Detroit's New Convention Hall

DETROIT'S BID TO GRAB OFF lucrative convention business will be helped by the completion of the city's $10-million convention hall, which is scheduled to be completed by the end of 1960. The hall, which is being built on the site of the old Detroit Athletic Club, will have a seating capacity of 10,000. It will also have a large ballroom, a restaurant, and a swimming pool. The hall is expected to be one of the largest and most modern in the world.

Campus School Children Present Christmas Show

CAMPUS (JNS)—The elementary school children presented a Christmas program Monday evening in the Redick High school gymnasium. The opening number on the program was a trumpet solo by David Louis. A playlet, "Thirty Minutes with Santa Claus," was presented, with the Pope delivered by Mark Richie and Lonnie Anderson were ushers for the program. David Louis and Dick Brasseur served as stage managers. The program was directed by Mrs. Ron Ames, vocal music director in RUCE Unit 3, and Mrs. James Walsh and Mrs. Lloyd Lovell. Christmas Spirit Is Subject Of WC, Saunemin

SAUNEMIN (JNS)—Miss Patricia Chesbro, assisted by Mrs. Roy Hanley, Mrs. Rex Parsons, Miss Ida M. Lannon and Miss Joyce Anderson, was hostess to the Women's Club in her home Monday evening.

The program, "In the Spirit of Christmas," was introduced by Mrs. Ralph Gallup, program chairman. Miss Chesbro and Mrs. Ralph Carter presented a program of organ-piano music with Mrs. Wayne Scott as soloist.

Mrs. Helen Quigley, president, conducted the business meeting. The club project will be a birthday calendar. Mrs. Hanley, project chairman, explained the project.

The devotions, which included the Christmas story, were led by Mrs. Mae Siebert.

Mrs. Ed Banker, president of the Community Council, reported the main issue before the council is the telephone service. A community survey is being taken to ascertain the feeling toward the dial system.

Refreshments were served. Miss Jessie Campbell, Pontiac, poured.

Speaks On Birth Control

Pope John Names New Cardinals

VATICAN CITY (AP)—In formally naming eight new cardinals today, Pope John XXIII warned against communism and declared artificial birth control is not the answer to the problem of hunger in the world.

Supreme Court Upholds TP&W Control Order

Permits Pennsy. Santa Fe To Buy Railroad Stock

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld an Interstate Commerce Commission order permitting the Pennsylvania Railroad and Santa Fe Railroads to acquire control of the Toledo, Peoria and Western Railroad.

Justice Whittaker delivered the 6-1 decision. Justice Douglas dissented.

The Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad, which has been in receivership since 1934 to get control of the T. & P. & W. Co., however, authorized Pennsylvania and Santa Fe to take joint control through ownership of equal amounts of capital stock of T. & P. & W.

A special three-judge U.S. District Court in Minneapolis rejected a complaint which sought to set aside the ICC order, appealing to the Supreme Court.

The railroad company argued that the ICC had failed to give it a proper hearing. The appeals by the two states emphasized the importance to their economy of the transportation service of the Minneapolis & St. Paul Railway.

JUSTICE WHITTAKER said the ICC had made adequate findings on all material issues in the case. These findings, he said, were supported by substantial evidence.

As to the special District Court, Whittaker said it was clear that the lower tribunal fairly considered and decided all of the issues presented by those who opposed the ICC order.

The special court accorded all a full and fair judicial review, and reached a right result, Whittaker said.

Whittaker said the record showed the commission carefully weighed and considered each application in its efforts to determine which was consistent with the public interest.

The appeals were argued before the Supreme Court on Nov. 16 and 17, 1959.

Max Swiren, Chicago, and Harold J. Soderberg, assistant attorney general of Minnesota, argued on behalf of the Minneapolis & St. Paul Railway and the two states. Robert W. Ginnane, general counsel for the ICC, and Starr Thomas, Chicago, argued in support of the ICC order.

34 Feared Dead In German Fire

BORNTUM, Germany (AP)—Hundreds of rescue workers searched for bodies today in a smoking heap of rubble of two apartment houses.

Twenty-six people may have died. Police believe 34 people were in the two houses when they were picked by a blast and ensuing fire Sunday.

Sixteen bodies were recovered. Three persons died in ambulance or hospital. Eight survivors were blown out into a back garden by the force of the blast.

That left seven unaccounted for.

Plan To Resume Packer Talks At Albert Lea; New Violence Flares

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (UPI)—Resumption of negotiations in the Wilson and Co. strike which workers passed through the picket lines at the Cedar Rapids plant. One car was smeared with violence broke out at a Wilson plant in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The talks were expected to be resumed after the union delivered "assurances" to the company that it would refrain from "lawless acts" at the eight strike-bound Wilson plants.

However, the letter setting forth the "assurances" had not been received by the company's Chicago headquarters at mid-morning.

MEANWHILE, Federal Court action seeking to reopen Albert Lea plant was postponed until Wednesday afternoon. The union used to have them reinstated, the company countered by refusing to bargain until the suits were dropped.

About 50 cars were dented or dispute came at Albert Lea where Gov. Orville L. Freeman ordered out the National Guard last Friday to prevent violence between strikers and non-union workers.

Several persons were arrested as authorities broke up the demonstration, which Police Chief Carl Badger said was only a "little more active" than on previous occasions.

The Cedar Rapids plant has been a focal point of the dispute between the company and the United Packinghouse Workers Union.

Seventeen Cedar Rapids workers had been fired for allegedly sabotaging operations in the ham processing division. When the union sued to have them reinstated, the company countered by refusing to bargain until the suits were dropped.

2 From County Killed In Auto Accident Near Aurora

A Limestone Township student nurse and her friend, West Kankakee, were killed almost instantly about 1:15 a.m. Sunday in a two-car crash in Kendall County.

The pair, pronounced dead on arrival at Copley Memorial Hospital, Aurora, were Miss Joy Ann Kukulick, 20, a senior at the Rockford Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, and Michael Louis Hauert, 20, of 335 S. Foley Ave.

The two were en route to Kankakee from Rockford. Mr. Hauert had gone to Rockford to pick up Miss Kukulick who had three days off. They left the hospital at approximately 11 p.m.

The couple had been engaged since September and had been going together since their high school days. Both are 1957 graduates of Herscher High School.

STATE POLICE said the couple was southbound on Route 30 between Aurora and Plainfield when their car was struck broadside by a car driven by David L. McKinstry, 25, of Aurora. Police said the McKinstry vehicle apparently went through a stop sign on the Douglas Road.

McKinstry was reported to be in critical condition at Copley Hospital, Aurora. He was still unconscious this morning.

Hauert and McKinstry were brown from their cars and Miss Kukulick was partially thrown from the car. Both cars were demolished. An inquest jury was impaneled Sunday in Aurora and adjourned pending McKinstry's recovery. State Police were reported to be considering charges against McKinstry.

Miss Kukulick was president of her senior class at the Rockford Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She was to graduate next September.

She was a member of the Bonfield Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Youth Fellowship of the church.

She was born Sept. 17, 1939 in Kankakee. Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kukulick; a brother, Gerald, at home; and a grandmother, Mrs. Susie Marth of Bonfield.

Funeral services for Miss Kukulick will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Bonfield Evangelical United Brethren Church. The Rev. Andrew Noxon will officiate. Burial will be in Memorial Gardens.

Friends may call at the Herzt Memorial Temple until 10 a.m. Tuesday when the body will be taken to the Bonfield Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Expectant Mom 1 Of 3 Crash Victims

SLATON, Tex. (AP)—Jo Ann Hogue woke her husband early today. The pains were regular now. While he hurriedly dressed she made last-minute preparations for the 16-mile ride to the hospital where her second child was to be born.

Half an hour later, on the highway to Lubbock, Tex., a car appeared to skid from a side road. Tires screamed on the pavement, but too late.

Killed in the crash were Mrs. Hogue, 23, and the driver of the other car, Juan Vela Tronzo, a farm worker from nearby Abilene, Texas.

Among cars passing the wreck site in the dim light of dawn was one carrying Mr. and Mrs. Grady Halliburton of Slaton, parents of Mrs. Hogue. They talked happily of the impending birth.

"Maybe we should stop and see if it could be them," Mrs. Halliburton suggested as they slowed down to pass the scene. One car—the Hogue—was upside down in the center of the four-lane highway. Frusta's car, however, was almost disintegrated.

"That couldn't be them," Halliburton assured his wife.

The Halliburtons were waiting in the delivery room at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock when their daughter was brought in, dead on arrival. The unborn child was not saved.

Warmly Cheered In Both Countries

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Working a 20-hour schedule, President Eisenhower said goodbye to India today and won rousing welcomes in Iran and Greece, both under the protective fold of U.S. military aid.

Here in Athens hundreds of thousands of Greeks turned out to cheer-and wave.

King Paul greeted the President enthusiastically at Athens' Eleftheria airport, saying the Greek people had watched his journey so far with deep emotion.

IN REPLY, Eisenhower noted the long history of Greek culture and said Greece's steadfast devotion to democratic principles has won the admiration of the world.

"I assure you that the welcome from his majesty, the government, the people and the individuals here means very much to me," the President said, "and I hope that the discussions I will have with your government will be fruitful."

Premier Constantine Karamanlis and Crown Prince Constantine joined in welcoming the first U.S. president to visit Greece. The day was chilly and a light mist was falling.

The people were responding to Karamanlis' urging that they show their gratitude to the United States as the nation that helped Greece crush the Communists and end a bloody civil war. That was under the Truman doctrine, which came into play after the British withdrew their protection of Greece.

On the way from India the President spent six hours in Iran, much of it in talks with Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi—who wants more American aid.

Eisenhower praised Iran for refusing to stand on the fence between the Communists and the West's resistance to communism.

The President said the Shah and the Shah agreed on the importance of the Central Treaty Organization to the former Baghdad pact in preserving stability and security in the area. The communiqué added: "The President said the United States intends to continue to assist Iran in the mutual interest of both nations."

THE SHAH, who is to make his third visit next Monday, welcomed Eisenhower while a flight of Iranian air force jets supplied by the United States, flew overhead spelling out "Be."

The motorcycle that the President rode to the Shah's palace moved at times over roadway covered with Persian rugs. It was estimated 70,000 Iranians cheered the President.

It was one of the President's busiest days on his 11-hour tour. It was 4:30 p.m. by the time he arrived here and his day was not to end until about 10:30 p.m.

The court ruled on an appeal by Eleazar Smith, 75, a book store proprietor. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail because he had in his store an alleged obscene book entitled "Sweetener" by Louis A. Smith. Continued on Page 6, Column 2

60 Hurt As Greek Wall Collapses

ATHENS (AP)—A wall jammed with Athenians cheering President Eisenhower on his arrival Sunday, but warned: "It remains to be seen whether Soviet Union is prepared to negotiate seriously to reach equitable settlements of major issues. It would be a grave error to base our plans for the future on a more optimistic appraisal than is warranted by the facts."

On the economic front, U.S. Ambassador to Athens, Douglas Dillon, wound up five weeks of economic talks in London, Brussels, Bonn and Paris.

He was pictured as certain that a trade war can be avoided between Europe's rival blocs. Dillon's main concern was to protect U.S. trade from competition between the six-nation Common Market and the seven-nation European Free Trade Area.

President Plans 3-Day Cruise On Mediterranean

ATHENS (AP) — President Eisenhower will run little risk of either sunburn or seasickness when he boards the cruise ship Des Moines Tuesday for a sail to Tunisia and France.

The weather probably will be good but the heavy cruiser will be smooth.

A 3-day Mediterranean cruise aboard the sleek, gray flagship of the U.S. 6th fleet was scheduled to give the President a brief rest in his vacation before he returns to the White House.

Then it was announced he would meet Tunisia's President Habib Bourguiba for talks aboard the Des Moines. Later the President decided to spend four hours aboard in Tunisia before moving on to London, France.

The fleet's weather experts say December is equal time in the usually sunny Mediterranean. It is usually sunny and stormy.

But ships' officers say seasickness is unlikely. But ships' officers say seasickness is unlikely. But ships' officers say seasickness is unlikely.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

(Photo On Page 1.) Proof that Christmas means more than snow-covered country sides is the increasing number of home decorations in this community.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

People already are riding up and down streets to see the colorful, gaily lighted Christmas scenes on rooftops, porches and lawns.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

The decorations are as varied as the people who construct them. A home decorations contest is being sponsored by the Bradley Chamber of Commerce for residents living within the village limits.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Exterior Christmas decorating and the practice of driving around the community to view the results has become almost as much a part of the Christmas scene as the Christmas tree. The panorama in Kankakee community changes from variations of the nativity scene, brightly shining stars and other objects symbolic of Christmas, to the traditional with the holidays.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Mr. Davis had been missing since June 22. His skeleton was found on the east side of the Illinois Central railroad tracks two miles north of Onarga on Sunday morning.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

According to authorities, Mr. Davis had been in the habit of taking walks along the highways and railroad tracks for many years. Andrew Mayotte, Onarga County coroner, found no evidence of foul play and listed the death as resulting from natural causes.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Mr. Davis had suffered a partial stroke several months prior to June 28. His death had not been too good since that time. It is believed he succumbed during one of his walks.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Since his disappearance, the family had conducted an extensive search. Boy Scouts of Onarga took an entire week throughout the area for any trace of him.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

It is believed he became afflicted during one of his walks and tumbled into a ditch, which skinned his body from the view of passengers on trains during the evening hours.

Identification of the skeleton was made by checking a social security card found in a billfold. The card was protected by plastic.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Exterior Christmas decorating and the practice of driving around the community to view the results has become almost as much a part of the Christmas scene as the Christmas tree. The panorama in Kankakee community changes from variations of the nativity scene, brightly shining stars and other objects symbolic of Christmas, to the traditional with the holidays.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Mr. Davis had been missing since June 22. His skeleton was found on the east side of the Illinois Central railroad tracks two miles north of Onarga on Sunday morning.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

According to authorities, Mr. Davis had been in the habit of taking walks along the highways and railroad tracks for many years. Andrew Mayotte, Onarga County coroner, found no evidence of foul play and listed the death as resulting from natural causes.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Mr. Davis had suffered a partial stroke several months prior to June 28. His death had not been too good since that time. It is believed he succumbed during one of his walks.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Since his disappearance, the family had conducted an extensive search. Boy Scouts of Onarga took an entire week throughout the area for any trace of him.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

It is believed he became afflicted during one of his walks and tumbled into a ditch, which skinned his body from the view of passengers on trains during the evening hours.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Identification of the skeleton was made by checking a social security card found in a billfold. The card was protected by plastic.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Mr. Davis resided in Onarga the last eight years, having been in business for himself as an upholsterer. He came to Onarga from Omaha.

Christmas Means Decorated Homes

Surviving are daughters, Mrs. Marie Coussert of Joliet, Calif.; Mrs. Rita Price of Onarga, Ill.; and Mrs. Wilma Isaac of Indianapolis, Ind. sons, Marshall of Alton and Donald, who is in the armed forces in France; brothers, M. M. Davis of New Shawnetown and Les Davis of Onarga, Ill.; sisters, Mrs. Clara Williams of Onarga and Mrs. Jewell Wadd of Mount Vernon.

Top Greek Politician Awaits Ike

ATHENS (AP) — President Eisenhower's visit to Greece brings him into contact with one of the most successful politicians in modern Greek history.

Constantine Karamanlis has been prime minister for four years. That is a record which only the late Eleutherios Venizelos — 1929-32 — has equaled since the beginning of this century.

Three things have made it possible: Karamanlis' get-up-and-go, his good looks and his guts.

When Marshal Alexander Papagos died in October 1955, the government he headed had been in power three years and still had a year to go. His party, the right-wing Greek Rally, enjoyed a majority in Parliament, but it could not make up its mind on a successor to the marshal.

KING PAUL BROKE the deadlock by entrusting Karamanlis with the formation of a new government. As public works minister under Papagos, Karamanlis had earned the reputation of getting things done.

In February 1956 when the country elected a new Parliament, Karamanlis' good looks stood him in good stead. Now 51, he is tall, dark and handsome — and the best dressed man on the Greek political stage. He used his own picture as the symbol of the National Radical Union, the party he formed to run in the election. It was the first parliamentary election in which Greek women were allowed to vote. Karamanlis and his National Radical Union got a big majority.

A year later, two of his most dynamic lieutenants, Public Works Minister George Rallis and Coordination Minister Panayotis Paliouras, defected and won over a number of National Radical Union deputies. They contended new electoral legislation would strengthen the "leftists" ranks in Parliament.

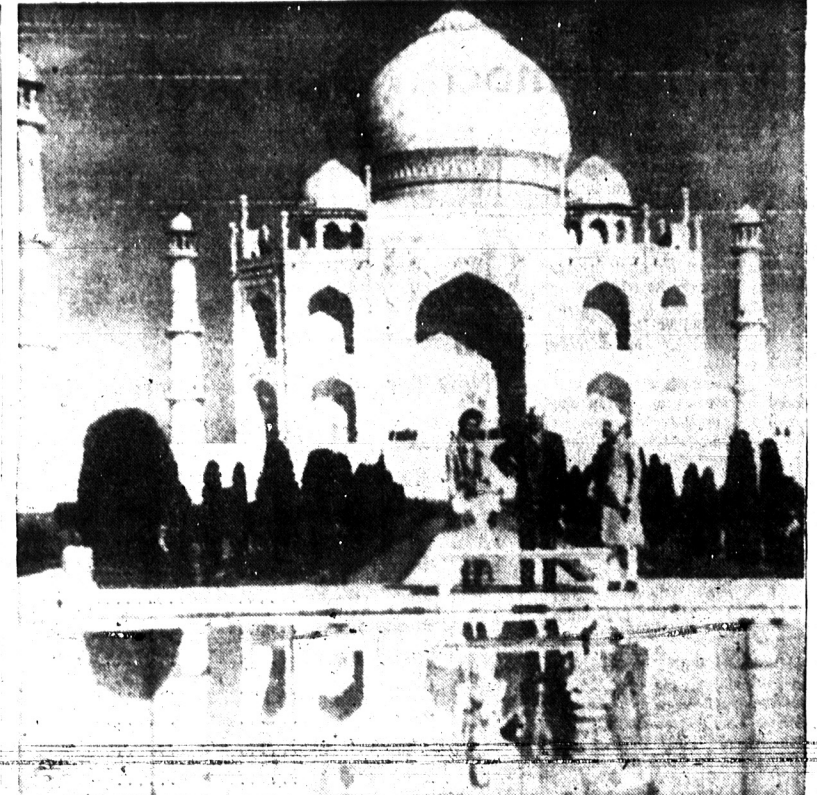

THE NATIONAL Radical Union's strength was reduced. It still held an absolute majority in Parliament but Karamanlis would have none of that. His resignation brought a new general election in May 1958.

His party was returned with a greater majority than ever. Everything seems to indicate that Karamanlis will serve the remaining 2½ years of his term undisturbed and most likely win the next election too.

In the four years he has been in power the thorny Cyprus question was solved, confidence in Greek money was fully restored, a five-year economic plan aimed at raising the standard of living was started, and new industries mushroomed.

Farm Day At Rotary Club

C. E. Alexander, director of sales for the Illinois Farm Supply Co., will speak at the Kankakee Rotary Club meeting in the Hotel Kankakee at noon Thursday.

A native of Tazewell County, Alexander spent 15 years in school administration work after graduating from Illinois State Normal University.

He joined the Illinois Farm Supply Co. in 1948 and served as district sales manager, state feed salesman and general sales manager before taking his present post.

The company is an affiliate of the Illinois Agricultural Association. It manufactures, processes and distributes farm products. Annual sales total $66 million.

Rotary Club officials have asked members to bring area farm products to the meeting at their guests.

Reds Counting On Subs To Isolate U.S. If War Comes

LONDON (UPI) — Russia apparently believes its unmatched submarine force could cut the Atlantic lifeline between Britain and the United States in any new war, it was reported today.

The 1960 edition of Jane's Fighting Ships, the standard naval reference, says the Russians seem to be confident they can prevent the Anglo-American navies from gaining control of the vital waters near Europe and Asia.

THE FLEET OF 500 submarines—including guided missile and atomic-powered underwater craft—could, in the Russian view, "wreck great havoc" on the 25 million tons of American and 20 million tons of British shipping, Jane's said.

"They will realize the vital importance of the positive control of the seas in the event of war," the book noted. "The Russian navy is a considerable increase in Russian naval activity on the high seas in the past year."

"Russian leaders have stated," wrote editor Raymond V. B. Blackman, "that in a future war the struggle at sea will be of immeasurably greater consequence than it was in the last war."

Tough Officer Uses Bible To Fight Crime

NEW YORK (AP)—A burly, high-ranking police officer, known in the city as "Bible," is a common sight at the offices of the man who supervises law enforcement today in one of the city's toughest neighborhoods.

Detective Inspector (Det.) S. Jensen does the job—not just with a strong arm—but with spiritual stimulation. The Bible is his hand book.

"It's the only real answer for any situation," he says.

Charter Member Addresses Grant Park Legion

GRANT PARK (JNS)—Ala. member of the Grant Park American Legion Tuesday evening in Legion Hall, John A. Borge, charter member of Grant Park Star Post 255, was the featured speaker.

Borge discussed his recent trip through Russia, Finland, Germany, France, Switzerland and other European countries.

"I try to discharge my duties first as a Christian, then as a policeman," he said.

When a person comes to the place that he realizes the word of God does have the answers to the problems of society, it is amazing what happens.

In Moscow, Borge met East Harlem with its Italian-Negro Irish-German-Puerto Rican population, and saw the concentration of youth gangs in the town, the high crime rate, and the decline of the city.

Jensen's office door is always open to any officer who wants to see him.

Jensen keeps a Bible on his desk. In discussions with upset families or worried teenagers, he often reads portions of verses, sometimes kneeling with them in prayer.

"I don't believe the answer is in new houses and new playgrounds, but in new people. They can be changed, and only the gospel can change them. The gospel of Christ can change anybody."

Christmas Music Events Set At Bradley, Reddick

Annual Christmas programs by music departments of Bradley and Reddick High Schools will be presented this week. The Bradley program Tuesday night and the Reddick event Thursday evening.

Two choruses, five ensembles, the hand and two soloists — all under the direction of Joseph Bradley, will present the Bradley program scheduled for 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

The girls' chorus will sing "Silent Night," "Lullaby of the Stars," and "What Child Is This?" The mixed chorus will present "Adeste Fideles," "Jingle Bells," and "Sing We Now of the Nativity." The hand and two soloists will perform "Canticum," "Two Trumpets Tunes," "Joy to the World," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and two Christmas carols.

A brass choir composed of 15 students will present "First Noel," "I Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," and "Silent Night." A choral group of 14 voices will sing "The Night Before Christmas" and "The Christmas Song."

Selections and novelty numbers will be presented by a girls' sextet, a soprano trio, and an instrumental group known as "The Hungry Five." In the latter group are Gerald Anderson, Ken English, Jack English, Jerry Skalky Jr. and Ken Skalky. The instrumental group, including Ken Skalky Jr. and Ken Skalky, will be shown followed by vocal singing, skits, talent show, recitations, and refreshments.

At Reddick the Christmas program is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Per Cent Of Chickens Safe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department assured housewives Saturday that 99 per cent of the nation's chickens are safe to eat.

The statement was issued after an announcement Friday by Dr. T. S. Fleming, secretary of health, education and welfare, that the poultry industry voluntarily was removing from the market immediately any chickens found to be contaminated.

The hormone is streptolysin, which has been used by poultry farmers to produce higher egg production with more white meat.

The chemical was used only on caponettes, officials said. Regular broiler and fryer chickens, raising birds and chickens are free of contamination.
