The interest of two fourth graders in wildlife snowballed into a mass excavation project when two youngsters displayed fossils. This has resulted in a "science corner" in which the children have brought everything from a small snake to a dozen toads.

During the week of preparations, the young people wrote and dramatized their own program.

The youngsters learned to compose and write invitations; plan and arrange a program and experienced social graces when they acted as hosts and introduced their parents, teachers and friends to one another.

Explanations of the displays were experiences in story telling, as well as helping them learn the importance of speaking clearly and distinctly.

Debate Merits Of Judicial Amendment

Although age does not mean that it is good or bad, the present Illinois judicial article has remained largely unchanged for 110 years, said attorney Donald Gray as he introduced a debate on the judicial amendment at the Kankakee Exchange Club meeting Wednesday.

Gray, who admitted being in favor of the proposal, said that court system spawned by the present article has become so complicated that frequently an experienced lawyer does not know where to go.

There is great expense and duplication under the present law, he said, and no one responsible for administration of an efficient court system.

"It is supported by most of the responsible organizations in the state," he said.

E. W. Sale spoke for the amendment and Fred Smith Jr. presented arguments against the proposal.

UNDER THE PRESENT article, Sale said that the Supreme Court has original jurisdiction in so many cases that it is impossible for the field of law that it must hear.

The new law would provide for election of appellate justices from the districts where they would preside. Under the present system appellate justices are recruited from the ranks of circuit judges serving in counties where there is no pressing need for their services.

The amendment, Sale said, would eliminate the duplication that occurs when an adverse decision is reversed in a justice court and the case reargued in a higher court. The new article would also prohibit judges and associate justices, who would take the place of justices of the peace, from holding political office and from practicing law privately.

He also said that in equity cases the high courts of a hearing before a master in chancery would be eliminated.

STEFAN HAY, "that" most lawyers who oppose the judicial article believe that it upsets the balance of separation of powers by making the courts subject to the legislature.

Outside of the legal profession, most of the opposition comes from people who believe that it would change the courts deeper into political machines. It is intended to remove them from political control, Smith said, that putting judges on a salary and providing them with office space and clerks would make the system too expensive and destroy the concept of "poor man's justice."

The proposed amendment also has been attacked, he said, because it takes away "home rule" — the people's right to decide who will judge them.

She was bruised on the right side, hands and knees when police reported, she ran from between two parked cars and into the right front fender of a southbound auto driven by Alfred Robert Taylor, 39, Kankakee. Taylor had moved here recently from New Jersey.

The girl, Lynn Carol, 3, of Greenwood Ave., was taken to the hospital by the fire department emergency squad after the accident about 7:15 p.m. Wednesday. She is the daughter of David Cook.

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Lots of years ago I wanted to be a nurse, but Debbie Brookes did something about it. Missing from her home several hours, she was found, the spokeswoman for the police department said, by a police officer.

THE KANKAKEE HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS, in the service performed it has ever made, was well received Wednesday night by family members and guests. The choir, organized only two weeks ago, appeared at the teachers' dinner in East Junior High School gym, spending the two-day teacher workshop in progress on Friday and Saturday.

Stanley Weber, supervisor of instruction, was master of ceremonies at the dinner in East Junior High School gym. He introduced the guests of honor, speaker, members of the board of education and guests.

Climax of the evening was the first public performance this year of the Kankakee High School Chorus, organized just two weeks ago. The 56-voice aggregation, under the direction of Raymond Baugh presented a program demonstrating the group's accomplishment in this brief period. Selections ranged from Negro spirituals to popular music.

There is no single formula for dealing with people," Dr. Anthony Marinaccio told 90 teachers and guests Wednesday night. The superintendent of Kankakee School District 111 spoke at a dinner kicking off the annual Teachers Fall Workshop.

Discussing "Human Relations in the Classroom," Marinaccio said teachers must try to view things from a student's point of view, from a principal's point of view, from the parents' and from the school board member's point of view. In the same manner, each must consider the opinions of the others.

"The system of values, the concept of honesty is different in all of us. We must give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt," Marinaccio urged.

"If we could really accomplish understanding the other fellow's point of view, we could change the world," he declared.

POINTING OUT that values change only from within, the superintendent explained that "personality wants to be itself." It is through exchanges of ideas, opinions, problems and solutions that changes are accomplished.

"That's why we have these workshops," he contended. "Classroom changes will result only when each individual teacher feels within that it is necessary."

The court-ordered hearings are now going over much of the same ground developed at hearings earlier this year before the House subcommittee on legislative oversight under the chairmanship of Rep. Owen Harris (D-Ark.).
The indictment also accused Mack, 48, a Florida dentist, of receiving "sums of money and other things of value from Whiteside" in return for his vote in favor of the Public Service award.
In Fort Lauderdale, Fla., after his indictment Mack called the charges ridiculous. He said "I'm not worried about it. He said 'the whole thing just makes me feel a little sad.'"
At Miami, Whiteside said "at my trial my complete innocence will be proven."

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP)—A selling spree hit the stock market as profits were taken today at its record high. The market was lower, but prices steadied early this afternoon.
Pivotal issues were down fractions to more than a point. At worst, the losses of blue chips went to around two points. American Telephone was down that much for a time but clipped the loss.
The wave of selling came in mid-morning and put the ticker tape to much as 3 minutes behind for 34 minutes.
Brokers ascribed the drop to accumulated profit taking and said a large number of stop-loss orders were touched off as prices began to weaken.
Trading in Studebaker-Packard was interrupted temporarily under the huge pressure of sell orders but the net loss was less than a point. The opening in the stock delayed 45 minutes due to heavy selling occasioned by a special corporate development.
Business news remained fairly good and brokers saw no particular development to trigger the setback. They regarded it as a kind of warning signal that stock prices may be due for a major correction but this signal remains to be confirmed.
Parke, Davis kept a gain of nearly three points.
Losses of around a point were shown by Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Chrysler and U.S. Steel. Westinghouse rebounded from a loss and showed a net rise of a point-plus.
U.S. government bonds declined. Prices as of 1 p.m.:

"The status of the school as a public institution is not changed by projecting into its operation a private corporation of this nature. Unequivocally the courts have held that the superintention of such a corporation does not excuse a state institution from non-compliance with the 14th Amendment rights of its pupils."
On the other hand, Rogers said that if the court ruled the school could be closed, the court should instruct the board of the school to operate the school so that it would not violate court orders.
The government memorandum stated that "the interest of the United States of America as amicus curiae (friend of the court) in this proceeding is its responsibility that the orders of United States courts be complied with."

CANON CITY, Colo. (UPI)—The driver of a light pickup truck used the vehicle Wednesday to slow down and halt a brakeless car rushing down Eighth-Mile Hill, scene of five fatal accidents in the past three years.
The runaway automobile was occupied by Mrs. Cleo Roberts of Denver, the driver, and Mrs. Gladys Reed of Wichita, Kan.
The truck driver, John Skarjane, 47, said, "they were waving and screaming and I thought they were firing with me—I saw my speedometer and read it at 75 miles an hour."
HE SAID HE WAS RIDING DOWN the hill when the car carrying the women skidded past him.
"I hit the gas and finally overtook them," Skarjane said. "Using the rear-view mirror, I synchronized the speed of the truck and the car and let the car's bumper hit my rear bumper."
"In about a half-mile, I had the car slowed to a complete stop," Mrs. Roberts maneuvered the fleeing automobile so skillfully that neither vehicle was damaged.

High-Priced Fixer Henry Grunewald Dies After Stroke

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry (The Dutchman) Grunewald, pictured as a high-priced fixer for the 1953 investigation of federal tax scandals, died today.
The 65-year-old Grunewald was a figure of mystery, with a reputation as a wire puller, during the Truman administration.
He suffered a stroke Monday and had been unconscious in a hospital here since then. In the last five years he had survived five heart attacks.
IN 1953, Grunewald and two others were convicted of conspiracy in a $100,000 payoff to Grunewald to kill federal tax prosecutors against two firms. They won a reversal in the Supreme Court, however, on a legal technicality.
A New York jury deadlocked last July in a retrial, and a second trial had been set for Oct. 6, but the firm was having income tax troubles in the late 1940s.

King Continues To Improve

NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. continues to improve at Harlem Hospital.
The touch of pneumonia which he had after his escape from a mob was subsiding.
Well-wishers are still sending messages to the 35-year-old integration leader from Montgomery, Ala.
An anonymous telephone threat Dulles that he was being released at the hospital Wednesday.
A phone operator reported that a man with a southern accent told her "I'm not going to fail the next time."
On Tuesday, there had been two telephone bomb threats.
A Negro woman, Mrs. Iola Ware Curry, 47, stabbed King in the chest with a steel knife in an operation in a Harlem department store last Saturday.

Will Sorghum Stay Popular?

A large number of Kankakee area farmers have become accustomed to raising sorghum. They usually make silage out of it although a few combine the grain and feed it to hogs.

On the William Allers farm northwest of Manteo men were busy putting up sorghum silage this week. It took about 15 acres to fill the 150-ton capacity steel silo and a 30-ton cement silo.

Walter Kiedalski said they are using about the top two feet of the plant. Last year they used

Farm Prices Expected To Drop Lower

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agricultural Marketing Service—in a farm market outlook report—said today that farm prices are likely to drop further in the next few months.

"This forecast was made at a time when farm price levels were running about 2 per cent higher than a year ago."

It could presage trouble for Republicans running in the November congressional elections.

SEC. OF AGRICULTURE Benson has recently said that GOP prospects are bright in midwestern and western farming areas, because farmers are producing record crops and have been getting better prices than a year ago.

But farm prices have been slipping since they reached a peak in May. They had climbed then to the highest level since the Eisenhower administration took over in 1953. But since then, they have dropped nearly 5 per cent.

A big question—which the marketing service did not attempt to answer—is whether the predicted decline in the months ahead may pull them down below marks of a year ago before the November elections.

THE SERVICE said the major factor in the price setback is the production of a record supply of farm products. Crop production alone may be 10 per cent larger than last year's record-making volume. This is the season of the year that marketings start increasing sharply. Normally, prices de-

Jet Airliners To Shrink World Travel Time, Space

The ball we know as the earth will be given a shrinking treatment this fall, as much as 40 per cent in time and distance for the people who will take to the air in the new jet passenger planes being put into service by several of the world's major airlines.

Making the inaugural scheduled flight is to be a Boeing 707 Pan American World Airways plane from New York to Paris. Airlines claim the new jet service will be the most dramatic advance in transportation since the airplane was first flown by Orville Wright at Kitty Hawk, N.C., Dec. 17, 1903.

The new planes will almost double present speeds, vibration will be virtually eliminated and cruising altitudes will be elevated to 35,000 feet above most weather disturbances. Passengers will also have a view of the curving earth stretching 200 miles in any direction.

THE COMMERCIAL jet liners will cruise about 875 miles per hour, their most economical speed. They will be able to plant all the corn and soybeans in the world in one year.

One of the four jet engines has more power than all four engines combined on the biggest airliners today.

Each of the four jet engines has more power than all four engines combined on the biggest airliners today.

One of its big advantages will be the smooth and quiet ride. Absence of the many working parts of reciprocating engines eliminates vibration. Moving parts of a turbine all move in the same direction. At cruising altitude, a cigarette or pencil will stand on end for indefinite time on any flat surface in the passenger cabin.

Each of O'Hare's jetliners will be able to handle four times as much traffic as the average strip and in low wind, could be unloading 150 passengers at a time. All of its runways can be clip and with runways long enough

$2 Million Blaze Razes Cuban Base

HAVANA (AP)—A fire which destroyed a $2-million building of Havana's International Jose Marti Airport today, destroyed a warehouse.

Damage was estimated at two million dollars. Three persons were slightly injured. An RKO movie company was shooting on the second floor.

Try Officer For Assault On Negro

KAISERLAUTER, Germany (AP)—Maj. Leonard V. Bailey of Salt Lake City who was charged with assaulting a Negro in the U.S. Army, went on trial before a court-martial today and pleaded "innocent" in beating up Private Rogers, a Negro Negro entertainer.

The plan was alleged by the assistant chief of staff, Maj. E. M. Chandler, 49, Memphis, Tenn., Bailey, 47, at his trial through the opening procedure. The Detroit-born Bailey, who now makes his home in New York City, was charged with assault on Rogers in the head and kicking him, causing the fracture of a rib.

Rogers, a member of a three-piece band, was charged with assault on Bailey in the head and kicking him, causing the fracture of a rib.

The major is accused of hitting Rogers in the head and kicking him, causing the fracture of a rib.

Because of increased speeds and larger sizes, the jets will carry more passengers at the same time. It is expected they will open up freight markets, bringing perishable fruits and vegetables overnight to New York or London from almost anywhere in the world.

THE CIVIL Aeronautics Administration predicts with the advent of the commercial jet, passenger traffic should increase from 40,320,000 last year to 64 million in 1965 and 118 million by 1970.

THE JETLINERS are also expected to figure in faster mail service. A major proportion of the country's scheduled jet airliner fleet will also be on 48-hour alert for global assignment in support of the armed forces. By 1965 the jetliners will increase the United States' mail capacity fourfold at a savings to taxpayers of over a billion dollars.

There are 440 jet transports now on order by United States airlines which will cost 2 1/2 billion dollars plus another half billion dollars for special ground equipment and new ground facilities. Technical experts have been at work for over four years enlarging airports and terminal facilities, improving air traffic control systems and working out ways of handling increased numbers of passengers and amounts of mail and cargo.

Many of the planes are entering in the commercial jet age? Basically, they are two types, pure jets and "stretched" jets. Both are an application of Sir Isaac Newton's law that "every action produces a reaction equal in force and opposite in direction."

The Boeing 707s being introduced this fall are pure jets with air sucked into the engine, compressed and ignited in a mixture with kerosene. Then the hot gases force eight months of this year were 10% per cent higher than in the period last year. August receipts were up 7 per cent over a year ago.

Valparaiso University Guild Organizes, Elects Officers

Mrs. Joseph Morin will serve as president of the newly-organized Kankakee Valley chapter of the Valparaiso University Guild.

Other officers elected and installed at the guild's first meeting Tuesday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Hall were Mrs. John Hess, vice president; Mrs. Henry Eden, secretary; and Mrs. Frederick Metzner, treasurer.

Mrs. L. E. Thalacker, chairman pro tem, conducted the election and officiated at the installation. The guild voted to call itself the Kankakee Valley chapter since its membership is composed of women from four separate congregations, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Kankakee; Our Savior Lutheran Church, Bradley; Zion Lutheran Church, Bonfield; and Trinity Lutheran Church, Herscher.

Regular business meetings are set for 8 p.m. the fourth Tuesday in September, November, February and May. The meeting place will rotate among the four churches.

THE NOVEMBER meeting will be held in Bradley with guild members from that organization serving as hostesses.

Mrs. Morin appointed committee chairmen for the 1980-81 year. Mrs. John Hesscher will head the pecan sale and Mrs. Harry Buckman will supervise the distribution of calendars.

Other chairmen will be Mrs. Miss Tina Tetrault, baptizing Sunday.

Miss Tina Tetrault, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Tetrault of 21 Rivard Rd., Bonfield, was baptized Sunday at Maternity Church, Bourbonnais.

Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Coyne of Kankakee.

Former Manteno Girl Marries In Joliet

The wedding of Miss Juanita Earhart of Joliet, formerly of Manteno, and George McCoy took place Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Richards Street Methodist Church, Joliet.

Mr. and Mrs. William Earhart of 1266 N. Schuyler Ave., Kankakee, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McCoy of R. 2, Minooka.

The Rev. Kenneth Yeoman assisted by the Rev. Andrew Moser performed the double ring ceremony. An altar flanked with arrangements of white gladioli and candles provided a setting for the wedding.

Miss Esther Davies, organist, accompanied Darwyn Puckett as he sang "I Promise You" and "Because" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

ESCORTED TO THE ALTAR by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The bodice was designed with a sweet heart neckline and long tapering sleeves. The skirt swept into a chapel train.

Her fingertip length veil was of lace trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley with a white orchid.

Mrs. John Kurtz of Minooka was maid of honor. She was attended in a capsize taffeta ensemble fashioned with a scooped neckline, fitted bodice with a trapezoid style back and an apron front panel. She wore a matching feathered headpiece and carried a bouquet of bronze pompons with roses.

Miss Peggy McCoy and Miss Audrey Theaphon were bridesmaids.

which seems to come from a study of the subject. Stations, networks and sponsors alike declare that "Nobody is complaining," except a few cranks of course.

You and your friends and neighbors could change almost any feature of what FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover calls "this exceedingly unhealthily thing called television."

The following volunteers assisted with the party: Mrs. Robert Jacobson, Mrs. John Mathews, Mrs. Lawrence Shepard, Mrs. Zedoka Tillotson and the Misses Delores Andriana, Margaret Arsenault, Diane Drummond, Brenda Kratz, Donna Meyer, Sonja Monk and Patricia Weller.

There are several national organizations that could help you. Best known is NABF (National Association for Better Radio and Television), at 624 Victoria St., Los Angeles 5, Calif. I took the figures, cited above, from one of its surveys. President of this non-profit organization is Mrs. Clara S. Logan. It has many pertinent publications which would be invaluable to any parent, church group, women's club, or other organization that takes the education of children seriously. One of its most valuable bulletins is called "Fifteen Reasons Why Crime-Watchers Are Not Acceptable TV Ads For Children." I'll be glad to send a FREE copy of this to any reader who writes me in care of this newspaper and encloses a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Other organizations in this field are the American Council for Better Broadcasting (423 North Broadway St., Madison, Wis.) and the National Audience Board with New York headquarters at 193 East End Avenue, New York 28, N.Y.

200 Murders

A Week Enough?

By DR. PAUL POPENOE

I'd be the first to agree that children shouldn't be peeked away and brought up in a vacuum. The need to know something about what's going on in the world. They need to know, for instance, that there is such a thing as murder.

But how much murder do you think your children should see, in order to have an adequate education? Are 200 murders each week enough? Or do you think that this number is in excess of what's necessary for their proper "adjustment to living?"

Well, whatever you think about it, they're getting more than this at present. Viewers kept track of the programs offered by the TV stations in one large city for one week, during the hours when children are most likely to be watching that is, before 9 p.m. Incidents of violence portrayed on these programs during the seven days included: 223 killings of human beings, 192 attempted murders, 15 robberies, 15 kidnappings, 24 conspiracies to commit murder, 21 jailbreaks, 7 attempted lynchings, 6 dynamites, 11 extortions, 2 cases of arson and 2 cases of physical torture. "No count was made of the innumerable prolonged and brutal fights, the threats to kill, the sluggings, or the many times when characters in the crime stories manhandled their victims, including women and children."

IS THIS WHAT YOU really want your children to see? If not, what are you going to do about it? Nothing. That's the answer

Mind Reader Wins Test In Court, Freed

BERLIN (AP) — Six spectators in a courtroom in suburban Berlin raised their hands. Yes, they told the judge, they were willing to have their minds read by the man on trial.

They wrote six questions and handed them to the bench. The judge turned to Gerhard Belgardt, 36, otherwise known as "Hanssen II, Germany's No. 1 mind reader."

The charge against Belgardt was: He had swindled funds in private sessions by pretending to give news of missing relatives.

THE JUDGE: "WHAT IS on the first piece of paper?"

Belgardt: "The lady is asking about her sister. She is an inch taller, blonde, considerably younger, and works in a public building."

The questioner: "That's right. My sister works as a medical assistant."

The judge: "What is on the next paper?"

Belgardt: "The man has asked about his son. He will come along with me in school."

The man: "Correct."

The judge: "The next questioner is a city detective. What has he written?"

BELGARDT, HESITATING: "He asks about his mother or his grandmother. I have no contact. Either the question is phony or she is dead. The man has suffered long—a concentration camp? Is that correct?"

The detective: "Correct. I asked about my grandmother. She is dead. I was in a concentration camp."

Three further questions were asked and Belgardt got the answers relatively right.

The judge: "I see no evidence that Belgardt has deliberately cheated people. The experiments in court, particularly that with the claims as a mind reader, case dismissed."

Hanssen II, embracing his wife: "I had foreseen that I would be freed."

Versatile Beauty Aids Have More Than One Use

BY JEANNE D'ARCY

If beauty shelf space is at a premium, we've a bit of advice: Why stock up on jars, bottles and boxes? No need for that if you put on that thinking cap, make out a shopping list that features versatile beauty aids, the kind that do more than one job.

Write at the head of a "petroleum jelly." Here's on old stand-by with too many uses to list in too.

For a reminder, remember the jelly will smooth rough elbows, remove stubborn waterproof mascara, groom brows into line, treat minor burns and cuts, give eye-brows lustre, substitute for eye shadow, keep foot calluses soft, serve as a hair pomade.

Good quality witch hazel's another standard to stock. Use it as a mild astringent, pat it under-arms after shaving to ward off irritation, soak cotton pads in it and use for a brighter-eye treatment.

Baby oil goes on the list if skin is dry. Wonderful for the complexion, it's good in a beauty bath, too. A cap full or more in the tub makes for a bath that lubricates dry skin from neck to toes.

Don't forget cotton-balls—and bless them for all they do: remove make-up, nail polish, cosmetics; apply foundation, astringent, cleansing lotion. They're handy for hundreds of other beauty and medical uses, too, to make sure you always have a good supply on tap.

PREPARING THE WAY FOR the new pipeline in the Wabash system, which will go under Route 24, four miles west of Crescent City, is the power shovel pictured above. A smaller trench for the tubing is shown leading from the rear of the shovel. Thus far the pipeline extends to the Loda area, which is southwest of Crescent City. The line will extend 200 miles underground and will pass such communities as Bement, Champaign, Paxton, Crescent City, Momence and extend eventually from Chicago to Harshdale, Ind. (Journal photo)

Pipeline Company Will Work From Momence

MOMENCE (JNS) — General headquarters will be set up Monday in Momence to direct the construction of another link in the new Wabash pipeline system, which presently is feeding refined products to the Ohio Oil Co. terminal west of Champaign.

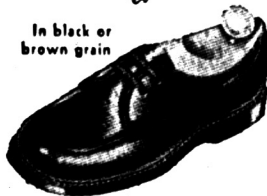

The old Federal Building, now owned by the city of Momence, will be used as a general warehouse during the time the line is being installed. Headquarters will be in a mobile office, which is equipped with radio to keep in touch with workmen along the route of the installation.

The new segment was started at Wood River and will extend to Harshdale, Ind., linking to the new 85-mile line presently feeding the new Ohio Oil Cooperative refined products terminal near Champaign.

In Momence, it will mean housing approximately 80 persons working on the project. The task of obtaining adequate facilities for them is being undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce. There are 150 employees on the job. There are 40 mobile homes, which due to the lack of facilities, will have to find a location elsewhere, probably Kankakee.

The pipeline will run a quarter of a mile west of Momence, crossing the Kankakee River near the Robert LaMotte farm. About four miles are completed each day. The pipe to be used in this area is at the railway switch-off south of Route 114. The job is done in stretches of approximately 22 miles. It is expected the work will be done in another two months. The job got under way in July.

It Was Bullish Day And Hardly Bearable

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bulls and bears—definitely not the stock market variety—had their ups and downs on the news front Wednesday.

At Princeton, Mo., a hopped-up Hereford bull, breaking out of a barn invaded playgrounds of a junior high and an elementary school during recess. At the junior high, about 100 pupils made like rabbits into the schoolhouse. Mrs. Jewel Hagan, a teacher, providing rear guard action, was charged by Mr. Bull. She climbed a fence to safety.

At the elementary school nearby the bull charged Mrs. Jessie Alley, a teacher. She dodged and escaped. It butted 10-year-old Maureen David from a swing, but fell down. Maureen and her classmates fled. Livestock handlers finally corralled the bull.

AT BUENA Vista, Colo., a big black bear ambled down out of the mountains. After munching on some apples in an orchard, it climbed into a cottonwood tree and relaxed. A crowd gathered.

Game Warden A. C. Jordan tried to coax the bear to come down. Honeyed phrases were no use. The bear wouldn't budge. The townsfolk protested when Jordan figured he'd have to shoot the animal, so he put away his gun.

At last report, brother Bear still was sprawled in the big tree, blinking curiously at the two-legged characters gathered beneath him.

At South Portland, Maine, it was Bull Moose Day. The 900-pound creature was grazing peacefully in a swampy area when he was suddenly surrounded by police, photographers and hundreds of curious residents.

THIS WENT ON for several hours and the big-antlered moose couldn't take it. He thundered across main streets and through back yards. Finally a steel fence was in his way. He charged full tilt. The fence didn't budge and the moose was all shook up. He surrendered meekly to a veterinarian, who gave him what he needed—a tranquilizer.

Last heard from, the mixed up moose was living it up on a pink cloud—but behind the bars of the state game farm.

At Duluth, Minn., a honey-loving bear came to grief near the home of a beekeeper whose hives

Fine Bloomington Man For Failure To Buy Stamp

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Claude E. Allen of Bloomington today was fined $25 for failing to buy a federal gambling tax stamp on a pin-ball machine.

Allen, who operates the Saratoga Billiards, pleaded no contest. In addition to the fine, U. S. Dist. Judge Omar Ross ordered Allen to pay court costs, expected to run $25 or $30.

Residents spotted the bear several times, opened fire, but had no luck. As darkness came, somebody decided to string a line of light bulbs from a garage to a field. Lookouts were posted. When the bear appeared, the lights went up, some shots rang out, and a was curtains for the bear.

A Homemaker's Ritual—Baking Every Saturday

By JEAN MARTIN

Baking for others has always been a hobby of Mrs. Robert Hasselbring of Milford whether it's for her family or for her friends.

Mrs. Hasselbring's hobby has developed into a career for her also. She's now starting her third year as head cook at Milford High School where she's in charge of planning the menus for the students' lunches.

The Milford woman's family isn't neglected along the baking lines for not a Saturday goes by without her baking goodies for her family, Mrs. Hasselbring admits she has spoiled her husband and family with her weekly baking. "It's kind of a ritual," she says.

The pastries which are pictured and those which are left over from Mrs. Hasselbring's weekend baking are put in the deep freeze and then re-heated for breakfasts the following week. They also provide good after school snacks for the Hasselbring children, Janet, 9, and Michael, 7.

BESIDES HER DUTIES as head cook, Mrs. Hasselbring belongs to the Dorcas Society of Our Savior Lutheran Church where she sings in the choir and teaches a Sunday school class where she has charge of 18 youngsters. She also belongs to the Parent Teacher Association and is a former member of the Milford Woman's Club.

Mrs. Hasselbring's six favorite recipes are listed which include a chicken casserole deluxe.

Pecan Rolls
Mix together in mixing bowl:
2 cups flour
1/2 cup shortening
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup sugar
2 cups milk (scalded)
Add:
2 packages dry yeast dissolved in 1/2 cup warm water
1 more cup flour
Remove from mixer and add:
2 cups more flour
Knead to a soft dough. Cover and let rise until double in bulk, about 1 hour. Divide into 2 parts and roll in rectangle, spread with melted butter, sugar and cinnamon. Roll and cut in 1-inch slices and lay in pans.

Pecan Mixture:
The following mixture is for a 9-inch pan of pecan rolls:
1/2 cup light brown sugar
3 tablespoons light corn syrup
2 tablespoons butter (melted)
Add enough water to make it spread easily in pan. Arrange pecans on top of topping. Place rolls cut side down over mixture. Let rise for 20 minutes. Bake in 375 degrees F. oven for 20 to 25 minutes.
Makes 3 pans of rolls.

Angel Food Dessert
1 cup sugar
1 pint milk
2 egg yolks
Cook until mixture coats a spoon. Mixture will be thin.
Add:
1 1/2 tablespoons gelatin softened in 1/2 cup cold water
1 teaspoon vanilla
Add to custard and cool. Beat:
2 egg whites
Whip:
1 pint whipping cream
Add to custard:
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple, well drained
Pour over angel food cake broken in pieces. Garnish with nuts and cherries.
Let stand overnight. Mrs. Hasselbring uses a 13 x 9 inch pan.

Rhubarb Crunch
4 cups rhubarb (diced)
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour or minute tapioca
Combine ingredients and put in glass baking dish. Mix together:
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup flour
1/4 cup oatmeal (quick)
1/2 cup butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
Sprinkle over rhubarb. Bake 35 to 40 minutes in 350 degree F. oven.

SHOPPERS GUIDE: Potatoes will again be available for buyers at very low prices this week.

There will be an abundant crop of apples on the market and the quality will be very good. The main supply coming into this area will be from Michigan. Popular varieties will be Wealthies and McIntosh. With apples being offered at such low prices the homemaker can't afford to be without them, say local dealers.

For canning, there will be a good supply of home grown tomatoes, earliest pears, beets and Concord grapes on the market.

Salad vegetables which will be featured at low prices this week-end include lettuce, celery, peppers, cucumbers and tomatoes.

For boiling vegetables, cauliflower, sweet potatoes, rutabagas and green beans will be offered at low prices. There will also be a good supply of cabbage and acorn squash on the market.

Bananas will be a trifle higher in price although a good supply is expected next week which will be featured at a lower price. Oranges will be expensive while California grapes will be inexpensive.

Rhubarb Cobbler

Put in baking dish:
4 cups rhubarb
1 tablespoon butter
1 1/2 cups sugar

Cream 1 cup sugar and 1/2 cup shortening. Add 1 egg and beat. Alternate above mixture with a mixture of the following, sifted together:

1 cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
Bake 50 to 60 minutes in a 350 degree F. oven.

MRS. HASSELBRING'S pecan rolls, coffee cake, iced cinnamon rolls and T-rings provide delicious after-school snacks for the Hassel-bring's two children and for the entire family's breakfasts.

"BAKING FOR MY family every Saturday is kind of a ritual with me," says Mrs. Robert Hasselbring of Milford who through the week serves as head cook at Milford High School. The Hasselbring's children, Janet, center, and Michael assist their mother with the sampling of her pastries. (Journal photos)

Parents, Teens Clash On Going Steady

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Gilbert Youth Research Co.
Teenagers might as well face it. They don't see eye to eye with their parents on going steady—and they probably never will.

Sixty-three per cent of the parents we polled recently in a nationwide survey spoke up strongly in favor of young people "holding the field," and "holding around." They think that teen time is a time for "adventure, not security and sameness."

This contrasts with the answers given by the kids themselves in an earlier poll. At that time, 68 per cent voiced heavy approval of going steady. They're well aware this is a foremost bone of contention in their homes. But they're going steady anyway, despite grins of disapproval from Mom and Dad.

It isn't that most parents distrust their children. But they feel that teenagers are too immature to limit their dating experience.

"THEY HAVEN'T seen enough of life," complains Mrs. Florence Rankin, of Norwood, Ohio, who has one daughter. "Their field is too small to pick from."

One Portland, Ore., woman who declined to be quoted by name as she always leads to destruction.

Another mother of three, Mrs. Margaret B. Donnelly of Peck-

skill, N. Y., says: "They tend to marry too young."

Parents deplore this progression from going steady to going to the altar. Says a Fergus, Minn., mother of three, Mrs. Almer, Orel:

"It's too much like being engaged, and they are too young to know the seriousness of matrimony."

This stress on immaturity, which probably causes junior's blood to boil, is echoed by many parents who feel their children lack judgment and experience, which they should gain by dating many teenagers.

ONE FATHER wryly expresses the conflict between his dating philosophy and his daughter's actual experience. He has been afraid the "system stifles discrimination."

Most of these fathers have materialized in his daughter's case.

The minority third of the parents polled refuse to throw up their hands in horror at the current social twosomes. "I don't see what all the fuss is about," says a Coloradoan, Mrs. Paula Nelson.

"It isn't the end of the world for two youngsters to go steady. In fact, it's an every day occurrence around here, and pretty healthy too."

Such parents practice a non-interference policy, on the grounds that laying down the law makes the children all the more determined to go steady. Mrs. Eva L. Cunningham of Cleveland, Ohio, comments: "Going steady usually means security for a date more than anything else, and if you try to interfere, the youngsters will find a way to get around you."

"TREAT THE SITUATION lightly," advises Mrs. Harry Fink of Hopedale, N. Y., mother of four. "It's not as bad as it is made out to be. These youngsters understand the child's need for security, and as expressed by having a steady always available."

"I'd rather see kids have the ability of going steady than have them feel so unsure and insecure that they have to resort to seeking in parked cars with a new partner each week," comments Mrs. T. R. Burns, of Pittsburgh.

When the polsters tossed some other questions at American parents, a paradoxical situation popped up. They were willing enough to let their kids go steady, but they were not willing to let their kids go steady with a date who was not a member of the same church.

The commission said it would re-examine the question of church membership as to the propriety of the level of the proposed rates and proposed changes in the rate structure and also as to the propriety of the level of the proposed rates and proposed changes in the rate structure.

Cooperation Is Keynote Of Large Family Breakfast

By GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Food and Nutrition Editor
Breakfast is important in any family to maintain health, spirit and growth. So all doctors and nutritionists warn. That's why the Jenkins family of Glenview, Ill., takes it so seriously. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, there are six active sons to feed every morning. The Jenkins week-day breakfast is served in three shifts. Dad eats with the three and four-year-olds. Then the six, eight, and 10-year-olds eat together and lastly together.

Most parents applaud their children's choice of friends. Eight out of 10 prefer the same size, and seven out of 10, with friends of the opposite sex. Mrs. Frank Condon of Brooklyn, N. Y., says the boys her 16-year-old daughter "are much more than the ones I knew at her age."

But in the area of choosing friends, these parents say, children know best. They're sure that a "well brought up" child, as Robert Lofert of Los Angeles puts it, will make proper friendships.

"THEY MUST learn some things for themselves," asserts Mrs. Florence Rankin, Norwood, Ohio, who has one daughter. "They don't see eye to eye with their parents on going steady—and they probably never will."

Sixty-three per cent of the parents we polled recently in a nationwide survey spoke up strongly in favor of young people "holding the field," and "holding around." They think that teen time is a time for "adventure, not security and sameness."

This contrasts with the answers given by the kids themselves in an earlier poll. At that time, 68 per cent voiced heavy approval of going steady. They're well aware this is a foremost bone of contention in their homes. But they're going steady anyway, despite grins of disapproval from Mom and Dad.

It isn't that most parents distrust their children. But they feel that teenagers are too immature to limit their dating experience.

"THEY HAVEN'T seen enough of life," complains Mrs. Florence Rankin, of Norwood, Ohio, who has one daughter. "Their field is too small to pick from."

One Portland, Ore., woman who declined to be quoted by name as she always leads to destruction.

Another mother of three, Mrs. Margaret B. Donnelly of Peck-

skill, N. Y., says: "They tend to marry too young."

Parents deplore this progression from going steady to going to the altar. Says a Fergus, Minn., mother of three, Mrs. Almer, Orel:

"It's too much like being engaged, and they are too young to know the seriousness of matrimony."

This stress on immaturity, which probably causes junior's blood to boil, is echoed by many parents who feel their children lack judgment and experience, which they should gain by dating many teenagers.

ONE FATHER wryly expresses the conflict between his dating philosophy and his daughter's actual experience. He has been afraid the "system stifles discrimination."

Most of these fathers have materialized in his daughter's case.

The minority third of the parents polled refuse to throw up their hands in horror at the current social twosomes. "I don't see what all the fuss is about," says a Coloradoan, Mrs. Paula Nelson.

"It isn't the end of the world for two youngsters to go steady. In fact, it's an every day occurrence around here, and pretty healthy too."

Such parents practice a non-interference policy, on the grounds that laying down the law makes the children all the more determined to go steady. Mrs. Eva L. Cunningham of Cleveland, Ohio, comments: "Going steady usually means security for a date more than anything else, and if you try to interfere, the youngsters will find a way to get around you."

"TREAT THE SITUATION lightly," advises Mrs. Harry Fink of Hopedale, N. Y., mother of four. "It's not as bad as it is made out to be. These youngsters understand the child's need for security, and as expressed by having a steady always available."

"I'd rather see kids have the ability of going steady than have them feel so unsure and insecure that they have to resort to seeking in parked cars with a new partner each week," comments Mrs. T. R. Burns, of Pittsburgh.

When the polsters tossed some other questions at American parents, a paradoxical situation popped up. They were willing enough to let their kids go steady, but they were not willing to let their kids go steady with a date who was not a member of the same church.

Consistory Call Expected To Fill Cardinal Posts

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—The appointment of the Most Rev. Albert G. Meyer as archbishop of Chicago stirred fresh speculation today of a consistory in which Pope Plus XII would fill vacancies in the Sacred College of Cardinals.

Mgr. Meyer, 55, the youngest archbishop in the United States, would be one of at least four Americans likely to be considered for the red hat of cardinalship if the predictions come true.

Although a 1911 speculation about a consistory in which Americans likely to be considered for the red hat of cardinalship if the predictions come true.

Decision rests solely with the Pope, and even his closest advisers were not likely to know in advance. But the source said there was a definite feeling that the consistory, which would be the third in the Pope's 19-year regime, may come sometime between December and February.

It is not held by then, the consensus of Vatican sources was that it would come not later than 1960.

THE POPE ANNOUNCED appointment of Mgr. Meyer as archbishop of the largest U. S. archdiocese Wednesday, four months almost to the day from the death of the previous Chicago archbishop, Samuel Cardinal Stritch.

Stritch's death in a Rome clinic May 27 reduced the numbers of the sacred college to 55 members, 15 below its rarely attained full complement of 70. It left only 2 American cardinals, Francis Spellman of New York, Edward Mooney of Detroit and James McIntyre of Los Angeles.

Although Mgr. Meyer's appointment as Chicago archbishop did not automatically imply a red hat, Chicago has had a cardinal, with a single wartime interval, ever since the late George Mundelein was raised to the sacred college in 1924.

Other American archbishops who have without canonical now but which have had one in recent years are Boston, Philadelphia and St. Louis. The archbishops of these cities, all of whom were likely to be at least considered for cardinalship, are Mgrs. Richard J. Cushing of Boston, John P. O'Hara and Joseph E. Ritter.

American homemakers can exhibit their culinary talents when they prepare this fascinating Italian Meat Ball Soup. Whether it's served for dinner or lunch, this specialty can be classified as a speedy modern dish for the hungry folk in your family.

Here is a chance to enjoy a continental specialty. It comes from the country of pizza and pasta and is called Italian Meat Ball Soup.

It's considered a meal in itself. However, you might serve a simple accompaniment such as cold meat sandwiches with this soup idea. The recipe is a natural for a Saturday night supper.

Whether or not you're of Italian origin, take time out to enjoy this "minestrone," which, by the way, means "soup" and is becoming generally accepted as the word "pizza" and "pasta."

As another incentive to try this recipe, you might be interested to know that ground beef is one of the main ingredients. This is just another way in which the homemaker is served by combining ground beef with other foods.

In addition to the meat balls, this Italian soup includes such seasoning as Worcestershire sauce, rosemary and one tomato. Condensed beef bouillon soup also plays an important role in the preparation. Another ingredient which might interest the average homemaker is the short cooking time involved.

In the old country, the homemaker didn't have the conveniences of canned foods or the helpful art of using beef bouillon in place of soup stock.

After the soup is prepared, look to the bowl for an interesting note. In this soup of the day, several different sizes and shapes are represented...dainty thin onion rings, hearty round meat balls and brightly colored red strips of tomato.

So here you have a so-called "everyday dish" glorified with Italian flavor. It's just that simple.

Ground Beef
In the last analysis, the homemaker will have to admit that there isn't another item the meat retailer has available that's as versatile as ground beef.

For this meat to serve you efficiently, these precautions must be heeded. If not freezing ground beef, never purchase it more than one to two days in advance of the time it's to be used. Keep it lightly covered in the coldest part of the refrigerator. If freezing ground beef, make sure it is wrapped in a moisture-vapor proof seal. Ground beef should not be frozen longer than 1 to 3 months. For ease in use, shape ground beef into patties before freezing. It will also help the meat to defrost faster. Ground meats should not be seasoned before freezing storage. The flavor of the seasonings may tend to become stronger during the freezing time.

100 Chicago Youths Fight On South Side
CHICAGO (AP)—More than 100 Negro and white students clashed in a street fight shortly after classes ended Wednesday at a South Side high school.

Three youths, two of them Negro, suffered minor injuries. They were treated at a hospital and released.

Additional policemen were rushed to quell the disturbance. In a mixed residential area, that attracted about 400 students, many from three neighboring high schools.

Police said knives, guns, chains, and broken bottles were used as weapons in the battle.

Capt. William Ryan, head of an area police detail, said five youths were questioned and released. He said the fracas near Lindbergh High School was believed to be an aftermath of a fight between two girls, one white, the other Negro.

Bankers Close Parley; Mutuals Ban Plan Beaten
CHICAGO (UPI)—The American Bankers Association wound up its 84th convention Wednesday with the adoption of a series of resolutions proposing ways of fighting inflation.

Among these were resolutions "to support policies that seek to avoid the unwise use of credit" and support of the Treasury's savings bond program.

While supporting the Treasury's bond program, the resolution said, it will also be necessary to fight forces of inflation that tend to destroy the value of our people's investment in their savings bonds.

The bankers were told by a government official that one way to increase confidence in the dollar was to make money "come from the bank" and more "costly to borrow."

In other convention activity, a move to expel the mutuals from the ABA was defeated in a secret ballot. The vote to expel fell considerably below the necessary 60 percent.

Says Little Rock Schools Face Loss Of Accreditation
BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—If Little Rock high schools are opened as private schools, they may lose their accreditation, says the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

This opinion was expressed Wednesday by Dr. Stephen R. Mies, chairman of the commission on secondary schools for the association. He is a professor in the University of Colorado school of education.

Dr. Mies said that proposed private schools converted from previously accredited public schools would have to apply for membership as new schools. The process of becoming accredited requires, appraisal and reporting more complete and more thorough than customarily required after a school attains membership, he said.

Dr. Mies said his opinion would apply equally to all school situations which might arise similar to those at Little Rock.

Studying Convicts Pose Problem To Commission

CHICAGO (AP)—The Illinois School Problems Commission has a new problem to solve. It is how to study the fourth quarter of this year will be the second quarter of 1959.

Vernon, Illinois, state superintendent of schools, asked the commission Wednesday to define the status of juvenile delinquents in State-File Penitentiary in Joliet.

Nichols said he wanted the definition because a number of State-File inmates are enrolled in television extension courses offered by Chicago Junior colleges. And under Illinois law, junior colleges can collect $800 yearly from the state for each enrolled pupil.

Hoosier Business Picture Bright

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—The Indiana University Bureau of Business Research predicted today that Indiana business during the fourth quarter of this year will be the second quarter of 1959.

The bureau cautioned that the forecast, perhaps could change the picture, but it said August production performance represented the strongest recovery since the war.

Indiana steel production led the August rise, with mills in the state operating at 72.8 per cent of capacity compared with the national rate of 61.4 per cent. Coal, limestone and electricity production also showed increases.

Soviets Return 6 Yank Victims Of Plane Crash
KARS, Turkey (AP)—The bodies of six U.S. airmen killed in a crash in Soviet Armenia, Sept. 1, were back in American hands. The Soviets surrendered them at the Soviet-Turkish border Wednesday.

The fate of 11 other crewmen remained a mystery.

The full story of the final flight of the C-119 transport transport and the explosion and fire that destroyed it remained to be told.

The Soviets have protested that the transport, "spontaneously" violated the Soviet border. The U.S. State Department said Soviet violation of the air dead.

Negro May Escape Death Penalty Friday

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Jimmy Wilson, sentenced to die Oct. 24 for the robbery of an elderly white widow, Friday will meet Gov. James E. Folsom, who is reportedly ready to spare his life.

A clemency hearing for the illiterate handyman has been set in the governor's office.

Folsom has refused to say publicly what he might do, but sources close to the governor have said they expect him to commute Wilson's death sentence to life imprisonment.

Wilson, who had served two previous prison terms for grand larceny, was sentenced to death for the robbery of 82-year-old Mrs. Estelle Barker at her home at Marietta, Ala. Barker testified that before she was killed, the 31-year-old Negro choked her and attempted to rape her.

Wilson wasn't charged with attempted rape, which carries a maximum penalty of 20 years imprisonment. He was indicted for robbery and kidnapping, both capital offenses and was tried only on the first charge.

The Alabama Supreme Court has upheld Wilson's death sentence and recently refused to reconsider the case.

Says Little Rock Schools Face Loss Of Accreditation

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—If Little Rock high schools are opened as private schools, they may lose their accreditation, says the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

This opinion was expressed Wednesday by Dr. Stephen R. Mies, chairman of the commission on secondary schools for the association. He is a professor in the University of Colorado school of education.

Dr. Mies said that proposed private schools converted from previously accredited public schools would have to apply for membership as new schools. The process of becoming accredited requires, appraisal and reporting more complete and more thorough than customarily required after a school attains membership, he said.

Dr. Mies said his opinion would apply equally to all school situations which might arise similar to those at Little Rock.

Illinoisian Drowns

LAC DU FLAMBEAU, Wis. (UPI)—William Hibel Jr., 48, Evanston, Ill., apparently drowned when he tried to escape from a flaming motorboat. Authorities said Hibel had been fishing Tuesday night on Lake Michigan when the boat was accidentally touched off by a lighted match. Hibel's body has not yet been recovered from the 50-degree waters of Lake Michigan.

Hibel had jumped the plane near this provincial capital, 20 miles inside Turkey, and forced it across the border, though it did not accuse them of shooting it down. There was no immediate identification of the six dead.

Chocolate Banana Malted
CHOCOLATE BANANA MALTED

Ingredients: 3 small or medium-sized fully ripe bananas, 3 tablespoons instant chocolate-flavored sweetened malted milk powder, 3 cups homogenized milk, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Method: Bananas should be speckled with brown and not green at the tip. Peel bananas and mash fine with a fork. Add malted milk powder, milk and vanilla; beat well with rotary beater (hand or electric).

Mash 4 medium-sized servings. Most small fry do not like very cold drinks so serve this as is; for oldersters pour each serving over an ice cube.

Notes: If you have an electric blender make this drink in two batches, adding half of all the ingredients at one time. Run blender until mixture is smooth each time.

Bargains Seen At Food Store Meal Counters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Does your pocketbook have that lean and hungry look?
If so, you'll be glad to learn that many of the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores will feature chuck roast — the housewife's budget standby — this weekend. Some are backing it up with offerings of other low priced cuts such as rump roast, plate boiling beef and smoked beef tongue.

This week's emphasis on bargain beef is expected to be only temporary, however, as government expense look for ample amounts of high-grade beef this fall but lessened supplies of the lower grades. Although the 1968 total is expected to run about 5 percent less than 1957, October supplies will be seasonally large. Large markings of fed cattle will combine with shipments of grass-fed animals.

FRYERS AND PORK joins, two more items that lean more toward economy than luxury, also are due to drop in price in some places. Smoked hams and roasters are featured in fish-eating areas.

Egg prices are down 2 to 9 cents a dozen over wide areas; although some higher prices are reported, too. Small eggs are the best buy at this time of year because of heavy production as young hens start to produce.

The outlook for early fall vegetables is for considerable increases over last year in cabbage and carrots, with smaller increases for tomatoes and cauliflower. Lettuce, celery, cucumbers and snap beans will be down, on the other hand.

For this week best bets are beefs, cabbage, celery, sweet corn, onions, potatoes, peppers and the Romans and big Boston varieties of lettuce.

East Coast Alerted For Hurricane Helene FIRE MOON INTO SPACE

Expect Storm To Hit North Of Charleston

High Tides Forecast From Georgia To North Carolina

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Weather Bureau ordered up hurricane warnings today from Cape Fear, North Carolina, to Savannah, Georgia.

The bureau said hurricane Helene was centered 200 miles south-east of Charleston, S.C., at 11 a.m., CDT.

It was still moving northwestward at 14 miles an hour.

"Safety precautions should be started immediately and completed by sunset," the emergency warning from the bureau said.

"Storm tides and high seas will flood coastal lands from Beaufort to Wilmington, N.C., and particularly from Charleston to Cape Fear, to heights of 4 to 6 feet above levels reached by normal tides for this date."

"In some local areas tides may be even higher."

THE BUREAU SAID also: "Destructive winds and dangerous high tides should begin by early this evening and are expected at the latest by 10 p.m. With maximum winds 75 to 100 miles per hour, the center of the hurricane beginning around or shortly after midnight."

"Present indications are that the hurricane center will reach the South Carolina Coast near or a short distance north of Charleston."

"People within the reach of the forecast tides and sea floods should evacuate immediately before rising water cuts off escape."

The bureau said no important intensification of the storm's violence was expected.

The storm was reported centered about 200 miles east of Brunswick, Ga., at 11 a.m. Leading edges of the gale winds at the forward fringe were estimated at 110 miles southeast of the South Carolina coast.

Raising The Roof

The quickest way to raise the roof is to lift it off in one piece. A large crane owned by Azaroff Construction Co. was used this way today near the corner of Schuyler Ave. and Station St. where a former auto repair building is being torn down to make room for an Aldens store parking lot. This is a part of a renovation project for a section along S. Schuyler avenue in the downtown business district. (Journal photo)
