COULD NOT LIVE UP TO HER CONTRACT

FORMER MUSICAL COMEDY STAR COULDN'T KEEP BOYISH FIGURE

SO ENDED HER LIFE

By Plunging From The Fifth Story Apartment In Greenwich Village

New York, Mar. 31.—(AP)—Miss Allyn King, former musical comedy star, is dead and Broadway today traced the series of events which ended in her suicide back to a contract which demanded that she keep a boyish figure to hold her job.

She died yesterday from injuries suffered when she jumped from the fifth story apartment of her aunt in Greenwich Village.

In 1921 Miss King weighed 145 pounds. Then the boyish figure became the vogue on Broadway. She reduced to 115 pounds.

She signed a contract which read: "It is expressly made a part of this agreement, and it is an essential part thereof, that if at any time you should, during the term of the said arrangement, increase in weight more than 16 pounds or decrease in weight more than 16 pounds, or let the dimensions of any part of your figure vary more than one-half inch from the following, weight 115 pounds, neck 12 1/2 inches, bust 34 inches, upper arm 11, lower arm 7 1/2, waist 28, hips 34, thigh 18, calf 12, ankle 8 1/2, then and in that event we shall have the right to cancel this contract upon giving you one week's notice."

Miss King lived up to her contract six years. To do it she resorted to various diets and remedies. She went without food, without sleep, without water and took reducing pellets.

In 1928 her health failed and she was sent to a sanatorium where she remained for nearly two years.

Shortly before she died she explained her act by saying: "I did it because I will never return to Broadway."

Recently she had been living with her aunt, Mrs. William King, and studying music preparatory to returning to the stage.

She went to her room Saturday and when her aunt entered she found the room empty. Looking out of the window, Mrs. King saw her niece's body in the courtyard.

At Bellevue hospital it was found she had suffered a broken leg and skull fracture and had fractured her skull and died yesterday morning.

She was the daughter of Dr. Allen King and was born in North Carolina. She was 30 years old.

SOME DOUBT AS TO PLANE IN THE RIVER

Ashland, Ky., Mar. 31.—(AP)—The statement of Robert Kenyon of Greenville, that he and two others had located a plane in the Ohio river near Greenville yesterday brought a crowd estimated at 1,000 persons to the river bank today.

Kenyon said he and two other men in a gasoline launch had definitely determined that the object which they glimpsed for a minute was a metal plane. He contradicted earlier reports that the bodies of two men had been seen strapped in the machine.

Reports were circulated Saturday that a plane had been seen to fall into the river near this spot but no reports have been received here of any missing plane. Government and state prohibition officers joined the crowd on the banks in the belief that the plane might have been carrying liquor.

Naval Parley Dragging Along At A Slow Pace

London, Mar. 31.—(AP)—Extreme pessimism over the outcome of the Anglo-French negotiations concerning a security pact was expressed in American conference circles this afternoon. It was generally understood the British and French have virtually reached an impasse.

Secretary of State Stimson visited Foreign Minister Briand of France during the afternoon and expected to see Prime Minister MacDonald this evening. The nature of his discussions with the French foreign minister was not divulged.

French conference circles also were extremely gloomy late today. Foreign Minister Briand, however, thus far has declined to put himself on record as being pessimistic.

The difficulty was said to revolve about interpretation of article six of the covenant of the league of nations which the French want defined so as to give them concrete assurances of security in the event they are attacked.

The British and French thus far have been unable to get a definition of the term "aggressor" upon which interpretation of article sixteen must depend.

While there was gloom over the Anglo-French negotiations, the American spokesman said there was still hope that a solution of the difficulty might be reached through a Franco-Italian non-aggression treaty.

Jacques Dumesnil of the French delegation said Foreign Minister Briand during the afternoon and while there was no indication what they discussed, there was speculation as to whether they were talking over a possible non-aggression treaty.

Prime Minister MacDonald told the house of commons today that the British government was still striving for a five-power naval agreement.

Asked whether the government was still adhering to its determination "to arrive at an agreement to the whole five powers terms in the conference and not between two or three of them," the prime minister replied laconically: "Yes, sir."

Replying to another questioner, the prime minister declined to state whether proposals had been made at the conference for scrapping four cruisers.

"I am sure," he said, "there will be general agreement that fragmentary information given in reply to questions in parliament might not otherwise prove misleading. It might also prejudice the success of the conference. Whatever agreement is come to, it will be systematic, balanced whole and must be considered as a complete plan in relation to the program of the other powers."

The MacDonald government, for the second time in its ten months of life, today suffered a minor defeat in the house of commons but immediately rallied its forces and succeeded in carrying the day on a motion to adjourn the house.

Today's defeat was on a motion for suspension of the rule that the house adjourns at 11:00 p. m. The vote being 183 to 179. The motion being 183 to 179. The motion being 183 to 179.

I will appreciate it if you will place a cross in the square before my name on the ballot on Primary Day, April 8th.

TICKLING THROAT
The "tickling throat" is a very annoying ailment, but it is often the forerunner of more serious trouble. It is caused by the irritation of the throat by colds and flu. It is a very common ailment, and one that can be easily cured. It is a very annoying ailment, but it is often the forerunner of more serious trouble. The Voice of the AMERICAN LEGION- KANKAKEE POST #85.

"Sky Pilots" night was snowed under and in view of the fact that the blizzard was at the height of its fury meeting time none of the clergy were able to attend. However, we will have a "Sky Pilots" night in the near future at which time we hope that the weather is not so inclement which will no doubt be well attended by our clerical friends.

Remember the 40 and 8 wreck Saturday night March 29. Nine prisoners of war will be initiated into the mysteries of Quarante Hommes et Huit Chevaux.

Church announcement: Minister:—I wish to announce that on Wednesday the Ladies Aid will have a rummage sale. This is a chance for all the ladies to get rid of anything that is not worth keeping but is too good to be thrown away. Don't forget to bring your husbands.

About twenty hardy souls, (some called them otherwise) attended the meeting Tuesday evening. Some of the regular standbys, among them the commander, Maitland, Lewis Miller and one two others who never miss a meeting were among the missing. As the saying goes, "Thereby hangs a tale." It seems that Maitland started "long about supper" time for the meeting and could not get his car started. He was to pick up Commander Sheehan at 6:45 and take him to the meeting also. Lewis Miller pushed Maitland to the corner of Cobb Boulevard and Lincoln Ave. and there broke a chain. He started to the Legion house for help and on the way hit a fire-plug and broke a wheel. He then called Sheehan who called Leo Ben Lambert and they donned caps of Marty's car and went to the scene of the fiasco. After two hours of pulling and tugging the pair got as far as Osborn and Cobb, one block, where Sheehan burned out his clutch. Vernon Shy, another Legionnaire was the ultimate rescuer who happened along at the opportune time to push Maitland home and returned for Sheehan at 11:30 p.m. The report does not state what Miller did after breaking a wheel. Just shows what some guys will go through in an effort to attend meetings.

A British Tommy had just been discharged after serving many years in the Army. Blasted over his new found freedom he penned a farewell note to his commanding officer as follows: "Dear general—After what I have been through, now that I am discharged, you can tell the army to go to h—." The General wrote in reply: "All communications relative to the movements of troops should be transmitted on Form 372-xyz. Please govern yourself accordingly in the future."

From Commander Sheehan: The deepest obligation of every service man, in or out of the Legion, is the promise of better citizenship. We learned this lesson in our war service, and it is being made clearer to us in our everyday life.

Members of the American Legion are trying to fulfill this obligation by devotion to the cause of Americanism. Through the National Americanism commission of the Legion, the work of 11,000 posts is co-ordinated in teaching love of country, respect to the flag and better citizenship.

In some instances, where schools were closed due to lack of funds necessary to carry on, the Legion has raised the money to continue them for the duration of the term. The Legion inaugurated in 1923, a move which resulted in the first universal Flag Code ever adopted in America. It has interested itself in physical education, in night schools and in every phase of better government.

You have an opportunity to share in this work. Make it your business to get into the Legion and into this great work of Americanism before April is over. You owe it to yourself and to those who have been fighting your battles for you for ten years.

Martin L. Sheehan, Commander.

A musty stained Official Army Order was recently discovered by a National Guard officer which reads as follows: "Mt. Riley, Kansas, Oct. 25, 1842. General Orders No. 2.

"1. This command will, when shooting at buffaloes on the parade grounds, be careful not to fire in the direction of the O. O's quarters.

"2. The troop officer having the best trained remount for this year will be awarded one barrel of Rye whiskey.

"3. Student officers will discontinue the practice of roping and riding buffaloes.

"4. Attention of all officers is called to Par. 107 Army Regulations, in which is provided that, under uniform regulations, all officers wear beards.

"5. Short buffalo coats ordered will be ready for issue Nov. 29."

"Never heard of it." It all started evidently, from a rather rude reply at the National convention at St. Paul, Minn., 1924. A Legionnaire in a berth of a Pullman on a sliding head-quarters stuck his head out of the window and asked one of the Kankakee boys where he was from.

"Kankakee" was the reply. "Kankakee?" replied the first in disgust. "Never heard of it," and he slammed down the window. Now that slogan is one of the commonest heard at Legion conventions and will in all probability remain as long as the Legion has conventions.

Do you remember the first "shot in the arm" and the second and the third? The time you told the captain to "go to h—?" (After he was out of hearing.)

With apologies to "Snowshoe Al": These birds wot are ravin about the big snow and whether in cheagaw make me-laf. I remember the nite I staid with bill and cuzz up in Dawson city when the snow was so deep that over a hundred horses broke there laigs that nite from steppin in chimblis. That had to hang red lantern on the telegraf wires so the slays wud be careful when they run over em. At midnite it was so cold that the goldfish hollered for help so we took them out of the jar of hot water they wuz in and put them in the oven. At 2 a.m. they got out and crawled under the rug. Bottin water was squirtin out of the radiators and hittin the ceiling and then landin on the floor agen in hailstones. The draft comin thru the keyhole in the door blew the legs offen 3 chairs. That wuzent no snow we had Tuesday.

Maitland had a little corps. Its bugles sounded hollow; But every where the buglers went A crowd was sure to follow.

Maitland had a little corps. Its drums made lots of noise. The wretched neighbors waking up. Just blessed those quiet boys.

Maitland had a little corps. Their caps were colored black. If they should get to Boston They'll surely rate a hack.

Maitland had a little corps. Believe us on the level. If they should go to hell They'll surely raise the devil.

Still working out plans for the Sergeant York meeting on Sunday evening April 6th. World has been received from Department Commander Hayes that he will be on hand too. So the people of Kankakee will be in line for some excellent entertainment on that occasion. Commander Hayes is an orator of no mean ability and will supplement Sergeant York's talk in nice shape. He is to introduce the distinguished speaker of the evening. This outstanding individual hero of the World War who single handed captured 132 German prisoners and 35 machine guns to say nothing of killing 20, refused a $1,000,000 movie contract upon his return home, preferring to live on his Tennessee farm and work among the mountain children and aid them in gaining an education which he had been denied. We hope the people of Kankakee will be the armory on April 6th, 8 p.m. It'll be worth hearing.

Mr. Langlois said that his purpose of attending these meetings was to learn if such would be helpful to the farmers of his home community and he has already arranged for two meetings to be held in Kankakee county, in the near future. CAUSE FOR REJOICING!

EXCUSE our enthusiasm, but we see good cause for rejoicing as the Music Defense League nears the 2,000,000 membership mark after a few short weeks of effort.

And, if that doesn't prove that the American public wants Living Orchestras and Organists in the Theatre, what would?

There is nothing Exclusive about this swiftly-growing society. It's Inclusive—Inclusive of the intelligent citizenry of the New World. And that covers a lot of people, cynics to the contrary notwithstanding. It should, by the way, include YOU.

To become a member is good standing in the Music Defense League. It's the only discriminating tactic to know that the art of music is worthy of preservation, and the good sense to want one's money's worth. There are no dues, no obligations.

Throughout the world friends of music are alive to the cultural menace of the commercialized Music in Theatres. Even the governments of England, France, Spain and Italy are considering measures to prevent this artistic debasement.

American music lovers have chosen the popular and democratic course—to the entertainment committee of the afternoon, Mrs. Ethel Smith Hutchinson, Mrs. Minnie Runck and Mrs. Mildred Hozer.

Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson, a recent bride, was tendered a towel and linen shower and received many nice gifts.

Much fun and amusement was in store for all when one by one they entered the room and attempted to kiss the Blarney Stone and also in the playing of "Irish Stew." In the pig drawing contest Miss Myrtle Wesner won first prize and Mrs. Luella Stump, second prize. Three games of "Radio" were played with Mrs. George Bowsher, Mrs. Maile Haynes and Mrs. Lora Keatts being winners in this corn game. A bountiful hit and miss lunch was served.

Guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. George Bowsher, of Watseka; Mrs. Reed Conner, Mrs. Minor Gooding, Mrs. Ben Bishop, Mrs. R. E. Griffith, Misses Edna Van Camp, Myrtle Wesner and Eva Clark.

Mr. Valentine Runck returned to his home last Tuesday from Corpus Christi, Texas where he enjoyed the winter months and returned home enjoying the best of health.

Miss Ada Hogle of Winnetka is expected home Thursday of this week to spend her week's vacation with her mother, Mrs. Susan Hogle and sister, Miss Nellie Hogle.

All children love the rich, fruit flavor of California Fig Syrup. A pure vegetable product, it doesn't gripe or sicken. It always acts gently but thoroughly to cleanse the system of bilious, headachy, constipated children. Doctors say it tones and strengthens weak bowels. Try it with your child. See how bad breath coated tongue or feverishness disappear!

The name California marks its genuine, famous for 50 years. So look for it when buying.

place and student of the Sheldon community high school, won the matron contest at Watseka Friday night. Miss Brands gave a fine declamation "Danny."

Mrs. Eleanor Bowton has returned from Alexandria, Va., where she spent the winter months with her son, Reese Bowton and family.

Right Idea!

This eight year old husky is the son of Mrs. J. W. Andrews, 7405 East End Ave., Chicago. She says: "Daddy's wonderful condition shows my idea is right."

"Whenever he's the least cross or upset or has a hold, I give him a little California Fig Syrup. It always brightens him up; regulates his stomach and bowels; gives him a hearty appetite. I have used it since Donald since he was a year old, and it has never failed to help him promptly."

All children love the rich, fruit flavor of California Fig Syrup. A pure vegetable product, it doesn't gripe or sicken. It always acts gently but thoroughly to cleanse the system of bilious, headachy, constipated children. Doctors say it tones and strengthens weak bowels. Try it with your child. See how bad breath coated tongue or feverishness disappear!

The name California marks its genuine, famous for 50 years. So look for it when buying.
