BERTRAND AND BRANIGAN INDICTED

FEDERAL JURY INDICTS 18 KANKAKEEANS

RESULT OF RAIDS NOV. 23 ON TEN SPEAKEASIES IN THIS COUNTRY

MANY OF THIS CITY

True Bills Returned At East St.
Louis: One Woman Among
The Defendants

St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 9.—(AP)—An Kankakee county residents including one woman, were indicted by the federal grand jury here yesterday. The indictments were for violations of the prohibition law. Those indicted are: Paul Rabideau, George Zollicoffer, Peter Paul, Louis Santos, Joe Sanculius, John Gusto and his wife Marie, Hector Drolet, Arthur Monte, Frank T. Eldridge and Glen Wagner, all of Kankakee; Lester Mercier, Adolph LaFline and William Brail, all of Bradley; Russell Clements, Freeman O. Bickwell, Upton Broderick and Victor C. Gardiner, all of Mokena.

Arrested Nov. 23. All of the above-named defendants were arrested on the night of Saturday, Nov. 23, when a party of 36 federal raiders swooped down upon the ten establishments in this vicinity, seized 30 gallons of liquor and drove off to the federal jail at Danville with their 18 prisoners. Most of the defendants returned to Kankakee the following day, all giving bond of $4,000. They are still at their homes here pending their trial, which will be at East St. Louis.

Monte's establishment was located in an upper flat at the corner of Cypress street and North Harrison avenue. Drolet was his bartender. Monte served a term in the federal jail about a year ago for violation of the dry law. The Locations. Rabideau's place was located at 833 South Main street. Zollicoffer was his bartender. Santos' place is at 290 South Schuyler avenue. Gusto is the owner of the Aroma hotel on North Fifth street. He was in bed at the time of the raids, having just been released from St. Mary's hospital following an operation. Mrs. Gusto was in charge of the place at the time of the raid. "Big Joe" Sanculius' place is in the 300 block on South East avenue.

The four Mokena men were taken at two places near the state line east of Mokena in territory known as Hell's Half Acre. The Bradley men were arrested at Green Lantern cafe on Highway 40 just north of the city limits. It is likely that most of the bartenders will be arraigned and dismissed after either short jail sentences or fines. The owners may face more serious sentences, especially those who have appeared in federal court before. Six of the ten owners had been previously convicted in county court by State's Attorney T. R. Johnston.

The MARRIAGE MEASURE

Two of Robert Mason's employees thought he was the finest man that ever lived. To Anne Douglas he was an ideal of what every man should be. To Gene Robbins he was the one man in the world, the one for whom her passionate heart had been waiting. But Robert was married.

You'll be thrilled by the drama of surging emotions that accompanies the calm routine of a typical business office. Look for the opening installment.

JUDGE GRANTS REQUEST TO AMEND SUIT

MRS. CLOUSE NAMES WRONG
BUS COMPANY IN $10,000
CASE HERE

GRANTS 2 DIVORCES

Humrichouse Case Starts At 1:30
This Afternoon; Will Be Lengthy

Circuit Judge A. W. DeSelm today dismissed the jury in the $10,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Dora Clouse against the Picwick Greyhound bus line, continuing the case indefinitely to permit the plaintiff to amend her bill charging the bus company with responsibility for the death of her husband in an accident on the Dixie highway.

The continuance was granted in order that Mrs. Clouse could charge the Greyhound line, Inc., of Indiana with liability for the crash. As soon as this formality is complied with the case will be resumed. Judge DeSelm yesterday afternoon denied the motion of the defense to take the case from the jury and dismiss it on the grounds that the wrong bus company was named in the suit.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon work was started to select a jury for the trial of the $10,000 damage suit brought by the administrator of the estate of the late B. J. McGinn against Mrs. Callista Humrichouse.

This action is expected to take several days to try. The case was tried last year and a verdict of $3,000 returned by a jury against the defendant. Both sides were dissatisfied with the verdict and both agreed to a new trial.

Last evening Judge DeSelm granted two divorces, both on the grounds of desertion. One of these was to Vera Adkins who charged that her husband, Fred, deserted her on July 1, 1923. The couple were married May 1, 1916, at Teno Haute, Ind.

Mrs. Claire Boudreau was given a decree from her spouse, Wesley. The couple were married Jan. 25, 1922, in Kankakee and the wife claimed Boudreau deserted her and her three children on Dec. 15, 1927 after she had him arrested. The children are Agnes 7, Henry 6 and Arneline 4.

Attorney C. W. Kurts represented Mrs. Boudreau. The husband, an automobile salesman, was ordered to pay eight dollars a week for the support of the children. He is charged with deserting his family. County Judge Henry P. Ruel had ordered Ruel to pay eight dollars

PROHIBITION LAW'S 10TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED HERE

The tenth anniversary of the national prohibition law will be fittingly observed at the Central Christian church next Sunday evening. The minister, the Rev. John P. Norman, will give an address on the subject, "What Shall We Drink?" During the last ten years a most diversified sentiment has crystallized around the Volstead act. Americans differ greatly as to the justice of American laws. Regardless of your attitude toward the present issue of prohibition, a hearty welcome will be waiting at Central Christian church Sunday evening at seven-thirty.

The fifteen weeks pre-Easter evangelistic program is capturing the interest of the congregation. Prayers are being uttered, personal work is being done, and the gospel invitation is being accepted. The 1900th anniversary of Pentecost will be observed in the Christian churches of the world on June 8. "On to Pentecost on the spirit of the first Pentecost."

FORMER KANKAKEE DETECTIVE NAMED CHIEF AT HAMMOND

Detective Sergeant Thomas Martinson, former Kankakee railroad detective and son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Martinson of 255 North Wall street, was yesterday named as chief of police at Hammond, Ind.

Martinson's appointment was the result of an investigation and shake-up of the Hammond police department conducted by the new board of public safety. He succeeds Chief Emil Bunde who was ordered removed from office. Captain Edward Warner of the Hammond police was reduced to the ranks of a plain clothes man in the shake-up.

Martinson is very well known here and visits his parents frequently. His bravery and loyalty to duty under extreme danger have won him repeated praise and promotion at Hammond.

The City Trust company has been named as guardian of her $6,000 estate. The sum of $500 is left to a brother, Fred Hill of this city and a like amount is left to a sister, Ida Marie Hill of Tippecanoe, Ind. The girl's mother, Mrs. Ebel Bierman of Kankakee is given five dollars. The rest of the estate is left to an aunt, Therese Strehlow of Colorado Springs, who is also named as executrix.

Climaxing fifty years of happy and successful married life with the loving companionship of their three children and admiring friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krueger yesterday celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home, 819 Main street.

The home was decorated with flowers and many beautiful wedding cakes adorned the dinner table. At the close of the ceremony, the following poem was dedicated to them by the children as expressing their sentiments and appreciation of their kindness of the parents toward their children.

Poetical Appreciation
"You may travel this wonderful world round and round,
And many a stormy sea;
But never a kinder face is found,
Nor a sweeter smile to see
Than that of our dear Mother."

"A wonderful friend in health and in pain,
A heart that has given and given again,
Of her love and her strength without price or a sign."

West And Mid-West Shiver As East Has Balmy Weather

(By the Associated Press) Springlike weather prevailed along the Atlantic seaboard from Maine to Florida today, but a cold wave that held the west in its grip was reaching out to the east and the south, and marked drop in temperature was predicted before night fall. The weather man's whim for records took the form of two inches of sleet at Hattiesburg, Tex., and a temperature of 67 degrees at Philadelphia—a January mark exceeded only once, in 1890, when the mercury touched 72. The official thermometer in New York City rose to a new record of 57 today, with the prediction of a further rise during the afternoon before the vanguard of the cold wave arrived.

The warm weather so weakened the ice at Hanover, N. H., and Burlington, Vt., that college hockey games had to be postponed. Two girls skating at North Chelmsford, Mass., broke through the soft ice and drowned.

Melting snow and rain in western New York had given way today to sleet and streams that had threatened to overflow their banks were subsiding.

The storm that has been raging for three days in the west had caused three deaths. At Okmulgee, Okla., 300 persons, attending a revival meeting fled from a frame tabernacle just a moment before the roof crashed in, weighted down by tons of sleet and snow.

Bedroom And Dining Room
Furniture

P. E. Kroehler, president of the Kroehler Mfg. Co., world's largest manufacturer of living room furniture, announced today the acquisition of the Luce Furniture Co. of Grand Rapids.

The Luce Co. is an old and well-known manufacturer of high grade bedroom and dining room furniture, doing an annual volume of $5,000,000, wholesale, and operating three plants in Grand Rapids.

The Kroehler Mfg. Co. does an annual volume of approximately $20,000,000, wholesale, in living room furniture, covering the entire field from very moderate price to the finest furniture made. It now owns and operates factories at Chicago, Naperville, Kankakee, Bradley, Dallas, Texas; Binghamton, New York; Los Angeles, and San Francisco, Calif.; Cleveland, Ohio; Stratford, Ontario, and Montreal, Quebec.

The Luce Co. will continue under the active management of Martin Dregge, president, and J. H. Houli, secretary and treasurer, and the product will continue to be manufactured and exhibited in Grand Rapids. Mr. Kroehler also stated that his company planned to acquire other factories of the same line of business and located in the south, southeast and southwest.

A complete line of household furniture will be made in these plants, and extensively advertised, and the same range of price and quality as in the present Kroehler line is to be maintained.

For 20 years Mr. Kroehler has been an ardent worker in the interest of the furniture trade and has inaugurated and developed many important movements for the betterment of manufacturing, distributing and retailing conditions.

He is widely known as one of the most outstanding figures in the industry. He does not believe in factory-owned stores, but is an earnest advocate of advertised merchandise sold through the regular retail furniture and department stores.

MOOSE WILL STAGE BIG CHARITY BALL HERE JANUARY 23

Residents of this city are to participate in an international dancing party, with seventeen hundred other committees of the United States and Canada, during the last week in December. Dancers will be gliding over waxed floors, doing the same steps as persons in ice-bound Alaska, sun-kissed Panama, the Bermudas, Canada, and the United States.

These dancing parties are being held under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose for the benefit of the new $500,000 boys' village planned at Mooseheart, Illinois. "The Child City of the Moose."

The mission of the Moose fraternity is a very practical one. Orphans or dependent children of deceased members are taken to Mooseheart, and given a home, a high school education, and instruction in one of nearly forty (40) practical trades. Mooseheart is now housing, feeding, clothing, and educating upward of fifteen hundred underprivileged children; an undertaking which challenges the respect and admiration of the civilized world.

The entire proceeds of the Mooseheart Charity Ball given by Kankakee Moose Lodge on January 23, will be used to meet the quota subscribed to the "Boy's Village Building Fund."

Support by the public not only gives furtherance to a good cause, but patrons of the ball are assured a pleasant time in keeping with the holiday spirit.

LOCAL TRIO NAMED AS MURDERERS BY GRUNDY CO. JURY

Clarence Bertrand, Victor Pestant and Sam Barnaby, three Kankakee men arrested last week, were indicted yesterday by the Grundy county grand jury and charged with the murder of William Schmidt at the Yellow Dog Inn, near Dwight, on Nov. 15, 1928. These are said to be the first murder indictments in the history of Grundy county.

The Kankakee trio is being held in the Grundy county jail at Morris. State's Attorney T. R. Johnston, upon being informed of the action of the Grundy county jury, stated that Bertrand must be returned to Kankakee to stand trial for the murder of Fred Strahl last Sept. 11, but that he would probably surrender Pestant and Barnaby to the Morris officials.

It is understood that an indictment against Bertrand for a robbery at Beecher two years ago is also pending with the Will county grand jury in Joliet.

NAMED INDIVIDUALLY AND JOINTLY AS SLAYERS OF FRED STRAHL LAST SEPT.

WILLIAM S. RAGAN CHARGED WITH GRANT PARK BANK ROBBERY AS GRAND JURY CONCLUDES SESSION WITH TEN INDICTMENTS—HOLD URBANA MAN AT JAIL AS ANOTHER SUSPECT IN MURDER CASE—TRIALS IN THREE WEEKS.

Ten indictments, six of them directed against Clarence "Cooney" Bertrand and Lawrence Branigan for the murder of Fred Strahl, were returned by the January grand jury which concluded its session and was excused subject to recall by Circuit Judge A. W. DeSelm last evening.

Bertrand and Branigan were each indicted separately for murder and were also named in a joint indictment. Each was also indicted individually and jointly on a charge of assault with intent to rob.

State's Attorney T. R. Johnston, in announcing the list of indictments said that the trials of the two men held in the county jail since shortly after the night of Sept. 11, when Strahl was killed, will be tried during the current term of court. The criminal calendar will open the week of Monday, January 20, and the list of criminal cases is so long this term that they may occupy an entire month before they are all disposed of.

Indict Ragan

The grand jury also indicted William S. Ragan, former Chicago aircraft factory superintendent, as the lone bandit who entered the Grant Park National Bank on May 21, 1929, and robbed P. V. Hubbel, president, and A. W. Ruggie, cashier, of $3,333. Ragan is now held in the Champaign county jail at Urbana awaiting trial on a charge of attempting to rob a bank at Fischer, Ill., several weeks ago.

An indictment charging check forgery was returned against William Condon, 26, of this city. Condon is accused of forging the name of Fred Johnson on a $15 check which he gave to William Peppin. If found guilty, he faces a long term in the penitentiary.

Charged With Rape

George Gurstin, 31, was indicted for statutory rape. The alleged offense was committed upon a Kankakee girl last August. The girl is 15 years of age.

Amos Cross and Marvel Dink, two Mokena farm youths, were indicted for the theft of eight pigs which were stolen last week from the farm of Mack Shrontz, also of Mokena. The pigs, after they were stolen, were killed and were found in a yard at the Cross farm. Mokena officers had trailed the tracks of an automobile used by the thieves and the trail led to the place where the pigs were found. Each pig weighed about 75 pounds and had been struck on the head with a heavy blunt instrument.

Third Suspect

Glen Patterson, the Urbana young man arrested this week by Detective William Cantlin is being held at the county jail as being the possible third man present, with the other two defendants, when Strahl was killed. Patterson was questioned by Johnston and Detective William Cantlin who refused to divulge the nature of his statement made under oath to Court Reporter Will Schneider on Tuesday night.

The rumor that Patterson is suspected of having taken an active part in the Strahl case gained strength when Johnston did not bring Patterson before the grand jury. Under the law, if a man is brought before the grand jury to testify to statements which might incriminate him, he can never be tried for that crime.

Release Bridges

Loyman Bridges, Champaign merchant police officer who was held at the jail since last Sunday night, was ordered released yesterday by Johnston. The latter stated that Bridges furnished ample proof that he was not involved in the killing or subsequent concealment of Branigan and Bertrand. His arrest was due to the fact that he had been seen in Branigan's restaurant at Court street and Washington avenue on the night of the murder and that he was known to be an acquaintance of Branigan's.

Johnston and Cantlin have flatly refused to state on what charge Patterson is being held, but admit that he is invaluable for their case.

MORAN, MACK OPEN COMEDY AT MAJESTIC

Two Black Crows in "Why Bring That Up?" Will Entertain Kankakee and Surrounding Territory.

The two funny men whose humor directly opposes the gospel of pop and push are at the Majestic Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Two Black Crows, Moran and Mack, those lay drawing upholders of the doctrine of "Why Bring That Up?" have made their first all-talking picture. It's a Paramount, and quite appropriately is entitled "Why Bring That Up?" The reason it's brought up here is that no more interesting theatrical event has happened lately than the starring of Moran and Mack on the talking screen. From phonograph records and over the radio Moran and Mack have convinced these United States; but their appearance on the legitimate stage has been made chiefly in the important review of Earl Carroll and other New York producers. Hence the majority of Two Black Crow fans will have an opportunity to see, for the first time, what the "talking man" and his pal actually look like.

The story of "Why Bring That Up?" written by Octavius Roy Cohen, is said to parallel the real lives of the two men Moran and Mack who play "straight" in the picture. That is, they appear without their minstrel make-up.

Of course, however, they do appear at times in make-up because it isn't likely that "Why Bring That Up?" would seem actually to star Moran and Mack unless the men appeared at some time as the Two Black Crows. But the story takes Moran and Mack from the time they are down-and-outers until they are shining success—because they have a firm belief that their particular kind of comedy will be successful until the time when their long friendship is nearly wrecked because of a woman.

"Why Bring That Up?" was directed by George Abbott, famous director from the New York stage. "Broadway" the stage play, and "Coquette" in which Helen Hayes and Mary Pickford starred on stage and screen respectively, were the work of Mr. Abbott. "Why Bring That Up?" is Abbott's first effort for the talking screen, so that the talking picture represents a debut for him as well as for Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows.

HIGHLIGHTS

The immense motion picture public can now satisfy its curiosity as to how the men behind those funny voice look and act on the screen. New material, the story with comedy and drama, a good cast and a lavish "girl and music" production, sound or silent.

Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, come to you in "Why Bring That Up?" already sold to the public. Their records started it and their 20 radio broadcasts finished selling them. All you have to do now is tell them that they are at your theatre.

The material which makes "Why Bring That Up?" is enough of their former successes to start things off with a bang and enough new material to satisfy the most staunch "Crow" fan.

The plot has comedy first, then a touch of drama, and there is a story that follows through, one full of human, brotherly love and the insanity of false love. There is that appeal which touches everyone, their saving and working forward that day when they can build their own theatre.

The stage sequences are elaborately staged, gorgeous dance numbers, flashy settings, elaborate costumes and three new songs—"The Early Bird," "Do I Know What I'm Doing?" and "Shoo, Shoo, Boogie Boo."

The cast is of well known names from former successes, they give ample support to Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, and help to make this picture a box office hit from title to finish.

Moran:-
No—it looks like a Victrola—or is it a radio?
Mack:-
Little fella—that's what is known as the world's most famous heating contraption—you set it in your living room and it heats your kitchen.
Moran:-
Now, Charlie—I'm not in the mood for joking. What do you mean—you set it in your living room and it heats the kitchen.
Mack:-
Just that. This is the famous OAKLAND, it looks like a music box or a piece of furniture setting in the parlor—you put a log in it and then every inch of cold air immediately comes to the OAKLAND to get warm. It comes under the bottom right here and then passes out the top here—of course you know that hot air is lighter than cold air so the warm air circulates through the entire house and that's all there is to it. It heats the entire house, even the kitchen, from the parlor. Now, do you understand?
Moran:-
Of course I understand now, but what I would like to know is where I can buy one?
Mack:-
There is only one place in Kankakee to buy the famous OAKLAND and naturally that is at Lasser's Furniture Co. They are the exclusive agents.

No, not enlightenment, just common sense. This suit came from the Palace, Kankakee's leading men's furnishees. Who couldn't afford to look good always when they buy their clothes and furnishings there—Quality at low cost—that's the answer! Now, that's the answer!

EDWARD W. BOK, PHILANTHROPIST, DIES IN FLORIDA

Lake Wales, Fla., Jan. 9.—Edward W. Bok, who came to this country as an immigrant boy from the Netherlands and carved out for himself a distinguished position in public life as an editor, author and philanthropist, died at his estate near here today. He was 66 years old.

Mr. Bok became ill shortly after his arrival with Mrs. Bok from Merion, Pa., four days ago and his condition became critical yesterday. He passed away at 4:25 a. m. today suffering from an acute heart attack.

As the donor of a $100,000 prize for a plan by which the United States might cooperate with other nations in attaining and preserving world peace and the writer of "The Americanization of Edward Bok," an autobiography, Bok became widely known. Relating his details of first employment in America as a messenger boy at the age of 13, and his success as a journalist, the book was received as an outstanding work of his kind.

Following his retirement in 1919 as editor of the Ladies Home Journal, Mr. Bok spent much of his time in Florida. Within a short distance of his estate rises one of his principal philanthropic enterprises—a carillon of 61 bells erected on a bird sanctuary.

For the dedication of the Mountain lake singing tower and preserve Calvi Coolidge then president, made a special trip from Washington last February 1 and delivered an address.

In his 30 years as an editor Mr. Bok was associated with Cyrus H. K. Curtis, wealthy Philadelphia publisher.

He married a daughter of Mr. Curtis, the former Mary Louise Curtis, and they had two sons, Curtis, who resides at Rosemont, Pa., and Cary, who lives at Merion, Pa.

The sons, as well as Mr. Curtis, were summoned to Mr. Bok's bedside yesterday, but arrived after his death.

Bradley Resident Like A Brand New Man

Gained New Health, Strength and Energy Since Using Nu-Erb, "Nothing Like It," He Says

"For the past eight years, I have suffered from stomach, kidney and liver troubles, but thanks to the Nu-Erb, I am now feeling like a brand new man," said Mr. Eugene Kuhn, 217 Blaine Ave., Bradley, Ill. (Near Kankakee) in a recent interview with the Nu-Erb man at Strain's Pharmacy.

"Although I was extremely careful of what I ate, I suffered continually from a distressed feeling in my stomach and severe attacks of indigestion. My back ached all the time. I was subject to dizzy spells and frequent headaches. My nerves finally became in a weakened condition. I slept poorly at night and I felt tired and worn out."

"I tried various medicines, but could get no relief and it is because Nu-Erb has helped me after the others failed, that I recommend it so highly. It has overcome all the trouble with my stomach, the pains have left my back and I no longer get those dizzy spells or those dreaded headaches. My nerves are steady, I sleep soundly at night and I have regained all of my lost strength and energy."

"Let this amazing Nu-Erb help you back to health and strength. Its pure herbal juices tone and regulate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and put new strength and energy in a rundown system."

Strain's Pharmacy, 122 E. Court St., is the only place in Kankakee where Nu-Erb may be purchased. Go see the Nu-Erb man now making his headquarters there and let him explain to you the merits of this remarkable medicine. adv.

MAJESTIC—"Why Bring That Up!" all-talking, singing, dancing starring the "Two Black Crows" Moran and Mack of Musical Comedy. Phonograph and Radio fame with Evelyn Brent, Harry Green and many others including a chorus of gorgeous girls.

LUNA—"Little Johnny Jones" starring Eddie Buzzell, one of Broadway's favorite comedians, with Edna Murphy, Alice Day and many others.

The audiences of the Majestic theatre this afternoon were loud in their approval of the motion picture debut of Moran and Mack. The "Two Black Crows" in Paramount's all-talking, "Why Bring That Up!" These two record and radio stars not only present bits from their former successes, but added plenty of new material.

"Why Bring That Up?" has an engrossing plot. The story was written by Octavus Roy Cohen, famous author of "Darktown Docks" and is loosely woven about the actual lines of Moran and Mack. The Two Black Crows.

LUNA

"Little Johnny Jones" the Vitaphone film version of George M. Cohan's famous musical comedy hit, is now on the screen of the Luna theatre.

Despite the fact that this picture is based on the musical show and is full of song hits, it possesses a thrilling dramatic plot and a love story that is novel and appealing.

Eddie Buzzell, one of Broadway's favorite comedians, took time off from his New York shows to play the title role of "Little Johnny Jones" the Yankee Doodle Dandy. Alice Day as heroine, and Edna Murphy, as vamp, play opposite. Donald Reed, Robert Edison, Wheeler Oakman, Raymond Turner and other stage and screen favorites make up the supporting cast. "Little Johnny Jones" is first of all a bully screen offering, brimming with action that runs the emotional gamut from laughter to tears. It is only secondarily, but very effectively at that, musical. Of course snappy dialogue abounds and it all has the magic true Cohan touch.

ITALY'S FUTURE QUEEN REVIEWS PICK OF ARMY

Rome, Jan. 9.—More than 22,000 men of arms, the pick of Italy's contingents, passed in review today before the new Princess of Piedmont, Italy's future Queen, who until her marriage to Prince Humbert yesterday was Marie Jose of Belgium.

As the columns passed the Royal Stand at the Parioli race track, just outside the city, they made "eye-right" in honor of the Royal spectators. The families of both the Prince and the Princess witnessed the ceremony.

The Crown Prince commanded his own regiment.

Tomorrow morning the Royal pair will review a procession of Roman school children and in the afternoon a procession of Civil Authorities. Tomorrow evening the Governor of

The Kings, Princes, their suites and foreign military attaches, all on horseback, made a brilliant spectacle with their gorgeous uniforms and spirited mounts. They were cheered and applauded by a large crowd.

The climax of the review came in an aerial formation by 300 airplanes brought from all Italy's air camps for the purpose.

Tomorrow morning the Royal pair will review a procession of Roman school children and in the afternoon a procession of Civil Authorities. Tomorrow evening the Governor of Rome will be their host at a gala performance at the Royal opera house.

They will not start their honeymoon until Saturday, leaving then probably for the Royal Hunting Lodge at San Rossore, near Pisa. Turtin, Humbert's city of residence, some time next week.

You have to get up! You have to get up!

When the night is cold as ice and the telephone jingles merrily out in the hall, how comfortable it would be to have an extension telephone right at your bedside! No visions of icicles dropping from the hall ceiling; no annoyance in your voice when you answer the call. And why should there be when the telephone extension is right at your elbow?

With a telephone in your bedroom you can call assistance immediately in case of fire, sudden illness, robbery or other emergency. These dangers are met quickly and surely with a telephone extension close at hand. Women folk especially appreciate the protective feature of telephone extension service. The men will probably like the comfort of Telephone Convenience. The Cost is Small.
