World Financial Leaders Get Warning

President Warns Of Perils Of Inflation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Eisenhower today appealed to the free world's finance ministers to fight inflation, lest global prosperity turn into a depression "and all the evil consequences we know so well."

Eisenhower addressed the opening session of the boards of governors of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund, convening here for their 12th annual meeting with delegates from 64 nations.

He warned that inflation has become "a world-wide phenomenon today," and must be recognized as "a threat to sound economic growth."

The president called for wise and courageous leadership in every country, the President declared, starting:

"IT IS A CALL that must be heeded, for inflation not only destroys the savings, pensions and insurance policies of the frugal, its aftermath can be a depression which saps the strength and vigor of government, of industry and of people."

The President had interrupted his Newport, R. I., vacation to address the assembly of some 500 bank governors, alternates, delegates and observers. He received warm applause.

Eisenhower called on the financial leaders to consider carefully whether their programs of expansion and investment are too large. "We cannot successfully put a continued overload on our resources," he cautioned. "Rising prices have confirmed this economic axiom."

He went on: "For those of us charged with public responsibilities this means conscientious efforts to limit government demands on the economy—a difficult task in this day of heavy defense outlays."

IN AN OBLIQUE reference to the problem of rising wage costs, blamed by some in this country for persistent inflationary pressures, he said:

NEGROES IN SCHOOL AS VIOLENCE FLARES

AFTER LEARNING that Negroes had gained entrance to Little Rock's Central High School, these weeping girl students left the building today. The girls made several successful attempts to persuade others to leave the school but were rebuffed by police in their last effort. (United)

Enter Side Door As Adults Trick Mob

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Little Rock High School officials withdrew the eight Negro students who entered Central High School today.

Mayor Woodrow Wilson Mann radioed an announcement at 1:30 p.m. (AP) that the crowd of Negroes had been removed from Central High School.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Eight Negro students slipped into a side door at Central High School today while a diversionary group of Negro adults fought with an angry crowd of whites to divert their attention. Fights broke out immediately and state police joined city patrolmen to battle the surging whites.

Reporters who caught just a glimpse of the students as they were rushed into the building through a side door said nine had entered but the school office said the number was eight.

THE WELL-EXECUTED plan of diversion held the crowd's attention long enough for the Negro students to be driven onto the campus and whisked through the side door.

One of the Negro adults was knocked down, beaten and kicked. Women screamed and men cursed and tried to breach the line of officers—thrown around—the huge school ground.

The violent action started just as the bell rang for classes to begin at 8:45 a.m. CST. The crowd had been kept in hand and was fairly docile up to this time.

Suddenly at the end of the tree-lined block in front of the school building about five Negroes appeared and the crowd rushed toward them and a fight started.

As police swarmed toward this action the Negro students made their move and got inside.

About 20 white men tried to break through when one of them shouted "Let's get them." But officers swinging billy clubs knocked the man down and grabbed a second. The line held.

State police and ambulances arrived about the same time and went into action against fights that had "broken out all over the place."

White students started filing out shortly after the Negro students entered and someone shouted: "Come on out. Don't stay in there with the niggers."

Students coming out of the high school said three of the Negro boys who entered school had "blood on their clothing" and fights had broken out inside the school building.

The students told reporters the "Negroes were chased through the halls when classes changed" and were attacked by other students.

The initial violence outside the school was a frightening sight. Women burst into tears and a man, hoisted up on a wooden barrel, continued on Page 6, Column 1

Train Derailment Hurts 24 Persons

PEABODY, Kan. (AP)—The Rock Island Railroad's Twin-Star Rocket, headed from Minneapolis to Houston, piled off the rails at the south edge of Peabody early today. Twenty-four were treated at hospitals for injuries.

Initial examination of the injured showed only one in serious condition. Wallace Hutchinson, 63, Wichita, Kan., had a possible skull fracture.

There was no indication of the cause of the wreck.

The Rocket ran into trouble about 100 yards north of the point where the Rock Island and the Santa Fe cross on the south edge of Peabody.

MOST OF THE injured were in two passenger coaches which landed athwart the crossover and on their sides. Both rail lines were blocked.

The diesel locomotive dragged one mail and baggage car about 33 yards beyond the crossing. The locomotive remained on the rails.

The mail and baggage car skewed crosswise but was upright atop the roadbed.

Another mail and baggage car flipped over on its side and skidded down a 15-foot embankment.

One other passenger coach turned over on its side along the right-of-way north of the crossing.

The remaining cars ran off the rails but remained upright.

Frost Warnings Issued As Fall Arrives Officially

Autumn arrived at 2:27 a.m. today as the mercury dipped to a cool 49 degrees during the early morning hours at Kankakee airport.

The Weather Bureau issued scattered frost warnings for the northern section of Illinois tonight and forecast a low in the mid 40s for the central part of the state.

Sunday, the last day of summer, was marked by a high of 73 at Kankakee airport. Brief afternoon showers were measured at one-tenth of an inch of precipitation.

The five-day weather outlook forecast temperatures averaging 3 to 4 degrees below the normal high of 70 and the normal low of 48. It will be somewhat warmer Tuesday, cooler again Wednesday and Thursday and warmer on Saturday.

Precipitation will average less than 1/4 inch in scattered showers Tuesday night or Wednesday.

The arrival of fall found cool air spreading from the Rockies to the Great Lakes region and southward into the southern plains. The northern Midwest had readings in the frosty 30s.

Summer hung on in the East but the cool air mass was expected to push the warm, humid air into the Atlantic today.

Hoffa Trial On Wiretap Charges Set For Oct. 15

NEW YORK (AP)—A U.S. District Court judge today set Oct. 15 for the wiretap conspiracy trial of James R. Hoffa, aspirant for the presidency of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

Two others, indicted with him are scheduled for trial at the same time.

Judge Sylvester J. Ryan fixed the date at the request of U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams.

Hoffa's Attorney, Sol Gelb, said he intends to move for a "trial date continuation for a long period of time."

Before he entered the courtroom, Hoffa expressed confidence that he would be elected to the $50,000 a year presidency of the IBT at the teamsters' meeting in Miami Beach next week.

Hoffa, principal target of corruption charges by the AFL-CIO's Ethical Practices Committee, was indicted last May with Owen Bernard Brennan of Plymouth, Mich., president of IBT Local 337, and Bernard Bates Spindel of Holmes, N. Y., professional wiretapper.

THEY ARE ACCUSED of conspiracy to tap telephones of employees in Hoffa's Detroit headquarters. All three pleaded innocent and are at liberty in $2,500 bail each.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council meets here Tuesday.

Hoffa and outgoing Teamster President Dave Beck refused Saturday to appear before the council to answer charges of improper conduct.

The Ethical Practices Committee, in a report issued Wednesday in which the Teamsters Union—the nation's largest—to be dominated by corrupt leaders.

Hoffa was put in that category along with Beck and West Coast Teamster chief Frank W. Brewster. The Council is to decide whether it will give its stamp of approval to the report.

The report hinted strongly that the AFL-CIO would kick out the Teamsters if the 44-year-old Hoffa was retained in any top office of his union.

Beck has said he will not stand for reelection.

Syria's Pro-West Neighbors Tighten Border Defenses

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Reports of Syrian troop movements and fear of subversion have prompted Syria's pro-Western neighbors to tighten their border defenses.

Maj. Gen. Afif Bizry, Syria's chief of staff, said Syria is "carrying out certain defense maneuvers."

But in an interview in Damascus last night with William L. Ryan, Associated Press foreign news analyst, he declared the movements were only to prepare against surprise.

A report circulated in Beirut said Syrian troops and Soviet-supplied equipment were moving across Syria under cover of darkness toward the Turkish border.

Bizry denied this. He told Ryan only national police and customs guards are on the Turkish frontier. He said he does not intend to send reinforcements.

Bizry denied Western reports he is Communist or pro-Communist, telling Ryan: "I assure you, I never was affiliated with or was a member of that party."

Germans Fear 86 Went Down On Sailing Ship

LONDON (AP)—The Hamburg owners of the German sailing ship "Pamir" said today they presumed the four-masted bark had been lost in the storm-lashed Atlantic.

The owners held out hope, however, that some survivors of 86 aboard might still be found.

The announcement came from the shipping industry and government foundation that owns the 3,103-ton sailing vessel that vanished Saturday after radioing that she had lost all her sails about 550 miles southwest of the Azores.

The foundation said 62 cadets, of whom 25 were on their first trip, were aboard the vessel. There were 17 regular crew men and 7 officers. This made a total of 86 persons aboard.

The finding of two empty lifeboats and a raft previously had raised fears the vessel had gone down.

Rescue planes and ships crisscrossed the mid-Atlantic without finding a trace of the four-master that had weathered many a storm in her 52 years at sea.

THE "PAMIR," carrying barley from Buenos Aires to Hamburg, radioed Saturday night that she was sinking about 600 miles west of the Azores.

The ship was listing at 45 degrees and all sails had been stripped away.

U.S. Air Force planes reported Sunday night that they had spotted the ship.

Blast Traps 11 In Mine, 6 Still Alive

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—A thundering explosion trapped 11 men deep underground today in the Marianna mine of Bethlehem Mines Corp.

Hours later some of the trapped men reported via an emergency telephone line that all 11 were alive, but several had been burned, a state police official said.

However, Bethlehem officials reported in a statement shortly after noon (EDT) that "mine officials on the scene report they know that six of the men definitely are alive, although some of them may have sustained serious burns."

"THE FATE OF the other five is not known," the company said.

The company said the explosion of undetermined origin occurred at 7:15 a.m. and trapped the men approximately 550 feet below the surface.

Rescue operations were proceeding at noon, about five hours after the explosion. With the nearest shaft damaged by the explosion, the rescue crews were attempting to reach the 11 men through the main entrance to the mine, nearly five miles away.

Work was slowed by lingering fires in some areas of the mine, the state police said.

Economy Not The Only Reason

It is interesting to weigh the calculations involved in the recent decision to disband 100,000 men from the nation's armed forces.

Secretary of Defense Wilson has spoken of budgetary measures. He has also cited the debt limit as a pressing factor. He has stated that the reduction can be achieved without impairment of our national security.

This is the second such cut in the past three months. In addition, 25,000 to 40,000 civilians will have to be dropped from defense payrolls. In a very minor degree, we have seen the results of this latter move as employment at the Elwood and Kankakee units of the Joliet Arsenal is trimmed down.

It appears that the Defense Department is trying to keep all spending within 38 billion dollars.

Wilson, who is retiring next month, said it would seem fair to assume that another cut will be attempted, perhaps in connection with budget plans to be submitted to Congress in January. His parting observation on these restrictions was, "We are not trying to heat up the world. We are not a war-mongering nation."

This country wants things to cool down a bit in a worldwide sense. These cuts in manpower and spending as much as tell the other side that we are not contemplating a showdown and that we are trying to encourage an easing of tensions.

Apparently this country has developed new strategies and new weapons to allow for manpower cuts. It is reasonable to assume that certain defense ideas have become obsolete.

The impression is that the U.S. has made gigantic strides in tactical nuclear weapons. Another impression is that missiles of a lesser range are now part of the American arsenal.

We can rest assured that our defense planners did not decide on these cuts solely for reasons of economy. These actions were taken with the full knowledge that this country is not so poor that it can afford to relax its guard against a formidable enemy for purely budgetary reasons.

Public Has Right To Know

The average citizen has less reason than ever before to complain that he doesn't know what is going on in government. The state legislature has adopted new laws in line with the philosophy that the taxpayers have the "right to know" about governmental operations. The trend is evident both in legislative and executive branches of the government.

At the recent session the General Assembly passed a bill that requires all meetings of tax-supported bodies to be open to the public.

Naturally, the new statute excepts certain meetings and information, such as deliberations for decisions of the Illinois Pardon and Parole Board, the divulgence of which would not be to the best interests of citizens or taxpayers.

Not only will the new law make it easy for a taxpayer to learn how his tax dollar is being spent, but it will go a long way toward maintaining the confidence the public has for the officials serving on the governing boards.

The records management bills resulting from the last session of the General Assembly also contain provisions which insure the public the right to inspect and view state records.

Not to be outdone by the legislative branch of the state government, State Auditor Elbert S. Smith reported to the General Assembly, and to the public, regarding the expenditures of money from a deficiency appropriation made to his office.

It is now up to the taxpayers to take advantage of their new opportunity. Officials who make their records and meetings an open book show a desire to work for the public's welfare and should be encouraged. Only an informed public can vote intelligently for officials who will protect their interests.

Memorial To Senator Taft

The memorial to the late Sen. Robert A. Taft will be a carillon tower. It will be raised on the plaza outside the Senate office building, and its bells will ring out to celebrate great events in Congress and important legislative and administrative events. It should be an effective monument to a man who was so deeply and honorably involved in our national affairs.

Senator Taft was a man of great personal courage and dedication. He was not without ambition. Friends and foes alike were aware of his burning desire to win the presidency, as his father had won it. Yet, in an era when his political point of view was not popular, even with many members of his own party, he refused to compromise his principles to further his ambition.

Why Adenauer Won—Socialists' View

BONN, Germany—The victory of Konrad Adenauer and his Christian Democratic party in the Sept. 15 German federal elections came as a surprise to no one. But the margin by which he won astonished everyone, including political experts and the German Gallup polling institute.

The second most important reason for Adenauer's victory is his outstanding personality and prestige. The fact of his personality was pursued with great success by the Christian Democrats in their campaign. They plastered his portrait by the million on billboards, and even went so far as to say that even if the Socialists had adopted Adenauer's program 100 per cent, or Adenauer had adopted the Socialist program 100 per cent, still the 81-year-old Chancellor would have won.

His biggest mistake, they feel, is that he waited too long before renouncing their doctrine of socialism of basic industries. They are convinced they should have started catering to the middle class vote at least two years before election day. Instead of just a few months before.

Finally, the love of German was his solid support by the Western Powers, especially by the United States.

"THE FOURTH REASON was the behavior of Russia in Hungary and the return of the Soviet Union during recent weeks to cold war tactics against the West."

British Report On Suez Operation

The British government has now published the official dispatch of Gen. Sir Charles Keightley, who was commander in chief of the British and French forces during the Suez operation in the fall of 1956.

The dispatch is a straightforward, soldierly account of an affair whose failure was clearly no fault of the officer in military command. Gen. Keightley does not seek to allocate blame elsewhere or to avoid responsibility, but the facts he records speak for themselves.

Although it was known from Aug. 11, 1956, onward that armed intervention in Egypt might be considered necessary, there seems to have been no real intention of intervention in Egypt until the fall of 1956.

Tax Havens By Treaty

It is as much a psychological as an economic law that money will flow to where it is safe and where it can earn an increase. Risks are taken, of course, and that is how modern industrialization has come to so much of the world. But even when the greatest risks are taken, the entrepreneur assumes that the return will be so large that the risk is worth while. The gambler who does not balance this against profit but who takes a chance on anything, sometimes makes money but most often goes broke and complains about the system.

Whenever a man is heard to complain too violently about "the system," and about "special interests," a gambler will be found who burned his fingers taking too great a risk.

The principal problem that faces the current investor, whether he be a private individual buying securities or a corporation investing in the industry of another country or his own, is taxes. Taxes are a cost of operations. It is stupid to risk one's money anywhere if too large a share of the annual return will be consumed by taxes. The net profit can only be determined after taxes have been deducted from the amount received as a profit which is therefore an exaggerated figure.

IT IS BECAUSE OF THIS that tax havens have come into existence. When it is recognized that America's foreign trade faces government protection and sometimes supported cartels throughout the world and tax havens everywhere, it is astonishing that the movement of American capital abroad has not amounted to a wild flight. As it is, the situation has become extremely dangerous but is offset by disturbed political conditions in Europe which makes the United States a safe, if not too profitable a place for capital. The principal beneficiaries of the tax-haven operation have been Switzerland, Canada, Liberia, Panama and the Bahamas.

Now, Pakistan is moving into the game and has a treaty with the United States by which American firms doing business in Pakistan can get a tax credit which will be recognized by the United States Treasury for foreign taxes which they did not pay and have no intention of paying, and will not be required to pay by the Pakistani government. In a word, although the tax is forgiven by Pakistan, it may not be assessed by the United States.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS NEW treaty, an American firm may open an office in Pakistan for operations anywhere that are necessary or convenient. It may make a token investment in Pakistan but do its business where it may. As long as it operates out of Pakistan, it is doing business there and all courts will hold so. Therefore an American firm can evade all or a great amount of its taxes by doing business out of Pakistan.

Since World War II, most American exports abroad were from government to government and a very large share of them was a gift from the American people. Beginning with lend-lease, through the Marshall Plan and the various devices still operating, the United States has given credit to governments throughout the world, including $11,000,000,000 to Soviet Russia, our principal enemy. How much of these gifts percolated down to the people has not been scientifically ascertained.

BUT FOR THE AMERICAN INVESTOR the question has not so much been to find a foreign market as it has been to find a tax haven. Many of the foreign automobiles which are now beginning to flood the United States are owned by American capital operating in Europe. Some of these operations, but not all, benefit by tax havens which are regarded as legitimate throughout the business world. So large is the tax-haven business that already a number of lawyers and accountants in New York specialize in this operation.

It is like doctors going into a new, popular, money-making specialty like psychoanalysis before it became over-crowded.

The significance of this problem is first that whatever taxes are not paid, it puts an increasingly heavier burden on those who do pay and secondly, if American capital leaves this country only for the purpose of evading or avoiding taxes, the loss is unjustified and nationally dangerous, particularly as it may result in ugly foreign involvements.

This United States-Pakistan treaty may become a precedent for other countries.

A Star Reborn? Dean Martin Holds His Own As Actor

HOLLYWOOD — Dean Martin, after 10 years in movies as Jerry Lewis' partner, is now carving the serious actor.

He is co-starring with Marion Brando and Monty Clift in "The Young Lions."

"I guess I'm doing okay," says Dean. "Eddie Dmytryk, the director, usually says 'print it' after a take or two."

But it's quite a transition.

"IN ALL MY PICTURES with Jerry, my dialogue just consisted of repeating whatever Jerry said. Like he would say, 'I'm going to take a bath.' Then my line would be, 'You gonna take a bath, Jerry?'"

Dmytryk says that Dean is more than holding his own with Brando and Clift, who are capable actors. The director believes that Dean's performance may do as much for him as "From Here to Eternity" did for Frank Sinatra.

Martin and Lewis were doing great as a team. Then came the feud, and some predicted that both boys as singles would never reach their team peak.

A few months ago it was reported that Jerry would gross close to five million this year. Dean, who has never worked as hard as Jerry, will gross as much as he wants to. He gets $200,000 for his role in "The Young Lions."

He was director of the university's division of general studies, director of the division of special services, acting dean of the college of education and just prior to being named ISNU president, he served as assistant professor.

Business Steps Up Drive For Tax Cut In '58

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — The chances of tax cuts are being talked up again today even though Congress sidetracked the issue until next year and the federal budget is in delicate balance.

Business has a stake in any cuts in individual income, corporate income, excise taxes and it has a stake in how the tax cuts are made.

Two of industry's pressing problems today (sales outlook and tight money) could help bring the political fact that 1958 is an election year, but some of the hard facts of "economic life" may help too.

So business agencies are stepping up their drives to influence popular and congressional opinion now that Congress is at home testing the voters' opinions.

THE DRIVES have a wide range. There's the National Association of Manufacturers' ambitious effort to induce Congress to adopt a five year plan of gradual reductions of income taxes, including corporate, to a top bracket of 35 per cent.

And today there's an analysis by the Tax Foundation of the flaws in the currently popular ways of apportioning high taxes by comparing them to the gross national product, national income, or personal income.

The Tax Foundation's analysis indicates that the total of federal, state and local taxes came to a record high of 19.5 per cent of the gross national product last year. This was 25.5 per cent of the gross national product in 1945, the dollar value of all goods and services — which was $44.5 billion.

COLUMBUS FUNDATION argues that it is unrealistic to use the gross national product because that includes capital consumption allowances (mainly depreciation charges). Deduct these and you get a picture of the dollar value of all goods and services — which was $44.5 billion.

Still another way of measuring the tax burden is to reduce it to a percentage of population and to find that the population is increasing as fast as taxes.

Congressional debate over tax cuts is likely to center on whether to cut: high personal income brackets or low? Business has a stake in each.

If the cut is in the lower brackets, business figures that will save consumers more money to spend at home when many industries are worrying about their lower volume and the static or lower consumer demand.

If the cut is in the higher brackets, industry figures there will be big savings that can be tapped for investments, thus easing the tight money bind. Perhaps this could ease production and thus help halt inflation.

Prince Charles Goes To Boarding School

LONDON (UPI)—Nine-year-old Prince Charles leaves the comforts of Buckingham Palace today for an austere but exclusive boarding school where his father the Duke of Edinburgh studied when he was a child.

The school is Cheam, 50 miles west of London, where Charles will face the stiff discipline and the boyish pranks of his schoolmates until he is 12. He is the first heir to the British throne to attend such a school.

When he is 12 he is to attend Eton which has produced many of Britain's leaders. There was no announcement of his plans after that, but many of Britain's past kings trained for the sea at the Royal Naval College at Dartmouth.

HIS EDUCATION, which began last year by being tutored at a day school in London, is part of Queen Elizabeth's carefully thought out program of giving him a "normal" education that will more fully equip him as a modern monarch.

Most British sovereigns were tutored at home, and this is Charles' first experience away from the palace. He will have three vacations a year, one after each term, adding up to four months. But until he is 12 he will see little of Buckingham Palace.

Charles, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip interrupted their summer vacation at Balmoral Castle in the Scottish Highlands last night so they could drive Charles to his first day at the Cheam boarding school.

Look And Feel 10 Pounds Younger Mystery Of Water Shortage

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Success in dieting is in knowing how long it takes to succeed. This Monday is the test. When you weigh in today the scales may reveal a satisfying 2 to 3 pound loss. Or there may be no apparent loss. If you step hopefully on the scales only to find the indicator at the same high mark, you're sure to feel discouraged.

Hold on. . . If you have cut calories, you have lost fat.

During the early stages of dieting, weight loss has a wide up-and-down swing. On the same scale, one overweight may lose more pounds than can be accounted for by caloric subtraction, while another, despite adherence to the diet, may not lose an ounce. Worse, some dieters actually appear to gain weight.

When the pounds appear resistance to coming off, chances are the cause is water retention. Here is the explanation: Fat is stored in the body in individual fat cells and these fat cells have a great capacity for storing water. As fat is burned for energy, the oil may become disintegrated with water. Water actually weighs more than the fat it has displaced, so this accounts for the temporary gain some dieters experience at the beginning.

Be assured, when this occurs there is subsequently an abrupt release of the stored water and the pointer on the scales will plunge with all seeming suddenness.

Conversely, if at the start of the diet your cells rapidly eliminate water, and you will lose an unexpected amount of weight the first week — perhaps 4 or even 5 pounds. This represents fat plus water and the following weeks you will lose more slowly.

Prince Charles Goes To Boarding School

LONDON (UPI)—Nine-year-old Prince Charles leaves the comforts of Buckingham Palace today for an austere but exclusive boarding school where his father the Duke of Edinburgh studied when he was a child.

The school is Cheam, 50 miles west of London, where Charles will face the stiff discipline and the boyish pranks of his schoolmates until he is 12. He is the first heir to the British throne to attend such a school.

When he is 12 he is to attend Eton which has produced many of Britain's leaders. There was no announcement of his plans after that, but many of Britain's past kings trained for the sea at the Royal Naval College at Dartmouth.

HIS EDUCATION, which began last year by being tutored at a day school in London, is part of Queen Elizabeth's carefully thought out program of giving him a "normal" education that will more fully equip him as a modern monarch.

Most British sovereigns were tutored at home, and this is Charles' first experience away from the palace. He will have three vacations a year, one after each term, adding up to four months. But until he is 12 he will see little of Buckingham Palace.

Charles, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip interrupted their summer vacation at Balmoral Castle in the Scottish Highlands last night so they could drive Charles to his first day at the Cheam boarding school.

Business Steps Up Drive For Tax Cut In '58

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — The chances of tax cuts are being talked up again today even though Congress sidetracked the issue until next year and the federal budget is in delicate balance.

Business has a stake in any cuts in individual income, corporate income, excise taxes and it has a stake in how the tax cuts are made.

Two of industry's pressing problems today (sales outlook and tight money

Basilio Favored To Whip Sugar

Battle Of Kings
May Be Quick
And Explosive

NEW YORK — Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson defends his title tonight against Carmine Basilio in a battle of champions that could be quick and explosive.

The 30-year-old welterweight king from Chittenango, N. Y., is a 57 choice to dethrone the 36 or 37-year-old Sugar Ray in a fight scheduled for 12 rounds at Yankee Stadium. The betting is 1 to 3 the fight won't go the limit.

This is based on Basilio's aggressive, body-punching style and Robinson's vaunted sharp-shooting ability and preference for an opponent who comes to him. And the heavier walloping Robinson will have a weight edge of about eight pounds, 150 to 151, and a decided advantage in height (5-11 to 5-7) and reach (72½ to 67).

Robinson's age (Robinson says 35, the record book has it 37), and the question of whether he will be able to unload his bombs against a swarming opponent who will be tossing sticks of dynamite into the ring always has had trouble with foes who crowd him, especially those who can take a punch like Basilio. The ring-scarred Basilio never has been stopped in 70 fights and dropped only once, that early in his career.

Once again, the general feeling is that Sugar Ray will have to nail his iron-chinged foe within six weeks to win.

The two camps will share in a million dollar-plus gate with the heavier fight, and movies included. Robinson, on his 45 per cent of everything, and a $25,000 guarantee for TV, should earn about $25,000.

THE PROMOTING International Boxing Club, lowering its sights from an earlier $700,000 gate prediction, now looks for a crowd of 10,000 and a gate of $600,000.

Basilio, a pro since 1946, predicted he would win and duplicate Robinson's unprecedented feat of winning the middleweight title while holding the welterweight crown. Robinson, as usual, made no prediction.

A pro since 1946, Robinson has compiled an outstanding 148-52 record including 51 knockouts. Basilio has a 51-17 record including 25 knockouts.

Scoring will be by rounds with a supplementary point system used to help break draws. The winner of each round gets from one to four points, the loser none. The referee and two judges will be named at fight time.

Braves, Cards Start Important Series

By UNITED PRESS

This may be the last day of the 1957 major league pennant races. If Milwaukee and Kansas City win tonight, the final six days are simply for the formal records.

The New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox, Milwaukee Braves and St. Louis Cardinals all won single games Saturday, so the Yankees clinched at least a tie for the American League pennant, while the Braves held a five-game lead over the Cards with six games to go—and the Cards run into the Braves to a decisive three-game series starting tonight.

THE YANKEES, who are tied for the next two days, need win only one game or the White Sox need lose only one to settle the AL flag. The Chicago play at Kansas City tonight and the Athletics, who strongly remain being called the Yankee "farm club," can win it for the Yankees by downing the Chicagoans.

Manager Fred Hutchinson named lefty Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, who has won eight and lost 10, as the Cardinal starter in the "must-win" series from the Card point of view. The Braves, who are a six-game winning streak and confident they will win their first flag since coming to the Midwest from Boston, named Red Burdette (6-9) as their starter.

IN YESTERDAY'S games, the Yankees beat Boston 5-1, when Red Burdette walked four runs home in the sixth inning; the White Sox stayed "alive" by taking Cleveland, 9-5; Baltimore defeated Washington, 6-5; and Kansas City ran its winning streak to four straight by beating Detroit twice, 4-3 and 2-1.

In the one-hundredth game of the season, the Cardinals beat the pesky Chicago Cubs, 9-7; the tenacious Cards came from behind to trip the Cincinnati Reds, 7-5; Brooklyn beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-3; and Pittsburgh happily accepted four unearned runs to defeat the New York Giants, 5-1.

Buffalo, Denver In Little World Series

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—The Buffalo Bisons are en route to Denver and the Little World Series today as the International League's new champions.

The Bisons won the governor's cup playoffs, defeating Miami in the best-of-seven series, four games to one. The clincher was Sunday when Glenn Cox held the Marlins to eight hits as Buffalo won, 7-1. The Bisons had previously defeated Richmond, four games to two, in the semi-finals.

Denver, representing the American Association, earned its berth in the Little World Series with a 28th place finish in the regular season.

Big 10 Powerhouses Open Slates This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

College football's "other" teams get a crack at glory next weekend. Mighty Oklahoma is idle. While Bud Wilkinson's speedy Sooners take a Saturday off, Michigan and Tennessee are geared to start gunning for the national championship won by Oklahoma the last two years and predicted again in The Associated Press preseason poll.

Oklahoma, whose next opponent is Iowa State Oct. 5, attacked down Pittsburgh 24-0 Saturday for its first straight victory since 1953. Pitt, eighth in the early pickings, was considered the top team in the East, but was no match for the Sooners who unveiled a caddy new quarterback in Carl Dodd.

Oklahoma's halfback Clendon Thomas, the nation's leading runner for college scores in 1956, did most of the ball-carrying damage, although three Sooner scores came on tricky aerials, all by different players.

IOWA'S DEFENDING Big Ten champions and Michigan should tie the easiest in trying to make Oklahoma's impressive debut. The Hawkeyes meet Utah State, and the Wolverines face Southern California, already soundly whipped by Pacific Coast king Oregon State, 20-0. But Minnesota runs up against a tough Washington outfit that tied Colorado's Orange Bowl winner 6-6; Michigan State opens with conference rival Indiana and Tennessee must handle Auburn, a Southeastern Conference foe. The two Michigan elevens were ranked among the nation's top 10 teams.

Overshadowed by the Oklahoma power struggle were strong showings by Georgia Tech, 13-0 over Kentucky; Houston, 7-0 over all-weather foe Miami, Fla., and Navy, 46-0 over Boston College. Georgia Tech must come back this week against Southern Methodist, a surprise 13-0 victor over California. Houston is faced by Baylor, and the Southwest Conference's choice to finish second behind Texas A&M before Villanova pushed the Bears to the limit, 10-0. Navy meets Villanova, last Baylor and Illinois. Last Baylor at Illinois. Last Baylor at Illinois. Last Baylor at Illinois.

A black and white photograph of a concrete wall. At the top, there is a dark rectangular sign with white text that reads "1232 W STATION ST" on the first line and "KANKAKEE, ILL." on the second line. To the right of the sign is a window with a grid pattern. The wall below the sign is light-colored and shows signs of wear, including some dark spots and a vertical crack on the left side.
