Grim Facts Of Life In 1957

The grim facts are that the federal government in Washington is maneuvering urgently to accommodate itself to a new concept: That for the first time since 1812 the United States is readily vulnerable to strong enemy attack.

The British were able back in 1812 to mount an attack from Canada. With their command of the high seas they were able to land troops in Chesapeake Bay and burn Washington. But Canada was an uncertain base from which to sustain attack. Problems of logistics and preoccupation with Napoleon in Europe made invasion from the sea impractical.

In two World Wars the U.S. was a protected island for the Allies, protected by a barrier of space.

But now bombers fly faster, higher and farther. There is reason to suppose that missiles have been devised which span oceans and approach targets at speeds making interception difficult.

Defense lies in two directions. One is the destruction of enemy intercontinental ballistic missile launching sites by bombing raids from manned planes, operating from existing Allied bases.

The other direction in which defense lies is the interception of enemy missiles before they get dangerously close to the U.S. The best chance of such interception seems to be to meet them with defensive weapons in space itself.

Scientists believe that they can devise the instruments by which missiles may be destroyed in space. That concept lies behind the application by the Army for six billion dollars to develop missile killers.

We can hope that the efforts of the technicians and scientists are completely successful. Anything less would mean that this nation and the free world would face the peril of a war triggered by a power-drunk aggressor.

Civic Concert Season Opens Here

The concert season opens in Kankakee tonight when pianist Robert Mueller presents the first program in the series sponsored by the Kankakee Civic Music Association.

Other concerts to be presented during the season include the Cavalcade of Song on Jan. 24, featuring an 18-man choral group and mezzo-soprano soloist Carol Jones; the Eger Players, instrumental quartet, on Feb. 26; the piano-violin duo, the Rabinoffs, on March 18.

Season members of the Kankakee concert series may also attend Civic Music Association programs at Park Forest and Joliet, when space is available, by presenting their Kankakee membership cards.

The Kankakee Civic Music Association is to be commended for the sponsorship of the series here. It is hoped that a successful season, which opens tonight, will assure the continuation of the concerts in the years ahead.

Consolidation Improves Schools

Some encouraging news has come from the office of Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction.

A continuing school district reorganization is under way in Illinois. As a result the state now has 169 less districts than one year ago. At the moment there are 1,849 school districts. Twelve years ago, Nickell said, Illinois had 11,995 school districts.

This isn't the only state with too many districts, but it is a problem which constantly faces taxpayers and every citizen interested in better schools and government.

The reduction in districts is heartening, although even more consolidation can be expected.

In 1947 the State Legislature provided an open door for the creation of community wide school districts. Since then there have been numerous consolidations with satisfactory results. This movement, if carried forward, will bring bigger and better schools to those areas of the state which now are unable to furnish satisfactory courses of study or facilities.

Recipe For Life By Victor Borge

NEW YORK — "Understanding of life can be achieved only by being happy," said Victor Borge, who milks money, music and laughter from the piano. In his home he retains his professional atmosphere of good humor.

Borge is a craftsman. His use of piano humor is mannered, adroit, warm, often repetitive, but highly effective.

HE IS IN SOME ways the most successful humorist alive. It is said that he received $100,000 for his first television show. It is also said that he will receive $200,000 more for a show next Feb. 19.

Borge came to this country as a poor Danish immigrant with three things between him and plump-breasted bird designed to sell at $9 to $9.95 cents a pound.

HIS ATTITUDE toward life is as dry and witty in person as it is on the platform before the piano and the public.

He says about this world: "It is so small, so big, you cannot live long enough in it to do the things you want to. (He was speaking about invitations to perform in South Africa, Australia.)"

"I don't believe in fatalism. But I do believe in cause and effect. A walk across the street can change your life. Every second can change your life."

"But I do believe in goals. I have earnings from the show world don't believe anything is just to flow into it, it is optimistic that you have to make the most of the things that come your way."

There is no such thing as a bad weather or bad thing. What I mean is a mood of feathers. This is what I don't like, my neighbor may."

Bipartisanship Is Window Dressing

WASHINGTON — Whenever the word "bipartisanship" is mentioned in Washington, it gets lukewarm treatment by the party out of power because it could mean the diminution in the intensity of the attack the outside party can carry on against an incumbent administration.

Politicians behave the same way irrespective of party. There has been tip service by Republicans to "bipartisanship" under Democratic administration, and there has been during the Eisenhower administration a consistent hammering away at its foreign policy by the Democrats.

The usual cliché of the "outs" is that "we are not being consulted."

There is no reason, moreover, to believe "bipartisanship" is window dressing. There have been consultations and "conferences" between members of opposite party and the administration in the past, but since the objective is to present a "united front" abroad, this goal is almost never achieved, as the news dispatches from day to day reveal.

NO MATTER HOW many times Adlai Stevenson "consults" or issues statements saying he has been given comprehensive information about the administration's plans, this will be kind for him, similar, but far from it.

SENATORS ARE A LAW unto themselves, and so are many members of the House who are cast in their criticism of foreign policy for a variety of reasons of their own. Maybe the only way to abolish the partisanship is to let each party to restrain the microfilm machines and statement-writing staffs of the two national headquarters of the major parties. For party mechanisms of publicity apparently never stop functioning.

Determining Drug Allergies

Frequently in the past I've stressed the value of skin tests in determining drug allergies.

In the case of allergic pollen, molds and even in some instances of food allergy, these skin tests work very well.

Drug allergy, however, is something else again. Skin tests have relatively little value in diagnosing allergy to non-protein drugs.

Oh, in certain cases, the tests will produce reactions all right. And if a positive reaction does appear, it indicates the person is highly sensitive to that particular drug.

But in many, many cases no reaction appears, and this does not necessarily mean that this particular person is not allergic to the specific drug. In short, a negative reaction does not mean there is no allergy.

For contact dermatitis caused by certain medications, the patch tests have some value. In this type of skin test, the suspected drug is placed on the unbroken skin and permitted to remain there for a minimum of 24 hours.

Yet, even in these cases, a negative reaction does not always mean you are not allergic to the drug. Besides, in some cases, the mere testing of the drug may bring on an attack.

In 1944 President Roosevelt listed 14. His roster included Adm. Leahy as his chief of staff, James F. Byrnes in charge of war mobilization, Sam Rosenman as special assistant, Harry Hopkins as special assistant, three secretaries, two counsel, four administrative assistants and one stenographer.

THE POINT is that there never was an administration in Washington which had so many high-level staff members.

In 1951 President Harry S. Truman listed eight staff assistants. The count included the first assistant to the President, Dr. John Steelman, three secretaries, two counsel, two administrative assistants and one stenographer.

In 1954 President Eisenhower listed 14. His roster included Adm. Leahy as his chief of staff, James F. Byrnes in charge of war mobilization, Sam Rosenman as special assistant, Harry Hopkins as special assistant, three secretaries, two counsel, four administrative assistants and one stenographer.

The Price Of Fear

For 40 years, Soviet Russia has been living in fear. It all started during the very earliest days of the revolution when the soldiers were throwing away their rifles and going home to their villages.

The Czarist officers and cadets had organized themselves into White guards to distinguish them from the Reds.

Gen. Korotkov, who had really paved the way for the Bolsheviks by scaring everybody, passed from the scene. However, in the south, Gen. Denikin had started a counter-revolution; in the east, Gen. Koltchak had founded an anti-Bolshevik government; behind him stood the Cossack Ataman Semenov with his wild Mongol hordes.

The Bolsheviks could not know where at attack would come from. At Chita, for instance, was a grand encampment of self-governing Cossacks who might have established a government of their own in any area they chose in the Lake Baikal region.

It was expected that British, French and American troops would march through Russia and establish the second front against the Kaiser.

THE FIRST TASK OF THE Bolshevik government was to make peace with the Germans. For this purpose, negotiations were established at Brest-Litovsk. It is curious how history is affected decisively and finally by the attitude of single individuals. Trotsky, I am convinced, favored continuing the war against Germany if the Allies would then and there recognize the Bolsheviks as the legitimate successors of the Kerensky regime and would provide the Bolsheviks such aid as Kerensky received. I know that these views were presented to several of the many conflicting Americans who were in Petrograd in those days.

Sir George Buchanan, the British ambassador, was opposed to dealing with the Reds. Our ambassador, David Francis, was not a man of strong opinions except that he hated Raymond Robins, the Red Cross man, and Edgar Sisson, George Creel's man and Arthur Bullard, who was, I believe, Col. House's representative.

An incident occurred about this time, the general outlines of which are clear in my memory although some of the details may be wrong. The idea was to kidnap Ambassador Francis and to hold him hostage until big Bill Haywood was let out of prison in the United States. The idea was to show the world a picture of proletarian solidarity. I drafted this plot in my rounds as a reporter. I repeated it to Trotsky, pointing out that if anyone kidnapped the American ambassador, for whatever reason, it would justify intervention.

TROTSKY STATIONED A TANK and troops in front of the American embassy to safeguard Francis and if my memory serves me, he called on Francis. That was a rare moment when an understanding might have been reached. The Bolshevik policy of antagonism through fear had not yet taken effect. I repeated it to Trotsky, pointing out that if anyone kidnapped the American ambassador, for whatever reason, it would justify intervention.

From that time, 40 years ago, the people of Russia have believed that during the revolution, their country had been invaded and held by foreign troops.

In fact, when in March 1918, I traveled through Siberia to China, foreign troops were actually on the ground. We first encountered them at Chita where the Czechs were; then as we moved into Manchuria, the build-up of Japanese troops was just beginning.

The Japanese definitely planned to take the maritime provinces of Siberia. This would have included such cities as Vladivostok, Khabarovsk, and the vast area to the north. American railroad engineers and troops were being sent to the Trans-Siberian railroad and the northern half of the Chinese Eastern railroad from failing to the Japanese as the lot of war. Also the Americans were there to help the Czechs to return to their own country.

NEVERTHELESS THE AMERICANS AND Japanese were all over the area and if they developed an antagonism toward each other, it did not matter to the Russians who feared them both and wanted them out of Russian soil.

Soviet Russia signed a separate peace with the Germans at Brest-Litovsk after considerable trouble. Altogether the feeling of every Russian, important or just plain Ivan, was that the great powers were taking advantage of Russia's distress to partition the country among them. It was this attitude that added strength to the Bolshevik cause and gained for it currency among elements that hated bolshevism and all Bolsheviks.

Top Gets Complicated

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The word around Washington is that the White House is now just so much expert advice it doesn't know what to do with it.

This is a story by the fact that Dr. James R. Killian of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, just named as Eisenhower's special assistant to the President.

You can run the count of advisers up to 33 if you include the four assistants to the President, the President's personal secretary, two secretaries, two staff secretaries, three counsel, four administrative assistants and one stenographer.

There is a special count for the President's personal secretary, who is not counted in the 33 above, so it could be made 34, if you want to.

Of the four administrative assistants to the President, one is in charge of liaison with state governments. Three handle congressional relations.

THEN COME 15 OTHER special assistants, before Killian, their assignments are: National Security Council affairs; atomic energy; speech and national propaganda; disarmament; public works; intergovernmental relations; aviation facilities planning; economic planning in addition to the regular three-member Council of Economic Advisors; foreign economic policy; East; personnel policy; agricultural advisers; foreign economic policy; East; personnel policy; agricultural advisers; foreign economic policy; East; personnel policy; agricultural advisers.

There used to be two more. The late Sen. Walter S. George, a special assistant on foreign policy, has not been replaced. Tracy Voorhees was consultant on Hungarian refugees, while this was a big problem.

No Glamor, Poor Pay, Science Drawbacks

(Fourth in a series.)
NEW YORK (U.S. News)—Thousands of tomorrow's potential scientists are dying on the vine.
Educators and scientists cite numerous reasons: Science and mathematics courses are not stressed enough in schools.

Mathematics is a cornerstone of science, but many youngsters think of algebra as a boring word. Arithmetic often is taught boringly.

"ANY GOOD student is lured to death by the memorization of formulas and routines with which science is taught these days," said Dr. R. W. Lefter, professor of physics and education at Purdue University.

We suffer a shortage of high school science teachers. Teachers' salaries generally "are a national disgrace" and evidence of public indifference toward learning, declares Dr. B. D. Thomas, director of the Burke Memorial Institute, Columbus, Ohio.

Numerous teenagers, a Purdue survey finds, regard scientists as wicked, as longhairs or squares, as unable or incapable of living a normal life, or of enjoying life. Many students avoid science courses as hard, or for squares. Many bright students can't afford college.

High school and college students see higher pay and rewards going to careers in selling, advertising, medicine, business, entertainment and other fields.

SOME SCIENTISTS make very good incomes. Some are notoriously underpaid, especially in teaching and basic research, and especially by standards of their contribution to human welfare and progress.

Half of U.S. scientists made less than $6,325 annually in 1954 and 1955, the National Science Foundation reports from a questionnaire of 50,000 men and women.

Median salaries—meaning that half made more, and half made less—were: physicists, $7,275; geologists, $7,250; mathematicians, $6,200; biologists, $6,275; meteorologists, $6,650; astronomers, $5,550; and psychologists, $5,550.

Job in industry generally pay higher.

The American Chemical Society reports STARTING median salaries this year range from $8,100 for Ph.D.s in chemical engineering and $7,600 for Ph.D.s in chemistry to $5,500 and $5,200 for bachelor degrees in chemical engineering and chemistry respectively.

These averages cover both industry and teaching, but the society said that Ph.D.s going into industry averaged 38 per cent higher paychecks than those going into teaching.

Watseska Jaycees Will Sponsor 'Voice Of America' Event

WATSEKA (JNS) — Plans to conduct a county-wide "Voice of Democracy" contest were announced today by James Miller, president of Watseska Jaycees.

Voice of Democracy is a script writing and oral contest which encourages high school students to think, write and speak of democratic principles, content, delivery, and originality of the five-minute scripts on the subject, "I Speak for Democracy," are judged.

All 10th, 11th and 12th grade students are eligible to enter. Following school eliminations, a county winner will be selected to represent Ingham County in the state finals. The state winner will receive an all-expense trip to Washington, D.C., in February. During a three-day awards program there, four national co-equal winners will be selected and honored.

Information about the contest, sponsored nationally by the Jaycees, Electronic Industries Association and the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, will be available in all community high schools.

Jaycees named to head the contest committee are Robert Feichter, general chairman; Don Gockner, publicity chairman; David C. Miller, judging chairman; and Tony Heideman, awards chairman. Robert Meyer and James Miller assist as members in an advisory capacity. (Journal photo)

Watseska Jaycees Will Sponsor 'Voice Of America' Event
Wayne DeNeal, Danville, Jaycee national director, inducted three candidates as members of the Watseska chapter at a meeting of the Jaycees Monday evening. James Miller, president, presided, and welcomed the new members. Robert Mohler, Rodney Parkinson and Bert Eckstein, other candidates accepted to be inducted at the next meeting, include Richard Martin, Terry Christy, Don Gockner, Mahlon Williams and James Hagadorn.

Members voted to bid at the executive state board meeting on Dec. 1 for the state playing contest to be held in October, 1958. Tickets now are on sale by members for a basketball game, sponsored by the chapter, between Lake Forest College and Macomb. The Macomb squad is being brought here by "Six" Morley, former Watseska High School coach.

Members also decided to sponsor a home Christmas lighting contest in Watseska. Arlin Obit was appointed chairman of this project, with Robert Mohler, Rodney Parkinson and Robert Meyer as assistants.

2 Hawkeyes Sew Up 2 Big 10 Honors

CHICAGO (UP)—A pair of Iowa Hawkeyes appeared to have individual honors in two Big Ten departments sewed up today but the remaining individual titles are up for grabs Saturday.

In conference statistics released today, Ready, Duncan, line conference season over, had a clutch lead in total offense with 747 yards; 683 of them from passing.

His teammate Jim Gibbons had a wide lead in the pass catching department with 96.

Ohio State's Don Clark apparently held the key to rushing honors. The Buckeye star did not play last week because of injuries but held on to an 82-yard lead over Wisconsin's halfback Danny Lewis.

CLARK HAD 522 yards on 87 rushes for a 5.9 average. Lewis has backed up 431 yards on 71 attempts for a 6.1 average.

The Michigan-Ohio State game Saturday also contains the key to the individual scoring title. Clark and Wolverine Jim Pace are tied at 48 points.

Another Wolverine, Jim Van Pelt, will be bidding for the conference passing crown against the Buckeyes. Van Pelt, helped along by six touchdown passes, was hard on the heels of Jim Musial of Michigan State for the honor in the weighted ratings.

NINOWSKI COMPLETED his conference season with a passing average of 604 good for 40 yards and four TD's.

In team standings Michigan State lead the league in both offense and defense.

Conference leader Ohio State was second in offense, fifth in the standings and Iowa, third in the standings, was second on defense.

Illinois and Michigan rounded out the top five on offense, Purdue and Wisconsin led Ohio on defense.

CHUCK "UNAFRAID" As He Awaits Meeting With Lane

CHICAGO in — Frank Lane, Cleveland's new general manager, will stop in Chicago Sunday on his trade-talk rounds and White Sox vice president Chuck Comiskey will welcome him.

"I'm not afraid of the old chap. I'm able and anxious to meet him," said Comiskey of Lane, who once was Sox general manager.

"If I don't know him no one in our league does. I sat on the same side of the trouble with him for six or seven years and know his routine. Maybe he'll be a little leery for teaching me too many of his tricks."

The Indians want infielders—or so I have read—and we might be able to work out something with Lane."

Tigers Ready To Make More Trades

DETROIT (UP)—They're all nice fellows and I hate to see them go. But we never did much while they were here. We're going to go places — and you can't go any place standing still.

Jack Tighe made that comment, discussing the 13-player deal that was announced Wednesday by the Detroit Tigers and the Kansas City Athletics.

General Manager John J. McHale says he is ready to make more trades. The Tigers would like to get back Vic Wertz, the heavy-hitting first baseman whom they traded to the St. Louis Browns in 1952.

General Manager John J. McHale says he is ready to make more trades. The Tigers would like to get back Vic Wertz, the heavy-hitting first baseman whom they traded to the St. Louis Browns in 1952.

IN THE LATEST trade, the Tigers lost Bill Tuttle, Frank House, Duke Maas, Jim Small and John Tatuore and two minor league players to be named later. They received Billy Martin, Gus Zerstad, Maury McRmerd, Lou Stizas, Tom Morgan and Tim Thompson.

People around Detroit feel the Tigers got the better of the deal. Tighe said, "We did real well."

The five Tigers named in the deal average 24½ years in age. The six players traded to Detroit have an average age of 29½.

Tighe elected not to hesitate, hope and wait two or three years for more front-line major leaguers.

McHale worked hard on the trade. It was his last major trade. He said he was tired of the deal. He said he was tired of the deal. He said he was tired of the deal.

Billy Sounds Off

Kansas City A's bustling second baseman Billy Martin, who was traded Wednesday to the Detroit Tigers, told on his daily sports news the same day that when he was traded to the A's by the Yankees last season he lost $5,000 that would have been his share of the League championship prize money, and that he felt he should be entitled to a financial gain from the current award. Kuenn 1st On Lane's 'Wanted' List

NEW YORK (UP)—Frank Lane, Cleveland's indefatigable new general manager, traded himself suddenly into the Detroit Tigers' picture by making the Tigers "a firm offer" for shortstop Harvey Kuenn.

Lane no sooner arrived in St. Louis from Havana than he was contacted by Detroit general manager John J. McHale.

"I don't say I'll take it, but I guarantee you I'll consider it," Lane told the United Press by telephone from St. Louis that he made an offer to McHale and that the Detroit general manager promised an answer "within a few days."

Midwest Stars Make Bids For All-America

CHICAGO (UP)—With team running out, the Midwest still has strong contenders for the 1957 All-America football team.

The regional board screening candidates for the AP's All-America team is especially high on halfback Walt Kowalczyk of Michigan State and a quartet of rugged linemen.

Center Dan Riggs of Michigan State, a team in the current AP poll, is regarded as the area's top candidate. Other linemen in hot contention are tackle Al Karas of Iowa, a member of last year's All-America, and a pair of splendid guards, Aurelius Thomas of Auburn and Alan Ezyer of Notre Dame.

Fine, Restrict Marine For-Hitting Sailor

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP)—Jose D. Medina, 32, of Albuquerque, N. M., was placed under 30 days restriction today and fined $60 for cruelty to a U. S. sailor in the brig at Sasebo naval base.

Medina, one of 18 U. S. Marine guards being tried by the Navy for alleged mistreatment of prisoners, was convicted by summary court-martial of punching Applegate Seaman George H. Frazier, 18, Lardville, Calif.

The fine was spread over a three-month period. The sentence is subject to review.

The stocky Leatherneck was the last of six to be tried by summary courts and the fourth to be convicted.

Cmdr. Joseph A. Edger of Roosevelt, Maine, found Medina guilty after Pvt. Guy E. Ford of Colfax, Ill., another former prisoner, testified before the court. Sgt. Robert J. Darbois of Schenectady, N. Y., told Medina he wanted him "to work him (Frazier) over."

Time To Plan Menu For Thanksgiving

By MARY JEAN HOUDE

Before a woman begins actually "working her fingers to the bone" on a Thanksgiving dinner, or any large culinary feat, there is the period of menu planning. For those women who haven't begun planning their holiday meal or need an addition to that meal, here are some recipe suggestions.

The recipes for APRICOT UP-SIDE-DOWN MUFFINS, MINCE-PIE, LEMON-CUSTARD PIE and WINTER FRUIT PIE come from Mrs. Robert S. Paulson of 131 N. Wall St. Mrs. Paulson is a home ec teacher turned homemaker. For the past four years she taught home economics at Bradley-Bourbonnais High School. As she outlines the recipes, she is tempted to add a caution about mixing the muffin ingredients just enough to blend. She explains that it was always a natural tendency for the girls to overmix.

Mrs. Paulson is the former Carol Bateman, a graduate of Illinois State Normal University and a native of Mansfield.

Also included here is a "WINE AND RICE STUFFING FOR TURKEY." It can be made with packaged pre-cooked rice and is fluffy-light.

Wine and Rice Stuffing

1 large box (about 4 cups) packaged pre-cooked rice
2 cups water, boiling
2 1/2 cups dry sherry
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cardamom seeds
1/2 cup butter
1 cup chopped blanched almonds
Place raisins in saucepan. Add water to cover. Bring to a boil. Remove from heat and let stand about 5 minutes. Drain.
Add rice to 3 cups water, boiling in a saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Add sherry, pepper, salt, sugar, spices and raisins. Cover, remove from heat, and let stand as directed on the back of the package for 10 minutes.
Meanwhile, melt butter in skillet. Add almonds. Saute until lightly browned, stirring constantly. Add to rice mixture; mix lightly with a fork. Put into turkey. Do not pack tightly. Roast at once. Makes about 12 cups stuffing, or enough for a 12 to 16 pound turkey.

Apricot Upside-Down Muffins

3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup melted shortening
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup milk
Butter or margarine
Brown sugar

Drain fruits, cut apricots in half and prunes in quarters. Add fruit juices, salt and sugar; cook 2 minutes. Blend 2 tablespoons flour and 1/2 cup water; stir into fruit mixture; cook 5 minutes. Pour into 8-inch pastry-lined pan. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degree F.) for 20 minutes.

Winter Fruit Pie

1/2 cup cooked dried apricots
1/2 cup cooked prunes
1/2 cup prune juice and apricot juice
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup plain pastry

Drain fruits, cut apricots in half and prunes in quarters. Add fruit juices, salt and sugar; cook 2 minutes. Blend 2 tablespoons flour and 1/2 cup water; stir into fruit mixture; cook 5 minutes. Pour into 8-inch pastry-lined pan. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degree F.) for 20 minutes.

MRS. ROBERT S. PAULSON is pictured with a recipe favorite and holiday suggestion, APRICOT UP-SIDE-DOWN MUFFINS. Other holiday "possibles" for your menu are included here. Mrs. Paulson is a former high school home economics teacher. (Journal photo)

Turkey Best Bargain For Thanksgiving

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thanksgiving Day is still a time when turkey is the symbol of the holiday. Many stores are featuring the bird in their advertisements at prices that will hold through next Wednesday.

Record 1957 production of about 41 million birds makes it possible for most housewives to get their best turkey bargains in years.

Although prices naturally vary from section to section, for comparative purposes it might be noted that one major chain was offering 10 to 16-pound turkeys at 37 cents a pound, over-weighing at 18 to 24 pound turkeys at 37 cents a pound, over-weighing at 18 to 24 pound turkeys at 37 cents a pound, over-weighing at 18 to 24 pound turkeys at 37 cents a pound.

HIGHER PRICES for some other meats also acted as a lever on shoppers to buy turkeys. Frying chickens were two to six cents a pound higher in many sections this week, while pork chops were up in the same range in a smaller number of places. Eggs, too, are higher again but only by a cent or two.

Outstanding vegetable buys are lettuce, endive, escarole, egg plant and radishes. In the good buy column are cucumbers, peppers and such vegetables from nearby fields as cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, potatoes and onions. The last two-Thanksgiving Day staples in many homes—augmented by good supplies of sweet potatoes and Idaho baked potatoes.

Apples, pears, oranges, grapefruit, tangerines and grapes all are low priced and plentiful.

Salad Adds To Leftover Turkey

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
One of the pleasantest ways to serve sliced leftover turkey is to accompany it with a fruit salad and a hot bread.

A popular salad, and one that tastes delicious with cold turkey, is made from avocado, orange sections and seedless grapes. The salad dressing-recipe is brand new and its flavor and texture recommends it. Do try it!

The hot breads for this lunch or supper meal is simple to prepare. We've come upon recipes of this sort often, but we were never convinced of their worth until we tasted this version. Chances are both grownups and small fry will love it.

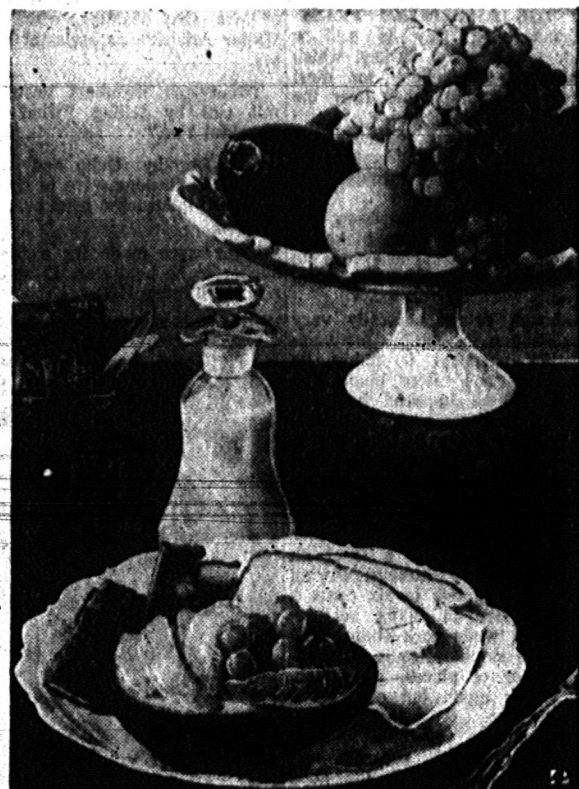

AVOCADO FRUIT SALAD
Ingredients: 3 avocados, 3 oranges (seedless membrane-free), small bunch seedless grapes, orange French dressing. Method: Cut avocados in half lengthwise, remove pits, arrange 6 or 7 orange sections in avocado halves with white grapes. Serve with Orange French Dressing. Makes 6 servings.

Note: If desired, avocados may be peeled and sliced; arrange slices on salad greens with orange sections and grapes.

ORANGE FRENCH DRESSING
Ingredients: 1 can (6 ounces) frozen concentrated orange juice, 1/2 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup cider vinegar, 3 to 4 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco sauce. Method: Put undiluted orange juice concentrate, salad oil, vinegar, sugar, mustard, salt and Tabasco in jar, blend on bottle. Shake well until blended; or mix in electric blender. Dressing may be stored covered in refrigerator. Shake well before using. Makes 1 1/2 cups dressing.

TOASTED CINNAMON STICKS
Ingredients: Leaf of unbleached white bread, 3/4 cup evaporated milk, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, (melted), 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cinnamon. Method: Cut six 1-inch slices from loaf of bread. Remove crusts; cut each slice into 8 strips. Dip strips into undiluted evaporated milk, then brush with melted butter. Sprinkle sugar and cinnamon together thoroughly; roll bread strips in mixture. Place on rack in shallow baking pan. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven for 20 minutes. Makes 18 strips.

Rue Bonne Fol, main street in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, means a "Street of Good Faith." It is where all the main shops of the town are located.

ATTRACTIVE LEFTOVER: A fruit salad, with avocados, orange sections and seedless grapes, is a delicious prep for the remains of that Thanksgiving turkey.

SauemIn PTA Views Travelog By 4th Graders

Room prizes were won by the fourth and second grades. Mrs. Walter D. Krech, music chairman, led in group singing.

Mrs. Raymond Hanley, program chairman, presented Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mies, Pontiac, who showed slides of a recent five-month world tour.

Ex-Treasury Agent Heads Illinois Narcotic Control

SPRINGFIELD (U) — Malachi L. Harney of Washington, D. C., a former U. S. treasury agent, has been named superintendent of the new State Division of Narcotic Control.

Harney, 62, who was appointed Wednesday to the $12,000 a year post by Gov. Stratton, was assistant to the commissioner in the Federal Bureau of Narcotics for 16 years.

The state division was created by the 1957 Legislature to strengthen laws governing narcotics. "Narcotic" enforcement previously was under the State Registration and Education Department.

Harney began working for the Treasury Department in 1926 and retired in 1955. From 1954 to 1956 he was special agent in charge of the Treasury Department's Chicago office.

Parker House Rolls Enjoyable

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

When we were young, Parker House rolls from the bakery ordered for special occasions, were the height of culinary glamor. Recently we tried our hand at making the rolls and when we served them hot with butter and other spreads, they were much enjoyed. Good as these rolls are, however, their texture and appearance differs from the bakery product—so don't expect a facsimile of those bought.

Forrest Lions Will Feature District Governor

FORREST (JNS) — The Lions Club will feature Clarion Johnson, Joliet, Lions Club District 13 governor, as guest at its 6:30 p.m. dinner meeting today in the Igloo Restaurant.

The guest will give an illustrated talk on the Lions International Convention held in San Francisco in June. Dr. Cletis Williams is program chairman.

RIGHT SHOT?

CLEVELAND (UP) — When police found a 30 gallon drum used for making whiskey in Walter Thomas' basement, a plot of moonshine in his kitchen and several empty jugs that smelled suspicious, they found him $200 and costs and put him on probation. Thomas denied the moonshine was for sale, said he was just brewing medicine to cure a friend's five children of Asian flu and attempted to prove it with testimony by the friend that her children were cured the next day.

Roberts-Thawville PTA Features Sports Program

THAWVILLE (JNS)—The Roberts-Thawville PTA Teachers Association met Monday night in the Thawville school gymnasium. The program for the evening was entitled "The Continuous Sports Program of Our School." Grade school boys gave an exhibition of "Lombardism," showing a ball toward members of the opposite team until all are tagged. The boys then held relay races.

Several high school boys did group calisthenics and played an inning of whiffle ball. The next exhibition featured Sharon Hoover and Margie Bultman in a game of box hockey. Mildred Black demonstrated the art of bouncing on the trampoline, with Janice Eppelmeier doing advanced work.

Vance Davis also performed on the trampoline.

Junior Mission Band Of Crescent City Has Meeting

CRESCENT CITY (JNS) — The Junior Mission Band of St. Peter's Lutheran Church met Sunday afternoon in the church basement. The missionary topics were presented by Mrs. Fred Stierenberg, Mrs. Allen J. Carley and Mrs. Robert Spenn to the various age groups.

The emphasis was on Thanksgiving. Rolland Swensen showed films. Following the program, the Intermediate Youth Fellowship served a buffet luncheon.

Cream Cheese Frosting To Cover Quick Banana Cake

By GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Food and Markets Editor
Here's an easy "fancy" cake, rich as all get out and as easy as falling off a log.

Banana Loaf Cake With Cream Cheese Frosting
One-half package (3/4 cups unflavored) instant banana cake mix, 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons water, 1 egg, unbeaten; cream cheese frosting.

Empty cake mix into small bowl. Add water and egg. Beat 2 minutes until smooth. Pour batter into one 8x4x2-inch loaf pan which has been greased and floured on bottom and sides. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Cool cake. Split cooled cake horizontally into 3 layers. Prepare cream cheese frosting. Spread 1/2 cup frosting between each layer and on top of cake.

Pineapple Upside-Down Banana Cake
Two-thirds cup firmly packed brown sugar, 2 tablespoons pineapple juice, 1/4 cup chopped nuts, 1 tablespoon chopped maraschino cherries, drained, 12 canned pineapple spears, 1/4-cup butter, 1/2 package (3/4 cups unflavored) instant banana cake mix, 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons water, 1 egg, unbeaten.

Spread sugar evenly in an 8x4x2-inch square pan; sprinkle with pineapple juice, nuts and cherries. Arrange pineapple spears on sugar mixture in an attractive design. Dot with butter. Set aside. Empty cake mix into small bowl. Add water and egg. Beat 2 minutes until smooth and creamy. Pour batter carefully over fruit mixture in pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Cool cake in pan 5 minutes. Then invert on serving plate or tray. Let stand 1 minute before removing pan. Serve cake warm with whipped cream.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Fried ham steak, cream mustard gravy, they began to drill wells 30 miles north of the city.

AS EASY to make as it is good to eat is this banana loaf cake. Cream cheese serves as base for the "fancy" cake.

seeded rolls, butter or margarine, pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Cool cake in pan 5 minutes. Then invert on serving plate or tray. Let stand 1 minute before removing pan. Serve cake warm with whipped cream.

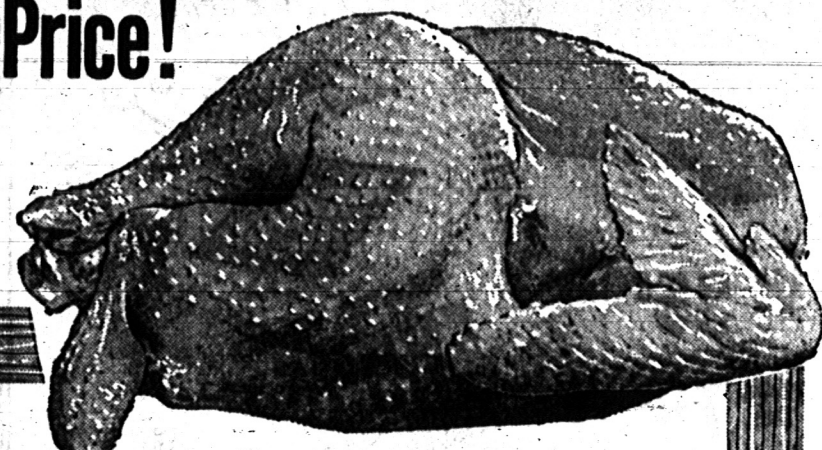

Until 1940, Wichita, Kansas got most of its water supply from the Arkansas River underflow. Then they began to drill wells 30 miles north of the city.

Cash And Carry Stores Study Instalment Plan

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (U. P.) — Changing home budget habits are pushing charge account and instalment buying into old strongholds of cash and carry.

Early next year J. C. Penney will test credit sales in a few of its 1,700 stores which have been strictly cash and carry since its founding in 1902.

Wm. T. Grant is putting an instalment credit plan into 66 new stores this year, bringing its entire chain of 609 into the plan. It tested the idea on a pilot basis in Atlanta, Ga., in 1946, and gradually extended it to other stores and regions.

Credit buying has increased everywhere since the war. Young persons in particular budget their income to fit instalment payments. Rising prices and merchandise upgrading have put many purchases out of the reach of the old cash and carry customer. The trend to larger families also spurs use of credit for mass outfitting.

80 THE CASH and carry chains appealing to lower budget groups have found the department store charge account systems an increasing competition.

Officials of Grant's say their credit plan has been used by more than one million customers. Last year 33 1/2 million dollars worth of merchandise, or 8.8 per cent of total sales, was charged.

Penney's hasn't decided yet which type of credit plan to use or where the tests will be made. The Grant plan differs sharply from the old fashioned charge account because the customer pays a prefixed sum at regular intervals regardless of the size of purchases from time to time.

It works this way: each store runs its own system under the inspection of the five regional supervisors. A store official studies the applicant's income prospects, buying needs and reputation for paying much as any credit manager does.

Then one of several size coupon books is issued, the charges ranging from 25 cents to $5, say, so that the store clerk can tear out the necessary amount at time of the purchase of goods.

THE CUSTOMER pays a fixed sum either each week or each month, until the entire book is paid for, rather than having the entire charge of the purchase coming due the first of the month as with a regular charge account.

When the book is used up the customer can go back for another even if he has further payments to make. His income prospects are reviewed to see if he can afford further credit. This helps the store hold down the delinquency rate and helps keep the customer from going beyond his depth.

The service charge varies with the rate of repayment but averages around 10 per cent. Officials explain that this way there is no general rise of prices to meet the credit plan costs, and so the cash customer isn't penalized.

The big demand for credit comes in three spurts — Christmas, Easter, and when families are being fitted out as a group for school and winter.

Delinquencies have been low, Grant officials say. Stores and areas, but most customers arrange for smaller payments for a time and try to pay up arrears quickly when on the payroll again.

One store cites a customer who kept up his payment after being sent to prison. He said he wanted to protect his good name.

U of I Increases Worth $11 Million To $151 Million

CHAMPAIGN (U. P.) — The University of Illinois today reported that its plant and equipment now have a cost value of $151,612,411 — or $11,782,102 more than last year.

AFRICA LIKES ROCK 'N' ROLL

NEW YORK (U. P.) — Rock 'n' roll is taking over in South Africa, according to a Zulu disc jockey, King Edward Masinga, 41, who conducts a daily Zulu language program in Durban, in this country on a special State Department grant to study American drama and broadcasting.

Masinga said his program in Durban features the old folk music, but that it is losing out to rock 'n' roll. Even the natives in the back country, he said, buy rock 'n' roll records when they come to town.

Gettysburg Battle Eye-Witness Dies

MANSFIELD (U. P.) — Mrs. Elizabeth Firke, who often recalled seeing the Battle of Gettysburg in 1863, died Wednesday, a month before she was 100 years old.

Mrs. Firke was born in Westminister, Md., Dec. 18, 1854. She often said that as a girl of 9, she saw troops marching to Gettysburg for the battle which turned the tide of the Confederacy.

She moved to Illinois in 1876. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Adah Sier of Mansfield; two sons, Frank of Frankfort, Ind., and Ralph of Long Beach, Calif.

Woman Sees Light After 18 Years

NEWARK, N. J. (U. P.) — "Oh, I can see the light," it was in these words that a woman blind for 18 years described her reaction to a new electronic device, her surgeons said.

The woman, Betty Corstorphine, 35, underwent a series of tests in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles, last month using a photoelectric cell connected to wires in her brain.

"I saw flashes, at one time a bright flash like an electric light bulb, and at another time a grayness as though a light had just gone out," she said.

DR. JOHN C. Butten said the test showed that brain cells did not means of electrical stimulus of the vision centers.

Butten, a 46-year-old neurologist who lives in nearby Maplewood, described the device that may eventually be developed as "something like a radarscope or television set."

They were then pushed about two inches into the back of the brain to the centers of vision. The wires were attached to a transistor amplifier which, in turn, was connected to a small photoelectric cell. The theory was that the photoelectric cell would pick them up light and convert it into a mild electric charge, thereby stimulating the brain.

Miss Corstorphine was given the test and told to point it about a partially darkened room. As the cell was pointed toward lights placed about the room, Miss Corstorphine said she received flashes of light.

In further tests, Butten said, she could pick up flashes from lights as dim as a 40-watt bulb. The device, he said, can work on any blindness except that caused by injury to the center of vision deep in the brain. "And," he added, "there aren't many of them."

The Worry Clinic Have Stage Fright? Try This Strategy

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Helen R. 20, is president of a Church young people's society.

"Dr. Crane, I am a nervous wreck," she began, "for I get terrified when I try to talk before a crowd."

"The rest of the young people voted me into office and wouldn't listen to my protests."

"Now I am perturbed with fear at the thought of our first meeting next Sunday night."

"I am to preside. But I know my hands will shake so badly I can't even read my notes. And I'll blush and choke up. Oh, I feel terrible."

"I don't believe I can go through with it, do you?"

Everybody is nervous and a victim of stage fright at the start.

So don't use that alibi to avoid doing what you know is good for you, and it adds to your social assurance to perform in public.

When you hold your speech notes in one hand, they will probably shake and rattle.

SO SEIZE THEM WITH both hands and pull gently in opposite directions. Then they will be almost motionless, for the two hands will neutralize each other's tremor. If you sing in public, use this same strategy for keeping your music from trembling.

And to divert attention from your shakiness, shift it to someone in the audience, but do so in a complimentary way.

"This week I saw Jack perform a very Christian act," she may start, as she directs attention to a member of her audience.

Then Helen can explain in more detail what it was. Meanwhile, the crowd will focus attention more on Jack than on Helen so she will not feel so conspicuous and self-conscious.

In conducting a discussion meeting, it is also well to offer the audience a choice of two alternatives. Don't blantly inquire of the crowd, "What do you think about belonging to church?"

That is too vague a query to elicit much response, so the audience will still and fail to pick up its cues.

Instead, give folks a chance to make a choice and they'll be more likely to jump into a lively discussion.

"Do you think church members are healthier than non-church members?" can be a way of starting the debate.

"ARE ACTIVE CHURCH people as likely to get a divorce as the non-church members?"

"During a Red Cross or Com-

Be Thankful You're Americans Speaker Tells Woman's Club

The Thanksgiving season set the theme for Mrs. Arsha Louise Bedrostan's afternoon program at the Wednesday meeting of the Woman's Club. The text of her talk was a reminder to her audience of what they had to be thankful for as Americans.

Mrs. Bedrostan, who resides in Chicago, was born in Turkey, the daughter of an Armenian minister. She related incidents of her early childhood and told of an avid, youthful interest in America.

Her arrival in America was a thrilling experience, she said, and her first view of the Statue of Liberty inspired her with a feeling of freedom and hope.

As is usual with most strangers to America, the hustle and bustle of New York City, its towering buildings and gaudy signs temporarily bewildered her. But upon entering school she soon adjusted to the American way of life.

She said America can boast of the highest standard of living in world history and cautioned her audience to be fully appreciative of luxuries that are sometimes taken for granted.

"THIS IS TRULY A LAND of opportunity," she said, "a cradle of liberty. Some problems remain to be solved but America has a history of successful solutions."

In closing Mrs. Bedrostan told her audience her most valued possession was her American citizenship papers.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Vern Van Der Karr, program chairman.

Unusual Birds

"CULM (JNS)—The sighting of Pine Siskins, unusual birds for the Culm area, were discussed Friday at a meeting of the Culm Nature Club in the home of Mrs. Henry Henken.

Mrs. Johann Dehm and Mrs. Resben Koerner spotted several in their yard this fall.

These birds from the far north look like brown sparrows, but have brown stripes all over their bodies with yellow patches on the wings and tails. They are seed eaters with habits similar to those of sparrows and gold finches.

The pine siskin bred in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and was introduced to this country by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

When there is snow and severe cold they will come to Illinois to get food.

Mrs. Henken served lunch at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Carl Sancken and Mrs. William Sterenberg were guests.

Mrs. Henry Henken who keeps the list for the "Red Birds" in the 1957 autumn bird identification contest, reports a total of 67 for her group. Mrs. James McDermott reports 83 for the "Blue Birds." The contest which began Sept. 1 will close Nov. 30.

★ RUTH MILLETT ★
It's Feminine
Psychology

It's no hardship for a woman: To have another woman ask her for advice. It's so much easier to solve another woman's problems, from decorating a room to managing a husband, than it is to solve one's own.

To go along when another woman wants to buy a new outfit. It's the cheapest way of having the fun of a shopping expedition without having to face the bills that follow.

To buy a gift for another woman. All she has to do is find something she would like to have herself. Whether right or wrong, she at least has the comforting assurance that since she likes it, another woman is bound to. What is really tough is shopping for a gift for a man.

To have a lone man as an unexpected dinner guest. She knows a man won't notice that curtains aren't freshly laundered and that her meal is too simple if it is well cooked and filling. But a hostess who is not prepared for company isn't nearly so at ease when she welcomes an unexpected woman guest.

TO BE TURNED LOOSE in a strange city for a few hours or even a day, unless it's Sunday or a holiday when all the stores are closed. To be told a choice bit of gossip and asked not to tell a soul. Either she is the kind of woman who can keep a secret, or she is the kind who can't and won't. But if she is the latter it won't bother her conscience to break her word. She will just figure that she is living up to her part of the bargain when she says, "I promised not to tell a soul, but I knew if I told you it wouldn't go any further."

To return an article she has bought. Women wouldn't buy so much if they didn't always mentally cross their fingers when they say "I'll take it," knowing if they get home and change their minds they can always return what they have bought.

Trust Russia? Not Teenagers!

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Gilbert Youth
Research Co.

The most important international relationship in the world today is the relationship between the United States and Russia. Perhaps the generation with the most at stake in the use and development of American-Russian relations are the teenagers of today—the soldiers and soldiers' wives of the future—who have spent their entire lives in the shadow of war.

What do you think of U. S.-Soviet relations? Of the possibility of a third world war? Of the possibility of a nuclear war? Our pollsters questioned a segment of American teenagers—the Russian youngsters weren't available to us—on those very matters. They told us:

The United States "just cannot trust Russia."

A third world war is not inevitable.

But, if it comes, it will be nuclear war at its worst.

Disturbance of Russia is rampant among American young people. Nearly nine out of 10 told us they feel the Soviets can't be trusted.

"RUSSIA WANTS TO rule the whole world," said a 15-year-old girl.

"They're too sneaky," is the opinion of Roger Smith, 17, of Bloomfield, N. J.

Jimmy Smith, of Sioux Falls, S. D., summed up his distrust in one word:

"Greedy."

The girls are a little less suspicious than the boys of the Soviets. Nearly 8 per cent of those in our poll expressed some degree of trust.

On the other hand, less than 5 per cent of the boys said they can trust Russia at all.

Teenaged thoughts on the possibility of a third world war showed a vastly different opinion.

"More than half (55 per cent) said they do not think a third world war is inevitable while only one in three expressed the feeling that worldwide hostilities are bound to come."

We queried the minority quite closely on this question.

Why is World War III inevitable?

"RUSSIA WILL ONLY be stopped by a defeat in an out-out war," answered an 18-year-old girl.

"The prophecies of the Bible point toward two great wars," said Francis McVie, a New Jersey teenager who apparently doesn't.

Cissna Park Teens Agree With Poll

Teenagers in Cissna Park are probably as concerned as most people about the current world situation particularly since the advent of Sputniks I and II. These earth satellites probably contributed more to the distrust of the Soviet Union than any other single event in recent years.

Four students at the Cissna Park High School were interviewed in conjunction with the current "What Young People Think" series on their feelings regarding Russia, possibility of war, relative strength of the world's two great powers and the effect of the Sputniks.

Asked point blank "can we trust Russia?" all four replied with an unqualified "no."

The students were Dale Eisenmann, 16, junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Eisenmann; Dick Hasselberg, 15, sophomore and son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hasselberg; and Betty Ann Beer, 16, junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Beer, all of Cissna Park.

IT IS A LONG WAY FROM Moscow to Cissna Park but with Russian satellites flying overhead these four Cissna Park High School students agree that the United States cannot trust Russia.

What proportions the world war materials, etc., would be a most decisive factor in preventing war, I do not think war, the hydrogen bomb will be used.

Do these four see any hope for eventual disarmament? They were split 2-2 on this question.

Among these four students, three thought that if there is another world war, the hydrogen bomb will be used.

From their reading do these youngsters think that all countries of the world know that the only possible outcome of an atomic age war is the complete destruction of the civilized world?

DALE EISENMANN commented rather on the question, "What factors do you think will be most decisive in preventing war?" He stated, "I believe that if our country will immensely increase its efforts concerning education and make use of the vast amount of potential ability in many students today, that could soon be far ahead of Russia in scientific knowledge. I also believe that an all-out united effort of America and all countries of the free world in scientific effort."

The question that if you think a third world war is inevitable, why?" drew three answers. Betty Ann Beer replied, "I think it is very possible that this world war is inevitable because instead of working together it seems as if everyone is working against each other and trying to get ahead of the other. With all the new weapons Russia has, we'll have to be very careful."

DICK HASSELBERG commented, "I think war is inevitable. There will always be people wanting more power. The governments of nations are at each other's throats and wars will begin and human nature says that other countries will help the primary countries in the war."

Our survey on the thoughts of teenagers about U. S.-Soviet relations also bore out a point which we have noticed many times during our poll. Opinions of young people are very easily influenced. Two out of three of those polled were reflecting another person's influence in their answers. Usually it was parents (26.7 per cent), friends (21.3 per cent) or teachers (17.4 per cent). One out of five weren't sure who helped them reach their conclusions.

Discuss Purpose Of Driver Training At Sheldon High

SHELDON (JNS) — The purpose of driver training in the high school was discussed Monday evening at a meeting of the Parent Teacher Association.

Donald Haberborn, in charge of the program, said the course is designed to show teenagers their limitations and some of the car they are driving.

Haberborn attended two weeks of intensive training along this line at the University of Illinois last summer. In explaining his job, he said he tries to cultivate in the student an attitude of social responsibility toward driving.

He explained that the social situation, the car used is loaned to the school. The recent raise in driver's license fees helps defray the expense of such a program.

Kenneth Stephens, superintendent of schools, explained recent legislation which could and does affect the local school system.

Mrs. George Somerville, chairman of project committee, reported the following suggestions submitted by PTA members:

A record player for seventh and eighth grades, indoor play equipment, new pictures for the classroom, new books for the library.

These items will be purchased in the above order.

Mrs. Robert McGinnis presided at the business meeting. The membership committee reported a total of 133 members.

Morrow Plots Produce Corn For 82nd Straight Year

A little plot of land down in Urbana has been planted in corn continuously for 82 years and this year produced a yield of 121 bushels an acre. This was made on the famed Morrow Plots at the University of Illinois.

The soil had received a manure-lime-phosphate treatment since 1894 with extra nitrogen, potash and phosphate over the past three years.

Surprising as this may seem, there's another plot down there which produced 106 bushels an acre. This had also grown corn for 82 years but had received no plant food treatment until 1955.

FOR THE PAST three years it has received lime, phosphate and potash. For the three years just before the plant food treatment, yields averaged only 21 bushels to the acre.

Results show that on these plots growing corn continuously for many years, the low yields were caused by loss of plant nutrients, not by physical condition of the soil.

L. B. Miller, university agronomist, said physical changes have taken place in the soil on the plots growing continuously corn. For example, only about half as much organic matter remains in the soil as in the amount of 1900.

On the Morrow plots, which are in the amount of $1,000, this amount is to be repaid to the amount from gate receipts of the insurance program on the school buildings.

An $18,000 five-year policy on the building was awarded to Kenneth Wiser, the low bidder, and a $50,000 three-year policy on the building was awarded to Louis Friedman, the high bidder.

The board authorized Arnold Blanke, school attorney, to prepare resolutions for anticipation warrants on the building fund for use in February. The board approved payment of a flat fee of $100 to

U. S. Counter-Attack Faces Reds If They Attack Allies, Dulles Says

CHICAGO (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said Wednesday night that a "Pearl Harbor" attack on U.S. allies would trigger a counter-attack ordered by American commanders on the spot.

Dulles said in a news conference that instant retaliation would follow an attack on the U.S. or its NATO allies because their forces are so meshed "certain kinds of attack" would call for an American counter-attack.

Speaking later before the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, Dulles said the grave dangers of international communism were dramatically brought home to the free world by the launching of Sputnik I and II.

DULLES SAID the temporary advantages won by Soviet power in the missile field pose a threat that can be met one of three ways:

- 1—Make a deal with the Communists.
- 2—Go it alone against them.
- 3—Meet in cooperation with other free nations and form alliances like NATO.

There was no doubt Dulles considered NATO-type alliances the obvious defense against Russian menace.

The first proposal involves accepting Russian promises and, in turn, ending the ban on shipments of strategic goods to satellite nations and ending security pacts such as NATO and SEATO. The list of repudiated Russian promises rules this out unless there are enforceable safeguards, Dulles said.

Go it alone, he said, would be a controlled economy such as Russia's and a large military establishment.

Following his speech, Dulles made these points in a question and answer period:

Russia has adopted a two-prong policy in copying U.S. policies of foreign aid.

Freedom must be made so de-irable, no despotisms can prevail against it.

The present situation in Russia came last week, although he does not know when it will end.

West Germany would have to direct any policies involving anti-Red uprising in East Germany. U.S. policy would not trade the wiping out of East Germany and other satellites at the risk of global war.

NATO Studies: When To Use A-Weapons

Allies Plot Type Of Retaliation In Case Of Red Aggression

LONDON (UP)—The Atlantic Allies are reported pondering plans for an "aggression thermometer" to define "degrees" of aggression. This, informants said, is to determine what form Allied retaliation might take.

The outcome of the study is not yet known. All the members of the alliance are taking part in the study, informants said. The study is to determine what form Allied retaliation might take.

Each, implicitly, has the right and chance to take just when it thinks nuclear weapons should or should not be used.

Informants said if and when the Allies agree on the scale of conditions under which nuclear weapons might be used, they will be kept as one of the top secrets of the alliance.

Soviet possession of such a catalogue obviously would render it valueless. But, informants said, the fact of its existence is being weighed takes account of these considerations:

1. All-out aggression by the Soviets undoubtedly would be met with all-out or massive retaliation by the Allies.

2. A nibbling attack by Red forces against one of NATO's outposts in Europe—Turkey, West Germany, or Norway or Denmark—would be repulsed by means proportionate to the seriousness of the aggression. A border raid presumably would be dealt with by conventional forces. A tactical atomic attack perhaps would be countered by similar weapons.

3. An attack against NATO bases, as happened at the end of the war, would be resisted automatically. The nature of the resistance would clearly depend on the nature of the attack.

The United States and Britain were said, meanwhile, to have decided on a basic revision of their own ideas about nuclear retaliation—a revision that is deemed ready to be accepted by NATO.

The two countries have agreed to accept the concept of limited atomic retaliation.

If the court approves the annexation, then it goes to the Bradley Village Board for approval. If the board approves the annexation, it becomes effective after 30 days unless an election is called by the board or a petition signed by 10 per cent of the registered voters in Bradley.

The area involved is bounded on the north by the south limits of Bradley, on the east by the Illinois Central Railroad right-of-way, on the south by Brookmont boulevard and Center street, and on the west by Vassar avenue (Route 45).

HCL Still Creeping Up In Chicago Area

CHICAGO (UP)—The federal cost-of-living index for Chicago moved up 1.1 per cent in October to reach 134.7, a per cent higher than the level of a year ago.

Adolph D. Berger, regional director of the Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the index was up 1.1 per cent in October, a per cent higher than the level of a year ago.

Residence-Type Old People's Home Given Formal Approval

The Circuit Court has entered its formal order confirming its approval of plans for a residence-type old people's home proposed by trustees of the Asarish Buckley Trust.

The court said the trust's assets are insufficient to attempt to furnish complete care for the aged church-supported homes.

Each cottage will have kitchen facilities and the home will not be a nursing home.

The court also held that the $25,000 figure on cost listed in Mr. Buckley's will as a director rather than a trustee was erroneous.

The court takes judicial notice of the fact that building costs have increased manifold since the date of the will.

Forest Fire Rages At Los Angeles' Gates

Partly cloudy, cold Saturday, high upper 50s, low tonight mid 30s.

LOS ANGELES (UP)—A Western Air Lines plane carrying 33 persons bounced crazily through the air east of here Thursday night after hitting a downdraft over Ontario. Fourteen passengers and two stewards were injured.

The stewardesses and some of the passengers were thrown against the roof of the DC6B when it was sucked downward by the draft, then pitched up by a reverse draft, and almost immediately jerked down again by still another draft.

THE CABIN WAS FILLED WITH flying luggage as passengers were hurled from their seats.

The stewardesses, Diana Hallock, 22, Los Angeles, and Sue Etzel, 21, San Diego, were knocked unconscious, along with a number of the passengers. Four of the passengers were still unconscious when the plane landed safely at Los Angeles International Airport.

A 12-hour flight started at 10:30 a.m. from Las Vegas, Nev. Miss Hallock suffered a broken neck, Joseph Zucker, 67, Cleveland, suffered a possible skull fracture and his wife, Ruth Sue, 65, a possible concussion. All were listed in fair condition at Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital.

Other passengers suffered cuts and bruises but the hospital said none were serious.

Wyoming Site Of Missile Base

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Pentagon appeared today to have pinpointed the first major launching site for the developing American intercontinental ballistic missile.

Thursday night that work will start by mid-1958 on a multimillion-dollar missile site near Cheyenne, Wyo., capped these other developments in the expedited program to obtain and test American progress in new weapons in the wake of Russia's Sputnik I launchings.

Notably absent was Tito who did not attend the Moscow meeting because of an attack of lumbago from which he is now reported recovering.

The communists warned that if "betwixt-imperialist" mania venture to start a war "imperialism will doom itself to destruction."

"The socialist countries are against the division of the world into military blocs," the communists said.

"BUT IN VIEW of the situation that has taken shape, with the western powers refusing to accept the proposals of the socialist countries for mutual abolition of military blocs, which is of a defensive nature, serves the security of the peoples of Europe and supports peace throughout the world, and must be preserved and strengthened."

The communists leaders charged the western "imperialists" for "designs" in Egypt, Syria and elsewhere to create a new bloc of peace being upheld by the socialist bloc, led by Russia, by the Asia-Africa nations and by neutral countries.

Nikita Ready To Prove Russians Have Missile

CAIRO (UP)—Soviet press boss Nikita Khrushchev was quoted today as saying in an interview that Russia is ready to give a "practical example" if anybody doubts it has an intercontinental ballistic missile.

The editor of an Egyptian newspaper got the interview in Moscow. In answer to a question Khrushchev said the West may still have some doubts that the Soviet Union has the ICBM.

"Even after the moon satellites" the editor asked.

"The weakness of moon satellites is that they can be seen with the naked eye but not felt," Khrushchev replied. "However, we are ready to make them feel. If anybody doubts the ICBM we are ready to give him a practical example. We don't want to fight with anyone."

Arabs Seek End To Algerian Rebellion

RABAT, Morocco (UP)—Leaders of the Arab states flanking Algeria today addressed an urgent appeal to France and Algerian rebels to negotiate an end of their three-year conflict.

King Mohammed V of Morocco and President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia offered their good offices in peace negotiations.

There was no immediate reaction from French officials or from leaders of the Algerian National Liberation Front, the chief rebel group fighting for independence from France's North Africa.

Tito Fails To Take Part In Red Unity Plea

Call For Stronger Military Ties In 'Imperialist' Fight

MOSCOW (UP)—Leaders of the Communist world, except Marshall Tito, called today for the strengthening of military ties in their fight against "imperialism."

A 12-hour flight started at 10:30 a.m. from Las Vegas, Nev. Miss Hallock suffered a broken neck, Joseph Zucker, 67, Cleveland, suffered a possible skull fracture and his wife, Ruth Sue, 65, a possible concussion. All were listed in fair condition at Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital.

Selection Of Hoffa Trial Jury Starts

NEW YORK (UP)—After months of delay, James R. Hoffa went on trial today in federal court on writ of habeas corpus charges.

At least the first day was expected to be spent in picking a jury.

Hoffa, president-elect of the Teamsters Union, is charged with conspiring here to illegally trap the telephone in the union's Detroit office so that conversations of his subordinates could be overheard.

Hoffa, who makes his headquarters in Detroit, also is under indictment on perjury charges.

The government planned originally to bring the perjury case to trial first. This case, however, has been held up while federal prosecutors awaited a U.S. Supreme Court ruling on whether state statutes are not admissible in federal court.

U.S. Atty. Paul W. Williams has told the court that the writ of habeas corpus case "does not rest on writ of evidence and we can proceed with this case without using writ of evidence."
