Mrs. Marie Renier Reaches Her 100th Birthday Saturday

Saturday will be another milestone in the busy life of Kankakee's Mrs. Marie LeCocq Renier, 95, 505 S. Evergreen Ave.

The noted Kankakee grandmother will be 100 years old.

The Kankakee, who has been getting headlines frequently during recent years with such things as first airplane ride, honors at both state and national grandmother meetings, etc., will mark her birthday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis of Niles, Mich.

And Sunday she'll be the center of attention when the members of her family gather at the Davis' Brandywine Farm from all parts of the country to celebrate her attainment of the century mark.

Mrs. Renier has been visiting at the Davis home for the past week. She'll return to Kankakee Monday and on Wednesday will be honored by one of two local organizations in which she is active, the Kankakee Senior Citizens Club.

WITHIN A FEW DAYS the decision will be made by the family as to whether the agile grandmother will attempt a journey she has had in mind for several years—an airplane trip to her native land of Belgium and a visit to the Brussels World Fair.

Traveling has been a real joy to the Kankakee. She returned to visit in Europe in 1935 when she was 77. In 1950 she went to California and in 1950 to Florida. Last year she marked her 99th year by taking her first airplane trip. She flew to California to visit granddaughters, Mrs. Charles Bischoff, Hollywood, and to attend with her the national Grandmother's Club convention. She was the belle of the convention.

Motor trips, of course, are quite common to the Kankakee grandmother. Just last month, for example, she accompanied members of the Kankakee Grandmother's Club (the other organization in which she is still active) to the annual spring luncheon in Chicago for the 500 Grandmothers Club of Illinois. She made the trip by bus—indignantly tossing aside suggestions that she go by auto to the trip.

Renier's memory and she is remarkable in her retention of facts. She can recall dates of 60-70-80 years ago and never forgets a face.

Mrs. Renier sat at the head table throughout the luncheon and then to show she was just as hearty as the rest of the grandmothers there she joined an 85-year-old in waltz!

THE KANKAKEE has been living in the city since 1909. She was born in Meun, Belgium, May 2, 1858. When she arrived in the United States in 1888, she, her late husband, Charles, and their three children settled in a log cabin in St. Anne. They spent 10 years in St. Anne, another eight farming near Beaverline, several more years operating a butcher shop in Beaverline and then moved to Kankakee. Her husband died in 1923.

Mrs. Renier has seven children living. They include Mrs. Alice Johnson of Kankakee, Mrs. Florence Johnson of Chicago, Mrs. Zora Sharkey of Kankakee, Mrs. William Krul of Kankakee, Mrs. Davis of Niles, Mich., and Belquist of Chicago and John of South Bend. In addition she has 14 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and 7 great great grandchildren. Mrs. Renier's parents lived to be 78, a sister died at 95 and another at 88.

The year's haven't dulled Mrs. Renier's memory and she is remarkable in her retention of facts. She can recall dates of 60-70-80 years ago and never forgets a face.

U. S. Seeks Phone Bill Rate Slash

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Federal Communications Commission is expected to act soon on a government complaint that Uncle Sam's phone bill and other private leased line services charges are "out of line."

The government services Administration has asked the commission for a fast ruling on its petition for an immediate 25 per cent slice in the rates of private line services. It called the cut "conservative."

The private circuit services involved are leased from American Telephone & Telegraph Co. Reductions sought by GSA would apply to telephone services. In addition it costs the government some 100 million dollars annually for its air warning system known as "SAGE" or semi-automatic ground environment. This is a complex electronic system set up to warn the approach of enemy aircraft and missiles.

The rates at issue are being considered in the commission's major investigation of private line charges, services and general practices of AT&T and Western Union Telegraph Co. The study began 2 1/2 years ago.

AT&T IS STRONGLY opposed to a rate ruling by the commission to force it to complete hearings and concludes action in the case.

GSA, the government's "house-keeping" agency, also represents the church.

Cullom Firemen Save Barn, Corn Crib From Flames

CULLOM (INS)—Cullom Fire Protection District volunteers answered an alarm Thursday morning on the Howard Ferry farm, 2 1/2 miles east of Cullom, when a corn crib and barn were threatened by flames from a corn cob fire.

The fire fighters managed to confine the blaze to the pile, although the point on the corn crib had begun to blister. To bring the flames under control, the firemen had to pump the farm well dry and then send the tank truck to the village for two more tanks of water.

"BRUNK SUGGESTED that the U. S. Weather Bureau in Chicago be notified as soon as a tornado spotting has been reported. He said in this way use of the CONELRAD alert signal can be authorized when tornado warnings are broadcast."

He suggested if a tornado were spotted close in, the radio station be notified immediately even though the CONELRAD signal could not be used.

In event tornadoes are sighted, in addition to radio stations, a particular area involved being notified, state police, civil defense authorities and county superintendent of schools are also called immediately from the Weather Bureau, Brunk reported.

Jorn explained that through use of the GOC code identification system, tornado spotting calls would be accepted at the sheriff's department only from persons who identify themselves with their code number.

ADDITIONAL VOLUNTEER spotters who may be added, particularly in the area around Kankakee, will also be given code identification, Wadleigh said.

A film "Tornado" was presented by Brunk showing operation of a tornado warning system.

Prior to the tornado warning system session, a group of GOC awards were presented by 1st Lt. Billy Corbin, filter center operator from Terre Haute, Ind. He gave awards for outstanding achievement in helping the GOC to Wadleigh and Mrs. Kenneth Segur of Watoka. Mrs. Segur

Area Skywatchers Learn How To Spot, Report Tornadoes

Skywatchers who are a part of the Kankakee Tornado warning system were warned Thursday night that they should not telephone the Kankakee control center at the sheriff's department unless an actual tornado has been sighted.

The warning was given at a meeting of representatives of six of the 14 Ground Observer Corps posts who are already taking part in the network.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Sutton of Watoka were cited for not having issued an alert in six years as GOC spotters. Fred Meyer of the sibley post received an award for enlisting 16 volunteers and he and five other post spotters received certificates of appreciation for 250 hours of active watching.

Wings for being new post superiors were presented to Donald Mason of Dwight, Diane May of Bondfield and Laurel Ek of Champaign. Certificates of appreciation were also presented to the Kankakee Daily Journal and radio station WKAN.

Brunk reported this morning that weather bureau cooperative observers in the Kankakee area will also be tied in with the Kankakee tornado warning system.

At present they will report directly to the Chicago Weather Bureau and at a later date will probably report directly to the Kankakee tornado communication center, Brunk said.

The cooperating weather observers are Postone, Miss Nina Cutler, Cabery, Miss Rosa Miller; Piper City, the Rev. Ronald Winsor; Roberts, R. E. Bradbury; Watoka, Clyde Nichols; Pontiac, Public Service Co. substitution; Dwight, Illinois Reformatory for Women; Bradley, Public Service Co. substitution and the Kankakee Airport.

Ike Asks Safety Through Solvency

The argument goes on, pro and con, on President Eisenhower's plan for reorganization of the Defense Department. Most taxpayers are aligned on the side of the President.

Perhaps the Administration will win out. The Navy has come out for the plan. Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, attached some strings to his endorsement suggesting that the wording could be tightened up.

Burke said establishing direct command from the President to the Secretary of Defense, through the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on to commanders, would permit quick action when necessary.

The legislation, which is in line with the recommendations of the Hoover Commission, would:

1. Permit establishment of unified commands and give the Secretary of Defense authority to assign these command forces from the three military departments.
2. Make commands directly responsible to the secretary and the President.
3. Give the secretary authority to

Young People Are Heroes, Too

Some of the most unpleasant reading in newspapers these days concerns the rising crime rate among teenagers. According to figures released by the Federal Bureau of Investigation recently, arrests of teenagers involving all types of crimes rose again in 1957.

Auto theft was up 68 per cent; burglary up 55 per cent. Other figures are equally disheartening.

These facts can't be denied. But there was one recent news story concerning the younger generation which makes for inspiring reading—one that reminds us that there is a lot more to say about teenagers than mere police figures.

This news event was the annual awarding of medals for heroism by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

This year 18 persons were cited for

When Death Strikes In An Office

NEW YORK (U)—There usually are only two days in a modern office.

One is pay day, when life is wonderful. The other is any day on which you aren't paid, and life seems ordinarily hopeless or hopelessly ordinary, depending on the day.

But then there comes a third kind of day—the day someone in the office dies. As one grows older, it seems to come more often. You come to work one morning, and instead of the usual greeting of "What's new?" there is, for a change, something really new. "Did you hear so-and-so died last night?"

Who was so-and-so? It makes no difference what his rank was in the office, whether he was an executive or a secretarial human zero. In death he suddenly stands out larger. For one day he is the most important man in the office.

YOU MAY HAVE worked 30 years from him, for 30 years and never even noticed the color of his eyes. All of a sudden, through the pooling of office memories, you learn a lot about him.

Everyone has a memory. "Only last week I heard him say in the washroom he never felt better in his life."

"He's got three kids, but two of them are raised."

Manners For Moderns

If a girl invites a young man to visit in her home for a weekend she should not, without consulting him, plan the kind of entertainment that will be expensive for him, such as dinner dancing at exclusive restaurants.

In fact, she should try to arrange things so that he is really a guest—not just an escort to pick up the check wherever she wants to go.

"He only had four more paychecks to go on his house."

"Remember during the last economy drive, when they would not buy a new pencil sharpener, he got so mad he went out and bought one himself?"

"He always worried about his car."

As his associates exchange their memories, you get an insight into what is worrying them—their diseases they fear, the dreams unachieved, the problems at home, the thought that life, dull as it often seems, should be taken from them without their permission.

He is gone, but the work hasn't. The human herd, lowing, turns its horns toward the future and plods on.

There has just been another death in the office.

Don't worry, brides. There are some things about that man of yours you'll NEVER understand.

For instance: How can he become so attached to old clothes? You don't have to understand. Just don't get rid of an old hat, dressing gown or jacket without his permission.

How can he hear a juicy bit of scandal and not tell you about it?

Maybe it didn't sound so juicy to him. Anyway, just don't show your frustration when, after you've heard it from someone else and tell it to him breathlessly, he says, with annoying nonchalance, "Yeah, I heard that several weeks ago."

How can he appear to be listening to you and not hear a word you say?

Well, that's frustrating—but not tragic.

How can he dump all his worries when he sets out to do something he enjoys—such as fishing, watching a ball game or whatever?

Because women tend to take their worries with them wherever they go. A man's ability to shove his troubles temporarily may be hard for a woman to understand. But it's one of the things that help a man face his problems the next day.

How can he forget dates that are important to you?

The fact that a man may forget his wedding anniversary doesn't mean he doesn't love his wife. It's more likely just an indication that he has a poor memory, had a lot on his mind or wasn't brought up to pay attention to special days.

How can he fail to see that there's something wrong with a woman having a closet full of clothes and still not have "a thing to wear?"

How can he lose so many things around home and insist that someone has hidden them from him, when often what he is looking for is in plain sight in the accustomed place?

Easy, life's a man.

'Recession' Can Mean Many Things

WASHINGTON—They're going to need a new dictionary very soon to understand the "recession." The descriptive words being used are somewhat novel. Thus President Eisenhower said at his news conference that "the decline is flattening out," while Alan H. Temple, executive vice president of the First National City Bank of New York and a noted economist, declared in a speech before the U.S. Chamber of Commerce meeting here that "the foundation for the postwar boom is developing."

The President was talking about the drop in the unemployment figures for April. The use of these phrases assumes that the average man is familiar with the graphs and charts that portray the way the month-by-month figures on employment, production and sales go up or down or stay on the same level. So when the line on the chart "flattens out," it is a basis for hoping there will be no further decline. If some day there is an

Proposed Space Station

When Kraft Ehrliche, German-born astronaut assistant to the technical director of Convair-Astronautics, brought to town his new 10-foot toy model of a basic space station.

He says the real thing—which would be 100 feet long and weigh 15,000 pounds—could be built in five years at a cost of around half a billion dollars.

It would operate 400 miles above the earth's surface with a crew of four men. A year or two after it was established—which would take about two weeks—it could be used as a base for launching improved instruments to reconnoiter the moon, the planets and the outer solar system.

DR. EHRLICHE SHOWED his model to congressional committees considering the creation of a government space agency. He gave an advance showing to National Press Club.

The next pitch is to sell the idea to the Pentagon or the civilian Advanced Research Projects Agency and get a go-ahead.

In preliminary design, the Atlas or Thor intercontinental ballistic missile "tank" or cylinder would be used.

The routine for getting this space station into operation would be something like this, for the Atlas job:

First an Atlas "tank" would be orbiting, empty.

Then a passenger missile carrying the first four-man crew would follow, with another cargo missile carrying equipment for the aft end of the space station.

THERE WOULD, of course, have to be a lot of precision in these successive launches. For the space ship would be going 18,000 miles an hour or two miles a second. Supplying the crew with food and water would be a half second.

What's called "proportional navigation," a technique used to steer intercept missiles to home on their targets, would be used to bring all cargo and passenger ve-

The New Encirclement

In a significant interview with "Le Figaro," Khrushchev, as usual, made many side statements of far reaching significance. We must not let them pass.

In the "Le Figaro" interview, Khrushchev raises the question of the "instant" coffee. He says that few of us are willing to recognize the fact that the world situation has changed radically and not in favor of capitalism. Consequently capitalist encirclement in the old meaning of this word is out of the question.

The most recent technique employed by Soviet Russia, as economic and might be regarded as capitalist. They have to do with the movement of goods, the use of gold as a common denominator of currency and the substitution of Russian for American economic and military aid to countries which cannot stand on their own. The most recent economic invasion by Soviet Russia is into Latin America.

FROM THE STANDPOINT OF THE United States, the most dangerous operations of Soviet Russia are in Brazil and Chile. Brazil is suffering economically from an excessive coffee crop, dependent upon an American market which is appalled at the high and even unreasonably high price of coffee. By a pulverizing method, the vast "instant" coffee plantations have been established. This would give Russia a foot in the door, as it were, of the most Catholic country of Latin America.

Obviously, the Russians cannot consume this surplus coffee crop, but would ultimately dump it either among coffee-drinking satellites such as the east Germans, the Czechs or the Hungarians or would dribble it into the world market slowly enough not to ruin the price. The Russians can undoubtedly make a profit on this transaction.

Another deal involves Chile copper. This has become a political issue in Chile. Chile is one of the world's greatest producers of copper. On the other hand, the copper market in the United States has slumped. The price of copper is down and there is talk of putting a protective tariff on copper in this country.

These conditions seriously affect the economy of Chile and there is talk of Soviet Russia buying Chilean copper production. The Socialist and Communist parties favor trading with the United States. Those in power fear to injure Chile's relations with the United States. On the other hand, the United States cannot purchase all the copper that can be produced in the Western hemisphere for political reasons without the slightest regard to economic necessity.

Again the point must be made that Soviet Russia could accumulate stocks of surplus copper, could pour it into world markets; the use of the economic tool is rather recent in the Soviet's effort to control the world. Stalin apparently was too doctrinaire as a socialist to bother with such capitalistic weapons. Khrushchev, Bulganin and Mikoyan not only understand non-socialistic methods but also know how to operate money, banking, and the use of commodities along capitalistic lines.

Three New Medical Drugs

Three medicines which give promise of making life a lot safer and much more comfortable are among the recent developments which I would like to discuss today in our regular monthly review of medical advances.

Midol is a new sulfa compound which reportedly has a therapeutic advantage over the older sulfonamides. Midol is the trade name for sulfamonomethoxazole.

Evidence thus far indicates that it is effective also in treating respiratory infections, lung abscesses and bacterial dysentery. And it can be used as a prophylactic against recurrence of rheumatic fever.

It will be available soon for over-the-counter sale.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

H.B.: I have a ring of which the pearl is made of a hardening of the arteries?

Answer: The ring you speak about is probably due to a fat deposit within the eye. This has been proven to be due to hardening of the arteries except in a few cases.

Better consult your doctor.

"A LITTLE CITY, KANKAKEE is almost an ideal place to live," Romy Hammes, businesswoman and builder, standing, told 200 women at the United Church Women's May Fellowship meeting, which was held in First Methodist Church. ## Kankakee Rated As Good Place To Live By United Church Women

It was conditionally agreed at the United Church Women's May Fellowship meeting this morning that Kankakee is "a good place to live."

"A Place to Live," the topic of the fellowship meeting, was discussed by a panel composed of Luther Greene, executive director of Bethune Youth Center; Romy Hammes, businesswoman and home builder; and Edward Meland, attorney.

Mrs. Hammes, who was the main speaker, pointed out that there are 90 contractors in this area able to meet housing needs. McIntire agreed, but Greene took issue, pointing out that he must look at the section in which he lives, the N. Hobbs avenue area.

"MANY OF THE PEOPLE there have fairly decent homes," he said, "but there are a lot who

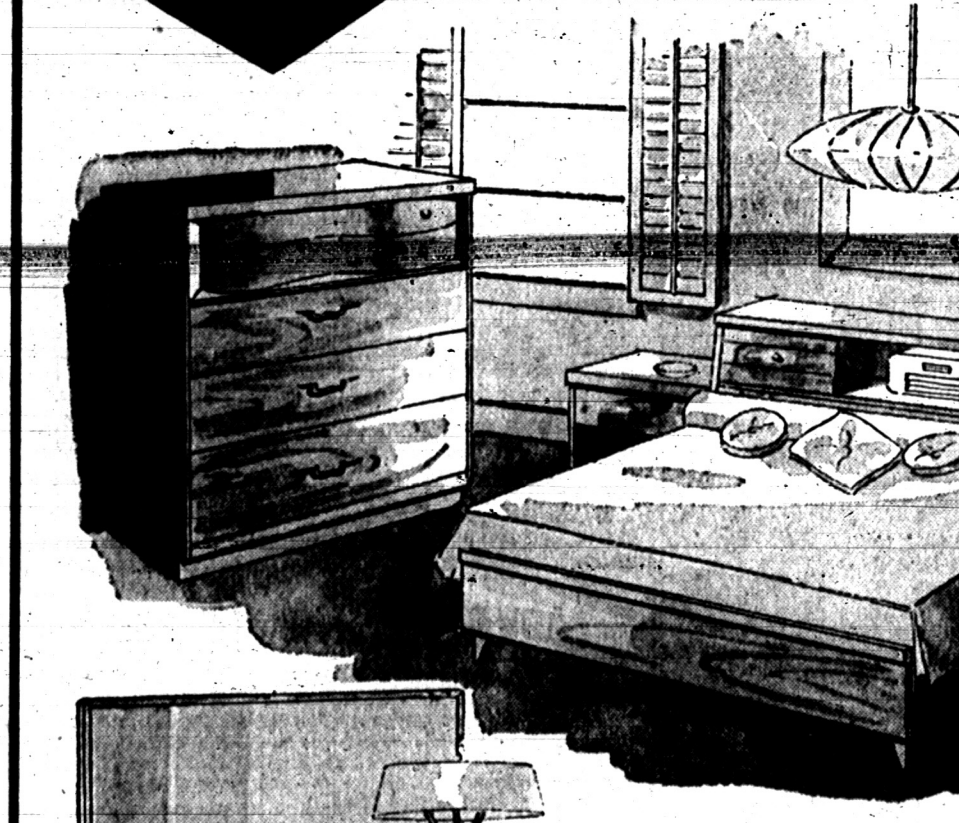

"They won't let me dump out garbage or burn trash," he explained, adding that, if the same ordinances applied to other areas, the area could be cleaner, more sanitary and have fewer fire hazards.

He would like to have better ones," Greene conceded that he would not term that section of town a "slum" or "blighted" area, but pointed out that floods last year damaged many homes which may, in the future, prove as expensive to maintain as it would to build a new home.

Commenting the Negro citizen as one of the best credit risks, Hammes said Negroes here will have the opportunity of owning their own homes, if they choose.

Kankakee wouldn't have any standard area. "If laws were enforced to make the people there live like they make me live," Hammes said.

Faces Charge Of Drunk Driving

Emil H. Hirsch, 36, RR 1, Mattoon, was arrested by Kankakee police on driving under the influence of liquor Thursday night. The motorist was stopped when he drove his car in the wrong direction in the 100 block of S. East avenue.

His case was continued until Monday by Magistrate Paul F. Davidson who set bond at $1,500.

McIntire said, "The people of that area resisted the authority's plan because they didn't feel it met their needs as they saw it," he continued.

The commissioners later reviewed the situation and found that conditions had changed, that the housing restrictions had eased and that more rentals were available. The authority dropped the planned federal housing project.

"IT IS MUCH EASIER for me to see now in hindsight," McIntire said, "that I would not want someone telling me what to do with something for which I had worked hard and especially to sell it at a price which they thought fair, but which didn't seem fair to me."

McIntire explained the reasons for dropping the County Housing Authority project started about five years ago.

First investigations, McIntire said, indicated that about 100 houses in the N. Hobbs avenue section were substandard and needed rehabilitation. A few needed to be removed.

The appraisal figures were not satisfactory to the people who wanted the authority wanted to buy, benediction.

Seek To Bring New Industry To Sheldon

SHELDON (JNS)—A total of 1,398 residents in and around Sheldon indicated during the last week they would be interested in full time employment by an electronics firm which is considering locating in Sheldon.

A labor survey was conducted by a committee of Sheldon residents. It started Saturday and ended Tuesday, covering a radius of 30 miles from Sheldon. A few employment applications were received from persons beyond that area.

According to a Sheldon spokesman, a delegation of Sheldon residents left today for Chicago and an interview with heads of the electronics firm. The delegation includes Robert Muggins, Sheldon village president; Clayton Christensen, industrial chairman; Milo Fleming, village attorney; and Robert Risley, local businessman.

These men will present the findings of the labor survey, which showed the 1,398 labor potential. Of this figure, 1,360 have been classified as skilled or non-skilled electronics workers. The last 38 persons, received today, have not been classified as yet.

Of the 1,398, 793 applicants were female and 605 were male. Of the females, 555 were classified as skilled or non-skilled electronics workers. The last 38 persons, received today, have not been classified as yet.

Since the firm intends to start operating its new relocated plant by early September, construction work on the factory must start in the near future, indicating a decision on the plant's location will come shortly.

The industry will need a 20,000 square foot building and will employ 150 women and 50 men at the outset of operations. It will work both day and night shifts.

U. S. Fails To Export Friendliness: Creighton

To Europeans, Americans living abroad seem aloof, aloof and aloof, Creighton said. This was the picture painted by David Creighton during a talk at the Kankakee Rotary Club meeting the last week.

"Our integrity is unquestioned," Europeans consider a 'maybe' from an American as good as a signed contract," he said, "but we have failed to export the warm friendliness of our country."

Creighton is a former Kankakee man who has just returned from Greece where he spent 13 years rebuilding the Greek YMCA organization. He is a YMCA World Service staff man.

Gains in some major issues ran from fractions to about 2 points. Losses were mostly in fractions.

General Dynamics, Douglas and Boeing were up ¼ or more.

Small gainers included U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel and Tube, Goodrich, Sears, Roebuck, American Telephone & Telegraph, International Nickel, American Cyanamid, Du Pont, Southern Pacific, Gulf and Western Oil (New Jersey).

Off at the start were General Motors, Chrysler, Caterpillar, Kenworth, Chesapeake & Ohio, Texas Co. and Electric Power.

U.S. governments bonds were steady.

Fail To Find Black Beast Near Atlanta

ATLANTA (U)—The mysterious beast that has frightened residents of Atlanta's northwest section is still a mystery today. Hundreds of policemen and civilians, some armed with shotguns, searched a wooded section Thursday night after residents reported seeing a critter that was big, black and mean.

Several hunters maintained that only a panther could have made the four-foot tracks that were found. Police said they measured 4 1/2 inches in diameter.

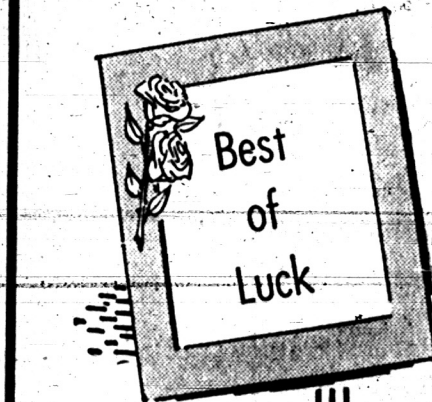

BUT PATROLMAN Walt Jones, who used his bear-hunting dogs in the search, said in his opinion there was no panther in the area. He called off the dogs at 12:30 a. m., soon after they treed a black house cat. While the hunt was in progress residents of the section kept children indoors and some maintained an armed vigil. Several shotguns were fired at shadows and two objects moving across yards.

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UP)—Two masked bandits made off with gems valued at more than $100,000 Thursday in a jewelry store robbery described as the biggest in Los Angeles County history.

Starkweather Trial Scheduled Monday

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — Swagging, 33-year-old Charles Starkweather, admitted slayer of 11 persons during one of the nation's most concentrated murder sprees, goes on trial for his life Monday.

Scene of the trial will be the 70-year old Lancaster County courthouse, which is within sight of the scenes of seven of the killings attributed to the bespectacled former garage collector.

The chain of bloodletting began in December when Robert Colvert, 31, night attendant at a suburban Lincoln service station, was kidnapped, robbed and murdered.

ALTHOUGH IT developed later that Starkweather had been hanging out at the station and had paid bills with small change after Colvert was killed, the red-haired hot rod enthusiast was never questioned during the Colvert investigation.

It wasn't until the night of Monday, Jan. 27, that police began looking for Starkweather and his girl friend, Carol Fugate, 14, for questioning.

That was when the bodies of Carol's mother and her stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bartlett, and their 2-year-old daughter, Betty Jean, were found in an automobile behind the Bartlett home. They had last been seen alive six days earlier.

Authorities suspected that Starkweather might be hiding on a farm where he used to hunt squirrels.

At the farm, they found the body of a bachelor August Meyer, 70. He had been killed with a shotgun. In the storm cellar of a nearby country school they discovered the mutilated bodies of two 17-year-old sweethearts, Carol King and Robert Jensen. Starkweather's car was found near the school, abandoned. Jensen's car was missing. Police from throughout the state were summoned to emergency duty. The Nebraska National Guard was called out.

THEN, SHORTLY after noon on Wednesday, Jan. 29, three more bodies were found—those of C. LaVer Ward, prominent Lincoln businessman, his wife and their maid, Lillian Fencil. In the garage of their home—Starkweather's old garage house—was Jensen's car. Ward's black Packard was missing. Panic spread through the city.

Then came word from Douglas, Wyo., nearly 500 miles to the west. Starkweather had been captured there but not until after he had killed Merle Collier, Great Falls, Mont., shoe salesman, in an attempt to steal his car.

Carol Fugate remained with Starkweather until just after Collier was slain, when she fled. She was armed with a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver and a .38 Smith & Wesson pistol. She was carrying a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver and a .38 Smith & Wesson pistol.

Starkweather tried to escape in his car but was captured after a gunfire-punctuated chase through Douglas.

Starkweather dictated a long statement, its contents never divulged, after admitting to police and newsmen he was responsible for all 11 slayings. Carol also made a statement, but none of it has been released.

Her trial has been delayed, pending settlement of her attorney's contention she should be tried in juvenile court, rather than District Court.

Starkweather briefly maintained Carol had nothing to do with the murder spree, but later voiced bitter accusations against the girl.

President Assures Indonesia U.S. Is Neutral In Revolt

JAKARTA, Indonesia (U-P) — President Sukarno's government today took much of the sting out of its charges that Americans are flying for the Indonesian rebels.

The retreat was in response to assurances from President Eisenhower. Foreign Minister Subandrio told newsmen he is convinced "with good will from both sides the problem can be solved through diplomatic channels."

Authorities suspected that Starkweather might be hiding on a farm where he used to hunt squirrels.

At the farm, they found the body of a bachelor August Meyer, 70. He had been killed with a shotgun. ## Cold Florida Winter Subdues The Red Tide

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (U-P) — Florida's severest winter of the century has brought the trouble-making red tide to a temporary end.

It is the one good thing that has happened since the Red Tide began its reign of terror last September, and during the fall struck terror along 200 miles of Florida Gulf coast from Tarpon Springs to south of Cape Romano.

Although commercial varieties were generally unaffected, other types were hard hit.

Then came the first drastic freeze of the winter season.

The effects of that December cold spell were not too noticeable at once, but Dr. Robert F. Hutton, biologist of the state conservation department, reports that succeeding cold waves caused big changes in the density of the Red Tide.

"THE COLD SEEMS to have done the job for us," said Dr. Hutton who in charge of the state forces trying to control the scourge.

Since the first of the year no Red Tide organisms have been found in the northern sector of the infected belt and only a few have been detected in the southern end.

Dr. Hutton won't predict what this mysterious fish killer will do in the future.

Red Tide actually is a tiny marine organism, Gymnodinium aureolum, which multiplies rapidly under certain conditions.

When the GB count reaches 300-350,000 to a quart of water it's a fish killer. The organisms throw off a neurotoxin which kills fish by paralyzing their bodily functions.

SCIENTISTS STILL are working to learn the specific cause of these outbreaks and how to control them. However, temperature and the presence of nutrient materials washed into the Gulf of Mexico by rain-swelled streams are known to be important.

The poison released by these rampaging organisms is carried by droplets of water and can become irritating to humans. Beach residents may be bothered with coughing or sore throats.

For the first time last fall copper sulphate was used with success to kill big patches of Red Tide. Pa-

Byrnes, 79 Today, Claims He's Quit Noting Birthdays

COLUMBIA, S.C. (U-P) — James P. Byrnes, secretary of state in the Truman administration, observed his 79th birthday today.

"I won't talk about the birthday, and I'd better not say much about the anniversary," Byrnes quipped.

"Maude (his wife) and I don't plan anything special. We agreed last year that I was having too many birthdays, and I told Maude after our 50th anniversary that we would just coast in."

Byrnes was an associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, served in both houses of Congress, and was governor of his state.

NORTH CHICAGO (U-P) — Two sailors were killed and a third was injured Thursday police said when their auto crashed into a North Shore train.

The victims, stationed at nearby Great Lakes Naval Training Center, were thrown from the wrecked car.

The Navy identified them as Charles Edmond Fosness, 26, of Prosser, Minn., and a 20-year-old sailor, identified as W. H. Hinder, 19, of Ft. 1, Chieftand, Fla.

Reported in critical condition at the Great Lakes Hospital is Ronald W. Houser, 19, of Allentown, Pa.

Police said Houser, identified as the driver of the car, apparently was blinded by the sun. No effort was made to apply the car's brakes, authorities said.

Favors Cut In National Guard Units

SPRINGFIELD — The Illinois Adjutant General, said today he is receptive to an Army reorganization plan to reduce the number of National Guard units but is opposed to a Defense Department proposal to cut guard manpower by 10 per cent.

The Defense Department has ordered an overall manpower cut which would reduce the Illinois guard by 1,400. Congress must decide by July 1, the start of the fiscal year, whether to authorize the reduction.

The authorized strength of the Illinois guard is 20,000 but under a system of allotments it has only about 13,500 members.

The Army's reorganization proposal would eliminate 41 of Illinois' 160 guard units and place it under the "tentative" structure recently adopted by the regular Army.

Maj. Gen. Leo M. Boyle said in an interview the guard "should be reorganized but the change must be made without reducing manpower."

"WE WOULD BE just as effective with fewer units," Boyle said, "but those units must utilize the present number of men."

He estimated it would take about 2½ years to put the reorganization plan into operation and would affect the 33rd Illinois Infantry Division and the 178th Regimental Combat Team.

Boyle said Gov. Stratton is firmly opposed to a manpower cut, but added that Stratton has recommended the guard be reorganized without a strength reduction.

Under the law, state governors must get the consent of the legislature to cut the guard.

The Defense Department estimates a 10 per cent strength cut, reducing the entire National Guard to 360,000 members, would save taxpayers about $1 million dollars a year.

Bees Sting 2 Rescuers At Crash Site

BLOOMINGTON — A couple of bookkeepers smashed up their truck Thursday. They wound up in the hospital, along with some of their rescuers.

Thousands of angry bees, irked by the mishap, made painful passes at rescue workers, state police and passers-by, shortly after the vehicle lurched into a ditch along State Route 150.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cochran of Elm Creek, Manitowish, Canada, were treated for cuts and fractures at a Bloomington hospital. They were not stung.

TWO RESCUE workers felt the wrath of the bees. Hospitalized for treatment of stings were Chester Henry of Leroy, a state policeman, and Earl Prey of Dubuque, Iowa, a motorist who stopped when he saw the accident.

Three bee enthusiasts from Bloomington hurried to the scene. They recaptured the majority of the bees, identified as an Italian variety.

The bees escaped from some 300 cages when the truck ran off the shoulder of the road, veered to the other side and tipped over in a ditch.

Gov. Stratton Plugs Court Reform In Talk

CHICAGO (UP) — Gov. Stratton has warned that government by force, not law, has been the penalty for those nations which have taken the basic freedoms for granted.

"Millions of people today are governed not by law but by force," Stratton said Thursday in a "Law Day" address at the University of Chicago Law School.

Stratton said in a prepared text the courts always would protect the basic freedoms.

"In many countries these freedoms have been shattered," he said. "Their citizens realized too late what was happening to them; in these countries there are no laws as we know them, no courts and no justice."

THE GOVERNOR URGED support for the "judicial reform" amendment which comes before Illinois voters in November, and called the present state court system "woefully inadequate."

He said the backlog of cases piled up under the present court system was "ridiculous when viewed against the intent rule by law as set up in our 1870 Constitution to give speedy justice to all."

Depoited Man Gets Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO — William Heikkila today gets the court appearance he was promised by a federal judge after being deported to Finland by U.S. Immigration Agents two weeks ago.

The 52-year-old San Francisco draftsman, under deportation order as an alien ex-Communist, was seized on a San Francisco street by agents April 19 and flown out of the country.

He was returned at government expense last Friday and to day U.S. Dist. Judge Edward P. Murphy decides whether agents who seized Heikkila were guilty of civil contempt. A federal restraining order had been issued 23 hours after Heikkila's seizure.

JUDGE MURPHY is also to decide the plea of Heikkila's attorney, Lloyd McMurray, to modify his April 3 finding that Heikkila is deportable.

McMurray said he will ask that the ruling be modified in light of a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling that Communist associations by an alien must be proved meaningful before he can be legally deported.

Heikkila admitted Communist party membership from 1929 to 1934 but said he was working for the "American People's Party" since then.

Your Family And You

Motherhood Is A Half-Time Career!

By DR. PAUL POPENOE

If you're a mother, don't try to make a lifetime career out of it; you might go too far. Motherhood is really only a half-time career.

In other words, after the last child has grown up and left home, the average woman still has half of her entire life ahead of her. If she has nothing but motherhood on her mind, she is wasting the second half of her life, there is pretty sure to be trouble for all concerned.

Of course, "Once a Mother, Always a Mother." Most of the mother-in-law problems are created by women who haven't anything else to do. They've given their lives to the children in earlier years, and they don't know how to stop. When the last one of the offspring leaves home, perhaps to marry, many a mother is left with a void.

And, unfortunately, if they don't have a new child, they will do so ten or twenty years from now.

4. ADULT-MOTHER. Standing behind your youngsters at a safe distance, showing them that you believe in them, but not being a weight around their necks, you are ready to help in an emergency, but if you have brought them up with each other and with their respective families, there won't be any emergency. Most of the time that you can't give profitably to your husband, you can give to fixing up your home, taking some study courses, enlarging your circle of friends, doing volunteer work in the community or, if you feel like it, taking a satisfied job outside.

With a program like that, any woman can enrich her own life; she'll be having too good a time to wish herself on her grown children unless they want her and need her.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Q. I have two high school daughters. I'm thinking of taking a job outside the home. What is the effect on them likely to be?

A. You can start an argument, or a fight, with that question anywhere, any time, but I'll remark that your girls are at an age when they need plenty of (not too old) supervision, help, and encouragement. Psychologists say Messing and David H. Morgan employed daughters, 13 to 18, of employed and unemployed mothers in 11 Missouri communities, on 500 mothers and 500 daughters.

Q. In preparation for marriage, it is necessary for a couple to have a formal engagement?

A. It is a great safeguard, and there is usually no good excuse for not having one. A formal period of betrothal, lasting at least six months, gives the couple a chance to get really acquainted with each other and with their respective families and friends. Absence of such formal engagement period is closely associated with unhappiness and failure in marriage.

Q. Fifteen or 20 years from now, don't you think all the good times we are giving our children, with considerable effort and expense, will stand out as the brightest spots in their memories?

A. I do not. Sociologists Judson and Mary Landers, who have queried college students as to things that brought them the greatest happiness between ages 5 and 12, in first place Q. I have two high school daughters. I'm thinking of taking a job

Bradley Repeats As Track Champion In W-R-K Loop

4 Records Set; St. Pat Runnerup

BY GIL BRENNER
Gaining 48 of its points from first and second places, Bradley-Bourbonville High School's tracksters Thursday night won their second consecutive W-R-K Loop Conference varsity track meet by a comfortable 12 1/2 points. The victory gave the Bolleermakers domination of the conference track scene this season, their fourth-straight win having won the league title a week before.

The final tabulation gave Bradley 62 1/2, St. Patrick Central 43 1/2, Muncie 22 1/2, St. Anne 21 1/2, Wilmington 12 1/2, Gilman 9 and Central 4. Both Bradley and St. Pat collected 18 places or ties but the Bolleermakers gained 11 of theirs in firsts and seconds and the Irish 10 of theirs in thirds and fourths, and thereby lay the difference between the two leaders.

A three-way battle among Bradley, St. Patrick and Central that had featured the meet from the beginning was broken wide open by the Bradleyans in the final four events when the Bolleermakers went two-two in the 880 and low hurdles, took second in the 220 and won the mile relay.

At the end of 11 events Central and Patrick were tied at 30 1/2, and Bradley was second in 30 1/2. The Bolleermakers began to move, Dale Reedy won the 880 as expected but in the top surprise of the meet Bradley freshman Moore Harris roared in for a second place, just a second off the winner.

THE FINISH gave the Bolleermakers a 35-point lead and it boomed to 5 1/2 in the low hurdles when Mel Pace, a question mark because of a leg injury, clinched the low hurdles to win in 22.3 and teammate Jerry Higgins dogged his steps for second to give Bradley nine more points.

The Bradley lead was padded when Bob Salisbury, who incurred a leg injury in the 100, had enough left to finish second in the 220. And the Bolleermakers clinched the meet when their quarter-mile runner, Reedy, took Tom Latham and Salisbury—speed the mile relay in record time of 3:41.8.

Coach Jerry Lemoine's charges won four firsts and seven points to get nearly even seconds for victory from firsts and seconds. Central collected 3 1/2 points from firsts and seconds and St. Patrick 24 points. Neither could pick up enough in thirds, fourths and fifts to overcome the Bradley margin.

Four records were bested and a fifth tied during the meet. St. Anne's Gary Forin started the onslaught on the marks in the afternoon when he got off a broad jump of 20-5 1/2. The old record was 20-4 set eight years ago by Chuck Peterson of Bradley. Peterson's jump held up through the rest of the event and he eventually took the title by a single inch over Central's Ralph Bailey.

MOMENCE'S Eddie Carter was next to take the spotlight when he flipped the discus 137-3/4 to win the event and also top the 1943 record set by another Momence lad, Wilkins, of 127-4. Carter had a bit of a push in the event when St. Patrick's Terry Laffey unloosed the best heave of his life.

Wilmington's Hillard, a double winner in the sprints, was twice bested by Bradley's Salisbury to the tape, nipped the 220 record by a fraction. His winning time of 23:18 best one of the oldest records on the books, a clocking by Bradley's Ponikvar in 1941. Last record to fall was in the mile relay where Bradley's foursome beat the Central team by 44-5/8.

Bradley's Reedy, who joined Hillard in a double winner in the mile, likely sacrificed records for the meet, likely by running both the 440 and 880. Nonetheless he tied the 440 record of 1:59 and won a second off the 880 mark with his 2:08.5 clocking.

Hillard Takes Both Sprints

Wilmington's Ron Hillard, a double winner in the W-R-K Loop Conference sprints Thursday night, finished first in the 220 in record time of 23.18. Second in Bradley's Bob Salisbury who nipped his first losses of the season in the 100 and 220 Thursday to the wire.

Derby Fever Grips Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Derby fever, deeply sharpened by one of the most colorful horses in American racing history, gripped Louisville today.

Although 18 of the nation's best 2-year-olds were entered for Saturday's race, the field was expected to start at 11:15.

On the basis of 16 starts the 1 1/4-mile race before an expected crowd of some 100,000 will gross $183,000. A net of $118,000 goes to the winner. Scratchies will reduce the purse by $1,250 for each withdrawal.

UNTIL A few weeks ago this Derby figured to be a mediocre race. Then along came Silky Sullivan, who tugged at the hearts and imagination of racing fans.

Set Discus Record
One of three boys to repeat as champions in Thursday's W-R-K Loop Conference discus meet, Momence's Eddie Carter, prepared to set a new record.

Yonke, continued to lower his hurdles time as he won the event in 1:58. Up to the Thursday finals his best time had been 1:58.3. Yonke was pushed by Bradley's Colin Beck and Central's Butch Hendon, however, and the two went 2:33 respectively in 1:58 and 1:58.1.

For a new mark but missed and his winning effort of 5/8 was just a quarter of an inch off the record. While Bradley had the mile relay all to itself (Central's second place all to itself) Central's second place all to itself.

Posting new season marks in six events, Kankakee High School's tracksters Thursday night won their second consecutive Quadrangular Conference varsity track meet by a comfortable 12 1/2 points.

Forrest Newton, Kankakee's California-born sprinter, demonstrated the satisfaction of all persons concerned that he can run the 220 under favorable conditions just as well as he can the 100 and 440. He blazed down the furling straightaway in 22 seconds flat, a full second and four-tenths faster than anything he had done previously.

Coach Vic Weber, trying to determine for state meet purposes just which of three races his speedy junior is best in, held Newton out of the 440 in order to give him a full test in the 220 and half-mile relay.

NEWTON COPIED the 100 in 11:01 to equal his best previous time and then left the timers' mouths agape with his all-out burst in the 220. Weber had theorized that the big fellow's previous record performances in the 220—in which Newton never had to be beaten—were caused by the fact that the 440 was too much out of him.

Add Frank Thomas to the list of National League sluggers who are making Los Angeles' 250-foot attack which featured two doddle enemy.

Always a dangerous long-ball threat, Thomas smashed his third and fourth homers in the L.A. shelling gallery Thursday night to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory over the Pirates—their longest streak since 1955—and marked the Dodgers' 10th defeat in 15 games.

Rookies also played a major part in two other games Thursday—giving the Braves their third straight win from the Pirates' faltering start is the fact that in every case the visiting team's slugger have played the major role.

NEWCOMB, MAKING his first start since April 17, shut out the Pirates for four innings but the Baltimore Orioles 4-3, the Cleveland Indians routed the Washington Senators 9-1 and the Boston Red Sox beat the Kansas City Athletics 7-4.

Kay Stars Meet State's Best At Mooseheart

BY HERB JANNUSCH

Whether Kankakee's two track stars, Forrest Newton and Marv Sillman, are to be contenders for state honors may be learned Saturday at the "little state" meet, the Mooseheart Relays.

The Kays and three other schools from the metropolitan area are among 40 expected to be represented in the Child City's 18th annual classic.

Most of the schools entered are from the metropolitan area and produce the top track and field performers in Illinois. Bloom, two-time winner of the state title for the past two seasons and a favorite to win again May 17, heads the list of entries. There is no state championship awarded at Mooseheart.

Reddick Nine Wins Opener 9-1

CORNELL (JNS)—Reddick opened defense of its LaSalle-Livingston County Conference baseball title by taking a 9-1 victory over Cornell Thursday behind the one-hit pitching of Larry Ritz.

Reddick batters pounded out a 10-hit barrage off two Cornell pitchers. Ritz led the attack with three-for-four, including a double which drove in two runs in the sixth inning. Tom Jensen rapped out a triple to score Ritz during the fourth rally. Dick Raab had two-for-four for the Bulldogs.

It was the first game for the Bulldogs who have a four-game conference schedule this spring. Remaining games are: May 6—Kempston; 12—Flanagan at Reddick; 15—Odell.

Summaries: Reddick.....910 184 3-8-10-3 Cornell.....000 000 1-1-1-3 Ritz and Schott; Meyer, F. Hinch and J. Hinchaw.

N. S. Juniors Rap Pioneer 20-0

The North Side Juniors won their second straight baseball game by defeating the Pioneer Park Juniors 20-0 at Pioneer Park Thursday.

Brian Mercer paced the winning attack with five-for-five, including a home run and two doubles. Dick Blaney was the winning pitcher. The North Siders will play the Argos Park Juniors Saturday at Old Fair Park.

time was nine seconds off the winning time) the 880 and 440 relays were hotly contested. Central won the 880 relay with Ben Wilson, Larry Braye, John Barritt and Ralph Bailey covering the distance in 1:38.2—a shade off the 1:38.1 record. St. Anne was timed in second at 1:39.45 and St. Patrick and Bradley tied at 1:39.5.

ST. PATRICK'S speedy freshman crew—with regular T. P. Marcotte missing—won the 440 relay in 4:06.6, a half-second off the record. The fourmen were made up of John Monahan, Steve Havens, Rich Quigley and George Flageole. Bradley was second in 4:30.3 and Monomee third in 5:14.

Although the meet was figured to be closer than last year when the Bradleys won by 11½ over Gilman and 12½ over St. Anne, the Bollemakers margin this time was 12½. A change in the schedule saw the high jump and pole vault completed in the afternoon along with the shot and discus. At that point Central led with 10½ and Monomee was second with 11. Central led until the mile when the Schlenz twins upped St. Pat to the front by three.

The 440, with Reedy and Tom Latham going one-three for Bradley, gave the Bollemakers their first lead and they held it by one and three points until the broad jump. Central's second and third and St. Pat's fourth and fifth set up the Cornishish tie at 20½, and Bradley's third place at 25½. Then came the 880 and 440 and Bradley was in.

Four new records were set and another tied as Chatsworth played its favorite role to perfection in sweeping to the 1958 Vermillion Valley Conference track and field championship at Omega Military School Thursday afternoon.

The bright, sunny afternoon produced some fine marks as the Bluebirds rolled up 60 points to 44 for runner-up Forrest. Cullum was next in line with 26½ and Sennelien was fourth with 20.

Chatsworth turned the championship trick with a well balanced team. The Bluebirds turned in only seven blue ribbon performances but scored in 12 of the 14 events. They scored 20 points in five field events and 40 points in nine races.

Gene Clark of Cullum and Bill Huel of Chatsworth tied for the high individual point total (relays not included). Both boys scored 14 points with Tom Feely of Chatsworth third with 11½.

FOUR BOYS TURNED in double victories during the afternoon—Ron Ransdell of Sennelien, Gene Weber of Roberts-Thurville, Gene Clark of Cullum and Feely.

But it was a freshman from Melvin-Sibley, running his second consecutive race, who led the assault on the records and stole the spotlight in the show. Glenn Cohen, who ran a 5:58 mile his first time out, blazed to a record 4:06.6 Thursday afternoon. His run rubbed out the 4:23 mark set by Larry Larkins of Omega in 1954.

Record Breaker

Gene Weber of Roberts-Thurville won both weight events in the Vermillion Valley Conference track meet at Omega Military School Thursday. He set a new record of 185 feet 1½ inches in the discus. (Journal Photo) 18

In the shotput and discus, Cohen and Feely were the top performers. Cohen's 440 yard relay team—Steve Havens, T. P. ## Yanks Rescued From Irate Italian Mob

U.S. Paratroopers Tear Down, Burn Election Posters

VENICE, Italy (UP) — Italian riot police Saturday rescued a group of American paratroopers who were being threatened by an irate Italian crowd for burning Communist election posters.

The Americans were hustled out of town by speedsters.

Although only a few soldiers were involved in the previous rioting, an entire group of 67 paratroopers on a tour from Rome in Germany were escorted out of Venice.

A U.S. consulate spokesman said three or four unidentified paratroopers, returning to their hotel from an evening on the town, spied the posters, which are rigidly protected by law, and tore them down and burned them.

IT WAS THE SECOND such incident this week. On Wednesday, a U.S. soldier attached to NATO southern command headquarters in Naples was arrested for trying to tear down a billboard urging the people to vote Communist in the scheduled May 25 national elections.

The consulate said Italians saw the paratroopers burn the posters and chased them into a hotel. A crowd of 75 to 100 Italian soldiers besieged the building.

The Italians charged "Yankees go home." Some soldiers inside the Continental Hotel, awakened by the uproar and not knowing what had happened, poked their heads out the windows and shouted back, "Italians go home!"

More than 100 riot police arrived in a govt. and mobbed the paratroopers through Venice's canals to break up the crowd and rescue the soldiers.

Witnesses said the soldiers responsible later were "beaten up" by the other paratroopers who were forced to leave Venice also.

Confidential sources said they understood no charges would be filed against the Americans, although Italian law calls for heavy fines and even imprisonment for anyone found defacing election posters.

American official sources said the soldiers responsible would be "well disciplined."

"We don't want any of this nonsense," an official said.

Dulles Arrives In Denmark For NATO Session

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (U) — U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles arrived Saturday night for a NATO foreign ministers' meeting and expressed confidence the talks would have fruitful results.

Smiling and waving his black hat, Dulles stepped out of a U.S. Air Force Constellation and told reporters on the wind-swept field he thinks it was a good thing the current session will take place in one of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's smaller countries.

The three-day session opens Monday.

Dulles and foreign ministers of the 14 other NATO nations will conduct their talks beneath the green copper roofs of Copenhagen's picturesque Christiansborg Palace, seat of the Danish Parliament. They plan to define and coordinate their positions in the expectation of an East-West summit conference later this year.

He told the Athens newspaper Ta Nea in an interview that Greece's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization may involve it in any "dangerous military adventures by another NATO member, such as America or Turkey."

THE COMMITTEE appeared inclined to increase the staff, now limited to 210, but still to provide a ceiling—perhaps of 300. This was the House-McElroy tentatively estimated might be needed.

Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, said it probably should be larger. The numerical ceiling is regarded as a safeguard against development of a "Prussian-style" general staff.

Although there were more doubts expressed on this score than on the size of the staff, the committee there is authority now to streamline command of combined forces, so that the defense secretary and Joint Chiefs of Staff are the direct superiors of the field commanders.

He also seemed likely to agree to such a directorate, as a purely honorary concession, since the Joint Chiefs do not in practice take votes.

The committee, whose staff has begun drafting language for a possible new law, also seemed inclined to appoint a director of defense research and engineering, such a director would not build up an organization duplicating the work of the already authorized Advanced Research Projects Agency.

WASHINGTON (U) — The House Armed Services Committee seemed resolved Saturday to honor a good portion of President Eisenhower's request for more centralized command arrangements over military service fighting teams.

But the committee, whose decision the House rarely overturns, appeared as suspicious as ever of moves to centralize command from military command — of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines.

This was the committee's mood after two days of hearings on Eisenhower's proposals for sweeping defense reorganization. The committee's tentative plan, after its questioning of defense chiefs and weekend interviews.

Secretary of Defense McElroy told the committee there is authority now to streamline command of combined forces, so that the defense secretary and Joint Chiefs of Staff are the direct superiors of the field commanders.

He also seemed likely to agree to such a directorate, as a purely honorary concession, since
