Hong Kong Question Mark

Is Mao On Vacation Or Skids?

HONG KONG (NEA)—If President Eisenhower went to a beach resort without taking reporters and stayed away nine weeks it's doubtful if the world would suspect he was kidnapped by Admiral Stevenson.

But Washington isn't Peiping and in Communist lands political feuds often are settled by arresting the foe as a General Motors spy or making him ambassador to Mongolia. So it's not surprising that the nine-week absence of Dictator Mao Tse-tung, technically the omnipotent of mainland China, has raised eyebrows and started rumors.

Officially Dictator Mao is sunbathing on the sands at Tsingtao, a watering hole favored by upper-crust Asian Communists.

THE ABSENT DICTATOR: Is Mao Tse-tung, here made faceless by a retoucher, about to be made faceless by a purge?

THERE THEY PICNIC under pepper trees, sipping "exotic" cups of jasmine tea from fragile bone china while hordes of analysts in black silk slacks and white blouses and pigtail buns chatter in quiet with slices of dried octopus.

Nine weeks is indeed a long blackout for Dictator Mao, who's fond of making four-hour speeches (if the others catch you sleeping, you might wake up in the next world).

There's a particularly long right now when Communist China is not a crisis that has the making of a Russian-style purge as leading government officials are being purged. It's a crisis that has the making of a Russian-style purge as leading government officials are being purged.

In fact four cabinet ministers already have stated that somehow they got off the beam and were thinking capitalistic or not in the best interests of the people's republic.

Under such pressure Mao floundered and laid down rules for criticism interpreted in cynical Hong Kong as "you can tell me what's wrong as long as you say I'm wonderful." China was reeling.

Hard-hitting critics including cabinet ministers are still eating crow—which is better than prison rice and water.

Is Mao himself due to confess? Has his vacation turned into a leave of absence without pay? Or will he return to Peiping in time to plan the American students now free-roaming in Red China?

In any case, the unrest attending the confessions and Mao's absence shows that even in the absolute dictatorship some things are happening to turn the tascals.

Faubus Flies To See Ike

Governor Optimistic Talks Will Settle School Problem

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus took off at 8:18 a.m. (CST) today for a history-making conference with President Eisenhower on the aggravated federal-state integration problem at Little Rock.

"I feel the same—hopeful," Faubus said. "I'm just going to see the President and I can't discuss the conference in advance, but I'm optimistic."

The governor, accompanied by Arnold Sikes, his executive assistant, left 350 Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) for a same type plane that the President uses sometimes in flying from Washington to his farm in Gettysburg.

W. C. White Jr., vice president and general manager of an aviation corporation, was the pilot, and Ed Moore, president of the corporation, was in the copilot's seat.

While said he did not know how the flight would take, cause of uncertain weather, nor where the plane might land.

Faubus also said he did not know where he would spend the night. He said no arrangements had been made.

BOTH THE GOVERNOR and Rep. Hays, intermediary between Faubus and the White House, declined to say who brought Hays into the role of go-between.

"I'd have to look at my diary," Hays said. The governor simply said he was not a position to answer.

Hays said the Eisenhower-Faubus conference "was a preliminary discussion of the problem of not only Little Rock and the South but of national integration."

The reference apparently was to the general problem of race relations.

Hays probably will join Faubus at least some of the discussion with Eisenhower.

"Both parties have to recognize, as I believe they have, that the federal government will solve these problems," Hays said.

"Under our Anglo-Saxon law there are certain flexibilities," Hays declined to specify what he thought these "flexibilities" might be in the struggle over integrating Central High School in Little Rock.

"I have some definite ideas and I think the President and governor have too."

"It may take several years to open this door but if any one of them is found it will be a long step toward a solution," Hays said.

THE CONFERENCE may not bring a definite end to the struggle that broke out in Little Rock last week when Faubus sent the National Guard to surround Central High School, with orders to turn away Negroes attempting to sign up for classes.

Faubus is under summons to appear in federal court Sept. 20, for a hearing on a preliminary injunction to stop interference with the integration of the school.

But if Eisenhower and Faubus can agree in advance of that on a formula for ending the federal-state dispute over their respective boundaries of authority, the court hearing could become a formality.

Even as Faubus prepared to leave for Washington, the Department of Justice added another legal action to support its case against him.

The department entered a pleading in the office of the U.S. District Court Clerk in Little Rock, citing 10 cases in which federal courts issued orders restraining state government from interfering with the integration of schools.

Benson said the administration probably will suggest a U.S. action to force Faubus to accept a federal court order to desegregate the school.

A repeat of price support formulas under which supports go down when surpluses are reduced.

Some liberalization of farm production controls.

An extension of a law under which surplus farm products may be exported in return for foreign currency.

Benson said many congressmen who opposed his policies this year, he and Eisenhower "reorganized" the farm bill to meet the need for basic changes in farm law.

Saunemin Man Killed In Crash Near Morocco

The road commissioner of Saunemin, Ill., Township was killed when his car crashed off a curve in the fog eight miles northwest of Morocco, Ind., near the state line at 3:30 a.m. today.

School Trustees Approve Sale Of Land

The Kankakee County School Trustees have authorized the sale of a section of school land in Pembroke Township.

But a date was not set, pending receipt of a patent government deed on a quarter section already sold by the trustees in Otto Township.

Mr. J. D. Martin, president of the trustees, said he hoped the sale could be held this fall. If a date can not be set before bad weather, the sale might have to be postponed until spring.

The trustees adopted a plat of the section, which has been subdivided into tracts ranging from 7 1/2 acres on up.

They also adopted a series of appraisals. These are required by law, and the land can't be sold before the appraisals.

The whole section was appraised at about $70,000, but the trustees believe it will bring around $100,000. They say interest in the sale is keen. Much of the section is wooded, and about 100 acres have been farmed the past two or three years.

The land is part of the "township loanable fund" set up when Illinois' system of free schools were established.

Section 16 in each township was set aside to provide support for the common school fund. The money from the land will go to the district in Pembroke Township on the basis of grade school enrollment.

The plat reserves a 30-acre school site which a new consolidated district in Pembroke Township hopes to buy for a new building.

The sale of the land will help provide funds for the new building the area hopes to build.

Kankakee will receive $13,774 as its share of motor fuel tax paid into the state treasury during August.

Illinois cities have been allotted $3,918,244 for August. State Finance Secretary William Hollingsworth announced today.

Allotments to other cities include Watseka $2,990, Paxton $1,672, Pontiac $4,539, Joliet $2,789, Morris $3,418, Danville $18,688, Chicago Heights $14,285, Champaign $21,318 and Ottawa $5,726.

Both budgets specified that the work would be completed within 60 working days from the official awarding of the contract. Dice Reamsander, state highway engineer from Ottawa, noted that the deadline for laying blacktop on state motor fuel tax projects was next Monday so that the blacktop surface could not be applied until next summer.

Attorney for the project, Samuel Shapiro, explained that the formal contract must wait 10 days following public notice of the award of the contract, before the formal contract can be signed. During the 10-day waiting period, if residents along the street with a minimum of 50 per cent of the frontage band together and submit a proposal to the city, the city can proceed with the project.

Bourbonnais Street Contract Awarded

The Azarrelli Construction Co. was awarded the contract for the construction of curb and gutter and paving of River street in Bourbonnais Thursday afternoon, on the basis of a low bid of $146,350. The contract was awarded at a meeting of the board of local improvements followed by a special village board meeting.

The bids were opened at 4 p. m. and the meetings followed. The only other bidder on the project was the Triangle Construction Co. with a bid of $47,132. Both bids were below the engineer's estimate of $17,246 for the cost of construction.

He explained that this was the procedure under the special assessment law under which the project is being financed.

Shapiro also explained that if total cost of the project runs over the $55,000 as estimated, and upon which the special assessment is based, there would be a recast of the assessment and rebates to property owners.

He said that in all likelihood, the first installment of the full assessment would be due Jan. 2, depending on the arrangements the property owners wanted to use in paying for their assessment. The assessment can be spread over a 10-year period.

Russian Jet Is No Prize

The Russians didn't fly the members of their U.N. delegation from Moscow to New York in a commercial jet airplane because they were in a hurry to get them to the United States. They did it because they hoped that the flight would promote their boast of aviation supremacy.

But if the opinions of sharp-eyed American experts who have seen the Soviet TU-104 can be properly spread about, the Reds will fall considerably short of impressing the world as they desire.

Expert appraisals, devoid of sour grapes and coldly dispassionate, reports that the TU-104 is a converted bomber which has some excellent qualities but would be basically uneconomical for U.S. airlines to operate.

It is rated uneconomical first because its passenger capacity is limited to from 50 to 70, whereas the jet transports being readied for U.S. service in 1959 will carry upwards of 100 passengers.

Secondly, the TU-104's two huge engines, admittedly larger than any jet power plants built or contemplated in this country, devour fuel at a terrific rate. This means high cost and shorter range.

The plane is also said to lack certain safety features and conveniences common to regularly flying U.S. craft, including adequate pressurizing of the cabin, de-icing at the jet air intakes, and weather-proof radio equipment.

However, it cannot be denied that Russia is the only major nation today which has them in regular service on civil air routes.

Whose jets will rule the skies two years from now? Without smug complacency, we can say that America will probably rule. Nothing that Russia has planned seems like a likely match for jet liners soon to take the air from U.S. planes—except, perhaps, canardary test on the TU-104.

Assembly Makes The Rules

Reports indicate the State Liquor Control Commission is quietly considering adoption of a rule to fix whisky prices in Illinois, similar in effect to a fair trade bill which was defeated at the recent session of the Legislature.

Whether or not the commission has authority to adopt such a rule is highly debatable, but even if it was decided it did have, it would be a grave mistake for that body to set itself up as a law-making group—which it is not.

We do not want in this state any agency or department of government other than the duly elected General Assembly to enact laws or make rules which have the full effect of laws. Governmental agencies and bureaus at Washington in past years presumed to establish law under the guise of rules until the people rebelled against the practice and Illinoisans will vigorously protest the Liquor Commission or any other state agency making laws to govern residents here.

The fair trade bill to control whisky prices was duly considered by the legislators; it was passed by the House and rejected by the Senate, giving evidence the law makers did not favor the plan. To have a commission adopt a rule now would have the effect of the commission thumbing its nose at the legislature and making a mockery of the law-making body.

The principle involved at this time does not concern merit of merits of the fair trade law, but of the right of an agency presuming to adopt rules which properly call for General Assembly action. In view of the decision of the Legislature a few months ago, nullifying rules now would be especially obnoxious.

Congratulations To Alf Landon

Twenty-one years ago a genial fellow with wavy hair, glasses and a twangy Middle-Western voice was going up and down the land in presidential campaigns.

While the battle was on he perhaps did not realize it, but it was one of the toughest uphill struggles ever undertaken by a presidential nominee.

He didn't come anywhere near the top. In fact, he took an unprecedented licking.

The man was Alfred M. Landon, then Republican governor of Kansas. His formidable adversary, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, crushed him by 27 million votes, to 16 million. Landon captured but eight electoral votes—the total for Maine and Vermont.

But the vanquished Kansan never lost his sense of balance nor allowed himself to become engulfed in bitterness. He went on to many useful duties, keeping more and more out of the public eye as the years advanced.

Now he is 70. As one who managed his brief flight to the heights with decorum and sportsmanship, he deserves warm congratulations from us all.

Adenauer Seeks Overwhelming Majority

BAD GODESBURG, Germany—There is no stopping 81-year-old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in the present bitter contested federal election campaign. Night after night for the past two months he has toured Germany's leading cities and towns, giving vigorous speeches that last from 1½ to two hours.

At the beginning of the campaign his managers tactfully suggested that he conserve his strength and limit his talks to 15 minutes. But he scoffed at this and pro-John B. Crane

AT HIS CAMPAIGN RALLY in Cologne Saturday night, when his wife and I attended together with 60,000 other people, Adenauer spoke for one hour and 35 minutes, and here in Bad Godesburg on Sunday night for two hours.

At the end of each speech he was going even stronger and appeared fresher than at the beginning.

During his Cologne speech the audience applauded 84 times and broke out in laughter 52 times.

The Chancellor drew his biggest laughs towards the end of his speech when he damned the forces of the Social Democrats and illustrated his point by referring to the folk tale of Little Red Riding Hood. The crowd laughed uproariously when he called the opposition Socialist leader, Erich Ollenhauer, Little Red Riding Hood and the wolf dressed up as the grandmother.

Adenauer's speech was the major portion of his campaign, the great achievements of his party, and the domestic field, citing the tremendous increases in production and standards of living and promising to do ever more and more to better the condition of the middle class.

Interestingly enough, he receives much more frequent applause when he is talking about taking credit for the German "economic miracle" than when he is criticizing the Socialist program for the reunification of Germany.

His great vigor and tremendous energy, as well as his keenness and alertness, have kept his Socialist opponents from producing the fact that he is an old man who night and day, right up to the last minute, to insure that his party will be returned by an overwhelming majority so it won't be necessary to make a coalition with other parties, and so present government pre-arrangements can be maintained.

His biggest applause both at Cologne and here in Bad Godesburg on Sunday night came when he pointed out that the Social Democrats were casting its lot 100 per cent with the West under the leadership of the United States and that America was responsible for saving Germany by means of Marshall Plan aid.

A Class In Lawlessness

By David Lawrence

Chaos In State, Federal Relations

WASHINGTON—Every governor, every sheriff, every mayor and every local official who has anything to do with the administration of state or city laws is being hauled into federal court on any pretext now and charged with alleged interference with a federal court order. This can happen no matter how earnestly and conscientiously the official may be performing the duties of his own office.

Such is the situation which confronts the American people today as they David Lawrence note the unprecedented action of a federal judge in summoning the governor of a sovereign state so that the court may pass judgment on his executive ability, his efficiency and his good faith in discharging the duties of his office. If the governor of Arkansas should perchance differ with the terms of an injunction that is issued by the federal judge after the Sept. 20 hearing and continue to keep troops on guard, in accordance with his conscientious belief that he is fulfilling his duty as the chief executive of his state in preventing bloodshed and disorder, he can be charged with "civil contempt" and put in jail. Under existing federal law he will not even have the benefit of a jury trial.

If the troops are withdrawn and bloodshed follows, there is no way to hold the arbitrary-minded federal judge responsible for the death of any citizen.

HOW EASY IT WOULD be for the American system of government to be brought to a standstill by the widespread indifference to what is happening in Arkansas.

Many persons say frankly in their conversations with their neighbors that the governor ought to be jailed, but the average citizen today knows little about our dual system of government. Lack of education in the schools on the constitutional rights of the states, plus the steady whittling away of those rights by a usurping federal government, has persuaded many citizens that, of course, any time the federal government does is right in all controversies with the states.

"Why don't you remove the Wisconsin senator from office?" wrote many citizens to President Eisenhower in 1955. They don't seem to realize that there is a guarantee of freedom of speech in the Constitution. Nor did they know apparently that the states are supposed to be sovereign. But now a governor is to be interrupted in his duties and perhaps removed by a federal court and put in jail.

NOR DO THE PEOPLE generally understand that a governor can be tried without a jury and sentenced to jail by the same judge who is supposed to be the protector of the states' rights. It is a natural process, and, in the vast majority of cases, causes no harm.

Why Not Let It Happen?

Henry Cabot Lodge, American ambassador to the United Nations, asked one of the most interesting questions of our time: "Why don't they let it happen?"

This was on "Meet The Press" and was in reply to a question that seemed to imply the Russians had agreed to meet the "open sky" inspection program which President Eisenhower had proposed at Geneva.

Without inspection, no program of disarmament is feasible or practical. How does anyone know that the other side is carrying out its side of the bargain? This applies to the United States as much as it does to Soviet Russia. If there is to be inspection, it ought to be universal and conducted by the United Nations as a routine matter every day of the year and in every part of the earth.

WHEN A COUNTRY REFUSES inspection with regard to the atom and hydrogen bomb and refuses to provide detailed, verifiable statistics on the subject, it must be presumed that that country has something to hide.

"Why don't they let it happen?" Precisely! Millions of words have been spoken and written on the subject of abolishing stockpiling of fissionable materials. But words do not matter. What is significant is that the first step should be taken toward limitation upon the size, the use, the nature of the bomb and upon the control of the sources of supply of fissionable material. If the first step cannot be taken because of Soviet recalcitrance, what is the use of fancy words and diplomatic documents?

To a degree, this is what is wrong with the sessions of the United Nations. As Lodge correctly said, the principal business of the United Nations is to prevent wars. But the United Nations does not possess the strength to prevent wars, and small wars, peripheral wars are always taking place. The United Nations tries to arbitrate, to conciliate, but in the end, it appears that country which is the most wicked and the most obstinate.

BY THAT METHOD, it is possible for Soviet Russia to continue its imperialistic conquests without going to war, because what happens after each Soviet outrage is that the United Nations says, "That's all right in the end of it."

Since the Berlin airlift there has been no stopping of Soviet Russia's territorial advance in Asia or Africa. Disputed is whether the prolonged conference in Europe, the territorial advances have been arrested. If it were not for the United Nations, the world would be a very different place. The United Nations is peace, then we must ask whether the United Nations has anything to do with safeguarding the world from the consequences of the territorial advances of the imperialistic country operating throughout the world in a period called "peace" and therefore not within the purview of the United Nations. What Soviet Russia has done is to paralyze the United Nations and therefore to make it useless.

THE BEST PROOF OF THIS is the Syrian situation. Here is a country that has permitted itself to become a Soviet satellite. There is nothing about international law in that. Syria has a right to choose its friends and its enemies. But it does not take extraordinary presence to discover that the object of that friendship is to arm Syria, to train Syria, to militarize Syria until it becomes a menace to its neighbors, particularly Jordan, which Syria wishes to absorb, and Israel, which Syria wishes to destroy.

So the United States is swiftly supplying Jordan with arms to defend itself against Syria. On the other hand, no arms are swiftly being sent to Israel and it is assumed therefore that some secret deal must have been made with Jordan not to use these American arms against Israel. It could not be otherwise or actually the United States is arming Jordan against Israel as well as Syria.

Surely all these acts, on all sides, are designed to produce a war. Nevertheless, these moves and counter-moves take place and similar ones are taking place elsewhere and the best that can be hoped for is that these peripheral wars do not lead to a universal holocaust.

Appearance Important In Job Interview

Sixteen out of 21 major Kankakee firms say they consider appearance when they interview girls for jobs in their offices.

And an even greater number of companies consider your school grades and your attendance record when they get your application.

Miss Vera Baker, of the business education department at Kankakee High School, has tabulated a survey of 21 firms to find out exactly what qualifications today's office employees should have.

Interviewers, she points out, can use appearance to judge many things about an applicant—poise, maturity, sincerity, enthusiasm, alertness, pleasantness, ability to meet people.

"The Art of Sculpture" was the title of the program presented by Mrs. John Erikson at the Tuesday meeting of the Kankakee Art League held in the Historical and Arts Building at Gov. Small Memorial Park.

Representations in the round that can be viewed from any angle are called statues. Sculpture works of George Gray Barnard, which were donated to the Kankakee Historical and Arts Building, were viewed and discussed.

Mrs. Harold Rapier was introduced as a new member. Final plans were discussed for the "Clothesline Show" set for Sunday on the north porch and adjoining lawn of the Civic Auditorium. Miss Joan Souleigne is chairman and Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Joe Nicoletti, Mrs. Harold Mathews, Mrs. John Erikson and Miss Mignonne Forter.

KHS Up To Date On Nuclear Science

Students at Kankakee High School will be introduced to current nuclear science ideas and techniques as the result of a 2 1/2-week summer course at the nation's nuclear research center, Argonne National Laboratory near Chicago.

Warren French, physics teacher at the high school, was among those from 48 Midwestern high schools and junior colleges who attended the workshop.

Also attending from the Kankakee area was Miss Flora M. Baker, 121 S. Joliet St., Wilmington. The course was designed to provide teachers with sources of information on latest scientific concepts and to further school science teaching.

Teachers who participated in the course can give their students first-hand descriptions of some of the complex mechanisms used in atomic research at Argonne.

"These include the first reactor in the Atomic Energy Commission's power reactor program; research reactors, used by scientists to discover the secrets of the nucleus of the atom; the 'iron lung' where the radioactive content of humans is accurately measured; particle accelerators; mass spectrometers; and other instruments."

THE COURSE CONSISTED of lectures given by members of the Argonne scientific staff and laboratory experimental sessions.

In the laboratory the teachers assembled an electroscope and cloud chamber. Students suggested the use of a simple mass spectrometer, and measured the uptake of radioactive phosphorus by plants.

Each teacher prepared a prototype uranium-aluminum alloy fuel element for an atomic reactor, carrying out the actual melting, casting, rolling and cladding of the alloy.

The teachers also brought back a number of items for classroom experiments.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (UP)—Grain futures ranged from easy to steady today with most prices narrowly on either side of Thursday's closing levels.

Wheat declined as much as a cent at times on increased selling reflecting liquidation by discouraged longs in the market and generally favorable crop weather.

There was little news of importance to the trade and dealings were rather light in most pits.

In the export trade, Formosa purchased 200,000 bushels of U. S. hard wheat for September shipment, and Poland bought 250,000 bushels of "mixed" wheat for October delivery.

Estimated cargo receipts at Chicago: wheat 14, corn 35, oats 13, rye 2, barley 5, soybeans 4. New crop wheat 14 to 16, lower, Sept. $2.14 1/2, corn unchanged to 1/4 lower, Sept. $1.23 1/2, oats 1 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, Sept. $1.31 1/2, soybeans unchanged to 1/4 lower, Sept. $2.14 1/2, and land 5 to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower, Sept. $1.10.

Teacher Strike In Rhode Island Ruled Illegal

PAWBUCKETT, R. I. — A Superior Court judge today declared illegal a strike of 400 Pawtucket school teachers, now in its eighth day, and said he would issue a temporary restraining order.

Judge G. Frederick Frost said he would hand down a written decision at 10 a. m. Saturday.

In stating his findings orally today, Judge Frost said:

"The court is clearly of the opinion and finds that the teachers are an integral part of the government of the city. They are governmental employees and have no legal right to strike against the government which they are now doing."

The strike was called by the Pawtucket Teachers Alliance in a wage dispute. They rejected as too small a pay raise offer by the city school committee. The strike forced 10,000 public school pupils to remain out of classrooms.

The city filed a petition with the court to require the teachers to report to their desks.

Stratton Tells Why Merriam Was Left Off Board

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Gov. Stratton's office today told Robert E. Merriam of Chicago was not named to a northeastern Illinois planning group because Merriam felt he could not give much time to the job.

Merriam, a former candidate for mayor of Chicago, now is a $25,000 a year assistant to the federal budget director in Washington. In a letter to Stratton in July, Merriam said his federal job made it difficult for him to be of "maximum use" on the Northeastern Illinois Metropolitan Area Local Governmental Services Commission.

"I should like to make it clear that I would completely understand it if you feel compelled to appoint someone in my place," Merriam's letter said.

"On the other hand, if the situation is such as does not prove embarrassing, I would be willing to continue even with the limited contribution I could make."

Stratton left Merriam off the commission in announcing appointments and reappointments to the group earlier this week.

$100,000 Blast, Fire Damage Chemical Plant

MONACA, Pa. — A chemical explosion triggered a spectacular two-hour fire Thursday at the Koppers plant of Koppers Co., causing damage unofficially estimated at more than $100,000. Nobody was injured.

Some 300 firemen from 11 companies joined plant fire-fighters in extinguishing the chemical-fed blaze. It shot flames high into the sky, but was confined to 130 square feet of the 275-acre facility.

The explosion occurred in a huge tower where Koppers combines chemicals under high pressure to make ethyl benzene, a highly explosive intermediate product in the manufacture of styrene, used in synthetic rubber production.

Company officials said the cause of the blast was not determined. A state police spokesman said leaking chemicals may have touched off the explosion.

Find Bomb Near House Of Negro

EASTON, Md. — A Negro father of two children attending a formerly all-white elementary school found a homemade bomb of 10 sticks of dynamite on his front lawn this morning.

Sessions Boyd, 41, staid a plastic picnic bag in front of his house. When he pulled the zipper, he saw the dynamite and called police. A Maryland state police sergeant dived in a bucket of water.

Thomas Mesick, a dealer in dynamite, said the explosives had the potential force of a one-ton bomb and would have destroyed the house.

Storm Hits Island

MANILA, U.P. — Typhoon Carmen hit the northern tip of the Philippines today. Winds of 110 miles an hour and heavy seas struck the sparsely populated Batanes Islands. It should miss Formosa and slam into the China mainland north of Hong Kong on its present course, the Manila weather bureau said.

or severely damaged three or four of the frame row houses on the street. Mesick said the dynamite probably failed to go off because of a faulty fuse. The inside of the bag was scorched, indicating the fuse had been set off.

Prefers Date That Won't Conflict With Teamsters Convention, Election

Hoffa Asks Probers To Set Date For Quiz

WASHINGTON — James R. Hoffa today asked the Senate Rackets Committee to either renew right away its public probe of his labor career or to delay it until after the coming Teamsters convention.

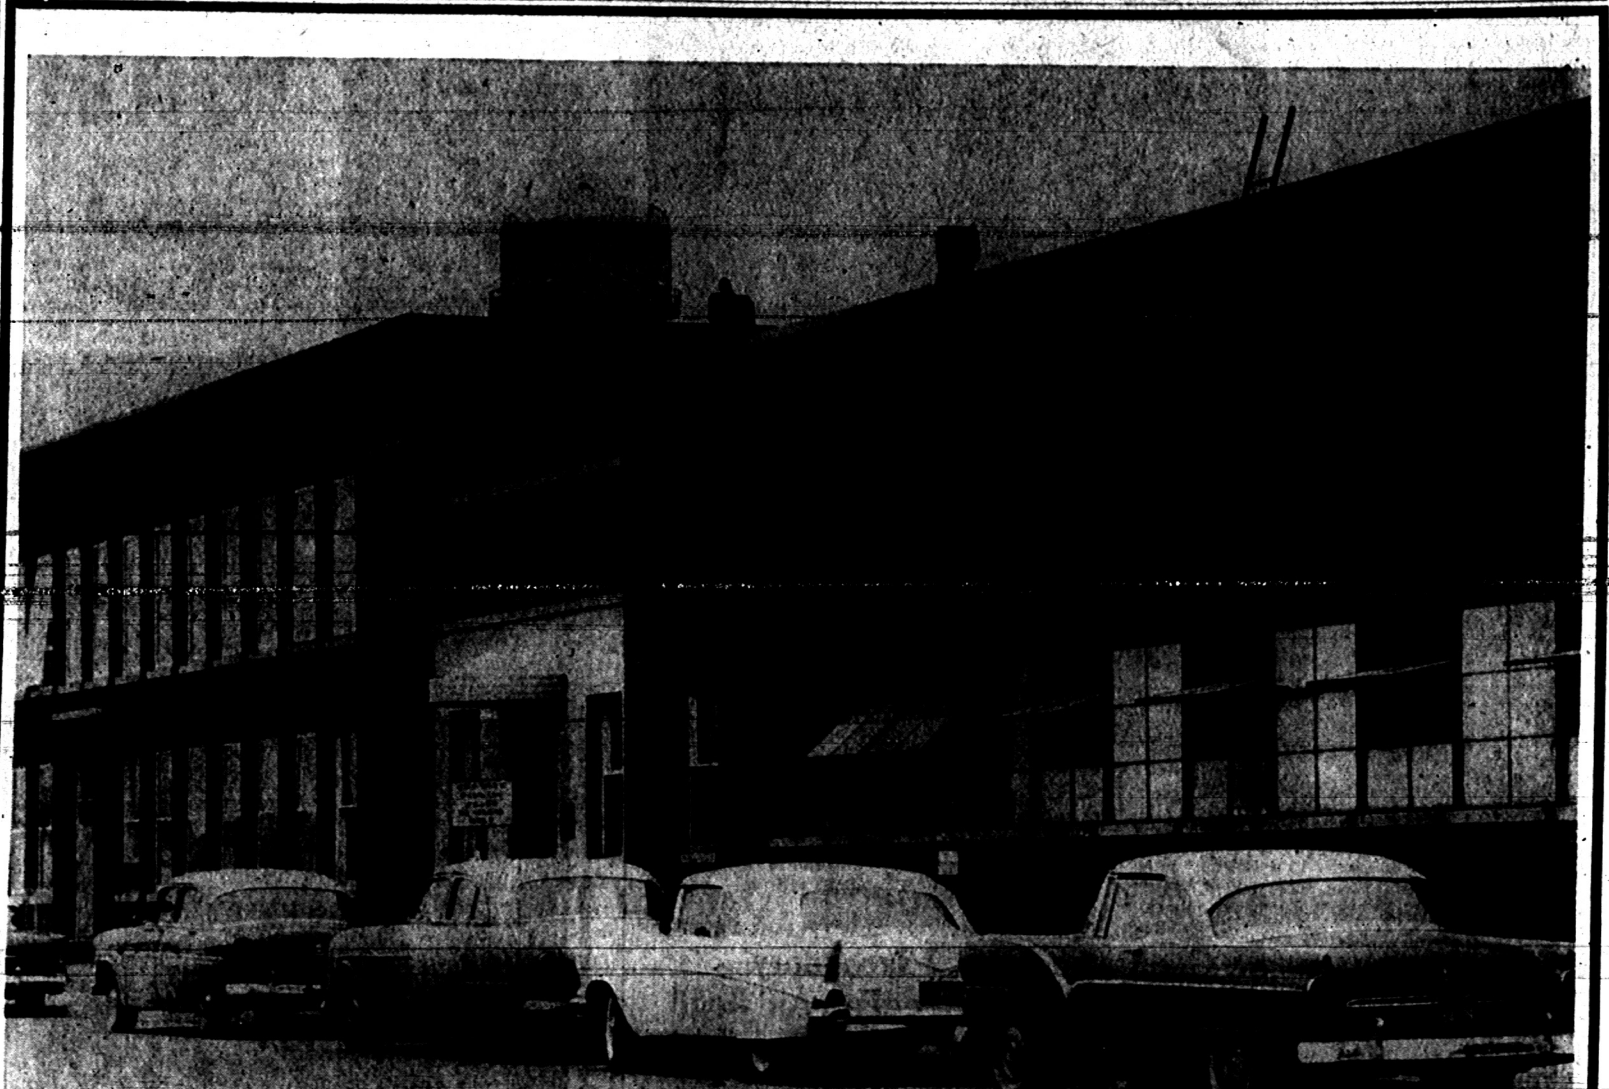

Hoffa, Midwest boss of the giant Teamsters Union, still is the frontrunning candidate to succeed Dave Beck as Teamsters president at the Sept. 30 Miami convention despite earlier disclosures before the Senate group.

THE 44-YEAR-OLD Hoffa has been charged before the committee with accepting money loans from employers and with associating with New York labor racketeer Johnny Dio. George Fitzgerald, Hoffa's lawyer, wrote to Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) and other committee members asking that Hoffa either be recalled early next week or not until Oct. 18. Fitzgerald said Hoffa would be busy constantly with convention business from Sept. 18 to Oct. 18. He noted also that Hoffa must appear in New York Sept. 23 to answer to a witness subpoena.

Hoffa's request apparently was prompted by comments made by committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy in Detroit earlier this week. Kennedy said that a hunt with a dossier committee staff investigators in Hoffa's home town had been worthwhile and had produced fresh evidence. He added he felt the material warranted new hearings prior to the Teamsters convention. Hoffa, meanwhile, has denied in Chicago papers he might bow out of the race for the union presidency and also over the union's helm, these sources said, even if it meant the Teamsters would be estranged by the rest of organized labor.

New Highway Forces Chicago To Condemn Church Still Being Built

CHICAGO (UP)—A $600,000 church going up in Chicago's South Side is going to have to come down. It's smack dab in the path of a proposed superhighway.

The huge new Progressive Baptist Church has been under construction since April, 1955, and more than $400,000 worth of the structure has been completed.

Chicago Public Works officials said they previously warned church officials they were building in the middle of the future south expressway, but they went right ahead with construction.

Then the city tried to figure out a possible alternate route to bypass the church, but without avail. The upshot, according to Public Works Commissioner George L. DeMent is that condemnation proceedings against the church will begin within two weeks.

The Rev. T. E. Brown, pastor of the church, said the church was broken more than two years ago, and five months later the city council issued a free building permit for the structure.

IN SEPTEMBER, 1956, the Rev. Mr. Brown said, he was advised by the Public Works Department to halt construction.

Dement explained the delay by saying he couldn't seek condemnation proceedings because the route of the expressway was not approved by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads until then. The federal government is paying 90 per cent of the road's cost.

The city commissioner said last April he again told the pastor to halt work and offered to pay the church $250,000 for construction already completed.

Costs of the church continued and Dement said he withdrew a condemnation proceedings while the department made another engineering survey in an effort to save the church.

Dement said he was not sorry the church was not saved, but he felt the Rev. Brown was somewhat unreasonable in continuing construction while the city tried to save the church.

He tried every way to miss the church, Dement said, "but we can't. It will cost us more money, but it will be fair."

Mother Still Sees 3 Tots Off To School After 4 Years

Mr. Motorist: Don't Get A Letter Like This

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A letter addressed to "Dear Mr. Motorist" arrived at the Mirror-News.

"I am not writing this to you to remind you all over again," the letter said, "but to all motorists because school again begins."

"I want to prevent the tragedy that you have experienced together."

"That day three sunshined little faces smiled as they waved me a happy goodbye and so importantly went on their way to school. I wanted to call them back to tell them how I loved them."

"Mr. Motorist, I wanted to kiss them once more. . . . Then I saw you take that corner — tires screaming, car out of control. 'What was your hurry? Were you late for work? Were you angry at someone?'"

"SURELY NOT MY THREE. I am sure you would not want to run your screaming tires over their happy faces intentionally, crushing forever the smiles they had for me."

"But, Mr. Motorist, children are very forgiving in life and — I'm sure — in death they would if they could, put your hand and feel sad that because of one tragic moment you are left to live over and over again how your love of speed took three lives."

"I don't hate you any more. I feel sorry for you. I can still see those smiling little faces as they waved me goodbye."

"The letter was signed 'Under the signature' and postscript: 'Another year. And once again your flowers arrive. They are beautiful. Thank you.'"

THE NEWSPAPER SENT REPORTER Charles Nelwander to investigate. He talked with a close friend of the letter writer. She told him the letter was written four years ago on the first anniversary of the tragedy. It was written but never intended to be mailed to the man who was driving the car. The friend sent the letter to the paper, which printed it Thursday.

The motorist?

He still sends the mother flowers on each anniversary of the children's death.

And the mother?

"She couldn't write a letter now. For in her mind she still waves goodbye to the smiling faces of her children. The tragedy was too much. She is in a mental hospital, hopelessly insane."

Plans To Lose 10 Pounds For New World Journey

U.S. To See Lighter Queen

LONDON (UP)—Queen Elizabeth II is on a reducing schedule with the aim of losing 10 pounds before she visits the United States and Canada next month.

The Queen returned Thursday from a month's vacation at Balmoral in the Scottish Highlands to be fitted for a new wardrobe for the royal visit with Prince Philip.

Intimates reveal that Elizabeth has been reducing with the aid of special "slimming pills" prescribed by a famous London physician.

THE QUEEN IS KNOWN to appreciate that the camera can unkindly exaggerate even a little extra weight, and she will face an unprecedented camera and television barrage during her forthcoming tour.

Her clothes, too, will be particularly designed by Norman Hartnell and Hardy Amies to look good on TV. Fortunately, blue is an excellent television shade and is also the Queen's favorite, suiting her blue eyes and golden-brown hair.

Hartnell and Amies will go to Buckingham Palace for fittings and at the same time the Queen will make a final selection of the hats, shoes, bags and other accessories she will take with her.

Then, during the next few days, Miss Margaret Macdonald, the Queen's maid, will start the mammoth job of packing.

It is not simply a job of folding clothes into cases. Miss Macdonald, a smart little Scotswoman in her mid-fifties, has to organize a clothing schedule drawn up like a military organization.

AS BOXES AND PACKAGES arrive at the palace, each ensemble is collected, then the costume is described on a typewritten sheet and given a number. Each of the 80 or so trunks, cases, bags and special boxes has corresponding code numbers.

Thus, if the weather changes suddenly and the Queen needs to change "her ensemble at the last minute, a glance at the schedule sheet shows exactly where the outfit can be found. It is Miss Macdonald's boast she can provide any pair of shoes in three minutes. The Queen herself is as quick at splitting second "dressing as any theater star."

During the next few days the "costumes" will be taken down from the attic storerooms and cleaned and polished. These are the enormously deep and long boxes specially made to store the elaborate skirts. The nickname "costumes" was given them long ago by the police staff.

A completely black outfit will be among the wardrobe. This is in case anyone collected with the court should die while she is abroad and require her to appear in mourning.

THERE ALSO WILL be several dozen pairs of white and pastel suede and kid gloves. When the Queen has a lot of handshaking to do, as she usually does, she often

Kultivators Elect Officers At Season's Opening Meeting

Election of officers was the main business conducted at the Thursday meeting of the Kultivators in the Centennial Room of Gov. Small Memorial Park. Mrs. L. K. Buell was elected president; Mrs. Charles Magnuson, vice president; Mrs. A. L. Fauron, secretary, and Mrs. Irwin Taylor, treasurer. The newly elected officers will be installed at the January meeting.

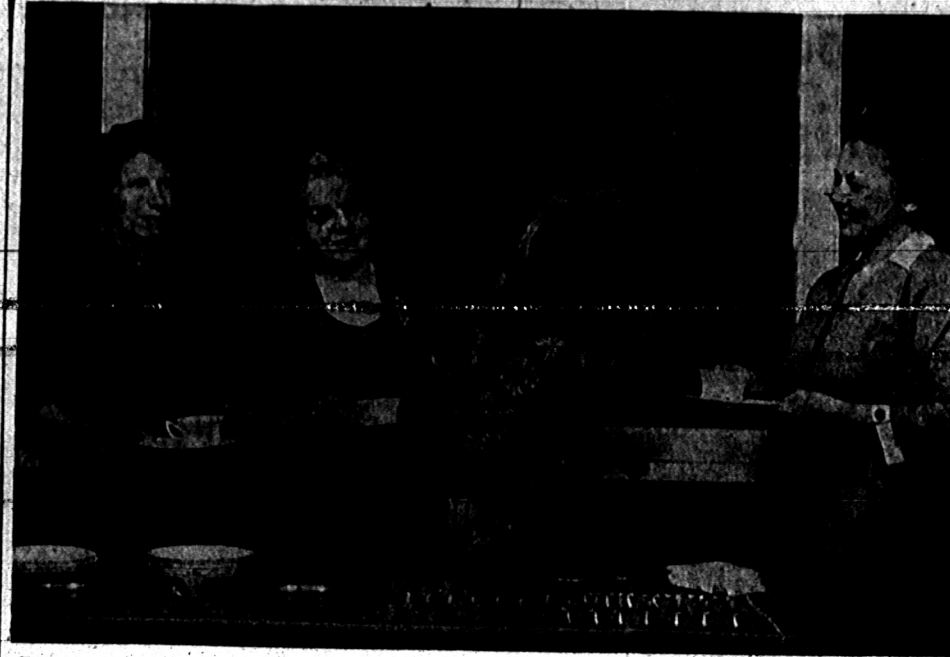

The nominating committee's report was presented by Mrs. Edwin Gerrity.

Also, during the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Buell in the absence of the president, Mrs. Edwin Hamilton, it was announced that Mrs. Gerald Mark has been appointed chairman of the Garden Club of Illinois Inc. spring flower show to be held in Chicago in March. Local Garden Club members who will serve on Mrs. Mark's committee are Mrs. Paul Baron, Mrs. Charles Goodwin, Mrs. Burrell Small, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Magnuson.

Mrs. Edwin W. Sale, chairman of the day, introduced the following panelists: Mrs. John Park who spoke on the selection and planting of bulbs for spring bloom; Mrs. Dorothea Lowe, perennials for every garden; and Mrs. L. O. Minor, healthy house plants.

"IN ORDER TO BE rewarded with a brilliant display of flowers in your garden in the spring you have to plant your spring picture in the fall," Mrs. Park told the women.

In giving suggestions on how to plant these bulbs, Mrs. Park said, "It is surprising how effective a "Plants need a proper balance of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash in either powder or liquid form such as new plant life. Fertilizing is particularly important after transplanting."

Mrs. Minor also advised that in fall, while plants are in open ground to indoors may prove detrimental, so it's well to acclimate them gradually by placing them on a porch or sheltered spot first. For her examples Mrs. Minor presented illustrations of the Christmas cactus, cactuses and geraniums.

AS A GENERAL RULE, the flowering plants are sun lovers. Foliage plants demand light but do well in a sunless window. The foliage of house plants must be sprayed preferably once a week. Mrs. Minor told the group in her discussion on healthy house plants, adding that plants are nourished by light and water.

WSACS Program Features India

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church heard songs of India presented by Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Sherring at the Tuesday meeting.

The Sherrings also played songs on the tabla, harmonium and the dilruba. By request, Mrs. Sherring gave an interpretation of the fish dance, a folk dance, which tells the story of an Indian woman going fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherring were educated and influenced by United States missionaries in India. For the past year they've been attending Northwestern University, in making preparations to teach music in the Mathura Mission High School. Since there's no native church music in India, they're developing the Indian melodies and writing religious words to be used to church music. This is the type of music Sherring is introducing into the mission work.

IN SPEAKING OF THE evangelistic work being done in India, Sherring pointed out that the caste system is gradually being abolished. He said that missionaries are needed to teach and guide the natives as they are being prepared to assume the leadership in developing India into a democracy. At present five denominations are united into one church union to assist in the task of establishing mission schools and hospitals and to give training needed to enable them to carry on the work of the schools, hospitals and civic affairs.

Mrs. Edwin Pearson, program chairman, introduced the following program: "The Story of India," a play written by Mrs. Victor E. Sherring, to be held Sunday, Oct. 6.

A "women's service group" is being organized for the Kankakee State Hospital under the direction of Mrs. Owen T. Gribben, head of the volunteer services organization at the hospital.

On Oct. 1 the fall group meeting will be held in Millford. Reservations for lunch and transportation are to be made by Sept. 25 by guests to the meeting.

Keep In Trim
Former Overweight Now Streamlined At Fifty

By IDA JEAN KAIN
Many an overweight in her fifties writes to ask if she is too old to reduce. There is no age limit for reducing, provided the diet is adequate in protein replenishing nutrients. Fact is, at desirable weight, fifty can be just high noon of life.

Today's letter from a trimmer woman of fifty, who set her mind to slimming and shed a burdensome 56 1/2 pounds, should inspire many overweight to keep young again.

"I will be ever thankful for the day that I sent for your Take Your Choice Diet. The results I received from a terrible 189 1/2 pounds to 133 pounds.

"Although my doctor didn't suggest it, I try again to reduce, I took it upon myself. I have regular check-ups from him. He is pleased and says I have done wonderfully.

"My teen-age daughter and my friends all thought I would weaken as I had so many times in the past. But this time I said that will power would do it—and it did!

With exercise and careful eating, here are my measurements: I'm 5 feet 7 inches, waist 27 1/2, bust 35, hips 36 1/2. I went from size 18 1/2 and 29 down to size 15. I am 56 years old.

"At the time of my marriage, I weighed about 125 pounds. I wanted to go back to that weight, but my husband said no. Of course, that is what I weighed 25 years ago. Will you please tell me what my proper weight and measurements should be?

"It was one year ago this past April that I decided to slim down.

RUTH MILLETT Things Not To Say About Hubby

There are some things to never write or tell about your husband of what others are present. Such as: How she kept him from making a mistake, or tried to, only he wouldn't listen to her.

That it was her money that paid for this or that.

That her husband is the "biggest baby in the world" when he is sick and thinks he is dying if he gets a head cold.

That her husband's family are a trial and tribulation to her.

That she doesn't know what her husband, poor dear, would ever do without her.

U Of I Plans Shopping Survey At 2 Cities

LIBRARIAN CHAMBERLAIN—The University of Illinois is planning a new approach in the shopping habit survey at Vienna, Ill., Prof. M. G. Parsons of the Bureau of Business Management announced today.

Every family living in Johnston county will be contacted. Normally the survey touches only those families living in a 10 or 12 mile radius of the shopping center.

THE VIENNA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE requested that the University of Illinois make the survey following an address by Prof. A. T. Anderson of the University's department of agricultural economics. The survey is in close cooperation with Charles Ream, farm adviser of Johnston County.

Herrin, in adjoining Williamson County, has also requested that a similar survey be made.

Fox Lake Gets Sewage Plant Loan 87 Die In Floods

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Community Facilities Administration has announced a $10,136 interest-free loan to Fox Lake, Ill., for the construction of a sewage treatment plant.

The administration said Thursday that Fox Lake will add $1,900 of its own money for the preliminary plans and will provide the balance of the $12,036 in the form of a 10 percent bond issue.

Questionnaires will be mailed to each of the 2,400 families in mid-October. Prof. Parsons hopes that the survey will be completed by Christmas.
