State Has Building Aid Plan For Schools

County School Superintendent Ruel Hall today reminded all elementary and unit districts of the Illinois State School Building Commission program.

It was set up by the 77th Illinois General Assembly.

The commission was created to aid school districts which are in need of building expansion programs but lack sufficient bonding power. Aid is limited to grades one through eight.

Manteno To Have Full CD Test Tuesday

A full scale test of Manteno's Civil Defense organization will be held Tuesday evening.

Francis Smith, Manteno Civil director, announced that the village fire sirens will be turned on at 7 p. m. for a three-minute steady blast to signal the start of the exercise.

Special CD police will patrol the streets and insist that all residents take cover.

A block of the main business street will be roped off to provide fast care of simulated casualties. A first aid station will be set up in the American Legion home for treatment of the "injured."

Doctors, registered nurses and first aid course graduates will man the casualty station. The Manteno fire department will provide transportation for the "wounded."

Residents will be instructed to remain indoors until the sirens sound an "all clear" signal. The exercise will also provide a test for the emergency radio communications system.

6 Members Of Saar Firm To Tour Roper Plant

The manager and five other employees of a firm located in Euclid, Mo., will visit the Roper Corp. plant here Tuesday.

Their stop in Kankakee is part of a tour designed to familiarize them with methods and techniques in the American metal stamping industry.

The group will be led by Dr. Kurt Schneider, manager of the Schneider Metal Works, St. Ingbert, Germany.

Dr. Schneider visited the United States in 1952 to keep abreast of technological developments and, as a result, increased the productivity of his firm substantially.

The tour is being arranged by the industry division of the French embassy in Washington, D. C.

A. de Saint Hippolyte, chief of the division, says that Dr. Schneider is bringing some of his assistants and employees so they may observe, at close range, a number of American companies which provided him with technical aid during his earlier trip.

Hippolyte said, in a letter to John P. Wright, president of Geo. D. Roper Corp., that Dr. Schneider had expressed particular interest in visiting the Roper plant in Kankakee.

Dr. Schneider is the manager of the St. Ingbert plant; Hugo Burger, foreman of the company's Sauerbrunn plant; Richard Walbold, assistant manager of the St. Ingbert plant; Charles Maifret, worker at the St. Ingbert plant; and Hervé Courrès, assistant manager of the company's Montvilliers plant.

YOUTH—

Into City Hospital by police officer James Keyes.

Her parents greeted her at the hospital. They were in tears and scarcely able to talk.

OFFICERS SAID other articles of children's clothing were found in the vacant, ramshackle house where Kathy had been held prisoner in North St. Louis.

The girl wandered outside the house and was found by Mrs. Pico and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rose Metz. A dress belt was used around one of Kathy's ankles and she told Mrs. Metz, "They tied me up."

The first thing the blue-eyed, blond youngster said when found was "My name is Kathy."

The child appeared confused as to just what had happened in the 70 hours she had been missing.

First she told the two women a couple of men had brought her to the house. Later she said only one boy was involved and he had tied her up.

She was taken to the hospital and scheduled for Thursday by Kankakee Police Department has been postponed until later.

Ike Asks Nations To Help Keep Cold War Out Of South Pole

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower Saturday urged all nations to help keep the cold war out of the strategic South Pole area.

He proposed that the vast, ice-covered continent around the pole be opened to other peaceful activities.

The President formally called for a treaty conference "at an early date" among the 12 nations which have had scientific expeditions in Antarctica during the current International Geographical Year. They are Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, France, Japan, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa, the USSR, Britain and the United States.

A U. S. diplomatic note, which Eisenhower released with an accompanying statement, suggested a treaty to freeze territorial claims on the six-million-square-mile area—a vast and still largely unexplored domain nearly twice the size of the United States.

During the 18-month geographical "year," there has been a gentlemen's agreement that no territorial claims would be made. Seven of the invited countries—Argentina, Australia, Chile, France, New Zealand, Norway and Britain—have asserted sovereignty over parts of the continent. The United States has not made claims but it has reserved the right to do so.

Russia has done considerable exploration in the area but has not announced territorial claims.

Mr. Ullner was born March 1, 1888 in Dearborn County, Ind. He came to Livingston County when he was 21 years old and farmed near Saunemin until 10 years ago when he retired.

He was married to the former Kathryn Worman Dec. 12, 1916 in Pontiac. She survives him along with a son, John, of Saunemin; one granddaughter, and two grandsons.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Raleigh J. Harris Funeral Home in Pontiac. The Rev. F. G. Magel, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning at 4 p.m. today.

New Jersey 'Kidnap' Now Family Affair

SEBRING, Fla. (U)—A sleepy little town from Middlesex, N.J., rested Saturday as FBI agents questioned his grandparents and great-aunt about taking the boy away from home. Observers Argue Over Who Won Engagement

Battle Of Coral Sea Cost Japan Planned Invasion Of Australia

SYDNEY (U)—A lone American bomber, flying patrol on a waning afternoon in May 1942, spotted Japanese troops streaming ashore on the white beaches of Tulagi in the Solomon Islands. The pilot's warning to his carrier, the Yorktown, set off the five-day Battle of the Coral Sea, the first naval engagement in history in which enemy ships never saw each other, but fought instead a battle over the horizon.

Some observers have called it a military victory for the Japanese, a strategic victory for the Allies. Others have flatly called it an Allied victory.

THE JAPANESE lost more ships and more men, but America lost a big and badly needed one, the Lexington. Most important, however, Japan lost the battle of Australia before it began.

That is why, at this time every year, Australia observes the anniversary. It is a period of celebration, but it is also one of sober thought in which American representatives join.

On May 1, 1942, Rear Adm. Frank Fletcher, commanding a joint American-Australian force, was cruising off the Australian coast, watching for a Japanese move. He had 20 warships, the big carriers Lexington and Yorktown, 8 cruisers, 13 destroyers, 3 other ships.

Heading toward the Allied fleet was a Japanese force of 48 ships, the carriers Zuihaku, Shokaku and Shoho, 13 cruisers and 22 destroyers. They planned to neutralize the Allied fleet, take Port Moresby in New Guinea, then hit the northeastern coast of Australia.

It was May 3 when the Yorktown's lone scout sighted the Japanese fleet, proceeding without opposition, to secure a flank of the attack area.

AT DAWN MAY 4, the Yorktown's bombers hit and badly mauled the invading group. But confused the Japanese command.

Nehru To Retain Prime Minister's Post For A While

NEW DELHI (U)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru Saturday reversed his decision to retire from office and said he would carry on at least temporarily.

The 69-year-old prime minister announced his plans to leaders of his ruling National Congress party at a meeting here.

The party had protested last Tuesday when Nehru said he wanted to step down from the office he has held since India achieved independence in 1947. Nehru had said he would abide by the decision of the party leaders.

Saturday, he told them at a closed meeting that he would remain in office, at least temporarily. Nehru said he wanted to leave the care of state to devote himself to solving the party's political problems.

The blonde has emerged from the conflict with a Reno divorce, cash and trust funds totaling about $15 million dollars, custody of Winthrop Paul Rockefeller, a handsome New York home, a small but active antique business and a deep appreciation of the special problems involved in carrying the Rockefeller name and bearing a son to be a millionaire.

It seems to be a common misconception that Barbara Paul Rockefeller was a Cinderella found by a Rockefeller just before midnight at the ball. This is not precisely true.

True, she was born Jeanette Paulskute 41 years ago, was reared in most modest circumstances as the daughter of a Lithuanian miner. But before she was wed to Rockefeller, she was the wife of Richard Sears Jr., Harvard-educated, of the Back Bay Boston.

SHE SEEMS to have adjusted to being the ex-Mrs. Rockefeller as easily as she adapted herself to the rough and tumble of the marital courts. She now deplores headlines with the same fervor that she courted them as a weapon against a family which loathes undignified publicity.

For all the quiet life, she and her son-in-law, Paul, have had a golden bowl, and she has the problem of protecting both of them from the curious and the down-right noisy.

Determined that no one shall be able to criticize the way she is bringing up young Winthrop, a husky, handsome boy, she finds income from the Rockefeller nest egg a great help.

Barbara finds that rearing a young Rockefeller under the well-established rules of the Pocantico Hills, the family domain up the Hudson, and running a good-sized home, plus handling her financial affairs add up to a full-time job.

She says the most difficult part is trying to be both mother and father. Winthrop Rockefeller rarely dreads had to stand in the aisle

Short Talks Annoy Candidate So He Holds Marathon

NEW YORK (U)—There is one big advantage in having the name of Rockefeller, says the one called Bobo.

"You can go any place without making reservations ahead. But the rest — it just makes everything harder, and more expensive. You're a big dollar sign. Sometimes you can feel prices going up when you walk through the door of a store."

THE PAST COUPLE of years have been relatively calm and uneventful for Barbara Rockefeller, after seven or eight years of slugging out money settlements and custody arrangements following the failure of her 28-month marriage to Winthrop, fourth son of John D. Rockefeller Jr.

Today the war seems over, and of late they even have joined forces to fight a suit over legal expenses.

The blonde Bobo has emerged from the conflict with a Reno divorce, cash and trust funds totaling about $15 million dollars, custody of Winthrop Paul Rockefeller, a handsome New York home, a small but active antique business and a deep appreciation of the special problems involved in carrying the Rockefeller name and bearing a son to be a millionaire.

It seems to be a common misconception that Barbara Paul Rockefeller was a Cinderella found by a Rockefeller just before midnight at the ball. This is not precisely true.

True, she was born Jeanette Paulskute 41 years ago, was reared in most modest circumstances as the daughter of a Lithuanian miner. But before she was wed to Rockefeller, she was the wife of Richard Sears Jr., Harvard-educated, of the Back Bay Boston.

Violence Ends Civil Rights For Haitians

PORT AU PRINCE (UP)—Haiti, jittery after three days of bombings, was governed Saturday under emergency regulations which included suspension of civil rights and a nine hour nightly curfew.

Ex-Sen. Louis de Poise, who has lived in hiding since his defeat in September's presidential election, has been declared "outside the law"—meaning that any Haitian may shoot him on sight.

Interior Secretary Frederic Duvalnaud announced Friday de Poise had been outlawed on the basis of charges he instigated one of this week's terror bombings. Duvalnaud offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to de Poise's arrest and warned that sheltering the opposition leader will be considered a "crime against the state."

A few hours later, Duvalnaud marched into parliament at the head of a file of soldiers and proclaimed the "impediment of Frank Seraphin, a de Poise supporter in the legislature."

Duvalnaud has been jolted here in the past two weeks, including the former ambassador to Washington, Maurice Zepherin, and newspaper editor Albert Ocean and Georges Petit.

LOS ANGELES — Mickey Cohen, a man who has been in the headlines for years, is now a man who lives like a millionaire, keeps the law at arm's length, and regularly explodes into the headlines, as with his recent disposition of Lana Turner's love letters to his old buddy, Johnny Stompanato.

Where does he get it? How can a man who once was a government fugitive, a man who has been in the headlines for years, now live like a millionaire? The answer is simple: Cohen has been in the headlines for years, but he has been in the headlines for a different reason. He has been in the headlines for his criminal activities, but now he is in the headlines for his financial success.

Search Plane Twice, Fail To Find Bomb
NEW YORK — One telephoned bomb threat caused a London-bound airliner to undergo two bomb searches Friday night and to return to Idlewild Airport 52 minutes after its first delayed departure.

It all started when a New York newspaper received a telephone warning that a bomb had been placed aboard a British Overseas Airways Corp. plane. Part of New York authority police searched the one BOAC plane scheduled to leave Friday night. It left at 9:30 p.m., an hour late.

LESS THAN A half hour later, Airways Traffic Control at the airport heard about the warning and notified Capt. Norman Williams, at that point piloting 74 passengers to London. Williams knew the plane already had been searched but he decided to play it safe. Back to Idlewild went the plane. During the search, most of its gasoline was a precautionary measure.

The plane was searched again, refueled and took off a second time, London-bound. An afternoon flight of a BOAC plane with 41 aboard was delayed three hours for a search following a telephoned warning to the airport that a bomb was aboard.

Plan To Push Little Rock Integration

DETROIT — A representative of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) said Friday night the association hopes to extend school integration in Little Rock, Ark., next fall.

Mrs. Daisy Bates, president of the Arkansas NAACP Conference, told a news conference her group hopes to get Negro students into two additional Little Rock high schools. Eight Negro students now are attending Little Rock's Central High School.

Mrs. Bates said a plan to enroll Negro children in Hall High School and Technical High School hinges on a federal court decision which is scheduled to be handed down June 2.

She said the Little Rock school board recently appealed to Federal Court in Little Rock for a delay in school integration.

If the court finds against the school board, she said, then efforts will be made this fall to enroll Negroes in the now all-white schools.

The conference was part of an NAACP membership drive here.

FFA Of Buckley, Loda High Elects Year's Officers

BUCKLEY (JNS) — The Future Farmers of America of the Buckley-Loda High School elected Dave Theofeld as president for the 1958-59 school year, according to Robert Alexander, voc-ag instructor.

Theofeld succeeds John Gudeman. Other officers are Louis Krumwiede, vice president; Bill Schiewe, secretary; Bob Hethke, treasurer; Ken Weaver, sentinel; Dennis Krumwiede, reporter; and Neil Kaufman, student council representative.

Nab 4 In $20,000 Theft On Memory Expert's Word

NEW YORK — A man with a phenomenal memory for car license numbers Saturday brought a quick arrest of four men accused of robbing a mid-Manhattan film laboratory.

Police finally found a man who rattled off a license number, complete with letters and figures. This was too good to be true, they figured, but checked it out anyway.

The car was registered in the name of a Manhattan man but it developed that his 23-year-old son had exclusive use of the vehicle. Moreover, the car had been reported stolen a few hours after the robbery.

Questioning of the son, James Scandara, led to his arrest on a charge of acting in concert with the holdup men. It also led to the arrest of three others on armed robbery charges. A fourth man was being sought.

Police didn't give out the name of the license memorizing expert.

Man Appeals Duel Challenge Fine

WINNEBAGO, Minn. — A Nebraska County man, fined $300 for challenging an editor to a duel with pistols or shotguns, is appealing to circuit court.

Burford Posey, 32, told Justice of the Peace Preston Collins Friday that he didn't actually intend it as a challenge when he wrote to editor Jack Tannehill of the Nebraska newspaper.

Tannehill told the court the letter contained three alternatives, one of which was to settle their differences by a duel. What led to the issue was something published about Posey in Tannehill's paper.

Tannehill said he refused to publish Posey's answer because the editor considered the material libelous, for which he would be responsible.

Needs Funds To Keep Experts Informed

Scientific Digesting Services Face Crisis

WASHINGTON (U)—Do you have a vague, uncomfortable feeling that maybe you should read more books, if only you had the time? Or have you turned a magazine salesman from the door because "I've got more now than I can read?"

The American scientist is in the same sad fix, only more so. He can't take the time to read the millions of scientific articles that roll off the world's presses every year. And yet, he can't afford not to keep up with the latest developments in his field.

BUT THE SCIENTIST has one big advantage over the rest of us. With few exceptions, he has abstracting and indexing services to do his reading for him. They not only read the articles, they analyze them, abstract them in condensed summaries, and then index them.

For many years some of these science information services have been hurting for money. Now, with this country in an open science race with Russia, the pain is becoming acute.

To keep American science even with or ahead of Russia, it seems certain that someone will have to fund the abstracting and indexing services in Philadelphia. Recently, the National Science Foundation, which has been a major funder of these services, has decided to cut back its support.

Representatives of 14 U. S. abstracting and indexing services met in Philadelphia recently and formed a national federation. They pledged to improve their own product and encourage development in fields of science not now covered. They also agreed to try to devise some workable government subsidy plan that will help them survive until Congress can act.

If they can agree on such a subsidy plan, government help probably will be forthcoming. Congress is well aware of what's at stake.

Life Can Be Beautiful For Male Model!

BY HUGH A. MULLIGAN

NEW YORK (U)—At $40 an hour, plus time and a half after 6 p.m. on weekends, life can be beautiful for a male model.

The 37-year-old Bob Rippy, a handsome 6-footer who is one of only 15 or 16 men in the whole country making a living exclusively by modeling.

Job they're doing now is going to cost money.

The Russians, of course, have no such financial headaches. They got into the business for good in 1922 with the establishment of the All-Union Institute. Since that time they have made giant strides and are now attracting nearly as many admirers as the models of the major American organizations.

But none of the American service boys want the United States to follow the Soviet example of one giant clearing house set up and operated by the government.

For one thing, they fear any government agency would be too cumbersome, and staffed by too many willing but inexperienced people, to do the job properly.

The basic objection, however, is that no one can tell from year to year what Congress might do.

BECAUSE OF THE TRICK of gray fringing his sleek brown hair and the cool assurance lurking in his dark eyes, Bob is usually cast as the rising young executive type: district sales manager, bank vice president, industrial tycoon, or someone who has just stepped out of a dinner jacket, a distinctive cigarette, 100-proof bourbon and a masculine deodorant.

ON THE DAY OF THIS INTERVIEW Bob had donned a letter carrier's summer uniform in chilly weather to pose outside a midtown apartment house for a magazine cover. He wore no makeup but had a clothes pin taking up the slack in the seat of his borrowed trousers.

He never worked behind a desk in his life. In nonexecutive roles Bob has been cast as a pneumatic drill operator with a two-day growth of beard, a big game hunter packing feverishly, and a traffic cop giving stinging directions to a pretty tourist.

In real life, Bob has never tasted his executive ability beyond finalizing a supermarket list drawn up by his wife and serving as unpaid, and at times unpaid, mediator in a dispute among his three daughters, ages 10, 13, and 18.

What you look like to the client usually has no relation to your previous job experience, he says. "I never worked behind a desk in my life."

Ingrid Won't Visit Hollywood For Long Time

BY JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (U)—"It will be a long, long time before I come back to Hollywood," says Ingrid Bergman, the movie colony's most famous exile.

The Swedish actress called from London for a rare visit with the reporter.

She is finishing up "Indiscretions," which teams her with Cary Grant for the first time since "Notorious."

"Then there are two more movies and after that I'm looking for a play over here," she said.

"I'm afraid Hollywood won't see me for a long while."

There had been some talk that Ingrid planned to return here for the last Academy awards, where she could have presented one of the top Oscars. She had won it the year before for "Anastasia."

It is possible that some day a group of milk may be through the Illinois State legislature bearing the names of some Kankakee teenagers.

As noted previously in the Journal several Kankakee youths participated in the youth government program of the state YM recently. The YM youths, in doing so, took over the state legislature for a couple days.

There were 351 bills presented by the teenagers. Of these, 23 passed the House and Senate and 21 were signed by the "youth governor." Of the 21, two were from the Kankakee delegation.

One formulated by Margaret Guesford and Carol Williams, called for annual legislative meetings. The other, result of brainwork of Myrna Mayette and Wanda Markwell, called for luminous safety signs on all Illinois highways.

If the two bills would ever go into law, they would carry the names of the teenagers who played a part in their origin.

Kankakee is back on the "queen list" as far as college campus uses are concerned.

Willa Sweeney, sophomore at Illinois Wesleyan University, was elected first queen of the Sigma Chi "Derby Day" on the campus and reigned over the Sig Derby Day dance held in the university gymnasium.

Although this was the first Derby Day held by the Wesleyan Sigs it is an innovation which the University of Tennessee 20 years ago and now is an annual event in Sigma Chi land.

Willa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sweeney, 1603 E. Maple St., is a Sigma Kappa. Recently she was named rushing chairman for the Panhellenic Council.

Active in dramatics at the university, Willa currently is working in the university theatre's production of "Our Town" to be given May 7-10.

Charles A. Livingston, 679 E. River St., retired newspaperman, made a recent voyage through the West Indies and in doing so settled for himself a question that has been plaguing him for some time.

The question in the mind of the veteran writer, and a real student of history, was "Where is Christopher Columbus buried?"

Livingston found in Ciudad Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic and oldest inhabited city in the Western Hemisphere, a magnificent cathedral. Within he found a lofty, beautifully embellished tomb where the great navigator's bones are enshrined in a handsomely wrought iron casket suspended from its center.

The Kankakee, however, was skeptical. He tried out his meager Spanish on an intelligent looking native. He received an affirmative answer to his question of whether "Christoforo Colom" is really buried there.

"But years ago when I visited Havana," he told the native, "I was told he was buried there. Also I saw not long ago a newspaper story from Saville, Spain, that referred to the bones of Columbus in that city."

"Bones, perhaps," replied the native, "but not those of our Christopher. We have all the bones."

The Kankakee asked how many.

"All 200 of them," came the reply. "An ancestor of mine who was present at the burial said the bones were counted to make sure. Those other places may have Diego's bones or other members of the family but THIS is the real last resting place of Columbus."

And that settles that!

Central High School sophomore Lynda Milk failed to gain one of the coveted six places in the Illinois High School Association state speech finals recently but it can't be said she "finished out of the money."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Milk of Chesham was informed the past week that the original monologue she presented at the state has been purchased by a publishing Company, selector of plays and readings. Name of the work is "Life of A Doll."

Lynda not only received a cash payment but also will collect royalties on the work.

The monologue has a rather interesting history. Lynda, who entered dramatic competition for the first time this year, scrapped the monologue she was figuring to give just two days before the district competition. She wrote "Life of A Doll" on a Thursday, worked it over a bit on Friday and presented it on Saturday. She qualified for the sectional that day and then the state finals by winning in the tough sectional meet.

St. Patrick Central High School has received special recognition through the work of one of its students who has placed first in a national writing contest.

A short story written by Rosann Gorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gorman of Kankakee, was selected by the English teachers of the National English Honor Society as the first prize winner in the freshman division of the contest. All schools in the nation taught by Sisters of Loretto submitted entries. Rosann's freshman English teacher is Sister Mary Kenneth. Rosann's prize was a sterling silver trophy.

Honorable mention in the sophomore division was received by Christine Gecas and Patricia Heeler. In the elementary group Kathy Gerrity of St. Patrick's Grade School, received honorable mention.

Sisters at Our Lady Academy, Manteno, are basking in the reflected glory of the winners since both Rosann and Christine are graduates of the Manteno academy.

Bert Stevens, custodian at Kankakee River State Park, always has maintained that humorous things happen in the wide open spaces just as much as in the cluttered cities.

He points to the incident, for example, that happened the other day when a fellow tried to "bull" his way into the state park without paying the entry fee of 10 cents. He ignored the gate man and walked around the premises as if he owned the place.

In fact, it wasn't until an officer of the law, State Patrolman Ralph Locke arrived to take the fellow in custody that the matter was settled. Of course, one can't blame the gate man too much for not taking matters into his own hands to get rid of the guy—when one considers the intruder was a real live bull owned by Officer Locke!

Jet Sets Record

PARIS (UP)—French air force officials claimed Saturday their new Trident jet has set a new all-time record of 78.73 feet. The record, reported set at the Tignes proving grounds, eclipsed the old mark of 77,000 feet held by an American Gruman plane.

They'll Pick New Challengers May 25

Italy's Pugnacious Parliament Takes A Break For An Election

ROME (UP)—Italy's pugnacious Parliament finally has knocked itself out after five years of free-wheeling fistfights perhaps unique in modern lawmaking.

Nationwide elections May 25 will pick new challengers for the Chamber of Deputies and Senate. But candidate lists indicate most of the old champions will come back.

There's little of the English saying "let's get it over with" in the Italian case. The Italian Parliament has been in session for 10 years.

Unfortunately for history, statisticians have never kept count of the yards of bandage used in the parliamentary dispensary in the last five years for black eyes, bloody noses.

But it has been a dull month indeed when shouts of "win" or "lose" or "traitor" have not touched off violence in the legislative halls.

In this hot tempered Latin land

Germany—Saturday—lightened economic azequos on West Berlin with a new tax on West German and foreign shipping plying its in-land waterways.

Western officials said the tax would boost living costs for the 2,000,000 West Berliners who get one-third of their supplies from West Germany via the Communist barge canal network. The amendment of the tax was not disclosed although the Communists said it will go into effect Monday.

The Reds imposed it in retaliation against West Germany's attempt to build a dam on the Elbe River, which divides the two Germanies.

Even the women legislators get into the act.

Communist Giacomo Caldrone was suspended from several sessions of the Chamber of Deputies in 1954 for kicking Christian Democrat Claudio Merenda in the face.

Socialist Giuliano Nenni, daughter of Stalin Peace Prize winner Pietro Nenni, slapped Fascist Filippo Ardino in the face in a Chamber brawl in 1955.

In these five years, a dozen senators and deputies have required treatment for injuries sustained after the legislative brawl, up the line.

Many more than that have been treated in the parliamentary dispensary. They were too easy to throw. Barks and microphones were bolted down. They had been torn apart and used as cudgels.

Critics of the unparliamentary conduct point out the 300-year-old Montecitorio, seat of the Chamber of Deputies, formerly had been an open courtyard filled only with quarreling dogs and horsedrawn carts. The only change, these critics say, has been that the horsedrawn carts are no longer there.

The supposedly sedate Senate is an equal competitor for fist fighting honors.

Most of the battles are bellicose banterweights, or bawling, and paunchy elders who charge with fire in their eyes but not much punch in their blows. But although technique is lacking, there is plenty of determination.

When shouted insults bring legislators charging out of their chairs, the Chamber of Senate president first bangs his gavel, lines to keep the fighting factions then rings his little silver bell. If apart. They're in the middle and order is not restored, he sets off often as the hardest best.

Illinois Officer Boils Out Of Jet To Escape Death

PORT WALTON BEACH, Fla. (UP)—An Air Force captain from Illinois escaped death Friday when he boiled out of an F105 Thunderbolt fighter jet in flames.

Capt. Howard East of Mundelein, Ill., was approaching Elgin Air Force Base when he declared an emergency and ejected from the plane. The Air Force's newest supersonic jet fighter-bomber.

The F105 was undergoing tests at Elgin's air proving ground center. The swept-wing plane has not yet been assigned to tactical units.

Witnesses said the jet narrowly missed a large trailer camp several miles north of Port Walton as it plunged to earth. The burning wreckage set off a woods fire.

East landed about 200 yards from the wreckage. He was picked up by a helicopter and taken to the base hospital.

Rain Puts Dampener On Early Planting In Area

A FEW FARMERS WERE getting a good early start on corn planting this week before rains began Saturday. Although most farmers will hold off until the 16th, some don't want to take a chance on getting behind. Pictured above is Robert Ruder who farms between Herscher and Buckingham. Although Ruder is early, several of his neighbors beat him into the field planting. (Journal photo) (46)

Economist Sees Decline In Summer Beef Prices

Cattle prices appear likely to decline substantially this summer and next fall, reports Larry Simerl, Department of Agricultural Economics. Prices of lower grades will decline more than usual, and prices of the high grades, which usually rise from spring to fall, seem likely to sag, he said.

Simerl bases this forecast on a study of past price trends, cattle numbers on farms, slaughter rates, cattle on feed, marketing intentions, consumer demand and other items.

Recent prices for fed cattle have been the highest since way back in 1952. Choice steers at Chicago sold from $27 in January to $29 in December. There will be less competition from pork this year than in 1955, but more people may be eating beans on account of unemployment, Simerl said.

He added that most of the cattle on feed are headed for market after July 1. Of the cattle in feedlots on April 1, farmers expected to market 33 per cent in April, 14 per cent in May, 15 per cent in June and 38 per cent in July or later.

Compared with last year, intended marketings of cattle for April were 6 per cent less; for May, 1 per cent more; for June, 3 per cent more; and for July and later, 21 per cent more.

EXPECTED LATER marketings of fat cattle this year reflect a larger proportion of calves, the later movement of feeder cattle from ranges to the corn belt last fall, and the heavy movement during the winter.

Simerl said cattle now in feedlots are expected to be marketed on feed a year ago.

Of the total number in feedlots, 42 per cent had been on feed less than three months, 54 per cent three to six months, and only 4 per cent over six months. Compared with a year before, the number that had been on feed less than three months was up 20 per cent and the number on feed three to six months was up only 5 per cent, while the number on feed six months was down 25 per cent.

Of the total cattle on feed April 1, 61 per cent were steers, 21 per cent heifers and 17 per cent calves. Compared with a year ago, the numbers of steers and heifers were up 10 per cent and the number of calves up 20 per cent, Simerl said.

Who Owns This Farm?

Farm Landscape Discussion Set For Thursday

Landscaping the farm home will be discussed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bauer of Ciana Park at 1:30 p. m. Thursday.

H. R. Kemmerer, University of Illinois landscape specialist, will discuss and plan the landscaping of the Bauer home. Everyone interested in home grounds improvement will find the meeting interesting and helpful, said Kenneth R. Imig, farm adviser.

Utility and attractiveness are two of the main reasons for landscaping farm homes. Planning the drives, walks and other useful areas is very important to get maximum benefit from the planning and landscaping of the home, said Imig.

The orderly arrangement of trees, shrubs and flowers makes the home much more attractive. Kemmerer will also discuss such things as the proper plants for the various locations in the yard. He will also discuss the shade trees to select.

Tim Tam Wins Derby (Silky 12th)

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—Tim Tam, son of the late great country and darling of Calumet Farm, exploded with speed in the stretch at Churchill Downs Saturday to win the 44th running of the Kentucky Derby. The 3-year-old colt, trained by Tom Smith, won by a wide margin over the field. He was the first of the Kentucky Derby winners to be named after a place.

Tim Tam, who was named after his sire, Tim Tam, won the race in 1:58.4, a record for the 12th place. He was the first of the Kentucky Derby winners to be named after a place.

Kays Gain 4 Places, St. Pat 1 In Mooseheart Relays

By HERB JANNUSCH
Kankakee High School and St. Patrick Central in the fastest prep track competition that will be seen in Illinois this year until the state meet two weeks hence—the 16th annual Mooseheart Relays.

The Kays gained a fourth place in the 100 yard dash, fourth each in the middle distance medley relays and third in the 880 yard relay and fourth in the 1600 yard relay. St. Pat captured fifth place in the 440 yard dash.

There were four records set on a track softened by a morning rain but afternoon conditions were good despite an overcast.

Leading the record-smashing parade was New Trier's Zach Ford, senior sprinter who clicked off a dash time to better an '09.9 mark established in the morning semifinals by Bloomington's two-time state champion Leroy Jackson.

KANKAKEE'S FORREST Newton, who never ran the century until this year, salvaged third in a blazing semifinal morning heat won fourth place. Newton also anchored the third-place 880 yard relay team. St. Pat captured fifth place in the 440 yard dash.

Newton also anchored the 880 yard relay team which took third place in 1:33.5 and the middle distance relay which was fourth.

Others running on the 880 team, which won its heat easily but was behind on the clock behind New Trier and Phillips of Chicago, were Ed Mock, Clarence Wright and John Griffin. They were all also members of the middle distance medley team.

The distance medley was handled by Terry Meyers and Steve Haves, Rich Quigley and George Flagoole. Finishing ahead of the Irish were such giants as Bloomington's Park, Evanston and Blue Island.

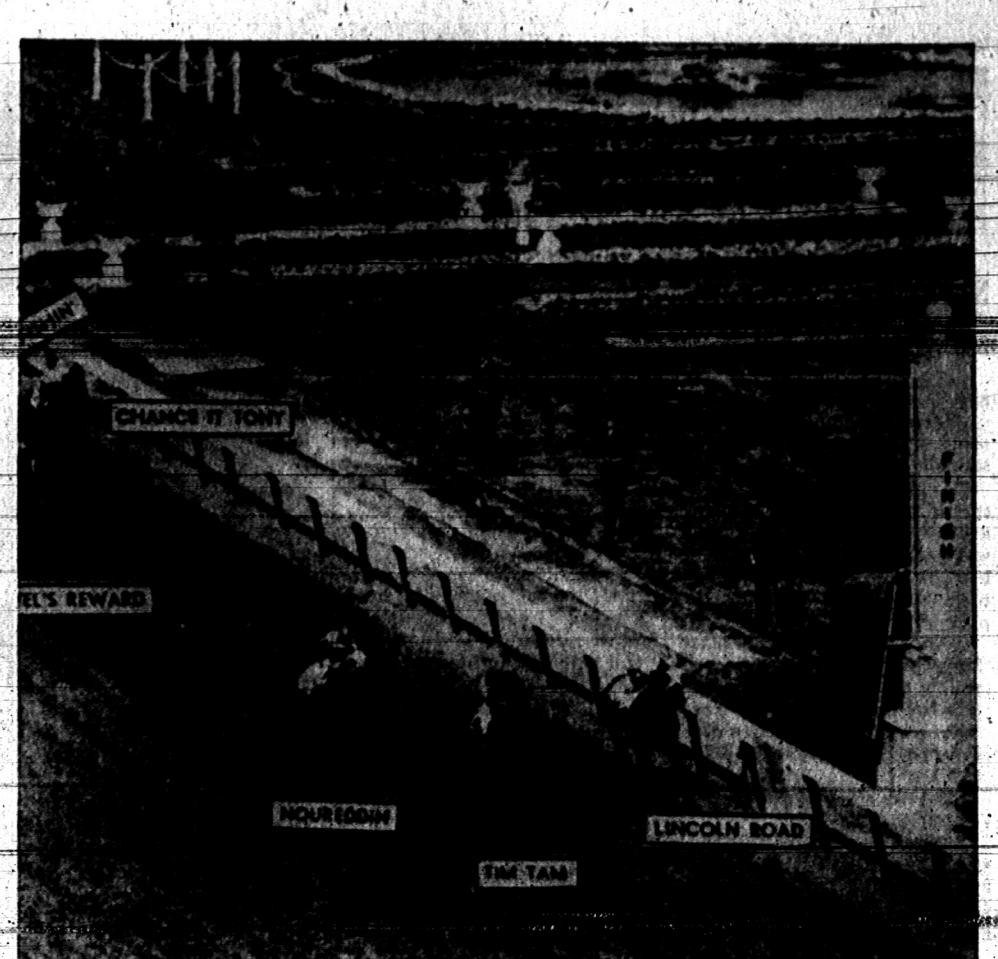

SILLIMAN, whose 880 effort in the distance medley sent the Kays well on in front in their heat, placed fifth in a tightly bunched field in the fastest heat of the mile run but his 4:39.3 timing was shoved out by a faster time in the preceding heat. Most of the state's top runners competed in the evening relays, which were the only ones to have a crowd of three or more spectators.

IN ADDITION to Ford's record in the 100 yard dash, there were new marks in the 440 yard relay, 1:43.3 by Jim Ashmore of Evanston and the sophomore 880 yard relay, 1:38.5 by LaGrange.

Bradley-Bourbonnais was represented in several events but, despite good showings in their respective heats, couldn't turn in times good enough to win a place.

The Bolleymakers' 880 yard team of Tom and Porter Latham and Bob Salisbury and Dale Reddy won its heat and their two-mile relay team of Dale Monroe, Bob Scott, Al Harris and Reddy was second in their heat.

St. Pat's Joe Schlenker ran a 4:54.8 mile for second in his heat and Ron Dawkins of Kankakee a 4:56.8 in taking third in his heat. Tom Schlenker of St. Pat finished eighth in the mile and gave up after the first mile. There are no team points tabulated in the meet but Bloomington and New Trier were the most consistent scorers.

SILKY SULLIVAN took it easy in the Kentucky Derby Saturday. He is shown at the left as he came around the first turn into the back stretch, just like he was having an outing on a summer day. Although he had a nice gallop, he didn't even get close enough to be included in most of the finish pictures of the race (Unifax) (52)

Indians Find New Hill Star In 'Mudcat'

By the Associated Press. It looks as though Jim Mudcat, a rookie right-hander with a fast ball, is Cleveland's new star.

Mudcat, a 22-year-old blower who is unbeaten, ranks right behind southpaw ace Herb Score after gaining his third complete game victory Friday night with a six-hitter that beat the Baltimore Orioles 8-1.

The kid from Lacoochee, Fla., who also springs a curve ball, leads the Indians in complete games and tops the starters with a neat 1.50 earned run average.

These Busy Women Welcome 'Lazy Days' Of Summer

LEFT, ABOVE: Miss LaVerly Frerichs of RR 2 is the assistant manager in a Kankakee store. She models a chemise playsuit with a wide and low belt. It is fashioned of sailstone fabric, dacron cotton, in red, white and blue. It is a "drip dry" material. Both the color and style of the playsuit are typical of the new fashions of summer, 1958. (10)

ABOVE: Mrs. Gerald H. Patrick of RR 4 is a homemaker and president of the Newcomers Club of Kankakee. She models a blue and white two-piece ensemble in cotton. It has a nautical tie at the neckline of the blouse top. The hat she wears, one of a variety of styles, is a "gondolier hat." The season's sportswear is extremely casual. (11)

Here's What They'll Wear ...

In case there is any doubt about the complete look at the sportswear available in Kankakee, six women were photographed in some of the newest in sportswear, pointing out that there is no escape from the sack. Not only have Kankakee area women been following the fashion trend in suits and dresses with low belts and blouse tops, they will follow through with the new style in their play clothes for lazy days.

Our models represent all the busy women of the area. They happen to be: an office superintendent, a nurse, a beautician, a homemaker and club president, an assistant store manager and a teacher. They show a sampling of what women will be wearing on lazy summer days.

One of the most extreme styles in sportswear is the one-piece chemise shorts. It has a low belt around the hips and the neckline is scooped. Most noticeable color trends are the reds, whites and blues, often in a nautical theme. Also currently popular are the orange and blue and green shades in a variety of leisure hour pieces. Floral patterns are often in single greens and blues or a combination of the two. There are checks and plaids and a wide variety of patterns.

The sportswear shopper has a choice, often confusing, of a number of lengths both in shorts and slacks. For example, there are short shorts, little boy shorts, Jamaica shorts, Bermuda shorts; then below the knee there are pedal pushers, Capri pants, slim Jims, and flared slacks.

BUT IT'S IN the blouse where most of the style notes are found. They are long and bloused, tied with cords or belted low, boat or scoop necked and very very chemise. Some labels say "chemise." The new look for sports as well as dress-clothes is sometimes called the lengthwise look. In shorts, it means one-piece step-ins and straight cut shorts with not a sign of waist or curves. Some advertisements tell of pants that "really" fit—and they do! Some manufacturers are offering a minimum of skirts with their sports ensembles and the trend is to pants and shorts for a more relaxed than ever summer.

The new elongated styles are also noticeable in swim suits this season. Some have scooped necks and others halter tops but they have a definite long, straight look about them.

Over the swim suits are found some of the most stylish of sportswear—the beach coats. They can be found bloused, ballooned and again, deflated chemise.

If the wearer of an extreme sports style is just a little bolder, there is a sure-fire remedy. She may purchase one of the many wide brimmed beach and casual hats. Many are so large and low that they serve as a camouflage. But that's not fair. Let's enjoy the new look. We might as well.

KANKAKEE SUNDAY JOURNAL, SUNDAY, MAY 4, 1958

LEFT: Miss Rosemary Graser of 985 S. Elm Ave. teaches sixth grade at Sleiden School. Her summer will not be all relaxation. She will attend summer school at Bradley University, Peoria. Miss Graser models a beige and white bathing suit with matching swim hat, at far left. It features one of the new necklines, a halter style. She is again pictured in a beach coat in a barrel style and a cover-up hat. (13-14)

Miss Betty Kerney of 11915 S. Fifth Ave. is a surgical nurse at St. Mary's Hospital. She models a mix and match ensemble of color-tone cotton with a woven satin stripe. It is also available in denim shorts, a sun bra, jacket, pedal pushers and narrow pants. Colors are almond, blue and green, all combined with white. The coolie hat is matching. (15)

Mrs. Orville Baron of 1255 S. Sixth Ave. is a beautician. Her spare moments this summer may include a little gardening, judging from her outfit. She wears a denim skirt and blouse with appropriate garden pattern. The pocket has the appearance of a glove. (16)

Miss Betty Cantlin of 480 S. Alma Ave. is pictured here — three times in a composite picture. Miss Cantlin illustrates three ways an ensemble can be mixed and matched. She is a business office supervisor. Miss Cantlin wears, first, a flower-print blouse and short combination with overskirt, then T-shirt and shorts, and finally bachelor pants and jacket. All are made to dip and dry. Coordinating pieces of sportswear are popular for the practical minded buyer. (17)

Young Moderns

BY VIVIAN BROWN

There must be an advantage in being a modern, because nobody ever seems to forget you.

The Tylertown, Miss., belle who just won a national homemaking contest and a $5,000 college scholarship that goes with it, says she's sure, however, that "it didn't influence the judges."

Lovely, slim, green-eyed Mary, had to wait until she was a senior at New Zion High School before she could enter the contest, but "after four years of waiting, I knew I'd have a chance if I did get the opportunity, and I knew exactly what I wanted to say in the homemaking questionnaire."

Her specialty is cooking. "I've been doing it since I was 11, she says, "and pies and cakes are my forte."

Devil's Food cake is her claim to fame at home. "It's my father's favorite recipe," she says. But her young friends seldom get a chance to sample that or her other culinary specialties. And her young men of Mississippi may never know what they missed.

"We live too far away from each other to congregate after school at dance, record or nibble sessions, as young people up North can do. Most of my friends live on farms as I do."

But that has its advantages too, because sitting around a soda store could make you fat, grins Mary, who claims to be a heavy eater but doesn't have that corn fed look. She has the slim lines of a fashion model, a beautiful complexion and lustrous eyes.

"I don't have time to gain weight," she says. "I help my father on the farm with the chickens and cows. I'm pivoted on our basketball team. I am a 4-11 girl. I pick berries, walk in the woods, and across the fields. Even the daily walk down to the mail box is quite a hike."

She likes every vegetable from carrots to turnip greens, drinks lots of milk, eats all meats, fish, oysters, and, of course, fried chicken. She adores corn bread sticks. Mary plans to study home economics at college, but she doesn't plan to work after marriage, unless she finds a man who can't support her.

Her biggest thrill, next to winning the prize, was seeing Maurice Chevalier perform at the Waldorf, and hitting the jackpot of seeing him do an impromptu duet with Marlene Dietrich, who was in the audience.

"They were the first celebrities I've seen close up. They're wonderful. Miss Dietrich is beautiful," says shining-eyed Mary.

One of 49 finalists brought to New York for the award-winning dinner, Mary had no idea she had won until the announcements were made. She has one sister, Frances, 15, her father and mother, Bird and Clara, are teachers in the school she attends, where she is scheduled to give the valedictory speech on her return.

New Styles Call For Callipygian Lines

Many a girl complains ruefully that she would be a perfect size 14 if it were not for the hip measurement. Others lament that they cannot wear the tapered styles.

Whether the trouble is pinchings of fat padding the sides of the thighline, a general spread, or hips that bustle out rearward, there is a special exercise technique to bring hips to terms.

To begin, with there are six hip muscles on the back of the hips gluteus maximus is a large, fleshy muscle on the back of the hips which forms most of the buttocks. The gluteus medius and the gluteus minimus flank the sides of the thighline, giving rounded contour to the sides of the hips.

THE HUMP AND hollow on the outer thighline is caused by lack of tone in the side flanking muscles.

Position: Half reclining on floor on left side, resting on pin-cushion of fat, weight partly supported on left forearm, left leg straight down, right knee bent, foot on floor.

Movement: Bounce, bounce, bounce up and down smack on fat padding.

The big muscle on the back of the hips is reached when the hip is flexed to an angle of more than 45 degrees, or when there is strong resistance. Here we go...

Position: Lying on left side, head propped on folded arms. Have

Bonnie Gay Laramore, Melvin Koopman Wed

A rose covered trellis flanked by lighted tapers in branch candelabra decorated the altar of St. Anne's Lutheran Church for the wedding Friday, April 25 of Miss Bonnie Gay Laramore to Melvin J. Koopman.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin trimmed in lace. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice, jeweled collar, long tapering lace sleeves and a cathedral length train. Her finger ring was of white platinum set with a crown of aquamarine and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ranunculus.

Her hair was styled in a soft, wavy fashion. Her pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Miss Janis Hook and Mrs. Eleanor Lutz and Miss Janice Koopman, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

Your Family And You Average Male Lacks Self-Control

By DR. PAUL POPENOE

Mrs. O. Writes: "My husband is a fine man. I know he loves me; he is devoted to our children; he is a good citizen, a good businessman, and a pillar of the church. This makes it all the more difficult for me to understand why he is so often, and in so many ways, selfish, inconsiderate, impulsive, conceited, and totally unable to see himself as others see him. Are all men like that or is he unusual? Some of my friends make the same complaint about their own husbands. Maybe my education was defective, but I didn't know that this was characteristic of the male sex."

I'd be very happy to take refuge behind the Fifth Amendment, Mrs. O.; but I suppose a columnist is expected to stand right out on the firing line, so here I am. If a woman expects of her husband all that you describe in yours, she won't always be disappointed. Public opinion surveys by many different agencies in the United States, Canada, and Europe all bring out the same verdict. Selfishness, self-centered conceit, egotism—any word for it that you like, but they all mean the same thing, and that is the commonest complaint of wives against their husbands—just as nagging is the commonest complaint of husbands against their wives.

IS THERE A REASON for this? Of course there must be many reasons. Psychologist Clarence Leuba thinks it's largely because of the social inequality of the sexes. For many reasons, he points out, the male has the initiative power in his own hands. Men "can" express their likes and dislikes freely, what they believe and invite whomever they please to do whatever they please. But their apparently advantageous social position has had some unfortunate effects on their personalities. They have lacked training in self-control, consideration, unselfishness, and a reasonable self-evaluation.

So says Dr. Leuba, to which might add that "Mom" has often made the situation worse by hanging up her little darling to be spoiled brat who thinks the world revolves around him.

There are many other explanations. The feminists of two or three generations ago helpfully suggested that it is what the books call an overcompensation for an inferiority bells decorated the quartet-table used for serving guests.

For traveling the new Mrs. Koopman chose a light blue sheath dress with navy accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of St. Anne's High School. Koopman served with the United States Navy and is engaged in farming. The bride is employed at Armour Laboratories, Kankakee. They will live at 407½ N. Walnut Ave., Mokena.

Fifty prize winners were Mrs. Agnes Klenzak, Mrs. Max Adams, Mrs. Floyd Anderson and Mrs. Carl Anderson.

Mrs. Leonard Klenzak was a guest and received a gift. Mrs. Floyd Anderson will be hostess for the May 14 meeting.

And a final and confidential word "FOR MEN ONLY." If you don't want your wife to get ahead of you, I suggest that you send for this yourself, Mr. Husband!

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS Q. How can we prevent our children from shocking parents or visitors by untimely or inappropriate comments about sex?

A. Sociologist Ward H. Beardsley says, "A person who is shocked by the questions and answers of a child is not a fit person to be a parent."

What do you think of that idea? Does it also apply to visitors? In actual practice I don't believe you'll have much difficulty of this kind.

Q. Should a 17-year-old boy, going to college, be expected to work and help support himself?

A. Yes, if his parents are unable to support him without great sacrifice, a large part of all college students are doing something to help with expenses. There are also many scholarships available—have you investigated them?

RIGHT—Mrs. Meissen, Christine and Suzanne are shown in the living room of their home. Matching chairs are a dull, lime shade. All furnishings are modern in feeling and wood finishes are limed oak. (2)

Home Of The Week

Three years ago Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Meissen were informed the house they were living in had been sold and they were given four weeks in which to vacate.

They decided against renting again after learning a new house could be completed in 2½ months. This extended beyond their four-week limit but during the interim they lived with her parents.

"We wanted something different," tells Mrs. Meissen, "and this plan, though different enough, was still practical."

The house, built at 1775 Duane St., has beamed ceilings throughout, a redwood exterior with white trim, a window wall in the living room (southern exposure) that affords warmth from the sun during winter months and an open plan in the living, kitchen and dining areas. Bedrooms are situated at the rear of the house.

The plan includes living, dining and kitchen areas, two bedrooms, den (or third bedroom) bath and enclosed porch. The garage is situated at the rear of the lot. Heat is by gas and there are hardwood floors in all rooms. In addition to ample closet space a storage wall is incorporated in one side of the porch.

Mrs. Meissen selected the interior color schemes, choosing to feature her favorite shades of brown and green. The two are in the process of completing the landscaping.

Meissen is a teacher at St. Patrick Central High School. They have two children, Christine, 8 and Suzanne, 2.

BELOW—Living room is large and spacious, with extremely light look thanks to window wall. Mrs. Meissen chose rose beige for walls, (with the exception of one above windows which is avocado) hunter green draperies and off-white draperies with avocado and perlimmon patterns. Dining area is in background and kitchen is at rear right. (3)

Permanent Antifreeze Good 1 Year

DETROIT (U)—So-called "permanent" antifreeze for auto radiators is permanent for one season only; it is "permanent" only in the sense that it will not boil away or evaporate. It should be drained from the car cooling system each spring.

engineers who have spent years trying to develop the most efficient antifreeze substance for car radiators. They tell you that one of every five of America's 60 million cars and trucks has a leaky radiator problem. Most of the trouble, they say, comes from failure to drain antifreeze from the cooling system in the spring.

ONE OF THE experts is Dr. Chester M. White, who heads the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp.'s antifreeze research laboratory at Rochester, N.Y. Dr. White says that after one winter's use the corrosion inhibitor has a tendency to break down. This tendency, he in order to get proper efficiency

Economy Data Brightens U.S. Outlook

WASHINGTON (UP)—Administration economists could today to the government's second hopeful labor report in four days to back their expectations that the recession was close to "bottoming out."

The Labor Department reported Friday night the number of idle workers—drawing unemployment benefits dropped during the week ended April 19 for the first time in three weeks. It said 3,332,000 unemployed workers were on state benefit rolls, a drop of 30,700 from the previous week.

Expect 85,000 U.S. Bankruptcies

WASHINGTON (UP)—Federal officials expect a record total of about 85,000 business bankruptcies this fiscal year.

And during the coming book-keeping year, starting July 1, they anticipate an even bigger total—95,000 cases.

Edwin L. Covey, chief of the Federal Reserve Bank's division, gave these estimates to the House Appropriations Committee in testimony made public Saturday.

The report Friday showed the number of newly laid-off workers filing their first claims for jobs last week declined to 423,000 in the week of April 26, a drop of 23,300 from the previous week.

Orders Weakness Corrected In B47

WASHINGTON (UP)—America's B47 bombers, major elements of the nation's strategic defense, are back to the factory for correction of a structural weakness that showed up in low level operations.

An Air Force announcement Friday said it will take several months to complete modification of the approximately 1,400 B47s, the medium range arm of the Strategic Air Command.

A spokesman said, however, the project will not affect the deterrent capability of the medium bomber fleet. The six jet B47s, originally designed for "strategic" sphere flight, can pack a nuclear bomb more than 3,000 miles at speeds of more than 600 miles an hour.

25% Of Our GIs Are Too Dumb

WASHINGTON (UP)—By Army standards, roughly 25 per cent of the nation's 800,000 soldiers are "too dumb" to be trained for anything but menial tasks.

Further, two of every five men drafted through selective service this year will be rejected, chiefly on physical grounds.

It costs somewhere in the vicinity of $1,600 to induct, or enlist, a man, transport, pay, feed and clothe him during basic training. This means the government is spending more than 470 million dollars to train men of dubious value to the nation's armed forces.

Under the present law if a man is physically fit and scores as much as 10 points out of a possible 100 on an intelligence test, he must be inducted, or enlisted.

Starkweather Trial Starts in Nebraska

Reveal Slayer
Blames Caril
For 2 Deaths

LINCOLN, Neb., (UP)—Sawed-off Charles R. Starkweather, after his capture three months ago, is described in a jail cell wall in which he took the blame for the killings but blamed two to his 14-year-old girl friend, Caril Ann Fugate, his attorneys disclosed today.

Starkweather, a 5-foot-5 redhead who once acknowledged he always wanted to be a criminal, went on trial in Lancaster District Court today for murder in one of a series of late-January killings.

Before selection on the jury began, Starkweather's attorneys changed his plea to innocent by reason of insanity. Starkweather had originally pleaded innocent.

Selection of a jury was expected to take three days or more.

COURT-APPOINTED defense attorneys said Starkweather's note was scrawled on the wall of the cell at the Scottsbluff County Jail in Gering, Neb. Starkweather was lodged there during an overnight stop while being returned to Lincoln after he and Caril had been captured near Douglas, Wyo., Jan. 29.

Troops Take Rebel Capital In Indonesia

JAKARTA (UP)—The focus of the Indonesian civil war shifted to the eastern part of the island today with the fall of Bukittinggi, the abandoned rebel capital on the western island of Sumatra.

"For the moment, we have almost completely our operation in Central Sumatra," said Lt. Col. Rudi Pringadi, intelligence chief of President Sukarno's army at this capital city on Java.

Pringadi did not know whether any rebel leaders had been captured when Bukittinggi fell Sunday, but it seemed unlikely.

Spaak Praises Unity in NATO

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UP)—NATO Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak said today the 15-nation North Atlantic Alliance would present a solidly united front if an East-West summit conference materialized. But conviction grew here that there would be no top-level parley before next year.

Spaak opened the three-day foreign ministers' meeting in Copenhagen today by praising the unity of the alliance.

Crowd Cheers Loyalty Day Parade Units

One of the largest patriotic events ever conducted in Bradley was Sunday afternoon, when the Veterans of Foreign Wars had their combined Loyalty Day parade and program.

Hundreds thronged the parade route from downtown Bradley to Bradley-Bourbonnais High School.

Only disappointing part of the event, according to VFW officials, was that the entire crowd did not attend the program at the high school.

County Traffic Deaths Double Rate Last Year

Kankakee County's traffic accident death toll was 120 per cent greater during the first four months of 1958 when compared to the same period last year.

Eleven persons were killed on highways in the county during the first quarter of 1958. Only five died during the January through April period in 1957.

Groymko Confers With 3 Diplomats

MOSCOW (UP)—Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko delivered to ambassadors of the three Western powers today a new communication which would protect the left the formal opening of pre-summit talks still to be negotiated.

He summoned the French, American and British ambassadors and handed them the Kremlin's reply to the West's note of Saturday. This rejected participation of Czechoslovakia and Poland in discussions on a diplomatic level and agreed that Western envoys would meet individually with Gromyko.

Kidnap Of Kathy Faces Court Hearing

ST. LOUIS (UP)—The fate of a young boy who left little Kathy Hampton tied and naked in a vacant house without food or water for three days rested today with Juvenile Court.

LATROBE, Pa. (UP)—A young explorer was lifted by block and tackle from Copperhead Cave early today 10 hours after he had fallen and fractured his leg 1,000 feet from the cavern entrance.

Yellow cave explorers carried and dragged Richard La Val, 19, St. Louis, 900 feet in four hours by the body near the entrance. Four members of the party then went to help while a woman in the group stayed behind to administer first aid.

Bradley Supports Eisenhower's Plan To Revamp Defense Dept.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley told Congress today the defense department is in a state of confusion. This also leads to confusion.

Bradley spoke strongly for more authority for the secretary of defense on nuclear test suspension, per capita by six months, informed sources said today.

Colombians Pick Camargo President

BOGOTA, Colombia (UP)—Long split into bitter factions, the Colombian voters united to elect Alberto Lleras Camargo president Sunday. Terrorist attacks pointed up his most pressing problem.

Thirty-three persons, mostly peasants on their way to the polls, were killed by moving terrorist trucks. They killed 25 in an attack on two truckloads of voters near Tolima, in central Colombia, and shot down others at Huila and Cauca, in the west.

Decreases between January and February were registered in 10 of the 21 major categories of imports.

Non-Controversial Labor Bill Rejected By Knowland

WASHINGTON (UP)—Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland urged approval today of a "moderate" labor bill. But he rejected a suggestion that it be limited to "non-controversial" reforms.

He testified as the first witness at a resumption of Senate Labor subcommittee hearings on suggestions for a broad labor reform bill.

Test Suspension Decision Delayed

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UP)—The United States and Britain have agreed to postpone a decision on nuclear test suspension, perhaps by six months, informed sources said today.

This is the estimated time presently required for scientists to complete their inquiries on the basis of the impending series of new U.S. and British tests and for an announcement of the McMahon Act.
