CONRAD SAYS SUSPECTS ARE KIDNAPPERS

IDENTIFIES MEN ARRESTED AT CHICAGO AS PAIR WHO ABDUCTED HIM

HELD FOR RANSOM

Momence Baker, Kidnaped Nov. 26, Views Men: May Be Brought Here

Joseph Durham, 25, alias Joe DeLacy, and Leo Stabilewski, 21, alias Stabilewski, were positively identified by Momence Baker as the two men who kidnaped him on Tuesday, Nov. 26. The identification was made by Conrad who accompanied Detective William Cantlin to Chicago.

States Attorney T. R. Johnston demanded that the two men be returned to Kankakee to answer to a kidnap charge which carries a penalty of imprisonment for life. Conrad converted Cantlin left two warrants at Chicago demanding that the men be returned to Kankakee and will press the request of this county to try the men at the May term of circuit court.

Both men are known to Chicago police and have records as auto thieves. The car in which the two men who kidnaped Conrad rode was a stolen Packard sedan. The men abandoned the car and Conrad when the brakes caught fire after they had driven at a high rate of speed with the emergency brake applied.

Durham and Stabilewski were captured last Thursday when they were apprehended by Officers Kelly and Doyle of the Chicago police. The officers saw the two attempt to get into a car which the police believed had been stolen. The suspected kidnapers drew revolvers, but Durham threw up his hands in surrender when Stabilewski was shot in the abdomen.

Conrad viewed Durham in his cell and looked at Stabilewski who is confined to a bed in the Bridewell hospital. The wounded man is expected to recover.

A woman, Margaret LaBarge, was arrested with the two men. She had been living with Durham and is now in the custody of the police.

Durham and Stabilewski are alleged to be the same two men who helped a filling station at Calumet City several months ago when a policeman happened to walk in and catch them in the act. The officer was unable to draw his revolver and the thieves struck him over the head with the butt end of a gun and fled.

The Chicago police claim they have evidence of many crimes against the pair, but it is believed that they will be turned over to the Kankakee officers as the kidnap charge carries a heavier penalty upon conviction.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

George Ragain, 1518 South Seventh avenue, an attendant at the State hospital, was seriously injured early Saturday morning when he was struck by a hit and run motorist. According to his son, he suffered a serious scalp wound and numerous bruises. He was walking along Jefferson street, toward the hospital, when he was struck. He was taken home by Harley Hoas, operator of the Texaco service station, on the south side, and was later removed to the infirmary at the state hospital.

NO MORE HITCHING

Chief of Police Rice today issued a warning that any youngster caught hitchhiking behind a car with signs or stickers will be sent to police headquarters and fined, the same as any other law violator. Numerous complaints have come to him, he stated, about the dangerous practice and it is no longer to be tolerated. This is the second warning that the police have issued, and they expressed their intention of enforcing the ruling strictly.

BRANIGAN IS TAKEN TO OLD HOME IN PEN

STARTS 14-YEAR SENTENCE FOR MURDER SATURDAY EVENING

GREETED BY KEEPER

Circuit Court Room Appears Rather Lonely As Pig Theft Trial Starts

BULLETIN
Amos Cross and Marvel Denis Momence, were sentenced to serve from one to ten years in the state penitentiary when they pled guilty before Judge DeSelm as the jury to try their case was nearly completed this afternoon. The trial of George Guertin started this afternoon. The complaining witness is a 15-year-old girl.

Lawrence Branigan, convicted by a jury in circuit court for the murder of Fred Stahl in this city last Sept. 11 and sentenced by Judge DeSelm Saturday to 14 years in the Joliet penitentiary, entered the state prison for his third visit Saturday evening.

Branigan was taken to Joliet by Sheriff Ed Hoennicke and Chief of Police W. J. Riley. He offered no resistance on the trip and seemed to be in a genial mood. He was greeted as he entered the prison by a keeper who said "Hello, Hamilton." Branigan's last sentence as a Joliet was for a robbery at Pontiac which he served under the alias of Frank Hamilton.

The circuit court room was practically deserted this morning when the trials of Amos Cross and Marvel Denis Momence men accused of stealing eight pigs from the farm of Mack Shronts, was started. Assistant State's Attorney Charles W. Kurtz is prosecuting the case. The defendants are being tried jointly for the crime and are represented by Attorneys T. S. Sawyer and Vernon Butz.

Bailiffs stated that the court room was long since now compared with the record throngs which attended the Branigan murder trial.

A heavy criminal calendar is still pending for this term of court and it is probable that the trials of Harold Forbes and Frank Davis Chebanese men accused of arson, will follow after the disposition of the charges against Cross and Denis. A large crowd is expected for the arson trials.

HOME PAPER IN TRIBUTE TO BURDICK

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK HAS FINE RECORD

IN PUBLIC OFFICE

Has Held Important Positions In Charge Of Community Finances

The following tribute to O. A. Burdick, Republican candidate for the office of county clerk at the spring primary election, was printed in the current edition of the Momence Press-Reporter. It speaks highly of Mr. Burdick's ability and integrity during his years of service to the public and reads as follows:

"Mr. Burdick has been an active Republican in this county for many years. He has always been willing to give of his time and support to Republican candidates. He never has asked anything for himself, being satisfied in doing all in his power to help his friends and his party. For many years he has been precinct committeeman for the first precinct of Kankakee township and in that position has contributed in a very large degree to the success which the Republicans have always enjoyed in that precinct, which embraces a part of the city of Momence. He has given valuable service as a committeeman, and every committeeman in the county knows of and fully appreciates what he has done. Practically every member of the county committee will back Mr. Burdick in his campaign."

In the selection of Mr. Burdick for this important office the party leaders took into consideration the qualifications which he possesses. He is known throughout the county as one of the best bookkeepers and accountants. He has held several positions in which he handled hundreds of thousands of dollars of public money. Never in all of these years has there ever been found a single error in his records. He has been city treasurer, city collector, and treasurer of the school district. In these positions vast amounts of money have passed through his hands. In every case he has been highly complimented for the expert manner in which his records have been kept. An example of his efficiency was brought to light during the recent audit of the city of Momence finances. While the expert accountants found things in a bad way in other departments, these accountants publicly stated that Mr. Burdick's accounts as city collector were absolutely perfect. Every cent had been accounted for and credited or charged to the proper account. For many years Mr. Burdick has served as clerk of the local camp of Modern Woodmen. In this capacity he has handled monthly the payments of about five hundred members. The head camp officers say that he is one of the very best camp clerks in the entire country. In the handling of death claims, he has always been prompt and considerate, and many a widow in this vicinity can vouch for the manner in which he has looked after their insurance. Those who best know Mr. Burdick's qualifications say that he is one of the best men who has ever aspired for a county office in this county.

"Mr. Burdick has lived in Momence for about 25 years. He first entered the employ of Len Cooke. Later he formed a partnership with L. J. Joubert and entered the drug business. A few years ago Mr. Joubert retired from the firm since which time Mr. Burdick has been conducting the business. He has always taken an active part in the upbuilding of the city and community, which has made for him friends in every part of the county. His fraternal affiliations have brought him in close contact with prominent men in every part of the county. During his long and active residence here there never has been a derogatory thing said against him. Such a man will prove a valuable county officer. There is no question as to what the voters of this vicinity will do on primary day and it is the Press-Reporter's prediction that he will receive the largest vote ever given a county candidate in this end of the county."

Mr. Burdick with his associate candidates will make an active campaign over the county and never before has a campaign started out under more promising circumstances."

MOMENCE MAN HELD AS SUSPECT IN TWO LOCAL ROBBERIES

Robert Weimer, 24, Momence, is being held at the county jail on a charge of robbery. He was arrested Saturday afternoon by Deputy Hamilton upon the order of William Cantlin, special investigator for the State's Attorney T. R. Johnston.

Cantlin suspects Weimer as being the man who broke into the home of Hal Wood, 255 West Bourbonnais street, about a month ago and taking, among other things, a German Luger revolver which Wood brought back from his World War service.

Weimer is also held as a possible suspect in the robbery of the Elman pawn shop in this city on May 3, 1927. Weimer was suspected after he had sold a pistol which was later identified by Wood as having formerly belonged to him.

CRAP GAME WINNER SAYS HE WAS HELD UP; $40 MISSING

Nelson West, colored, is held at the county jail awaiting a hearing before Justice C. H. Edison. West is charged with holding up Fred Jackson, also colored, and robbing Jackson of $40 at the point of a revolver.

The alleged crime occurred last evening in the railroad camp north of Manteno where both men are employed. Jackson states that he was the winner of a crap game in which West was a heavy loser. After leaving the scene of the gambling sport, Jackson claims that West drew a gun and forced him to hand over the cash.

Jackson then summoned Sheriff Hoennicke and Deputies Tetraue and Greenwood who placed West under arrest.

EDGAR C. TAYLOR LIKES CALIFORNIA

Pasadena, Calif., January 22, 1930. (The Daily Republican, Kankakee, Ill.)
Dear Sirs:
We had a very pleasant trip out here and found the greater part of the roads in excellent condition. I think that Arizona is credited with having the roughest and the dustiest roads of any state on the whole route. Give Arizona full credit by saying they are passable in all kinds of weather.

We came the southern route passing through Dallas and El Paso, Texas, Lordsburg, N. M., Tucson, Arizona and El Centro, Calif., which lies in the heart of the Imperial Valley. This great valley has been transferred from a worthless desert, covered with nothing but sage brush and cactus, to the richest garden spot of the world and all this has been done by irrigation from the Colorado river. A taste of any of the citrus fruits, figs or dates raised in this valley will readily convince the most skeptical that it cannot be equaled anywhere else in the country. This valley requires no fertilization as the soil deposits from the great river leaves the soil more fertile and productive at the end of the season, regardless of what crop has been harvested from the soil.

The weather has been simply grand ever since we left Texas as that state was covered with a sheet of ice when we passed through it. We arrived here in Pasadena last Monday and the thermometer has touched 80 degrees every day since we have been here and the sun shining is as bright as our best June days.

Best regards to all the boys at home. I remain

Yours truly,

Edgar C. Taylor

NEW ADDITION TO 1ST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH COMPLETED

The members and friends of the First Presbyterian church feel happy in the new $6,000 addition to their church building and other important property improvements recently made.

In celebration of the completion of the work, invitations are out for a chicken pie supper and get-together of the congregation on Wednesday evening at six o'clock. The supper will be served by Mrs. Harold Ralph and her corps of efficient assistants.

The new addition on the west side of the church includes a commodious and handsomely furnished ladies' parlor and one of the largest and best equipped institutional kitchens in the city. The former kitchen has been transformed into a comfortable classroom for the brotherhood bible class, and the church parlor and adjoining rooms artistically decorated.

Following the supper, reports of the committees in charge of the work will be made and a dedicatory service will be conducted by the pastor.

The celebration will be held under the auspices of the Society of Women's Work, whose president, Mrs. E. E. Rollins, will preside. It is planned to close the proceedings of the evening in time for the members of the Women's club to attend the club lecture.

Allen Rogers, supervisor of public relations for the New York Central railroad, Chicago, delivered an interesting talk on transportation and motive power at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis club held at noon today in McBroome's cafe. Mr. Rogers was introduced by A. R. Beard, program chairman.

Mr. Rogers stated that the present era of civilization has been called the speed age. He called the "thrills" derived by tourists in 1831 in riding the first New York Central train at a speed of 12 miles an hour.

Enthusiasm, the speaker said, has been responsible for many of the great achievements in the world. The success of the railroads of America has been due to the untiring enthusiasm of its employees, particularly in times of storm and other unforeseen calamities.

What America needs most today, he said, is more of the old time enthusiasm—especially in matters of population which now costs the government more per capita than food. He said that railroads have reduced freight rates 13 1/2 per cent since 1921, but railroad taxes have increased 30 per cent in the same time.

Guests will be invited to the ladies night program which the club will sponsor Feb. 12. There will be a meeting of the directors at noon tomorrow in the Hotel Kankakee. An appeal for work for the underprivileged child committee was voiced by Dr. A. C. Willman, C. F. Koehler and Dr. E. L. Longpre named the guests today with a novel greeting as members of the "glad hand" committee.

Richard Lind has returned to Northwestern university after spending the week end in Kankakee with his parents.

SATURDAY WAS BUSY DAY FOR THE "Y" BOYS

"FRIENDLY INDIANS" LEARN ABOUT NATURE ON HIKE THROUGH WOODS

INSIDE ACTIVITIES

"Pioneer" Club Has Hot Basketball Tournaments In "Y" Gymnasium

What a day! (The "Y" boys) exclaimed a hundred or more Y. M. C. A. boys. Fun, instruction and activities from 9:00 a. m. until 6:00 p. m. Saturday is a real day for a "Y" boy.

The day started off well when twenty Friendly Indians left the building, marched down court street and headed for the west river trail. First there was the Iroquois tribe led by big chief Jim Ennis and little chief Joe DeSelm. The boys followed the river trail beginning at Bird Park into the woods up to the ravines and first spring. On the hike out the boys studied nature and her wonderful achievements. Some of the things of interest which they saw were several squirrel trees a bee tree and deposits of honey comb, rabbits, squirrel, raccoon, muskrats, and "skunk" track were to be seen everywhere. The squirrels nut burying places, the ice deposits on the trees, where the water first froze when the river was high and many other things.

Good Indians

Believing that a good Friendly Indian uses these things and is willing to learn about things the boys kept their eyes open and learned of how wonderful nature really is. When the boys reached their destination in a picturesque wooded ravine, the boys built a big fire and warmed up for it was but ten degrees above zero, however this cold weather means nothing to a Friendly Indian. The hike back to the Y was a happy one, the boys feeling that their days outing had been well worth while. At the Y each boy was allowed a few minutes in the work showers, what a time they had.

Pioneers

While the Friendly Indians were on the outing, the Pioneers were having their interested centered around building activities. At 9:00 a. m. Francis Michales and his Junior Trail Blazers with James Inckter, as Chief Ranger, held their regular meeting. Then at 11:00 o'clock, Bill Kurts and his Junior "A" Forest Rangers, with Bill Brady as Chief Ranger, held their regular weekly meeting.

From 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. the gymnasium was the scene of an interesting Pioneer club basketball tournament. In the first game Joe Green's Newsboys Path Finders defeated Francis Michales Trail Blazers by a score 14 to 5.

Before the tournament all the boys participating practiced on separate teams to determine the best of their groups. In the second game the Junior B won from the Junior A by a score of 20 to 1. The B's being too large and fast for their younger brothers. In the final game which was won by the Newsboys, play was fast and furious, neither team being able to claim victory until the final minutes of the game. Tammam and Green played great basketball for the winners with Todd and Hendricks working to best advantage for the losers.

The boys program at the Y is being worked hard under the leadership of Harleigh Trecker, who is giving most of his time to this phase of the Association work. The Y boys department is working hard to meet the needs of the members and with the cooperation of others interested in the boyhood of Kankakee are sure to make this year's effort stand out as one of the best in history. The association is only too glad to welcome both members and non members into the fold, the feeling that all boys should use their Y being foremost in the minds of leaders. Since the Y is primarily for the boy and his growth and development at this stage of life is so essential to better manhood, the Y is offering a finer program.

The program for the week January 27 to February 2 is as follows: Monday, January 27, 7:00 p. m. News Boys Pioneers; Thursday, Jan. 30, 6:30 p. m. Hi-Y Dads night; Saturday, Feb. 1, 9:00 a. m. Junior A; Saturday, Feb. 1, 10:00 a. m. Friendly Indians meet; Saturday, Feb. 1, 2:00 p. m. Friendly Indian gym tournament; Sunday, February 2, 7:00 p. m. Hi-Y Gospel team, First M. E. church.

All gym, swimming, boxing, tumbling, and social activities will be conducted as usual.

FIVE CALLS ARE ANSWERED BY THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

Five fire alarms Saturday and yesterday were answered by the Kankakee Fire Department. In each case, the fire was discovered and extinguished before any great damage was done.

Company number one made a run at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon to the Used Car Exchange at 167 North Dearborn avenue where fire had started apparently from lighted cigarette butts thrown in the cold air shaft of the heating system. The fire had spread to surrounding floor joists and, if not immediately discovered and extinguished, might have caused a serious fire.

Fuel leaking from a kerosene stove in the basement of the Church of God, 656 North Harrison avenue, called out both companies at 7:37 yesterday morning. The stove was carried out by the firemen and the blazing oil surrounding it was quickly extinguished.

An automobile fire, starting apparently from a short in the wiring, called out number two company at 7:13 o'clock yesterday morning to 381 South Washington avenue. The car was not badly damaged.

A roof fire at the Dave Boudreau residence, 904 North Schuyler avenue, was quickly taken care of by both companies at 8:05 o'clock Saturday afternoon. A roof fire at Mrs. J. B. Allen home, 615 North Indiana avenue, called out both companies Saturday afternoon and two small holes were burned in the roof. Mrs. Allen was ill at the time, and the firemen worked just as quietly as possible so as not to disturb her.

Thawville, Ill., Jan. 27.—(P)—Six Illinois Central freight cars loaded with perishable products were destroyed by fire early today after they were derailed and overturned one mile south of here. Sixteen cars were derailed when the trucks under an oil tank car behind the engine broke and jumped the tracks, but only six of them were destroyed. Railway officials said the loss was conservatively estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000.

The oil car caught fire and five others immediately behind it were ignited. The freight running, exres from St. Louis to Chicago was due in Chicago at 6 a. m. Traffic was tied up until 11 a. m. Passenger trains between Chicago and St. Louis were delayed from Kankakee to Bloomington.

SEARCH FOR BODIES OF TWO FLIERS

WRECKED PLANE OF CARL EIELSON AND EARL BORLAND FOUND ON SIBERIAN COAST

Believe Bodies Of The Two Flies Are Buried Deep Under Snow Drift

Seattle, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Half the mystery of the disappearance Nov. 9 of Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland was solved today with the discovery of their wrecked plane in a boggy tundra 90 miles southeast of North Cape, Siberia, but absence of the bodies of the two American aviators from the wreckage kept alive a bare hope that they may still be alive.

The note of optimism was extremely faint, as experienced fliers said they believed the plane crashed with such force as to kill the aviators and throw them from the ship. It was pointed out that snow might have concealed the bodies from the searchers.

Carl Eielson and Earl Borland, who found the wreck Saturday, Croson and Gilliam took off again yesterday from the fur trading ship Frank, inbound at North Cape, for the search of the wreck. Eielson and Borland were attempting a flight from Alaska to the North Pole when they crashed. They had removed one load of passengers and furs and were returning for a second.

Willy Croson and Gilliam were representative of the Russian trading company and a sailor from the Frank, owned by the Swenson Trading company. Dog teams preceded the plane and will join in a search for the missing fliers.

Croson first sighted the Eielson-Borland plane while the two fliers were attempting to land. The condition of the plane, Croson said, indicated that both its occupants were killed in the landing. He and Gilliam were unable in the short time available to find any trace of the bodies.

One wing of the Eielson-Borland plane was crumpled in landing, while the motor was found 100 feet from the fuselage. The tail was broken.

Those who were nearest to the wreck very to clear away the snow and make a thorough search for the bodies of the missing men. Because of darkness of communications at this season of the year in the north it was not expected that the men engaged in the search would be able to report their progress for some time.

The VANISHING LOAN

EASY AND ECONOMICAL

OUR LOANS are repaid in convenient monthly installments (including both interest and principal). They are about as easy to manage as paying rent. One mortgage—no renewal costs.

The debt becomes less each month until it finally "vanishes" and you own your home.

With the straight mortgage loan, the entire sum comes due at once—and often the borrower is unable to meet it. This means costly renewals—perhaps foreclosure.

It is much easier to pay off a loan on the basis of a "vanishing" debt than an approaching lump sum. This is why the great majority of homes in the United States are financed through loans like this. Considerably cheaper in first cost as well as final cost.

Come in Today—Let Us Explain Our Loan Plan in Detail. No Obligation.

British Announce That Construction Of Two New Cruisers Cancelled

LONDON, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The following official communique was issued this afternoon at the conclusion of a three-hour meeting of the heads of the delegations to the naval conference:

"The heads of the delegations met at No. 12 Downing street this morning to continue their discussions on the program of work to be submitted to the conference. At 1:00 p. m. the meeting adjourned until Tuesday morning when it will reconvene at St. James's Palace."

BY BYRON FRANK (Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, Jan. 27.—(AP)—As the naval powers moved toward compromise today on two of their most troublesome problems—the physical methods of limiting fleets and the demand for parity with France—Great Britain made a new gesture of faith in the naval conference by announcing that the construction of her two newest cruisers had been cancelled.

The British announcement coincided with a meeting of the "Big Five" in Downing street at which further progress was said to have been made toward a compromise on a tonnage plan designed to settle the perennial argument on this technical phase of naval limitation.

At the same time it was disclosed that serious consideration was being given by several delegations to a proposal that the Italian party problem be met at a treaty declaration in which all powers would join. This would state that the sovereign right of every nation to build an adequate fleet was fully recognized but that the signatories would agree not to exceed a certain construction program between now and 1936.

The twin attack on two of the most difficult of the conference problems, coinciding with the British cruiser cancellation, started the second week of the conference in an atmosphere of milting confidence. It was emphasized on all sides, however, that neither of the compromise formulas has yet been accepted and that much remained to be done even if these two obstacles should be overcome.

The tonnage measurement plan which was discussed for more than two hours at the Downing street session, had been under study even before the conference began, but the Franco-Italian question apparently developed overnight. This latter idea was not yet reduced to writing and it is not known whether it will be fully acceptable to Mussolini's government although first reactions appeared hopeful.

As it stood in tentative form, the suggestion was that the five chief naval powers join in a declaration, perhaps in the preamble of a limit on treaty, saying that the sovereign privilege of possessing a navy of any size could not be abridged except voluntarily. This, in effect, would do away with any fixed ratio in the Washington treaty. Then, in the body of the treaty, each power would stipulate the outside limit on its building needs between now and the conference of 1936 when the whole situation is expected to come under review again in conformity with the agreement reached at Washington.

Whether application of this general formula to the Italian situation would be supplemented by a security pact covering the Mediterranean, as has been suggested by France, remains for future determination. A spokesman for the American delegation said today there had been no discussion whether the United States would be willing to join such a pact in a consultative capacity.

Today's Downing street meeting of the big five was the longest yet held. The delegation heads discussed a detailed proposal for the conference program with the tonnage measurement question uppermost. The compromise plan would lay down limitations for each specific class of warship, but would defer to French views by allowing a certain percentage of total tonnage to be diverted from one class to another.

Announcement of cancellation of work on the British cruisers Surrey and Northumberland was made by the Admiralty without explanation. These are the two ships on which Prime Minister MacDonald suspended work shortly before his visit to the United States last year. The absence of official comment on today's announcement was taken as further evidence of Great Britain's faith that some agreement would be reached during the present negotiations.

The Surrey and Northumberland were to have been 10,000-ton vessels. The inference was that Great Britain saw the way to an agreement whereby she will need only her present strength in this largest class of cruisers, leaving the remainder of her total tonnage to be put into small ships. The understanding has been that in parity discussions with the United States, the British indicated that they preferred to build cruisers of about 4,300 tons rather than the bigger type as replacements.

The only available British comment was from the spokesman of the British delegation who said the cancellation indicated a very hearty hope that the conference will reach an agreement on these ships very early. But when electricity became a factor in the discussion, the subject has been held, but the British and Japanese delegations made an appointment to meet each other this afternoon. The British also had an appointment during the day for a point meeting with the French and Italians.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—(AP)—A conference at St. James Palace between the British and French scheduled for late this afternoon was cancelled when Prime Minister MacDonald decided to attend the debate in the House of Commons on ratification of the Optional Clause of the world court recently signed by Great Britain.

The status of the British navy was indirectly injected into the debate through an amendment introduced by Sir Austin Chamberlain, former foreign secretary, urging an additional reservation that in carrying out any work for the League of Nations, the British fleet would be subject only to British maritime law.

NEW ELECTRICAL DISCOVERY WHICH OFFERS PROTECTION

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE (Science Editor Associated Press Feature Service)

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Discovery of a new material named Thyrite, which offers better protection from lightning, was announced to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers today by Karl B. McEachron of the General Electric Company.

Thyrite is a compound, in appearance between black slate and porcelain its name of Greek derivation, means gate, and for electrical current it is almost literally a gate in move series than one.

For the ordinary Currenco-met, the industrial and household use, Thyrite is a good insulator. But when electricity becomes a factor in the discussion, the subject has been held, but the British and Japanese delegations made an appointment to meet each other this afternoon. The British also had an appointment during the day for a point meeting with the French and Italians.

Thyrite changes from an insulator into a good conductor, offering a ready and harmless pathway for escape of the overcharge. "Thyrite" said Mr. McEachron "has the property of decreasing its resistance as electrical voltage increases. It possesses the remarkable property of being substantially an insulator at one potential and a good conductor at certain higher potentials."

NATIONAL MINERS' TAYLORVILLE, ILL., JAN. 27.—(AP)—

Charged with conspiracy to prevent the Peabody Coal company employees from working, Freeman Thompson, national board member of the National Miners Union, was arrested by county authorities at a mass meeting of the mine workers today at the time of his arrest was arguing the miners to stand by the National Miners Union and its demands from the workers. The organization led the strike which

FORMER NAVY FLIER KILLED IN A GLIDER

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 27.—(P)—Lieutenant Norman A. Goddard, former navy flier and recently operator of a Palo Alto aviation school, is dead as the result of the collapse of a glider in which he attempted to execute a loop yesterday over the Alameda airport.

The trail craft collapsed as Goddard pulled it out of a dive preparatory to looping at an altitude of 3,000 feet. Entangled in the flapping fabric of the wings, the pilot struggled to free himself and use his parachute, but a matter of seconds cost him his life.

While horrified spectators watched and the falling craft, Goddard worked loose and jumped from the cockpit at a height of 150 feet. His parachute opened a few seconds too late to check his fall and Goddard plunged into the waters of the Oakland estuary. He was still alive when airport attaches reached him in a launch, but was pronounced dead from a broken neck on arrival at the Alameda hospital.

Goddard had hoped to break the existing world's record for looping in a motorless plane.

WITNESS IN A GOVERNMENT CASE DIES; INVESTIGATE

Oklahoma City, Jan. 27.—(P)—Circumstances surrounding the death of the government's principal witness against 102 officials and residents of Pottawatomie county, on the eve of their trial on charges of participating in a giant conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws, led today to initiation of an investigation by Roy St. Lewis, United States district attorney.

The witness, Marion Fuller, former chief of police of Earlsboro, Okla., died here Saturday night. He had admitted participation in the alleged "rum rebellion" St. Lewis said, and furnished information on which the government expected to base its case.

Fuller died in an Oklahoma City hospital, his death certificate describing his fatal malady as a liver infection. Members of Fuller's family, the district attorney said, had voiced suspicions regarding his death which St. Lewis declined to divulge.

The witness, who also was a defendant in the trial, was confined in the Garfield county jail at Enid, several weeks ago, at his own request. He said he was afraid to remain at large. His health, which was poor when he entered the jail, became rapidly worse, causing his removal to the Oklahoma county jail here. He was taken recently from the jail to the hospital where he died.

Made Well By Nu-Erb After Everything Else Had Helplessly Failed

Backache, Rheumatism, Dizzy Spells and Constipation Quickly Relieved By The New Medicine

"The Nu-Erb has given me relief from kidney and liver troubles after everything else had failed to help me," said Mr. Virgil Rogers, Route No. 1, Ritchey, Ill. (Near Kankakee), who is employed as assistant engineer by the Illinois Light & Power Co.

"Constipation seemed to be the cause of most of my troubles and I suffered continually from dizzy spells, a bad taste in my mouth and severe pains through my stomach. I was troubled with backache and muscular rheumatism. After everything had failed to help me, I was finally advised to have an operation.

"In the meantime, however, I learned of the Nu-Erb and decided to first see what this medicine would do for me. That is just about one month ago and it seems to have overcome each one of my troubles. The pains have left my stomach and sides. I am no longer troubled with rheumatism and the dizzy spells have disappeared. My bowels are acting regularly. I sleep soundly at night and judging by the way that I feel at this time, I would say that my entire system has improved in every respect. I am fully convinced that this Nu-Erb is a most unusual medicine and I gladly recommend it."

Strain's Pharmacy, 122 E. Court St., is the only place in Kankakee where Nu-Erb may be purchased. Go see the Nu-Erb man now making his headquarters there and let him explain to you the merits of this remarkable medicine.
