Deny Probe Of RFE Poison Plot

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Chiefs of Radio Free Europe continued to insist today that U. S. and West German authorities are investigating an alleged Red attempt to poison the anti-Communist station's employees in Munich.

This was in direct conflict with statements by the U. S. Army's southern command at Munich, the Bavarian Ministry of Interior, the Justice Ministry, Political and Criminal Police, and State Security.

ALL DENIED THAT a poison attempt had been reported to them or that an investigation was under way.

Erik Haffner of Mount Kisco, N. Y., European director of RFE, said he had notified authorities after being tipped off that poison had been put in salt shakers at the station's cafeteria Nov. 21. He said U. S. Army medical specialists examined the shakers and found lethal doses of a derivative of the deadly nightshade plant.

Haffner charged that the alleged poisoning plot was planned by a Communist diplomat stationed in West Europe but declined to identify him. He said none of the 1,200 employees of the American-financed private station were poisoned but that he closed the cafeteria as a precautionary step. The cafeteria reopened today.

Say Book Caused Touhy's Assassination

By JOURNAL WIRE SERVICES
CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—(JNS)—A Chicago police officer said today that the book "The Man Who Shot Roger Touhy" caused the assassination of the Chicago politician.

Maloney never had met Roger Touhy until those days in 1933 when Touhy, the prohibition beer-baron who boasted he could get anyone any amount any place, went on trial for kidnaping John (Jack the Barber) Factor.

This was in direct conflict with statements by the U. S. Army's southern command at Munich, the Bavarian Ministry of Interior, the Justice Ministry, Political and Criminal Police, and State Security.

ALL DENIED THAT a poison attempt had been reported to them or that an investigation was under way.

125 Attend Silver Anniversary Party For Cabery Pair

CABERY (JNS)—The Kempton Grade School was the scene of an open house honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Cabery on Sunday afternoon.

More than 125 persons were present. Decorations were in keeping with the silver anniversary theme.

The four-tiered cake was a gift from Miss Carrie-Marie Kierce of St. Ann. After the couple cut the first piece of cake, it was served to the guests by Mrs. Edna Holmes and Mrs. Mary Edson. The guests were given by Mrs. Bruce Boyer.

Guests present from Cheshire, Mich.: St. Ann, Kankakee, Bradley, Peoria, Warsaw, Bloomington, Forest, Pontiac, Reddick, Kempton and Cabery.

The committee in charge included: Mesdames Vernon Walcott, Richard Hawley, Edson, Theodore Raab, Raymond Neth, Orman Olson, Roy Clapp, Clifford Clapp, Henry Canham, Richard Canham, out of Norfolk, Va., is home on leave.

Two weeks leave visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McKnight.

VETERAN REPORTER Ray Brennan of Chicago Sun-Times, is on verge of tears as he was interviewed in Chicago Wednesday night after Roger Touhy was slain in a typical gangster style. Brennan helped Touhy write book and check. (JNS)

THE MAN WHO collaborated with Roger Touhy on the ex-mobster's memoirs also bitterly blamed himself—and the book—for Touhy's assassination last night.

"I wish I hadn't written the stinking book," Ray Brennan sobbed in an office just across the hospital corridor from where Touhy's body lay.

Brennan is a reporter for the Chicago Sun-Times. His specialty has been the police beat.

Brennan and a publisher's representative, Richard Brown, were among the "best by" see Touhy alive. They discussed the book informally over cocktails at the Chicago Press Club early Wednesday night.

Brennan went down together in the street level in Michigan Boulevard. Brennan and Brown had Touhy and his companion, Walter Miller, got by.

Less than two hours later, Touhy was dead and Miller seriously wounded in an ambush on his way to a quiet street.

Yule Events At Northside Branch YM

The holiday season will find a wide variety of events scheduled for the Northside Branch of the Kankakee YMCA beginning Saturday and running through the first of the new year.

The annual Christmas tree party sponsored by the Mothers Club will be from noon to 2 p.m. Saturday in the branch. The program will feature the reading of the St. Luke version of the nativity story, movies, games and presentation of Christmas favors. The event is open to any children in the community.

Console Size Reactor

Atomic Energy Director John A. McCone displays a model of what is believed to be the world's smallest atomic power reactor, the size of a five-gallon can, for the American Rocket Society in Washington. It is called the "Snail II," weighs 220 pounds, contains 4 pounds of uranium 235, could keep half a ton of water boiling for years. "Use of such a device," said McCone, "would make possible long-lived weather satellites, world-wide television communications... interplanetary travel."

Tells Rotary Man Needs Sense Of Direction

The businessman asks himself whether he should build an inventory or take it down. The stock market or real estate market? He needs a sense of direction. The director of the branch, Miss Elaine Stubblefield, chairman, said she needs a sense of direction. On Dec. 22 the Junior Tri-Hi-Y club will sponsor a semi-formal ball for junior high school students. It will be at the branch from 8 to 11 p.m.

FIRST ANNUAL teenage year-end ball will be sponsored by the Mothers Club on Dec. 20. To be held at Franklin School it will include a program with a cabaret effect. Music for dancing from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. will be provided by a vocal group. Ticket price is $2.00. Refreshments will be served in advance of the dance that night.

Mrs. William J. Stevens, 57, Dies In Florida

Mrs. William J. Stevens, 57-year-old former Kankakee resident, died Wednesday in Ocala, Fla., according to word received here. In Kankakee she was a nurse at St. Mary's Hospital for about 18 years. She was a member of the church and the Mothers Club. She was married to Mr. William J. Stevens, a brother, Arthur Sanders of Kankakee, and an aunt, Miss Martha Beckman of Kankakee.

Yule Pageant Sunday In First Presbyterian

Annual Christmas pageant of the First Presbyterian Church will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday in the sanctuary featuring the three choirs—junior, youth and senior—and the children of the church school.

Initial part of the pageant will include still scenes depicting the Christmas story with members of the church school as actors. While the scenes are being presented, children in the preschool, primary and junior departments of the church school and the youth group will present appropriate music; choral readers from the church school will present selections. Diane Smith will give a reading and Gerald Anderson will present a vocal solo.

Second part of the pageant will feature the junior, youth and senior choirs, all directed by Fred Donald Murray. Selections by the three groups will feature some of the little-known Christmas carols.

The pageant is being directed by Mrs. Douglas Shepherd and Mrs. Wesley Walker.

Auxiliary Has Party For Veterans At MSH

The Illinois American Legion Auxiliary held a party for 151 veterans who are patients at Manteno State Hospital Tuesday. In addition, they served 86 lunches to hospitalized veterans unable to attend the party.

The party followed the legion-sponsored "Gift to the Yanks Who Gave" program Monday.

The program enabled each veteran to select either a white shirt and tie, sweater, zipper jacket, sport shirt and socks or billfold. Members of Manteno post provided candy, cigars and chewing tobacco for veterans who couldn't use the other gifts available. Cigarettes were distributed to all veterans.

there-in-for me attitude characteristic of much of youth today. That and the fact that the average recruit has never used his muscles and his mind extensively. Many are emotional, immature and unstable.

Despite all the defects, however, there is general agreement in the service that the quality of the recruits received has improved considerably in the last two years. Properly led and properly prepared, they can do anything, one training officer believes. There may be a lesson in that for civilians. Give these young men something worth while to do, train them and lead them and watch for results.

The Expansion Of Empire

Religious Issue Widely Discussed

The first thing I'm going to do is pay off my debts, I've been getting congratulatory telegrams from all my creditors.—ROY MAAS of Remsen, Iowa, whose grand champion steer was sold for $22,356 at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago.

The great empires of the past faced not only land impediments but the frightening task of crossing oceans in which they could be defeated as well by swifter navies as by wind and weather. The great Spanish empire was destroyed when the invincible Spanish Armada was broken off the Hebrides; Napoleon was as much damaged by Trafalgar as by the march on Moscow.

Russia has been building a empire in all directions until the grand spreading outward from Kiev in all directions until the grand duchy of Moscow became the center of the largest land mass in the world under the power of the Bolsheviks who conquered by propaganda
the Bolsheviks who conquered by propaganda
the Bolsheviks who conquered by propaganda

The Mongols swept over southern and central Russia between 1237 and 1240 when they took control of the land. When the Mongols receded, they left a vast series of European and Asia into which the new Russian principalities grew. It was from these principalities that the various principalities which had grown up under the Tatars.

In 1480, the title of czar (caesar) and in 1490 ridged him Moscow and the Tatar yoke. He also added to Russia White Russia and other border areas which are even today partly Russian territory.

IVAN THE TERRIBLE (1533 to 1564) set out to conquer his surrounding areas. He took Kazan and Astrakhan which gave him full control of the entire Volga River. He then turned westward to Poland where he (Ivan IV) named settled east of the Ural. Years later, his sons and his cohorts began the conquest of Siberia. So the snowbound wastes of Siberia were added to the empire. Ivan IV's empire reached its height in 1582 when it included all of Europe and in many areas there was no real resistance or impediment. It was conquest by attrition.

Ivan IV died in 1584 and his son, Tsar Feodor I, continued the process of expansion which has been continuous for about 1,000 years, is clearly evident to this day. From the standpoint of movement principles, outward and inward movements have ceased, of movement principles outward and eastward never cease. The Russians reached the Pacific in 1683 which meant that the Russians had crossed the continent of Asia.

In 1683 the Russians took from the Turks, the Southern Uralians. This brought Russia into contact with the Asiatic Continent.

The Russian Empire has been the result of a long period of imperialistic efforts which during World War II resulted in the conquest of all Balkan states by Soviet Russia. Only after the war did the Russians begin to retreat. In Greece and Turkey, sometimes regarded as Balkan area, have become Russian points in the containment of Russia.

cluding the various partitions of Poland, the acquisition of territories in Europe, the Russian development in Manchuria and Mongolia, the movement into northern Persia, etc. It has been, going back to the beginning of the world, a constantly rolling ball, farther and farther, stopped only during recent decades by fear of war in the United States.

Since the proclamation of the Truman Doctrine of containment, Soviet Russia has made no further territorial advances, but China is on the move. In a word, while Russia stopped in its tracks the Soviet Universal State grows.

Plastic Surgery

Plastic surgery may help hide the ravages of a few years, but it can't perform miracles.

As one noted plastic surgeon told a recent meeting of the International College of Surgeons in Chicago:

Plastic surgery of the face can turn back the clock, but can't stop it."

Nor is everyone a candidate for plastic surgery.

People with high blood pressure, heart disease and certain are a happy and rewarding experience for the patient."

Most persons, he says, will look good years later. And, he says they always will look younger than they have now.

Here Is What They Say

Perhaps the British tradition of not speaking to strangers when traveling has advantages after all, as the closed mouth does seem to lessen the risk of spread of infection.—Dr. L. G. NORMAN of England.

The wolf was not only at my door—I was living with him. And he almost threw me out.—ATRESSA PATSY KELLY, on why she is returning to movie-making after 18-year absence.

The cooperative use of plowshares by the free world today may save us from having to forge them into swords tomorrow.—THOMAS H. ROBERTS SR., president of DeKalb Agricultural Association, urging America to export agricultural know-how.

The first thing I'm going to do is pay off my debts. I've been getting congratulatory telegrams from all my creditors.—ROY MAAS of Remsen, Iowa, whose grand champion steer was sold for $22,356 at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago.

In Crescent City: It's In The Bag

Ike Reviews Fleet, Says He Feels Fine

[illegible]

A FEW OF THE newsmen traveling with Eisenhower on his 22,000-mile goodwill tour were transferred by helicopter to the Des Moines from the escorting carrier Essex.

The President reviewed the 6th Fleet ships, headed by the guided missile cruiser Boston, from a starboard deck of the Des Moines just above the captain's quarters.

A brisk wind churned up whitecaps and the wind was trying to blow the President overboard. The Boston, 10 destroyers and the huge 1,066-foot-long Saratoga steamed east. Bluejackets manned the rails of all the ships sharply.

The Des Moines had struck up the Star Spangled Banner as the Boston went by a few hundred yards to starboard.

Weekend Good Time To Complete Coloring

It is Christmas vacation time, and that means Christmas coloring time for youngsters through 10 years old. The younger set have all weekend to color their three drawings and still get them into the Journal before 3 p.m. Monday. The sketches appeared in the Journal Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Contestants enter for a $25 cash prize; $10 cash—second prize; $5 cash—third prize; and seven $1 honorable mention awards.

Coloring the sketches is easy. Only crayons, paints, colored pencils or chalk may be used. Judging will be based strictly on coloring of the sketches on the basis of beauty, imagination, coloring, neatness and originality. Sketches should be unmounted. Rules for the contest are found on each of the sketches.

repeated waves of his hat as he stood in the car. Cheers rippled along the streets.

The station was brightly decorated in red, white and blue, and the platform was jammed with happy holiday shoppers.

Although Eisenhower technically was on French soil, he hardly touched ground because of the red carpets that covered the station floors.

The president stood on the steps of the gleaming 10-car special train for a few minutes waving, and then went back to the train. He was accompanied by the other leaders of the North Atlantic alliance waving Eisenhower in Paris looked to him to do something about the situation in the Korean peninsula.

Charles de Gaulle's newly reformed staff Sunday after putting French military forces under the command of the NATO command. But there was considerable doubt in Paris that even the U.S. president's much vaunted powers of persuasion would make much headway with the strong-willed Frenchman.

France is the ninth nation the President is visiting on his European tour, which has drawn enthusiastic support for his theme of peace with freedom at every stop. Six million persons have turned out to cheer him.

Now comes the work of the summit meeting—on Saturday through Monday of Eisenhower.

De Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer are expected to meet and shape up their approach to the coming Paris summit conference. Nikita Khrushchev on issues ranging from Berlin to nuclear disarmament.

attorney, blamed the Touhy slaying on the Mafia.

"This killing fits into the Mafia pattern of keeping members' lips sealed," Touhy said. "They must have talked, at one time or another. They killed him to impress other members that to matter how long it takes, they will seal your lips with death if you talk."

Richard B. Ogilvie, assistant U.S. attorney general on a special assignment to investigate the slaying, said he believed the slaying was the work of organized mobsters.

Police Commissioner Timothy J. O'Connor said police would reach "no snap judgments" in their search for Touhy's killers. They said that Touhy, in his many years in prison associated with "some pretty tough monkeys" and that his prison life might have provided the motive for his slaying.

"I don't think there's anything 'Touhy did in the last 23 days' that could have brought this on," O'Connor said.

Police worked on one clue uncovered Thursday. It was looked upon as the most promising lead that has turned up since Touhy's slaying.

Police said that Harry Zinn, 70, a retired rabbi, told them he surprised a stranger about 10 days ago in the passageway of his building across the street from the slaying scene. He said the man pushed him aside and fled. Zinn said the intruder had pushed an old refrigerator away from a front window in the basement, and wiped the window clean with a rag. He told Detective Hoover, he served 6 years of a Richard Aldworth the man apparently maintained a lookout post there for some time. He said whiskey warehouse receipt deal.

Why Do We Celebrate Christmas?

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

"Why do we celebrate Christmas?" Children are apt to ask that question at this time of the year. Parents who feel ill-equipped for theological discussion may stall for a while by answering that Christmas is the birthday of Jesus Christ. But young minds are relentlessly curious. They soon want to know who was Jesus Christ? And why is his birthday special?

At this point, parents may be compelled to come to grips with the least understood and most difficult article in the Christian creed.

Theologians call it the dogma of the Incarnation. It is an attempt to express in words a breathtaking conviction that was born in the first Christian disciples as they sought to explain what they had seen and heard and felt and experienced in the presence of Jesus.

The disciples knew that Jesus was a human being—a man who got tired and hungry like other men, who shared fully in the temptations, limitations and sufferings of ordinary existence. The warmth of his humanity shines so clearly through the New Testament accounts of his life that it is drawn to love and respect him simply as the wisest and best of men.

But the disciples were driven to the belief that there were more than manhood in Jesus. And driven is the right word. The first incarnate in a human life that began in a stable and ended on a cross?

A noted modern scholar, Prof. John Knox of Union Theological Seminary, says the claim was an inevitable outgrowth of the unanimous experience of the primitive Christian community.

The story of the Incarnation, he says, is "an effort to represent the meaning of a salvation which had actually been bestowed and received in the fellowship men had with Jesus."

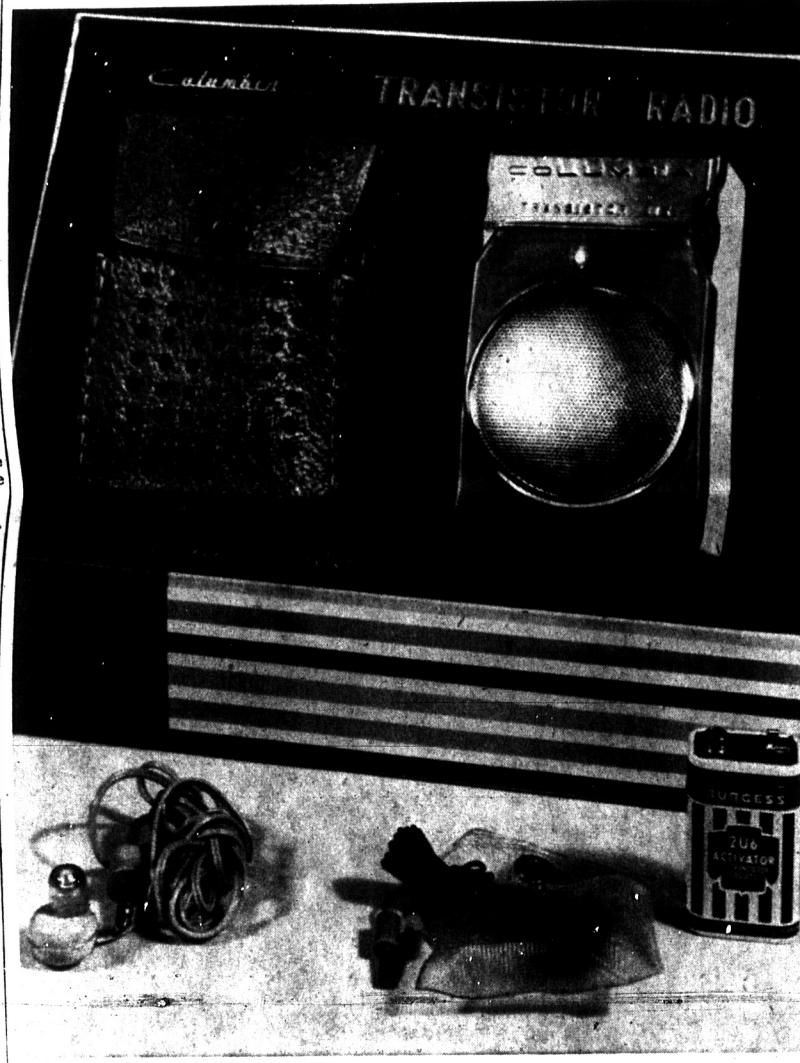

"For men in very truth found God in him. When he said 'thy sins are forgiven thee,' the sinners knew he was in fact forgiven, and the faith, and the faith rests firm that the hold of his enemy was broken. And men and women found in Jesus—and find there whose lives had been empty and still."

Mother Seton Is Proclaimed 'Venerable'

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Mother Seton, who is expected to become the first U. S. - born saint of the Roman Catholic Church, today was proclaimed "venerable" in Vatican ceremonies attended by Pope John XXIII.

The proclamation, announcing she is worthy of veneration by Roman Catholics, was a preliminary step to beatification, which places one among the church's blessed.

Beatification is frequently—but not always—followed by canonization or elevation to sainthood, the highest honor of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pope John has taken a personal interest in Mother Seton's cause, a factor supporting the belief she will be canonized.

MOTHER SETON was born Elizabeth Ann Seton in New York Aug. 26, 1774. A convert to Catholicism, she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph in America, who adopted the rule of the European order of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

She died in Emmitsburg, Md., Jan. 4, 1821.

Today's ceremony came one year to the day after the cause for her beatification was officially proposed.

Attending the ceremony were nine cardinals, including the two new U. S. cardinals, Albert Gregory Meyer and Abbot Muench, elevated to the purple in ceremonies of the past week. Cardinal Meyer is the Archbishop of Chicago. Cardinal Muench has been bishop of Fargo, N.D., until Nov. 1.

F. A. C. S. Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, also was present. So were 48-American bishops and the 268 students of the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

Bourbonnais To Issue Dog Licenses Saturday

Bourbonnais residents will be able to buy dog licenses Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon in the village hall. It will be the first time in several years the village has issued dog licenses.

The village board recently revised its dog ordinance and voted to enforce its license law to meet the expenses of maintaining its dog pound.

Fee is $2 for all dogs, male or female. Under the revised ordinance, which goes into effect Jan. 1, dogs will be permitted to run at large only when muzzled and have a dog tag. Otherwise they will be impounded.

The village constructed a pound last fall for housing dogs picked up in the village. The village does not pick up dogs outside the village limits.

Leon Blanchette, village clerk, will sell the licenses from 10 a.m. to noon both Saturday and Dec. 26.

Differences In Indexes Baffle Many

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale commodity prices—as measured by some government and private indexes—have been falling. But the cost of maintaining your standard of living—as measured by official figures—has risen to new highs.

This seeming paradox confuses many who ask: How come?

Part of the answer is in the nature of the various indexes themselves—how they are made up and what they are expected to tell.

THE DAILY wholesale commodity price index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics is near a 10-year low, well below the base 1957-58 average. It covers 22 items regularly sold in commodity markets and susceptible to frequent price changes due to the many current currents of trade.

The Associated Press daily index of 38 commodities also is trailing six points below its 1959 high and is now the lowest since May 1950. Not all the commodities are selling at their low point for the year, by any means. But big drops in individual goods for reasons peculiar to themselves bring the index down.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics also has a monthly index covering close to 2,000 items. This one is slightly above its year ago mark.

In the AP commodity index the livestock and grain components are at their lows for the year. Foods hit their low point in April and then rose, but have been weak of late, especially butter.

INDUSTRIAL RAW materials hit their high for the year in October, but have been dropping since.

The consumer price index of BLS, popularly known as the cost-of-living index, is the one to which many workers' pay scales are tied. It has gone to a record. Price of raw materials have played little part in setting the new high.

For one thing, it takes a time for changes in the cost of materials to work through the channels of production. More important is that the cost of living now is made up of many things carrying increasing weight in recent years.

One is the labor cost of turning scrap steel, say, into steel ingots, and then into processed steel for autos, and finally into cars on the dealer's floor.

But even more potent is the rise of other items in the cost-of-living index. Services steadily become more expensive and make up an ever increasing share of expenditures.

What production of raw material price changes, other than food, is reflected in the final cost of living index probably not even the slide rule boys in Washington could say.

Gas In Waterline Project Kills 4 Men

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Four men were killed and two injured after deadly fumes exploded and caught fire in a tunnel excavation for a waterline Thursday night.

Some kind of deadly gas spread through the tunnel and killed three of the workmen. A fourth died today of burns from the explosion.

One other workman was critically burned by the blast and another was overcome by fumes. The blast sent 15-foot columns of fire out of open manholes spaced along a two-mile construction area.

JOE E. SNOW, 35, and Allen R. Holmes, 39, were working in an open manhole. Holmes told police he lit a cigarette. A tremendous explosion followed. Holmes and Snow leaped out of the manhole, his arms and chest charred. He donned the flames in a puddle, then jumped back into the hole and rescued Holmes. They were taken to a hospital in critical condition.

About three blocks from where Holmes and Snow were rescued, searchers found three bodies in the tunnel.

Firemen said all three died of asphyxiation.

The men were employed by Macco Construction Corp. A company spokesman said deadly methane gas had formed in the excavation from the decomposition of organic material.

Morocco Firm Sponsors Party

Church Council To Interview Pastor Nominee

A church council formed of the ordained ministers and deacons of the Three River Baptist Association has been called to interview a pastor nominee at St. Mary's Hospital.

Police said the injured drivers were Charles W. Wertz, 43, of 1385 E. Emory St., who was heading north, and Elsie Trout, 44, of 881 S. Elm Ave., who was going east.

Thomas J. Nelson, 2641 Washington Rd., notified police that another car struck his auto while it was parked on Merchant street near East Junior High School Thursday.

The driver of the other car left the scene without reporting the accident, Nelson said. The left front door of his car was caved in.

New officers were also elected. They were Kenneth Biedarra, president; Donald McFarland, vice president; and Marine Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

2 Slightly Hurt As Cars Collide

Two drivers were slightly injured in a collision at Lincoln Ave. and Duane Blvd. today but both were released after examination at St. Mary's Hospital.

Lutheran Men's Group Adopts New Name

The men of the church was the new name adopted by the men's organization of Trinity Lutheran Church at a regular meeting Thursday evening.

The group was formerly known as the Brotherhood.

The name change had been recommended as part of a merger taking place between the United Evangelical Lutheran Church, Evangelical Lutheran Church and American Lutheran Church.

The merger of the three synods is to be completed next year forming The American Lutheran Church.

New officers were also elected. They were Kenneth Biedarra, president; Donald McFarland, vice president; and Marine Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

Power Failure Darkens Part Of City Thursday

Hundreds of homes were plunged into darkness by an electrical power failure in Kankakee Thursday evening.

The Public Service Co. said 2,500 customers were affected.

The power failure also silenced radio station WKAN, touched off some burglar alarms and cut off traffic signals at the Court St. Bell Route intersection.

The interruption in electrical service ranged from 45 minutes to an hour and 40 minutes.

It was caused by a fault in the system which "blew out" a feed from the Hobbie avenue distribution system, according to Mel Taylor, the utility's district superintendent.

"IT WAS JUST LIKE A fuse going out," he said.

In general, the area affected was east of Hobbie avenue and north of Court street although it also included Hillcrest and portions of Waldron road.

To find the cause of the trouble, Taylor said repairmen had to open up sections on poles one at a time. That's why some lights blinked on and off.

The cause of the failure was finally pinned down on Hunter Ave., near Chestnut St. in an underground installation. It was located, he said, the power failure occurred while it was relatively warm so there was little discomfort caused by electrically operated heating systems.

Taylor gained customers for their patience while the company worked to restore power.

By using alternate distribution routes, power was restored in the area south of Court street and along Waldron road at 7 p.m. 45 minutes after the failure.

Service was restored in Marycrest, Hillcrest and along Grinnell road and to WKAN at 7:45 p.m. Remaining areas were restored five minutes later.

Scores of people called the Public Service Co. police, fire and sheriff's offices to ascertain the cause of the trouble.

Momence Odd Fellows Hold Officers Election

MOMENCE (JNS)—Officers of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows were elected at a meeting Monday night.

Chosen noble grand was W. E. Baskford, William Dobbs, secretary; LeRoy Butler, treasurer; and Glenn Hess, financial secretary.

Trustees for the coming year are Lee Rice, Gene Hess, Charles Toddard Jr., Paul Engel and Arthur Hansen. Officers will be installed in January.

The meeting was called to order by Noble Grand Turrell. Eighteen were present from the Momence lodge, two from Kankakee, one from Bradley and four from Shelby, Ind.

The charter was draped in memory of Herman Siebert, who died in Grant Park. A letter of condolence was ordered read by David Clifton on the death of his mother.

Glenn Hess announced the Royal Knights of Jerico will meet in Shelby, Ind., on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. This will be degree night. An election of officers will be held.

The meeting was turned over to the degree captain, Milton Sherwood, and the first degree was conferred on a candidate from Shelby, Ind.

Following the business session lunch was served by Glenn Hess, Calvin Zehart and Dewey Lin.

The next regular meeting will be on Dec. 28.

Postmaster Ray Smith urges mailmen to use air mail for Christmas cards and gifts being sent to distant out of town places. This will make it more certain they will arrive before Christmas.

The Order of Eastern Star will meet at the Masonic Temple Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. to go caroling for the shut-ins.

WILMINGTON (JNS)—The December meeting of the Wilmington-Lorenzo Parent Teaching Association was held in the high school gymnasium on Monday night.

Mrs. Frank Goodwin gave a report on the recent book fair. Lester J. Stevens, superintendent of District 209-Wilmington-Lorenzo schools, gave a report on the open house attendance.

More than 600 parents attended the regular sessions of school and observed teaching methods. Stevens also expressed appreciation to all members for their work in the recent school referendum.

Allergic To Christmas Trees

Orville Heinrichs, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Heinrichs, rural Orange, and a junior at Cissna Park High School, has his reservations when it comes to Christmas trees. He has been allergic to them since he was an infant, the allergy being determined during the Christmas season when he was 4 years old. For Heinrichs to develop a cough and skin irritation, according to his parents, the very presence of an evergreen tree, which he can smell immediately, is enough. He doesn't have to touch it. There hasn't been a real Christmas tree in the Heinrichs home in 12 years and the artificial one he is shown decorating has been used the last 10 years. Just what causes his allergy to evergreens has not been determined by physicians. (Journal photo)

IEA Schedules Parley Dec. 28-30

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — More than 700 delegates of the Illinois Education Association representing 120,000 teachers will meet in Chicago Dec. 28-30 for the organization's annual meeting.

Study Link Between Unsolved Mafia Murders, Touhy Slaying

CHICAGO (UPI)—The execution of Prohibition era beer baron Roger Touhy focused attention today on unsolved gangland slayings, many believed the work of the Mafia.

The year 1939 saw the total of gang killings in the Chicago area alone rise to more than 900 since the days of the late Al Capone. Only 17 of these murders resulted in convictions.

In recent years several top echelon members of the Black Hand (Mafia) organization were believed rubbed out by gangsters seeking advancement in the racket.

ONE WAS ALBERT Anastasi, who was shot to death while sitting in a hotel barber shop in New York. Anastasi at one time was reported to be the lord high executioner of Murder, Inc., an organization that specialized in gangland killings.

Another was Anthony (Little Augie) Pessano who was shot to death on a city street in New York while riding in his limousine. Killed with him was Janice Drake, wife of comedian Alan Drake.

The slayings are believed by New York police to be the work of the Mafia. None has been solved.

Both men had long police records and were believed to rank high in the Mafia, a secret Sicilian organization believed to control every major racket in the United States.

Other recent killings include Joseph Bronge, 55, a Chicago beer distributor who was ambushed in his suburban beer warehouse. He allegedly had been resisting syndicate encroachment on his beer business.

RACKETEER MUSCLEMAN Joseph (Angie) De Marco, 41, of Boston was found shot to death in a suburban Everett, Mass., dump grounds.

ONARCA (JNS)—Mrs. Faye Jimison has been elected president of the Harmony Class of the Onarga Presbyterian Church.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year are Mrs. Willis Cane, vice president, and Mrs. Roger Cook, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. John Wilcox, retiring president, received a gift. The election of officers was held during the business meeting at the class party Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Cane.

Mrs. Arthur Danforth and Mrs. Edwin Henderson were Christmas guests.

Face Charges For Insulting Santa

PONTIAC, Mich. (UPI)—Two construction workers will be tried Jan. 5 on charges of calling Santa Claus a dirty name.

Herbert Holdworth and James K. Dunn were arrested after 7-year-old Kenny Green told his mother he heard them saying bad things about Santa. The men pleaded innocent to charges of using obscene language.

15 Crewmen Saved After Vessel Sinks

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The freighter was sinking fast. Radio operator Audrey Corbett sent a last-minute SOS.

The distress call was heard in San Francisco. Then silence.

A section of the ship's hold had been flooded.

Fifteen crewmen of the Guam Pioneer scurried into two lifeboats and rowed desperately to escape the sinking ship's deadly whirlpool.

They watched the 3,500-ton freighter, laden with scrap iron, slip under the water. They were about 340 miles southwest of Los Angeles.

THE CREW, including Americans, Cubans, Greeks and Spaniards, drifted in lifeboats for eight hours.

A heavy fog hung low, but two flying Coast Guard planes pierced the mist and sighted the lifeboats.

Another Navy vessel, the USS Pickett, took the seamen aboard for the long trip back to San Francisco.

A spokesman for the ship's agent, Transmarine Navigation Co., said the rescue was "a miracle."

Aboard the freighter were Capt. Mahlon Bone and three other officers. Capt. Harry Drew, one of the ship's owners, Hubert McCall of Honolulu, chief engineer, and Corbett, believed to be from Texas.

Eight thousand year old rock paintings found in the Sahara Desert indicate that the now barren wasteland was once the home of elephants, giraffes and antelope.

Plane Carrying 75 Lands Safely

DETROIT (AP) — An Eastern Airlines four-engine jet prop plane with 75 persons aboard circled over Lake Erie for half an hour in dumping its fuel before making a safe landing at Willow Run Airport Thursday night.

The plane's wing flaps failed to retract shortly after it took off as flight No. 737 for Miami. Flap No. one was injured.

Ground crews repaired the wing flap trouble, the plane was refueled and it took off again at midnight on the less-than-three-hour flight to Miami.

The dire expert who claims to be the world's walkingest woman, crossed the Scottish border at midnight. Twelve hours later she was still grimly plodding through the Northumberland countryside.

Diet Expert Hits 78-Mile Mark In 373-Mile Trip

LONDON (AP) — Bucking rain and headwinds, Dr. Barbara Moore, 56, passed the 78-mile mark today in her attempt to trudge the 373 miles from Edinburgh to London without sleep.

Troop 302 Has Christmas Party

Boy Scout troop 302 of the First Methodist Church was entertained at a Christmas party Thursday evening at the church.

Bennie Lazara, 51, a wealthy Tampa, Fla., produce dealer was shotgunned to death last March in what police believe was a case of mistaken identity. Police said the slaying was the work of a professional who apparently killed the wrong man.

Melvin L. Mennen, an alleged gang member with a police record in 11 states, was killed outside his Kansas City Kan. home last Tuesday by two blasts from a 12-gauge shotgun.

None of the killings has been solved.

ONARCA (JNS)—Mrs. Faye Jimison has been elected president of the Harmony Class of the Onarga Presbyterian Church.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year are Mrs. Willis Cane, vice president, and Mrs. Roger Cook, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. John Wilcox, retiring president, received a gift. The election of officers was held during the business meeting at the class party Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Cane.

Stratton Tosses Hat In Gubernatorial Ring

MORRIS (UPI)—Gov. Stratton announced to a cheering home-town crowd of Republicans Thursday night he will run in 1960 for an unprecedented third term.

"I sincerely want to continue in this high office because of the challenges it affords for continued service," he said. The declaration was greeted with a standing ovation from the sign-waving crowd.

The governor's half-hour speech was delivered in this northern Illinois community's Center School gymnasium, jammed by about 1,500 persons. He told the audience "I believe honestly I have the support of the people of Illinois in this decision."

NO MAN HAS EVER been governor of Illinois three times in a row. Three tried and failed. Richard J. Oglesby, in the 1880s, was elected for three terms, but not in succession.

Stratton promised his forthcoming campaign would leave "no area untouched and no possibility of support unexplored."

Stratton is the first Republican to declare for the governor's race. State Sen. Hayes Robertson (Pleasanton) is rumored ready to oppose Stratton and reports have it he might announce next week.

Stratton, 45, elected governor in 1952 and 1956, said "I feel that in vigor and youth, combined with an unusual amount of experience, are great assets in meeting the exciting demands of the office of governor."

Guests on the speaker's platform included the other state GOP officers, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman, Atty. Gen. Greunville Beardsley and Auditor Elbert S. Smith, all announced 1960 candidates, except Smith who is expected to declare today.

PARTY LEADERS, legislators and local dignitaries also were present, as was Chicago attorney Samuel W. Witwer, center of troubles that have beset the state GOP.

Stratton tagged Witwer as his choice for the U.S. Senate nomination. That drew criticism from other Republicans and bitter words from Carpenter, who charged Stratton was playing a "don hand."

Stratton's speech, televised and broadcast, lauded his own administration. That drew criticism from other Republicans and bitter words from Carpenter, who charged Stratton was playing a "don hand."

Stratton also took a swipe at Democrats and it was obviously aimed specifically at the Cook County organization of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, reported considering running for governor himself.

Wichert Church Circle Features Special Program

ST. ANNE (JNS)—A special Christmas program was presented at the Friendship Circle of the Wichert Reformed Church on Tuesday evening.

The meeting opened with group singing. Thirty-six members responded to the roll call, using the key word "Joy." Mrs. Nell Viles read the minutes and correspondents.

A program, "The Word Made Flesh," by Martha Lutz, was presented by Mrs. Claude Koster, Mrs. James Van Rookel, Mrs. Harry Osterhoff Jr., Mrs. Elwood Tallman and Mrs. Lebert Mercer.

Mrs. Van Rookel gave an illustrated reading, "The Legend of the Black Madonna," by M. Applebaugh.

A play, "Once a Year," was presented by Mrs. Osterhoff, Mrs. Tallman and Mrs. Mercer. Special music included a vocal solo by Mrs. Koster and a duet by Mrs. Van Rookel and Mrs. Koster. Mrs. Leroy Pitts read the benediction.

Democrats To Meet Jan. 22 To Discuss Campaign Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee will meet here Jan. 22 to discuss 1960 national convention and campaign plans.

While the meeting's agenda has yet to be decided, several state leaders have indicated they will fight National Chairman Paul M. Butler's proposal to penalize states behind in their campaign donations.

Some committee members also have spoken up in favor of the Butler proposal which would force states to meet certain deadlines for raising money to pay off a huge deficit from the 1956 campaign.

ANOTHER SCRAP that may materialize at the Jan. 22 meeting is a proposal which Illinois Committee member Jacob M. Arvey has promised to put forward which would give the larger states greater voice in National Committee decisions.

Arvey would give each state the same number of votes in the national convention instead of the traditional two votes each. On the basis of the 1960 convention vote apportionment, this would give New York 114 votes and Illinois 69 votes, with only 9 each for Vermont and Hawaii. All these states now have an even voice in the committee.

Committee officials see little chance of the Arvey proposal getting committee approval because many of the smaller states would refuse to give up the equal power they now enjoy with the larger states.

The AEC and the distributor are trying to get back all of this type watch because of the possibility that some may contain dangerous amounts of the radioactive material.

Two of the watches were located in an El Paso jewelry store, and the third was from a radio listener who heard of the search.

On the basis of the 1960 convention vote apportionment, this would give New York 114 votes and Illinois 69 votes, with only 9 each for Vermont and Hawaii. All these states now have an even voice in the committee.

Committee officials see little chance of the Arvey proposal getting committee approval because many of the smaller states would refuse to give up the equal power they now enjoy with the larger states.

Democrat To Meet Jan. 22 To Discuss Campaign Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee will meet here Jan. 22 to discuss 1960 national convention and campaign plans.

While the meeting's agenda has yet to be decided, several state leaders have indicated they will fight National Chairman Paul M. Butler's proposal to penalize states behind in their campaign donations.

Some committee members also have spoken up in favor of the Butler proposal which would force states to meet certain deadlines for raising money to pay off a huge deficit from the 1956 campaign.

ANOTHER SCRAP that may materialize at the Jan. 22 meeting is a proposal which Illinois Committee member Jacob M. Arvey has promised to put forward which would give the larger states greater voice in National Committee decisions.

Arvey would give each state the same number of votes in the national convention instead of the traditional two votes each. On the basis of the 1960 convention vote apportionment, this would give New York 114 votes and Illinois 69 votes, with only 9 each for Vermont and Hawaii. # Medicine's Unfinished Work — 3 Counting Runny Noses One Step Toward Variety Of Custom-Made 'Cold' Vaccines

(Last of Three Dispatches) By H. JACK GEIGER, M.D.

NEW YORK (NEA)—In all of the explosive new research developments in the long cold war on virus illnesses, one of the least dramatic remains one of the most effective.

The technique: counting noses.

During the yearly rampages of the common cold and its cousin, this is an overwhelming task. A recent national health survey reported that in one calendar year Americans have 234 million acute respiratory illnesses serious enough to cause disability or require medical care—and the real total may have been more than a half billion.

To count these illnesses carefully is important, for it's a good idea to know an enemy well in order to fight him intelligently. But when is a cold a cold? When is it a grippe? Something else?

There are plenty of omnibus statistics, based on surveys of large population groups. Another approach is to study colds and flu in the normal setting—the "average" family—counting the occurrence of such illnesses, mapping their spread through the household, measuring the attack rates as babies are born, grow, reach school age.

At Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Dr. John Dingle and a team of associates have been doing just that, with 70 family groups, for many years. If you're a member of an "average," upper-middle-class family, with anywhere from one to five children, the Cleveland figures may give you some idea of what to expect.

For a family of four, the figures suggest, there will be 46 illnesses every 12 months—10 per person. At least six will be respiratory infections. Four will be common colds. Laryngitis, bronchitis, sore throats, infected tonsils, flu and the like will account for two or three more. Stomach upset will make up 15 per cent of the total.

In April, May and June there won't be much illness; in the summer, barely any. But colds and other infections will come pouring in along about the third week of September—and run right through March.

Youngsters from one to six years old will be most vulnerable—with up to eight respiratory infections a year. And in the nursery-school and kindergarten set—the four to six-year-olds—there may be 12 colds a year.

MOTHERS WILL have more colds than fathers—and they'll bring home more colds, too. For very cold, that father carries home to an otherwise healthy family, mother will bring home 1.2, pre-school youngsters will bring home 2, and school children over six, 3.

When anyone introduces a cold into the household, there's a one-in-two chance that children under six will catch it, a one-in-four chance that it will spread to children over six, and a one-in-four chance that mother will be infected.

In short, Dr. Dingle concludes, there's only one way to avoid colds: avoid people.

For the present, in fact, upper respiratory infections—like death and taxes—seem inevitable. That's the opinion of Dr. Edwin Kilbourne, director of Cornell University Medical College's Division of Virus Research, who points out that the only new thing about the "new" respiratory viruses discovered in the past few years is their recognition and identification. The diseases they cause have been there all along—and still are.

SINCE SO MANY viruses are involved, no single vaccine is likely to be effective. Why not lump all the viruses known to be associated with upper respiratory infections in one huge "shotgun" vaccine—and give it to everyone?

That, in the opinion of researchers, would be something like taking all the medicines in the drugstore, grinding them up, and giving everyone just a taste. Dr. Dingle points out:

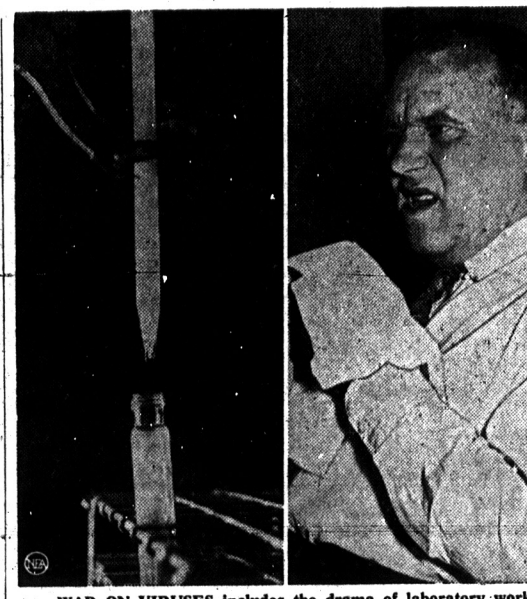

"Before any virus . . . should be incorporated in a vaccine for general use in our population, it should be clearly demonstrated in hospital wards or still a third for elderly people with chronic lung in question, that the disease is caused by immunity, that we'll be able to grow enough virus to make a vaccine, that the vaccine will stimulate protective antibodies, that the antibodies will confer immunity, and that there is really enough virus in the virus in question to make the whole thing worthwhile."

In short, there won't be a specific illness or group of related illnesses occurring with special intensity in a special population group.

There is already one such vaccine—highly effective against the particular upper respiratory infections that strike new military recruits. Some day soon there may be another for young children in hospital wards or still a third for elderly people with chronic lung in question, that the disease is caused by immunity, that we'll be able to grow enough virus to make a vaccine, that the vaccine will stimulate protective antibodies, that the antibodies will confer immunity, and that there is really enough virus in the virus in question to make the whole thing worthwhile."

Laos Doctor Doubts He'll Live Long

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Thomas Dooley believes a chest cancer makes his chances for a long life, bleak, but he is heading back to jungle hospital work in Laos, avowedly "the happiest man alive."

"I'm not worried about dying," the loyally handsome St. Louis physician, 32, told reporters at London airport Thursday night. "I figure what I have crammed into my life makes me really 65. I aim to die quietly in my home town."

Dr. Dooley left his Laotian work last August to go to the United States for removal of a tumor on the chest wall and a lecture tour that raised $400,000 for ailing Laotian children.

"Not long ago I was given 18 months to live," he said. "I recently underwent surgery (in New York) and the results showed the cancer had not spread further. That's why I am going back to the jungle."

"But I am afraid that records of people who have suffered from this type of cancer make my prospects very bleak. It's the fastest growing cancer there is."

Girl Takes Final Vows As A Nun Before Death

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP)—Four years ago, when Antoinette Galati was only 14, she had set her heart on becoming a Roman Catholic nun.

Thursday she got her wish. Antoinette entered Mt. Sacred Heart Convent here four years ago and started the long years of study that end in the nun's final vows. She realized she would be 20 before her studies were finished.

But last week the girl was taken sick. Doctors found that she had cancer. It would take her life soon, they said. They arranged for an operation, but they had little hope that it would help.

The doctors operated Thursday morning. Because the operation was so delicate, the girl was allowed to take her final vows a nun beforehand, two years ahead of time.

When Antoinette came out of the operating room, she was Sister Mary Benjamin. And a few hours later the 18-year-old nun died. She will be buried Saturday in the Sisters plot at St. Lawrence Cemetery.

Central-Irish Rivalry Renews

By JOHN BOWMAN

Probably the most intense rivalry in the W.R. Keefe Conference is continued tonight when St. Patrick's Central and the Central Irish renew their rivalry on the basketball court. But this time it's for the night.

Seniors on the St. Pat squad have never, in their varsity careers, seen Central beat the Irish on the basketball court. But this time it's for the night.

After three frustrating years of loss after loss to the Irish, the Central's Central are over the Central Irish. The Central Irish are over the Central Irish.

A flash group game matching an Irish team with a 4-1 record with a Central crew with a 1-4 mark, opens the show at 6:30 p.m. The varsity game will follow at 8 p.m.

THERE'S A POSSIBILITY that seven of the 18 starters in the varsity game will be underclassmen.

Cecil Norton, Central coach, will probably go with junior John Jackson (6-1) and sophomore Tom Marjary (6-2) at the forwards, senior Tom Chandler (6-3) at center and junior Danny Doherty (6-4) and senior Tom Pettit (5-10) at guards.

Senior Francis (Chuck) Gannon (6-2) and sophomore Tom Marjary (6-2) look like the St. Pat starting forwards. Either sophomore John Patrakos (6-4) or junior Rich McGinnis (6-2) will go at center. Two of the three following guards will start out from Central.

Senior Joe Romary (5-11) or sophomore Dave Reilly (5-11) or Chuck Christopoulos (6-1) junior forward, will see his share of the action. He has looked sharp in workouts this week. Sophomore guard Bill Bradley (5-7) is also likely to appear.

FOR CENTRAL, early replacements are usually sophomore Jim Moran (6-2) at the forwards, senior Tom Chandler (6-3) at center and junior Danny Doherty (6-4) and senior Tom Pettit (5-10) at guards.

After scouting the Central vs. Herscher game (Central won 48-44), Pat coach Ed Bonczak said of the Central, "They're big and strong. And as usual, they're well-coordinated. They'll be tough to beat."

About tonight's game, Bonczak said, "The Irish have the advantage of their own court but our players are looking for a big improvement in this game."

CHUCK CHRISTOPOULOS, 6-1 junior forward, will see his share of the action. He has looked sharp in workouts this week. Sophomore guard Bill Bradley (5-7) is also likely to appear.

After the brawl was over, the Central Irish and the Central Irish renewed their rivalry on the basketball court. But this time it's for the night.

Kays Hope To Extend Streak To 7 Games

By HERB JANNUSCH

"The thing everybody over-looks on this club," one sport observer commented in a discussion of Kankakee High School basketball team, "is its defense. Those kids are quick and real ball hawks."

The Kays will get a chance this weekend to test this defense and see whether their five consecutive victories have resulted from their own abilities or from the opposition's lack of it.

Bradley 48-44 Winner In Tourney Consolation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BRADLEY, Ill. (AP)—The Kankakee area still has a long way to go in the consolation division—but the Wildcats will have to come up with a peak performance of the season if they are to keep alive their title hopes.

The Wildcats' crew attempts the gigantic task of stopping the seven-game winning streak of Ottawa, topped in the meet at home 26-20.

Bradley won its way into the consolation championship by edging Ottawa 48-44 Thursday night, including 19 after a second period free-throw that involved all the players on the ice except the goalie.

After the brawl was over, the Central Irish and the Central Irish renewed their rivalry on the basketball court. But this time it's for the night.

THERE'S A POSSIBILITY that seven of the 18 starters in the varsity game will be underclassmen.

Cecil Norton, Central coach, will probably go with junior John Jackson (6-1) and sophomore Tom Marjary (6-2) at the forwards, senior Tom Chandler (6-3) at center and junior Danny Doherty (6-4) and senior Tom Pettit (5-10) at guards.

Senior Francis (Chuck) Gannon (6-2) and sophomore Tom Marjary (6-2) look like the St. Pat starting forwards. Either sophomore John Patrakos (6-4) or junior Rich McGinnis (6-2) will go at center. Two of the three following guards will start out from Central.

Senior Joe Romary (5-11) or sophomore Dave Reilly (5-11) or Chuck Christopoulos (6-1) junior forward, will see his share of the action. He has looked sharp in workouts this week. Sophomore guard Bill Bradley (5-7) is also likely to appear.

FOR CENTRAL, early replacements are usually sophomore Jim Moran (6-2) at the forwards, senior Tom Chandler (6-3) at center and junior Danny Doherty (6-4) and senior Tom Pettit (5-10) at guards.

After the brawl was over, the Central Irish and the Central Irish renewed their rivalry on the basketball court. But this time it's for the night.

Seniors on the St. Pat squad have never, in their varsity careers, seen Central beat the Irish on the basketball court. But this time it's for the night.

After three frustrating years of loss after loss to the Irish, the Central's Central are over the Central Irish. The Central Irish are over the Central Irish.

A flash group game matching an Irish team with a 4-1 record with a Central crew with a 1-4 mark, opens the show at 6:30 p.m. The varsity game will follow at 8 p.m.

MICHIGAN STATE, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State won its third consecutive victory at Wyoming Saturday night, MSU now has a 3-0 record.

A last second shot from the keyhole by Horace Walker proved victory over the Huskers after the score was tied 68-68 to send the game into a first overtime that ended 72-72.

Four Spartans hit in double figures, topped by Lance Olson with 21 points and Walker with 20.

Ohio puts its 5-0 record on the line at Butler Friday night and UCLA invades Purdue (3-2).

The Big Ten's other unbeaten team, Illinois (3-0), is host Saturday to Ohio University. Other Saturday games send Oklahoma to Iowa (4-1), Detroit to Indiana (3-1), Wisconsin to (3-1) to Marquette and Tennessee to Michigan (3-3), in an afternoon regionally televised contest.

THE LIBERTY AND BLUEBONNET bowls are newcomers to the post-season event. The promoters of the games, hoping for financial success and good weather, have opted for four top teams despite keen competition from the established bowls.

TCU was the nation's seventh-ranked team in the final Associated Press poll. Alabama was listed 10th, Michigan 11th, and Penn State 12th.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams knocked $40,000 off his reported 1958 salary of $100,000 in court testimony Thursday.

The 41-year-old home run star said the Sox paid him only $60,000. He said his income from all sources is $60,000.

A Miami newspaper asked Red Sox General Manager Bucky Harris about Williams' salary statement and quoted Harris as replying: "Well, I guess he knows what he was getting."

Williams said he hadn't received a 1960 contract and doubted whether injuries and age would let him play.

Harris told the newspaper Williams would receive a contract for the 1961 season.

Williams made his statement during an appearance before Judge Judge George Holt, in opposition to a $100,000 guarantee to risk his crown against Scott.

The champ may not have to come top himself.

Williams said he was willing to pay the bill of his daughter in 1955 but maintained the bill did not make more than the present allowance. The petition of Mrs. Joyce Williams, 34, was filed in the ninth round last Oct. 19 and is still pending.

His RECORD IS 24-0, including 13 knockouts. Pare's record is 28-62 including eight kayes.

Summerfield To Ask Postal Rate Boosts

CHICAGO (UPI)—Postmaster General Arthur F. Summerfield said Thursday he would ask Congress next year for increases in postal rates.

Summerfield told a press conference he would seek a 1-cent increase in the cost of a first-class letter, and a 1-cent increase in the cost of a second-class letter. He also would ask for a 1-cent increase in the cost of a third-class letter.

Summerfield said the postal service is losing $100 million a year. He said the postal service is the only government agency that is not self-sufficient.

Farm Bureau To Form Marketing Association

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation has voted to establish a marketing association to gain bargaining power for farmers with food processors and distributors.

The 100 voting delegates gave unanimous approval to creation of a national marketing association at the concluding sessions of the federation's 41st convention Thursday.

The national group will coordinate a national marketing campaign to increase demand for farm products and to help stabilize farm income by enabling farmers to plan production to meet demand.

The new group will also serve local bargaining associations, conduct research on contract terms and if necessary negotiate agreements with processors and distributors.

CISSNA PARK (JNS)—The Better Homes and Garden Club held its annual Christmas party Wednesday afternoon with 100 members present.

After the turkey dinner, the group went to the home of Mrs. Claude Outback for a meeting and entertainment. Mrs. Lawrence Webster and Mrs. Ken Harp of Stockland received prizes. Mrs. Allen Allison, Dora Northfield, president of Tonk Manufacturing Co., Chicago, treasurer.

Loot Middleton Bank Of $1,500; Rob Post Office

MIDDLETON (AP)—Three crackers struck three times in the early morning hours today, getting away with $1,500 in silver from the Middleton State Bank and an undetermined amount from the post office and a drug store.

The heists were discovered when the three establishments opened for business this morning. FBI agents in Springfield reported.

The burglars entered the bank from the back, pushing aside an air conditioner to get in. Sales at all three places were closed for a few hours. Local authorities indicated that $750 was stolen from the drug store.

New Design Speeds Flow

The inevitable clash of pedestrians meeting head-on in the middle of the street was solved in Madison, Wis., with this new crosswalk design. Two parallel lines of white tile extend from either curb, fading out midway across. A diagonal curb-to-curb line between them forms two "wedges" which, city authorities say, shorten walking time across the street.

Masterpieces Won't Be Shown Until Next Year

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Owners of several paintings which one appraiser calls priceless have decided against showing them to the public—or neutral art critics—this year.

Amadore Porcella of Italy has labeled the paintings masterpieces of the Renaissance and declared 17 of the 10 are priceless.

The paintings have not been inspected by art authorities in

Pastor Chides U. S. For Allowing Nikita To Steal Christian Words

NEW YORK (UPI)—The president of the National Council of Churches said today "it is a sin and a disgrace to us all" that Khrushchev has been permitted to "grab the ball and run" with such great Christian words as peace and good will.

While he does so, the Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg said, Christians are "grubbing among the stars—not in search of God, but tracking down possible locations for launching platforms, missile pads, and strategy for the military and economic conquest of the Communist powers."

"Possibly God has waited long enough," Dahlberg said in his Christmas message to the council's 33 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations. "He may be saying to us, 'I have been counting on you who bear my name. But if you fail me, I shall have to give my gospel to other nations, other ideologies, and other religions.' It would not be the first time in history that God has rejected his people, and turned to the shepherds, managers, and stewards of the world for the renewal of hope and righteousness among men."

Dahlberg's message was made public after his departure, Dec. 14, on a month-long Christmas mission to U.S. servicemen overseas. He will preach a Christmas Day sermon on Okinawa area. Some have expressed skepticism.

Mrs. Hataburda said there have been a few offers by outsiders to examine the works but none has been accepted.

2 More Executed In Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI)—Cuban Army firing squads executed two counter-revolutionaries in nearby Pinar del Rio Saturday in the first death sentences to be carried out in six months.

Two former non-commissioned officers in the Army of ousted Dictator Fulgencio Batista, ex-sergeant Jose Antonio Morfi Reyes and ex-Corporal Luis La Crespo, were backed up against a wall at the Rios Rivera military shooting range at 7 a.m.

They had been convicted by a revolutionary tribunal of leading an armed movement against the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The EXECUTIONS brought the total of so-called war criminals executed by the Castro regime since Jan. 1 triumph over Batista in 1959. War criminals were executed at a four-day clip by rebel firing squads during the first six months of the year.

Lara, 21, and Morfi, slightly older, were the first anti-government complainers to be executed since Castro restored war crimes courts six weeks ago after a sharp increase in counter-revolutionary activities throughout the nation.

His death was nearly impossible to him. But he rallied this year and rode in the Armed Forces Day parade. He pulled off a reasonably snappy salute as he passed the reviewing stand. It marked his first time out of bed in months.

Last Veteran Of Civil War Dies At 117

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Walter Williams, honored as the last surviving veteran of the Civil War, died quietly in the arms of two relatives Saturday.

He simply stopped breathing, worn out after a fourth attack of pneumonia since June 1.

Ban Sacrifice Of Animals For Shah Wedding

TAHRAN, Iran (UPI)—The Shah of Iran ordered his subjects Saturday to forego their traditional sacrifice of animals in celebration of his marriage Monday because the sight of blood makes his queen-to-be ill.

Court sources said the Shah, Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, asked in response to a "flood" of requests from doctors and groups who asked permission to sacrifice animals along the route 21-year-old Farah Diba will take on her way to the palace wedding.

The Shah, however, issued an order banning such ritual sacrifices of animals. Court sources said he acted out of consideration for his pretty bride-to-be's feelings in deciding to rule out the "blood-shed."

Western Big 4 Agree On Bid To Khrushchev

PARIS (AP)—The Western Big Four decided Saturday to send an invitation at once to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to a summit conference, probably in April.

They pledged themselves to devote Allied efforts in the intervening four months to forging a solid Western front for the summit conference.

The decisions were taken at the second of two Western summit meetings, capping a day that included a private talk between President Eisenhower and French President Charles de Gaulle.

THE TWO TALKED frankly about issues threatening mutual Allied unity, and there were reports that at least some of the friction in French-American relations had been lessened.

Eisenhower applied all his powers of persuasion in an attempt to break down de Gaulle's solid opposition to an integrated command for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, on which the United States is insisting.

Eisenhower will report to the American people in broad terms Dec. 23, the night after his return home, it was learned.

Western leaders pressed James C. Hagerty told a news conference after the Western summit that the Western powers would meet again privately in Washington to discuss the summit conference. He said the Western powers would meet again privately in Washington to discuss the summit conference.

THE LETTER, more than two months old, was released just as Western summit deliberations in Paris were concluding. Eisenhower, Premier Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry filed a special press conference to disclose the Oct. 12 Khrushchev letter, which it said, was being made public because there had been distorted stories in the Western press about its content.

The letter called for disarmament and lessening of tension to free the peoples of the world from the threat of nuclear war.

IN RENEWING HIS call for a German peace treaty, Khrushchev referred again to the Soviet call for setting up a de-militarized "free city" in West Berlin.

One advantage of such a treaty, he said, would be to "solve the urgent problems of liquidating the occupation regime in West Berlin and setting up there a free city with all possible safeguards for its independence and non-interference in its internal affairs."

Khrushchev told Adenauer in reply to his Chancellor's letter of Aug. 27 that "We are pleased that you take an interest in the problem of disarmament."

BUT THE SOVIET premier added:

"I find it difficult to reconcile this interest... with certain deeds that have been characteristic of the Federal Republic of Germany."

The Bonn government's renunciation of rearmament and the policy of having foreign troops and nuclear bases on German territory "would be the best proof of the peaceful aspirations of the federal republic," Khrushchev declared.

New Armory Construction To Begin Here In Spring

Several hundred military reservists from this area will probably be using the new reserve armory when it is completed last summer. Construction of the building is scheduled to begin in spring at Willow St. and Fairmount Ave.

Congressional approval for the armory was given in August, and the Army has been working on the bill appropriating the money for it in September. A four-acre site here was purchased about the middle of November.

Army reserve units will definitely be using the new building, and it is believed an Air Force unit has received no definite word on whether it will move into it. But as yet the Air Force unit has received no definite word on whether it will move into it.

The National Guard armory, on downtown Indiana Ave., will continue to be available for training purposes.

THE IMPACT LOCAL reserve economy is easily seen when you consider that approximately $2,400 a paid annually to reservists here for attending drills and training camps.

Cap. Harry A. Taylor of the Army Reserve Center, Joliet, said that pay to Kankakee units averages $24,000 a year, plus one $6,000 to those who attend summer camp.

Payroll for the Air Force unit would be $2,400 a year, plus one $6,000 to those who attend summer camp.

The other Army group which will use the building is the Adjutant General Staff School for officers.

IST AD NEW ARMORY—11 Companies F, G and H and the electrician units are the only units which will be in the new building. The other Army group which will use the building is the Adjutant General Staff School for officers.

HEADQUARTERS for the second battalion, which includes Kankakee units, are in Joliet. The first battalion is in Waukegan and the third in Chicago. Headquarters are in Chicago, and top headquarters are in Chicago, and top headquarters are in Chicago.

Seek Hoods In Probe Of Touhy Death

CHICAGO (AP)—A roundup of hoodlums known to be associated with the Chicago Crime Syndicate was ordered Saturday by police officials as they strove to find the killers of longtime gang leader Roger Touhy.

Police admitted had little to go on in their efforts to find out who killed the diminutive, 51-year-old prohibition era gang lord just 25 days after his release from Stateville Penitentiary where he had served nearly 26 years for kidnaping.

"We're just tossing the ball in the air. No progress has been made yet," a union spokesman said.

He said Federal Mediator Charles A. Altpf was conferring in alternate sessions with both sides.

The strike started Oct. 29 when UPWA members walked off their jobs at eight Wilson plants.

Democrats Ask Moratorium On Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Democratic Advisory Council called Saturday for a renewal of the U.S. moratorium on nuclear tests although its most prominent member, former President Truman, disagreed.

The 31-member council issued a statement advocating an extension of the moratorium, now due to expire Jan. 1, while there is hope of reaching agreement with Russia on a permanent prohibition on testing. The statement grew out of discussions at the council's week-end meeting at New York earlier this month.

Fail To Agree On Underground 'A' Test Controls

GENEVA (UPI)—Western and Soviet scientists Saturday failed to reach agreement on a workable control system for underground nuclear explosions that could escape detection by present methods.

Their failure after three weeks of discussion ruled out western approval for a complete ban on all nuclear testing, as demanded by the Soviets, because the West fears meat tests they are not prepared to make.

American scientists discovered that some underground nuclear blasts could be muffled so that detection was nearly impossible. Others might be mistaken for earthquakes. The West presented this information to the Russians and asked them to cooperate on finding ways to close the loopholes.

Car Upset In Crash Saturday

Two Kankakee women escaped serious injury when their car tipped over at Lincoln Ave. and Duane Blvd. about 6:30 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Alice Earhart and her daughter, Miss Sharon Earhart, 22, the driver, both of 337 S. Gordon Ave., were trapped in St. Mary's Hospital emergency room and released.

Driver of the other car, Mrs. Catherine Farham, 179 S. Evergreen Ave., was not injured. The two vehicles crashed and overthrew on top of each other.

Says Red China Ready Any Time To Hit Formosa

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. Ambassador Everett F. Drumright, an expert on China, said Saturday that Communist China now is militarily ready to "jump off at any time" on a long-threatened invasion of Nationalist Formosa.

He said the Reds would strike in the near future.

And he said Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek will not start a war because he knows he would require U.S. military support to do so.

"He knows the United States would not embark on an effort to forcibly liberate the mainland under existing circumstances," the ambassador said.

Drumright, now en route to Naumacht, now en route to Naumacht, now en route to Naumacht.

Find Wheel Of Missing Plane

CHICAGO (AP)—A wheel from an Air Force F-3 jet trainer that vanished Nov. 26 with two men aboard has been recovered from Lake Michigan.

The plane disappeared after a night takeoff from the Glenview Naval Air Station north of Chicago. It was found on Waco, Tex., with Capt. Cecil C. Crockett Jr. and 1st Lt. James H. Doolittle aboard.

The wheel was found last Sunday on a beach near South Haven, Mich., where it had been washed mainland under existing circumstances.

News of the find was withheld until Saturday, the Navy said, because it was not known whether the plane was part of the missing plane. A spokesman said a check of serial numbers on the tire positively identified it as being from the missing aircraft.
