2nd Group Asks Tag Day Permit

Another veterans organization has asked the city council for permission to hold a tag day sale in Kankakee.

Weldon Wadleigh (R-7), tag day committee chairman, notified the council of the new request Monday night when he read a letter from the VFW asking permission to hold a Poppy Day sale.

The American Legion petitioned the council at its last meeting, to do away with an ordinance which bans tag day events on city streets.

"At the time the ordinance was put on the books, undoubtedly the council had a good reason for doing it," Wadleigh said, "but since then we have had a lot of requests for tag days and have been criticized for denying them."

"Personally, I can see no objection to fund drives, after all we have a lot of them every year. However, the mechanics of the drive seem to be the problem," Wadleigh said.

The council should have a study to determine "who is for and who is against this type of regulation."

The alderman said he would like to see people notify the appropriate committees about their feelings on the problem.

The new tag day request was referred to Wadleigh's committee, in company with the ordinance committee and city attorney.

The VFW, in its request, said the projects supported by the Poppy Day sale had been financed for a time by the Community Chest.

When the organization was dropped from the Chest, the letter said, the VFW post was "no longer able to continue support of the project."

Norman C. Coy (R-3) notified the council that the ordinance committee and city attorney.

The uncertainty of the swollen river and the muddy water still standing three to four feet deep in places kept nearly 2,000 homeless here from starting cleanup operations.

The Weather Bureau said Monday the rampaging high climbed to an all-time high at Jansville, Wis., and wrecked more havoc in Beloit, Wis.

What effect of waters rushing downstream will have at Rockford cannot yet be determined, the bureau said. However, Winnebago County sheriff's deputies were on duty to clear the river, would not climb to Sunday's record-high crest.

Wisconsin Rains Pose New Threat To Rockford Area

ROCKFORD (AP) — More rain and the breakup of ice in the headwaters of the Rock River in southern Wisconsin posed possible new danger to this flood-besieged area today.

The uncertainty of the swollen river and the muddy water still standing three to four feet deep in places kept nearly 2,000 homeless here from starting cleanup operations.

The Weather Bureau said Monday the rampaging high climbed to an all-time high at Jansville, Wis., and wrecked more havoc in Beloit, Wis.

Argentina Plans To Expel Red Envoy

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The Argentine government today linked Soviet-bloc diplomats with the bloody labor riot in Buenos Aires last week and said at least one envoy had been ordered expelled.

A government statement said similar action is being considered against the day-day diplomat who had been expelled from the Iron Curtain.

City Council Rejects Daytime Ban On Downtown Truck Parking

A proposal to ban truck parking in downtown Kankakee from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. has been rejected by the city council Tuesday night.

Wayne Huot (R-6), committee chairman, said he had received a great number of calls from businessmen who objected to the proposal, made at the last council meeting by Maurice C. Deneau (D-2).

A daytime truck parking ban, Huot said, would cause extra expense and inconvenience for businessmen. The chairman indicated the committee felt the alleys were designed for truck unloading purposes, leaving streets free for other traffic movements.

Huot also reported that the differences over traffic congestion in the city council Tuesday night were settled by a compromise. The city council agreed to a series of stop streets in the Marycrest area as requested by Weldon Wadleigh (R-7).

The traffic committee was asked to investigate the need for stop signs or yield the right of way signs at Poplar Ave. and Hickory St., where the city recently had the bus stop removed. Bourbonnais To Add Streets To Arterial Net

Sewers, Subdivisions Under Discussion At April Board Meeting

Streets, subdivisions and sewers—typical municipal problems for an expanding community—were top subjects at the Bourbonnais Village Board session Monday night.

The board voted to add 1,465 feet of streets to the village's arterial street system. Streets added were Palisard drive from River street to Stockton Heights drive, a distance of approximately 450 feet, and Stockton Heights drive from Palisard drive to Ester Circle, a distance of 1,015 feet.

Ordinarily, the regular monthly job reports of the Commerce and Labor Departments have simply been handed to newsmen in printed form. The unusual procedure pointed up the administration's gratification over the developments.

Administration officials from President Eisenhower on down had forecast such gratifying improvements.

Secretary of Commerce Lewis Strauss said the changes reflected in the job report would be "a gratifying and a great interest to all Americans."

Skate Makes Second Trip Under Pole

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The atomic submarine Skate came back triumphantly today from her second trip under the North Pole.

Her captain, Cmdr. James F. Calvert, waved from the conning tower of the nuclear ship as foghorns sounded, whistles screamed and a fireboat shot water into the air in welcome.

The Skate showed signs of her scrape with arctic ice. A few marks and a bit of rust were on her sides, apparently caused by her surfacing in arctic waters.

The damage appeared to be very slight.

"Welcome Home, North Pole Sitters," waved a sign from workers at General Dynamics Corp.'s Electric Boat Division, who built the nuclear vessel.

As the Skate tied up for brief dockside ceremonies, a citation from President Eisenhower and a commendation from Secretary of the Navy Thomas Gates were given Calvert and his crew of 106 officers and men.

The documents cited the Skate's trip that started March 4 and carried her under the arctic winter ice for 12 days. She surfaced 10 times, once right at the North Pole.

The 3,000-mile voyage had tremendous implications for future warfare. It showed that an atomic submarine capable of staying hidden under water indefinitely, could surface from under the ice in any weather and fire missiles.

The Skate, using a television device, looked for thin places in the ice. A whip-like antenna helped probe the ice above.

Reich Truce On Tricky Traffic Light

The dispute over the tricky traffic light at Hammes Ave. and Court St. seems to be settled, for the time being at least.

Two weeks ago, Weldon Wadleigh (R-7) suggested that the state should replace the light with a stop sign to wait for long periods before it changed.

In a letter submitted to the city council Monday night, the state Highway Division said the light was now working properly.

The highway department said the light had been malfunctioning before Feb. 5 but had been repaired by that date.

But the department said it planned to install a second device to control the traffic-controlled signal to insure proper operation.

The second control had been installed since the letter was written, March 26.

Wadleigh, addressing the council Monday night, questioned whether the light had functioned properly after Feb. 5 and why the state had spent the money for the second control if it was operating correctly.

However, he said the light appeared to be in proper working order now, that he was thankful for the department's efforts on behalf of the people who had complained about the light, and assured the department it would be notified if the light failed to operate in the future.

Bradley Streets To Cost $8,000

Two resolutions were adopted by Bradley Village Board of Trustees Monday night for repair and maintenance of arterial streets, and declaring six new arterial streets.

The resolutions are part of the annual spring street and highway improvement program to be paid for out of motor fuel taxes.

A third resolution, for construction of new streets, is to be adopted at the next meeting of the board.

THE 1959 STREET program is the result of a survey made by the board's street and alley committee, which included William L. Schick, village engineer, and Donald Gereaux, superintendent of the street and alley department.

Schwartz presented the resolutions to the board and explained the street repair and maintenance resolution calls for $8,000 worth of work on the village's 23 arterial streets, an increase of $1,500 from the 1958 figure when $2,500 was appropriated.

Schwartz explained that at this amount the state would pay $1,200 for work to be done on Route 113, which is Schuyler avenue and W. Broadway in Bradley.

The engineer said he communicated with the state highway office in Ottawa and received assurance that the state would reimburse the village for the work.

THE STATE also has about 21 miles of bituminous surface streets, which is somewhat unusual in a village the size of Bradley. All these streets need to be kept in good repair or money already spent on them would be lost.

Adenauer Will Retire From Active Politics

Agrees To Run As Candidate For West Germany Presidency

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today agreed to run for the presidency of West Germany, a decision that means his retirement from active politics.

The surprising decision was announced by Eugen Gerstenmaier, president of the Bundestag or lower house of Parliament, at a news conference.

Gerstenmaier said the ruling Christian Democrats, who nominated Adenauer, have yet to discuss their choice as Adenauer's successor as chancellor.

The post of president in West Germany is largely a ceremonial one.

Adenauer, 83, the only government chief postwar Germany has had, himself presided at a meeting of a special committee set up by the party to choose a presidential candidate.

His decision means that Adenauer will retire from active politics next July, when the second term of President Theodor Heuss expires. Heuss is ineligible to run again.

Ludwig Erhard, the economics minister, is considered the most likely choice of the Christian Democrats to succeed to the chancellorship.

THE Sudden TURN of events caught West Germany by surprise. It was known that Adenauer had urged Erhard to accept the presidential nomination while the Chancellor prepared for the federal elections in 1961.

Adenauer is serving his third term as chancellor and had been expected to seek a fourth.

It was considered possible that Adenauer might continue to play an important role in formation of West German policy, particularly in the foreign field.

INFORMANTS pointed out that while the constitution bars the president from partisan political activity, it does not keep him from sitting in Cabinet meetings and exerting influence within inner circles of the government.

Asked whether Adenauer would influence foreign policy, Gerstenmaier waved a copy of the constitution and said reporters might seek an answer themselves.

Erhard, a polyglot media professor, has been the architect of West Germany's economic revival since the advent of World War II. Erhard has been West Germany's economics minister since Adenauer picked him for the post in 1949. His program of "Social Free Enterprise"—something new in this land where tight government controls are the tradition—had Adenauer's backing.

In 1957 the old German leader named his economic czar vice-chancellor and heir apparent.

Atomic Power Used To Light Electric Bulb

LOS ALAMOS, N.M. (AP)—The first direct conversion of nuclear reactor energy into electric power was announced today by the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory.

The LASL - developed plasma thermocouple gave enough power to light an electric light bulb for almost 12 hours before it was shut down and dismantled for analysis.

The achievement was the result of an experiment in which the plasma thermocouple was placed in the core of a heterogeneous research reactor, labor officials said.

A thermocouple is a means of producing electricity by bringing two different metals into contact, then cooling one metal and heating the other.

Laboratory officials said the implications of the experiment in future atomic energy developments are enormous as any right uses of the thermocouple in the field of nuclear propulsion in both submarines and space travel.

Abraham of 10 scientists headed by George Grover completed the experiment in a little more than three years.

City Inspects Water Mains For Evidence In Rate Case

The city has made inspections of the underground mains and services of the Kankakee Water Co. to collect evidence for its case against the utility's request for a 42 per cent rate increase.

The inspections were disclosed Monday night when the city council approved payment of $2,400 to Triangle Construction Co. for excavations and backfilling along the water system.

Wayne Cunningham (R-6) indicated the survey would provide an important part of the city's case. The underground exploration of the water company lines was recommended by the firm of consulting engineers who were hired to help prepare the case for the rate increase.

Expect Daley To Top Sheehan In Chicago Vote

CHICAGO (UPI) — Political observers considered Democratic Mayor Richard J. Daley a certain winner for a second term in today's election, with only the size of his expected plurality over Republican Timothy P. Sheehan in doubt.

Daley workers sought to turn out a record plurality of one million votes, but political experts looked for a relatively tight turnout due to a dull campaign.

Estimates were that fewer than one million of the city's 1,841,598 registered voters would go to the polls.

SHEEHAN, a U.S. representative for four terms before he was defeated for reelection last November, faced an uphill battle from the start. He was deserted by a host of the city's leading Republican businessmen who joined a bipartisan committee to reject Daley.

Chicagoans also will elect a city clerk and treasurer, with Democratic incumbents John Marcin, clerk, and Sidney Deutsch, treasurer, expected to be carried into office with Daley.

Tibet Fills Mystery Billing

It seems inconceivable that Tibet could impose any threat to Red China. Tibet is a nation of 1,300,000 people with a rifle-bearing army of about 3,000 men. Red China, with a population of 600 million, has a modern army of many millions.

Yet the Chinese Communists are busy suppressing a rebellion in the mountains of Tibet at heavy cost. Why?

There are a number of reasons—or a combination of them. There may be a considerable natural wealth in Tibet, waiting to be exploited.

Complete subjugation of Tibet could be a long-range preparation to expand Communist influence to other areas.

There may be a military reason for nailing down Tibet securely. The mighty plateau called "the roof of the world" could be of military importance in an era of missiles.

Internal Chinese considerations may be involved. An example of Tibetans close by, living in peaceful defiance of

Says School Criticism Pays Off

Apparently the criticism heaped on American schools in the post-Sputnik era has been beneficial.

At least that's the opinion of one Illinois educator who admits that many teachers and school administrators, including himself, were surprised and stung to bitter anger by the criticism that exploded more than a year ago.

Some educators still resent it. Earl H. Hanson, superintendent of schools at Rock Island, states in an article in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post. Many teachers were bruised by the castigation, he said, adding that "some of us brused easy."

Among the earliest articles in newspapers questioning the trend of modern education were those published in the Journal more than a year ago. While the Journal editorials and articles weren't intended to cause anger among teachers they were written with the hope that they would fan public interest in the public schools.

The Vanishing American?

This country, always sports-minded, has long paid great tribute to the idea of team play. High tribute it has been to tell a man: "You're a great team player."

The notion is so well thought of, indeed, that it has spread to business and government and many another field. Men are chosen, and held onto, not simply on the basis of their ability but according to their fitness for "the team."

The co-operative spirit honored thus is one we must all respect in an age and

Oscar's Still Dreaming About An Oscar

NEW YORK (AP)—Oscar Homolka, who once slept on coffee table tops, now has an art collection he values at $500,000.

One of the greatest living character actors, a veteran of more than 200 plays and 60 films, his long career lacks one final crown—the Academy Award.

In the past Homolka has been nominated for the award. But Oscar is still Oscarless. It doesn't worry him.

"Sometimes perhaps the right year and the right picture will come along," he said cheerfully. "An Oscar is a fine thing to get. Let's face it—it's very good for business."

A crowd's lifetime on two continents has left Homolka philosophic about fortune, good or bad. Now starring in the Broadway drama, "Rashomon," he started acting at 18 in his native Vienna for about $8 a month.

"After I was paid for my first engagement," he recalled, "I had to decide whether I would eat or rent a room for the night."

"I DECIDED ON eating, and I slept in the coffee house on a table. I lived like that for three months."

Today he thinks a measure of hardship is good-for beginners in show business.

"Those who are sensible give up," he said. "It is too tough for them. But if there were nothing but plunk, too many would stay in the business who ought to get out."

Robertson's Battle For Free China

WASHINGTON—Sometimes it takes the news of an illness or a departure from public office to bring a true evaluation of the services of a man to his country. The announced resignation of Walter S. Robertson from his post as assistant secretary of state for Asian affairs focuses attention on the talent and successful fight of a sick man to keep America from blundering into recognition of the Red China regime.

Robertson, who leaves the State Department of China in a few weeks, says frankly he never would give up his work if he did not feel assured that the United States will not yield to the tyrants in Peking. Few people outside the government are aware of the indefatigable battle Robertson has waged against all manner of intrigue that has been going on inside and outside the government to win for Red China a diplomatic and political recognition by the United States government.

ROBERTSON SERVED under the Truman administration, but has played an even bigger role under the Eisenhower administration. He was one of the few who did not believe in the "team" idea. Some men of immense talent are inherently not team players. Let the psychologists argue whether or not this lack is a weakness. What is important is that in every realm we need men of the highest attainments.

There would seem to be times when it might be wiser to make the team fit the man rather than the other way around.

Take-Out Double Is Clue

By OSWALD JACOBY

The cream puff take-out double sometimes enables you to steal a hand from your opponents. On other occasions it gives them a clue that enables them to fulfill an ambitious contract.

If West had kept his mouth shut North and South might have actually stopped short of game and if they had reached game South would surely have lost a spade, two clubs and a heart.

As it was, South won the opening diamond lead in his own hand and led a heart. West ducked and under dummy's king held the trick South played the jack of trumps from dummy. He was sure that West held only a singleton spade. If it were the queen or 10 he was going to lose it and if it were the king he would have lost it. East covered the jack with the queen and when West's nine-spot fell South was right in business. He led a second heart which East won. East returned another diamond and South was again in dummy.

He led the eight of spades and let it ride. West showed out and South picked up East's 10 and conceded two club tricks but chalked up the rubber.

Here Is What They Say

There will be hundreds of satellites orbiting the earth in the future. To an early warning station, satellite doesn't look much different from a ballistic missile.—Dr. WILLIAM H. PICKERING of California Institute of Technology, calling for international satellite identification handbook to avoid accidental war.

Communism has not only succeeded in one generation in controlling an absolute iron hand over one-third of mankind, but has actually reached a position of strength in which it scares the very life out of the remaining two-thirds.—Dr. CHARLES MALIK, president of U. N. General Assembly.

I discovered that the way the Russians play if dominoes is a very exciting game. It is very complicated and calls for great skill and strategy. You ought to see the way they slap the pieces down.—U. S. scientist MORTON J. RUBIN, who spent winter at Soviet base in Antarctica.

Other People's Rights

The head of a labor union, under our laws and practices, is a person given the right, under the National Labor Relations Act, to control the lives, social status, and liberties of other human beings. He is not a government official but he can, in a particular industry, decide on a man's right to work. He can make a man rich or poor or even beggar him. He is the master of an enormous treasury, often running into hundreds of millions of dollars, and is accountable legally to no one for its investment. His income taxes are not subject to the same kind of investigation as the income taxes of other citizens because labor union funds are not subject to taxation or investigation, except if a Congressional committee makes an investigation which is usually sporadic and limited.

THE VARIOUS PROPOSALS to correct this condition and to remove an elite from American life are not very serious in this direction. Sen. John Kennedy's proposals for the rectification of the errors of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations seem to be an effort to run interference for the labor leaders. Secretary of Labor Mitchell's efforts are not much better.

I note that a bill has been introduced in the Legislature of the state of North Dakota which hits one nail on the head, namely, gangster control of labor unions, who are an elite.

No person who has been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude or of a felony, excepting traffic violations, shall serve in any official capacity or as any officer in any labor union or labor organization in this state. No such person, nor any labor union or labor organization in which he is an officer shall be qualified to act as a bargaining agent or representative for employees in this state. Such disqualification shall terminate whenever such officer is removed or resigns as an officer in such labor union or labor organization.

SUCH PROVISIONS IN FEDERAL OR state laws would eliminate one group of difficult persons in the labor union set-up, namely, the gangster and racketeer. But it does not solve the whole problem, which is that bossing a labor union is a profitable business.

THE GANGSTER AND RACKETEER moved into organized labor shortly after prohibition because he recognized it as good business. It was much like the Sicilian padrone system, the boss, in effect, renting men's time for a wage for the worker and a consideration for himself. Long before Lepke organized Murder, Inc., for instance, he had organized a goon squad in the garment industries, sometimes working for bosses, sometimes for unions, sometimes for combinations of bosses and unions to keep competitors out of business. This trafficking in murder, arson, etc., was particularly notable during the deep depression years and continued after Lepke and his partner, Gurrah, were deprived of their lives by an ungrateful state which did not appreciate their services. (Gurrah died in Sing Sing.)

Profit Picture Brighter

NEW YORK (AP)—A sharp rebound in profits brightens the business scene as the big flow of reports on first-quarter operations gathers speed.

Two out of three companies reported so far show significantly better results than in the opening months of 1958, and a majority are doing better than in the first months of that year.

The continuing flow will be closely scanned by stockholders, tax collectors and labor union officials.

SEVENTY NONFINANCIAL corporations have reported to date, most of them for fiscal periods ending before March 31. Combined they show net income after taxes of $29,259,000 an increase of 19.3 per cent over the $24,465,000 reported in the first quarter of the first quarter of their 1958 year.

In the final three months of 1958 the President estimated pretax profits for all of 1958 at between 47 and 48 billion dollars. If profits continue to rise at their current sharp rate, the year's total will top that and make balancing the budget that much less doubtful a task.

Manners For Moderns

As always, the profit story is a two-way one. Of the 70 nonfinancial corporations 21 had earnings less this year than last. And there were 8 dipping into red ink as against 11 in the same period a year ago.

Already the rebound in profits from the recession period is beginning to show up in dividends. The Department of Commerce reports that in January and February cash dividends totaled nearly 1 1/2 billion dollars, up 3 per cent from the year before.

THE S&P RECORD of dividend cuts and omissions a year ago also is being reversed. In the first three months of 1959 reported increases came to 306, resumptions to 57, extra payments to 180, while cuts were 38 and omissions 26 in the same period.

Some types of questions are always in poor taste. A few you would be wise not to ask are: "How old are you?" "How much do you pay for it?" "How does it happen you never married?" That last is sure to offend, even though you add the usual, "a good-looking woman like you?"

The issue of city manager form of government was the center of attention in balloting today on more than 20 Illinois communities held local elections.

There are no statewide elections in Illinois this spring to arouse voters to go to the polls. However, earnest has heightened interest in cities where local candidates have no party labels.

Both Peoria and Evanston were asked to decide whether to retain or abandon city manager government.

Continue Search For Boy's Killer

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The search for clues in the abduction and knife slaying of Ben Wagner, 6, spread today to restaurants, dry cleaners, motor vehicle records and the state crime laboratory.

Squads of detectives checked restaurants in Ozaukee and Milwaukee counties in an effort to learn where the boy ate his last meal Saturday night, shortly before he was killed.

Authorities determined Monday in an autopsy that the boy had been fed an hour or so before his death. The boy's mother reported her son ate at a restaurant. Police questioned restaurant employees on the theory the killer purchased a last meal to gain his victim's confidence.

Other officers visited laundry and dry cleaning plants, seeking hairneted slacks which may have been worn by the killer.

MOTOR VEHICLE registration records were combed in a follow-up of the most promising lead, a red sport from a motorist who saw a boy frantically waving from a blue car and while 1955-56 Plymouth station wagon Saturday night.

Microscopic examination of the boy's clothing began at the state crime laboratory in Madison to determine if the youth had been molested before or after he was stabbed five times by the "busby-haired" sadist who it thought had killed him.

Authorities so far have no definite evidence the boy was the victim of a sex attack.

Witt's Injury Perils Bucs Pennant Hopes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Want a new line on Pittsburgh's long lamented chances for the National League pennant? Then for the time being, the Bucs' pennant hopes are as good as dead. The medical report on George Witt's troublesome arm.

The young right-hander, a pitching sensation as a rookie last season when he shrugged off arm trouble and won seven straight for the longest string of the year in the NL, was sent on to Pittsburgh Monday night for an examination by the club physician.

The trouble centers in a painful elbow, which the freckle-faced redhead thinks was strained when he tried to develop a slider two years ago in the minors. The trouble popped up again Monday and Witt was forced from the mound after one inning as the Pirates finished their stay in Florida with a 2-1 victory over Kansas City at Port Myers.

Herschler Defeats Manteno, Grant Park On Track

Herschler (JNS) — Herschler defeated Manteno and Grant Park in the 100 yard dash at the Kankakee track meet Monday afternoon.

The Blue Devils beat out Grant Park in the 100 yard dash, winning by a margin of 1/10 of a second. The Blue Devils also won the 200 yard dash, defeating Grant Park by a margin of 1/5 of a second.

Kay Golfers Club Beecher In Opener 16-2

Near par golf by John Haseymer, Bruce Payne and Bob Haseymer for Kankakee High's golf team off to a fine start in the 1959 campaign Monday afternoon. The Kays walloped Beecher 16-2 in a dual match, held for 13 holes by an early season, at the Shady Lawn course at Beecher.

13 Republican Candidates Win Election

About 8,000 Kankakee Township electors turned out Tuesday to sweep 13 Republican candidates into office. The total vote compares with slightly more than 7,000 in the similar 1955 township election.

Receive Bids April 24 On Road Projects

Route 17 Work Is Included In State's Letting

Kankakee and four neighboring counties are included in the Illinois Division of Highways' list of road program projects on which bids will be received April 24. This is the first portion of projects in the fourth letting of the year.

The Kankakee County work comprises a portion of the reconstruction of Route 17 between Kankakee and Dwight. The work to be let includes a three-span slab bridge over the east branch of Horse Creek; a two-span superstructure over Bertram branch of Horse Creek and a triple box culvert for Leigh Raymond Run, located 11.3, 10.7 and 9.5 miles west of Kankakee, respectively.

Also on Route 17, in and west of Union Hill, are a two-span slab bridge over the west branch of Horse Creek and a widening of a slab bridge over a branch of Grassy Creek.

Again involving Route 17 reconstruction are two three-span slab bridges over Reddick Run Creek and over Crane Creek, 10 and 10.5 miles east of Dwight; and a precast, prestressed concrete bridge over a branch of the Maize River in Grundy County, 12 miles east of Dwight.

The Livingston County projects are 2.8 miles of gravel surfacing of Route 348 from Odell west; and a single span slab bridge over Hickory Creek, 3/4 miles east of Odell.

In Iroquois County is a project of 3.19 miles of bituminous surface treating from Route 45 at Clinton east.

Will County work is 5.47 miles of bituminous surface treatment on frontage roads and 6.1 miles of gravel on the shoulders of Route 66 two miles northwest to five miles southwest of Wilmington; and 35 miles of weed control spray on Eden, Congress street, Calumet and Kingsley Expressways and Doty avenue in Will, Cook and Lake counties.

2-Year-Old Girl Attacked By Dog

A 2-year-old Limestone Township girl is in St. Mary's Hospital suffering severe facial wounds suffered when attacked by a dog. She is Laura Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lambert Jr., RR 2. Laura sustained a deep gouge in the jaw, a torn lip, ribs about the nose and multiple lacerations of the cheek. She is reported fairly good and resting today.

A three-hour search by sheriff's deputies failed to locate the dog. Mrs. Lambert's father, Howard S. Bradley, and brother, James Bradley, tied the Lambert's dog in the garage and, at 8:10 p.m., the strange dog returned and was trapped in the garage. It was turned over to Scottie Cooper, county animal commissioner. Clapper also ordered the Lambert's pet confined for two weeks.

MRS. LAMBERT SAID Laura was playing in the yard with her brother, Lester, 5, about 4:45 p.m. Tuesday when the dog attacked her. She said she was in the house and, hearing the youngsters' cries, rushed to the yard, by which time the dog was leaving.

Young Lester was too confused to be able to say what might have provoked the attack.

The large male, black and white, short-haired dog has been in the neighborhood the past month or so and around the Lambert home was frequently lately. Mrs. Lambert said she had chased the dog away several times.

Mrs. Lambert did not believe the dog was a stray because it was fat, yet she had never seen it scratch the garbage. However, a two-hour survey of the neighborhood by Lambert Tuesday night failed to locate the owner or anyone who knows the owner.

CHARLES FEICHTNER, chief of the first aid corps of the District of Columbia Red Cross, said several persons had been to hospitals from the army, perhaps a half dozen of them on stretchers.

In a basement room, a score of women were stretched out on cots, some covered with coats or blankets.

Feichtner said he would guess that 75 or 100 persons had been reported ill at the army, mostly with stomach cramps, nausea, and diarrhea.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—The SEATO Council of Ministers opened its fifth meeting today with emphasis on improving economic conditions in Southeast Asia to combat communism.

Several speakers stressed that military strength alone was not enough to protect the area from the Red menace.

Prime Minister Walter Nash of New Zealand, elected to preside over the sessions, described hunger and poverty as the greatest threats to the security of the area.

2 Mayoralty Incumbents Fall In City Voting

Peoria, Evanston Back City Manager Form Of Government

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Illinois mayors seeking reelection were defeated Tuesday in the year's first round of municipal elections, and two communities rejected proposals to abandon the council-manager form of city government.

The results gave little indication of political leanings for 1960 since more of the more than two dozen cities casting ballots had nonpartisan contests. Nine, including Chicago, elected mayors.

Springfield's Mayor Nelson O. Howarth, who city's first chief executive to seek a second term since 1947, lost his bid to a 39-year-old merchant and political novice, Lester O. Collins.

More than 75 per cent of the city's registered voters went to the polls. Complete unofficial returns gave Collins 18,231 and Howarth 17,540 in the nonpartisan election.

Arthur E. Turngren, mayor of the Chicago suburban community of Harvey for 16 years, lost to 100 votes in his attempt at reelection. William B. Kane, outgoing Peoria mayor, lost 4,559 to 4,350 for Turngren.

EVANSTON VOTERS defeated by well over 2 to 1 a proposal to abandon the city manager form of government and revert to mayor-council rule. The vote was 13,880 to 5,386 yes.

Peoria voters also gave a thumbs up approval to managerial government which that city of 114,000 has since 1937. Complete unofficial returns showed 13,861 votes against abandonment and 9,285 for abandonment.

The issue had produced a hot campaign in both cities. Harley Boswell, a critic of managerial government, running for councilman, was defeated. Four pro-manager council candidates were elected.
