REPUBLICANS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

FOUR YOUTHS TAKEN FOR A RIDE; ROBBED

TIED UP WITH BELL ROPE
SCHOOL HOUSE

BY FOUR BANDITS

Abducted, But Lost Automobile, Money, Valuables, And A Night's Sleep

Four Kankakee young men, all employees of the Shell Petroleum company of Kankakee, this morning were telling a yarn about the dubious thrilling experience of being "taken for a ride" in the approved fashion of Chicago gangland, yet returning home none the worse, with the exception of a highly uncomfortable night and the loss of all their valuables.

The men, Leo Genshaw, Donald Korte, Harry Genshaw, and Leonard O'Connor, had attended a sales meeting in Chatsworth last evening and were returning home in Bouc's car. On route 25, about a mile north of Gilman, a car pulled alongside and a sawed-off shotgun appeared from the curtains. Of course the four stopped, and a moment later they were herded out upon the highway with their hands "reaching for the stars" as they described it. L. A. Baron, Shell manager in Kankakee, appeared on the highway in his coupe at about that time.

On the four bandits saw his car, they shoved the victims into the Bouc's car, and two of the highwaymen themselves entered, one driving, and the other threatening the four young men with a gun.

For a couple of hours or more, the car wandered about the country at the guidance of the two bandits, coming and recrossing their tracks and turning around so often that the victims finally had no idea where they were.

Finally the cruise ended up in the little village of Crescent City where the highwaymen temporarily commandeered the city school as a prison for their victims. They entered the building, cut down the bell rope, and used the rope to truss up the young men securely. Then, with a threat that they would "blow the heads off" the victims if they moved for a couple of hours, the highwaymen disappeared.

After a good deal of squirming and twisting, one of the men succeeded in freeing himself from the bell rope, and he in turn released the others. Then they went down to the village telephone office, awoke the operator from his bed, and called Mr. Baron at Kankakee. Baron went to Crescent City and brought them home. It was about 10 o'clock this morning when Mr. Baron received the call from them.

Besides their peace of mind for a good long while and a night's sleep the four victims lost all of their money, their other valuables, such as watches, rings, and the like, and the automobile, a Pontiac coupe.

Alfred Mensing left this morning for Austin, Minnesota, where he will make his future home and has accepted a position.

WHAT ARE THE ANTIS AFRAID OF?

WHY DOES THE DAILY NEWS
OBJECT TO A FAIR
VOTE RECOUNT?

ATTACK BURDICK

Malign Citizen When He Seeks Justice At The Hands Of Court Of Law

Endeavoring plainly to influence courts and howling loudly because a man is seeking justice the Kankakee Daily News in last night's issue makes a particularly vicious attack upon O. A. Burdick, a reputable citizen of Momence because he is seeking to have a recount of the votes cast in the Republican primary Tuesday, April 8th. The howl of the Daily News only verifies the suspicion entertained by Mr. Burdick and his friends that "something must be wrong." If the Daily News and the Miller-Judd gang are so sure that the election results speak the sentiments of the people, then why should they howl so loud over a recount? Is it the position of the Daily News and the Miller-Judd gang that a man should be denied the courts of justice when he feels there is something wrong?

A Citizen's Right
Does the Daily News and the Miller-Judd gang challenge the right of a citizen to go into court to seek justice? Why, does the Daily News and the Miller-Judd gang raise such a vociferous howl because a candidate files a legitimate suit as he has a legal right to do?

The News makes the point that Richard is a World War Veteran and that two of the attorneys for Mr. Burdick are World War veterans. This only goes to prove that a World War veteran believes in fair play and justice.

Disregard of Law
The attack of the Daily News and the Miller-Judd gang again proves the contention of the Regular Republican organization for years, viz: That outfit cares nothing for law and order but endeavors to rule everything by threats, duress and tyranny. It is a custom and habit of the Miller-Judd gang to close the doors of the courts to everyone who disagrees with them. The word "fair play" is not in their vocabulary.

Here is a shining example of how a reputable citizen can be vilified and maligned simply because he seeks his redress in an orderly and legal manner.

The Republican does not know what the outcome of the contest will be. The Republican does know that any man regardless of his political, social, religious or financial standing has a perfect right to go into the courts of justice at any time to maintain his rights, that whenever the time arises when a political gang can deny a man this right, then it is time for the people to speak.

Burdick Justified
Mr. Burdick is a man of very high standing in Kankakee county. On the face of the returns he was defeated by the narrow margin of only eighty-one votes of a total of more than 19,000 ballots cast. If there were irregularities in the count which brought about his defeat, not only he but the public has a moral and legal right to know what those irregularities are and no one can deny that right in this country of freedom and liberty.

If the Daily News and the Miller-Judd gang wants to set up a kangaroo court wherein no one can get justice except their own gang then that is their business, but the Republican feels the public is very much concerned of justice and fair play, and that the public should have and has as much voice in this government as any gang of ambulance chasers, blackhanders and browbeaters, who would seek to slam the doors of justice to all but their own henchmen.

On the basis of approximately 13,500,000 shares now outstanding, the rights, valued at about $24.70 each, would mean the issuance of about $325,000,000 in new stock. The aggregate value of the rights which expire August 1, is about $327,000,000.

Pioneer Wedding Which Failed Of Approval

By FATHER HAWKINS.

During the early forties, Argale, eldest son of Roswell Nichols, who lived on the south bank of the Kankakee, near Rock Creek, wooed and won the heart of Almira Hawkins, attractive daughter of the pioneer settler, Alanson Hawkins, who was a nearby neighbor of the Nichols. Alanson Hawkins, father of the young lady upon whom the youthful Argale had centered his hopes and affections, was very much opposed to this union. He could not give any cogent reason for his dislike for the young man except that his pioneer spirit could not approve of what he termed his flashy ways and dandified airs. He could not understand, much more approve of a young man who used gloves when he worked. If the mere fact of wearing gloves at his work constituted a crime, then Argale was guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Alanson Hawkins was indubitably and irrevocably "agin" this marriage of his daughter to the glove-wearing lothario of Rock Creek, and did not care a rap who knew it. The longer he brooded over the situation the more "rot" he became so that at last his obstinate, unyielding pioneer nature became as adamant against argument, pleading or coaxing. He would have none of it, so, there! But the principals in this engaging domestic drama, they of the lover's complex, far from being distressed or perturbed by the father's undisguised hostility, went serenely on building rose-tinted air castles and planning for that great day when they two should be one.

The wedding day was set and the daughter, fearful of what might happen if the wedding were held at home, intimated diplomatically to the mother that they might avoid a great deal of unpleasantness by stealing away somewhere and having the ceremony performed. Now, in some matters, mother Hawkins was just as stubborn and unyielding as her lord. She would not listen to the plan proposed by the daughter. "You're going to be married right here in this house where you were born and raised, and you're going to have a wedding worth while. And, what's more, Dad is going to see you married—or—er—she did not finish the sentence; but there was an air of convincing finality in the way she expressed herself that boded no end of trouble for Dad if he held back.

Arrived at last the wedding day with a limited number of guests and the minister who was to officiate. The hour for the ceremony drew near and Mrs. Hawkins noted anxiously that Dad was nowhere to be seen. All unmindful of what was to take place that day in the life of his daughter Dad had elected to make it "hog-killin' day" and was, even then, busy down in the lot. Mother Hawkins, true to the resolution she had made, went after pater familias. What threats or persuasive arts she used at that time no one will ever know but, greatly to the surprise of those who were in on the secret of Dad's displeasure, he appeared. That he came unwillingly and much against his will his shuffling gait and dogged air bore ample testimony. His hands and the big, coarse apron he wore, were liberally smeared with blood. All he conceded on this occasion was the poor boon of his presence. Immediately at the close of the ceremony, while the guests were congratulating the newly wedded pair, he withdrew and bolted for the hoglot and resumed operations where he had left off.

That night at the Roswell Nichols home where the newly-weds staid, they were visited by a chivalric party made up of the younger people of the countryside who, in lieu of other noise-producing apparatus, fired off guns. One of the party met with a very serious accident when the powder horn, which contained the powder supply, exploded in his hand. That incident put a quietus to the chivalric.

DESCENT FROM CROSS TOPIC FOR SERVICE

CHICAGO HEIGHTS PASTOR
DISCUSSES PICTURE
BY RUBENS

EMOTIONS PICTURED

Remorse And Restraint, Contrast,
Perfection And Victory
Shown In Painting

"In Rubens' beautiful masterpiece, 'The Descent From the Cross,' five great emotions are pictured: remorse, restraint, contrast, perfection, and victory," said Rev. Harold F. Breach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Chicago Heights today in the sermon of the Holy Week services at the Majestic theater.

"On the faces of those who were afraid of His leadership during His life, who were followers from afar but who feared to join Him for personal reasons, is the mark of remorse and regret that they waited until death to give Him their allegiance. And so it is today. It is a beautiful thing to give our lives to God at any time, but it is not so much more lovely to give our lives while we have youth than to wait until near death and give God only the burned out candle of life?"

"On the faces of the Mother of God and of Mary Magdalene is expressed restraint of their grief. There is anguish there, to be sure, but anguish controlled by faith in His resurrection. Their faith was put to a greater test than ours today—the resurrection had not occurred at this time, but for us it has already occurred.

"Rubens, as a great painter, has given us contrast in this picture. Notice how the body of Christ, and the winding cloth about Him, are set in the foreground in pure whiteness, while the rest of the picture is shrouded in black, forbidding darkness. In this way, the painter gives to us the eternal contrast between good and evil and between the powers of darkness and of light.

"Perfection is expressed in this picture—the perfection which inspired Sidney Lanier to write his wonderful poem, 'The Crystal Christ'—in whom we have found no mark of blemish and nothing to forgive.

"Finally, we find victory in the picture, victory for Christ who, although scorned as Jesus of the Jews, was to find victory even in death, and who was to arise again even though sealed in the tomb. We see below the cross the body of stupefying mixture which the good women were accustomed to give to victims of the cross to lighten their pain, and which Christ refused, determined to go to His death with every sense and every faculty alert—a victory over Himself."

Rev. Lorenz I. Hansen, pastor of the First Baptist church, presided over the services, and Rev. B. F. Eckley, retired Methodist pastor, gave the invocation and scripture lesson.

LANOUE, TOOL OF MILLER- JUDD GANG, IS BEATEN BY GOETZLER IN THIRD WARD

CITY ELECTION A FITTING CLIMAX TO THREE REGULAR REPUBLICAN VICTORIES AND SHOWS THE PUBLIC'S APPRECIATION OF GOOD GOVERNMENT.

Leonard Lanoue, "Cats Paw" of the Miller-Judd gang on the City Council, has been defeated!

For the third consecutive time in three successive weeks, the Miller-Judd gang has been repudiated at the polls — first in the township election two weeks ago, next in the county election one week ago, and finally in the city election yesterday.

Not only was Lanoue swamped in defeat, but another of their henchmen, A. R. Vandervoort, was buried beneath a great avalanche of votes on the south side. Out of seven ward fights, the Regular Republicans won five places.

Wallop By New Man

Lanoue has been campaigning for two years for this office, holding political meetings almost nightly in the Third Ward. In addition to this, the Miller-Judd gang flooded the ward with money and secured every Democratic vote in the ward to vote for Lanoue; promised hundreds of jobs on the State payroll, which they knew they could not fill, and used every method known to underhand politics to try to put him over. Despite these terrific odds, Alex Goetzler, a new man in politics, walloped the Miller-Judd candidate.

The first vote announced in the Third Ward was Lanoue 385, Goetzler 553, but for some mysterious reason a re-check was made and the final vote was announced as Lanoue 446 and Goetzler 484. How the original majority of 168 votes for Goetzler, as first announced, was cut down to 38 is a thing which nobody has been able to figure out.

Muddling

Lanoue has always been one of the Miller tools and mouth-pieces on the City Council. He never overlooked an opportunity to embarrass Mayor Beckman. He is also the originator of the vile, muddling campaign which was started in the Third Ward early this year. His defeat is hailed as one of the biggest upsets that the Miller-Judd gang has had in many years.

In the Fourth Ward the Miller-Judd gang was supporting another of its plant tools, A. R. Vandervoort, against Alderman John Savage. The latter made a runaway race out of the election and won by a vote of 542 to 293—almost two to one.

In the Second Ward, Alderman Clarence Speicher also made a runaway race with his opponent, Charles Miller, winning the election by a vote of 415 to 242.

In the First Ward, Fred Maisonneuve defeated Alderman Kuntz by a vote of 548 to 343, and in the Fifth Ward George Wulf, a former alderman, defeated A. J. Chouinard 567 to 350. The net result of the election showed that public sentiment is still emphatically opposed to the Miller-Judd gang who have during the few times they have been in control, ruled affairs with high handed extravagance.

The result of this election is evidence that the people of Kankakee appreciate honest, economical, progressive management of their city's affairs.

When the City Council is reorganized next week and the new aldermen are seated, twelve of the fourteen aldermen will be men who were elected on the Regular Republican ticket. All of these men are loyal supporters of Mayor Louis E. Beckman's policies of economy and efficiency in office and will continue to run the city affairs efficiently as they have in the past.

A summary of the political activities in this county under Governor Emmerson's administration of State affairs in full cooperation with the J. Bert-Anti outfit shows the desperate methods which the J. Bert destructionists use. With unlimited money furnished them, and authority to promise State jobs even at the cost of the welfare and care of the State's unfortunate, the anti's, evidently afraid to trust each other, first started a campaign, in January, with a ticket of county candidates running under the name of "Emmerson Group." Later they changed the name to "Regular Emmerson Republicans." A town ticket under the name of "Lower Tax Party" was used in the city election yesterday, part of their candidates ran as "Citizens'" candidates and part as "Peoples'" candidates. But, whatever name they call themselves they are the same anti-J. Bert-Judd bunch of doublecrossers endeavoring to destroy the Republican party in Kankakee county.

Yesterday's city election was a fitting climax to this year's three campaigns as a result of which the Regular Republican organization north porties Thursday.

BOURBONNAIS REGULARS' WIN

George Arsenau, Oscar Byron and Alphonse Benoit were elected village trustees of Bourbonnais in Tuesday's election by almost one hundred majority, the latest victory the regular Republicans ever staged.

Again the board stands in a position to give the man his rights, says one of the elected men.

Messrs. Arsenau, Byron and Benoit are men of business ability. It is their ambition to make a bigger, better Bourbonnais and they take this opportunity of thanking their loyal supporters and state they are arranging for a family reunion and party at Fox's Inn in the near future.

So many owners say that one of the greatest things about Oldsmobile is its superb performance—the efficiency, ease, and smoothness with which it does everything they require.

And these owners know. They know from long experience in driving Oldsmobile over all roads, under all conditions.

Why not check this important quality for yourself—to substantiate what owners have told you?

Get behind the wheel, and put Oldsmobile through the hardest tests. Try it on the hills. See how smoothly, eagerly, and capably it takes every grade.

Try it on the straightaway—if you are enthusiastic about keen, exhilarating speed. Note the remarkable smoothness with which Oldsmobile's big high-compression engine delivers its power. And then, going to the opposite extreme, try Oldsmobile in congested traffic. See how quickly it responds to the accelerator. How easy it is to turn and stop. How comfortable to drive under the least comfortable of conditions.

Having tested Oldsmobile in every phase of performance, you will know why Oldsmobile owners speak of their cars with such appreciation.

And you will know that here is a car you can depend on to serve you capably and faithfully—always.

Avers Three Out Of Four Persons In United States Are Against Prohibition

By JAMES W. DOUTT
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 16.—(AP)—Counting the association against the prohibition amendment, Henry H. Curran, its president, testified today to the Senate Lobby committee that one of the purposes of the organization was to advocate election of congressmen favoring repeal of the dry law.

Curran said his only employment was with the association. Previously he had been counsel for the City Club of New York.

"You are a lawyer," Chairman Curran asked.

"No, I am a member of the bar," Curran replied.

"I understand there is a difference in New York," Curran remarked.

"Speak for yourself," Curran said. "The witness said the organization supported congressional candidates favoring repeal, which it wanted to do in order to restore to the states the right to regulate the liquor traffic. Campaigns were also conducted through newspaper columns and radio, he said."

Curran testified one hundred persons are employed by the association in 12 offices. He placed his salary at $25,000 a year and expenses. William H. Stinson, chairman of the board of directors of the association, receives $10,000.

Chairman Curran asked Curran whether errors are eligible for membership.

"Keep those words in your mouth," Curran said. "Don't put them in mine."

Curran said there were 250 members of the board of directors and 1,000 were eligible for membership. The anti-prohibition activities of Curran's organization recently came under the scrutiny of the Lobby committee through testimony of John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National committee.

Raskob said he was a director of the association and had contributed $45,000.

Curran said the annual salary of the persons employed regularly by the association was $25,000. Then $25,000 a year would cover the salaries of 12 persons. "Yes easily," Curran replied. The witness said $25,000 a year was paid for rent.

Curran asked if the association made direct contributions to candidates for public office.

"Yes," Curran said. Curran said the principal interest of the association was to require to the states their rights.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, said the fifteenth and nineteenth amendments had no business in the constitution.

He added he favored woman suffrage, but thought it should be determined by the states.

Curran asked if the association would support any candidate who favored repeal of the 18th amendment.

INDIANS COMPLAIN ABOUT PROCEDURE IN BUFFALO COURT

Buffalo, N. Y., April 16.—The council of the Seneca Nation of Indians at a Pow Wow at Salamanca which ended this morning expressed dissatisfaction over the manner in which the recent Marchand murder case was handled.

The Indians had no brief for Nancy Bowen, the old woman who hampered the Buffalo attorney's efforts to secure a conviction for Cayuga Spitzer who pleaded guilty to second degree murder before the case went to trial, but they were emphatic in their conviction that all the evidence in the case was not uncovered and that the jury was not brought to justice.

To the end that all circumstances surrounding the case be made known, the Seneca Nation has requested that the assembled leaders of the tribe be given the right to be heard in the case.

Only Nancy Bowen still is in jail awaiting trial, which is expected to start in about two weeks. Robert P. Callahan, who is now in the custody of the Seneca Nation, is expected to be released in about two weeks.

"I am confident the District Attorney will be able to get the case out of the hands of the Seneca Nation," said a Buffalo official.
