atomic bombardment of enemy targets, then quick assault and hold action by ground forces in accordance with the proven concept of warfare.

Sparking loudly and rapidly, the square-jawed 41-year-old colonel said that Soviet armies were constantly poised at the border of our Allies, Nickerson said, our foreign bases would be overrun, resources lost and the prospects of "total defeat" would be present.

"It is foolish for any service to claim that it is the front line," Nickerson said. "The Army just wants to say that its claim for enough men, weapons and troops is just as valid as that of any other service."

Nickerson's appearance was conducted by his special defense counsel, Ray H. Jenkins, but Nickerson did not appear at the trial.

Warnings Planned For Fast Speed Law Violators

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—State Police Chief William H. Morris said today Illinois state troopers will be given a "reasonable amount of time" to adjust to the new 55 mile per hour speed limit which goes into effect July 1.

"This does not mean we will allow every passenger car motorist to drive at any speed he chooses, but we will allow a slight consideration in judging speeds during this period," Morris said.

He reminded that "the new Illinois speed limits are absolute and there will be no excuses with regard to a violation for vehicles in each category, regardless of the time of day."

There won't be any adjustment period for trucks and buses. They "will be held to the new limits immediately or be subject to arrest," Morris said.

The new law limits buses to 60 miles an hour, trucks under four tons to 55 miles and trucks over four tons to 50 miles.

BILL TO—

Franklin's bill narrows existing prohibitions against a state agency's direct or indirect interest in the state's financial affairs.

The bill specifically forbids a state agency from having any interest in a company doing state business and from combining members of its family to hold more than 15 percent interest.

Measures setting up a state division of narcotics control and stiffening provisions aimed at curbing dope peddlers also cleared the House.

Other Senate measures adopted in the House include biennial appropriations of $317,000 for the Illinois State Police and a bill giving counties under 75,000 population authority to create the office of the largest cities in Illinois without a paved runway. The importance of an improved airport for the use of present local industries and for future industrial development has been cited many times by the local Chamber of Commerce and industry officials.

Federal and state governments are willing to share in construction of local airports because of their value to civilian defense, for use in time of national disasters,

Try This Test If You Fear Alcoholism

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of dispatches on alcoholism. It reports on the symptoms of this "progressive disease" and offers a test for anyone who fears that he is on the way to becoming one of its five million victims.)

WASHINGTON (UP)—Alcoholism creeps up on you. Medical history records a few cases in which people seemed to become alcoholics as soon as they started drinking. Their susceptibility was so great that addiction came virtually with their first drink.

Duke, Queen In Highway Crash

LONDON (UP)—The Duke of Edinburgh smacked his luxurious car into a tiny, pre-war Morris Minor a few hours after he had made an appeal for careful driving in a London speech. The Duke was driving Queen Elizabeth to a dinner at Windsor Castle in honor of the Commonwealth prime ministers when his fast Lagonda hit the other car. No one was injured.

Newton County Hospital Report Set For Tonight

MORRIS, Ind. (INS)—Subscriptions to the George Ade Memorial Hospital Building Fund Campaign reached $200,000 at Monday night's Goodland-Kentland report meeting in Goodland.

Final report in the drive is set for tonight at the Goodland Methodist Church. This is being held as a victory report and leaders are hopeful of coming very near the $250,000 goal for the building of the hospital and the restoration of the Ade home at Hazelton.

Monday's figures showed an increase of $43,000 over the total at the end of the first round of report meetings last Thursday, when the amount subscribed stood at $157,712.

"Friday night's report meeting for Brook and the northern end of the county increased the fund to $212,106, to start the second round of report meetings."

Speaking of the success of the drive, Harry Lawrence, campaign chairman, said, "The total sum raised is an overwhelming demonstration of the desire of the people of this county to have their own hospital. The speed with which the job is being done indicates either driver reported to our more than 300 campaign volunteers."

Lawrence also said solicitation would continue until every prospect had been given an opportunity to make subscription to the hospital fund. An estimated 1,000 prospects are still to be solicited.

In the short space of time since the general kick-off on June 16, volunteer solicitors have made calls on more than 1,500 prospects. Subscriptions have been received from every area in the county.

General gifts received in the week of solicitation amounts to $47,522 from nearly 500 contributors, according to John Cochran, general gifts chairman. Associate chairmen directing the solicitation in each area are Jesse McMullan, Kentland; Lorain Hawn, Goodland; Ralph Adamson, Brook; Dale Weston, Mt. Airy; Mrs. Barbara Hoss, Morocco; Earl Johnson, Lake Village; and Frank Childers, Thayer.

Advance gifts to the campaign from solicitation conducted before the general kick-off total $153,938 from 149 subscribers.

But the overwhelming majority of alcoholics slip gradually into the stage of uncontrolled habituation, usually after years of what they regard as "social" or "moderate" drinking. They deny, even to themselves, that they are becoming alcoholics. And they cherish their delusion with many popular misconceptions about the nature and symptoms of alcoholism.

The best hope of arresting the spread of alcoholism, authorities say, lies in persuading its potential victims to recognize the danger signals and to seek competent help NOW.

AND WHAT ARE THE DANGER SIGNALS?
"The first sign of abnormal drinking," says Dr. Paul H. Stevenson, alcoholism expert of the National Institute of Mental Health, "is apt to be a change in the person's drinking pattern."

Mrs. Mary Mann, a recovered alcoholic who is now executive director of the National Council on Alcoholism, listed several other "early symptoms" of alcoholism:
"Making promises about drinking."
"Lying about the amount of frequency of drinking."
"Taking a drink BEFORE going to a party or appointment where drinks undoubtedly will be served."

Feeling the necessity to have drinks at certain regular times, and with any special event.
Feeling that you "must" have drinks for weariness, nerves, or to "take the edge off." "Feeling that you are not a daily drinker (and some alcoholics confine their drinking to weekends) then the ration should be for those days on which you do customarily drink. Decide that you will stick to this ration for a fixed period, at least three months, beginning now. You must not exceed the ration under any circumstances whatever — weddings, funerals, sudden death of a friend, inheritance or promotion. No "special occasions" or other excuses must be allowed, or you have flunked the test.

Any normal drinker, even one used to drinking regularly and fairly heavily, should be able to pass the test. But the chances are a hundred to one against a true alcoholic passing it—or even being willing to try it sincerely.

Youth Gets 50 Years For Killing

CHICAGO (U-P)—A teenage gang member, quoted in court as saying "I'm going to get" a Negro, Wednesday was sentenced to 50 years in prison for the hammer murder of a Negro youth at a bus stop.

Joseph Schwartz, 17, was convicted of hammering to death Alvin Palmer, 17-year-old high school honor student.

Eleven other teenagers charged with Palmer's murder agreed to a trial without a jury before Judge Crowley. Their trial, as a group, began after the sentencing of Schwartz. A 12th defendant will be tried later in a separate hearing.

Schwartz denied the attack of Palmer was inspired "by racial reasons as testimony by one gang member indicated. The curly-haired killer gave two accounts of the assault. On Tuesday he testified he was in an "alcoholic state" the night of the murder, March 11. He said he remembered nothing.

Candy Plans To Wed GI In 3 Or 4 Days

KAGOHARA, Japan (U-P)—Candy (Candy) Sweeney said today she and American soldier William S. Girard will be married "in three or four days" at his Army camp.

Girard is restricted to Camp Whittington, awaiting a decision by the U.S. Supreme Court on whether he should be turned over to a Japanese court to be tried for killing a Japanese woman and collecting while on guard duty on a military firing range. The case has kicked up an international furor.

Miss Sweeney said the wedding would be "quiet and simple." The couple had planned to marry in March, but Army permission was withheld because Girard had not obtained the required birth certificate from his home in Ottawa, Ill. The certificate arrived Tuesday.

An officer at Camp Whittington said all necessary documents had been submitted to Girard's unit headquarters in Tokyo, but there was no indication when permission for the marriage would be given.

Miss Sweeney said the wedding would be at the Camp Whittington chapel or at the home of a sergeant friend inside the camp, where the couple have spent their evenings while Girard has been confined to the base.

She said the sergeant will be Girard's best man, but she has not chosen a bridesmaid.

"I don't understand western customs," she explained.

She said she has no idea where they will live after their marriage. Girard is 21 and Miss Sweeney is 17.

Girard's brother Louis said in Osaka he has urged the young GI to marry Miss Sweeney "right away" before Prime Minister Kishi returns from a current visit in the United States. The brother declined to say what connection he thought Kishi's return had with the wedding. The Prime Minister is due in Tokyo July 1.

The .475 rate was established 10 years ago.

Chatsworth Cat Believed Cause Of False Alarm

CHATSORTH (JNS)—A volunteer fireman raced to the American Screen Products Co. at 5:15 a.m. today only to discover it was a false alarm.

A check indicated it must have been a game of cat and mouse or watch the birdy. The only answer available as to the nature of the false alarm seemed to be the firm's several cats.

It is believed one of them must have tripped the alarm, which is connected directly to the fire station, while searching high above the company's floor for its breakfast, mouse or bird.

Aroma Inhalator Squad Summoned

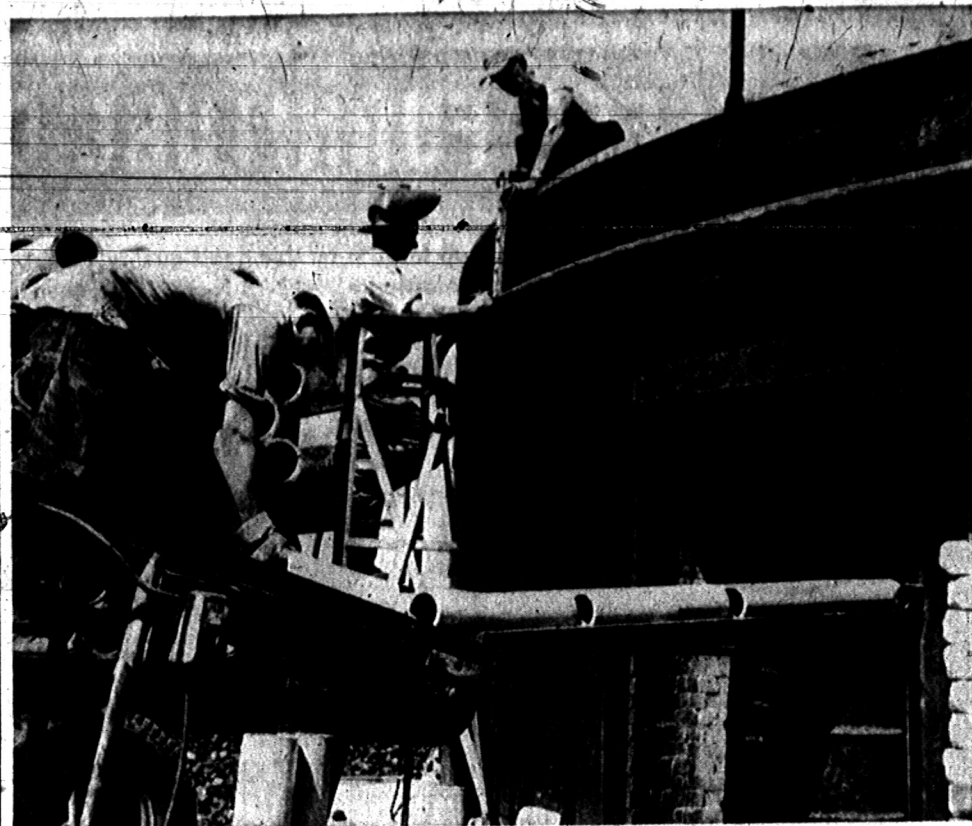

AROMA PARK (JNS)—The Aromatown volunteer fire department, inhalator squad was summoned Wednesday afternoon to the home of Mrs. Lomax Lollar, 21, who had difficulty breathing.

Hubert Spelberg and Ed Anderson administered oxygen. Mrs. Lollar had been playing a card game when the attack occurred.

Plan Reception For S. Wilmington, Gardner Pastor

A potluck dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. to families of the church. Meat, milk, bread and butter will be provided. Those attending will bring covered dish to pass.

They are working on one of the nine lines used by the Diller Tire Factory in constructing the tubing. Up to now, the factory used coal to heat the huge ovens. The gas will be used in the summer, reverting to coal in the winter, until an adequate supply is available for year around use. The gas line of 4-inch steel now extends several blocks into Chatsworth, where homes and other firms will attach. WOMAN ROUTED BY TEAR GAS AFTER GUN DUEL WITH COPS

CHICAGO (U-P)—A 45-year-old widow sniped at five squads of police with a pistol Wednesday before she was routed from her North Side flat with tear gas bombs.

"Listen coper, if you come over here I'll put a bullet between your eyes."

This is what Detective Ralph Northwell said Mrs. Defores Stencil told him when he telephoned to investigate her report of the theft of a pistol.

A FEW MINUTES AFTER NORTHWELL hung up the phone, police received complaints that there was shooting from Mrs. Stencil's apartment. Five police squads arrived.

When police demanded she surrender, Mrs. Stencil answered with shots. A tear gas bomb was tossed through a rear window. Mrs. Stencil choked her way out and gave up. Police said she had been drinking. Mrs. Stencil was taken to psychiatric ward of Cook County Hospital.

Giants Latest To Take Part In Tight Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That "hot" NATIONAL LEAGUE pennant race of last year begins to look like a "runaway" compared to what's going on these days, with no less than six teams scraping and no more than 10 percentage points separating the first four.

The whole league exploded under the pressure of the season. In what was exciting, if not brilliant, baseball—with 20 home runs and 100 hits in the first game of the season, the Giants, the only other close contest involved Boston left fielder Ted Williams and Yankee center fielder Mickey Vernon, who, when he nailed starting pitcher, he was virtually even in the total vote count. Williams led with 51,345, just 20 more than Mantle has received.

Kell Leading In Battle For All-Star Spot

NEW YORK (U-P)—Only three base runners unsettled today on the American League All-Star team with Baltimore's George Kell, Detroit's Ryno Bertola and New York's Gil McDougald contending in the fan vote which ends at midnight.

Kell, the 2,000-hit veteran who has played in six All-Star games, held the lead with 25,430 in the vote count released today by Commissioner Ford Frick's office. Bertola, hoping to make his first All-Star appearance at St. Louis July 9, was second with 23,992; and McDougald third with 23,482.

Moore Offered $100,000 For Bout

CHICAGO (U-P)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore can receive a $100,000 guarantee to defend his title in Milwaukee in late August or early September against German Hans Strasser, promoter Irving Schoenwald said today.

Schoenwald said he and co-promoter Phil Valley of Milwaukee would stage the show, either in Milwaukee County Stadium or the Milwaukee Arena, with the guarantee furnished by a group of Milwaukee businessmen.

Rep. Keating of Rochester, N.Y., senior Republican on the subcommittee, said in a separate interview he thinks the bill is a move for New York City to persuade the Dodgers to stay in Brooklyn—"and I hope the city Celler asked O'Malley point-blank whether the Dodgers will play in Los Angeles next year; and the Dodge president replied: 'I do not know the answer.'"

BUT TODAY Celler told newsmen: "He's over the brink. He has made up his mind. He can't very well say now he'll move; it would ruin attendance this season."

Campbell Out To Regain NCAA Championship

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UP)—Stocky Joe Campbell of Purdue University, back on the form that made him champion in 1955, led a field of 32 into today's second and third rounds of the annual NCAA tournament over the smooth green blanket that is Broadmoor's golf course.

The 21-year-old physical education graduate from Purdue, who now calls Knoxville, Tenn., home, moved into the second round by defeating Houston's Stan Blinn, 5 and 4, the biggest margin of Wednesday's match play.

Campbell, a basketball star also, fired a four-under-par 33 over the first nine holes and had a comfortable 4-up lead after seven holes Wednesday.

His second round competition today, John Garrett of Rice, proved himself Wednesday in defeating Stanford's Ron Lucetti 1-up, on the 19th. Garrett birdied the par 4 19th with a 300-yard drive, an 88-foot approach shot, and a four foot putt.

Campbell defeated Garrett in the final of the 1955 NCAA tournament at Knoxville.

Another lower bracket favorite, co-medalist Roger Rubenstein of Wisconsin, edged San Jose State's Jim Clark, 2 and 1, to gain the second round opposite Jerry Coats of Baylor.

Notre Dame's Joe Grace fought back in the best match of the day to defeat Robert Goetz of Oklahoma A&M 1-up on 19. Grace forced to shoot three straight birdies to survive the round.

Strong winds whipped the 6,897 yard Broadmoor course at the foot of Cheyenne Mountain and Pikes Peak Wednesday, forcing most of the scores below par. Few of the hardy collegians have found the 6,800 foot altitude much of a handicap.

NCAA coaches met in a closed session Wednesday and recommended Williams College in Massachusetts as the site for next year's meet. The NCAA generally follows the coaches' recommendation.

FBI Acts To Skirt Ruling On Opening Secret Files

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI has taken to Congress what it considers a fight for its life as an effective federal criminal investigation agency.

The fight has been going on behind the scenes for three weeks. It came out in the open Monday with the submission to Congress of legislation designed to save the FBI from full application of a Supreme Court ruling.

The high court ruled June 3, in the case of Clifton E. Jencks, a New Mexico labor union official, that defendants in court cases must be given access to all FBI files related to testimony against them. The court gave a broad interpretation to the principle that a defendant has the right to confront his accuser.

The decision produced confusion in the nation's lower courts and warnings that the FBI, the Narcotics Bureau and other investigative agencies would be crippled.

Justice Tom Clark, in dissenting, said the FBI "may as well close up shop, for the court has opened their files to the criminal and thus afforded him a Roman holiday for rummaging through confidential information as well as vital national secrets."

The FBI has not had to close shop yet, but Director J. Edgar Hoover and his staff are worried. If the Supreme Court edicts stand and is interpreted broadly, they believe, confidence in the FBI for fear they will be quoted in court or called to testify.

If these sources of information dry up, the G-men will be seriously handicapped in tracking down federal law violators.

Federal narcotics agents, who work under Treasury Department supervision, also are appealing for legislation action to maintain the cloak of secrecy about their work.

The DEFENSE Department may be affected, too. Some lawyers interpret the ruling to mean the department must open up secret files of its counter-intelligence agencies in loyalty, security and common criminal cases tried by court martial.

The Justice Department tried to get around the ruling by an administrative order interpreting it narrowly. Attorney General Herbert R. Brownell Jr. instructed U. S. attorneys to make available only pertinent excerpts of pre-trial statements to the FBI by persons who had already appeared in court as government witnesses for the prosecution.

Several U. S. district judges have rejected this interpretation of the Jencks decision. Others went along with it or with modifications of it.

ANOTHER VICTIM—NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The old battleship Saratoga, originally christened the Texas when launched in 1890, has sunk another ship although she has been at the bottom of Chesapeake since 1911.

A 55-foot yacht, the Moby Dick, engaged on the Saratoga battleship in rough weather. Yachtsmen headed for a buoy which they thought meant safety but instead it was to mark the wreck. The battleship was sunk in naval gunnery practice 46 years ago.

Frank Tiltons To Mark 60th Wedding Anniversary

MOMENCE (JNS)—Open house will be held Sunday from 5 to 4 p.m. at the Methodist Memorial Building in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tilton, the occasion being their 60th wedding anniversary.

Arrangements for the "wonderful" celebration were made by the children, Mrs. Pauline Kennedy of Western Springs, Herbert of Evanston and Edgar of Tilton.

They also have 10 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Frank Tilton of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Miss Mattie Fleming of Hartford City, Ind., were married at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. C. Copeland of Hartford City on June 30, 1897. They resided in Andrews, Ind., for some time before moving to Danville where he was employed as a special accountant for the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad.

In 1911 the couple moved to Chicago where for 28 years Tilton served in the statistical bureau of Western Lines. Seventeen years ago Tilton retired and the couple moved to Momence where they have resided ever since.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tilton are 81 years of age and in fairly good health. They maintain their home and a garden. Both are members of Methodist Church. As a hobby, Mrs. Tilton makes aprons and Tilton has a large stamp collection.

Following lunch a brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Fonda, vice president. Devotions were given by Mrs. Minor. Games were played following the meeting.

Beans 'n Franks Fine For Fourth

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

If you're picnicking at home on Independence Day, you may want to serve some traditional American foods.

How about a big casserole of baked beans topped with onion rings and franks? Or crumb gingerbread with lemon sauce? This gingerbread is offered at a well-known chain of restaurants that specializes in American dishes. You can try our version of it; or if you are short on time, you can bake gingerbread from a mix and serve it with vanilla ice cream and fudge sauce.

CRUMB GINGERBREAD

Ingredients: 2 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup old-fashioned molasses, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon baking soda, Lemon Sauce, whipped cream cheese.

Method: Sift together flour, sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon and salt. Add butter; cut in with two knives or pastry blender to resemble coarse meal. Mix molasses, water and baking soda. Alternate crumbs and liquid in a greased 8 by 8 by 2-inch square pan, beginning and ending with crumbs. Stir gently only 2 or 3 times with a fork. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour. Cut cake into squares in pan; remove and top each square with Lemon Sauce and whipped cream cheese. Makes 9 servings.

LEMON SAUCE

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 cups boiling water, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 cup butter or margarine.

Method: Mix together cornstarch, sugar and salt in 1-quart saucepan. Gradually stir in boiling water. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and is thickened and clear. Remove from heat; stir in grated lemon rind, lemon juice and butter. Serve warm. Makes 2 1/2 cups.

Man Fined For Assault, Battery

Emory School, L'Erable, was fined $25 and $12.50 in costs Wednesday afternoon by Justice of the Peace George Gennore, on a charge of assault and battery.

Schoon was arrested several days ago by Iroquois County deputies on a complaint signed here by his wife, Mary. He paid the fine and costs and was released.

TURNSTILE BITES BOY

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (U-P)—A youngster rode his bike into the jaws of a turnstile Wednesday, and the result was a broken bike and a boy who was hurt.

Boy and bike were stuck tight in the lattice-like jaws of the gate. He yelled for help. Finally firemen came and dismantled part of the bicycle so he could escape.

The embarrassed youngster refused to give his name—he just picked up the pieces and fled.

Watseka Legion Commander To Attend Convention

WATSEKA (JNS) — Harry Thompson, commander-elect of Watseka American Legion, was elected as one of the delegates to the annual American Legion Convention this summer at Atlantic City, N.J., during the 18th district American Legion Convention at Paris on Sunday.

Herbert W. Lietz of Watseka, Illinois Veterans Commission officer for Iroquois and Ford counties, also was elected as a delegate.

Fred Raney Miller of Gilman, a past Gilman post commander, served as judge advocate at the Sunday session. Reports were given by Horace Fronville, Watseka, on national defense and security; Walter Lick, Onarga, Iroquois County Council commander, Boy Scouts; by Dorrance Albright, Donovan, past 18th district commander; by Al Keller, Kankakee, Junior American Legion baseball tournament, and Lietz, Walter Tucker of Paris and Benoit Albright of Bradley, 18th district service officers.

Reed Godfrey of Edgar county, present senior vice commander, was elected 18th district commander. He served as the Cassin Park post's first adjutant. Ray Doud of Bradley was elected the district senior vice commander.

Postpone A-Test

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (U-P)—The Atomic Energy Commission Wednesday night was forced to postpone for 24 hours the sixth nuclear test of the 1957 series because of "technical reasons."

The shot was rescheduled for 4:45 a. m. Friday. The sixth detonation was scheduled to equal 10,000 tons of TNT (10 kilotons) and was to be shot at a 500-foot steel tower.

BEDOUIN TRIBESMEN huddle among their animals at the Arab camel market at Beersehe, Israel. The colorful outdoor market has become one of Israel's leading tourist attractions.

Bargaining Is Big Thing In Dealing With A Bedouin

BEERSEHE, Israel (U-P)—Want to buy a camel? It takes a bit of hard Oriental haggling, but you can get a good one at the Arab camel market here for $165 (300 Israeli pounds).

Scores of these "ships of the desert" are offered for sale every Thursday morning by Bedouin tribesmen who converge on the outdoor market from the surrounding Negev desert.

There is also some trading in donkeys, goats and sheep.

If you spot a camel you like, you grasp the hand of the owner in a firm handshake and hold it throughout the ensuing bargaining. It could be a 30 minute hand-to-hand deal.

YOU OFFER HALF of what you expect to pay. He asks twice as much as he expects to get.

When you've reached a price you are willing to pay, you let go of the seller's hand, slap it three times with a big sweep of your arm (the sweep's important) and — you've bought a camel.

The Bedouins who flock here each week with their women present so colorful a picture in their Arab headresses and flowing robes that the market has become one of Israel's leading tourist attractions.

THE WOMEN take no part in the deals. They sit in small groups off to a side, nursing children and cooking over open fires. Many wear long chains of silver coins from their foreheads, symbols of their wealth.

Unlike the men who will readily pose for tourist-photographers, the women turn away or hide their faces behind black veils. Sometimes, they throw small stones at would-be picture takers.

Leading trader at the camel market is Israel's paramount Arab sheikh, Suleiman el Husseini who owns 500 to 600 camels.

Bedouins say the best age of a camel (when buying) is five years old. They say the camels live to about 30 years of age.

The camels are used for ploughing, as a means of desert transportation, for carrying food, water and goods, and, in occasion, for racing.

A CAMEL in good form, the Bedouins say, can travel 60 kilometers (37 miles) a day. Contrary to legend, they cannot go long stretches without water but instead must drink every three to five days.

Some of the camels sold here are used for meat, although camels are usually not so popular to Western tastes. Slaughtered camels also are used to make mattresses, carpets, tents and paint brushes as well as camel's hair clothing.

If you don't want to buy the camel outright, you can rent one. The cost is about $4 a day (7 or 8 Israeli pounds).

Envision Brave New Atomic World

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Gilbert
School, Kankakee, Ill.

Growing up in the shadow of the atomic mushroom, most of today's teenagers hope it portends good rather than evil.

Three out of four youngsters say they are happy atomic energy was discovered.

One in three thinks the atomic bomb will end wars.

Only one in four thinks it's likely to destroy mankind.

At the same time, 55 per cent concede they do have fears for the atomic future. A Wisconsin girl sums up this way:

"Let's not talk about it. It sends chills up and down my spine—and I don't mean the kind you get when you look at a handsome boy, either!"

A 15-year-old boy, one of the non-frightened 38 per cent, takes a more fatalistic view:

"What's to be afraid of? You've got to die sometime—and I don't think one bomb is going to do it, anyway."

"People talk themselves into all sorts of stupid things," says another youngster. "The sky isn't going to fall down tomorrow but still some people worry about it."

Generally, the girls were questioned in a national survey were more fearful than the boys. But, frightened or not, four out of five teenagers think atomic energy has greater possibilities for good than for evil.

"The atom can be a very helpful tool if we are wise enough to use it in the right way and not for destroying ourselves," says a Philadelphia girl.

"Unless the higher ups really go crazy, our civilization will stride forward because of atomic energy," observes a New Jersey boy.

"For me personally, the discovery of atomic power with its benefits to mankind is the major happening of the 20th century," enthuses an 18-year-old.

Speaking for the pessimistic minority, a Connecticut youth asserts:

"The forces of evil have caused the development of atomic energy. Perhaps the forces left left for good in the world will be able to drive it out before we all have to pay the penalty."

"I feel we would all be better off if it had not been developed because it can do more harm than good," adds a New Yorker.

On the question of whether there will be an atomic war, some 38 per cent say yes while 47 per cent say no.

"Nations will be too wary ever to fight a full-scale war," says a Brooklyn boy hopefully.

"THERE WILL ALWAYS be wars and more wars," counters a pessimistic Georgia youngster. "It will take more than a good scare to stop governments from wanting to crush other governments."

"It all depends upon nations' ability to cooperate and the role of power politics, but I am sure it will all work out," says a cautious optimist of 19.

While those feeling that atomic energy is likely to destroy mankind are in the minority, they state their case with blunt finality.

"I think we are destined to destroy ourselves," says a Sarah Lawrence College student.

"Everything points to the end of civilization as we presently know it," prophesies a college sophomore.

"I think it's already too late to stop the powers that be from causing our destruction and that of those around us," is the grim warning from a 15-year-old Los Angeles boy.

"WE'RE FINISHED, man," says one young pessimist. "Whether we like to admit it or not. Maybe not today or tomorrow, but you can count on a big bang one of these fine days."

It is interesting to note that of that group five per cent foresee an end to mankind in five years, nine per cent in five to 10 years, 10 per cent in 10 to 20 years and 64 per cent in more than 20 years.

But, on the bright side, there are those who believe every bit as firmly that there is a future for the homo sapiens.

"I think eventual fear of atomic energy will end war and atomic energy will be used to benefit mankind," predicts a New Haven, Conn. boy.

The carved horn on the nose of the huge rhinoceros allegedly has some medicinal use when reduced to powder. It sells for $150 a pound among wealthy African natives.

Kempton Teeners View New Age Optimistically

Five Kempton teenagers are generally optimistic over the future uses of atomic energy. Five girls, who were teachers at a vacation Bible school held at the Kempton Methodist Church, were interviewed recently on how they felt the advent of atomic energy will affect the future in connection with this week's "What Young People Think" topic.

Donna Lambert, a freshman at the Kempton High School commented on the possibilities of atomic energy when asked if they frightened her. "Not really! I feel that we have intelligent men and women in the science field who are capable of controlling atomic energy. Also every day new discoveries are being made to improve and widen its uses." Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert.

Asked if she thought that atomic energy and the atomic bomb were likely to destroy mankind, Sharon Benson said, "I think that atomic energy and the atomic bomb will not destroy mankind if we concentrate more on other things less likely to cause war, but if it does destroy mankind, I think it will be between 1960 and 1970."

Sharon is president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Benson.

Another optimist commented, "I believe that atomic energy has great possibilities for the development of research in the medical and scientific fields." She is Rita Haley, a June graduate of Central High School near Clinton and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Haley of rural Clinton. She will be a freshman at MacMurray College in Jacksonville in the fall.

A slightly more pessimistic tone was voiced by Carolyn Benson who said she was not happy that atomic energy was developed. She commented, "If it wasn't for atomic energy, the world would not be in its present state of fear. But as long as it was developed, we must put it to the best possible use for mankind."

Carolyn will be a freshman and also the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benson.

The concluding opinion was expressed by Diane Purdy who will be a junior at the Kempton High School in the fall. She was asked if she thought there would be an atomic war. In her reply, she said she thought there would be an atomic war, maybe at some time or another. It could put an end to all of us, but I don't believe it ever will. None of us wants a war very badly because we like the feeling of being free."

"I feel we would all be better off if it had not been developed because it can do more harm than good," adds a New Yorker.

On the question of whether there will be an atomic war, some 38 per cent say yes while 47 per cent say no.

"Nations will be too wary ever to fight a full-scale war," says a Brooklyn boy hopefully.

"THERE WILL ALWAYS be wars and more wars," counters a pessimistic Georgia youngster. "It will take more than a good scare to stop governments from wanting to crush other governments."

"It all depends upon nations' ability to cooperate and the role of power politics, but I am sure it will all work out," says a cautious optimist of 19.

While those feeling that atomic energy is likely to destroy mankind are in the minority, they state their case with blunt finality.

"I think we are destined to destroy ourselves," says a Sarah Lawrence College student.

"Everything points to the end of civilization as we presently know it," prophesies a college sophomore.

"I think it's already too late to stop the powers that be from causing our destruction and that of those around us," is the grim warning from a 15-year-old Los Angeles boy.

AF Still Mum After Firing Two Rockets

MISSILE TEST CENTER, CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (U-A) Doubleheader. Cape Canaveral was staged at this experimental site Wednesday but the Air Force declined to identify the missiles involved.

One flew aloft at 6:15 a. m. the other at 1 p. m. It was the first known time that two had been launched so closely together.

Only details on the launchings came from newspaper reporters who were in the area.

MRS. NINA JOSLIN of the Orlando Sentinel News bureau said rocket No. 1 "went up with a white cloud trailing. It was a terrific white color and with the sun behind it, it was beautiful. The sound was about as loud as the other shots."

John Morton of the Miami Herald said neither missile was believed to be the reportedly successful intermediate range Jupiter, nor the intercontinental Atlas, one of which blew up after launching here two weeks ago.

Mother Searches Peaks 9 Years For Missing Pilot-Son

NORTH BEND, Wash. (U-A) A soft-spoken Tennessee mother, spurred by hope and faith, has begun her ninth summer of searching the Cascade Mountains for the flier son who never came home.

"There were five of us," said Mrs. O. C. Mayes of Clinton, Tenn., "now there are only four. We want to take him home."

It was eight years ago that U.S. Navy Ensign Gaston E. Mayes, 23, Mrs. Mayes' son, took off from Seattle with Lt. (J. G.) Benjamin O. Vreeland of Trenton, N. J.

The plane was never seen again. Wednesday Mrs. Mayes started her ninth summer of searching for the son the Cascade Mountains took from her eight long years ago.

Undaunted, although all her efforts have been in vain, Mrs. Mayes said:

"I feel definitely encouraged each year."

Graham Reports Crusade Setting Garden Records

NEW YORK (UP)—Billy Graham said Wednesday night that his crusade to save New York had outlasted and outdrawn any other attraction in the 30-year history of Madison Square Garden.

The evangelist said that the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus had run 40 days in the Garden, but his crusade had already lasted 43 days, and still has until July 20 to go.

More than 739,000 persons have flocked to hear Graham's fiery sermons in the huge sports arena. Except for a week-long slump attributed to a heat wave, the Garden has been filled to near capacity and beyond most nights.

John Golden, a Garden official, told the United Press, however, that the New York crusade record may be a little short of the circus's, for the circus usually presents two performances a day, or 80 in all.

Golden explained that the Garden seats 15,000 when the circus is there, 18,500 for the New York Crusade. Some circus performances have drawn as few as 3,000 customers, he said, but the major flye have sold out.

"Summer vacation doesn't last too long, Mr. Bangs! If you'd try me on some big deals I could make my mark before I have to go back to school!"

Downtown Stores Fight To Keep Big Business Volume

NEW YORK (AP)—How to rescue the downtown districts of our cities—for the benefit of both the citizens and the merchants—puzzles city fathers across the land. Competition from burgeoning suburban shopping centers grows more painful for many.

New plans for handling traffic and parking cars sprout on every hand. Some call for barring vehicles from main shopping streets, turning them into shopping centers for pedestrians only.

MANY OF THE downtown merchants say it's still a good place to do business. Their downtown sales have grown, even as sales in their suburban outlets.

Ralph Lazarus, newly named president of Federated Department Stores, says its downtown stores in nine U. 250 Attend Open House For Luthers In Piper City

PIPER CITY (JNS)—Two hundred and fifty attended an open house in observance of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Luther on Sunday afternoon and evening in their home.

Six nieces of the Luthers were in charge of the serving table, including Mrs. Henry LaVoie, Mrs. J. M. Kelly, Mrs. Ester Stadler, Mrs. C. H. Montelius, Mrs. R. W. Chambers Sr. and Mrs. Edwin Read.

Mrs. Raymond Stadler was in charge of the guest book in the afternoon and Mrs. E. L. Behrends of Oak Park was in charge in the evening. Many out-of-town guests were on hand for the occasion.

FOUR PRESBYTERIAN juniors left Sunday for a week at Woodlawn, East Bay, Bloomington. They are: Alice Bork, Janet Johnston, Anita Gibb and Bob Coen.

Twenty-four attended the Guest Night barbeque sponsored by the Presbyterian Couples Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gibb on Sunday evening.
