Police Warn Of New Stop Signs

Kankakee Police Chief Wallace Flannery reminded local motorists that stop signs have recently been placed to make portions of two streets "through" thoroughfares.

Most intersecting avenues are now stop signs for Eagle street in the Riverview area and Chestnut street, which parallels Court street two blocks north.

Many drivers are not yet in the habit of obeying these new stop signs, and serious accidents tonight resulted, the chief pointed out.

He said that officers will begin enforcing the stop signs and issuing tickets to violators.

Delivery Is The Big Problem

Terrific, That's Dealers' Report On Public Response To New Cars

Public response in the Kankakee area to the 1959 model cars that have been introduced is, to put it in the word of the dealers, "terrific." But, lament many dealers, "We have no cars to sell, or else so few that they are soon gone." Strikes by the UAW, factory shut-downs and slow-downs have prevented many actual sales by dealers because they have just a few demonstrators.

However, auto men are sure that once the new models come in large enough numbers sales will be quick and fast. They say that new styles and buyers' confidence in the economy and their ability to pay for a new car looks, at this early date, like 1959 could be a record year for car sales.

THE SAME ATTITUDE is reflected in used car sales, according to several such dealers in Kankakee. As one dealer puts it, "People want a good used car no matter if it does cost a few hundred dollars more. They won't buy what we call a 'dog.' Good used cars are in short supply now, and will be until late model cars are traded for new ones, they say.

Because of the shortage in new cars local auto financing firms say they have had only a dribble of new car contracts. However, one concern said its car contracts for the past 10 days were 60 per cent above the same 10-day period in the previous three months.

A few dealers who had a small stock say they are all sold and delivered except for demonstrators. Further individual deliveries need to wait until dealer stocks are replenished.

Film Strip Tells Story Of Chest

Hundreds of employees in Kankakee area business and industry have already seen the eight-minute film strip, "Count Your Blessings," produced by the Community Chest.

But Dr. Anthony Marinaccio, general campaign chairman, is urging firms where the film has not yet been used to make arrangements for its showing to employees.

The Community Chest office will make arrangements to show the film almost anytime of the day or night.

The film depicts scenes of the services offered to Kankakee area residents by the 14 Community Chest agencies.

Dr. Marinaccio says the film strip has proved to be one of the most effective tools in promoting the "fair share" concept of giving.

Finds Foster Mother In Peotone

Finding a home probably is the goal of most stray kittens. And in the majority of cases, they prefer the abode of a human and the companionship afforded. But that's not the case with a once lonely kitten (above and left) who has found a foster mother, "Cindy," canine pet of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Peotone. The kitten, whom Cindy has not named as yet, has no desire to reside in the Anderson home, preferring to share the dog house and meals in the back yard. Cindy adopted the kitten after it strayed into the yard several weeks ago. Together almost constantly, they romp and play. There seldom is an angry word. (Journal photo)

Anyone trying to balk Kankakee area merchants runs the risk of having his description relayed to 100 stores in about 11 minutes.

The new Chamber of Commerce telephone warning system was tried Tuesday and stores at the end of the chain phoning system reported they were contacted within 11 minutes.

The system will be useful in reporting on the description of shoplifters or someone running a confidence game. It can also be used to alert stores of known bad check artists, although in many cases a merchant would not know a check was bad until it came back from the bank.

Scholarship Tests For Nursing School Announced

Applique tests for nursing school scholarships will be given this month and next. The Women's Auxiliary to the Kankakee County Medical Society will award four more scholarships to qualifying girls.

The tests will be administered Oct. 28, Nov. 5 and Nov. 19 at St. Mary's School of Nursing; Nov. 4 at Holy Family Academy, Beaverville; Nov. 10 at St. Patrick's Academy, Mokena; Nov. 17 at Our Lady Academy, Manteno; and Nov. 8 at St. Mary Magdalene School, Joliet; all from 12:30 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. J. C. Burnett, auxiliary recruitment chairman, said the tests are being given senior girls now to give them an opportunity to make up any required courses not included in their present curriculum.

Awards presentations will be made at the respective schools' annual awards days.

Mrs. Burnett said the auxiliary is sponsoring the scholarships in anticipation of the increased need for nurses when the hospital's addition is opened.

Join The Team For Safety

Traffic safety is everybody's job. That statement is so elementary that it is almost trite.

Yet, the accident statistics would indicate that a lot of people are giving that thought lip service only.

Certainly in Kankakee County considerable more attention must be given the problem. Otherwise this county will soon chalk up a new record for traffic fatalities.

As of now 34 persons have lost their lives this year in accidents on highways or at railroad crossings in the county. It is possible that in the 11 weeks remaining this year we might attain the 1955 all time high of 36 deaths.

Possibly the worst season for traffic accidents is just ahead. The toll is generally higher when snow or ice covers the pavements.

Check your auto's equipment now—the brakes, the tires, windshield wipers, defrosters. Brush up on your driving habits. Remember that it takes three to 12 times as far to stop on snow or ice as it does on dry pavement.

Remember that snow or ice means slower driving. Take those corners slower. Be prepared, learn to steer your car in the direction of a skid, in order to avoid a full spin ending in possible disaster.

Traffic safety is team work. It requires all of the efforts of law enforcement officers, highway engineers—and you, the individual driver.

No highway can be so engineered that dangerous haste can't get you killed, no police force can be everywhere to prevent accidents from happening. We'll depend the traffic toll only when the individual driver joins the team.

Blunder Of Historical Caliber

In connection with the firing of the moon rocket, the Air Force has admitted a blunder which some quarters have termed "historic."

About 90 minutes after launching, the press was informed proudly that the lunar probe rocket was "the first man-made object to escape the earth's gravitational field."

It wasn't. Furthermore, it was never intended to do such a thing. Without going into the mathematics, it was going too slowly.

Now most people will have to read the above words slowly to understand the mistake. And many won't understand it.

Yet, it was an untruth—a blunder though it may have been—called "historic."

This was a mere misunderstanding, somewhere, of some rudimentary science.

But what is going to happen in the future when (1) scientists in government are talking in really tough mathematical equations, (2) being interpreted by the writers who need translators at their elbow, and (3) being read by a public which we know can't be all graduates of engineering colleges?

Party Lines Test Character

Everyone will sympathize with the young father in New Jersey who could not use his party-line telephone to summon aid for his dying son because other subscribers would not "get off the line."

Such incidents are happily rare, though there are still party line subscribers who believe their long-winded trivialities are more important than other people's emergencies.

The number of rural party lines decreases every year. Automatic phones gather them into exchanges. Twenty and more years ago people's ears were more frequently attuned to their own signals ("three short rings and a long—that's us!") and, it must be admitted, to all their neighbors too.

Rural party lines, where they still exist, are tests of neighborly sentiment and unselfishness. That young father in New Jersey was unlucky in his neighbors.

Memories Of South American Trip

NEW YORK (AP)—Snapshot memories from a South American visit.

In Argentina nobody seems to care so much what a tourist thinks of the country's politics. The big question is: "How do you like our beef?"

Most Americans, accustomed to meat aged longer, find the steaks juicy but a bit on the tough side. But Buenos Aires is paradise to a real meat eater with good molars.

The steers are more outgoing than those in the United States. The steak portions come in big chunks.

And the price is about a third of what it would be back home. For $2 you can get a complete dinner consisting of a huge steak, potato, salad, wine, dessert and coffee.

often described as the Chicago of South America, a guide claimed proudly: "We are building a new home here every 12 minutes."

The office building skyline in the heart of the city seems to be growing as rapidly as resurgent Manhattan.

A STROLLING AMERICAN in Brazil or Argentina runs into little obvious "Yankee-go-home" kind of antagonism. The people are courteous and polite to the stranger and helpful in small emergencies.

"The kind of foreigners they tend to dislike are those who come here, live entirely in their own groups, and after 20 years in the country still haven't taken the trouble to learn the language," one U.S. citizen stationed in South America said.

Confusion Wins Tourney

Walter Wolff of San Antonio writes, "Here is one for your department of utter confusion."

"My opening spade bid was due to the fact that I was playing in an individual tournament and wanted to bid the major suit first. My partner's four no-trump response was a typical individual bid and the fact that I showed just one ace did not discourage him in the slightest."

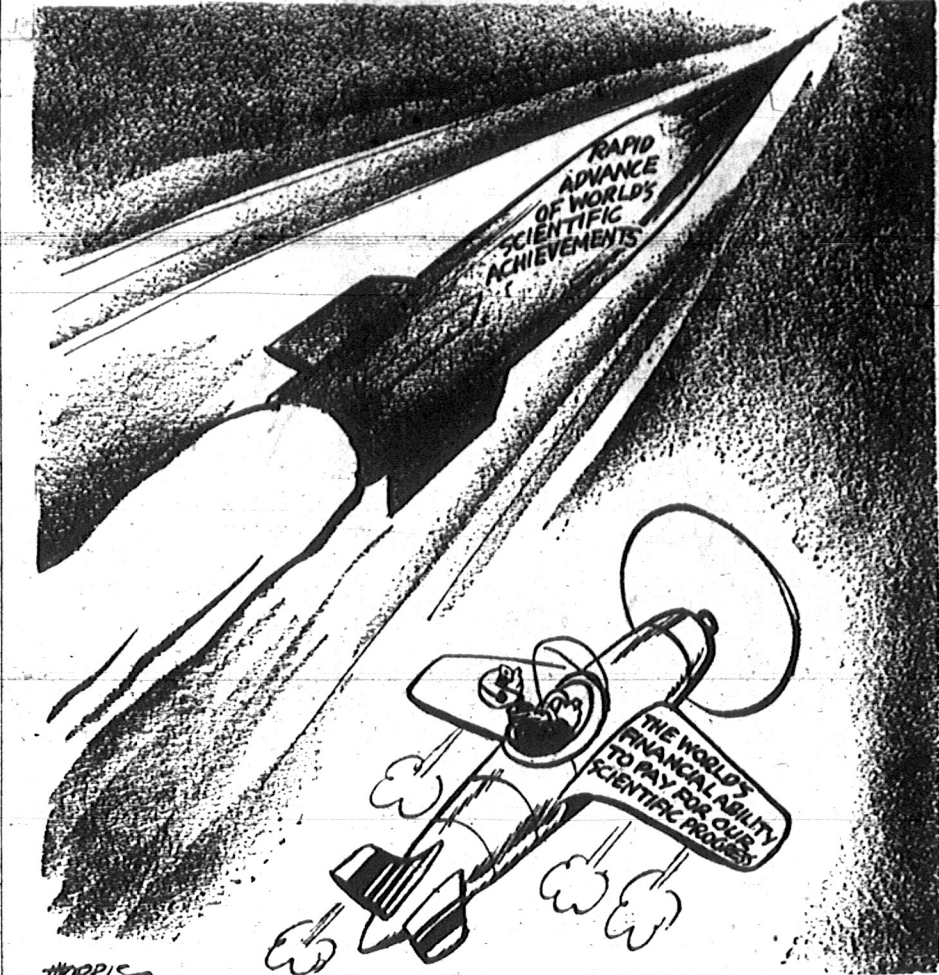

"As he explained later, he was a great believer in the law of symmetry and since he was void of one suit, he was sure that I was void of another. Of course, I can't be sure that he simply miscounted our aces by one, but that is neither here nor there."

"Fast doublet. He had two aces and sort of felt that we had our signals crossed. Fortunately for us, his partner also held an ace, and it happened to be the ace of clubs. He smiled happily and laid it down. I ruffed in dummy, drew trumps, discarded his one diamond on my king of clubs and conceded a heart trick."

"P. S. I won the Individual. Do I deserve congratulations?"

Economic Upturn Helps Republicans

WASHINGTON—Reports that the Democratic party leaders are beginning to revise downward their previous estimates of a "landslide" victory in the coming congressional elections are unwittingly a stimulus to the Republican party's workers.

For until recently the tendency privately among Republicans was to predict defeat. Before President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon started to do some campaigning, defeat was rampant among the Republicans.

What has prompted the Record Refutes Rumors

WASHINGTON (NEA)—With a White House endorsement in his pocket for a "give-the-Democrats-hell" campaign, Vice President Nixon can still be labeled a 100 per cent pro-Eisenhower Republican.

Suspicious that Mr. Nixon might be steering a more independent course—farther to the right than the President's—have been cropping up from time to time.

Nixon's speech at the Harvard School of Business Administration may have started it. Here he advocated cuts on upper bracket income tax rates and imposition of a m. a. n. u. f. a. c. t. u. r. e. r. s. sales tax. Both are sacred principles with big business groups.

Organized labor, publications promptly jumped the V. P. for supporting such reactionary ideas.

NIXON INITIAL campaign speech at Indianapolis first raised the theme that election of "a radical ADA" (Americans for Democratic Action) Congress would mean a flood of bills aimed at "nationalization of health, housing, power, farming, and other American institutions" and the substitution of "government enterprise" and "helpful in small emergencies."

"The kind of foreigners they tend to dislike are those who come here, live entirely in their own groups, and after 20 years in the country still haven't taken the trouble to learn the language," one U.S. citizen stationed in South America said.

A Deadly Disease

T. Coleman Andrews used to collect the income tax and got disgruntled doing it; he thereupon resigned and has devoted himself to proving that it is a bad tax. That he is correct in his premise is obvious from the harm that the tax has done to the country, particularly in wiping out the economic independence of the white collar elements, in reducing the middle class to a proletariat, and in opening the doors to a money racketeering which is infinitely worse than bootlegging, although it is hard to make a distinction in degree between one crime and another. The tax evader is a thief even if he saves his conscience by calling himself a tax evader.

Money racketeering is not done by gangsters or little people. It is strictly a preoccupation of the men who have money in large amounts and who get it out of this country to another where it can be converted into property other than currency without paying taxes.

THE DEMORALIZATION OF A people starts with uniform lying. There is a constant contest between the government and its citizens as to how much a citizen should handle this particular tax, the people using the word, avoidance; the government referring to it as evasion, and trying to put unpalatable offenders, such as Gov. Orval Faubus in jail for alleged infractions.

What T. Coleman Andrews is trying to tell Americans is that the federal government since 1939 has taken the American people for nearly 28 times more income tax and for 10 times more social security tax.

"The cost of living has been more than doubled and is still going up . . . and the value of the dollar has been reduced to well below 50 cents and is still going down! . . ."

Now this is not just hearsay. This is a statement by a trained accountant who had actually been the collector of internal revenue and who knows what it is about. He has issued a circular to say that inflation is here now and that the peril is upon us. Coleman gives several examples, I shall quote two from him:

"For example, it took $4,800 to provide the same amount of buying power after taxes ($1,875) as $2,000 provided in 1939. Why? Because the income tax on the increase of $2,800 was $750 and $2,050 was required to make up for the toll taken by inflation."

"THUS, IF, IN 1957, YOU received $1,000 salary from a job that paid $2,000 in 1939, your 1957 salary was $800 short of what you needed in order to have as much buying power as the 1939 holder had."

"Or, to take a case where the salary paid in 1939 for the job you held in 1957, or one similar to it . . . let's suppose that the 1939 salary was $2,500. That's halfway between $2,000 and $3,000. A conservative approximation of the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 income of $2,500 can be obtained by adding the 1937 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $2,000 to the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $3,000 and dividing the total by two. That would be $4,800 plus $7,375, making a total of $12,175, which, divided by two would give $6,088."

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

SO WHAT THE GOVERNMENT DOES is to issue more bonds which is money and thus the currency is inflated as surely as when the old kings clipped silver off the edge of coins. Inflation is a deadly disease. It is one of the principal causes of the present stock market rise, the speculators hedging against inflation which cannot be done except by purchasing productive land, art objects and diamonds. If it is true that the Russians have found a diamond field of merit, then this gem is not a hedge against inflation because its great value is due to its comparative scarcity which is the result of monopolistic practices by an international cartel that controls prices. Should any country find a top notch diamond field and decide to dump the commodity on the open market, prices would go tumbling. The peril of inflation is so great that a government would take steps against it, but they are always unpopular steps, because they interfere with spending. And what politician wants to be unpopular?

How GNP Is Figured

NEW YORK (AP)—The Kingpin of all the measures of good times or bad in the United States is the gross national product. It is widely accepted by businessmen and economists as giving the best picture of the economy at the moment.

But some economists have challenged its accuracy and doubt if it gives a complete picture of where we stand. And, probably, many Americans have only a vague notion of what it is or how it is compiled.

THE SHORT definition for GNP usually used is: The dollar value of all goods and services produced in the nation.

The Department's figures are based on the figures of the previous three months period. It is added onto GNP. If they are falling as they have been for some time the change from the last period is added onto GNP. If they are rising as they were a year ago the change from the previous three months period is subtracted from GNP. If they are falling as they have been for some time the change from the last period is added onto GNP. If they are rising as they were a year ago the change from the previous three months period is subtracted from GNP.

THE GNP is made up of the best statistics and estimates available to the Commerce Department. The first announcements often come to be revised as later figures come in. The idea seems to be to reflect a rise in prices quite as much as any gain in business activity.

Finally it looks at government purchases. Here the figures are not so easily come by. And over the past year they have been rising.

The latest figures show federal spending on goods and services running at $3 billion dollars a year, and state and local spending running at $4 billion. With the federal budget approaching the $6 billion dollar a year level, it is obvious that not all outgo adds to gross national product.

The value of GNP is that it gives estimates of three things: The value produced, the incomes earned, and the spending done.

Critics say it leaves out of account some other kind of economic activity. And they list the exchange of used cars, houses, land, or of stocks, bonds, mortgages and other credit instruments.

They also stress the distortions caused by changing prices when GNP is used as a guide for where the economy is and where it's headed.

What are the components of GNP? First and biggest are personal consumption expenditures, which at present are reported to be running at an annual rate of 22 billion dollars. This is an estimate of what people are spending for durable goods like auto- and household appliances, what they are spending for non-durable goods like clothing and food, and what they are spending for services like electricity and rent and medical care.

The next item is gross private domestic investment. This includes spending on construction of nonfarm homes or apartment houses and the cost of all other kinds of building. What business is investing in durable equipment.

THE WHOLE ISSUE is that it is a choice between living under the murderous rule of the Red Chinese, with the reprisals they would certainly impose, or accepting exile from their homes.

Oddly enough, those who advocate such a course are not insisting that the enslaved people on the mainland be given a choice by plebiscite or otherwise, to choose whether they want the Communist regime or some other leaders to rule them. The idea seems to be to sacrifice the people living in freedom on the offshore islands.

Think twice before urging a friend in your home town to look up another friend of yours who lives in another city on a visit. Just because they are both friends of yours doesn't mean they will have anything in common.

Your insistence on two friends getting together may prove to be a burden on both.

A 71-YEAR-OLD WOMAN PASSENGER in this car was injured today when it jammed under the side of a semi-trailer truck near Kankakee on Route 54. The driver was not hurt. The truck driver was cited for failure to yield the right of way. Total damage was estimated at $1,100. (Journal photo)

Woman Hurt As Car Runs Under Truck

Georgia Russell, 74, Meridian, Miss., was treated for head injuries at St. Mary's Hospital after the car in which she was riding ran under the side of a semi-trailer truck near Kankakee on Route 54. The driver of the truck, Valentine Zurawski, 37, Chicago, was given a ticket for failure to yield the right of way.

The accident happened about 7:35 a.m. some four miles north of Kankakee on Route 54. Trooper William James reported that Zurawski, headed south, pulled out of a service station driveway into the inner lane of the four-lane highway, then swung back to the right to turn into a side road.

Observers anticipated that at the most the meetings would produce a better understanding, and a joint declaration of continued cooperation. Robertson denied that the off-shore islands were being held by the Nationalists as a base for future invasion of the mainland.

"There isn't anyone above the intelligence of a military man who thinks for one moment these islands are a base for an attack on the mainland," he declared. "The forces are there in strength (about 100,000 men) not for an offensive but for defensive purposes."

Until the Reds ended the cease-fire, Dallas reportedly had hoped to get Chiang to withdraw a large number of men as evidence he did not plan to use the islands as the jumping-off point for an invasion. Dallas had hoped this would induce the Communists to make their cease-fire permanent.

Principal's Role Discussed By Association Panel

Responsibility for carrying out the policies of the schools is one phase of the elementary school principal's role, according to a panel of superintendents.

The panel discussion was held at the first meeting of the Kankakee County Elementary Principals' Association Monday night. Panelists were: Super. George Main of Bradley, T. H. Bartholomew of Mokena, Lee Atwater of Reddick and Melvin Smith of Grant Park.

Other responsibilities of the elementary school principal must assume, the panel brought out, are to create friendliness among the personnel, to strive for improvement in instruction, to counsel teachers, pupils and parents, to help new teachers and to keep the superintendent informed on all matters he should know about.

Principal Robert Drew of Steuben School, president of the county association, presided at the session at which the constitution was read. Copies will be distributed to members at the January meeting. A third meeting is planned in April.

U.S. May Send Up Aluminum Foil Plastic Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP) — An inflated balloon of aluminum foil and plastic film may be the next United States satellite to go into orbit around the earth.

Such a sphere is to be included in the next Army satellite firing attempt, expected in the near future at Cape Canaveral, Fla. It is to be sent aloft in a modified Jupiter-C rocket and inflated automatically with nitrogen hundreds of miles above the earth.

Cromwell Trial At Watseka Continued To Dec. 8

WATSEKA (ONS) — The case of Leo J. Cromwell, 38, Gilman, charged with murdering his wife, has been continued until Dec. 8 by Judge C. D. Henry of Kankakee.

Judge Henry is hearing the case after Judge David Oram disqualifies himself. Judge Oram was acting as Cromwell's attorney before Oram was elected circuit judge. The continuance was granted after motions by State's Attorney Robert Dannel and by Cromwell's lawyer.

Cromwell is accused of the murder of his wife, Hazel, 38. She died of two fatal gunshot wounds in their home at Gilman May 10. Cromwell also shot himself in the chest and was in critical condition at Iroquois County Hospital for a time.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Orrison Funeral Home, Herscher and in the Lutheran Church at 2 p.m. for Mrs. Anna Mai, 79, who died Saturday. The Rev. R. J. Sauer officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were: William O'Connor, Clarence Mau, Fred A. Mau, Donald Mau, George Johnson and Arthur Berchenfield.

HAPPY WITH HER purchase, a woman walks away from an auction with a ceramic crock. She may or may not have a use for it. But it's certain to become a conversation piece.

ONE GOOD THING ABOUT household auctions is there's usually ample room to sit down and rest. And some of the over-stuffed chairs are so comfortable that it's mighty hard to get out when the auctioneer comes around to sell it.

CURIOSITY DRIVES MOST people to an auction and these two women are exercising their privilege. They are looking over a book.

LOOKING FOR A RARE book, dictionary or current fiction. This woman scans the titles of books to be auctioned before they were put on the block.

ALL EYES ARE ON THE auctioneer as the end of the bidding nears. How much will it sell for and who will buy it are the questions uppermost in the people's minds. Most people who attend auctions want to successfully bid on something to take home as a memento.

Going, Going, GONE!

There's Something About An Auction

An outdoor auction seems to have a certain magnetism especially in the fall when people want to get out in the fresh air but to don't have any place special to go. What draws hundreds of people to an auction? It's the hope of realizing an unheard-of bargain, of buying a $50,000 painting for $150. And it's entertainment. A great many people attending the auction want to buy something. Just a memento of the sale. The "something" goes into the new home and often becomes a conversation piece.

Many just go to be entertained, to watch the auctioneer and renew acquaintances with old friends. The photos on this page were taken during the Mrs. C. E. Goussier estate sale. But they could have been taken at any outdoor auction at almost any time.

They say an auction is our oldest method of bargaining. The women must be the best bargainers, for they seem to purchase most of the items at household auctions. Above two women march away with a lawn chair they just purchased.

ALMOST EVERYONE WHO passed this refrigerator opened it up to take a look inside. There was, of course, nothing in it. But maybe they were just envisioning how much frozen food the freezer locker would hold.

Patrolman, Who Killed 4, Dies

NEW YORK (UPI) — The mystery of why four men were killed in a Broadway bar early Sunday disappeared today because of the death of the man who pulled the trigger—Patrolman James B. McDermott. The 34-year-old officer, father of four children, was gunned down by fellow policemen after his unexplained shooting spree. With five bullets in his body, McDermott clung to life until late Tuesday. He died in Roosevelt Hospital without revealing any motive, police said.

76 Million Eligible To Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Official and unofficial estimates today placed the nation's eligible voters for the Nov. 4 elections at 76,145,000. This is a record for a midterm election. Despite scattered reports of voter apathy, the same sources estimated the probable total vote in the 48 states at 48,111,276, including the 24,428 already officially recorded for Senate candidates in Maine Sept. 8. This also would be the highest for any non-presidential year. THE ASSOCIATED PRESS tabulation is based on estimates gathered from state officials, party chairman and in a few instances from veteran political writers. It showed a gain of 1,266,454

Top Findings Of IGY To Date

Radiation May Make Man Earth-Bound

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Despite all the recent forecasts of space travel, man may yet wind up as a prisoner in a simple but pleasant jail called earth.

Such a possibility arises from a study of what scientific experts rate as the 10 most significant findings during the first 12 months of the International Geophysical Year.

But if man does end up earth-bound, the IGY findings indicate he'll be able to live comfortably with complete mastery of the globe's mineral and food resources and with a fundamental knowledge of his weather and atmospheric environment.

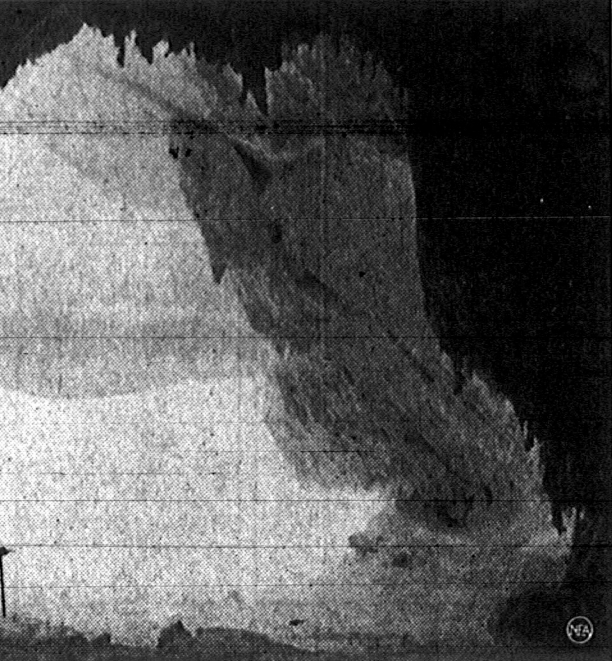

The IGY program actually extends over 18 months, but preliminary results from the first year—ending July 1, 1958—have become available just recently. Some 10,000 scientists from 68 nations are taking part in this unique, cooperative effort to advance man's knowledge of his home planet and the space that surrounds it.

There is almost unanimous agreement among IGY experts that the discovery of a band of deadly radiation around the earth, starting at an altitude of about 600 miles, is the most startling finding thus far. The band was discovered by Soviet and U. S. earth satellites.

On a possible solution to this obstacle, was offered recently by Prof. Fred Singer of the University of Maryland. At the International Astronautical Congress in Amsterdam, Singer presented a paper proposing that this radiation belt might be cleared out of space by "sweeper satellites" that would soak up and neutralize the radiation.

Five of the other top 10 IGY findings tend to put the earth within a more simple system of scientific theory than was previously thought likely.

For example, it has been discovered through cooperative IGY observations that auroral displays—sometimes called northern lights—appear simultaneously at the north and south polar regions. This indicates that these displays are bent by the earth's magnetic field to travel safely from earth to other planets or to the moon.

Some scientists have held that when lightning strikes the earth it produces a phenomenon called the "fading white" radio signal on the opposite side of the earth. IGY scientists have proved this by simulating lightning bolts and tuning in on the whistle on the other side of the earth.

This fits logically into the general electro-magnetic theory of the earth being within the gaseous "corona" of the sun. Other satellite data also confirms this.

mate knowledge of his environment on earth. For example, it has been discovered that there is about 40 per cent more ice on the globe than previously estimated. And it has been learned that the coldest area of the Antarctic is not the pole itself. It's a region about 400 miles from the pole in the direction of Australia.

This information will have great impact on weather studies and weather predicting.

Investigations for the IGY by the Scripps Institution of Oceanography have revealed the existence of rich concentrations of manganese, copper, cobalt and nickel on part of the floor of the Pacific. This discovery could mean the existence of significant new metal reserves on the earth.

A final IGY finding among the top 10, although not the least in importance, is the presence of deep Gulf streams of warm water. These currents flow in an opposite direction to the streams above them.

This discovery could have a bearing on weather predicting, lead to a better understanding of the causes of the seasons and aid the fishing industry.

DAR Sees Film On Memorials

The Kankakee chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution saw a film on memorials and parks in Illinois at the Friday meeting.

The colored film was shown and narrated by Miss Vivian Rankin of the Illinois Department of Conservation.

During her talk, Miss Rankin said there are 70 state parks in Illinois, some are hunting and fishing areas while others have picnic and camping facilities. She explained that the greater part of their maintenance is derived from fishing and hunting licenses and entrance fees to some of the parks.

Speaking of the memorials Miss Rankin said that most of them are associated with the early history of Illinois and are becoming more and more interesting to our own citizens as well as tourists.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Fannie Still.

Hostess was Mrs. Reno A. Ahlvin of 1215 S. Poplar Ave.

Mrs. Delbert Sellers, regent, presided at the business meeting. Announcement was made of the fourth division regent's z.o.u.d. table to be held in Chicago Nov. 14. The program will be on national defense.

On Saturday afternoon, members of the local group introduced and escorted the past presidents of the unit.

Swallows Prepare To Leave Capistrano

SAN JUAN, CALIF. (AP)—For the 181st time in record, the swallows of Mission San Juan Capistrano are due to leave their summer home Thursday.

Legend has it that these North American swallows quit their nests in the mission Oct. 23, the day of St. Juan, and return March 15, St. Joseph's Day.

There may be variations either way, depending upon the weather and the leaders' inclinations. If

Memory Applesauce Cake

Each time my mother baked this cake our mouths watered—from the delightful aroma while baking, to the first bite.

Cream 1/2 cup butter and 1 cup sugar thoroughly, then blend in 1 well beaten egg and 1 1/2 cups of applesauce (this can be regular canned applesauce, if you wish, already sweetened). Sift 2 cups all-purpose sifted flour, dredging one cup raisins and 1/2 cup broken walnuts with a small amount of the sifted flour. Sift the remainder of the flour with 2 level teaspoons soda, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/4 teaspoon cloves. When well mixed stir in the flour, raisins and nuts and the remaining flour. Bake in buttered and floured baking pan 9 x 12 inches (or 10 x 10 inches square) in 350 F. oven for 48 to 45 minutes. For decorative effect, sift confectioners' sugar through a paper doily onto top of cake, or frost with Mocha Frosting when cooled.

Dear Sirs:

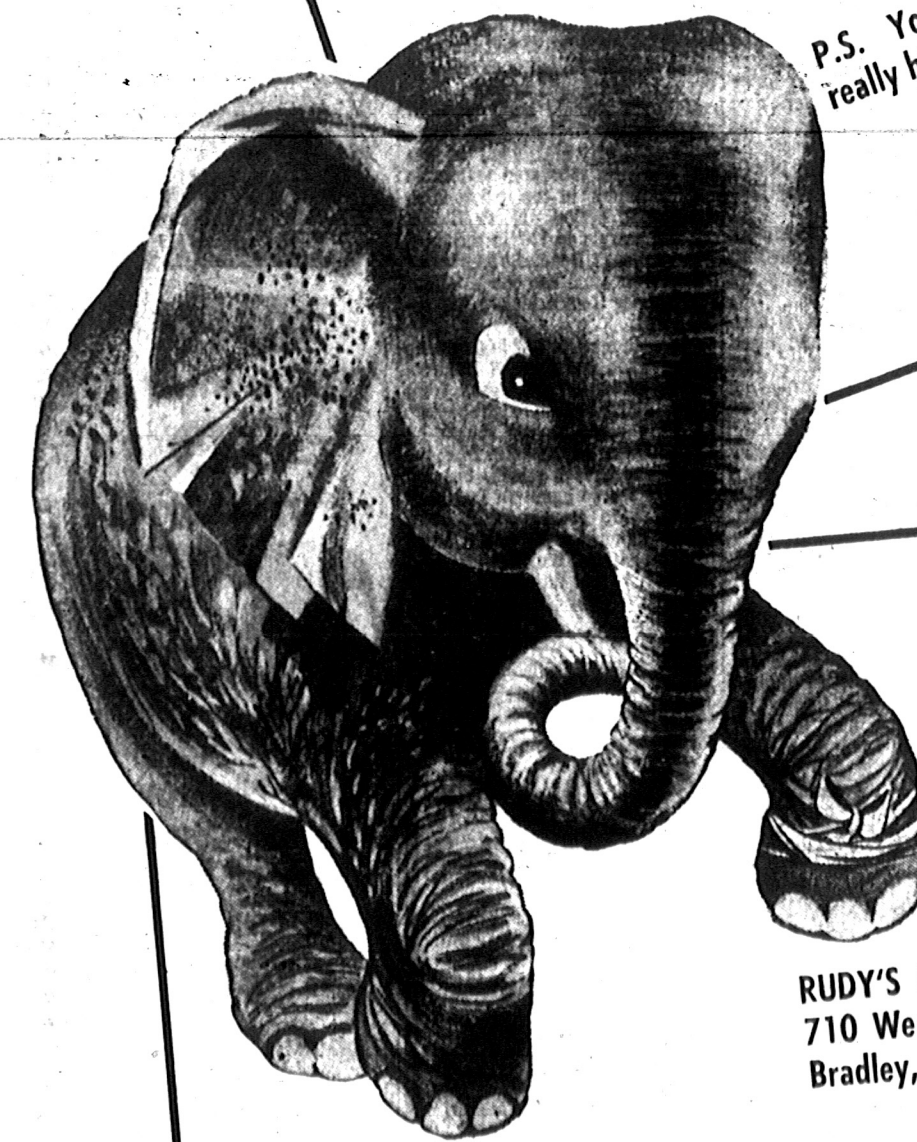

I'm not one for talking, but if I were I would shout your praises loud and clear in gratitude for the great service you have done me.

As you know, my neck is rather elongated and is a result of a "pain in my neck" is nothing to laugh about . . . up until the time I discovered your store I was constantly straining my neck looking for those week-end specials everyone always talks about. It was quite a chore figuring out which items were over-priced, and which were under-priced. Usually the under-priced items were very much in the minority, and so my search went on.

Now however, thanks to you the pain in my neck is no longer with me. Your everyday low prices have put my "looking around" days to an end.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ida Giraffe

P.S. Your fresh fruits and vegetables really hit the spot.

Gentlemen:

At one time my diet consisted of nothing but peanuts. The reason for this was quite simple. What with my ponderous bulk and all that, it was all I could do to fit into a store let alone shop down the narrow aisles.

You have changed all that. Your wide, well stocked aisles make it simple even for an elephant . . . and that selection you have, over 10,000 different items to choose from . . . everything from soup to . . . oops almost said nuts . . . no more nuts for me thanks to you.

P.S. You seem to handle everything but hay in your market.

I'll never forget you,
Mrs. Ella Funt

Gentlemen:

Ah'm a professional King, but this here king business ain't all that it's cracked up to be. Folks just don't have to respect for royalty anymore.

Ah was all set to hang up my crown and sceptre when someone told me about Rudy's and how all their customers are given the royal treatment.

The customer is always king at Rudy's they told me, so I figured I'd give you folks a try and turned if it ain't the truth.

Ah was never treated with so much respect in my life. Everyone was kind and courteous like they really appreciated my coming into the store.

The girls are always smiling so pleasantly, and them there clerk fellahs, why they just couldn't seem to do enough for me.

Yesiree, I guess royalty will never die as long as folks like you are in business.

Yours truly,
Leo

Decide Outcome Nov. 4 In 27 Contested Districts

Battle Looms For Control Of Illinois House

(This is another story in a series outlining issues in the Nov. 4 election.)

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A sharply drawn battle for control of the Illinois House will ride the outcome of 27 contested districts in the Nov. 4 election.

Voters will elect three members from each of the 59 districts but 45 Republicans and 51 Democrats already are assured of House seats because of no opposition in 32 districts.

House control requires 90 votes, the number necessary to pass most bills. Republicans, who held a 54-43 edge at the 1957 General Assembly, have lost the House since the 1955 session.

THIS TIME the fight swings on 14 contested districts plus 6 in Chicago and 7 in the surrounding area. In these districts, 41 Republicans and 28 Democrats are incumbents.

Among prominent members facing opposition are Charles W. Clabough (R-Champaign), former speaker Paul Powell (D-Vernon), William E. Pollock (D-Chicago), Republican whip, Frank Holten (D-East St. Louis), dean of the House, and Clyde Chouteau of Anna, Democratic whip.

Clabough, who squeaked through the April primary, is running with Dr. Edwin E. Dale, Champaign dentist, in a district that normally elects two Republicans. The Democratic candidates are Leo Pfeffer, secretary of the American League of Women Voters, and Dr. Seymour, an incumbent, and Glen W. Braden of Sullivan.

Two of the downstate districts causing concern to Republicans are the 39th and 55th where Democrats are making a strong effort to pick up seats.

Ralph Stephenson of Moline and Robert Austin of East Moline, both GOP incumbents, are opposed in the 39th by Rep. Paul Rink and a newcomer, Leonard W. Ross, of Rock Island.

In the 55th, Democrats are pushing Rep. Edwin R. Haag of Breese and Miles E. Mills of Elmhurst in an attempt to unseat Joseph B. Siemer of Teutopolis or Warren O. Balthart of New Baden.

ANOTHER CLOSE downstate race is expected in the 46th district where Democrats won two of the three seats in the 1956 election. Republican spokesmen say there is a good chance of reversing that result.

Two of the incumbents, Republican J. Norman Shade and Democrat George L. Saal, both of Pekin, are not seeking reelection.

A hot contest also is shaping up in the 47th district. Seeking new terms there are Barrett F. Rogers of Atlanta and George M. Grand, both of Decatur, both Republicans.

Democratic Robert W. McCarthy of Lincoln, the other candidate, is the son of the late McCarthy of Decatur, the Macomb county treasurer.

In Chicago, Democrats have set their sights on gaining one seat each in the 15th and 26th districts. Peter J. Miller is the GOP incumbent running in the 15th and George F. Statny occupies a similar position in the 26th.

Speaker Warren L. Wood (R)

MINN'S MATRESS

HAYWARD, Wis. (AP)—Bedding for mink is the byproduct of a local factory's manufacture of medical swab sticks. The Hayward Wood products Co. uses white flannel to make swab sticks and found it had a lot of shavings left over. These shavings are used to make mink bedding. The company has more orders for mink bedding than the shavings can produce. So it is planning to install another machine—just to turn out shavings.

Tot Asks Why It Took So Long After 3-Hour Rescue From Hole

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP)—A 2-year-old boy was pulled from the bottom of an 11-foot hole Wednesday after rescue workers labored three anxious hours.

Fifty men worked in shifts to scoop out a trench parallel to the hole to reach little Johnny Carmichael.

The child fell into the hole while walking with his father, E. C. Carmichael, about 100 yards from the hole. The hole, about 12 inches in diameter, was dug to hold a lightning arrester.

Johnny was unharmed.

Off-duty workers and volunteers hurried to the scene after hearing of the accident. A plastic hole was lowered to cover Johnny from a possible cave-in and oxygen was pumped into the hole.

AFTER RESCUE WORKERS had removed more than 16 yards of dirt from the six-foot-wide trench, Carmichael and J. W. Henderson reached Johnny. Henderson picked the boy up, wrapped a blanket around him and handed him to Dr. Charles A. Kelley.

Dr. Kelley transferred the boy to the arms of his mother, who had stood by with her daughter and other sons.

Johnny himself was indignant, demanding to know "why it took so long to get me out."

Not Guilty, Say 10 Indicted By Grand Jury

Ten defendants, indicted by the October term of the Kankakee County grand jury, plead not guilty in Circuit Court today.

Judge C. D. Henry continued the cases and instructed State's Attorney Frank Corbin to make a trial calendar.

Not guilty pleas were entered for:

- Harry Hol, 36, Aroma Park, under $11,000 bail for two indictments of manslaughter and reckless homicide and one of reckless driving.
- William W. Coleman, 41, 432 N. East Ave., confidence game; John Ray (17) and Clifford (19), all of Mokena, all for armed robbery; Cylester Jones, 21, RR 4, St. Anne, burglary; Harold Rogers, 43, 605 E. Merchant St., arson; John Carr, 23, 837 N. Hobble Ave., burglary.
- Donald Fields, 20, RR 3, Kankakee, five burglaries indictments; Ralph Exum, 18, 955 S. Indiana Ave., five indictments for burglary and two for larceny.

Saxton is under three indictments for crime against nature, for taking indecent liberties with a child.

Operation Saves Life Of German Boy Aided By GIs

BALTIMORE (AP)—A surgeon's skilled hands and two groups of U.S. soldiers 4,000 miles apart have given the gift of life to little Klaus Kaemmerer.

The 5-year-old German youngster underwent a three-hour "blue baby" operation Wednesday at Johns Hopkins Hospital. The hospital said the operation by Dr. Alfred Blalock was a success.

It was aimed at correcting a heart defect which prevented sufficient oxygen from reaching the little boy's lungs.

Eight planes on a rare Onagive blood were required and four of them came from soldiers at nearby Ft. Meade.

Some 500 American Army missionaries in Karlsruhe, Germany, doctored $2,500 for the operation and shipped it with townspeople to pay for the trip to Baltimore.

"My happy life is over," said Mrs. Sigrid Kaemmerer, 26, who flew here to be with her son. The boy's father, Wilhelm, 30, is a civilian dispatcher at the battalion's motor pool in Karlsruhe.

De Gaulle Invites Rebels To Quit War, Talk Peace

PARIS (AP)—Premier Charles de Gaulle today called for peace in Algeria and invited nationalists to rebels to attend military talks at the French embassies in Tunis and Algiers.

It was the first time he had proposed direct negotiations with Algerian nationalists who have been fighting French rule nearly four years.

The PREMIER pleaded with the rebels to "return without bloodshed to their families and their jobs."

He said they could lay down their arms by the usual military methods, through the use of white flags and contacts with command authorities, they could regulate an end of hostilities with the French army generally is booming and the French army is booming and the French army is booming.

"If representatives of the rebels were designated to regulate an end of hostilities with the French army generally is booming and the French army is booming and the French army is booming."

Food prices dropped three-tenths of one percent in September. Lower prices for fresh fruits and vegetables, pork, poultry and coffee more than offset higher prices for eggs, milk and bread. Coffee dropped 3.2 percent to its lowest level since July 1950.

The food price level is still 25 percent higher than a year ago and the overall living cost level is 21 percent above the year ago mark.

Tot Asks Why It Took So Long After 3-Hour Rescue From Hole

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP)—A 2-year-old boy was pulled from the bottom of an 11-foot hole Wednesday after rescue workers labored three anxious hours.

Fifty men worked in shifts to scoop out a trench parallel to the hole to reach little Johnny Carmichael.

The child fell into the hole while walking with his father, E. C. Carmichael, about 100 yards from the hole. The hole, about 12 inches in diameter, was dug to hold a lightning arrester.

Johnny was unharmed.

Off-duty workers and volunteers hurried to the scene after hearing of the accident. A plastic hole was lowered to cover Johnny from a possible cave-in and oxygen was pumped into the hole.

AFTER RESCUE WORKERS had removed more than 16 yards of dirt from the six-foot-wide trench, Carmichael and J. W. Henderson reached Johnny. Henderson picked the boy up, wrapped a blanket around him and handed him to Dr. Charles A. Kelley.

Dr. Kelley transferred the boy to the arms of his mother, who had stood by with her daughter and other sons.

Johnny himself was indignant, demanding to know "why it took so long to get me out."

State Commission Changes Liquor License Revocation

The Illinois Liquor Control Commission has modified a decision of George E. Luehrs, Kankakee County liquor commissioner, who ordered the revocation of a liquor license issued to Mrs. Lexsee Gibbs for a Pembroke Township tavern.

Instead, the commission ordered the license suspended for 30 days, starting today.

Loren B. Sackett, commission chairman, said he considered the suspension a "severe penalty."
