Close Pembroke Township Tavern, Scene Of Shooting

A Pembroke Township tavern where a man was wounded with a .38-caliber revolver early Wednesday morning has been closed.

Sheriff James W. Laffey said he had the tavern closed following a conference with George Luehr, county liquor commissioner, and State's Attorney Frank W. Curran.

Deputy Sheriff Arnold Pepin and Matt Egan picked up the liquor license, which was issued to James H. Luehr, a bartender.

The tavern was known as the Dew Drop Inn.

Samuel W. Moore, 41, a bartender, will be charged with assault with a deadly weapon, Laffey said.

Moore is accused of wounding Albert McCullough, 38, during an argument.

McCullough is in good condition at Hines Veterans Administration Hospital.

A doctor said the bullet probably will not be removed from McCullough at the present time. McCullough was hit in the shoulder.

Laffey said a formal charge against Moore would be filed later today before Justice George Genovese.

The tavern was the scene of another shooting Dec. 17, 1955, Laffey reported. Then it was known as the Circle Inn, the sheriff said.

Monroe Hilliard, a bartender, was convicted of manslaughter for the fatal shooting of Cecil Waters outside the building. Hilliard, then 40, is serving a sentence of five to 14 years in the penitentiary.

Youth Describes Switzerland Tour To Exchanges

Robert Bolin, senior at Central High School near Clinton, spoke to members of the Exchange Club Wednesday noon. He related some of his experiences and told what he saw during a recent 15-day tour through Switzerland. Probably the worst experience of the trip, he said, was when he lost his return airline ticket, passport and health certificate. Through the cooperation of the Swiss consulate in Chicago, once in Switzerland he was the guest of the Swiss Peasant Association, a sort of farmers union. As a guest of the association Bolin was taken on tours of private farms and government experimental farms. Bolin illustrated his talk with 75 color slides. Guests at the meeting included Bolin's father, Orin Bolin, Tom P. Giannini, sales representative from the airline which flew Bolin to Switzerland, and Albert Schneider of the travel bureau. Louis Ray, club president, announced that the scheduled stag party has been postponed from Tuesday to Oct. 1.

Report High Teamsters Seek To Block Hoffa's Candidacy

WASHINGTON (UP)—The anti-Hoffa drive in the embattled Teamsters Union erupted today on the basis of a stinging report on Teamster corruption by the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee. Labor sources said highly placed Teamster officials now have joined the campaign to block the bid of James R. Hoffa, Midwest Teamsters boss, to be president of the 1,400,000-member trucking union. The committee report charged Hoffa, a Teamster vice president, "associated with racketeering and promoted the interests of notorious labor racketeers in violation of trade union morality." THE REPORT SAID the Teamsters Union as a whole is dominated by corrupt influences and does not measure up to AFL-CIO ethical standards. If adopted by the AFL-CIO Executive Council at its New York meeting next week, the report will undoubtedly lead to a clean-up-or-out order to the Teamsters.

New Sound Scheduled For Crescent City

If you've been unable to hear the fire siren in Crescent City before, stand by! The fire department is planning to have the siren strategically placed so the sound will reach every part of the community. The firemen above are shown dismantling the siren, located on the village hall. It and the one near the telephone building in Crescent City will be mounted to

OK's State Milk Program

CULLOM (JNS) — Members of the grade school Parent Teacher Association voted their approval of the milk program available to Illinois schools when they met in the high school auditorium Monday night.

Louis Drendel and William Perling had been appointed to investigate the plan and inquire about its success in other schools in the area. Louis Drendel reported Cullom is the only school in this area which had not taken advantage of the offer. Children of all ages may have milk at 2 cents a half pint. The milk costs 4 cents but the state refunds 4 cents of the cost.

The procedure is to report the Parent Teacher Association approval to the grade school board. A parent teacher association member was present and agreed to present the proposition to the board.

There was some discussion on the condition of the school playground. Members were in favor of asking for sand under the playground equipment and in the area where children land when they come down the fire escape. There is gravel in these areas now. Some mothers reported that children had been injured. It was suggested that mothers offer their complaints to the board.

Merle Corban, who had been appointed to investigate the advantages of affiliation with the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, gave his report. Members agreed to vote on the proposition at the October meeting. Harland Hoffman, new president, presided and named the following committees:

October lunch committee: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wascher, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Corban, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. John Shearer Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edna Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koerner, and Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Haag.

Parent Teacher Association float for homecoming parade, Oct. 11: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hahn Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ermy Haylette, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Grimsley, Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Van Doren, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Haag, and Mr. and Mrs. Edna Bayston.

There was a pot luck supper at 6:30 p. m. The program included a tap dance by Gale Corban, accordion solo, Terry Clark; musical selections by seventh grade pupils, with Miss Jane Wolf, music instructor, directing; and piano solo by Sandra Haag and Nancy Koehler.

The 1957 officers are Harland Hoffman, president; Merle Corban, vice president; Mrs. Harold Koerner, treasurer; and Mrs. Roy Harms, secretary.

Seek Chicagoan In Wife's Slaying
CHICAGO (UP) — Authorities in Atlanta, Ga., were alerted today to search for a Chicago man who admitted beating his wife to death during a marital argument.

Police here said they believed Raymond Walker, 40, might try to visit his mother in Atlanta. They said Walker's sister, Dorothy Walker, of Atlanta, received a telegram from her brother asking that his mother call him.

Walker disappeared Tuesday night shortly before the body of his wife, Helena, 46, was found in the couple's apartment. A note of the couple's apartment was found on Walker on his wife's body. "I didn't want to kill her, but I just let my head," the note contained, "Sorry, Sorry, Sorry."

U.S. Envoy Holds Secret London Talks

LONDON (UP) — U.S. ambassador from nine nations including Russia assembled here today for secret talks on American foreign policy, new Soviet moves and Germany's post-election outlook.

The meeting is the State Department's annual Northern Europe conference. Assistant Secretary of State Walter Walmisley flew to London to preside.

Moscow envoy Llewellyn Thompson, NATO Ambassador George Perkins and envoys to Canada, Iceland, Ireland, Britain, Sweden, Norway, Finland and Denmark joined in the two-day session at the U.S. Embassy.

OFFICIALS REFUSED all comment on the agenda except that "mutual problems" would be discussed. However, authoritative sources said two major regional subjects would come up for discussion.

The Baltic, where Russia is busy waging a diplomatic and propaganda offensive against NATO unity. Some segments of Scandinavian public opinion are considered particularly vulnerable to Moscow's alternating threat-and-peace offensives.

Germany, where pro-Western Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has just won a new four-year term and where Russia has recently hardened its attitude to reunification except on Communist terms.

BONFIELD (JNS) — The Parent Teachers Association met Tuesday evening in the school room. Room visitation was held from 7:30 to 8 p. m. in each of the class rooms. ### Farm Experts See Decline In Corn Price

WASHINGTON (UP) — Agricultural Department experts predicted today the price of corn, the nation's basic livestock feed, will drop during the next month. But they predicted the decline will halt before the farm price reaches $1.10 a bushel.

The economists, writing in a feed situation report, said the harvest-time price drop will probably be less than the normal seasonal decline. This means, one economist confirmed, a low point somewhere between $1 per bushel and the Aug. 15 average farm price of $1.23 per bushel.

Prices of corn and other feed grains have been "substantially lower" than last year through the summer months and will continue below 1956 levels through the fall, the economists said.

THE MID-AUGUST average farm price for corn was 22 cents per bushel below the level for the same period in 1956. There are no official figures on farm - level prices for this month, but corn market prices at Chicago have dropped about 4 cents per bushel since mid-August.

Reduced prices for corn and other feed grains have posed a threat to 1956 hog prices and raised the possibility of political trouble for midwestern Republicans. Agriculture Department officials have estimated that 1956 hog production will be 10 percent above last year's.

It is estimated that hog prices will be 10 percent above last year's. In addition, a record high crop was harvested this year and pasture in the May-September period was better than in any of the past four or five years.

THE PROSPECTIVE total supply of animal feed concentrate for 1957-58 totals about 210 million tons, about 18 million tons above last year's record, the department report said.

Total supply of feed grains alone for the year is estimated at 250 million tons, with total about 184 million tons. This provides a carryover of about 4 million tons, up 8 million from last year.

Queen's Advice Best In Time Of Inflation

NEW YORK — Best tightening in times of inflation is a hard program to sell. But Queen Juliana is warning the people of the Netherlands they are living beyond their means. Inflation is discussed in the need of a partial return to postwar austerity if the pound sterling is to be saved from further undermining.

Queen Juliana is warning the people of the Netherlands they are living beyond their means. Inflation is discussed in the need of a partial return to postwar austerity if the pound sterling is to be saved from further undermining.

Even in this country, where the dollar stays high and firm in its relation to other currencies, inflation pressures have led President Eisenhower to urge both private and public to curb their spending to ease up on the price wage race.

THE EUROPEAN money mess, which has other causes besides inflation, may be discussed at the meetings in Washington next week of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

But while a reshuffling of the values of European currencies in terms of each other and of the U. S. dollar may be needed to solve the immediate problems of world trade and finance, many bank observers here doubt if any lasting solution to the inflation problem abroad— even here— can be found short of Queen Juliana's advice: Best tightening in times of inflation.

Here is an old fashioned idea. Although it has been practiced with conspicuous success in West Germany, other European countries have been enjoying the pleasant glow of inflation while hoping that somehow its fever chart wouldn't rise.

As long as wages and prices keep rising, as long as European consumers spend their high wages to buy all the goods and services they desire instead of exporting for needed gold and dollar reserves, as long as governments go on spending ever larger sums to give their people all the benefits and privileges they would

U.S. Action On Schools Irks Satchmo

MONTEVIDEO, Minn. (UP)—Jazz trumpeter Louis Armstrong today stood by his statement that the "government can go to hell with its plans to send him on a good will tour of Russia."

Armstrong was quoted Wednesday by a Grand Forks, N. D., newspaper as saying he was abandoning plans for the government sponsored trip behind the Iron Curtain because "of the way they are treating my people in the South."

The famed ambassador of jazz, currently on a tour of one-night stands in the Midwest, told news early today that he would say no more about the issue.

In an interview Tuesday night at Grand Forks, Armstrong told reporters that "it's getting around here that a colored man hasn't got any country."

He charged President Eisenhower with being "two faced" in allowing Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus—an uneducated plowboy—to run the federal government.

"BUT DON'T GET ME wrong," he added. "The South is full of intelligent white people. It's the bad lower class people that make all the noise."

He charged Faubus' action in calling out the National Guard to prevent integration at Little Rock, Ark., was a "publicity stunt led by the greatest of all publicity hounds."

Armstrong, who once remarked that he would rather be a "nigger" with his hot trumpet, said incidents such as that at Little Rock have a bad influence on our foreign relations.

He said if he ever goes to Russia, "I'll do it on my own. Armstrong heretofore has been silent on the integration issue. He has been denounced by Negro leaders as an "Uncle Tom" for playing before segregated audiences.

Campus Easter Lily Out Of Season

Three Campus youngsters had an opportunity this week to examine an Easter Lily which apparently has its seasons all mixed up. Observing the flower, which was brought to campus by Mrs. Mary Kelly of Chicago (right) and Mrs. Lee Foley of Chicago (left), the youngsters were told that the flower was not in season.

WASHINGTON (U)—America's long-range bombers soon will be reinforced by a new Air Force squadron equipped with intercontinental guided missiles.

The Air Force announced Wednesday its first Shark squadron, numbering 500 officers and men, is rounding out its training in California and will be on duty with the Strategic Air Command before the end of this year.

The Shark—essentially a pilotless bomber—is designed to carry a nuclear warhead 4,000 miles at about the speed of sound. This is much slower than the intercontinental ballistic missile.

But the Shark is expected to give the United States added long-range retaliatory capability while an ICBM is being developed. The Russians claim they already have successfully tested an intercontinental rocket.

Robber Slain By Grocer, Nab Second

CHICAGO (U)—A South Side grocer shot and killed one man and wounded another Wednesday night, police said, after neighbors shouted that the pair had just robbed a gas station.

Teenagers Think Their Teachers Dull, Out Of Date And Lacking Enthusiasm

By EUGENE GILBERT

President of the Kankakee High School Students' Union, Charles J. Chaucer, said today that the average high school teacher is "dull, out of date and lacking enthusiasm."

In a questionnaire survey of what high school students think of education at their level, we learned that most boys and girls—about 77 per cent—are satisfied with what they are required to learn but have plenty of gripes about how subjects are being taught.

Many teachers, they complain, lack enthusiasm for their subject matter, present it in a dull and uninteresting fashion and fail to keep pace with latest developments in their field.

In short, they neither gladly learn nor gladly teach.

Open season for a limited time was declared on teachers with this question: "Do you think teachers present their subjects satisfactorily?"

Most boys and girls had no hesitancy about taking aim and blazing away. Quite a few, however, took the precaution of withholding their names to prevent possible pedagogical reprisals.

ONE OF THE BRAVER respondents, 16-year-old Frances Doughty of South Natick, Mass., delivered this blast against the teaching ranks: "I think they themselves should show more interest in their subjects and should have a class better."

Present the subject more clearly and in better detail," suggested 15-year-old girl.

"Most just lecture and do not make subjects interesting," added another of the same age.

"Explain better and be stricter in regards to knowing matter."

These 10 questions, we think, are worthy of inclusion in a teacher's manual. They not only show solid thinking on the part of young students but also demonstrate a degree of interest in teachers and teaching methods that might not be expected.

SOME OF THE ANSWERS, of course, were far from representative although not lacking in interest. Several students expressed a desire for "younger teachers," but one came up with a quick remedy: "Mandatory retirement at the age of 40."

A number of boys and girls complained about not being able to hear and understand what the teacher was saying. Teachers should "talk more clearly," said 18-year-old Sandra Swisher of San Marino, Calif.

A 16-year-old boy from Brooklyn, a city not noted for perfect dictation, had this to say to his teachers: "stop mumbling! They were the usual complaints about teachers being too strict, giving too much homework, too many tests or being, as one girl put it, "chronic low markers," but there also were a number of complaints in the opposite direction. Some teachers were criticized for being too lax in discipline and not giving enough homework and tests.

The survey answers showed that teachers would have an impossible task if they tried to please everyone. Some boys and girls wanted less instruction in general, more in specific subjects.

Some complained that often the teacher was "teaching over our heads," while others wanted them to "go deeper into a subject." There were those who wanted more discussions and more demonstrations. As one boy put it, "I didn't come here to listen to the guy next to me yapping all day. I want to learn something."

HOW DO YOU GO about judging a good teacher? Again, the answer was revealing and at times encouraging.

"By his sincerity, ability and knowledge," said 17-year-old Don

Eustance of Chapel Hill, N. C. "By his confidence, grading, preparation and appearance," said an 18-year-old girl.

"By his attitude towards slow learners," said another.

By how much I learn from her, how good a disciplinarian she is and how friendly she is," commented an 18-year-old girl senior.

In judging a good teacher, teenagers considered personal appearance, tactfulness, attitude toward students in and out of classroom, enthusiasm for their subject, ability to speak clearly and concisely, discipline control, general knowledge of their field, all around knowledge of other subjects, and, as a 17-year-old freshman from Delhi, N. Y., put it, "the methods used and results achieved."

Personality and a sense of humor popped up as prerequisites in quite a few of the answers. Very few rated teachers by how much homework they gave, but one boy managed to compromise by saying that a good teacher should be able to communicate with you and how much homework they give.

Sometimes, as the survey showed, inability to communicate was clearly the fault of the student and not the teacher. Witness this answer from a 15-year-old boy who was asked whether his school courses were useful: "I don't know, but I can't explain it."

Seven years of drought dropped the Harvey County, Kan., water table 42 feet below ground level. The rainy season in 1957 failed it 14 feet.

There are seven sets of twins in the 289 pupils.

They are: Kindergarten—Conale and Carol; Kurtenbach and Jacob and Jackie Reesod.

The total high school enrollment is 82, with 25 freshmen, 28 sophomores, 29 juniors and 13 seniors.

Seven years of drought dropped the Harvey County, Kan., water table 42 feet below ground level. The rainy season in 1957 failed it 14 feet.

4 Chatsworth Seniors OK Their Teachers

Four seniors at the Chatsworth High School have come up with their own ideas about what they think of their teachers and surprisingly, in contrast to the national survey of the Gilbert Youth Research Co., the Chatsworth seniors think their teachers are smart, full of enthusiasm and they wouldn't care for a change.

In the national questionnaire they came up with answers generally almost the opposite to those cited by the Gilbert survey.

Asked, "Are you satisfied with the way you are being taught in school?" Jim Collins, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward Collins, replied, "Generally speaking, I am satisfied with the way I am being taught. Most of our teachers manage to make their subjects interesting and put them forth in such a manner so that we can get something out of them."

Collins then qualified himself, "However, in previous years, some teachers seemed to be more interested in getting through the book rather than teaching us anything."

Doris Freehill, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Freehill explained this year she has "young teachers full of ambition and so far away from a teenagers age that they can understand our problems and help us as best they can."

HOW DO THE FOUR Chatsworth seniors judge a good teacher? Darwin Bayston, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaRoy Bayston says, "A good teacher should have as much respect for the pupils as they should have for her. He or she should be reasonable with assignments and when they are given should make a full, clear understanding of them. A good teacher shouldn't be too strict in the classroom but yet he shouldn't be too much the opposite."

Marlette Henrichs, 16, daughter of the Burrell Henrichs determines a good teacher on "whether a teacher commands respect, how she explains the assignments she makes and whether she is willing to help you if you don't understand a part of the lesson."

ALL AGREED THAT THE courses they are taking are useful.

WHILE THE CAT'S AWAY, the mice will play, but in this case, although the teacher has her back turned, these four Chatsworth seniors think she is doing a good job. The four are, from left, Jim Collins, Marlette Henrichs, Darwin Bayston and Doris Freehill. (Journal photo) ly, all replied yes, but there were some qualifications. Marlette said, "yes, because I understand what I am studying and that is the most important thing, but there are students in the school who don't understand the subjects. Hence, in a sense, the teachers are not teaching the subjects satisfactorily."

Asked how they would have teachers change, Darwin was the only one with a suggestion. He said, "I think they should have a class better."

He has had teachers in the past who presented subjects "beyond the students' comprehension." He explained, "Those teachers should try to understand the pupils and come down to their caliber or learn to present their subjects so they will get across to the students."

Present the subject more clearly and in better detail," suggested 15-year-old girl.

"Most just lecture and do not make subjects interesting," added another of the same age.

"Explain better and be stricter in regards to knowing matter."

These 10 questions, we think, are worthy of inclusion in a teacher's manual. They not only show solid thinking on the part of young students but also demonstrate a degree of interest in teachers and teaching methods that might not be expected.

LUNCHTIME TREAT: Potato and tuna chowder is easily prepared and serves some using different for schoolkids home for lunch.

Tuna Chowder Fine School Lunch

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Home from school for lunch, boys and girls are likely to enjoy a nutritious and hearty potato-and-tuna chowder.

Recently we served this soup to our teenagers nephew for a homecoming meal. It was a hit. The recipe is simple and easy to make. It is a good meal for school children.

POTATO TUNA CHOWDER
Ingredients: 1 can (10½ ounces) frozen condensed cream of potato soup, 1½ to 1¾ cups milk, ¼ cup very finely diced celery, 1 can (6½ ounces) chunk-style tuna (drained), finely grated carrot (for garnish).

Method: Place the unopened can of frozen soup in hot water for several minutes so soup can be removed easily. Turn into a medium-sized saucepan and add the milk and celery. Heat slowly, stirring occasionally, until soup is thawed. Bring to a boil, then turn heat low again. Add drained tuna and stir well. Keep over low heat long enough to have tuna hot. Sprinkle servings of chowder with a little finely grated carrot. Makes 4 servings.

LUNCHBOX NOTES
Even youngsters who regularly come home from school for lunch can enjoy a variety of foods. A vacuum bottle full of hot chowder is a good idea. It will keep hot for hours. When this boy and girl happens you might like to send along a baked apple, topped with a little hard sauce, in a covered paper container for dessert.

Soups may be put into the lunch box in wide-mouthed vacuum bottles.

Rough, Tough Irish

These four senior graders, (l-r) tackle Tom Draudo, guard Alex Kress and Lee Guinond and tackle Tom Yank, make the St. Patrick Central team strong at the guard and tackle positions. All four were regulars on last year's Irish team which posted a 2-2 record. Last week these four boys paced the defense as the parochial school took a 14-0 victory over Evergreen Park. Guinond was an all-conference selection last year and Kress was a second team choice. (Journal photo)

Central Tests St. Pat Friday At Alumni Field

By JIM TISCHE
St. Patrick Central will launch its bid for a third straight W-R-K-A Conference championship Friday evening when the Fighting Irish entertain Central Community at Alumni Field.

Action will get underway with a freshman game between the two teams at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity contest is slated for 8 p.m.

"The Irish have been co-champs of the league for the past two years. In 1953, they shared the top spot with Central and last year with Bradley."

"This will be the seventh meeting between the schools. St. Pat took easy victories in the opening two games of the series but since 1953 the teams have tangled in some tough and interesting battles."

Hutch's club disappointed a crowd of 22,668 by failing to score on 10 hits in the first five innings of the game. The Cardinals were out of the game in the seventh and eighth.

They had won 11 of 13 since Labor Day. Hutch pointed out that for the season have done "about as well as could be expected."

Frank Lane has been trying to pick up a left-handed pitcher to help the club in its last nine games, when they'll face lineup slugging with left-handed sluggers.

Cards Slip But Still Hope To Catch Braves

ST. LOUIS — Manager Fred Hutchinson of the St. Louis Cardinals is realistic about their four-game deficit with nine to play, but says definitely:

"I still think the pennant will be decided at Milwaukee." The Cardinals slipped to 10-10 in the first five innings of the game. The Cardinals were out of the game in the seventh and eighth.

They had won 11 of 13 since Labor Day. Hutch pointed out that for the season have done "about as well as could be expected."

Things Will Be All Wright At Danville

Each team has two Wrights at quarterback and Clarence Wright at halfback. Danville has Gene Wright and Jerry Wright at halfback.

Boilermakers Remember '56 St. Anne Upset

A year ago Bradley High School's gridiron dropped into St. Anne for a "fox trot" and ended up on the wrong end of a "rock and roll." A Boilermaker coach that was figured two or three touchdowns better than the Cardinals stood around and saw coach Jim Reed's hoped-up crew turn into tigers and roll to a surprising 13-0 triumph that "made" the St. Anne season, regardless of what occurred thereafter.

In the two camps today, as the same two teams prepare for their annual meeting, the Cardinals are looking for a "fox trot" and ended up on the wrong end of a "rock and roll." ### Braves Expect To Set Gate Record

MILWAUKEE — The Milwaukee Braves expect to break their own National League attendance record at left field in place of Schultz. Tals looked good on defense against the "Bullwogs."

Donald Davidson, public relations director, estimated that the Braves would draw about 25,000 fans through the turnstiles in their remaining six home dates.

One World Series Ticket For Two

Pointed remarks seem on front burner as Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Culligan meet in kitchen at Milwaukee. Roy's on the pay because he ordered one World Series ticket — a good one — for possible Milwaukee series, figuring he'd have no luck with about 50,000 applicants. He got the ticket. The argument is over who sees the game. Roy is preparing his own lunch for night shift work. (AP Wirephoto)

JUSTICE TOO SLOW, 2 MEN SETTLE SUIT ON FLIP OF COIN

LOS ANGELES (U)—Two businessmen have revealed how they sped the sometimes painfully slow progress of justice. But their method isn't likely to win approval in court circles.

Steve Goss and Danny Pavlitz related Wednesday that they went to court for assignment of a case awaiting trial for two years. After hours they "flipped a coin." Finally Goss, waiting for $500 he claimed Pavlitz owed from a business deal, walked over and said, "It's settled, this is the way." "That was okay by Pavlitz, who in fact suggested 'double or nothing'."

So they flipped a coin, and Goss called heads but it came up tails.

Goss left empty-handed, with this philosophical observation: "He probably would have won in court, anyway."

Saunemin 1957 Graduates Will Resume Education

SAUNEMIN (JNS)—Several 1957 graduates of Saunemin Township High School left for schools of higher education last week.

Find Stolen Indian In Pawn Shop

PHILADELPHIA (U)—There's a first time for everything, and Philadelphia police have scored another—they've recovered their stolen wooden Indian.

The life-size redwood carving of a Native American warrior was found in a pawn shop in the city. It had been stolen from a warehouse where it had been stored by its owner, Thomas A. Bland.

Two detectives spotted the Indian in an antique shop here and hauling the wooden warrior was brought to police headquarters. He'll be returned to Bland after police complete their investigation of the theft.

Last Obstacle In Lutheran Unity

CHICAGO (U)—Representatives of four Lutheran church bodies considered today what may be one of the last major obstacles to a group opposing such membership in the joint commission on Lutheran unity.

The Augustana Lutheran Church, a group opposing such membership, asked Wednesday that the question be put on the agenda of the joint commission on Lutheran unity.

The 35-member commission is attempting to set up a new organizational structure for a merger of the Augustana church, the United Lutheran Church in America, the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, and the American Evangelical Lutheran Church.

In total, the four churches have 2,100,000 members. The Augustana church has 1,100,000 members, the United Lutheran Church in America has 700,000, the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church has 100,000, and the American Evangelical Lutheran Church has 300,000.

The Augustana church has been the most vocal opponent of the merger. It has argued that the other three churches are too large and too diverse to be merged with it.

The joint commission has been working on the question of Lutheran unity for several years. It has held many meetings and has produced many reports. But the Augustana church has always been a major obstacle to the merger.

Today, the joint commission is considering the Augustana church's proposal. If it is accepted, it will be a major step toward Lutheran unity.

Anti-Reds Fight Communists In San Marino

SAN MARINO (U)—Anti-Communists in this tiny republic today set up their own government to oppose the Communist regime that has ruled since the end of World War II.

The Soviet Union cannot place a passive observer while the Near and Middle East are in flames, the Communists are in power, and the Soviet Union is being turned into a permanent hotbed of military conflict.

Addressing the 82-nation General Assembly, Gromyko said: "The Soviet Union cannot place a passive observer while the Near and Middle East are in flames, the Communists are in power, and the Soviet Union is being turned into a permanent hotbed of military conflict."

He accused the West of inventing charges against the Soviet Union to hide its own intentions to dominate the Middle East.

He placed the blame specifically on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and asserted that "rude, political and economic pressure is being exerted" against Syria.

"Lately," he said, "she is being more and more frequently threatened with open military intervention."

The reason for this, Gromyko continued, "is that the people of Syria and the Syrian government refuse to submit to foreign dictation or to allow their country to be drawn into aggressive blocs."

He declared the U. S. position on the Syrian problem is "a simple proof that the Eisenhower doctrine is completely hostile to the interests of the people of the Near East."

Dulles told the Assembly Thursday that Turkey is facing a "growing military danger" as a result of Soviet arms massed along the Syrian border and also along the Soviet-Turkish frontier.

Hoosier Coed Hurt Helping To Open Box

MUNCIE, Ind. (UP)—A Ball State College coed was injured Sunday when she was helping to open a box addressed to another student who had been shot.

The box was in a room where Mrs. Anita Reynolds, Anderson, lost parts of two fingers when the box blew up in an office when the coed was helping to open it.

The box was taken to a hospital suffering from shock. She was in fair condition.

Authorities said Sheila Stine, Fort Wayne, found in a locker used by home so students' wooden box addressed to Ruth Petty, Anderson, another student.

Miss Stine took the box to the office and a secretary notified Miss Petty, who went to the office to get the package.

Two other women in the office helped Miss Petty open the box, which was described as a "heavy construction."

As they pulled open a lid a lever was touched and the box exploded. Before the blast, Miss Petty noticed a return address on the box. She told the others "Why, I don't know that name."

Authorities said the blast came from a 4-inch section of the firing section of a shotgun which had been set to explode as the box was opened.

Miss Petty and Linda Holverson, also was standing around the box while it was being opened. They were uninjured.

Arsonists Blamed For Seneca Fires

SENECA (U)—Four fires broke out in the Seneca area early this morning and police said they were looking for arsonists.

The blaze destroyed a garage, damaged a two-story building housing the Seneca Community School, burned out a barn and slightly damaged a feed store.

Chief of Police Clifford Brown said "it definitely looks like a touch-off job in all four cases."

There were no injuries and no estimates of damages. The barn, owned by A. B. Clark, contained 1,500 bales of hay.

Police said three rocks had been thrown through the window of the bank and they said signs were found beneath the first floor of Dunn's Feed Store.

Seneca is a town of 1,500 population about 18 miles northwest of Ottawa in LaSalle County.

Haakon Unchanged

OSLO, Norway (U)—A medical bulletin said today that the condition of the 31-year-old King Haakon VII was unchanged, but that he had a quiet night and his temperature was normal. The 85-year-old King, who is suffering from a circulatory ailment, has been given intravenous feeding.

LOS ANGELES (U)—Deliberations of the jury in the trial of a magazine criminal libel conspiracy case stretched into their fourth day today. There was no indication when the jury was called out that a verdict was near.

U. S. Test Center Fires Mystery Missile Believed To Be AF's Thor

MISSILE TEST CENTER, Cape Canaveral, Fla. (U)—A big, gleaming, cigar-shaped missile, believed to be the Air Force Thor, was blasted into the sky from the missile test center at 8:35 a.m. (EST) today.

The missile rose straight up for perhaps 15 to 20 miles, then curved to the eastward and kept climbing as it arched into the blue.

Rising noiselessly with a faint "tall, thin, missile" shape, it made smoke at high altitude like a skyrocketing plane. Then it turned on a more curving course and climbed away leaving a streak of gray.

It sounded in the air like a gunshot. The missile was estimated to be 17 miles before a booster apparently threw it off course.

Preparations for firing the Thor, estimated at $1 to 2 million, had been going on most of the morning.

The missile was on the beach about three miles away, saw what appeared to be a times from fuel as it was fired.

If it was the Thor, it was the fourth of its kind to be fired from the test center.

Gromyko Lays Mideast Crisis Blame On West

Says Russia Can't Be Passive Where Security Is Involved

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko blamed the West today for the "Middle East" situation.

He declared Russia "cannot watch impassively over a situation that bears upon its own security."

The Soviet leader struck back vigorously at charges made by papers pertaining to the Soviet Union, he declared, "the Soviet Union is being turned into a permanent hotbed of military conflict."

Addressing the 82-nation General Assembly, Gromyko said: "The Soviet Union cannot place a passive observer while the Near and Middle East are in flames, the Communists are in power, and the Soviet Union is being turned into a permanent hotbed of military conflict."

He accused the West of inventing charges against the Soviet Union to hide its own intentions to dominate the Middle East.

Reveal Defense Against Missiles

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Air Force reported today that the United States has developed radar which will detect an intercontinental ballistic missile up to 3,000 miles away.

Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, said the advanced type of radar will be put into use "in the near future" to give U. S. population and military centers "instantaneous warning" of a missile attack.

White's disclosure came on the heels of Defense Department confirmation Thursday night that this country has flown a test ballistic missile for "thousands of miles."

White told the Defense Orientation Association, meeting at the Pentagon, that the Air Force has made "recent breakthroughs in the computer, communications, radar and missile fields."

"Work is now being actively pursued in two phases of the total system" of air defense, he said.

"RADARS HAVE now been developed which have detection ranges on an intercontinental ballistic missile out to 3,000 miles," White said.

"This system, which will provide instantaneous warning to our population and military centers, is planned for operations in the near future," White said.

The Army and Air Force are both working on the two key elements in defense against "the ultimate weapon"—the ICBM.

The other is a long range radar which can detect the missile while it is in the air.

White disclosed today.

As they pulled open a lid a lever was touched and the box exploded. Before the blast, Miss Petty noticed a return address on the box. She told the others "Why, I don't know that name."

Authorities said the blast came from a 4-inch section of the firing section of a shotgun which had been set to explode as the box was opened.

Miss Petty and Linda Holverson, also was standing around the box while it was being opened. They were uninjured.

11 Houses Open In Parade Of Homes

Kankakee area residents will have an opportunity to inspect 11 houses in the third annual Parade of Homes, Sept. 21 through 23, sponsored by the Home Builders Association of Kankakee. The new homes will be open to the public from 1 p.m. until dark daily.

Included in the parade are tri-level, ranch and bungalow type homes in price categories ranging from about $15,000 to $25,000. The more expensive homes include such things as three fireplaces and sun decks. One of the more moderately priced homes has seven rooms all on one floor, including a fair-sized family room and a bathroom.

A number of the homes have either 1½ or two baths, with one containing a shower and the other a tub. Some have basements and others do not.

Kenneth Horn is chairman of the Parade of Homes committee. Officers of the sponsoring organization are: Donald Johnson, president; Bud Campbell, vice president; Norman Felesena, treasurer; and Edwin Kershaw, secretary.

Installers Call Off Telephone Deadlock

NEW YORK (U)—A four-day strike of 23,000 telephone equipment installers ended with an agreement on a new contract today.

The installers have one month in which to ratify the new contract.

The installers are members of the Communications Workers of America and employees of Western Electric Co., manufacturing arm of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The negotiators for the company and the union settled on pay increases ranging from 6 to 12 cents an hour plus one benefit.

As dissatisfied with the contract as members of his local. Long distance operators, who had been observing the picket lines of their striking fellow employees, were completely filled with white spectators. The other side, predominantly by Negroes with a few white spectators.

The jury box was filled entirely by Negroes. No jury is used in a case of this kind.

The case is the first test of authority by the U. S. government with a state government over the emotion-laden issue of integrating the public schools.

IT WAS THE second consecutive day which he declined to comment.

Thursday, he refused a federal court subpoena for another civil rights lawsuit.

Proceedings in the injunction hearing began immediately before Judge Davies.

Faubus was not strictly required under a summons to appear in person today. The U. S. District Court clerk said he could be represented by attorneys.

The courtroom was jam-packed and corridors outside were filled. Inside the small courtroom, the judge was completely filled with white spectators. The other side, predominantly by Negroes with a few white spectators.

The jury box was filled entirely by Negroes. No jury is used in a case of this kind.

The case is the first test of authority by the U. S. government with a state government over the emotion-laden issue of integrating the public schools.

IT WAS A landmark case in the whole great struggle over civil rights.

In one sense, it is the federal government versus Gov. Orval E. Faubus. Others are expecting a baby next March.

Order Jepsen Reinstated As Bradley Teacher

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U)—Attorneys for Gov. Orval Faubus suddenly and dramatically walked out on the injunction hearing against the governor today after declaring they do not recognize the jurisdiction of the U. S. District Court.

Their walkout came immediately after U. S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies rejected their motion to dismiss the government's petition for injunction commanding Faubus to stop interfering with the integration of Little Rock Central High School.

William J. Smith, Faubus' personal attorney, said "As far as we are concerned we're through."

With that, Smith and the governor's other attorneys, Tom Harper and Kay Matthews, left the courtroom and entered an elevator.

The hearing continued. Judge Davies called for witnesses to be summoned.

Faubus, who had asked the judge to step down because of alleged "bias and prejudice" was not in the courtroom as the proceedings began.

Davies said the Faubus motion was "not legally sufficient" and not timely.

THESE WERE the two principal arguments brought against the motion by government attorneys, Donald MacGinitie, arguing against Faubus' motion, spoke for 10 minutes and Kay Matthews, one of the three attorneys representing the governor, spoke for seven minutes in response. Matthews challenged the government's presentation of evidence in the case, saying it was biased and prejudiced.

This cleared the way for the presentation of evidence in the case, which has gripped Little Rock and the nation for nearly three weeks.

Like Faubus, Arkansas Adj. Gen. Sherman J. Clinger also was absent from the courtroom.

It was Clinger who at Faubus' orders deployed National Guardsmen around the high school to prevent Negroes from entering a move the governor said was taken to prevent violence.

Clinger is a co-defendant with Faubus in the injunction suit.

The governor was under summons to appear in the case in which the government is seeking to enjoin him from further interference with integration at Little Rock Central High School.

One of the remaining charges was that Jepsen was disrespectful of the board and its officers.

The court said the record disclosed only one incident concerning this charge—a conversation with a group of men shortly after Jepsen's removal from the school. The matter could have been remedied. He said the board should have given Jepsen reasonable warning in writing stating the causes which, if not remedied, might result in charges against him.

This was not done, the court said. The other charges involved the eligibility of a Bradley student, Robert Plev, to play in some football games in which he took part.

Jepsen was accused of inciting riotous and disruptive of the Bradley superintendent and coaches by telling officials of other schools that Plev played varsity football in 1955 before having the required number of practices (10). Jepsen also was charged with accusing the principal and coaches of attempting to conceal the ineligibility of Plev.

Both charges ended with a court order on Page 4, Column 3.

Judge Acts To Block Teamster Vote

WASHINGTON (U)—Federal elections at the Teamsters convention opening in Miami Sept. 24, may be blocked by a judge.

U. S. District Judge Ronald N. Davies directed that attorneys for the group prepare a proposed order for his signature.

They would "suspend" Teamster Convention delegates from the order to sign the proposed order.

LETTS SAID Teamsters officials should be served with notice of the hearing by Sept. 24. Most of them are already in Florida for the possibility that the election can be held until such time as new members in the proceedings, said Letts.

He said present delegates to the order he expected the judge to sign this afternoon was a victory.

The governor was under summons to appear in the case in which the government is seeking to enjoin him from further interference with integration at Little Rock Central High School.

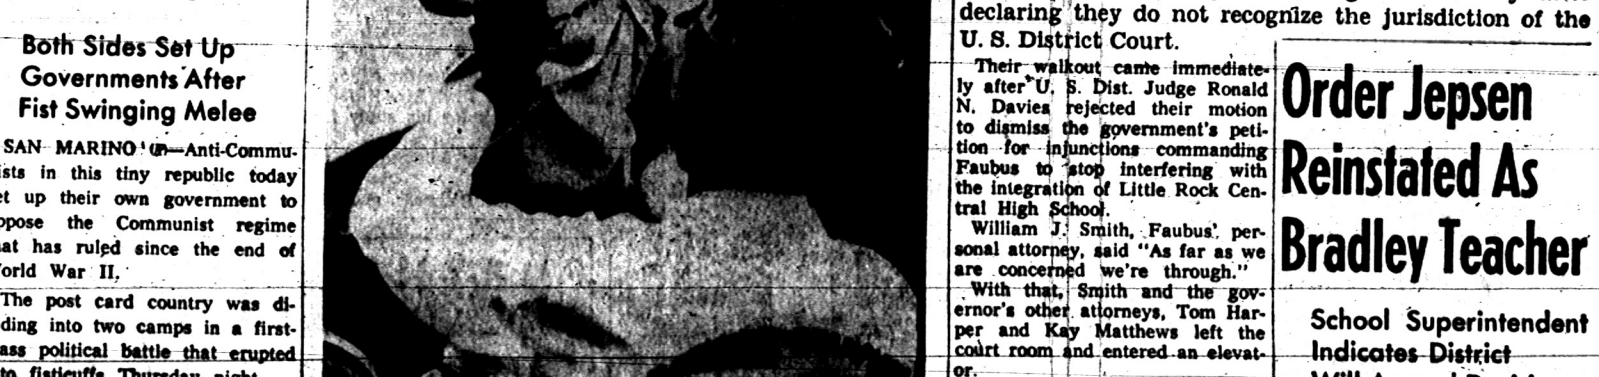

One of the remaining charges was that Jepsen was disrespectful of the board and its officers.

The court said the record disclosed only one incident concerning this charge—a conversation with a group of men shortly after Jepsen's removal from the school. The matter could have been remedied. He said the board should have given Jepsen reasonable warning in writing stating the causes which, if not remedied, might result in charges against him.

This was not done, the court said. The other charges involved the eligibility of a Bradley student, Robert Plev, to play in some football games in which he took part.

Jepsen was accused of inciting riotous and disruptive of the Bradley superintendent and coaches by telling officials of other schools that Plev played varsity football in 1955 before having the required number of practices (10). Jepsen also was charged with accusing the principal and coaches of attempting to conceal the ineligibility of Plev.

Both charges ended with a court order on Page 4, Column 3.
