TARZAN SLAYER OUTWITS BIG POSSE

ALL NEW TAXES PUT IN EFFECT BY NEW DEALERS

Republicans Work Hard to Overcome Deficits

All new taxes or tax increases put on here within the memory of the present generation have been put on by a group carried into office in a New Deal landslide.

Everyone remembers the city's bankruptcy when Ben Alperin went out of office. Mayor Louis E. Beckman and other public-spirited citizens served at $1 a year to restore city finances.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW
Hotel tax rate	$6.90
Pontiac tax rate	$5.33
Danville tax rate	$5.60
Champaign tax rate	$5.45
Urbana tax rate	$6.05
Kankakee tax rate	$4.82

Everyone knows what the city's condition was when Mayor Roy Taylor took office after only two years of a wasteful and incompetent administration by this same group.

Pension Funds Gone

Everyone knows how the firemen's and policemen's pension fund disappeared during that administration. These are the things that people are paying higher taxes for.

It is common knowledge that this group's recent township supervisor left $16,000 in tax anticipation warrants and $6,500 to $8,000 in debts to local merchants for Supervisor William H. Matland to pay.

That's the reason for a four-cent increase in taxes.

Everyone is now familiar with the record of the city's county judge who spent more tax money than any county judge in local history.

Reasons for Taxes

That's the reason for another five-cent increase in taxes this year to replace a fund he spent. As a matter of fact, he also ordered a one-cent increase in park board taxes.

This is the same group which is now trying to discredit the outstanding record for economy and efficiency of a Republican county board which has not only decreased its own tax levy, but also did everything possible to reduce its own expenses to make up for the mismanagement of these wasters.

When the state sales tax was imposed in Springfield, the people were told it would be a wonderful thing. They were told the proceeds would be for relief and thereafter township supervisors would not have to levy taxes for relief. It sounded fine.

Made Two Taxes

It wasn't long, however, until the supervisors were ordered to levy the full amount of relief taxes in order to get a share of sales tax proceeds. In other words, instead of taxes being cut, two were charged where there had been only one.

No explanation was ever given

Alexander Meier of Kankakee was chosen vice president; Ben Goerne of Streator secretary and William Schultz of Tonia treasurer. About 175 men attended the annual meeting of this group in the Zoar church.

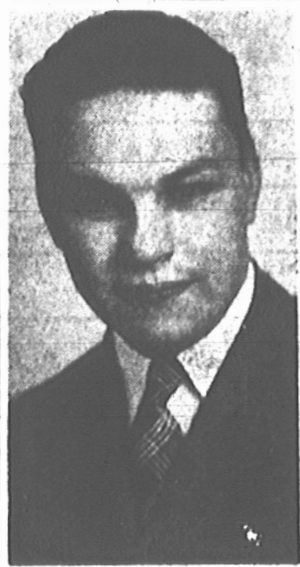

Republican Voters Meet in 3 Wards

Large and enthusiastic meetings of voters interested in the election of the Republican township ticket took place last night for the Second, Third and Sixth wards.

The Republican candidates were present at each of the meetings and made short talks in which they pledged themselves to continue the outstanding record for economy and efficiency of the county board.

Victor McBroom, Republican county chairman, spoke before the meetings and referred to the recent public statement of William A. Bergman, candidate on the opposing ticket, who has asked the people not to vote for him because he does not have the time to give to the position of assistant supervisor.

Truce Ending Spanish War Believed Near

Vice President

Edward J. Straama, manager of the Kankakee County Credit Bureau, was elected vice president of the Associated Credit Bureaus, 5th district, at the annual school of instruction at Indianapolis, Ind. The bureaus are in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Wisconsin and Canada. Mr. Straama reported that bureau managers experienced a decided increase in credit inquiries and an improvement in collections within the last few weeks. Locally, the bureau reported, that inquiries are about 20 per cent ahead of 1938.

EXHUMATIONS OF 12 BODIES TO BE RUSHED

Close Secrecy Maintained in Poison Investigation

Philadelphia, March 24—(UP)—Closest secrecy was maintained today regarding the bodies to be exhumed from Philadelphia and perhaps later New York and New Jersey, cemeteries in the exhaustive investigation into a huge murder-for-insurance syndicate that took "scores and scores" of lives during a 10-year period.

Assistant District Attorney Vincent P. McDevitt, who successfully prosecuted Herman Pettrillo, 40, spaghetti salesman and alleged member of the ring now facing death in the electric chair, would not disclose names of the cemeteries from which bodies will be exhumed. He explained that publication of the spots to be visited might "tip-off" the guilty groups.

Seventy Believed Victims

After the jury had convicted Pettrillo of first-degree murder and recommended death, Judge Harry S. McDevitt told the men and women jurors that "scores and scores of other unfortunates were put to death by this group of assassins."

Homicide squad detectives reported that approximately 70 persons were believed victims of the syndicate. Although seemingly surprised that that number of bodies might be exhumed, McDevitt did not deny the figure.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER MAY COME SATURDAY

Would Halt Bitter Strife of Past 32 Months

Rome, March 24—(AP)—The newspaper Il Piccolo, in a dispatch today from Burgos, Spanish Nationalist capital, said the surrender of Madrid to Generalissimo Franco was planned for tomorrow.

The Italian press reports that the surrender of Madrid to the Spanish Nationalists was imminent drew new diplomatic attention to Italy's differences with France and the question whether Premier Mussolini would voice official demands Sunday.

Some foreign observers believed that surrender of Madrid and entry of the Nationalists into the city would cause Mussolini to give the "go ahead" signal for an intensive campaign against France for realization of Italian colonial aspirations.

Otherwise they expected him to wait to show his hand until a complete collapse of Republican Spain. Diplomatic circles also showed interest in a meeting yesterday between Sir Noel Charles, British charge d'affaires, and Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano.

Various Conjectures

The meeting raised various conjectures. One was that Sir Noel might have assured Count Ciano that the anti-aggression declaration proposed by Great Britain was not aimed directly at Italy.

Another, which was considered less likely to be true, was that Prime Minister Chamberlain might have offered to mediate the Italian-French dispute.

Foreign observers meanwhile saw a further indication of the solidity of the Rome-Berlin axis in a congratulatory telegram sent Mussolini on the 20th anniversary of Fascism, by Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering from his holiday retreat at San Remo.

Generalissimo Franco and Hungarian Premier Count Paul Teleky also sent congratulations.

Noted Auto Race Driver Speaks Here

Harry Hartz, well-known former race driver, winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile speed classic in 1926, addressed a district meeting of 150 Chevrolet dealers and salesmen in the eastern Illinois district of the Chicago zone at the Hotel Kankakee today in the breakfast meeting.

Michael Kosack, manager of the local agency who was host to the dealers, said that Hartz' appearance here was part of an extended program designed to acquaint all salesmen with the performance, economy, long life and dependability records established by the Chevrolet long distance truck as certified by the A.A.A. contest board under whose sanction the run was staged.

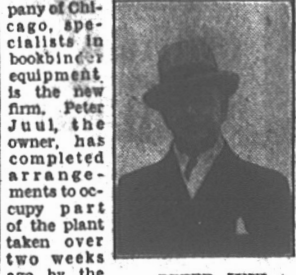

The widely-travelled test unit which has toured nearly 60,000 miles visiting every state, Canada and Mexico, and which has had every mile certified by the American Automobile association, last year established a new world record for sustained and recorded operations. Stanley Reed, official A.A.A. observer, who arrived here with Hartz, has recorded every movement of the truck since it left the factory assembly line.

The test truck, carrying a fixed payload of 4,500 pounds, was on exhibition at the local agency today.

Social Security Tax Rates May Be Lower

Washington, March 24—(AP)—Social Security tax rates in 1941, one and three-quarters per cent in 1942, approval today to proposals to lower, temporarily, social security tax rates scheduled for the next three years.

In a statement to the house ways and means committee, he said experience with social security had warranted partial abandonment of the reserve system and that, therefore, tax rates for the next few years could be less than anticipated when the act was passed in 1935.

He presented three alternative tax rate schedules to the present law, which levies one per cent of payrolls each on employers and employees from 1937 to 1939, one and one-half per cent each in 1940 to 1942, two per cent each in 1943 to 1945, two and one-half per cent each in 1946 to 1949 and three per cent each in 1950 and thereafter.

His alternative plans included:

1—One and one-fourth per cent each in 1940, one and one-half per cent each in 1941, one and three-quarters per cent each in 1942, two per cent each in 1943 to 1945, two and one-half per cent each in 1946 to 1949 and three per cent each in 1950 and thereafter.

ESCAPES DEATH TRAP HIGH ON MOUNTAIN SIDE

Fugitive Takes Ri- fles and Shoes of His Victims

BULLETIN

Cody, Wyo., March 24—(UP)—Sheriff Frank Blackburn and his man-hunting posse reported to headquarters here today they believed they had located Earl (Tarzan) Durand high on an eastern shoulder of Be Tooth mountain.

The sheriff's report was relayed by Special Deputy Ben Thompson, one of 14 members of a posse that set out from here at daybreak behind a pack of bloodhounds to track down the killer of four peace officers.

Thompson said they had sighted an object that seemed to be moving on the far-away mountain peak and had identified it as a man by using powerful field glasses.

He said they were confident the man was the fugitive killer but the identification was not positive.

Thompson said the man, dressed in a gray shirt, appeared momentarily on a boulder, then darted into a crevice.

Cody, Wyo., March 24—(AP)—Sniffing bloodhounds were counted on today to pick up the trail of Earl Durand, 26-year-old slayer of four, who fled his mountain stronghold 40 miles north of Cody before it could be blasted with Howitzer and trench mortar fire.

"I think we can pick up the trail with the hounds," said Sheriff Frank Blackburn after a 100-man posse had closed in on Durand's mountain stronghold.

"If not a bunch of us will stay up there until we get him," said the Park county sheriff, leader of the search for the elusive, eagle-eyed tarzan who took to the northwestern Wyoming hill country a week ago last night after killing two officers.

Deputies' Bodies Recovered

The bodies of Orville Linabary, 42, of Cody, and Arthur Argento, 48, of Meeteetse, Wyo., were recovered late yesterday from an exposed slope below the natural fortress in Clarkfork canon from which Durand had held possemen at bay for nearly 24 hours. The two possemen died of bullet wounds drilled in their abdomens by the sharpshooting fugitive soon after he hid in a clump of boulders and trees at the top of the slope.

Sheriff Blackburn said Durand slipped down sometime before daylight yesterday and took two rifles and a pair of shoes from his victims.

POLAND BALKS AT BRITAIN'S NEW PROPOSAL

Appears Unwilling to Join International Bloc

BULLETIN
Berlin, March 24.—Germany imposed a new "excess income tax" today to meet the needs of the growing financial requirements for armaments and development under the four-year economic plan. The new tax, effective May 1 of this year, will be a 30 per cent levy on any excess income in 1938 over that of 1937.

Further abatements are granted in the case of persons whose salaries are raised in 1938 in the course of scheduled promotion or because of increase in their families.

Warsaw, March 24.—(U.P.)—The Warsaw Express, considering it to be a mouthpiece of the foreign office, said today Poland would not join the international bloc.

Political circles considered this as tantamount to rejection of the British "Stop Hitler" plan.

Poland, the newspaper said, wondered whether the description of international cooperation under Soviet Russian auspices was not based on an illusion.

(The Russian government had proposed a conference of interested powers to discuss common action in event of possible German aggression.)

The British government in a counter-proposal suggested an anti-aggression declaration by Britain, France, Russia, and Poland and any other nation willing to enter into the joint effort provided by German absorption of most Czechoslovakia.

Russia accepted the British proposal.

Shippers Paying Premium on Gold from Across Sea

New York, March 24.—$95.30 heavy has been the flight of capital from Europe to the United States during the past few days. The London market has been so tight that shippers of gold to the United States have been forced to pay a premium to get the metal on boats leaving shortly, it was reported in banking circles here today.

Despite the premium, which makes shipping unprofitable at the present price of the metal, British shippers reported $93,000,000, and perhaps more would come from the United States during the week-end.

The liner Manhattan alone, it was reported from Southampton, will carry $55,000,000 of gold.

The inflow of gold in recent weeks has been the heaviest since the Munich crisis, and in the week ended Wednesday a total of $92,000,000 in the metal was added to this country's stocks.

European bankers, however, are not direct to American consignees without offering it for sale in the London free gold market. On arrival here it is sold to the treasury at $94 a fine ounce, minus a small handling charge.

and nine more won $50,000 each on Klondike.

Besides the pay-off on the winning horses, 469 other ticket holders in the United States and 10 horses entered in the stephanchase won $1,650 each whether their entries ran or not.

Also, 713 had drawn consolation prizes paying $500 each and 26 had drawn residual prizes each worth $210.

The prize money to be paid in the United States was approximately half of the total prize fund of $7,500,000 taken from a total of $12,470,000 received from the sale of sweepstakes tickets at $250 each.

the people. Because, while the schemes of the tax waters benefited from the extra taxation, they found the law so local governments would have to do the collecting and get the blame.

The state tax commission this year cut the property valuation for tax purposes of the county by $1,018,000. Cutting tax valuations is a wonder in itself, if done fairly. During the past few years the county board has decreased valuations a total of 40 per cent, which amounted to $300,000, but the board cut everyone's taxes and not just one opponent's. Also the board cut expenses in proportion.

When the utility's taxes were cut this year, the difference had to be made up by increasing the taxes of every other property owner. The increase is 21 cents per $100 valuation.

The new taxes were discussed at meetings of interested citizens from the Sixth, Second and Third wards last night.

to accept a virtually unconditional surrender by the Madrid government which would end the 32-month-old civil war and the long siege of the Republican capital.

It was reported a Madrid radio speaker had said surrender of Madrid was but "a question of minutes" which was denied in Madrid by Defense Minister General Segismundo Casado.

Obvious plans for transfer of Madrid from the hands of the defense council under General Mola, which seized power March 6, were being made by both Republicans and Nationalists.

A dispatch from Burgos, Nationalist capital, to the Italian newspaper, Il Popolo di Roma said a Republican mission had flown there secretly to negotiate the surrender.

Capitulation Plans
Plans for capitulation of Madrid after more than 28 months of siege were reported as complete and arrangements had been made for the execution of the terms of the capitulation.

A Nationalist military council, already named to take over the city administration, was in continuous session at Valladolid, between Burgos and Madrid.

With the fall of Madrid the Nationalists expected easily to take control of the one-fourth of continental Spain still in Republican hands.

Presenta Credentials
Burgos, Spain, March 24.—(AP)—Marshall Henri Philippe Petain, France's world war hero ambassador to the United States, presented his credentials today to Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

He told the Generalissimo that France and Spain "are animated by the same desire of 'living together in independence and peace'."

Francisco received the ambassador in the regional military headquarters.

"Friendship among nations is not a thing of caprice, which may be dictated, but a faithful reflection of their past and of their common esteem created in the course of the years."

Hull Says Peace of the World Is Being Threatened

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—Secretary of State Hull said today that recent developments in Europe "have been in a nature suggesting a threat to the peace of the world."

Hull, who returned this morning from a trip to Europe, said he had seen evidence of "a new international lawlessness make it all the more clear that never before has the support of all nations against aggression and order and sound economic relations been so urgently needed."

The secretary said that having observed the situation in Europe, he was "profoundly shocked by the recent developments in Europe."

He recalled this country's efforts toward peace in recent years, and added that the local governments would have to do the collecting and get the blame.

Refuse to Testify in Dynamite Case

Elizabeth Hamm, Ill., March 24.—(AP)—Declining to testify, Mrs. Alice Austin, 35, and Theodore Simmons, 30, both of Cave-In-Rock, still were in jail at Harrisburg when the inquest in the truck bombing death of her estranged husband, Earl, began here today.

State's Attorney Clarence E. Board said he had offered to bring Mrs. Austin and Simmons, both charged with murder in Austin's death, to the inquest if they would testify, but Sheriff Tom Gram, who relayed the message to the prisoners, said both refused.

They have been held at Harrisburg for "safe keeping."

Austin was killed and a friend, Miss Lorraine McDowell of Cave-In-Rock, was crippled when dynamite exploded under the floorboards of his truck as they drove near Cave-In-Rock last Monday. His wife, from whom he had been separated since last May, and Simmons, who frequented their home since his youth, were arrested later in the day, the murder charges.

The inquest crowd, many in shirt sleeves and overalls, was disappointed to learn the prisoners would not appear but the courthouse was jammed to the corridors.

The first witness was Mrs. Ida Austin, who testified that she saw the truck explosion from her home, and who called her father-in-law, Will Austin, and her husband, John, to investigate. They followed her onto the stand.

The two men testified they found both Austin and Miss McDowell had been hauled from the truck by the explosion and Miss McDowell was screaming "get someone to help. I want to be baptized." Legs of the victims were mangled, they testified.

John Angleton put Austin and the woman in his car and rushed them to a Rockdale hospital where Austin died a few hours later and where the woman is recovering, after having her left leg amputated at the knee.

State bureau of investigation agents asked the inquest and took notes on the testimony.

He told the Generalissimo that France and Spain "are animated by the same desire of 'living together in independence and peace'."

boosted the bill $13,330,938 above the sum voted by the house.

The total appropriation of $532,183,782 compared with $490,201,254 for war department for the last fiscal year.

Other developments of the day in Washington include:

Secretary Morgenthau, speaking in behalf of "business recovery," proposed to lift from "American production" the burdens of the old age pension system.

He suggested the old age pension system be changed to "keep the levels lower than had been scheduled for the next three years."

A conflict between congress and the administration over sugar legislation was foreseen as the result of the proposed change of a measure changing the present control law.

The A. F. of C. and C. O. renewed their peace conferences with no outward sign that chances for an end to the civil war were being strengthened by an exchange of strongly-worded views.

No Impeachment of Secretary Perkins

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—The house judiciary committee agreed unanimously today to reject the ground for impeachment in the charges laid against Secretary Perkins in the Harry Bridges case.

"We have agreed unanimously that there are no grounds, or impeachment, through which we will be on the matter of impeachment."

Republicans have suggested that the committee's report to the house on impeachment charges filed by Representative Thomas S. (R-Cal.)

SIX CONVICTS PAY PENALTY FOR SLAYING

Die In Electric Chair in South Carolina Prison

Columbia, S. C. March 24.—Six white convicts were executed at the state penitentiary today for the slaying of J. Olin Sanders, the prison guard captain, in an escape attempt, Dec. 12, 1932.

The executions took 48 minutes. The youngest of the sextet, George Wingard, 21, of Columbia, was the first to go at 9:31 a. m. He was followed in order by William B. Gentry, alias Woods, 25, Biloxi, Miss.; Roy Suttles, 29, Sunnysville; Herbert Morrison, 42, Detroit, Mich.; Clayton Crans, 29, Rochester, N. Y.; and J. V. Barr, 29, Sumter.

Barb took his seat in the chair at 7:15 a. m.

Start Singing Hymns

As the youthful Wingard, a laker was serving a short-term for house-breaking when the six made their tragic effort to escape, the chair of the voice of Suttles rose from his nearby cell in the north of the main building.

Crans and Barr, too, went to their death singing hymns.

Struggle For Domination Of Europe Is The Bitterest In Its Economic Phases

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor

Adolf Hitler pushed Great Britain, France and Soviet Russia closer to revival of the pre-war triple alliance today with extension of his economic frontiers eastward to the Black sea.

The struggle for domination in Europe is bitterest in its economic phase and within the last week the Nazi Fuehrer has made tremendous advances capped by a thrust that opened the vast resources of Rumania and the strategically important Black sea coast to the reich.

Now Hungary with almost 50,000 square miles of fertile land and Rumania with almost 155,000 square miles producing oil, timber, minerals and food needed for the German war machine have been brought within the orbit of a new Nazi empire that covers almost 260,000 square miles in the heart of Europe. In addition, the farm products of little Lithuania are available to the reich in event of an emergency and Poland's position has become almost unbearable as a result of pressure to join either the Nazi-Fascist bloc or the anti-Hitler front.

The result of this economic expansion on top of Hitler's big territorial gains in the destruction of Czechoslovakia and the seizure of Memel has cut a thick pathway from the North sea to the Black sea, surrounded Poland's 150,000 square miles on three sides and made the secondary powers such as Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Turkey reluctant to deal with the anti-Nazi front unless given an iron-clad guarantee of military support.

The completeness with which Rumania, by signing a new trade agreement with Germany, came under Nazi domination indicated the success, at least temporarily, of Hitler's blow at Czechoslovakia, which broke past pledges and united his chief foes but which overcame in one stride many of the factors interfering with his control of the resources of central Europe.

But on the other side of the picture the swift aggressions of the last week have had an adverse effect on Hitler's future plans. Great Britain has been so aroused by the "march to the east" that it is unlikely she will again accept the Fuehrer's word that he is ready for stabilization of peace.

Just as the former Kaiser's "Berlin-to-Baghdad" dream of empire threatened British economy, the Hitler march is striking at London's commercial life blood again so seriously that even Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain can forget his fears of Communism long enough to talk of joint British-French-Soviet military as well as political action.

At the moment, Poland is a key factor in the British-led campaign to unite the big European powers against further expansion by Hitler but if the Warsaw government continues to hesitate about arousing Nazi anger there are indications that the three great nations which made up the pre-war triple alliance will be forced to go ahead alone or face the prospect of division and indecision that would merely strengthen the Nazi-Fascist partnership.

For almost the first time since the world war, Soviet Russia has indicated the threat to her rich Ukraine is sufficient to prompt cooperation with Britain and France instead of pursuing her past tactics of trying to make both Fascists and democracies appear futile and weak. Whether that attitude will be maintained long enough to put over an effective front against Hitler, however, is uncertain.

It is certain, however, that the anti-Nazi front must act swiftly because today's developments indicate that the Spanish civil war is virtually over and that Nationalist Gen. Francisco Franco may complete negotiations for unconditional surrender of the Republicans at any time.

Conclusion of the Spanish conflict would leave the way open for Italian Premier Benito Mussolini to open up—or offer a way to peaceful settlement—in his bid for additional power in the Mediterranean at the expense of France. His speech on Sunday is expected to indicate which course he will follow, although both British and French circles indicate hopes that he will adopt a moderate attitude.

Laymen Should be Educated Against Moving the Injured

Indianapolis, March 24.—(AP)—Laymen should be educated against moving an injured person, Dr. Robert H. Kennedy of New York said today in a report at the closing session of the American College of Surgeons' midwestern conference.

Dr. Kennedy, the college's fracture committee chairman, said "first movements of an injured person may cause further damage to the spinal cord, causing additional irreparable paralysis and destroying any remaining function which may have escaped injury. Recovery then is impossible."

Laymen, he added, should remember these things in case of accident:

1. If a patient complains of pains in his back, his back may be broken.
2. If he complains of neck pains, his neck may be broken.
3. Never lift an injured person until he has said whether he can move his legs or fingers.
4. If he cannot move his legs, his back may be broken.
5. If he cannot move his fingers, his neck may be broken.
6. Do not assist or allow the victim to sit up.

He described a comparatively new drug, sulfanilamide, as "a new weapon" in the fight against infection. "One doctor who used it on 15 patients having gangrene, Dr. Kennedy said, "definitely enthusiastic about the results."
