"January Thaw," a three-act comedy, will be presented by the seniors of Bradley-Bourbonnais Community High School Thursday and Friday nights. Curtain time will be 8 o'clock each night as the play is presented in the high school gymnasium.

Incentive Pay Idea Advanced To Ottawa Teachers

OTTAWA—A tentative salary schedule providing for higher pay for superior teachers was outlined today to the faculty of the Ottawa elementary school system.

The plan was presented by the Board of Education to the welfare committee of Ottawa Elementary Teachers Association. The welfare group, in turn, presented the schedule to all of the teachers.

Frederick Rabenstein, B.O.A. president, said the proposed schedule represents the board's "considered opinion" after study and discussion of what it can do for the benefit of all parties in setting up a schedule embodying social incentive pay.

The proposed schedule is based on the present schedule. Board members pointed out, except that it provides for higher starting pay, higher maximums and comprehensive proposed $200 increments across the board.

In addition, it provides that teachers may, at their own election, qualify for higher pay by either a "very good" rating plus required training or a "superior" rating.

Rabenstein declared the proposed schedule is an attempt to compensate teachers for "professional growth."

Under 21...by Don Halligan

DEAR DAN: I happened to be going through an old trunk in the attic the other day and nearly fainted when I came across a parole paper made out to my father. I also found a newspaper clipping saying he had been sentenced to a year in prison nearly 20 years ago for stealing a car. Honestly, I cried for two hours. Even though it happened before I was born, I still feel ashamed for my family's sake.

I haven't been able to look my father in the eye since I found my discovery. Should I tell my mother what I know?—Clarice T.

Dear Clarice: Nearly 20 years went by, Clarice, before you made your "big discovery" and if you keep quiet, maybe another 20 years will go by without that old memory being stirred up. Why worry about what happened to your father before you were born? We've all got skeletons in our closet and if you don't have any, you will someday. If you loved and respected your father before you went digging in that trunk, then forget about your find. As far as telling your mother, I'm sure she already knows. Forget it.

Dear Dan: My buddy and I are thinking of pooling our money this spring and buying an old jalopy to knock around in. We think we could have a lot of fun but our parents say we'll have too many arguments. I think they're just trying to talk us out of it. Don't you think a $200 car owned together would be a good deal?—High and T.

Dear R. & T.: I don't think the partnership would work out, boys. Remember some years ago when a buddy and I bought a Model-A on a $500 basis and we ran into it's same trouble your parents are talking about. We had some fun but soon realized there were two of us and only one steering wheel. My advice is for each of you to save your money and buy your own jalopy.

Dear Dan: Six of us girls run around together. One of the girls is getting married in three weeks and we're planning a shower for her. None of us is working in high-paying jobs, so we don't have too much to spend. One of the girls suggested putting our money together and buying something fairly expensive and rather than several less expensive gifts. That sounds like a good idea but wouldn't the bride-to-be expect something from each of us?—Shirley.

Dear Shirley: She knows your financial limitations and I'm sure will be happy with anything she's given. I do think, however, that buying one gift from everybody is more practical than several smaller gifts from each girl. Get something she can use.

Fire Destroys Frame Home In Buckingham

BUCKINGHAM (JNS)—A family of five was left homeless Sunday morning when a fire leveled a two-story frame home in this community.

Police went to the club about 10:36 p.m. Saturday, when someone called and said minors were being served drinks.

They found a 19-year-old youth with a mixed drink, which a bartender admitted selling him. Another 18-year-old was found drinking beer.

Police made the youths leave the tavern, and warned them that they too were liable for prosecution for ordering the drinks.

WALLACE FLANNERY, police chief, said the part of the city ordinance providing fines for minors who order alcoholic beverages is going to be strictly enforced.

Also in police court Sunday, Adam E. Walker, 49, 436 W. Stone St., was put under $1,500 bond to appear in County Court on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested at 9:25 p.m. Saturday at Illinois and Schuyler Ave.

Raul John Sovice, 18, 200 N. Illinois Ave., was given a suspended fine of $100 on a charge of driving on a false fire alarm at Kankakee High School. The incident occurred Thursday and was continued for hearing until Sunday. It was reported that he turned in a similar alarm two weeks ago.

Ronald P. St. Louis, 334 E. Birch St., was fined $10 for speeding, and Virgil C. Lamace, 141 S. Fourth Ave., paid $6 for a stop sign violation.

The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. resolved in 1956 that Benjamin Franklin should be honored for his "ideals of freedom of expression."

Richard Kyrouac, 456 N. Fairmount Ave., reported to city police early Sunday that someone threw a soft drink bottle at his car while it was parked in front of his house Saturday night, and put a dent in the hood.

He said about two weeks ago someone threw a beer bottle at the car, and broke the windshield. Kenneth Farley, 577 S. Chicago Ave., and Lytle Smith, Bondfield, both reported that two hupcaps were stolen from their cars.

Farley's vehicle was parked in front of his house, and Smith's in the 200 block of N. Dearborn avenue.

32¢ lost from your dollar just since the war

...and year after year the raid goes on!

It doesn't matter whether you call it "inflation" or "dollar nibbling" or "higher living costs."

Of course you've felt it. The steady whittling away at every dollar you spend or save. The struggle to get through until pay day. The fight to make both ends meet, regardless of higher wages.

How can we stop the value of the dollar going down and down?

One of the greatest dangers to the purchasing power of the dollar lies in expecting the Government—whether federal, state or local—to pay Santa Claus and bring us new services year after year. We simply can't expect to have all the services we would like, however desirable they may be. Not while we're carrying the biggest peacetime military budget in our history. By pressing for new benefits at a time like this, we face higher and higher taxes... or more and more inflation.

Your representative in Congress understands this. And he knows that in the end it is you who pay the cost of these projects. But he can't hold the line against inflation unless you and others make it clear that this is what you want. Support him in every effort he makes to tighten up on non-defense expenditures and to eliminate waste.

So that you can give your representative the backing he expects and deserves, keep yourself constantly informed of the attitude he is taking. A good place to get that information is through your newspaper.

When we have cut every expenditure that is unnecessary or postponable, we'll have taken a big step toward a balanced budget and away from inflation. We'll have also given millions of Americans greater incentive to add to their savings. Not only will a growing nest egg bring a comfortable feeling of independence and security. Those savings, as they are invested, will provide the capital needed for America's future growth.

America's growth, and your prosperity, both depend on a stable dollar.

Brought to you in the interest of every American who is concerned with preserving the value of the dollar.

When the fire fighters arrived at the scene, the blaze was out of control. The structure finally collapsed and debris piled into the basement.

A call went to the Andersons when the fire got its start about 11 a.m. It was discovered by Orland Hendrix, who immediately notified the Herscher fire department.

The raftering inferno made it impossible for them to salvage anything. An effort is being made in the Buckingham area to establish a relief fund to aid the family.

Anderson Gives Publishers Rosy Economic Report

NEW YORK (UPI)—Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson told newspaper executives today the nation's prosperity is racing far ahead of the Eisenhower administration's expectations.

In a speech to members of the American Newspaper Publishers Association attending an Associated Press luncheon, Anderson reported that personal income and corporate profits have reached an all-time high and total production and industrial activity have broken previous records.

Anderson predicted a bright economic future—"without inflation," he said—was not necessarily a part of the price of progress.

MORE THAN 1,300 executives of daily newspapers were on hand for the opening day of the ANPA's 73rd annual convention. During the four-day gathering they will attend panel discussions, hear formal reports on the state of the press and talk shop at social gatherings.

A newcomer to Publishers' Week activities was today's first annual breakfast of officers of United Press International regional editors associations. They heard talks by four UPI executives.

Although Anderson did not give any figures, he said corporate profits in the first quarter of 1938 hit a record annual rate. He also noted, as had previously been reported by government agencies, that total production, industrial activity and personal income also had broken into new high ground.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Omega Methodist Church with the Rev. W. L. Gustin officiating. Additional services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in Marshall-Smith Funeral Home, Oxford, Ohio. Burial will be in the Oxford Cemetery. Friends may call at the Natterford Funeral Home, Omega, after 7 p.m. today and until hour of services.

Mrs. Greer moved with her husband to Omega from Ohio in 1920 and she had resided there since. She was a member of the Omega Methodist Church, the Omega Woman's Club and the Wednesday Club. She was instrumental in the founding of the Omega Music Club and was a charter member of the organization.

Surviving are a son, Thomas L. Memphis, Tenn.; a brother, Dwight Dills, Greenville, Ohio; sisters, Mrs. Susan Klinger and Mrs. Mary McAdams, Dayton, Ohio; two grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by the parents, the husband, a son, two brothers and a sister.

State Assembly Faces Busy 10 Weeks After Budget Message

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Illinois lawmakers will face a rugged work schedule during the remaining 10 weeks of the current session after Gov. Stratton submits his state budget message Wednesday.

The message, to be delivered at a joint session at noon, is expected to call for a half cent boost in the sales tax, higher levies on cigarettes and liquor, plus broadening the sales tax base to include businesses and transactions exempt.

IT IS THROUGH these tax measures that Stratton hopes to provide the revenue for increased allotments for education and state mental hospitals.

The exact amount of the budget is not known, but some budget experts and legislators have indicated it may hit around 2 billion, 700 million dollars. A sizeable part of the total will come from federal funds, chiefly for highways, which the Assembly has to appropriate.

After Stratton presents his two-year spending program, a floor of appropriation bills will come in to carry out his recommendations. A final decision on expenditures will be up to the legislators.

Stratton had hinted previously he was considering an increased tax on corporations. It is reported to have been abandoned this idea at the last minute in favor of a half cent sales tax hike, which would make the state levy three cents.

Whether Democrats, who control the House, will go along with his tax proposals is a matter of conjecture. Some Democratic leaders have said they would rather see other sources of revenue explored instead of raising the sales tax.

A Democratic steering committee in the House may offer alternative proposals to Stratton's program.

One of the big items in the budget will be the figure for state aid to grade and high schools during the next two years.

At THE LAST 20 years, the school allotment has grown from a modest 29 million dollars to the current outlay of 227 million for the 1937-38 fiscal period.

In the past 10 years, the amount has increased more than 126 million.

The Illinois School Problems Commission, a legislative agency which continuously studies school matters, has pegged a minimum boost of 88½ million dollars for the 1939-40 biennium.

The commission wants the per pupil level of support set at $245 compared with the existing $200.

Holz Fined $1,000 On Second Charge

The case of Harry Holz, 38, former Aroma Township resident, came to an end in Kankakee Circuit Court today.

Holz was fined $1,000 on a second charge of reckless homicide. He was the driver of a car which struck an Aroma Park fire truck on Highland Road March 23, 1938.

Two volunteer firemen died after the accident and four were injured. Holz was indicated on two counts of reckless homicide and one of reckless driving. He was previously fined $1,000 on one of the reckless homicide counts and $250 on the reckless driving charge.

Circuit Judge David E. Oram today fined Holz $1,000 after a guilty plea on the other homicide count. That brought the total amount of fines in the case to $2,250 plus court costs.

Holz had asked for probation on the second homicide charge, but he withdrew that request and pleaded guilty today.

A final decision on expenditures will be up to the legislators. Stratton had hinted previously he was considering an increased tax on corporations. It is reported to have been abandoned this idea at the last minute in favor of a half cent sales tax hike, which would make the state levy three cents.

Warden Probes Cause Of Riot

DEER LODGE, Mont. (AP)—Iron discipline behind their cell doors took the place of a 36-hour madhouse for 43 inmates of the Montana State Prison today.

Armed National Guardsmen whose early morning blitz foiled a convict escape try and rescued 21 hostages continued on duty.

The soldiers and prison guards began a search of the prisoners Saturday, within hours after the uprising was quelled. Two convict ringleaders died in the furious action which ended the worst prison incident in years. A deputy warden was slain late Thursday.

Warden Floyd E. Powell ordered the convicts to their cells, with-out privileges, they are being given sandwiches and coffee in their cells.

Powell said he expects to conduct extensive convict interviews to pinpoint the cause of the violence that began last Thursday.

AN ESTIMATED 15 convicts were said by officials to have planned and executed the revolt. Warden Powell described the rebellion itself as a clever cover for the prisoners' efforts to tunnel to safety—an effort that failed when the diggers ran into an underground concrete slab.

The troublemakers, Powell said, have been isolated. They were given a change of prison clothes, a bucket and a mattress.

"Discipline is firm and tight but fair," the warden said. "One of the two ringleaders killed during the final assault, Jerry Myles, 44, was believed to have been digging when National Guardsmen burst in under a cover of bazooka, rifle and machine gun fire."

Myles and Lee Smart, 19, reportedly were the two ringleaders killed during the final assault, Jerry Myles, 44, was believed to have been digging when National Guardsmen burst in under a cover of bazooka, rifle and machine gun fire.

'Frankly, I Think My Marriage Is A Fraud'

By DR. PAUL POPENOE
"When people make their wedded lives together one perpetual fight, can you really call that a marriage, Dr. Popenoe?" asks Mrs. E. "That doesn't correspond with my definition of marriage; that have ever read. Frankly, I think my marriage is a fraud!"

The great American pioneer in sociology, William Graham Sumner, described marriage as "a state of antagonistic cooperation." The supposition that it must all be sweet, sane and light is wholly unrealistic. It's a matter of balance, I suppose. Mrs. E. If you have a little conflict, it's a marriage. If you have nothing but conflict, I'd be inclined to agree with you that it doesn't deserve the title of marriage.

Psychiatrist Abraham N. Franke touched on this point in a book called "The Road to Sexual Maturity." He speaks of a number of forms of marriage that are lasting but, I think we would agree, hardly worthwhile:

1. COMBAT MATING, which you have already described, Mrs. E. This is the kind of which someone said, "They lived scrappily ever after."
2. BLENDING MATING. One of the partners has a serious blemish which would be a bar to marriage with most persons, but seems, for deep psychological reasons, to have an attraction to the one who finally marries her or him.

3. THE DOLL HOUSE MARRIAGE. The young couple have been allowed by their respective parents to grow up. They are treated like a pair of children "playing in a doll house in the back yard, the parents controlling almost every aspect of the young couple's lives."

4. THE STAND-IN MARRIAGE. A typical example is one in which the boy is really in love with his mother. He marries a woman much older than himself because she's a sort of substitute mother.

5. THE "SEARCH FOR THE MOUNTAIN OF YOUTH" MARRIAGE. An elderly man marries a young girl or a middle-aged spinster ties herself to a young man thus hoping to renew youth.

6. THE VICE-VERSA ROLE MARRIAGE. A very effeminate man will marry a highly masculine woman and so on.

7. THE MARRIAGE OF CONVENIENCE.

8. THE CAMOUFLAGE MARRIAGE, which merely provides a legal screen behind which each partner can live an independent life.

There are half a dozen other kinds that you will easily think of. Mrs. E. Each one of them, I suppose, may have individual value for some persons; but sound family life, which is the basis of national survival, can't be built up on any such fraudulent imitations. I have a booklet, "Success in Marriage," which has helped many people to a more successful partnership. Any reader may have a copy by enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope and a dime with their request. Send all requests to:

Keep In Trim Prolonged Dieting Can Bring Diminishing Returns

By IDA JEAN KAIN
Conscientious dieters, who have succeeded in reducing considerably but still are many pounds from ideal, complain that although they eat very little, they no longer lose. Dieters ask what to do in such a dilemma.

This dietitian's advice would be this: Eat—don't stay on semi-starvation rations. Eat three adequate, low calorie meals a day and include protein at each of the three meals. And, most important, step up exercise to "open the draft" and stimulate body fires, thus encouraging the body to burn more calories.

IT COULD BE THAT you have reached the law of diminishing returns on calorie cutting. In prolonged dieting, nature tends to economize on calories. The body seems able to adjust itself to a slightly lower level of metabolism in order to conserve fuel. This adjustment of the body to run with greater economy of energy does not occur with short-term diets. While this is a protective measure on nature's part to help out when food is obtainable, from the reducer's standpoint, it's a handicap.

When keeping weight down is a struggle, it is important to eat three meals a day so as to take advantage of the specific dynamic action of food. The effect of food in raising the metabolism above the basal level is called its specific dynamic action. The metabolism increases. Protein causes the greatest rise in metabolism. FROM THIS EXPLANATION, it is easy to figure that on three meals a day the metabolism is kept elevated for many hours. This explains how it is possible to lose more weight by dividing the day's calories into three meals than it is if the bulk of calories are eaten at one big meal, say at dinner.

A safe diet is deficient in only one respect—calories. While fuel can be used from any source, the repair and regulating materials come chiefly from protective foods. Here are the foods required daily: Milk, skim milk or butter-milk, 1 pint; lean meat, fish or fowl, 4 to 6 ounces, cooked weight; 1 egg or a half cup of cottage cheese; vegetables and fruits, 4 servings each, including one citrus fruit and one dark green vegetable; bread or alternates, 2 servings.

Send long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for HUNGER, CONTROL, DIET and illustrated exercise leaflet entitled AWAY WITH MIDDLE SPREAD. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of cannot be answered. Daily Journal. Post card requests

Young Moderns

BY VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures Writer
Do high school girls have annoying habits that irritate their young male friends? Yes, chorused three male high school seniors, members of a football team, when asked that question. It seems campus kings dress up for dates these days, and a date is a big deal.

"We don't hang around killing time at the local bee hives. When we have a date, we want it to count," says one of the 18-year-old students who earns his date money by working in a garage weekends and after school. Here's how the gripes simmer:

MAKEUP? THEY don't mind it, providing it "doesn't bounce off the face," as one boy put it. "Why does a girl have to smear her mouth with lipstick, anyway?" he asks. One of the boys claimed that three girls smeared his suit with lipstick at one dance he attended. Other objections include too-long fingernails, heavy mascara, obvious eye shadow.

Clothes? "I don't want to take a girl out to hear other fellows whistling at her," is the response of one boy to the plunge neckline, skin-tight dress idea. The tight-fitting sweater also annoys these boys. Advice includes: Don't try to be sophisticated. Save long earrings and your mother's fur piece for an important occasion. "It puts a guy on a spot to see you dressed up when he can afford only a movie and ice cream soda," say the boys.

"Oh, yes," adds another boy, "I'm all for organizing babushka raiding parties and burning every babushka we can locate. There must be more attractive hair coverings available to hold hair in place, even in the wind. Why do girls choose such unflattering headgear?"

THE TEASE? The girl who leads a boy on to get a date will not be asked again. She blinks her eye lashes, holds hands in the ice cream parlor, but screams when a boy tries to kiss her after a date. "Some girls are just out for the good time you can give them," says a dejected boy.

The casual type? She's so casual, she's careless, these young men point out. "You wouldn't mind her wearing a cement-mixer hairdo, if she combed it occasionally." The girls are at fault in other ways, say the boys. They always have a coat of polish on their toenails at the beach—but sometimes their legs look hairier than a poodle's. The trouble is when a girl goes too casual, she acts like she's competing with a man.

How do they want a girl to behave? The consensus is they like a girl to "be herself," a girl "who dresses at her own age level," "good character," a girl "whose conversation isn't limited to trying to solve the problems of the world when she can't solve her own school or family situations," a girl who is "jolly without resorting to man-talk to prove she's good fun."

Strawberries Making Early Arrival

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newfeatures Food Editor
Strawberries are showing themselves and it's not quite shortcake time. That grand and glorious old-time shortcake is made with a lavish amount of berries, heavy cream (plain or whipped), and biscuit rather than cake-rich biscuit, yes, but biscuit.
So what's in between? We're all for an angel food or sponge cake (lower in calories than other varieties) served with a strawberry-lemon sauce. This tastes delightful "as is," but if you want to gild it you may add a topping of whipped cream.
Here's the recipe for the sauce. It is just slightly on the tart side so be sure you choose strawberries that are beautifully ripe. Try the sauce sometimes, too, on good old-fashioned cottage pudding.
STRAWBERRY-LEMON SAUCE
Ingredients: 1 pint ripe strawberries, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 2 cups water, ½ cup lemon juice, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, salt.
Method: Turn strawberries into a colander; rinse with cold water; hull. Dry on paper toweling; slice lengthwise. In a 1½ or 2-quart saucepan stir together thoroughly the sugar and cornstarch; add the water gradually, stirring until smooth after the first additions. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until boiling, thickened and clear. Turn heat low; add lemon juice and butter; stir until butter melts and combines; remove from heat. Stir in a few grains of salt and the sliced strawberries. Serve warm over sponge or angel food cake. Makes 1 quart this sauce.

STRAWBERRY GARNISH
We've discovered a way to fix strawberries for a garnish that's utterly delightful. Put ¼ cup of seedless red raspberry preserves and 1 tablespoon of hot water in a 1-cup measure. Place the cup in a small saucepan of hot water over low heat; stir until the jelly melts; remove the cup from the water. Wash and hull strawberries; dry on paper toweling. Lightly spear a strawberry (at the hulled end) with a thin-lined fork; dip into the warm melted jelly to coat. Hold the berry a second or so over the cup of jelly to drain a bit. Lightly spear another fork into the tip of the coated strawberry and (with the help of the first fork) stand the berry on its hulled end or several thickness of paper toweling. Dip the remaining berries, one at a time, the same way. Allow the berries to stand until as much of the jelly as is going to drain down does so. This amount of jelly will be enough for dipping about 1½ pints good-size strawberries. This garnish takes a little doing but the final effect is wonderful to look at and delectable in flavor. Well worthwhile for a party!

To chart tomorrow's course, today's news is essential

In today's fast-moving world, top business management must forever be on the alert to anticipate far reaching new developments, surging new trends, imperative new needs.

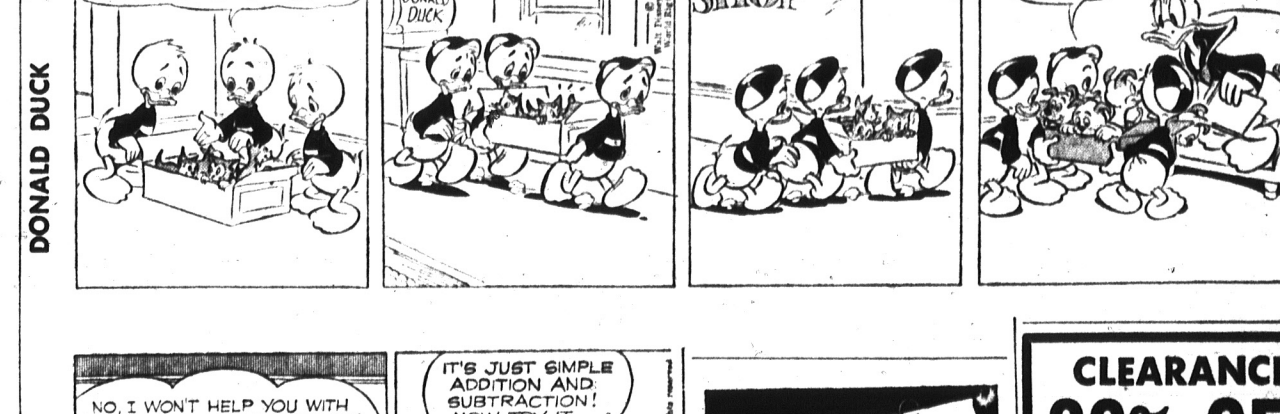

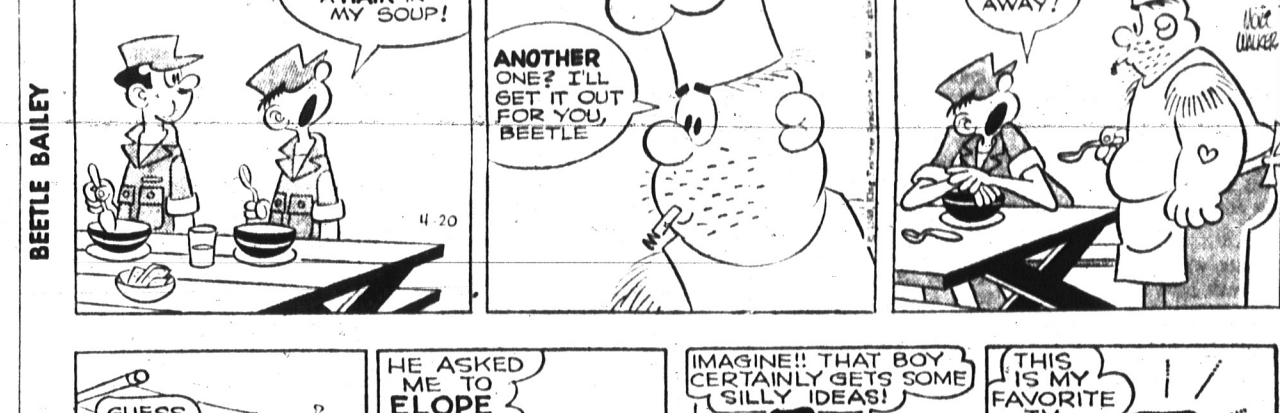

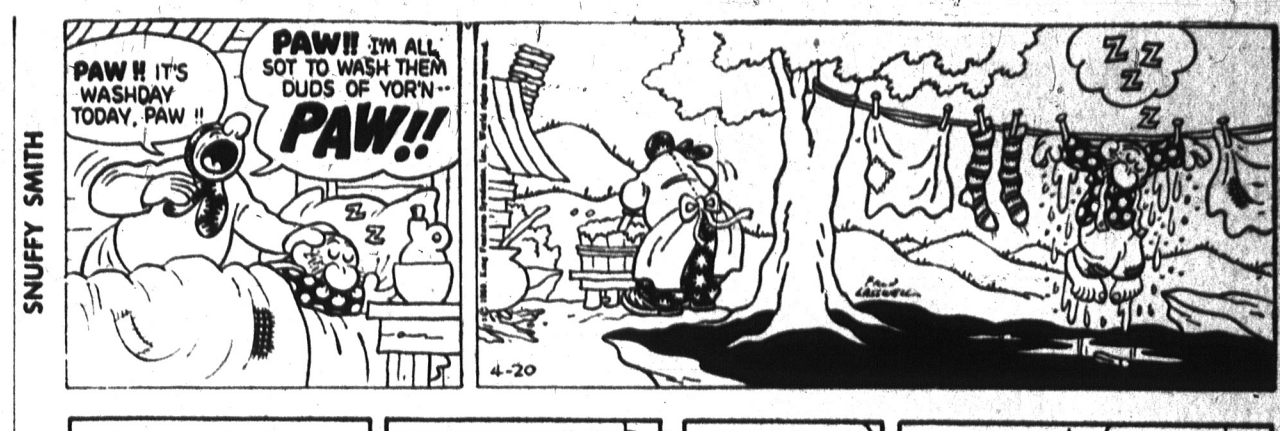

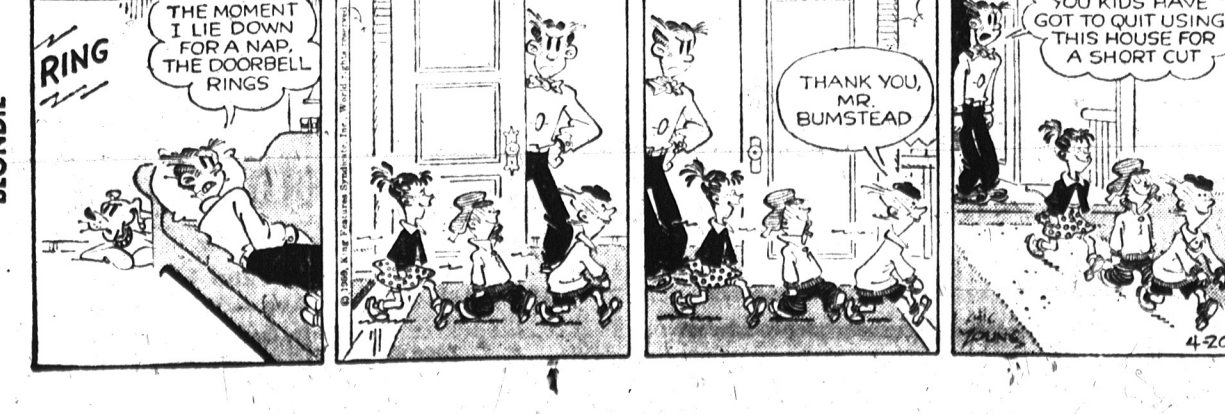

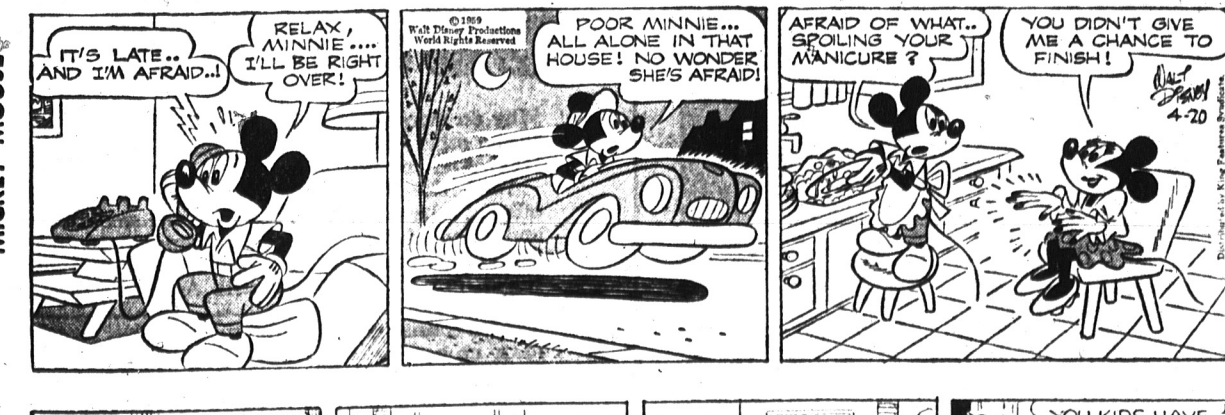

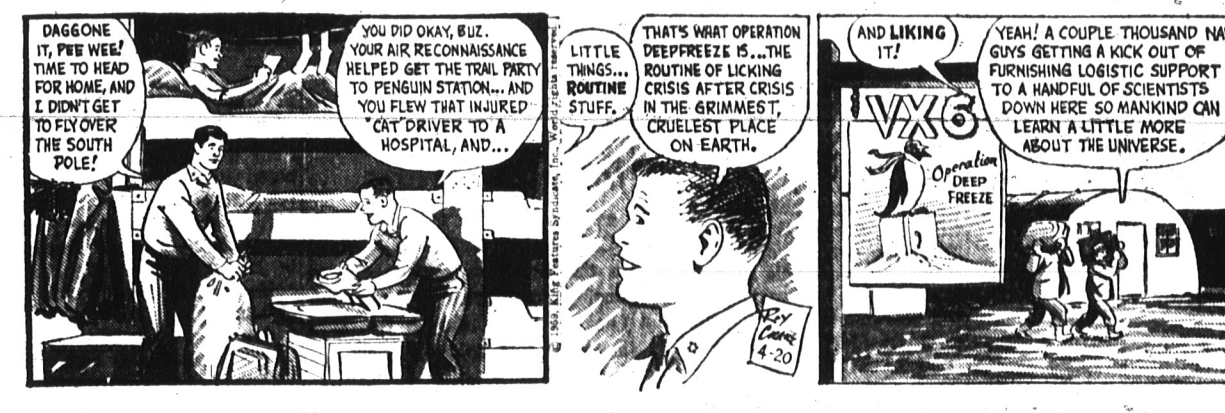

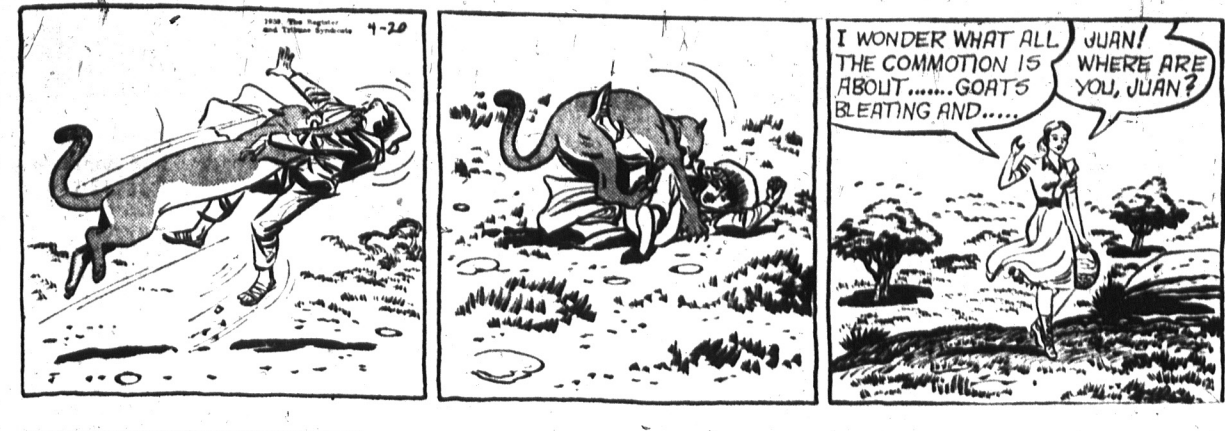

The "shape of things to come" in the future is taking form today and every day. Successfully to meet the challenge of tomorrow, management must keep itself accurately informed on what is happening today and every day.

To plan ahead effectively, management must know the facts and figures that bear directly or indirectly on business in general and on its own business in particular. For fast, accurate, comprehensive coverage of this essential information, management turns with confidence to the Journal. Its regular perusal and study becomes a "must" . . . not only in the formulation of long-range plans, but in the day-to-day operation of a business so as to effectively meet new needs and seize new opportunities, as they arise. Thus the Journal becomes a basic business tool for top management everywhere.

The farmer planning his crops, the student planning his career, the wife planning her homemaking . . . everyone can better anticipate tomorrow for the accurate knowledge of today's news as presented in the Journal.

'Man, Does That Hurt!'
Willie Mays, San Francisco Giants' prize possession, grimaces in pain after he turned his ankle while crossing first base in a game at San Francisco against St. Louis Sunday. Mays was called safe at first base when the ball he hit to the mound forced teammate Jackie Brandt at second and relayed to first base. Coming up to give Mays help is Giants coach Wes Westrum. Tribe's Skein Halted By Yankee Castoff

BEECHER (INS) — Beecher's baseballers, Kan.-Willie Conference champions in the fall of 1957, appear ready to return to the throne this season if they can come up with some consistently good pitching.

The Bobcats, who go against K-W for Grant Park here Friday night, appear ready to return to the throne this season if they can come up with some consistently good pitching.

In the Peotone game the Bobcats outlasted the Blue Devils but Beecher batters Gordon and Bob Teske ran into control difficulty and walked eight batters. Peotone won 11-7.

Cocaptains Eugene Hamerster, third sacker, and Jerry Koennig, centerfielder and pitcher, are the only seniors on the squad, but there are three other lettermen and all 14 team members have had at least one year's experience.

Junior letterman is Muri Teske, catcher, his brother and battery mate Gordon, pitcher, and Bob Herz, infielder. The other Teske, freshman Bob, can pitch, play first base or the outfield.

Other baseball candidates include shortstop Al Schuldt, first baseman Bruce Beckelman, and outfielders Larry Grim and Bob Fisher, all juniors. George, a sophomore, is a catcher, and second baseman Marv Haseman, and outfielder Bill Kass, freshman.

Local Dogs Place In Hoosier Show

Six Kankakee and Bradley dogs accounted for five of the top places and one third in the Lake Shore Kennel Club show at Hammond, Ind., Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Snyder of Kankakee showed three Norwegian Elk Hounds and all three captured first place in their respective divisions. Irons' Rod Rallo was first in the breed by exhibitors class. Irons' Laurry took first in the puppy dog class. Gra-Vals Little Rongann won first in the American Bred bitch class.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pfaff of RR 17, Kankakee, won with five in the eighth behind Johnny Podes for an 8.3 victory over Ch. 42 behind Russ Kemmerer. Cold weather postponed the De Troit at Chicago game.

In the National League, San Francisco kept right on moving with Johnny Antonelli coping his third straight, 3-1, on an eight-hit game. Cincinnati pounded out 12 hits in a 12-5 romp over the Phillies with Frank Robinson driving in four runs with a homer and a single.

Even in defeat, the Cleveland club managed to come up with a homer. Woody Held smashed his fifth of the year in the bottom of the ninth, Ray Herbert, making his first start, went all the way for the A's.

ENOS SLAUGHTER, soon to be 40, tied the score for the Yankees with a ninth inning homer at Fenway Park. The Red Sox, held to two hits after the third inning, got the big one when Malone knocked out Duren's 14th pitch into the left field corner in the 12th.

Gene Stephens hit a two-run homer off Johnny Kucks and Norm Sieben of the Yanks hammered an Ike Delock fast ball off.

NIU Has Varied Sports Weekend

DE KALB UP — Victories in golf and track and a double-header baseball loss gave Northern Illinois University a varied sports picture over the weekend.

Northern humbled the Milwaukee branch of the University of Wisconsin in track, 88-43, and whipped Lake Forest, 17 1/2-0, on the links Saturday. The hosts dropped the twin bill to Illinois State Normal, 4-2 and 6-5.

NERVES Made His Life MISERABLE

One Kankakee man said recently that he was "littery and miserable," just because of simple, everyday nervousness which he states made his life miserable. He said that a full night's sleep and felt tired and worn out. But now he says he sleeps better than in YEARS. He says he is "a happier outlook on life." He says he is "a happier outlook on life." He says he is "a happier outlook on life."

Bradley Host To Central, St. Patrick

By GIL BRENNER

A Wil-Ro-Kee track "spectacular" is on the schedule for Tuesday but today isn't so much of a question of who will win it as whether weather will permit the staging of the event.

The "spectacular" will bring together Central, St. Patrick Central and Bradley-Bourbonnais on the latter's track. The meet likely could be a preview of the battle for the conference championship to be decided on the same track on May 6.

Weather forecasters are predicting that Tuesday's weather will approximate that of today. If so the triangular meet likely will be postponed. Bradley Coach Jerry Lemmon said that the usual practice is to use the following day as the rain-out day but he said a decision on whether the meet will be postponed probably won't be made until Tuesday morning. He said he didn't know whether Wednesday was open to Central and the Irish, in event of a postponement.

IF AND WHEN the triangular is held Ken Decker's Comet will rate the favorite role. The Central out, has shown both individual strength and depth in rolling through three meets unbeaten. Numbered among the Comet victors have been St. Patrick Central, Watska, Moneuse and Herscher. A's have been in contention just once, and that was the 78-0 loss to Central. Bradley has lost to Kankakee and Watska has defeated Moneuse in three dual meets.

The meet will preview some of the individual contests that will spark the conference meet. It will mark the continuation of the battle in the weights that has been going on between Central's Rolland Rosebourn and Bradley's Charles Grayson for two years. Less than an inch separated the two in their last victory and fresh-spring competition meets last year with Rosebourn winning both times on his final throw. This year Rosebourn has the better distance with 48-73, while Grayson's top mark has been 45-73. In the discus the Comet has tossed the paltry 127-9 and Grayson 117-15.

The spirits will renew the battle between St. Pat's John Monahan and Ron Reilly and Central's John Jackson — with Bradley's Jack Childs also getting into the act. Monahan, who has gone 103-0, won the event at the Central St. Pat meet. Childs was 10-5 last time.

THE 400 WILL BRING together the top four quartermilers in the area—Central's senior Ralph Bailey and Bradley's sophomore Al Harris. The former has a 5:31 clocking and the latter 5:43.

With St. Pat's Erikson not yet in shape, the 380 could boil down to a duel between Bradley's Harris (2:09) and Central's Jack Peters (2:12). Bradley's Dale Munroe has a 2:14 clocking.

The mile will feature a battle between Bradley's Ed Virgins (5:06) and Central's Tom Pett (5:12). Bradley's Bill Carel has a 5:14 clocking. Fred Moriarty of St. Patrick has the best clocking in the district, 5:04.

Argo, Thornton Test Kays In SSL 3-Way

By HERB JANNUSCH

Outdoor track competition toughens up considerably for Kankakee this week, starting Tuesday when they entertain two South Suburban League foes, Argo and Thornton, on the Alumni Field track.

It will be the first three meets for the Kays in five days. They meet St. Patrick Central in a dual meet Friday at Alumni Field and compete in the Normal Relays Saturday.

Both the Tuesday and Friday meets will be joint varsity and sophomore affairs. In addition, the sophomores will engage in a triangular match with Watska and Central Thursday at Watska.

TUESDAY'S MEET Kankakee's two outstanding contestants, distance runner Marv Sillman and sprinter Forrest Newton, the stiffest competition they will have met outdoors this spring, Argo has both Williams, SSL sophomore sprint champion to dual both Newton and running mile Clarence Wright in the dashes while Thornton's ace is miler Tom Lambert who was second to Sillman in the SSL mile last year.

Sillman will be making another assault against runners in two events on Tuesday. His mile time of 4:28.5, only a second behind the school record by Bob Barker in 1955 in finishing second in the state meet and 1.8 seconds slower than the track record (4:26.7) established by Dan Imrie of Joliet the last year.

Sillman appears to be a cinch to break both marks sometime this season, especially if he can find somebody to push him. It appears, though, that virtually all of his competition will come from his teammates, Ron Dawkins and Lee Sprimont, both of whom are under 4:30 consistently.

Sillman's best time in the half-mile in two attempts this year is 2:09.1. The track record, which he set last year, is 2:03.5. If he keeps competing in that event, he should hang up a new mark there, too.

NEWTON'S 1:01 in the century and 2:22.1 in the 220 yard dash Tuesday night in the regular season with six shutouts and 40 yard run. His indoor leap of 21 feet 8 1/2 inches several weeks ago hints he has the potential to lower the school broad jump record of 22 feet 1 inch set by Lloyd Oakley in 1951.

The Kays' other most consistent winner is Curt Crossley who is steadily improving in the hurdle races.

Weather Halts 3 Sports Events This Afternoon

Three of today's prep athletic events, two belonging to Bradley and the other to Kankakee, have been postponed because of cold weather conditions.

Bradley has postponed a Wil-Ro-Kee Conference baseball game with Wilmington, scheduled for 4 o'clock, and a home golf match with Beecher. No new dates have been set for either event.

The Thornton Football vs. Kankakee varsity football game originally set here for 4 o'clock this afternoon has been rescheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the same time.

A Kankakee at Thornton Football game set for this afternoon has also been postponed until Tuesday.

Boros, Burke In Houston Playoff

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Easy-going Julius Boros, a Connecticut Yankee now living in Florida and playing out of North Carolina, met comeback specialist Jackie Burke Jr. today in an 18-hole playoff for top money in the Houston Classic golf tournament.

The two strongmen both overcame front-running Arnold Palmer to end up in a tie for 62nd place with 11-under-par 275.

PALMER, who had been co-favored with Cary Middlecott to win this 12th annual event, faded during the final 27 holes to end up in a tie for third place with Mike Souchak and Palmer $1,850 each.

Today's playoff was the first of the current season, and only the second for the Houston Classic since it was started in 1947.

Palmer's bogey five on Sunday's 18th and final hole may have cost him as much as $2,450. He came into the 18th at even par for the day and another par for the hole would have put him in a three-way tie for first and another chance at the $4,300 prize. Second-place money is $3,000.

THE LIGONIER, Pa., long-hitter drove his second shot six feet beyond the green, chipped to within five feet of the cup and then missed his putt by inches to take the bogey.

Middlecott pocketed $1,000 by birdieing his 18th hole for the fourth at 275 with Chick Harbert of Northville, Mich., and Freddie Haas of New Orleans.

Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., tied Jack Herbert of the Seventh Ward Alderman election. If you see fit to elect me, I will be glad to accept your pledge to continue to do all within my power to justify your confidence in me. Thank you very much.

This Is 'Comeback' Week For 2 Welters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This is comeback week for two former welterweight champions, Virgil Atkins and Tony DeMarco.

The 31-year-old Atkins is getting a return title shot at the man who leached him—Don Jordan—and DeMarco is fighting—see if he still has anything left.

Although he absorbed a sound stalling from Jordan at Los Angeles last Dec. 5, Atkins has been the 6-5 favorite to regain the crown at the Kiel Auditorium in St. Louis Friday night. The 15-rounder will be telecast nationally at 9 p.m. CST with St. Louis blacked out.

The spirits will renew the battle between St. Pat's John Monahan and Ron Reilly and Central's John Jackson — with Bradley's Jack Childs also getting into the act. Monahan, who has gone 103-0, won the event at the Central St. Pat meet. Childs was 10-5 last time.

THE 400 WILL BRING together the top four quartermilers in the area—Central's senior Ralph Bailey and Bradley's sophomore Al Harris. The former has a 5:31 clocking and the latter 5:43.

Bears, Bisons Even In AHL Playoffs

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

The Hershey Bears are all even in the American Hockey League final playoff series with the Buffalo Bisons, thanks to the nifty netminding of Bobby Perrault.

Perrault, who led the AHL in the regular season with six shutouts and 40 yard run. His indoor leap of 21 feet 8 1/2 inches several weeks ago hints he has the potential to lower the school broad jump record of 22 feet 1 inch set by Lloyd Oakley in 1951.

The Kays' other most consistent winner is Curt Crossley who is steadily improving in the hurdle races.

SU Net Team Loses, Then Wins

CARBONDALE (UPI)—Southern Illinois University net team lost to Iowa, 7-2, in two tennis matches Saturday.

The Hossiers' doubles team of Ian Rothmiller and Denny Lortz beat Jerry Gruen and Arnie Schreiber, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5, in a final doubles match to decide the minor competition.

In the afternoon, the Hawkeyes won only two singles matches in the SUI tour.

17-Year-Old Stuns ABC Vet Lubanski

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Ray Orf, a 17-year-old St. Louis bowler, the youngest star ever to compete in the finals of the Masters Bowling Tournament, staged one of the biggest upsets in its 8-year history when he sent Ed Lubanski, the world's best bowler, to the losers' bracket.

Lubanski, who apparently has three ABC tournament medals won with great performances here in February, fell before the youngster Sunday night, 77-73.

Lubanski would be eliminated with one more defeat.

Orf and Lubanski both started well, with the youth winning the first game, 216-200. Orf came back with a 207 in the second game to 189 for Lubanski, and won the third 183-175.

Lubanski, the world's best bowler, won the last game, 184-164.

ORF IS A HIGH SCHOOL senior who will be 18 in August.

However, another old pro survived first round play as Don Carter fired an amazing 1,005 series to beat half of former Joe Norris of Chicago who had 762.

Carter, using a new one-colored ball for the first time in tournament competition, had games of 220, 199, 278, 289 to become the second man in Masters' history to go over the 1,000 mark. The record of series is a 1,021 by Tony Lindner of Detroit, rolled last year in Syracuse.

John Powell Jr., Toledo, Ohio, and George Glasco, Morrisville, Pa., had a top match with Powell winning 889-831. This was the second highest scoring match in Masters' history. Powell had games of 257, 256, 248, 228, while Glasco had 238, 220, 227, 246.

TOM HENNESSEY, defending Masters champion, opened with a first round victory over Dick Voltinger, St. Louis, 861-819.

Dick Hennessey, Altoona, Ohio, another former champion, also won his first match, defeating Mike Gast, Louisville, 807-774. Buzz Ez-ziz, the only other ex-champion slipped into the losers' bracket when he lost to Joe Joseph of Detroit, 851-795.

The Masters tourney is now divided into winners and losers brackets for today's play. It's a double elimination meet with the finals scheduled for Wednesday.
