LOCAL POLICE SOLVE CRIMES PUZZLING CITY

Fugitive From Chain
Gang Confesses
Thefts.

STORES, HOMES

Solution of a dozen or more cases of burglary and petty larceny was reached by police today following arrest by Detective Daniel Bergan of Charles Bond, 22, Atlanta, Ga., fugitive from a chain gang.

Bond, who says he was in Kankakee during the summer and was in and out of the city during the fall, turned up in the room this morning. Acting on a hunch, Detective Bergan pried him with questions about his activities and Bond confessed to one after another of the local crimes.

Valuable Tools
Most important from a monetary value were the thefts of electric drills and valuable tools from the Key City Chevrolet Sales, Inc., and Jaffe Motor company the night of Dec. 9. Bond admitted both these jobs and said he disposed of the tools for about $5 to two "fences" whom he named.

Acting on this information, Chief of Police L. B. Rogers and Detective Bergan arrested Ed Stuck of Hobble Heights yesterday afternoon on charges of receiving stolen property. Stuck was held out late last night; hearings have not been set. Police indicated other arrests would probably follow.

Entered Homes
So far, Bond has also confessed to taking eight blankets from the back porch of Mrs. Winfield B. Bond, 794 South Main street; breaking into the Werts Lumber company office and ransacking the place during the summer; attempting to enter the home of Bert Fitzgerald, 838 South Wildwood avenue and being frightened away by the latter; and entering an unidentified house in the Big Four neighborhood and escaping out the basement when a woman came home; and stealing mail things and money from the Riverside district at various times.

He also admitted serving six years in a reform school at Millersville, Ga., from which he was paroled last June. He also says he is wanted at Eastman, Ga., to finish out two months of a 90-day sentence to a chain gang for vagrancy.

Police are continuing their questioning today. Bond is the same man who went to sleep in an ice-house on Water street and left a candle burning on the shelf, setting the place on fire, last fall. His dog awakened him before he suffocated.

Widower Gets Life Interest in Estate

The will of Mrs. Patricia E. Schuttler, who died Dec. 3 at her home in Kankakee, was filed for probate yesterday in the office of County Clerk Walter J. Richert by Attorney J. Bert Miller.

To the widower Charles goes the life interest in property in Kankakee and at his death the property goes to a daughter Effie Avis Schuttler.

The remainder of the estate goes to the widower who also is named executor. The instrument is dated April 27, 1922.

AUTO ACCIDENT DEATH TOLL IN THIS COUNTY 21

1936 Fatalities Are One Less Than
for 1935.

After climbing steadily for three years, the auto accident death rate in Kankakee county declined slightly during the year just ended.

The records of Coroner A. E. Kerger show that 21 persons met death on the highways and streets of Kankakee county during 1936; this is one less than the number who perished from the cause during 1935. It is believed that the widespread campaign to curb recklessness and excessive speed, especially at night, has had some effect on the motorizing public. Newspapers, magazines and radio have combined their facilities in a united effort to show how and why accidents happen and how they could have been prevented.

Law enforcement agencies have increased their vigilance on willful violators of traffic rules in a somewhat harsh but effective method of obtaining respect for the law.

More Traffic Here
Traffic in Kankakee is generally conceded to be three or four times as heavy as in other cities its size. With six highways converging here, it becomes increasingly important each year that motorists drive according to the rules if the accident toll is to be minimized.

Coroner Kerger's report shows that several persons met death in other forms of transportation also. One died in an airplane accident and four lost their lives on railroads.

Other Tragedies
Tragic deaths, including those from accidental burns and gunshot wounds totalled 8, suicides 9, murders 2, drownings 5, abortions 3, heat exhaustion 3, and heart cases (all types) claimed 23 lives in this county during '36.

The death rate from automobile accidents in Kankakee county during the preceding four years was as follows: '32-15 deaths; '33-14 deaths; '34-16 deaths; '35-22 deaths.

WINTER TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Patchett of 809 South Third avenue left yesterday for Jacksonville, Fla., to spend the remainder of the winter.

Postal Revenue in Kankakee Sets All-Time High in 1936

Exceeding conservative predictions, the 1936 receipts of $139,531.79 which set a new record at the Kankakee post office were more than $8,000 or 6 per cent greater than the previous high mark established in 1935.

An unprecedented Christmas rush boosted December's income to $17,422.26 which in turn swelled the last quarter's business to more than $40,000, the first time that such a quarter has been reported in the memory of postal employees.

Operating salaries of clerks and carriers during 1936 totalled $70,451.14 or approximately 14 per cent

Exliners Greet Kankakee From Air

ENTIRE TOWN TAKES TRIP IN BIG AIRPLANE

Radio Broadcast
Heard All Over
U. S. Today.

IST IN HISTORY

Exline was a deserted village today yet it was not, for the voices of its people came from the air above it.

This happened as the entire population of the tiny town seven miles northeast of Kankakee gathered in a public square to greet the arrival of a publicity stunt of American Airlines, Inc.

It was the first time in history that an entire town became literally a flying village, all in one plane at one time. Because Exline is just the right size for such a stunt, it was selected, appropriately enough, for this is the hundredth year of its existence.

Kankakee Stewardess
Into the "Maryland," luxurious flagship of the airlines, went the 21 villagers in Chicago this morning at 10 o'clock, attended by Miss Wanda Osewowski, Kankakee girl who is a stewardess for the company.

Then they flew at 200 mile an hour speed back to the deserted village, circled over it and talked to the nation by radio.

As they pointed out their homes in the little cluster of houses about the grain elevator at Exline, they laughed in the microphone about the huge airship and described the experience as "wonderful."

So much attention had the occasion attracted, that their words were broadcast over a nation-wide radio hookup.

Greeted by Mayor
Then they flew back to Chicago to be greeted by Mayor Kelly at the city hall, to the Sherman hotel to dine, then to the Roosevelt theater for the matinee, all this as guests of the airlines.

The entire radio program was arranged by Ken Fry, educational director of the NBC network, and Dick Smith, public relations director of the airlines, former newspaper man of Kankakee and Moline.

In the plane with the villagers was Walter Graebner, Chicago representative of Time, Fortune and Life magazines.

Kin of Founder
Appropriately, among the villagers was a year old Billy Jones, great-grandson of Judge Mark Hunter, who founded the village a century ago, and Mrs. Hattie "Grandma" Hunter, of the same family.

The entire population of the village, all in one plane, consisted of the following: Mayor Emory L. Jarvis, Mrs. Anna Jarvis, Leonard Jarvis, Mrs. Gladys Jarvis, Dorothy Jarvis, L. B. Striegel, Mrs. Helen

Supervisors Meet to Select Jurors

The county board went into regular session late this morning in what was expected to be a short meeting.

In addition to disposing of a few routine matters, it was expected that the supervisors would draw a list of grand jurors for the next term of the circuit court.

greater than the 1935 figure of $60,344.69, due largely to the fact that last year was the first full 12 months under which the postal employees worked a 40-hour week, according to Postmaster George P. Raven.

One more clerk was added to the force during the year and carrier service was extended to Brookmont, Hobble Heights and West Kankakee.

Most conspicuous item contributing to the increase in receipts was the sale of stamps. Several firms have also increased their use of second class privileges to send sales bills and pamphlets through the mail.

Annual Policemen Ball Will Be Held Jan. 27 This Year

Jan. 27 has been set as the date for the annual policemen's ball, according to announcement this morning of Chief of Police L. B. Rogers. The dance will again be held at the Del Rio ballroom and Detective Daniel Bergan has been named general chairman. Officers Edmund Klatta and R. Don Bleu have been delegated to canvass business houses with tickets.

The affair is being held earlier than usual this year in order not to conflict with Lent which begins Feb. 10.

KING EDWARD'S DEPARTURE HAS AN ECHO HERE

Makes Change In Oath for New Citizens.

The abdication of King Edward VIII of England and the succession of King George VI had its effect even in the circuit court of Kankakee county.

Preparing for the solemn ceremony of naturalization yesterday afternoon before Circuit Judge W. R. Hunter, it was necessary for Circuit Clerk Albert Tetrault to change the wording of the oath taken by former subjects of the British crown, when renouncing allegiance to their former sovereign.

The clerk rewrote the oath, removing the name of the former monarch and substituting the title of his successor.

U. S. Agent Here
William Lemke of Chicago, representative of the federal department of labor and not the former presidential candidate of the Union ticket, was here yesterday afternoon to assist Judge Hunter in the naturalization ceremony, in which 12 residents of the county became American citizens.

Harry Couture, bailiff, also assisted in the rites, demonstrating to the new Americans the proper way of saluting the national emblem.

Those who became citizens and their sponsors are:

Many Nationalities
Mrs. Josephine Tur, 1161 North Schuyler avenue, formerly of Poland, sponsors John H. and James P. Campbell of 1104 South Lincoln avenue.

Robert S. Bett, 228 South Washington avenue, formerly of Scotland, sponsors George Popp of 885 South Fifth avenue and Albert E. Rockwell of 309 North Greenwood avenue.

William Frederick Mass, 600 West Jeffery street, formerly of Holland.

Watseka Man Hurt as Train Hits Car

Watseka, Jan. 5—(RN Special)—O. L. Gray had a narrow escape from death Saturday when he was struck by the fast 4 o'clock train at the Walnut street crossing.

He stopped before driving across the tracks, but seeing no train started across. As he reached the center of the tracks, he noticed the engine almost upon him. The engine pilot caught the rear bumper, turning the car around. Mr. Gray was thrown out on the pavement.

S. D. Kamp, who was returning to Watseka on the train, rushed over as soon as the train stopped and took Mr. Gray to a physician where it was found his injuries consisted of a scalp wound and bruised shoulder.

Milford Wife Wins Decree of Divorce

Watseka, Jan. 5—(RN Special)—Judge C. N. Saum granted a divorce Saturday in circuit court to Mrs. Emmaline Pingenen of Milford on grounds of desertion. Mrs. Pingenen was represented by Attorney Jesse Sumner of Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Pingenen were married Feb. 16, 1935, and separated Sept. 13 the same year. Mrs. Pingenen was given the custody of the only child Betty Jean.

A property settlement was made between the parties prior to the suit.

COUNCIL VOTES PAY INCREASES FOR OFFICIALS

Salary Boosts Not Effective Until
May 1st.

RESTORE CUTS

Effective officers of the next city administration will receive full pay for their services. That was assured last night when the city council voted to restore the salaries of the mayor, city clerk and treasurer to pre-depression levels and boosted the remuneration of aldermen to $7.50 per meeting.

This amendment to the municipal code was adopted with only one dissenting vote—that of Alderman Byron Dandurand. Seventh ward—and will become effective May 1, when the newly elected officials are inaugurated for a four year term.

On that date the mayor's salary will be upped from $600 to its former level of $1,800 a year. The clerk will receive $1,200 again instead of $800 and the treasurer will be paid $600 rather than $250 as at present.

Contrast With Dems
An incumbent administration is not permitted to raise its own pay, but it can increase that of a succeeding group of municipal officers. By their action last night the present council will avoid a recurrence of the procedure two years ago when the outgoing Democratic administration procrastinated until after the election before deciding whether to restore wages or leave them as they were.

The aldermen, who formerly received $6 per meeting before their pay was slashed to $3 in an economy move some five years ago, will earn a minimum of $15 each per month after May 1, since at least two meetings are held every 30 days. They are also paid for special sessions of the council but not for committee meetings.

Voluntary Cuts
No mention was made last night of employees of the city (police, firemen, street department workers, etc.) Should restoration of their pay cuts be considered at a later date, it will not be necessary to amend any ordinance since they voluntarily accepted reduced salaries to begin with.

The council considered several other matters last night, including a request of Jacob Gerritsen, 778 Cobb boulevard, that the city vacate a 50 foot strip of land which forms a stub street on the extension of North East avenue between Mulberry street and the New York Central tracks.

To Build Warehouse
Attorney Elmer Wilson addressed the council in behalf of Gerritsen, explaining that his client contemplated erecting a warehouse for the wholesale handling of printing machinery at this point where access

Man Injured
Walking Into
Side of Auto

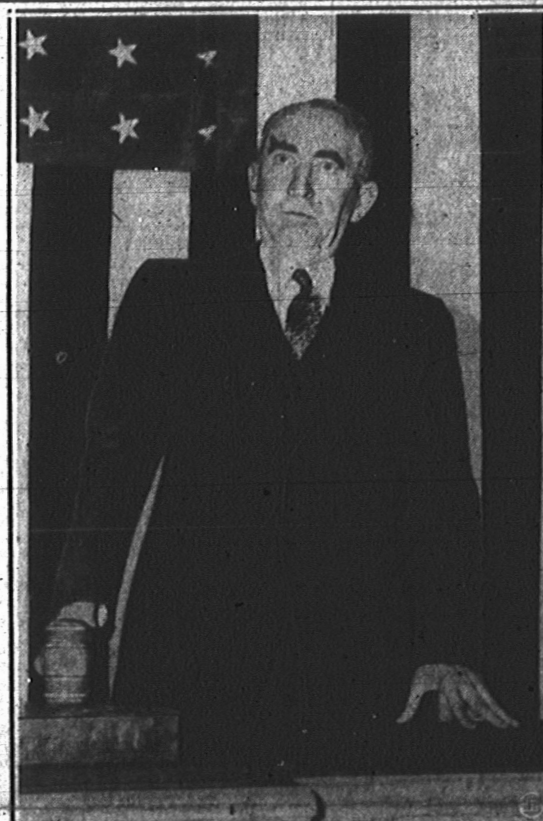

Oscar Fitzpatrick, 60, of 1235 East Chestnut street, suffered cuts and contusions about the body when he walked into the side of an automobile in the 100 block of North Schuyler avenue at 5:45 o'clock this morning.

He was walking west across Schuyler avenue and the vehicle, driven by Walter Steinko, 783 North Indiana avenue, was traveling north on that street. The injured man was intoxicated, according to witnesses, and stepped into the rear fender and bumper of the car as it went by.

Steinko, who was on his way to work at Kroehler's stopped and took the injured man to the hospital. Attending physicians found no broken bones.

Two minor automobile crashes reported to police yesterday involved vehicles of Paul Peterson of Pontiac and Mrs. M. Louie, 531 South Fourth avenue, at Station and Chicago; Hilda Steen, 955 South Washington avenue, and R. J. Hill of mobile in the 1100 block on North Washington avenue. In the latter accident, the Steen car was parked and the other struck it.

AS HE OPENED 75TH CONGRESS

The thump of the gavel William B. Bankhead, Speaker of the House of Representatives, fields as seriously, silenced the babble of greetings and congratulations of the assembling congressmen. Then, in effect, the Speaker called for "order in the house" and the first session of the 75th Congress got under way.

Man 90 Years Old Becomes Citizen Here

Leonard Perry Bradley, 90-year old Moline resident who officially became an American citizen in naturalization ceremonies before Circuit Judge W. R. Hunter yesterday afternoon, actually has been a citizen for most of his life.

The difficulty was, he couldn't prove it when his right to vote was challenged in the recent election, although he had voted, for years.

The story of his case, as told to the Republican-News, was that he came to the United States from Canada when a boy. His father became naturalized, thus making him a citizen.

But in order to prove his citizenship, it was necessary for him to produce the naturalization records of his father, which he couldn't do.

FOX HUNT

Plans for a fox hunt and rabbit fry, as well as conservation activities for the coming season will be discussed at tonight's meeting of the Sportsmen's club. The meeting is called for 7:30 at Farm Bureau hall. Farmers whose poultry or pigs have been carried off by the fox are asked to communicate with club members so that hunts can be arranged in their vicinity.

When I hear people ravin' about how lucky we are that we live in this generation where the scientists have given us control, I don't say nothin'.

Not long ago, a ninety-four year old man told me that he owed his long life to the fact that he got a good start in life before the scientists discovered them germs. Personally, I do not think we are as hale and hearty today as our ancestors used to be.

I got off of a train in Arkansas one time and I saw a parade comin' down the street and I asked a native, I says "What's all the excitement about?" and he says "Well,

WM. B. BANKHEAD IS RE-ELECTED HOUSE SPEAKER

Adjournment Taken to Await Message of President.

TOMORROW P. M.

BULLETIN

Washington, Jan. 5—(AP)—President Roosevelt's annual message, to be delivered in person tomorrow at a joint session of congress, will be among the shortest in modern legislative history—about 2,000 words. His night address on the state of the union January 3, 1936, was 1,500 words longer.

White House officials said it's message would require from 15 to 20 minutes for delivery. It will be broadcast from the chamber at the time of delivery, 1 p. m. (est), and radio companies have been given permission to record it and rebroadcast it tomorrow night.

Washington, Jan. 5—(UP)—The 75th congress—top heavy with Democrats in both senate and house—assembly at 12:02 p. m. today.

With traditional horseplay and confusion in the house and more formal routine and ceremony in the senate, the nation's legislators inaugurated a session expected to adjourn some six months hence after enactment of the framework of President Roosevelt's second New Deal.

First business was the routine of organization.

Galleries in the upper house were crowded as Vice President John Nance Garner, garbed in ordinary blue business suit, stepped to order the senate, comprising 76 Democrats, 16 Republicans and a minor party members.

In the house fewer spectators than usual watched initial proceedings. Galleries were sparsely filled as the session was called to order by Clerk South Trimble under the glare of movie Klieg lights. Microphones transmitted the proceedings by radio broadcast over the nation.

Bankhead, Speaker
Principal business before the house was the formality of electing William B. Bankhead as speaker and quick approval by the membership of the house foreign affairs committee. This committee is being named with special speed to be prepared to rush emergency legislation through to guard the country's neutrality in the Spanish civil conflict.

As rapidly as formalities will allow, both houses planned to adjourn until tomorrow when they will convene in joint session to certify President Roosevelt's election and hear his message on the state of the nation.

Before 1 p. m. the senate had completed its brief business and adjourned until 12:30 p. m. tomorrow. The house, with equal speed, rushed through the formality of choosing Bankhead as speaker.

The vote for speakership was announced as:

Bankhead, 323.
Snell, 84.
Schneider, 10.

Fred L. Crawford, R., Mich., 2.
Two members voted "present," making a total of 431 votes cast.

Snell Fledges Minority
The initial session brought two pronouncements of minority policy—one by Minority Leader Bertrand Snell in behalf of the Republican

The Holiday Mystery

CHAPTER XVIII
Stunned by the news of Santa Josephine's death, and fully aroused now to the tragedy about them, the household at Thunders Mesa assembled. Outside the closed door, the wind howled, holding the snow and ice, and the night before, the wind had been so quiet.

Had Santa Josephine been buried under the hill or was there some other reason for her death? This thought was foremost in the minds of all. Betty had not left the old lady the night before until Santa Josephine had seemed to be sleeping quietly. There was nothing new to indicate that she had died any but natural cause. Yet the awful doubt remained.

About 10 o'clock the two men who had started down the canyon the day before came back. They had been unable to get to the bottom. All night they had fought the snow and ice, and the wind had been so strong that they had been unable to get to the bottom.

The Indians were at his post at the top of the trail, the man told him. "He does not know."

This proved to be the case when an investigation was made. Broken shields had vanished as completely as had his trial. Santa Josephine had been buried under the hill, and the Indians were at his post at the top of the trail, the man told him. "He does not know."

After lunch Professor Shaw announced that he was going to do some studies and that he did not offer any objection he went to his room and closed the door. The professor was at his post at the top of the trail, the man told him. "He does not know."

Looking carefully about, he took a key from his pocket and slipped it into the lock. A minute later the door opened and he was standing in the living room. The professor was at his post at the top of the trail, the man told him. "He does not know."

He closed the door carefully and turned on a small pocket flashlight. He went down the stairs and into the living room. The professor was at his post at the top of the trail, the man told him. "He does not know."

LEGISLATURE IS PREPARED TO RESUME WORK

Troubles Which May Cause Deadlocks Ironed Out.

LEWIS CONTEST

By DON E. CHAMBERLAIN

United Press Staff Correspondent
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Harmonious opening of the sixtieth general assembly tomorrow appeared certain today as events moved swiftly to end threatened deadlocks of party caucuses in organization of the new legislative branches.

Democrats, under an agreement between leaders, will name Sen. George Maypole, Chicago, protégé of National Committeeman P. A. Nash, Chicago, will be named senate president pro tem, with Louis Lewis, Chicago, or P. W. Lewis, Robinson, to be the speaker of the house.

Which Lewis is to be chosen is up to Gov. Henry Horner who is said to have agreed to Maypole for senate president pro tem in return for allowing downstate to name the speaker. Chicago members indicated they favored Louis Lewis.

Caucus Tonight
Whether the contest between the two Lewises is to be settled by Horner or is to be disposed by the Democratic house caucus tonight was uncertain. Some belief existed that the caucus would attempt a few roll calls and then stampede for the Lewis getting the most downstate votes.

In the office and ready in case the contest between the Lewises delay selection of a speaker are two compromise candidates. One is T. J. Lenane, Quincy, and Frank Wilson, Woodstock. Both are understood to be acceptable to Horner.

With the election of a downstate speaker, the post of house floor leader is expected to go to a Chicago representative. Leading choice along this line is J. P. Boyle who had sought the speakership.

Should Louis Lewis be named the speaker, P. W. Lewis is expected to be named chairman of the house judiciary committee. Adamowski having said he wanted the speakership or nothing. Should P. W. Lewis be named speaker Louis Lewis would be given the appropriations committee.

In the senate, Ward is expected to be renamed chairman of the judiciary committee and Sen. James O. Monroe, Collinsville to retain his revenue committee chairmanship. Sen. R. V. Graham, Chicago, it was said, may be given the appropriations committee.

Severe Minority Leader
Republicans were prepared to re-nominate Sen. Earl B. Searcy, Springfield, as minority leader of the upper house, with four candidates, two from Chicago and two from downstate, contesting for the minority floor leadership of the house.

Rep. E. J. Schnackenberg, Chicago, who lost the minority leadership to Rep. Leroy Green, Rockford, by a single vote two years ago, is again a candidate. Others are Reed Cutler, Levanston, R. J. Lyons, Libertyville, and Frank Foster, Harvey.

Governor Horner, Nash and Maypole, R. J. Kelly, Chicago, settled the dispute over organization of the assembly as between downstate and Chicago, at a banquet to Nash in Chicago last Saturday. Horner agreed to Maypole and Nash and Kelly agreed to a downstate speaker.

Senate Floor Leader
Ward, it was said, will be active floor leader of the senate although indications are that such a post will not give actual identity as was the case several years ago when the former Sen. R. M. Shaw, Lawrenceville, was named.

Today's separate committees of senate and house Chicago Democrats will call on Horner to proffer assistance in organization of the assembly. Keynote of their conference with the governor, one Chicago member said, will be harmony.

On the senatorial committee will be Maypole, Ward, Peter Kleinmeyer, W. J. Connor, and T. E. Keane. Representing the house Chicago Democrats will be Boyle, Frank Ryan, J. L. Rategan, John R. McSweeney and William Powers.

Adamowski had been named to the house committee to call on Horner but indicated he would not serve. He said he was still a candidate for speaker and would be a candidate at the caucus even if he received only one vote.

Convenes at Noon
The assembly will convene at noon tomorrow, the house being opened by Secretary of State E. J. Hughes and the senate by Lieut. Gov. T. P. Donovan. Donovan will continue in

They Do Things on a Big Scale; Harmon County

Hollis, Okla., Jan. 4.—(INS)—Out in this short grass country of southwestern Oklahoma, where live the Keys quadruplets and 183 other twins and triplets, there is a second phenomenon that rivals the multiple births for which Harmon County is noted. It is the large number of brother- and sister marriages between families.

The county has 1,800 inhabitants and there are 182 such inter-family marriages, but no cases on record of the union of blood relations.

Strangely enough, too, these marriages have no connection with the multiple births, since neither the famous Key sisters, Roberta, Mona, Mary and Leota—the first quadruplets to reach 21—nor any of the numerous twins and triplets are children of such unions.

A good example of the situation is furnished by the Snider and Husband families.

Dr. W. G. Husband and his brother, Claude, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Husband, married Ethel and Ruby Snider, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Snider; Carl Snider, the eldest brother, married Thelma Husband, sister of the Husband boys; and Melvin Snider, another brother of Ethel and Ruby, and a third sister, Bonnie, married Willie and Grace Williams, who also are brothers and sisters.

In an adjoining neighborhood, three Carrick brothers married three Little sisters, and two Carrick sisters married two Wilhelm brothers.

A school teacher whose class contains children from each of the five sets of parents has no little difficulty in keeping straight to which family the children belong.

Hollis and Harmon Counties are noted throughout the southwest for their hospitality, which may be explained by the fact that the residents are pretty close to being "just one, big, happy family."

NEW CONGRESS IS CONFRONTED WITH PROBLEMS

Historic Decisions Impend as Statesmen Assemble.

AT THE CAPITAL

By EDWARD J. DUFFY

Washington, Jan. 5.—A sense of historic decisions impending pervaded the capital today for the opening of the new congress.

Questions of constitutional amendment, how far to go on neutrality and whether to tighten up on relief commanded more attention from the legislators than the organizational formalities at noon.

Outwardly all was serene. Congratulations greeted Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas at every turn, following his election to the Democratic floor leadership of the house last yesterday.

Rep. William B. Bankhead (D-Ala.) again had a clear path to the speakership.

The swearing in of new members constituted almost the only immediate business. Of the 95 freshmen representatives and 16 new senators, a few had yet to reach the city.

Democrats in Control
Because of the "lame duck" amendment, it was the first time in history that a new congress was elected together before the inauguration.

Heralding the second Roosevelt administration, it marked also the greatest majority in both houses attained by any party since the civil war. Seventy-six of the 96 senators and 332 of the 435 representatives are Democrats.

Resolutions to notify the White House that congress was ready to transact business and to provide for a joint session tomorrow were taken as a matter of course.

Locks guarded the electoral votes certifying Mr. Roosevelt's reelection. These will be formally counted at tomorrow's session, preliminary to the president's personal delivery of his annual message.

Speculate on Message
What he will recommend was a subject of speculation. Leaders returned from conferences at the White House with lips tightly if smilingly shut.

There were indications, however, that the budget message Friday will contain more "surprises" than the one tomorrow. Some took this to foreshadow an attempt for a more closely balanced budget in the next fiscal year than has been predicted.

Rayburn, a hard-bitter who says the Roosevelt program "is my program, 100 per cent," defeated Rep. John O'Connor of New York, 184 to 127. O'Connor promptly had the vote made unanimous.

Despite O'Connor's promise of full cooperation, the struggle between them in the last few weeks aroused such feelings that some Democrats feared a schism would remain.

"You know about the man who had so many pins stuck in him he was ready to go into the circus," said O'Connor when it was over. "Well, that's how I feel."

Some Australian tribes of savages, even today, make excellent arrowheads out of broken glass bottles, using only primitive tools in chipping them to the desired shape. A deadly weapon of razor sharpness thus is obtained.

New York has agencies established for the purpose of providing an accomplished, entirely presentable person to make a 14th guest at table when some misadventure leaves the hostess with 13 on her hands.

Fals from roasting meats were used as illuminating fuel in early types of lamps. Later, in the Mediterranean regions, olive oil came into use for this purpose.

More Japanese Men End Lives Than Do Women

Tokyo, Jan. 5.—(INS)—Sixty-three per cent of the suicides in Tokyo between 1931 and 1935 were men, a survey conducted by the Home Office, embracing investigation of 15,633 self-inflicted deaths, revealed today.

Of the cases investigated, 9,968 were men and 5,667 women. The major reason for suicide was sickness, 3,299 taking their lives for this reason. Broken love resulted in 1,651 cases.

Poison was used by 6,834, while 2,452 leaped into volcano craters. 2,243 drowned themselves, 1,792 hung themselves, 1,155 threw themselves under trains or streetcars, 516 knifed themselves, and 330 used gas. The remainder were not classified.

Suicides among persons between the ages of 20 and 30 were the highest, there being 7,598 within this age limit.

There were 2,416 between the ages of 16 and 20 who took their own lives.

The survey showed that the rate of suicides increased after 7 o'clock in the evening until 10 o'clock after which hour the rate gradually dropped.

May proved to be the month in which most of the suicides occurred, with March and April next in order. There were less cases in October than in any other month of the year.

The Home Office is now conducting a study of the relationship between suicides and meteorological conditions.

Although this has not been completed, some findings have been published. Comparisons between 8 and 90 per cent and the temperature between 68 and 73 degrees.

As the results obtained do not conform with the theory held in the past on relations between weather conditions and suicides, the survey to check the statistics will continue.

BOURBONNAIS
Raymond Senesac, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Senesac, has enrolled in a school of embalming in Chicago. Mr. Senesac was formerly employed at the Bear Brand factory.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Senesac entertained the following on New Year's: the Amedee Surprenant family of Manteno, Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Connor, and children, Charles Lockwood family of Kankakee, Mr. and Mrs. Osmond J. Trudeau and children. Cards were played and the prize was awarded to Mrs. Walter O'Connor.

French General is Retired After a Long Service

Paris, Jan. 5.—(INS)—General Henri Gouraud, Governor-General of Paris and, to Americans, probably France's best-known and best-beloved soldier, has retired.

After fifty years of service, during which he fought side by side with the British at the Dardanelles and with the Americans in Champagne, he has withdrawn to his quiet home on the outskirts of Paris.

So far no successor has been named to his post. It is expected, however, that either General Garchery, military governor of Lyons or General Billotte, a member of the supreme council will be appointed shortly.

With his long, luxuriant beard, his empty sleeve and the row of bright colored decorations across his tunic Gouraud for years has been one of the most picturesque figures of France.

Americans knew him first when he visited the United States with Marshall Joffre's military mission and later when he returned, as military governor of Paris on a good will tour, for reception and fetes given by his former comrades in arms.

In later years as Paris' chief soldier, General Gouraud has shared with the American Legion and the American embassy the annual Armistice day exercises at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, under the Arc de Triomphe.

A true Parisian, General Gouraud was born in this city seventy years ago, and was a general of division when the world war broke out. At the Dardanelles he lost his arm and received wounds in the legs that made his gait uncertain in after years.

In 1918, in July, General Gouraud was the commander of the French forces which opposed the German in the Champagne and stopped the last desperate German advance. His maneuver laid the basis for the American drive in the same sector and in the Argonne which brought the war to an end.

DO THIS FOR STOPPED-UP NOSTRILS
(due to accumulated mucus)
If people realized how delicate the mucous membrane of nasal passages really are there would be far less blowing-for less trying to drive accumulated mucus out by brute force.
There is a much gentler and more effective way to do this. If your nostrils are stopped up with mucus, just insert a little Mentholum in them. You'll be surprised at the gentle and quick way in which Mentholum breaks up the accumulated mucus. You'll be delighted, too, as you notice how the condition is relieved, and you can breathe more freely again.
