ONTARIO, Calif. (AP)—A kidnapped infant was found safe Wednesday night in the arms of a chunky, 35-year-old woman who admitted taking him from his crib while she was babysitting five days ago.

Betty Jean Yocum returned to the bathroom of her darkened home 10 miles from Ontario when she heard FBI agents kicking in the door. Hugged to her bosom was 8-week-old Eric Leon Flores.

In a bedroom the agents found a baby in a bassinet and bottle of milk. Mrs. Yocum, who had been told by Mrs. Flores that the baby was her own, said she had been told by Mrs. Flores that the baby was her own.

The baby, ill with a cold when he was taken from his crib, was sleeping in his bed last Friday, when Mrs. Yocum, calling herself Ann Williams, called herself her own. She told the FBI she was a social worker from a local church, called on Mrs. Flores, Ruth Flores, 35, wife of Flores, to offer any help that CHICAGO (UPI)—Deliberate fraud among those receiving public assistance in Illinois is "remarkably low," according to Gershon Hurwitz, head of the state Public Aid Commission's investigative unit.

Last year, Hurwitz said, fraud convictions amounted to only 0.29 per cent among the some 350,000 persons a month assisted by public aid funds.

Prudent claims — not all of them deliberate — amounted to $501,000.

No figures were available about fraud cases that might have gone undetected but officials insist that their county-state check system keeps cheating of any kind to a minimum.

In 1957, THE percentage of proven cheaters was about the same as in 1956—0.28 per cent.

Increased efficiency among investigators is reflected in the figures for 1956 when the percentage was 0.53 per cent.

Of the claims in 1958, Hurwitz said, about $30,000 was collected through court action or by the Public Aid Commission.

Efficient pre-case investigations by caseworkers are responsible for the relatively low rate of fraud, Hurwitz said.

Of the 9,231 applications for aid to dependent children in Cook County in 1957, he said, "4,329 or 47 per cent were turned down. To reject such applications for fraud, welfare investigators posed as a pharmacist, who padded bills.

In Chicago, a shabbily dressed welfare investigator posing as a pharmacist, who padded bills, caught a restaurant owner inflating food bills.

"These cases are rare," said John W. Ballou, Cook County public assistance director. "But human nature being the way it is, there are always bound to be some cheaters."

Not all frauds are committed by aid recipients, according to Hurwitz.

In one recent downstate case, a doctor overcharged for his treatments, and billed the state for other services he never performed. Another such instance involved a pharmacist, who padded bills.

Storm Hits Midwest; Squall Wrecks Plant

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A vast March storm today spread into new territory with driving snow and smashing winds. The storm that had dumped up to 1½ feet of snow on eight Midwestern states was centered in Michigan this morning.

A squall that resembled a small tornado ripped out a 60 foot section of a wall of the Ford Motor Co. parts plant in Monroe, Mich.

When Mrs. Flores returned, one of the twins was gone.

In the end it was the baby himself who led to the capture of Mrs. Yocum. His loud wails made a neighbor suspicious. The FBI was notified.

None of the 250 workers was hurt and operations continued.

A Greyhound bus was stranded on U.S. 27, about 15 miles south of Cheboygan, Mich. A snowplow was sent to the rescue but no passengers were so bad it had to turn back.

Another Greyhound bus was reported marooned between Indian River and Alanson, Mich.

ALL SCHOOLS in Cheboygan and surrounding counties were closed. St. Ignace was virtually isolated.

Iowa, staggering from the impact of the winter blizzard 10 years, struggled to throw off its snowy straitjacket.

More than a dozen motorists spent the night on lounges and beds in a furniture store on the outskirts of Des Moines. One Des Moines motorist required 30 minutes to make a 10 block trip in his car.

The storm was headed into the Northeast. Snowfall of 4 to 8 inches was forecast for northern Vermont and New Hampshire and Maine expected up to a foot.

Another major storm hit the Southeast. A record 9.87 inches of rain deluged the Charleston, S.C. airport in a 24-hour period. It measured 4.34 inches in downtown Charleston.

Apalachicola, Fla., was drenched by 7.51 inches of rain.

Winds reached gust of 88 m.p.h. on the North Carolina shore. Gale warnings were hoisted between Charleston, S. C., and Cape Hatteras, N. C.

THE MIDWEST battled to maintain normal functions amid heavy snow drifts.

Crosby, Wis., came close to a standstill. All schools were closed. Several manufacturing plants shut their doors for a long weekend. Mail deliveries were canceled. Telephone service was placed on an emergency basis.

Hundreds of school children who usually are bused by bus were stranded away from their homes during the night in Wisconsin. Hotels were jammed.

A mail train was trapped in the snow at Maribel, Wis.

A state of emergency was declared in Ripon, Wis., and pupils stayed overnight in Ripon High School.

Strong winds drifted highways in southeastern Minnesota faster than crews could open them. Scores of cars were stalled.

Among the heaviest snowfalls in the Midwest were 18 inches in Wausau, Wis., and 17 in Ottumwa, Iowa, and La Crosse, Wis. Falls of a foot or more were common and drifts raised the levels in many places.

BLANTYRE, N.Y. (AP)—Security forces ranged over the town of Blantyre, N.Y., today to guard against a possible upsurge in the town's racial tensions. The town is the home of a large number of African nationalists who took up arms and war axes in their fight to throw off British rule.

The latest bloody clash came Thursday when security forces were ambushed at a roadblock on the Zomba-Namwera road northeast of Blantyre.

By official count, 35 Africans have been killed and 63 wounded since the start of the trouble.

Sir Robert Armitage, governor of this southeast African protectorate, expressed confidence that Nyanaland's future can be negotiated with African leaders despite the violence and bloodshed.

STATF POLICE said they had no clues to the slayer or the motive. They said much depended on examinations, being conducted by Dr. Geoffrey T. Mann, state medical examiner.

"There are many, many questions that Dr. Mann will be able to answer for us," said investigator G. S. Cooper.

Mann said Jackson had been dead at least six weeks, which means the slayings occurred when there was no one around to see the body.

He said that the United States "is leaving the door open for negotiations so that it may not be said we are rigid, instead of firm."

Johnson, last to speak, said it would be foolish to pretend that the situation in Berlin does not warrant great concern.

Then he went on to say that all possible ways to achieve a settlement will be looked into, but emphasized no thought is being given to "yielding to Soviet pressure."

The congressional leaders made it plain Eisenhower has not asked for any resolution by Congress to support his German policy, comparable to the Middle East resolution two years ago.

MARCH WINDS VIGOROUSLY attacked Kankakee this morning, straining to snatch away hats and on steel-sided spots, even threatening to blow pedestrians off their feet. Moon Signals End At 412,000 Miles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pioneer IV vanished into space today and may never be heard from again.

The space probe tracking station at Goldstone, Calif., lost contact at 10:15 a.m. (EST) today when the probe's transmitting signals became very weak.

At that time the probe was traveling toward the sun at about 3,900 miles an hour, 412,000 miles from the earth.

The Goldstone station installed a special filter in its tracking gear and followed the space probe for an additional nine minutes.

The last contact was made at about 10:24 a.m.

ASKED IF THERE was any likelihood of further contact with Pioneer IV, a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said it was unlikely.

He added that since the probe's battery apparently had gone dead, it was unlikely that the Goldstone station would make any further contact with it.

"We think that this is it," he said.

"Pioneer IV is gone 'forever.' Earlier the gold plated cone had been sending clear signals from more than 400,000 miles out. Goldstone picked them up at 7:50 a. m.

"They came from a point deeper in the great void than any transatlantic cable could reach."

Both Parties Take United Stand Behind President in Berlin Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower discussed the Berlin situation today with congressional leaders of both parties for 90 minutes today. The leaders reported determination all around to stand firm against any Soviet threats.

"There is no thought of yielding to pressure," Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas told newsmen.

He added that on the other hand the United States and its allies are determined to explore every possible avenue which could maintain peace with honor.

Eisenhower and Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will open talks here March 20 on the situation. Macmillan also will review for the President his recent Moscow conference with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT at the place by Macmillan to come was made by the British and U. S. governments before Eisenhower's conference with the congressional leaders.

An accompanying Johnson was House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.); Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois; and Rep. Charles E. Halleck of Indiana, the House GOP leader.

They said Eisenhower had not proposed that Congress take any specific action regarding the Berlin situation.

The four later went to the office of White House press secretary James C. Hagerty. Each of them made a brief statement.

Rayburn called the conference very informative.

"The upshot," he added, "is that we are united. We have no hesitations no thought is being given to 'yielding to Soviet pressure.'"

The congressional leaders made it plain Eisenhower has not asked for any resolution by Congress to support his German policy, comparable to the Middle East resolution two years ago.

Dirksen ADDED he does not look for discussion of any such resolution in the Senate.

Halleck also spoke of determination to remain firm as the dominant sentiment at the conference.

Dirksen said that the United States "is leaving the door open for negotiations so that it may not be said we are rigid, instead of firm."

Johnson, last to speak, said it would be foolish to pretend that the situation in Berlin does not warrant great concern.

Then he went on to say that all possible ways to achieve a settlement will be looked into, but emphasized no thought is being given to "yielding to Soviet pressure."

Johnson said also that attention will be given to see that "we are thoroughly and adequately prepared" for any eventuality.

Farmer Killed At Home Near Peotone

PEOTONE—A retired bachelor farmer, 77, who lived midway between here and Monee, was bludgeoned to death just outside the rear door of his home about 8 p.m. Thursday.

The victim was William (Willie) Zirzow, who lived with his bachelor brother, Albert, 72, on their family homestead farm three miles east and three miles north of here.

William's skull and face were battered by what appeared to be a pipe or long heavy bolt, according to Sheriff Gilbert Knater. Deputy Coroner Paul Helfrich said death was likely instantaneous.

William went to the rear door to answer a knock from a woman who claimed she had trouble with her car and wanted to call for help. As soon as he opened the door, two men pulled William out of the door and a man and woman rushed past him into the house, Albert told a Kankakee Journal reporter this morning in an interview prior to the inquest.

THE INQUEST got under way at 11:30 with Will County Coroner Willard Blood in charge. A physician's death certificate listed death as due to skull fracture, brain damage, multiple fracture of facial bones and exposure. The coroner's jury ruled death by homicide by person or persons unknown. It returned the verdict shortly before 1 p.m.

According to Albert, the two men began to scuffle with William while the man who came into the kitchen started to fight with him. Albert had cuts and bruises on his face to show the attack. He said it seemed his assailant had something in his hand or brass knuckles. Meanwhile the woman rushed into the dining room and began to look around and headed into the parlor as if looking for something, Albert said.

His niece, Miss Hazel Brandenburg, 45, of Chicago, was visiting, first ran upstairs and hid, but later said, "I came down when I finally got courage to help them."

THE MAN IN THE house, after scuffling with Albert also came into the dining room and apparently headed for a bedroom. Miss Brandenburg said it was about this time she appeared at the top of the stairs and saw the man. He saw her, she screamed and he raised his hands and fled.

The lone survivor was identified as Sgt. Ralph Mauro Jr., Hamden, Conn. He was a radio operator in the crew of six aboard the transport plane which also carried three passengers.

MAURO WAS LISTED in critical condition from injuries suffered in the crash. He was transferred to the Camp Lejeune Marine Base hospital about 30 miles from the air station here.

A Marine spokesman said the plane was on a routine transport flight at the time of the crash. He said weather conditions were "turbulent and very, very poor. We believe it had a bearing on the crash."

The exact cause, however, was not known.

Wants To Avoid Tax Increase

Stratton To Chop $500 Million In Budget Bids

SPRINGFIELD (UPI)—Gov. Stratton said today he will try to "hold the line" against any tax increase. But he added that he said flatly at this time there will be no increase would be "deceiving the people."

Stratton made the comments at a news conference a few weeks before he is slated to present his budget message to the Legislature, about April 1.

He said many budget requests "are practically beyond consideration," and that he expects to lop a total of between 400 million and 500 million dollars from budget requests.

"WE SHOULDN'T become extravagant," he said, adding that the administration must have "courage to stand up and use our best judgment. We can't be blown willy-nilly by pressure groups."

He indicated that the Welfare Department's bid for a 228-million dollar appropriation would be snipped. Welfare problems are gradually being diminished, he said, pointing to factors of more employees, added facilities, more working shifts and some fewer three passengers.

Stratton said he will take the same approach to the budget as two years ago when a tax boost was avoided. State Sen. Everett R. Peters (R-St. Joseph), has said the state will need perhaps 20 million extra dollars and that a ½ cent sales tax boost is almost inevitable.

Any form of excise tax, such as the sales tax, would be the easiest to raise and is the easiest to collect, Stratton answered about where, if anywhere, a tax increase would come if needed.

Hope Doctor Can Provide Murder Clues

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (AP)—Authorities are banking heavily on medical examinations for clues to the brutal slaying of a Louisiana County man and his infant daughter.

Two bodies found Wednesday under a brush pile two miles west of here have been identified as those of Carroll V. Jackson Jr., 29, a feed truck driver, and 18-month-old Janet Jackson, missing since Jan. 11. Investigators held little hope of finding alive Jackson's wife Mildred, 27, and their other daughter Susan Anne, 8.

The family vanished while driving from the home of Mrs. Jackson's parents to their own home in Louisiana County, about 45 miles from the spot where the bodies were found by two men seeking sawdust money for a garden. Their abandoned car was found Jan. 12, keys still in the ignition.

STATF POLICE said they had no clues to the slayer or the motive. They said much depended on examinations, being conducted by Dr. Geoffrey T. Mann, state medical examiner.

"There are many, many questions that Dr. Mann will be able to answer for us," said investigator G. S. Cooper.

Fleeing Convict Frees Hostages In Alabama

FLAT ROCK, Ala. (AP)—A fleeing convict freed a state patrolman, a married couple and a fellow convict near this North Alabama town early today after holding them hostage more than 12 hours.

The convict, William E. Smothers, continued his desperate bid for freedom in the married couple's car. The highway patrol said he was believed heading for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he has relatives.

Later the car was found abandoned near South Pittsburgh, Tenn., and police of Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia converged on the area. At least 20 police cars were searching the hilly area.

Gun Totin' Indiana Congressman May Force New Rule

Nation Faces Many Dilemmas, Rotary Told

America was pictured as a nation impaled on the horns of several dilemmas by a college professor who spoke in Kankakee.

"We are uncertain as to what course we should take on certain foreign problems," he said.

Lindorf A. Marquart said the dilemmas are posed by the aftermath of the containment policy, the increasing international importance of Asia and Africa and the nation's relations with Russia.

Marquart, professor of history and government at National Teachers College in Evanston, spoke at the Kankakee Rotary Club meeting Thursday.

THE NATION embarked on the containment policy a few years ago he said, to prevent further expansion of communism by providing economic and military aid to peripheral countries.

The support of foreign governments has become a part of our annual budget because no way has been found to reduce it. On the other hand, these governments have come to depend on American aid.

The practice has tied the American economic system to those of certain other countries and tends to fetter free trade, America has also found itself supporting dictatorial governments.

Although no one has proved the truth of the saying that the path of empire moves westward, a look at the map tends to bear it out, Marquart said.

The history of the next 50 years will be written in the East, Far East and Middle East, not in the West," he said.

INDIA AND CHINA, for instance, are attempting to make progress while working with the largest populations in the world yet "there is no pattern in the world today adequate for them to follow."

As for Africa, he said this "not so dark continent" may prove to be the place of the "white man's last stand."

"How can we conduct satisfactory foreign relations with them when we know so little about them?" he asked.

Should not our students be studying these nations?"

As for the Soviet Union, Marquart said it had always been his impression the Russians were "one people we want little of."

But when they launched the first satellite, Russia suddenly became America's standard.

Crash science programs were advocated "to teach our children to wage war rather than peace . . . and our prosperity results, in part, from making arms which we do not expect to use."

ALTHOUGH AMERICA seems unable to define an articulate policy equal to the times, Marquart said Russian leaders appear to "believe profoundly in their way of life."

Marquart said the problem is not to expect to use.

Hope Won't Take Rest To Heal Eye

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Comedian Bob Hope, ignoring a warning by his doctor to slow down for the next year, plans to start filming one of his television shows today—less than 24 hours after leaving Columbia—Presbyterian Medical Center in New York.

The 54-year-old comedian had been under observation at the medical center for the past two days because of a blood clot that reduced vision in his left eye to 50 percent.

"Take a year's vacation!" the energetic entertainer said in answer to a question on his arrival here Thursday night. "I have to make a movie in July. I have TV shows. It would be impossible for me to take a year off."

"I'm just going to have to throat the down my crying speed," he flew to New York Monday to consult Dr. Alton H. Reese, nationally known ophthalmologist, after suffering a relapse last week while undergoing treatment here.

Reese, following examination of Hope's illness, said that an operation was unnecessary and that the comedian would regain full vision with continued use of anti-coagulant drugs.

Rebels Sought For Ambush Death Of American

ALGIERS (UPI)—Vengeances-minded French troops pushed through the Algerian mountains today in search of Moslem rebels who killed American adventurer Homer F. Killems and ambushed a French infantry convoy in two separate incidents.

Killems, 45, of Salem Springs, Ark., brother of Miss Vivien Killems of Stoughton, Conn., an industrialist well-known for his anti-views, and his German interpreter were killed and another American was wounded in an ambush at Col du Jui, four miles west of Tlemcen on the highway from Morocco to Oran.

Fourteen French soldiers were killed in a second ambush near Tlemcen, 150 miles west of Algiers. Killems, the first American victim of the Algerian war, arrived in Algeria 10 days ago to do photography for Eyegate House, producers of educational films.

The only survivor of the Killems' ambush was William Hobbs, 37, also of Salem Springs. He was shot through the chest and stomach from close range and left for dead. He was discovered by a French patrol and rushed to the hospital at Tlemcen, 70 miles southwest of Oran.

Hobbs' condition was reported "satisfactory" and he recovered sufficiently to tell Tlemcen officials about the ambush.

Rules Of Thumb In Buying Home

By FAYE HENLE

Though spring, the traditional home buying season, has hardly come, the mortgage banks have been busy with report more people interested in buying homes this year than in the recent past.

"The trouble with most of these people," says an FHA official, "is that they simply do not have the income needed to carry the house they've set their sights upon."

Added his colleague: "I've noticed too few potential home owners figure total carrying charges. They stop at the cost of the mortgage, forgetting the sums needed for taxes, insurance, maintenance and such."

"They especially forget that once a house is bought they will need to deposit sufficient cash to cover insurance and tax payments for at least a year in advance."

These two could have helped the hour about what they suspect we don't know about home financing. I pinned them down.

"How much," I asked, "can a self-employed man with a family of two children, earning $10,000 a year afford to spend for a home. What size mortgage should he get?"

They agreed my question was tough, pointing out that today much depends upon what is available in the local in which a buyer wishes or is willing to settle. They offered the following rule of thumb which they claim is classic but which may be stretched upwards a bit nowadays:

"Ideally the cost of a home should not exceed two and a half times a man's annual salary. If you get $10,000 a year you should content yourself with a $25,000 home."

Monthly carrying charges, including payments on the principal and interest on the mortgage, insurance, local taxes and utilities, should not exceed your weekly take-home pay.

These bankers stressed the importance of having a safe margin of cash available when you close for the house. Many a family head has found himself caught short because he neglected to provide for the reserve or escrow account his lending institution requires when they grant a mortgage.

What payments are made from this account? Taxes on property, fire and windstorm insurance, and in the case of an FHA loan, FHA insurance.

Here's how an escrow account works: Let's take tax payments as an example.

Say you take possession of your house in June and your local taxes totalling $120 for the year are due in October and April. Suppose too your first mortgage payment is scheduled for August. Preparing the $120 annual tax money, $10 monthly is to be set aside for this purpose.

When October rolls around, however, you've only made your August and September payments. Thus there are but $20 in the escrow account toward the $60 due. To avoid this, your lending institution figures out in advance of the closing how much more will be needed to meet the first tax bill. In this case it is $40 and you are required to deposit $40 on the day of the closing.

The homeowner should look upon this account as a means of budgeting for these payments. At any time he sells his house the unused portions of these funds are given back to him. By paying ahead on insurance, for example, he may actually benefit by getting his insurance at a somewhat reduced rate.

Hostesses were aunts and the grandmother of the bride. A yellow and white color scheme was used throughout. Mr. and Mrs. Mason were united in marriage on Jan. 30 in the Lutheran parsonage in West Lafayette, Ind., where they are making their home.

The bridegroom is a student at Purdue University. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peeken, Ashkum, was escorted by St. Mary's School of Nursing, Kankakee.

Sneak Attack Doomed: McElroy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy believes an attempt by Russia to launch a sneak attack on the free world would be doomed to failure.

McElroy told a news conference late Thursday that it would be "almost impossible" to carry out the necessary massive preparations to launch a simultaneous attack on thousands of targets without being detected.

He said this element of protection against surprise attack would hold into the foreseeable future.

The defense secretary also warned that if the Soviets start hostilities in the West Berlin area they could be triggering World War III.

McElroy made it plain that he did not at this moment expect war over Berlin. In fact, he said the situation there was not now as lethal as some previous crises faced during the cold war. But he said that Berlin was "potentially very inflammatory" just as Quemoy Island and the Middle East were 12 years ago.

His WARNING ABOUT global war came when he was asked why the United States continues its military manpower cuts in the face of a looming military crisis.

Crash Victim Is Still In Critical Condition

ST. ANNE (JNS)—The condition of a 30-year-old rural St. Anne victim of a car-train crash Thursday afternoon at St. Anne remains critical in St. Mary's Hospital, Kankakee.

Suffering multiple injuries in the crash, which occurred about 1 p. m. Thursday, is Peter Meszarosch, an employee of Hoekstra Bros., rural St. Anne gladiolus farmers.

Meszarosch was driving to town when his westbound car was struck by a New York Central diesel at Guertine street.

According to W. E. McDams, conductor of the southbound train, who saw the car approaching the tracks, Meszarosch apparently hadn't noticed the train in time to use his car brakes. Both the car and train were traveling between 40 and 50 miles an hour when the crash occurred, McDams said.

The impact knocked the car clear of the tracks and threw the motor about 200 feet from the car. The train was composed of three diesel units and a caboose.

2 Area Drivers Lose Licenses

Two Kankakee area residents have had their drivers licenses revoked after convictions of driving while intoxicated, according to the secretary of state's office.

They are Donald E. Belcher, 223 N. Douglas Ave., Bradley, and Everett J. LaFond, 840 S. East Ave.

Workshop For State Hospital Volunteers Set

A staff development workshop for volunteer services personnel from the state's 13 mental hospitals will be held March 17-18 at Galesburg State Hospital.

Mrs. Evelyn Anderson and Mrs. Annabelle Haigh, respective volunteer service supervisors at Kankakee and Moline state hospitals, will attend.

The workshop is designed to focus attention on basic concepts of the volunteer program and the volunteer's role in the therapy program. The workshop will utilize the small group method to emphasize job description as a tool for more effective volunteer service. Members will take part in panel discussions, group meetings and problem solving sessions.

The volunteer services program has become an integral part of the state mental hospital's care and treatment program.

Volunteers supplement the work of staff members by giving patients personal attention each day.

Post Load Limits On County Roads

Maximum load limits of seven tons gross weight were posted on all bituminous surfaced county roads today, County Highway Superintendent Howard Schward announced.

He said the restriction will remain in effect as long as weather conditions warrant. The roads will be patrolled and violators arrested.

Schward explained that the weather conditions at this time of the year, with some frost still in the ground and much precipitation, produce unstable base conditions which tend to crack and break up blacktop surfaces readily.

County crews have been at work patching holes in the roads caused by frost conditions during the winter, Schward said.

He said that in some areas, damage has been heavier than usual and other sections experienced about the usual amount of damage.

A county crew was sent to Brookmont boulevard Thursday to repair the deteriorating surface, Schward stated. Repairs have been made on other roads as needed.

GM Antitrust Case Adjourned To March 16

CHICAGO (AP) — The Du Pont General Motors antitrust case was in adjournment today until March 16 as the government completed testimony after hearings lasting nearly three weeks.

The government, seeking for 10 years in legal battles to divert the E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. of 63 million dollars of General Motors Corp. common stock, rested its case Thursday.

Defense witnesses will be called when the hearings are resumed before Judge Walter J. LaBuy in U.S. District Court.

The current round in the long legal fight stems from a 1957 Supreme Court ruling that Du Pont holdings in GM—23 per cent—constitute a tendency toward monopoly and was a violation of the Clayton Antitrust Act. The court directed LaBuy to order "equitable relief necessary and appropriate in the public interest."

The government has proposed that 20 million shares of GM stock be sold on the open market over a 10-year period with the remaining 3 million shares be distributed to individual Du Pont stockholders on a prorated basis.

The defense lawyers contend the government plan would depress GM and Du Pont stock prices on the market. They propose, as an alternative, Du Pont retain its stock but pass on voting rights to individual stockholders.

Reduce Charge Against Woman

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Betty Jean Yocum, 38, who took a 5-week-old Eric Leon Flores from his crib and kept him five days, is charged with child stealing.

The charge was reduced Thursday from suspicion of kidnapping.

"I just love children," the bleached blonde said, sobbing.

She offered to babysit for widowed Ruth Flores, 35, last Friday night. While Mrs. Flores was gone she took the baby—a twin—to her home a few miles away.

Mrs. Yocum convinced her husband, a truck driver who frequently is away from home, the baby was her own.

"I wanted to have a son," she said. "It was the one thing I wanted more than anything else to give my husband."

Man Denies Guilt In Fake Money Plot

CHICAGO (AP) — A man accused of being ring leader of a million dollar counterfeit ring insists he's got only $26 in his name.

Alphonse Amabile, 40, and William Raboli, 38, both of Chicago, cursed and struggled Thursday at a U. S. marshal took them before U. S. District Judge Philip Sullivan on a counterfeiting indictment.

"I'm not guilty," Amabile declared. "I don't want a lawyer. I can't afford one. I've got only $26 to my name. I only work for a living for my wife and child."

JUDGE SULLIVAN appointed Atty. James P. Piragone, former assistant U. S. attorney, to represent them.

Amabile, an ex-convict with a record of counterfeiting money and wartime rationing stamps, and Raboli, also an ex-convict, pleaded innocent. Amabile's bond was set at $50,000 and Raboli's at $20,000.

The judge set March 12 for further court action.

The two men, described as leaders by the Secret Service, were arrested Wednesday night. The arrests were the climax of a Secret Service campaign which resulted in seizure of more than $750,000 in counterfeit $100 bills and the arrest of 25 persons.

4 Lutheran Bodies Ready For Merger

CHICAGO (AP) — Churches representing four Lutheran bodies have provisionally agreed on seven articles on a constitution for a merged church.

Agreement on confession of faith, membership, powers of church, objectives, nature of congregations and ministers came Thursday from 46 clergymen working on a 21-article constitution.

They represent the United, Augustana, Finnish Evangelical, the American Evangelical, Lutheran Churches. These churches claim a total membership of three million.

A SPOKESMAN said the group hoped to reach agreement on the remaining 14 articles by Saturday. The articles were to be submitted to the individual Lutheran conventions meeting in 1960.

Also in Chicago, three other bodies of the eight-member National Lutheran Council are meeting to expedite a merger by Jan. 1, 1961. They are the Evangelical, the American and the United Evangelical Lutheran churches.

This new body, with some two million members, will be called the American Lutheran Church.

Expert Tells How We'll Set Up Inhabited Space Stations

(This is the second of two articles in which one of the world's leading experts on space matters relates how the present exploratory invasion of the universe—by America's sun-orbiting Pioneer IV and other satellites—is carrying us steadily toward the goal of placing man in outer space.)

By DR. HERMAN OBERTH

NUERNBERG, Germany (UPI)—Even today, on the basis of space explorations to date, we know that putting an inhabited station in space is possible. The method is already before us.

Two space ships will go up, and the pilot of one will bring it close to the other. Both pilots, then, clad in space suits which will allow them to move about in space.

It seems a dreadful leap, at a speed of five miles per second, hundreds of miles above earth.

THE FACT IS, though, that it will be a simple occurrence—centrifugal force keeps everything floating.

The cables are joined, and the pilots return to their ships and put them in motion so they circle each other.

The centrifugal force will produce the illusion of feeling the earth's gravity—a very important point, for the lack of this feeling, prolonged, could have serious effects on their physical and mental health.

Conditions in the center of the linking cable will be utterly weightless, and here we will build a hollow ball of wire grating material.

This ball will serve as the mooring station for other space ships which bring tools and machine parts with them—and from these in turn we build, inside the ball, the actual mechanisms which will make the flights among the heavenly bodies.

The process will be carried out in this way because our kinds of rockets, with their chemical propellants, are really not very well adapted to that kind of flight because their bases exhaust too slowly.

Instead, we will build "electric space ships" inside the ball. They will be run on electricity produced with the aid of solar energy or atomic piles and which will be used to accelerate them.

WHEN THE FIRST such electric space ship has made its satisfactory flight near the space station, the next step will be a flight to the moon.

It is from the moon that the building materials for further space projects will come. It will be a lot easier to do it that way than to bring them from earth, because transportation costs will be about 1,000 times cheaper that way.

I think it probable that many of us will live to see living accommodations for people on the or by way of one of its neighbor stations. It would be possible, under such a system, to have a single trans-curved everywhere on earth.

Discusses Woman's Role With Traffic Safety

"Traffic Safety Is a Woman's Business, Too" was the subject of the talk presented to members of the Business and Professional Women's Club Wednesday by Mrs. Mayme DeBruin.

Mrs. DeBruin said, "Due to the governor's safety program, great strides forward have been made."

There were 234 fewer traffic fatalities in 1958 in Illinois than in the previous year while at the same time traffic increased.

OUR NATION is becoming safety-conscious and this advancement is helped by the frequent exhortations for safe driving made on television and radio programs, and through newspapers.

Notwithstanding our safety programs, motor vehicle accidents in the nation cause one death every 14 minutes and one injury every 22 seconds.

Mrs. DeBruin emphasized the part that women should take in participating in local safety activities, including supporting and serving.

$130 will be presented to the American Cancer Society. Final plans were made for the style show and card party which will be next Tuesday.

The date of the next meeting has been changed from March 17 to March 18.

New Spring Suits Are Trim

Trim is the word for the new spring suit fashions. Every woman will find there are many "suitable" looks for her, all flattering and scaled for her figure.

In a season when the majority of suits have short jackets, except for the so-called fashionable walking suit—the fashion minded woman is in the running indeed. Small topplings, boleros, briefest of coverings, sometimes rounded and with a chunky shoulder line, add to the brilliant effect on the waistline.

THIS SPRING THE suit will especially be in popular demand due to an early Easter. The walking suit or "stroller" will serve double duty for the jacket will double as a travel coat later.

Jackets are carved with a new freedom of line and skirts are wide and far flung or hugging close at the knee which makes the "suit" not a full suit, but rather a splinter of a dress, cleverly jacketed for the suit impression.

New spring suits manage day and evening assignments with equal facility. With a quick change of accessories a busy woman can travel from a luncheon date to an afternoon club meeting . . . and then go straight to a late-day cocktail party, looking beautifully put together for each and every occasion.

Checks and short-cropped jackets both are new. The wide-colored jacket is cut to reveal the slim-waisted skirt. Bold, bold checks take to the new suit shapings with great success.

THE EXTREME EMPIRE line of last fall has been so modified that it will be no challenge for hostile critics. Waistlines are often slightly lifted but there is still no doubt as to the natural lines of the figure.

There is more bulk above the waist with shoulders looking wider, the width coming through artful cutting and shaping of the material for there are no football pads in any shoulders.

A suit for spring then is a slim-skirt and a short-jacket which will provide a trim silhouette for the modern "fired-up" fashion-minded woman.

50 Million To Benefit In 60 Countries

Churches Open Drives For World Needy

BY LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
The biggest bargain available to Americans this weekend will be offered on Sunday morning in thousands of Protestant and Catholic churches.

It's a bargain in charity. Each dollar you contribute will buy at least $10 worth of food, clothing, medicine and other help for needy families abroad.

This is the Sunday on which Catholic churches and many Protestant denominations conduct their simultaneous annual appeals for support of religious relief agencies which are extending aid to some 50 million persons in 60 countries.

THE PROTESTANT appeal is called "one great hour of sharing." Its proceeds support the work of Church World Service, a cooperative agency representing 35 major denominations.

Catholics will be asked to give to "the bishops' relief fund," which supports the operations of Catholic Relief Services.

The third major religious relief agency, the United Jewish Appeal, began its annual drive for funds some time ago, but will still be accepting contributions this weekend.

Performing a traditional church function on a global scale, the religious relief agencies have become major channels for aid to the hungry and homeless of other lands.

This year they are distributing about 1,500,000 pounds of food, clothing, medicine and other medical supplies.

They are providing toys, books, and other supplies for countless orphaned, abandoned and neglected children.

They are operating health clinics, digging wells, and conducting demonstrations in modern farming and canning methods.

BECAUSE IT IS conducted with no motive other than compassion for fellow human beings in need, this vast private aid program has won goodwill for America in many lands where government-sponsored aid projects are viewed with suspicion.

President Eisenhower recently described the work of the religious relief agencies as "an incalculable force for good."

The most impressive aspect of the religious relief program is that so much is accomplished with so little. The funds available for overseas relief, through all three major faiths, total about $35 million dollars a year. But the services rendered by these agencies would cost at least $350 million dollars if they were valued on a straight commercial basis.

The Rev. Benjamin Coleman, vicar of the Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, said: "This is a time when we need to remember that we are all brothers and sisters."

The Rev. J. D. Houser, pastor of the West Side Church of Nazarene, said: "This is a time when we need to remember that we are all brothers and sisters."

The Rev. George J. Franklin, pastor of the Bradley Church of Nazarene, said: "This is a time when we need to remember that we are all brothers and sisters."

The Rev. Forrest W. Noland, pastor of the College Church of Nazarene, said: "This is a time when we need to remember that we are all brothers and sisters."

The Rev. Melvin G. Riddleberger, pastor of the Limestone Community Church of Nazarene, said: "This is a time when we need to remember that we are all brothers and sisters."

The Rev. James G. Parker, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, said:

Sudden Drop Hurts 12 Aboard Airliner
CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago-bound Northwest Airlines plane, carrying 76 passengers went into an unexpected 4,000-foot dive in turbulent air as it neared Chicago Thursday night.
The sudden drop tossed passengers around the cabin of the four-engine DCB craft. At least 12 persons were injured, most of them slightly. Two stewardesses and one passenger were hospitalized. Nine passengers were treated for minor injuries when the plane, from Minneapolis, landed at Midway Airport in a rainstorm.
Stewardess Miss Evelyn Lau, 21, of Honolulu, was knocked unconscious. Hospital officials said she suffered back injuries.
Others hospitalized were stewardess Jean Bohlin, 25, of Minneapolis, with face injuries; and Nan Sahli, 52, of Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich., with a fractured right ankle.
The freight engineer fled after the crash.

Train Crash Kills 11, Hurts 70 In Mexico
MEXICO CITY (AP) — Police hunted today for the engineer of a speeding freight train which slammed into a passenger train, killing 11 persons and injuring more than 70.
The collision occurred Thursday near Xonotla, about 27 miles south of Mexico City.
Javier Garcia Travel, an investigator for the federal district attorney, said both engineers may have been at fault. Preliminary investigation indicated the engineer of the passenger train failed to repair a bearing without putting out warning flags. Garcia said the freight engineer apparently failed to give the passenger train a required 10-minute head start and was traveling at high speed.
The freight engineer fled after the crash.

Carve Up Ontario, Seek World Recognition
BRANTFORD, Ont. (AP) — Indians on the warpath have proclaimed a vest-pocket independent state in Ontario and demanded immediate recognition.
They threaten to go to the United Nations if Canada doesn't put down "a rebel spokesman declared."
The Canadian government's first reaction was to wait and see. A vetoed offer was held out to smoke the pipe of peace.
REBELLIOUS warriors, carrying hatchets and wearing warpaint and feathered headdresses, staged the bloodless coup Thursday and overthrew the Canadian government-sponsored council of 11 men in the Six Nations Reserve.
Some 20 hereditary tribal chiefs branded the council a puppet government and seized administrative control of the 12-mile-square reserve west of Toronto and Buffalo, N.Y.
The old council slipped out the back door just as the new one took office. The new council said it was satisfied that the revolution is a success and will not be recognized.

Much Used Carpets Keep New Look
Carpets are made to walk on to be sure and with occasional attention to spots and traffic lanes they will stay looking new. Once carpets are clean it's easy to keep the over all new look by removing spots with Blue Lustre Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner. This famous brand is the favorite of some carpet mills. Assembly Hopes To Start Action On Jam Of Bills
Convenes Tuesday; May Act On Taxes, Bingo, Compensation
SPRINGFIELD (AP) — The Illinois legislature reconvenes Tuesday, with attempts to break up the glut of bills and resolutions which has clogged committee calendars and reduced floor action to a snail's pace.
Legislation awaiting committee action covers a wide range of subjects — legalized bingo, property tax assessment, township wheel taxes, welfare department procedures and state park regulations.
Scheduled for a public hearing Wednesday on the House floor is a Stratton Administration bill to extend the 39-week unemployment compensation period through June 30, rather than cut it off at the March 31 deadline, and to provide for automatic extension of such benefits whenever joblessness reaches 4.75 per cent of the total insured work force.
The much-debated legislation to ban the death penalty in Illinois for a six-year trial period is on passage stage in the House, along with an emergency measure appropriating $700,000 to cover salaries and other expenses at Southern Illinois University through June 30.
The House Executive Committee is scheduled to take up a proposal calling for an investigation of bidding and purchasing procedures for the State Welfare Department. The resolution, backed by 14 Democrats and one Republican, is expected to run into strong opposition at the Wednesday hearing.
The SENATE Industry Committee is slated to take up a fair employment practices measure identical to one which has cleared its committee hurdle in the House.
Because hearings repeatedly have been postponed, the bill of legislation hangs fire in committee. House committee hearings are scheduled to consider proposals to:
Provide for the photographing of motorists at the time they receive drunk-driving tests, and to permit such photographs to be admitted as court evidence.
Lower minimum age for recipients of old age assistance from 16 to 18.
Eliminate personal property tax place a ceiling on the value of real property short of 100 per cent from food and clothing. The program involves an amendment to the state-revenue article which the sponsor, Rep. John Morris (D-Chicago), said he intends to introduce this week.
Permit 18-year-olds to vote, and legalize bingo for charitable, religious, educational or civic purposes.
Require every community in Illinois to observe daylight saving time from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October.

Chief Outshoots Convict-Kidnaper
TRENTON, Ga. (AP) — A single bullet Saturday ended the desperate freedom bid of Alabama convict William Smothers as he tried to shoot it out with a Georgia sheriff.
Smothers, 38, was felled by a shot from Trenton Police Chief H. Hutchings after the officer and his men had received a telephone tip on the fugitive's whereabouts.
Smothers never got off a shot, although he had been quoted as boasting he would not be taken alive. The convict's shoulder was shattered by a shot from Sheriff Hutchings, who was in the house. He was taken to a hospital where he died.
Smothers was serving sentences totaling 180 years for six robberies at Birmingham, Ala., when he fled his desperate flight Thursday.
The kidnapping of four persons, including Alabama Patrolman Otto Dees, during the getaway attempt, was the first police action since the kidnapping of a child at Flat Rock, Ala., Friday.
Smothers was captured in a field about 20 miles west of Chattanooga, Tenn., where he was taken to a jail. "Smothers drew the gun from under his coat—the same one he took from the Alabama patrolman—and stuck it in the sheriff's face," Hutchings recounted.
Smothers got his brief freedom by overpowering Patrolman Dees south of Birmingham Thursday while Dees was taking him from the jail. Prison at Montgomery to Birmingham to stand trial on a pistol possession charge.
He is married and the father of two daughters.
Martin, 33, is a personnel assistant at General Foods Corp. where he has been employed for the last eight years. This is his first bid for public office.
He is a Kankakee Junior Achievement adviser and a teacher in the Immanuel Baptist junior church. Martin served in the Navy for three years during World War II. He is married and the father of two daughters.

4th Man Files For Park Board
A fourth candidate has filed for election to Kankakee Park District board of commissioners next month.
He is Cecil B. Martin Jr., 63, 3 McKinley Ave., who filed his candidacy petition with Edward P. Drotel, park board secretary, Friday afternoon.
Two seats on the board of commissioners will become vacant in April, when the terms of A. E. Kerger Sr. and Martin Devere expire. Neither man is a candidate for reelection.

Dag In Thailand
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld arrived Saturday from Bangkok for a two-day visit with Thai government officials. He is the first of a series of visits to Thailand by U.N. officials.
The three candidates who filed their petitions previously are: Peter R. Zinkann, 269 N. Washington Ave.; William Diggle, 870 W. Walnut St.; and George P. Edwards Jr., 440 S. Alma Ave.
The park district election will be held April 7, along with township balloting. In addition to the three from the Kankakee area were Downers Grove, Strato and Mendon.

Department Confirms Airport Application
The state Aeronautics Department has confirmed its order approving the Kankakee Valley Airport Authority's application for a commercial airport certificate.
The confirmation was based on the findings of a public hearing in Kankakee Feb. 9 on objections to the department's previous approval of the application.
In effect, the decision will permit issuance of a certificate to the Airport Authority as soon as it acquires the property owned by Delbert Koerner, operator of the present Kankakee airport.
The Airport Authority is still negotiating with Koerner for purchase of his property.
Once the property is transferred to the Authority and the proposed construction starts, the airport commissioners will be in a position to apply for the $180,000 appropriated by the state for building a public airport here.
The objections to the Aeronautics Department will hold hearings in the Authority's application were filed by Koerner and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bracken, owners of property adjoining the airport. The department found that Koerner based his objection on the fact that he had not yet entered into a

Officers Halt Prison Escape Plot In East

Nikita Tells German Reds Berlin Must Be Free City
BERLIN (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev came to Berlin Saturday night and demanded the withdrawal of Allied troops from the former German capital. The Kremlin leader spoke at a torchlight rally in East Berlin before a crowd of more than 100,000.
He declared, "Order must be brought to Berlin. A World War II peace treaty that would give recognition to East Germany as a state.
"We are waiting for an answer from the Western powers — to our proposals," Khrushchev said. He hoped the answer will be sensible and on a basis of equality.
Khrushchev came here from the trade fair city of Leipzig, where he spent four days.
A cavalcade of more than 20 black limousines sped Khrushchev and his party to East Berlin along a 14-mile stretch of heavily guarded autobahn. Tommygunners were posted at the highway bridges.
Khrushchev looked tired on his arrival for a three-day visit in East Berlin. Battered and wearing a light gray topcoat, he was not his usual bouncing self on the flag-decked Soviet platform.
Before leaving Leipzig, Khrushchev warned the West of the perils of a new war and declared the Soviet Union never would permit a rural tragedy that had ended in six murders and a suicide.
Sheriff Dale George said Roland Soper, 28, unemployed, depressed and facing a divorce suit, had killed himself, his wife Viola, 29, and five children by a previous marriage.
All of the deaths probably took place on Wednesday or early Thursday, the sheriff said. This was indicated by the condition of the bodies.
Two Mrs. Soper and a daughter, Laura, 11, died more violent deaths than the others. Officers said they were beaten on the head with a hammer. They were found in a blood-stained bed on the second floor of the two-story frame house on the Colfax-Pleasantville road eight miles northeast of here. Soper and the other four children were found in Soper's locked automobile parked by the house. All had died from carbon monoxide fumes.
The NEIGHBOR, Mrs. David MIGHT, had missed seeing the children described by officers living in the area as "just wonderful kids."
Mr. MIGHT went to the Soper house Saturday and discovered bodies in the automobile.

Storm Fades Off Coast; 39 Killed
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The upper Midwest began digging out Saturday in the wake of a blustery late season snow storm that paralyzed traffic and took the lives of at least 39.
Tapering off as it rolled into the East, the storm moved into the Atlantic Saturday after dumping up to 10 inches of snow in northern Pennsylvania.
Snow crews battled 20-foot drifts that blocked main highways in sections of Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. Iowa and Michigan appeared to have felt the storm's impact most, with up to 22 inches of snow.
The death toll attributed to the storm resulted from traffic accidents, asphyxiation and heart attacks brought on by snow shoveling. It included 16 deaths in Iowa, 10 in Indiana, 6 in Wisconsin, 4 in Michigan, 2 in New York and 1 in Pennsylvania.
In IOWA, snow plows pushed their way through huge drifts on open streets and highways and abandoned by their drivers at the height of the storm. Police in Des Moines estimated at least 20,000 vehicles were abandoned there. Wisconsin, 26 persons were rescued Friday night after spending 15 hours in a train car trapped by huge drifts 15 miles south of Green Bay. They were cold, tired and hungry but apparently suffered no ill effects.
Snow furries continued Saturday over the Great Lakes region through the central and northern Appalachians into New England.
At Boonville, N. Y., snow accumulation on the ground reached 15 inches, fed by a new fall of 10 inches.

Fire Damage To Home $6,000
A fire which apparently started from an overheated basement furnace and then spread upwards between the walls of a 1½ story frame home in Kankakee Saturday morning caused an estimated $6,000 damage.
The building is owned by Earl Schroeder, 246 E. Sycamore St., who lives in it with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroeder.
All three were away when the fire was discovered but for a time it was believed that the elder Schroeder was in the burning building.
A motorist who drove into the street was the first to notice the fire. He saw smoke coming from the building.
The service station manager, Robert Barwegen, RR 2, Mokenza, ran over to the home and kicked in a door in an attempt to find out if anyone was in the house. But he was forced back by clouds of dense white smoke.
While firemen were still fighting the blaze, Earl Schroeder returned home from a trip to a barber shop. He said he had checked the furnace before leaving the house earlier. His son and daughter-in-law were in Chicago.
Chief James P. Marnell estimated damage to the building at $4,000 and to contents at $2,000.

Beautiful Blonde Seized As Robber Of Las Vegas Bank

She is accused of robbing the First National Bank of Nevada at Wells, W. Va., Saturday.
A short time later Sheriff's deputies pulled her off a Reno-bound bus 45 miles northwest of here and recovered the money from her purse. She kicked and swore as officers dragged her from the bus.
The girl's beauty had been her undoing. The robbed bank teller, Mary Herring, called her "a beautiful champagne blonde, really a knockout."
Miss Herring said the girl handed her a note demanding $8,000 and saying she had a gun.

Department Confirms Airport Application
The state Aeronautics Department has confirmed its order approving the Kankakee Valley Airport Authority's application for a commercial airport certificate.
The confirmation was based on the findings of a public hearing in Kankakee Feb. 9 on objections to the department's previous approval of the application.
In effect, the decision will permit issuance of a certificate to the Airport Authority as soon as it acquires the property owned by Delbert Koerner, operator of the present Kankakee airport.

7 Gas-Soaked Hostages Saved From Convicts
WALPOLE, Mass. (UPI) — State troopers firing machine guns at a building at Walpole State Prison Saturday saved seven gas-soaked and bound hostages, including the warden and chaplain, who were held by six rebel convicts.
The mutineers, desperate men who said they didn't care whether they lived or died, threatened to turn the hostages into human torches after they had failed in an attempt to escape over the wall.
The prisoners had seized the hostages after a quick-thinking guard thwarted their escape and risked injury by toppling a ladder they had set up against a wall.
The guard, being held as a hostage, was on the ladder and he pulled it down with him when he jumped.
Twenty men including 12 guards, four troopers and four convicts were hurt slightly, but only one of the injuries was from gun fire.
About 50 troopers carrying machine guns, riot guns and pistols ranged the 100 foot by 30-foot machine shop and on signal about 10 of them dived head first through the windows.
One inside the troopers grabbed the convicts and machine gunned the lock of a door to let in fellow troopers.
One of the troopers suffered a flesh wound from a ricocheting bullet, the only gunshot injury in the rebellion. The other injuries ranged from bruises to gasolene burns.
The MUTINEERS had poured gasoline over the hostages who included the Roman Catholic chaplain, Edward F. Hartigan, Warden John A. Gavin, Deputy Warden Thomas C. Scahill and Communist applicant, "I do not want a capitalistic reformation."
