Germans Admit Drive Against Moscow Halted

Blame Weather For Preventing Large-Scale Operations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
German military commentators acknowledged today that the German offensive against Moscow had been stopped by weather conditions which prevented any large-scale operations, particularly a direct assault on the city.

Some dispatches from the northern front said the Germans had attempted in vain to regain the initiative before Leningrad, with heavy losses on both sides. Actual capture of the city, under siege for many weeks, was declared out of the question without strong reinforcements.

More and more, it appeared that the Germans were in for a bleak winter in the trenches both around Leningrad and Moscow.

Reds Bitter Nazis
A Premier Stalin reflected optimism in the fight against Adolf Hitler's invasion armies, counter-attacking Soviet troops were reported battering the Germans into retreat in the Volokolamsk sector, 65 miles northwest of Moscow. Front-line dispatches said the Russians were continuing the advance after capturing a number of towns against strong German tank and infantry forces.

In the south, a bulletin from Hitler's headquarters for the first time acknowledged that the German-Rumanian drive into the Crimea peninsula was meeting stubborn resistance, with Soviet rear-guard forces harrying the invaders in the fastnesses of the Crimean mountains.

The high command made no specific claim of new advances, reporting merely that "pursuit" of Red army defenders was continuing and that Nazi dive-bombers had smashed positions among the fortifications of Sevastopol, Russia's great Black sea naval base.

In London, Prime Minister Winston Churchill's war strategists were reported to be studying the possibility of opening a new British offensive, as urged yesterday by Premier Stalin.

22 Bullet Fired Through Door Hits Window Block Away

A 22 rifle bullet crashed through a window in the Taylor Life home, 122 North Harrison avenue, Thursday afternoon.

Investigation disclosed that it was an accident. One block to the east, Art Lambert had repaired a rifle and decided to test it by firing a shell at the garage door, never thinking that it would go farther than that.

The bullet drilled the door and ricocheted through the Life window screen, the pane of glass and broke a curtain rod. Lambert settled for damage.

Conductor Loses Foot At Dwight

Dwight, Nov. 7.—(RN Special)—Arthur Middleton, 54, Bloomington, conductor on the Alton railroad, suffered a mangled right foot this morning.

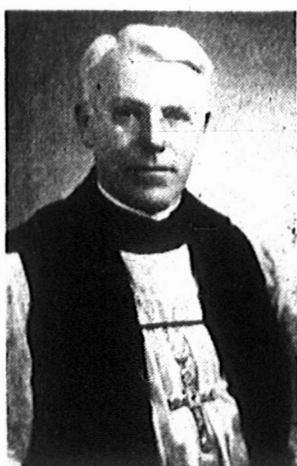

He slipped and fell near the roundhouse here and one car ran over his foot, which was amputated at the Veterans' hospital.

Local Clergymen To Air Views On Communism Sunday

Four local clergymen will preach on the theme, "Christianity Confronts Communism" next Sunday morning in observance of Armistice Sunday. Each minister will give the theme his own emphasis in his own pulpit.

Those who are thus collaborating are the Rev. Theodore S. Buchmuller of St. John Evangelical and Reformed church, the Rev. Dore N. Ester of the First Evangelical, the Rev. Morgan Williams of the First Methodist and the Rev. Grover C. Whimsett of the First Presbyterian.

These local pastors feel that the struggle in Europe has brought to the foreground the conflict between Communism and Christianity and that the exigencies of war have made some strange bed-fellows have been the many Americans who have been most violent in their opposition to Communism now turning out to be precisely those who are most eager that the United States shall

The Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago, will make his first visit to Kankakee Sunday when a class will be confirmed in services at 4 p. m. in St. Paul Episcopal church.

College Grads Enrolled In Defense Course

Most 'Pupils' Have
Degrees, Registration
Details Reveal

Of the 200 students registered in the defense education courses for adults here, some have the minimum required high school education, but there are others whose previous educational experience runs as high as university master degrees.

With classes meeting Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock for two hours, the courses are offered by the United States office of education, through the University of Illinois, division of university extension. Classes meet on the high school building third floor.

Under the general direction of Dr. H. C. Rountree, supervisor of the state university's engineering extension service, with Superintendent of Schools Irving Munson as local superintendent, assisted by Principal R. Y. Allison, the courses are concentrated on immediate practical applications to defense jobs.

All College Grade
All the courses are of college grade, but college credits are not awarded. The qualification is high school graduation or the equivalent. The subjects of the courses, and

Drunk Burns Home 1st Day Out Of Jail

Watseka, Nov. 7.—(RN Special)—Harvey Edwards of Watseka, who finished a 20-day jail sentence yesterday for driving while intoxicated, was back in jail today. No charges were preferred this time but Edwards was burned out of his residence.

Firemen were called at 6:15 p. m. to the house of Camp avenue, where he lives alone, to extinguish a fire which started in his bedding. Sheriff Guy E. Redman carried Edwards out of his blazing home, the entire interior of which was damaged. The loss was estimated at $600.

About 9 p. m. firemen were called back to the dwelling again because of smoldering embers.

Sam Lang Is Found Guilty By Jury

Sealed Verdict Is Opened In County
Court This Morning

A county court jury today returned a "guilty" verdict against Sam Lang, south side salvage materials merchant, accused of having failed to correct a purported fire hazard.

The jury of six men and six women took the case at 2:30 o'clock and signed a sealed verdict five hours later which was opened this morning by Judge C. D. Henry.

Lang was accused by Roy Marquart, fire chief with failure to comply with an order of last May 26 to make repairs to his building at 842 Main street and remove rags, paper and excess junk. State's Attorney Joseph J. Tolson was the prosecutor, assisted by Armen R. Blanke, assistant prosecutor.

Says Order Indefinite

Through his attorney, Noel A. Diamond, Lang asserted that the written order was so indefinite and broad that he could not be assured of acceptance if he attempted to follow it. He claimed he followed those portions of the order which were clear to him.

His attorney was barred from questioning the legality or reasonableness of the order by Lang's failure to make an appeal to the county court within a prescribed time after the order was served upon him.

After he opened the verdict this morning, Judge Henry gave the defense attorney the opportunity to consult with his client, regarding motion for a new trial. Lang was not present.

Judge Henry this morning excused the jury panel until Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Whether there will be a civil or criminal case at that time has not yet been determined.

Foretaste Of Winter; Chilly Weather Here

By UNITED PRESS

A cold air mass swept in from Canada today to give the eastern half of the nation a foretaste of winter.

Snow was general over the northern sector of the midwest and the remainder of the area between the Mississippi and the Atlantic seaboard had rain and wintry temperatures. The first cold blasts of the season visited the southern states, bringing temperatures at Tallahassee and Jacksonville, Fla., to unseasonable lows.

U. S. Forecaster George Canady at Chicago described general weather conditions east of the Rockies as "exceedingly moist and chilly, the good touch of winter."

He predicted, however, that the nation would have dry weather and sunshine for football tomorrow, with the exception of the Great Lakes area where light to heavy snows will continue.

In addition to general storm warnings on the lakes today because of 40 to 50 mile and hour gales, the lake region had the heaviest snow, ranging from two inches in Wisconsin to six at Grand Rapids, Mich. Rain and snow flurries continued elsewhere in the central sector and the generally freezing temperature ranged as low as 11 degrees above at Jamestown, N. D., and 10 degrees at West Yellowstone, Wyo.

Chilly rains swept the Ohio valley and the states to the eastern seaboard north of Virginia. Readings on the east coast were in the low fifties. Fair weather and seasonal temperatures predominated in Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast states.

Iroquois County Tax Levy $107,350

Watseka, Nov. 7.—(RN Special)—A resolution adopting a budget setting the county tax levy at $107,350 for the fiscal year beginning Dec. 1 was approved by the board of supervisors at their meeting here yesterday.

The bovine tuberculosis committee advised each board member to report at the next meeting Dec. 8 the number of herds of cattle producing whole milk for sale and the number of cows in each herd. The county is to take care of all Iroquois county residents who become ill of tuberculosis, paying for their care and laundry in sanatoriums.

Woman Wins Suit Against Danforth Bank

Watseka, Nov. 7.—(RN Special)—Mrs. Nina Robertson, Chicago, formerly of Gilman, was the victor today in her long litigation to recover $142,155 from the Farmer's State bank of Danforth.

The plaintiff, who was separated two years ago from Dr. Willis Robertson, a state veterinarian, was awarded the above sum, among other things, in the settlement. The amount was deposited in the Danforth bank and Mrs. Robertson wrote one check for $100, leaving the remainder there.

Meanwhile the doctor withdrew the rest and in November of 1940 Mrs. Robertson sued the bank to recover the money. Losing in the circuit court, she took an appeal to the appellate court at Ottawa which granted her a new trial. Yesterday the case was heard again. The circuit court jury was out only 15 minutes to reach a decision in favor of the plaintiff, who was represented by Milo Fleming.

The bank's counsel included Pallissard, Smith and Kendall.

May Withdraw U. S. Marines From China

President Declines To Elaborate On Statement At Capital

Washington, Nov. 7.—K-P.—President Roosevelt declared today that the government was considering the withdrawal of American marines from Peiping, Tientsin and Shanghai, China. The navy said there are presently 970 officers and men on duty.

Mr. Roosevelt told a press conference he did not know when a decision would be reached. He declined to elaborate in any way on his statement.

The President read to reporters from a memorandum a paragraph announcing such said:

The President said today that the government of the United States is giving consideration to the question of withdrawal of the American marine detachments now maintained ashore in China at Peiping, Tientsin and Shanghai.

The chief executive did say in reply to a question that there had been no discussion between the United States and Japan at any time on the presence of American marines in China.

Be brushed aside questions whether withdrawal would create a new status for American citizens in China.

"What interpretation would you put on your announcement?" a reporter asked.

Emergency Brake Causes Fire Alarm

Firemen answered two alarms last night and this morning.

At 8:12 p. m. they were called to Hobble and Court streets where the emergency brake on the new car driven by Wayne Wheeler of route 2 caught fire. No damage was reported.

At 8:32 o'clock this morning, the awning at the Hat and Shoe hospital, 125 South Schuyler avenue, caught fire from a cigarette butt tossed on it. A small hole was burned in one corner of the awning.

Police Find Fugitive Right In Their Jail

17-Year-Old Youth
Admits Stealing Car
And Robbing Store

After searching all night for the bandit who stole an auto in Evanston, drove it to Herscher, broke into a store, took two guns and shells, then abandoned the auto here, Kankakee police located their man today in—of all places—the city jail.

Not only that, but the prisoner had gone in voluntarily and locked himself up!

The object of the police search was Raymond Royce, 17, of Evanston, who had come to headquarters during the night and asked for a place to stay. Desk Sergeant Bert White told the youth he could go back into the vacant cell block where it would be warm. The youth walked back and went into the cell. When he shut the door, he automatically locked himself in.

Find Abandoned Car

Meanwhile, other officers cruising in the squad car came upon an abandoned car in the 600 block on East Mulberry street, checked with headquarters and determined by the license numbers that the auto belonged to C. W. Lemke of Evanston. State police informed it had been stolen from in front of the Lemke residence yesterday.

Left in the car were a .12 gauge shotgun, a .22 caliber rifle and five boxes of shells. Police had no description of the bandit but searched the community most of the night for any suspicious looking characters.

The officers were thought to be looking for bandits until early this morning when police learned that the L. O. Winterthorn hardware store in Herscher had been broken into.

He Confesses All

Finally, Sgt. White remembered the youth who had come into the station and decided to go back and have a talk with him. Within a few minutes, the story began to come out. The boy admitted the auto theft and the burglary at Herscher.

He said the car was low on gas when he came here from Herscher and decided to abandon it. When he stopped the car near the home of Harvey Coyer, 667 East Mulberry street, Coyer heard it and in the dark—

Seek Partition Of Harvester Co. Land

Partition of a parcel of Kankakee property among 11 persons who own undivided interests is asked in a suit filed today for the circuit court by Rose Pfeiffer, whose share is three-eighths.

The complaint filed in the office of Albert Tetraut, clerk of the court, by Attorney Eva L. Minor names the following defendants, whose shares run from one-eighth to one-sixteenth:

Edna Drazey, Cephas H. Drazey, Orest Drazey, Ursula Supree, Joseph Drazey, Arthur C. Drazey, Maude Butler, Louis Drazey, Merle Denton and Gladys Kerger.

The International Harvester company, tenant of the property, also is named a defendant.

2 Buglers To Sound Taps Armistice Day

William H. Maitland and Albert Tetraut, buglers, are to blow taps during the Armistice day ceremony at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning at Court street and Schuyler avenue, under the auspices of the American Legion.

The rifle salute is to be fired by a uniformed squad from the local company of the Illinois Reserve militia.

Burned Auto Poses Mystery For Sheriff

What is the story behind the ruins of a charred automobile found this morning on a country road five miles northwest of Kankakee?

This was a matter which occupied Sheriff Dan Bergan today following a preliminary investigation by Deputies Albert Young and Hamilton Wheeler.

The entire interior of the auto, a 1937 sedan, has been burned out, the license plates are missing, also the hub caps and bumper guards. It had been driven off the road after the rain.

The sheriff's check with state highway police revealed that the car is not registered in Illinois.

Auto Thief Found in Jail Here

Raymond Royce, 17, of Evanston, who until recently had been boarding with various Herscher families, was the object of an all-night search by police in connection with an Evanston auto theft and burglary and larceny at the Winterthorn hardware store in Herscher. The search had a surprising end when Raymond was found in a city jail cell where he had locked himself up.

Boy Scouts Pay Honor To Woman

Mrs. Albert P. Mayer, 621 South Lincoln avenue, was presented with a scout and cub plaque at the Boy Scout court of honor Thursday evening in the courthouse. The award was for her work as a den mother of a cub pack, all eight members of which became Boy Scouts recently when they reached their 12th birthday.

This is the first time in history of the district that such a record has been attained and Mrs. Mayer is the first to be so rewarded. Last evening two of the boys in her cub pack received their first class award, obtained in less than a year. All eight boys who were former members of the pack were present at ceremonies last evening. The presentation was made by John H. Becker, advancement chairman.

Other awards made at this court included second class ratings to Jack Reniche, Delbert Mear, Tom Barrett and Ed Syck of Troop 100; first class awards, Bill Schrader of Bradley, Dick Kraft, Robert Riberdy, Richard Riberdy, D. Goudreau and R. McKillop.

Merit badges—Bill Schrader, Tom Riberdy, Tom Riberdy, Jack Coffer, F. Whittington, W. Riedel, W. Funk and Dan Crevier.

Star award—F. Whittington and Dan Crevier.

The next court will be held Dec. 4 at Herscher. On Jan. 8 it will be in Mokena.

Bishop To Confirm 16 At St. Paul's On Sunday Afternoon

The Rt. Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago, will make his first visit to Kankakee on Sunday to confirm a class at St. Paul Episcopal church.

The service will be held at 4 p. m. and a class of 16 will be presented by the Rev. Wayne A. Garrard, rector. Those to be confirmed include Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Looken, Miss Ellen Martin, Miss Carolyn Radeke, Miss Pauline Nielsen, Mrs. W. H. Smithers, all adults, and the following children: John Martin, Richard Johnston, Robert McFrye, Robert Bourrelle, Renee St. John, Sally Hanshaw, Jean Stewart and Jean Hafstrom.

Although Bishop Conkling has been the ecclesiastical head of the diocese for less than a year, he already has won the affection and admiration of some 40,000 Episcopalians under his pastoral care. The bishop was rector of St. Luke's church, Germantown, Pa., for 17 years before his consecration as bishop of Chicago. He succeeded the late Bishop George Craig Stewart.

Following the confirmation service, a reception in his honor will be held at the home of W. A. Schneider, 494 South Chicago avenue. All members and friends of the parish are invited.

Nazis Face Sure Disaster Avers Soviet Leader

Stalin Says Germany Is Bleeding To Death; Gives
Her One More Year

BULLETIN
Hull, England, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill said in a speech today that "we have passed through the darkest and most perilous period" of the war and "are once more masters of our own destiny."

"The Russians are struggling and battling vigorously with results which are particularly significant," Churchill said.

"On the other side of the Atlantic, our kith and kin are struggling to see that we get all we need and we find ourselves in goodly company."

"And we are moving forward—looking forward—moving forward—the road."

Moscow, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Premier Joseph Stalin today gave Adolf Hitler "maybe a year" before "Hitlerite Germany must burst under the weight of her own crimes," in an address on the 24th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

All Russia was "a single fighting camp" with inexhaustible supplies of manpower, Stalin said, adding that Germany, counting on the Red army cracking after the first blow, "badly miscalculated."

"The speech was delivered before a military review in Red square. Stalin contrasted Russia today with that of the October revolution, when Russia had been stripped of the Ukraine, the Caucasus, central Asia, the Urals, Siberia and the far east," and had neither allies, army nor arms and lacked bread and clothing.

Today, he said, Russia has "no serious shortage either in food, arms or clothing," while her "reserves of manpower are inexhaustible." And she has an army, navy, allies and "the sympathy and support of all peoples of Europe who have fallen under the yoke of fascist tyranny."

Nazis Face Disaster
In the face of this, he declared, the Nazis face sure disaster. "Germany is bleeding to death, her resources giving out," Stalin said.

"The German invaders are straining their last forces. There is no doubt that Germany cannot sustain such a strain for any long time. Another few months, another half year, one year maybe and Hitlerite Germany must burst under the weight of her own crimes."

His speech, broadcast over the radio, was followed by a

They Talk About Snow And It Comes!

A school yesterday on snow removal technique for state highway maintenance men of this territory may not have been too soon.

Today there was the season's first appearance of snow, intermixed with rain, although the flurries were meagre by noon. Last year's first snow, also light, was on Nov. 11.

Reckless Driver Draws $5 Fine

Following an accident on highway 49 four miles north of Kankakee last night, W. H. Beck, gas station operator at that vicinity, today was fined a total of $5 for reckless driving.

Before Justice Henry R. Bauer, Beck agreed to pay for damages to the auto of Fay Pippin, 33, 843 West Oak street, also in the accident.

Neutrality Revision Measure Nears Vote In The Senate

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The momentous legislation permitting American merchant ships to carry arms and sail the high seas at will moved toward a senate vote today, and administration leaders claimed the certain support of 53 senators—four more than necessary to pass the measure.

Democratic Leader Barkley considered the chances excellent that the chamber would vote by nightfall and return the measure for concurrence to the house, which originally approved legislation limited to arming ships.

Barkley arranged to ask the senate today to agree unanimously on a debate limitation—probably one holding each senator to a maximum of 20 minutes—after Senator Nye (R-ND), an opponent of the pending measure, had completed an hour-long speech.

Nye and other opposition leaders agreed at a strategy conference late yesterday to abandon any idea of a filibuster against the measure. The anti-revision chiefs—Nye, Wheeler (D-Mont.), LaFollette (Progressive), Clark (D-Mo.) and Bilbo (D-Miss)—were said to have agreed that delay tactics might drive some legislators now on the fence into the administration camp.

Although Barkley counted 53 votes for the revision measure, Wheeler said he did not believe the administration could be sure of more than 40—a majority of one. It generally was conceded there would be a half dozen absentees, and, if all were paired, Barkley's carefully-checked poll would indicate a final vote of about 50 to 40.

"Withholding" Tax On Incomes Is The Latest Proposal
Washington, Nov. 7.—A "withholding" tax on all personal incomes was proposed by Chairman George H. B. Rea of the Senate Finance Committee today after congressional leaders had decided to support the Treasury's suggestion for a new revenue bill.
George H. B. Rea's position that Congress would have to face the necessity of raising more money to pay for the war effort was the main reason for the proposal. The bill would require employers to withhold a certain percentage of their employees' salaries and wages and to pay it over to the Treasury.

BUCK-BARGER GOOD BATTLE TOPS BIG 10 SATURDAY

Loser Will Be Eliminated From Race

By STEVE SNIDER

Chicago, Nov. 7.—(UP)—While Minnesota looks for the sixth link in its victory chain against Nebraska of the Big Six, two of the Big Six, Ohio State and Wisconsin, attempt tomorrow to eliminate each other from the conference race.

The game will be played at Columbus, O., but even neutral observers established the soundness of Buck's six point favorite. Although Minnesota appears unbeatable, the winner of this game should be locking for a share of the championship if the Gophers should be upset. Each has dropped only one game to Northwestern.

Ohio State has lost Sophomore Lin Houston, a guard of considerable class, but gained in return the services of Fullback Jack Graf. Graf was recruited with the power to Ohio State's starting line up in September. It looks like a battle of fullbacks will decide whether Ohio State or Wisconsin wins in the title running. Like Graf, Wisconsin's sophomore fullback, Pat Harahan, is the offensive ace.

Purple Making Comeback

Elsewhere in the conference, Northwestern attempted a comeback from the Minnesota defeat, but was defeated by Indiana, and Iowa, who had been in the lead, lost to Michigan State in a non-conference game and Michigan is idle.

The statistical battle between Ohio State and Wisconsin, off their Big Ten play, is amazing. Wisconsin has won every vital department of play, both on offense and defense, and but for an apparent lack of ability to score, the Buck game would be an overwhelming favorite.

Wisconsin has outgained the Buck 240.3 yards per game to 179 for Ohio State, has rushed for 147.7 to 100.6, has passed 75.6 yards to 58.5. On defense, Wisconsin has held its opponents to an average gain of 15.5 yards to 29.5 for Ohio State. Wisconsin's defense has passed for 10.5 yards to 10.5 against Ohio State and opponents have rushed an average of 10.2 yards to 10.2 against Ohio State.

Members of teams in the Eastern Illinois basketball league are signing to play on one team cannot be made to transfer to another. The league is granted by the first team to win the championship. The league forfeit fees are $15 and the entry fee is $10. Admission to games will be 10 and 25 cents and season tickets are $1.00 and $2.00. Wayne Eckley, former Kankakee who is assistant principal of Pontiac, is a member of the basketball committee which goes into executive session at Chicago this week-end.

Clash of Weaknesses

The poorest offense in the league runs into the poorest defense when Iowa meets Illinois. Illinois hasn't been able to hold any major opponent and while Iowa has scored seldom it has power. Power teams have a way with the light Illinois. Indiana comes to Northwestern in what has been hailed as a battle of sponges. Each team has been linked twice in Big Ten competition and that dual is the chief item of the Pontiac township high school's eleven.

Day, Jackson Open Match Series For Pin Crown Tonight

San Monica, Calif., Nov. 7.—(UP)—Ned Day and Lowell Jackson bow tonight in the first of their 100-game series for the 1941 national match pin championship.

Day, 31-year-old West Allis, Wis. pin master, has a 10-year average of 204.2. He won undisputed claim to the crown in 1937 and 1938. There was no challenge in 1939 and he reaffirmed his hold last year after a challenge by Jackson.

Jackson has rolled 10 perfect, or 300, games and 27 scores of 299. He has a lifetime league average of 211 and rates as the number one threat to Day's domination of the throne.

The Santa Monica series, to be rolled on alternate nights between Day and Film comedian Harold Lloyd, will be followed by series in Indianapolis Nov. 12-13, St. Louis in suburban Milwaukee, Nov. 21-22, St. Louis Nov. 29-30 and Chicago Dec. 7-10.

Star bowlers from all over the country will be hanging away at Chicago for the right to challenge the winner of the Day-Jackson clash this year.

CORRECTION . . . ERROR IN PRICE

Service Evens in Nation's Football Limelight

By JACK GUENTHER

New York, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Army and Navy return the football campaign this Saturday night where they left off a week ago at the very top of the national program which brings all 10 of the major undefeated teams into action.

While the two service schools again dominate the big games—the Navy against Notre Dame in Baltimore and the Army against Harvard at Cambridge—the name squads of the midlands have rather easy tasks but Pacific conference teams square off again in crucial battles.

West Side Boaters, both undefeated but tied, head the parade with a meeting in Baltimore stadium and one which may catapult the Middles right into the Rose Bowl. With rain storms bogging down eastern gridirons into quagmires, the sailors may enter the game as slight favorites although current odds give the edge to the Irish.

Army, another member of the upper crust 10, matches its unbeaten record against the Harvard defense in another attempt to keep its string unbroken. The Cadets, worn by their tour against Notre Dame last week, still are favored to march on at the expense of a Crimson eleven lacking offensive punch.

A Bowl Big Fight

The far western struggle for the Rose Bowl bid goes merrily on with Stanford's defending champs meeting the Big Ten's best in a battle of the football gods.

Brady's high school football squad, which closes its season against Lockport, three states a day afternoon, will not practice today. Neither will Kankakee, which ends up the picnic parade Monday night against Ottawa, where Teachers' institute in Champaign, Ill., caused the full in practice.

The postponement of Kankakee's game from last night to Monday night, the full in practice, caused the full in practice.

Members of teams in the Eastern Illinois basketball league are signing to play on one team cannot be made to transfer to another. The league is granted by the first team to win the championship.

The league forfeit fees are $15 and the entry fee is $10. Admission to games will be 10 and 25 cents and season tickets are $1.00 and $2.00. ## State Payroll Rises Swiftly In Philippines

Outlay Now 32 Million, Double Amount For 1935

By RICHARD C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
Manila, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Payroll of the Philippine Commonwealth government, which will be six years old Nov. 15, has doubled in size since 1935, a study of the governmental budget reveals.

Four years remain of the transition period before the Commonwealth is slated to become the Philippine Republic. During those four years the government payroll will expand further as the Commonwealth establishes additional bureaus and departments which it will require as an independent nation.

In the year preceding establishment of the Commonwealth, the insular government payroll amounted to $16,328,220. This item in six years has grown to $32,817,837 for the current fiscal year. This figure does not include salaries and wages paid by the myriad of Commonwealth government corporations, estimated for the current year at $4,000,000.

Salaries Biggest Items
Budget figures disclose that the government of Commonwealth President Manuel L. Quezon this year is spending more than 60 per cent of its income for salaries and wages. The total governmental outlay for the current fiscal year exceeds $56,500,000. Of this outlay, about 55 per cent, or $32,500,000, goes for public education.

Salaries for the army during the current year will amount to $4,689,511. Excluding the army and public educational system, salaries of the government have grown from $9,691,376 in 1935 to $14,928,376 in the current year. This substantial growth resulted from an increase in personnel and rises in salaries paid by the semi-autonomous government established in 1935 under the Tydings-McDuffie independence act.

The item of $32,817,837 for salaries is equivalent to the entire national income of the government for any year during the 10 years of American administration preceding establishment of the Commonwealth in 1935.

Budget Still Balanced
Despite the 100 per cent increase in the payroll under the Commonwealth government, the budget continues balanced. Although the unallocated cash surplus of nearly $8,500,000 at the time the United States handed over control of the insular

Lucky Sailor!

If you don't believe in luck, just consult Phillip McBride, 31, petty officer, third class, in the United States navy. He does! On duty aboard the U. S. S. Greer, he was transferred to the U. S. S. Kearny just before the Greer was attacked. Then he was transferred again, this time to the navy tanker Salinas—just before the Kearny was torpedoed. When the Salinas was torpedoed, she was able to make port safely.

government to President Quezon's administration has dwindled to the vanishing point new-tax laws have stepped up governmental revenues to meet the annually expanding expenditures.

In 1934, the year preceding inauguration of the Commonwealth, governmental income approximated $35,000,000. Tax revenues for the current year are estimated at $45,000,000.

Windfall From U. S.
In addition, the government receives an annual windfall of approximately $17,500,000 from the United States in refunds of the U. S. import tax collected on coconut oil shipped from the Philippines.

Prospect of further substantial increases in governmental expenses was believed to have prompted the recent warning of Manuel Roxas, former secretary of finance, that an independent Philippines should have an annual income of $150,000,000 to support a stable economy. This figure would necessitate tripling the present national wealth during the remaining four years of the transition period, an admittedly impossible task.

Washington State College President Influenza Victim

Pullman, Wash., Nov. 7.—(UP)—Death has taken Dr. Enoch A. Bryan, 86, president of Washington State college. He succumbed to a heart ailment yesterday after a two-week siege of influenza.

Funeral services will be read tomorrow in the chapel of Bryan Hall, named for him. Dr. Bryan was the third president of the college, serving 23 years until he retired in 1916 and became commissioner of education for the state of Idaho. Before that he was president of Vincennes college in Indiana, his home state.

UTAH CO-EDS ON INCREASE
Provo, Utah, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Brigham Young university at Provo always has had a reputation for an abundance of women students. This college year, the reputation is earned better than ever before. For every male student, there are three co-eds.

U.S. Backs Reds Against Nazis With A Billion

Administration Orders Delivery Of Aid To Start At Once

Washington, Nov. 7.—(UP)—The United States backed the hard-pressed armies of Russia with a billion dollar lease-lend credit today. President Roosevelt directed deliveries to commence immediately and to be fulfilled in the largest possible amounts until the huge stores of munitions represented by credit are in Soviet hands.

This new assistance program posed for the nation a stupendous task both in production and transportation if the supplies are to reach the Russian fronts in effective time, but Mr. Roosevelt indicated definite confidence that the job would be done.

Unheralded Decision
The unheralded decision to extend lease-lend aid to Russia was announced late yesterday by the state department. Whether by accident or design, the announcement was psychologically well-timed. It came on the eve of the Soviet's great national holiday—the 24th anniversary of the 1917 bolshevik revolution. And it followed by a few hours the radio address of Premier Joseph Stalin, in which the Russian leader spoke of the "great importance" of the aid already being received from Britain and the United States.

The announcement was in the form of an exchange of correspondence between Mr. Roosevelt and Stalin. In a letter dated Oct. 30, Mr. Roosevelt wrote that the $1,000,000,000 credit was being made available without interest, and that Soviet repayment would not commence until five years after the war's end.

Replying on Nov. 4, Stalin agreed to the credit terms and voiced the "sincere gratitude" of Russia for this "unusually substantial aid in its difficult and great struggle against our common enemy, blood-thirsty Hitlerism."

Taken somewhat unaware by the credit disclosure, Capitol Hill reacted along expected lines. The staunch supporters of administration foreign policy saw in the decision a wise move to bolster the Russian stand against Hitler and thus contribute to his eventual downfall.

Severe Criticism
A chorus of condemnation arose from the opposite camp. Mr. Roosevelt was charged with giving away the huge sum without the consent of the American taxpayers who foot the bill. Senator Nye (R-ND) commented acidly: "When we passed the lease-lend law, it was to give democracies. Now it is to give Brother Joe 1,000,000,000 smackers with no ifs, no ands, no buts."

The credit will come from the $5,985,000,000 second lease-lend appropriation which congress recently enacted.

The enormous bill of goods the credit represents added a multiplicity of fresh production problems to those already confronting American industry, now struggling to meet the needs of national defense, and lease-lend aid to Britain and China.

In the immediate interest, however, seemed to focus on the problem of delivery and the difficulties of opening and maintaining safe lines of communication.

The navy recently has been playing an important role in insuring deliveries to Britain, and some thought it might also be used to protect the heavy shipments to the Soviet union.

Japs and Finns Obstacles
The question of delivery likewise spotlighted diplomatic discussions now in progress with Japan and Finland, since both those nations are in a position to menace major supply routes to Russia.

Japan has voiced strong opposition—chiefly through the Japanese press—to the American supply shipments, which have been going to Vladivostok, the Soviet's only Pacific seaport.

The Finnish army, cooperating with the Germans, has been waging a campaign to cut the railway linking besieged Leningrad with Murmansk, northern Russian port which has been outside the Nazis' reach. Other supply routes to the Soviet include a long, runabout voyage through Arctic waters to Archangel, a far northern port utilized by allied expeditionary forces in world war days, and another long—and as yet uncompleted—overland route through Iran (Persia).

Found Guilty Of Extortion, Face Long Prison Terms

New York, Nov. 7.—(UP)—A possible maximum penalty of 30 years in prison and $30,000 fines confronts Labor Leaders George E. Browne and William Bloff, convicted of extorting $550,000 from movie executives.

A federal court jury found the pair guilty on all three counts of an indictment after deliberating only two hours yesterday.

The verdict, climaxing a four-weeks trial that brought some of Hollywood's top executives to the witness stand, will, Judge John C. Knox told the jurors, "let a lot of fresh air into union halls throughout the country."

Browne, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees (A. F. L.), and Bloff, his personal representative in Hollywood, were turned over to the United States marshal to await sentence next Wednesday. Judge Knox refused to accept bail and denied motions to set aside the verdict.

In characterizing the verdict as "eminently desirable," Judge Knox asserted "all labor will doubtless be glad to have their unions purged of such individuals," adding: "If union labor is to endure, it must rid itself of men who stand ready to sell out labor when it suits their purpose."

The pair was convicted of collecting from Warner Brothers, Paramount Pictures, Twentieth Century-Fox and Loews Inc. for assurance of labor peace in the motion picture industry.

United States Attorney Mathias P. Correa characterized Bloff in his summation as a "Chicago hoodlum" and "a raving egomaniac" who had "bed again and again under oath." Bloff pictured himself as a messenger boy who had collected more than $1,000,000 from film officials at their request.

RUSSIAN BALLET MASTER CANT FATHOM AMERICA

New Orleans.—(UP)—Boris Romanoff, ballet master, found just one cigarette in America similar to the strong Russian variety he preferred. Each month he would go to the one tobacco shop in New York that sold the made-in-New-Orleans product and order 10 cartons.

The cigarettes cost him 15 cents a pack. He was elated on learning he was to aid in founding a ballet school and company in New Orleans, the source of his favorite smoke. On his arrival he asked for the brand at the nearest cigar counter.

"That'll be 21 cents," she said. Boris Romanoff just can't understand America.
