Wife In Love With Boarder; Husband Slain

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A woman and a boarder in her home were charged Saturday in the murder of her husband whose body was found in the basement of the home.

Mrs. Evelyn Newman, 30, and Felix W. Horner, 34, were booked after being returned here from Harrisburg, Pa. They were traced there after the body of Donald Newman, 36, was discovered Friday.

Police said Newman was shot to death in his bedroom late Monday night or early Tuesday. The Newman's three children, seven years of age and under, slept through the noise although in an adjoining room.

Police quoted Mrs. Newman as saying she was in love with Horner, who was divorced. They said she told them her husband threatened to kill her if she left him. Horner and Newman were life-time buddies.

THE INVESTIGATION, quoted Mrs. Newman as saying she was awakened by the sound of a gun being fired and found Horner with a gun standing by the bedside and her husband lying on the floor. Then, police quoted her as saying, she saw Horner fire three more shots at her husband.

Horner backed Mrs. Newman's statement as he had been asleep when the shooting started.

Police said the three children were sent to a neighbor's Tuesday night and Horner then carried the body to the basement and buried it in a dirt floor.

Horner was charged with homicide and conspiracy and Mrs. Newman with being an accessory before and after the fact of homicide and conspiracy.

Phillips Fountain Dies; Funeral Services Tuesday

Funeral services for Philip Fountain, 74, 231 S. Fifth Ave., will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in St. Rose Church.

Legion Post Gave First Christmas Baskets In 1919

One of the first acts of Kankakee American Legion post 35, when organized in 1919, was the distribution of Christmas baskets.

James Genger, is co-chairman of this year's Christmas basket program. Genger and Russell Johnson will distribute the baskets Thursday. They have asked post members to bring canned goods to the post Dugout before Thursday so baskets can be made up.

The post and its affiliated organizations are sponsoring a group of holiday events. They include the annual Christmas theater party for children of the post and auxiliary Thursday evening at 10:30 p.m. at the Luna Theater. Children of Alfred Fortin Villa will be special guests.

The annual New Year's Eve party for post members and friends will be held Dec. 31 in the ballroom and dugout. Earl Morin is reservation chairman. Reservations may be made by contacting Morin or the legion office.

The Shadows, junior color guard, will sponsor their Mid-Winter Hop Saturday evening in the Legion Ballroom. The dance is open to the public.

Post members will tend Salvation Army Bells Wednesday evening, Rex Dusenbury, commander, also reported.

Santa To Give Gifts At 'Home Of Lights'

"Christmas is a time for giving."

This is Mrs. Fred Stalneck's simple explanation for her family's "Home of Lights" and Santa's treats to children.

The Stalneck home, decorated with more than 500 colored Christmas lights, a Santa spurring his reindeer up to the roof and an organ-accompanied choir.

has drawn large audiences in the past. This year, the Stalneckers invited the children spectators to meet Santa and receive treats from him between 7 and 8 o'clock tonight.

THE HOME OF LIGHTS is on the west side of Route 1 1/2, miles south of Route 1 and 7 intersection.

The organist, who gains the spectators' sympathy by playing so long in the cold, actually is a store window manikin. The music is piped outdoors from inside the Stalneck home.

Mrs. Stalneck, her father, Longtin Marceau, and her brother Flavia Marceau, spent many hours making the life-size figures of Santa, his sleigh and his reindeer, which are animated and appear to be galloping up to the rooftop.

THE PATTERNS were applied by thought they had guns.

Police found a wrench in their car. Despite the fact they were held for armed robbery, there was no mention of a any other weapons discovered.

Two men who gave their residence as Kankakee are being held in Cairo, Ill., on armed robbery charges.

They are Romeo R. Lockard, 22, and Paul Newsome, 34. They also told authorities they are former residents of Tiptonville, Tenn.

The pair is accused of robbing a Cairo service station of $120. Neither Kankakee police or county sheriff's department had the names of the pair in their files. A check of records also failed to turn up any Kankakee area addresses for the two.

A service station attendant said Lockard and Newsome forced him to lie on the floor while they took money from the cash register.

"The attendant identified them after they were hauled in by patrol cars about 10 minutes after the robbery. The station attendant said Lockard and Newsome had their hands in their pockets and holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stalneck.

Mrs. Verna Clausen left Thursday by train for Fort Pierce, Fla., to spend until Dec. 31 with her son, Warren, and family.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

This season of bright lights and shiny baubles is tingling its way in. Will it find you a holiday luncheon or a lesser light? As you decorate your household in its glittering best, wouldn't it be a masterpiece to have a shining new hostess? — CUL is a breathtaking new hair color and special-day hairstyle — in your picture of a charming home?

HOLI-DAY HUES

This season you may choose from a wide variety of party-stopping tints. What better gift to give yourself and your admirers than a bright new hair color? Of course, we don't recommend that you wear the traditional red and green of the season in your hair to harmonize with the party's color scheme, but what more appropriate time of year to take the exciting little experimental step into color. For the more adventurous, we've a bigger holiday color fling to suggest. December need not be a cold gray month as you'll see when color comes into your life.

The Journal's Page Of Opinion A Clergyman's Christmas Story

By THE REV. KELVIN L. McCray
Pastor, Manteno Methodist Church

We may be so busy getting ready to observe Christmas that it may not have occurred to us just how and when this festival came to be the center around which one fourth of the year turns. Numerous legends have sprung up from many sources about this festive occasion, and it is not easy at all times to separate the fact from the fiction. It is likely that no one would want to do so.

There has been a great deal of speculation since early in the third century as to the time of year of Christ's birth. Clement of Alexandria says that it was on May 20. The celebration of Christmas did not take on any general pattern till the latter part of the fourth century. The Philokalian calendar, representing the Roman practice of the year 336, makes mention of the observance being on December 25. This date appears to have been chosen as the most suitable time to oppose the feast of the unquarred sun, by celebrating the birth of the "Sun of Righteousness."

The eventual changing of the date to December 25 was due to two things. First, was a doctrinal matter. The "adoptionist heresy" taught that Christ's divinity came from His baptism. The majority of Christian teachings held that He was divine from birth. So to save His birth from being eclipsed by the January 6 observance of His baptism a new date, December 25, was chosen. In the second place the Mithraic festivals to the sun were frowned upon by the Christian world. Thus, the present date was chosen as the birth of Christ, the Light of the World.

Christmas is an important date seen by George Fielding Eliot

Army Fights Off Slash In Manpower

Under the determined leadership of Secretary Wilber M. Brucker and his new chief of staff, General Lyman D. Lemnitzer, the Army has probably fought off for another year a determined and tricky drive by the Bureau of the Budget to slash its manpower gains and to new level of $50,000.

The Army has not come off scot-free, however. Its manpower situation at every point, that even to come with 4,000 people for new jobs, hampers performance of other vital duties.

These are the basic facts of which one evidence has been the withdrawal of a needed infantry battalion from Iceland. Originally the budgetary threat was even more serious.

Rev. T. U. DEMARAIS

FOR 26 YEARS the Rev. T. U. Demarais has been pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Mokena. Prior to that he spent two years in Kansas.

His years rank him third among Roman Catholic priests in length of pastoral service in Mokena. Only Mr. Peter Dufault and Mr. John Stoeser have served in the county a longer time.

Actually, 38 years have transpired since the Mokena priest was ordained. He was born in Chicago, one of four children in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Demarais. Although then residing in Chicago, the Demarais family represented two of the early families in Mokena.

Mr. Demarais served as director of the CVO in Mokena from 1931 to 1933. For five years he was district Holy Name director, and Marcotte families were among those French Canadian who migrated to the Bourbonnais area from Canada.

His father, Rev. Demarais, received his early education in Chicago at Holy Angels Elementary School, Mr. Carmel High School and Quigley High School. He later attended a school for the priesthood. He then studied at St. Viator's College in Bourbonnais and finally at Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. He was ordained in Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago May 21, 1921.

The Mokena resident was a priest of the diocese of Chicago until a division was made to create the Joliet Diocese. He has since been a priest of that diocese.

Mr. Demarais has had but three assignments. He was assistant at St. Ann's Church and at St. Margaret's Church in Mokena from 1921 to 1931. He spent from 1931 to 1933 as an assistant at St. Rose Church in Mokena and has been at St. Patrick's Church ever since.

In addition to serving as pastor of the parish, Father Demarais was on the original board of St. Patrick Central High School and served one term on the body. In Mokena he has served on the board of the public library for all 26 years of his pastorate in the city.

Emperor Of The World

My Christmas story this year is not really a story. It is history. Instead, it is as fascinating as any story and it has a cast of characters as impressive as any Hollywood extravaganza. Roman emperor, a descendant of King David and a child.

The story begins with the senator, Marcus Tullius Cicero, Roman senator and greatest of Roman orators (do you remember having to memorize his speeches when you studied Latin in school?), awoke one morning with a distinct memory of his dream of the night before.

In this dream, he had seen the god Jupiter come to Rome to declare the son of one of the foremost Roman families chief ruler of the city. And Cicero had been designated to call the city's outstanding young men to the temple of Jupiter. Cautious citizens stood outside watching as the youths, carefully dressed in their best formal robes, assembled.

FINALLY, the doors of the temple opened, and the young men entered to be inspected by the god. None of them seemed to please him until a lad who was almost last in line came before him. Jupiter smiled, stretched out his hand and proclaimed the boy as the future ruler of Rome.

The face of the young man Cicero had seen in this dream was not the face Cicero recognized, but, nevertheless, he remembered it perfectly. And, that very day, as he walked the streets of ancient Rome, he saw that same face on a youngster leading a line of youths from the baths. He stopped the boy and asked who he was. The boy answered that he was the nephew of Julius Caesar.

From that day on, Cicero encouraged this young man in his career. His efforts were successful. After the murder of Julius Caesar, he watched the youth, named Caesar's heir, seize power. His efforts were successful. After the murder of Julius Caesar, he watched the youth, named Caesar's heir, seize power.

Members of the St. Patrick parish joined in the Hopkins Park project and aided in the erection of the Sacred Heart Church. The building was dedicated in 1934.

Father Demarais served as director of the CVO in Mokena from 1931 to 1933. For five years he was district Holy Name director, and Marcotte families were among those French Canadian who migrated to the Bourbonnais area from Canada.

At the present he is a parish counselor to the diocese and is one of four synodal judges in the Joliet diocese.

Smith To Run For State Auditor Again

SPRINGFIELD (UPI)—State Auditor Elbert S. Smith has announced for reelection to complete the Stratton administration 1960 campaign "team."

The state Republican lineup includes Gov. Stratton, Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, Atty. Gen. Grenville Beardsley and Smith, who announced his intentions Friday.

Stratton, Chapman and Carpenter are seeking third terms. Smith was first elected auditor in 1956.

Beardsley was appointed last May to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Lillian Castle. Castle resigned to become a federal judge.

Smith's office has become almost solely a check-writing agency because of reforms instituted in the wake of the Hodge scandal. Many of the duties previously handled by the auditor have been transferred to the Finance Department and the reformed Department of Financial Institutions.

Smith told a news conference he likes being auditor. He also said, like most of the other state officers had said some time ago, he "might have been interested" in running for governor if Stratton had not decided to try again.

The auditor stayed away from public involvement concerning the GOP Senate chairmanship because of the state's poor statewide spot on the 1960 ballot.

Stratton backs Chicago attorney Samuel W. Witter, a choice that has provoked criticism from other party leaders, especially Carpenter.

SMITH, WHO HAS BEEN in Europe recently, said he would not comment on the subject because he was not present when the money came out of that.

He said any of the three "can beat" incumbent Democratic Sen. Paul Douglas, target of the GOP Senate primary winner.

"Of course there is the likelihood that some of these candidates may drop out, you know, because they all hold the top spot of the party above their own considerations," Smith said.

The most step for all candidates is to file their petitions in the secretary of state's office. The office is open for petitions from Jan. 18-25. Last day for withdrawal of nomination petitions is Jan. 30.

JOY AT CHRISTMAS

Through the silence of a Holy Night, the shining wonder of Christmas dawns once more upon the world. In Christmas hymns and stories...in the sacred words of the Bible...the miracle of His birth lives again, as awesome, as exalting, as full of hope and promise as on that night when shepherds watched their flocks, and Wise Men followed a

Star. Across the ages, His message of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men comes to bring us joy. At this glorious season, we wish for you and your family a blessed Christmas, rich in spiritual rewards, in happiness and peace.

Arthur B. Longtin, Navy chief quartermaster, formerly of Brad-ley, received the top speaker award of the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force Petty Officer Academy Dec. 10. He won the honor in competition with 38 other senior chief petty officers who on Dec. 11 were the first group to graduate from the academy.

Longtin addressed a graduating class on the topic "A Road to Leadership." He also served as drillmaster for the top ranking drill team at the academy. On Dec. 16 Longtin was promoted to senior chief.

He is presently serving in the flag allowance of the Amphibious Training Command, U. S. Atlantic Fleet. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Longtin and the late Peter N. Longtin. His mother now lives at Winter Haven, Fla.

LONGTIN and his wife, the former Miss Helen J. Hoover of Manning, Iowa, reside in Norfolk, Va. They have four sons and a daughter. James C. Thyrault, seaman apprentice and son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thyrault of Rte. 1, Mcmenace, visited Karachi, Pakistan, aboard the Sixth Fleet Amphibious Force Flagship USS Taconic during President Eisenhower's recent stop over there. The Taconic arrived at Karachi Dec. 2 from Valencia, Spain via the Suez Canal. It served as a communications ship in connection with the Eisenhower visit.

Anthony E. Prince, fire control technician third class, son of Mrs. Edward Prince of 265 S. Center Ave., Bradley, is serving aboard the the destroyer escort USS Taylor of his company. He is stationed en route to Japan with the special at Kitzingen, Germany with the "Santa Claus Fleet." The fleet, composed of four destroyers left Pearl Harbor, Hawaiian Islands, Dec. 8 with clothing and toys for underprivileged children and orphans of Japan. The gifts were donated by the citizens of the Hawaiian Islands. The ships will continue on from Japan on a five month cruise of the Far East as part of the Seventh Fleet.

Michael J. Smietanski, engineer man fireman, of 204 S. Chicago Ave., was a member of the commissioning crew of the Navy's first guided-missile destroyer, USS Dewey, when it officially joined the fleet Dec. 7 at the Boston Naval Shipyard, Charlestown, Mass. The 513 foot, 5,600 ton prototype of the largest destroyer class ever built is 30 feet longer and almost double the tonnage of the largest World War II destroyers.

Herbelle L. Butts was promoted to ship fitter third class Wednesday while serving aboard the fleet ship USS Taconic operating out of Norfolk, Va. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilman, 322 S. Hartwell St., Gilman.

Dennis W. Beach, Navy airman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Beach of 533 E. River St., graduated Dec. 7 from the Aviation Familiarization Training Center, Memphis, Tenn. William E. Odette, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Odette of 68 W. Bridge St., reported for duty aboard the repair ship USS Cadmus at Norfolk, Va. He left here Dec. 5 after a 28-day leave.

Odette has been stationed aboard the Cadmus since October 1958. Pfc. Dominic J. Randazzo, son technician third class, son of Mrs. Edward Prince of 265 S. Center Ave., Bradley, is serving aboard the

Oven Mushroom Rolls

Ingredients: 1/2 pound medium-sized mushrooms, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise (not sweet mayonnaise-type dressing), 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon onion salt, pepper, 6 slices regular soft baker's bread (crusts removed), soft butter.

Method: Wipe mushrooms with a damp cloth; cut off a thin slice from ends. Slice and chop fine both mushroom caps and stems. Cook mushrooms in 2 tablespoons butter in 9 or 10-inch skillet, stirring often, until soft. Mix with mayonnaise, salt and onion salt; add pepper to taste. (Makes about 3/4 cup.) Spread about 2 tablespoons of mushroom mixture on each slice of bread; roll up. Spread tops of rolls lightly with soft butter. Bake on a cookie sheet in hot (325 degrees) oven until lightly toasted—about 10 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 3 servings—2 rolls for each portion.

Notes Show Support Of Seal Sale Drive

The "widow's mite" has helped the Kankakee County Tuberculosis Christmas Seal campaign over the $10,000 mark toward a goal of $15,000.

"Our appreciation is unbounded for the small gifts made at a real sacrifice on the part of so many who have bought Christmas Seals," said Stanton Mamer, president of the Kankakee County Tuberculosis Association.

Mamer expressed gratitude, too, for the many notes sent by donors and non-donors to the association. So many, as in the following letters, indicated a desire to give more this year and a hope to give again next year.

"Due to the illness of my husband, who hasn't worked for a long time, I am unable to send more than $2."

A FIFTY-CENT donation accompanied this note: "Sorry I can't do better, am widow living on Social Security."

"Am sending $1 which is all I can afford to give. I wish I could give more for this good cause. But the poor widow's mite is the best I can do."

"We are one of the families who have been helped through the Kankakee County Tuberculosis Association—about 2½ years ago my husband was stricken with TB. We are very grateful for this great organization. As we receive our Christmas cards with a TB Christmas Seal on them we certainly know what that Seal means to us."

"I am very sorry that I cannot contribute to your cause. I know that it is doing a lot of good for many people. I hope soon that when I locate a job I'll be able to contribute. I hope you will not forget me and my wife next year."

"Maybe next year we can make up for it."

"Enclosed find $1. My Social Security is $63 a month—I can't be extravagant."

"Since I have been laid off for four weeks, I can't afford all

Must Support Husband Until He Finds Work

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Here's a divorce court switch: A well-to-do woman was ordered to provide lodging and support for her unemployed husband, whom she seeks to divorce, until he finds work.

Superior Court Commissioner Erich Auerbach said Clarence Aldridge, 31, must not molest his wife Elizabeth, 31, and must stay sober while under her roof. Aldridge, 32, said "his wife persuaded him to quit his work as a house painter in 1957 and devote all his time to her."

Mrs. Aldridge was ordered to let her husband stay in her home at least until March 1. She must pay him $20 weekly subsistence.

Present Awards To Pack Members

Four awards were presented at a meeting of Cub Scout pack 312, St. Stanislaus Church, at a pack meeting held Thursday evening.

Receiving awards were James Licht, lion badge; Michael Guleczynski, wolf badge; Dan Tierney and Tom Tierney, wolf gold arrow points.

An American flag was presented to the pack by the Kankakee Legion Auxiliary. It was presented to the pack by the Kankakee Legion Auxiliary. It was presented to the pack by the Kankakee Legion Auxiliary.

Williams Critical Of $87-Million Tax Program

LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Lawmakers called a truce on taxes Saturday after dissolving Michigan's cash crisis with a stop-gap plan built around new levies on business, beer, liquor, tobacco and telephones.

Threats of payless paydays, closed schools and drastic cuts in state services were buried as a handful of lawmakers formally adjourned the 1959 session on its 175th day. The 1960 session starts Jan. 12.

REPUBLICANS said the $7-million-dollar package approved Friday at the climax of an 11-month tax war will keep the state solvent until voters can decide on a long-range solution at the 1960 election.

Six-time Gov. G. Mennen Williams said the temporary tax program is "misleading and inadequate." He said it was "highly doubtful" Michigan could have an adequate budget without more new taxes.

But the governor, whose plea to House Democrats helped muster enough votes to pass the GOP package, said he would allow it to go into effect Jan. 1. The alternative would be "utter financial chaos," he added.

Seventeen Democrats joined House Republicans in a 70-23 vote on the first and key showdown on the revenue bundle: mar-

Pump 40 million dollars with in 30 days into the state treasury from the veterans trust fund, which was established to aid needy veterans. The fund will be restored by the end of 1971.

—INCREASE THE corporation franchise tax one mill, raising 13 million dollars in May and a like amount next fiscal year.

—Raise 34 million dollars in a year with a package of "miscellaneous" taxes.

The consumer taxes would raise eight million dollars by extending the sales tax to telephone and telegraph usage; seven million by doubling the $1.25-a-barrel beer tax; nine million from a penny increase in the middle-a-pack cigarette tax; six million from a 4 per cent boost in the liquor tax; and four million from a 20 per cent tax on cigars and pipe tobacco.

The entire revenue plan would provide 68 million dollars for the remainder of this fiscal year and 87 million for a full year.

Tot's Returning Eyesight A Christmas Gift For Parents

CHICAGO (UPI)—Little Patty Shively, 5, is able to read only the largest printing and distinguish only a few colors. And her parents think it's wonderful.

Patty was born blind and, until a few weeks ago, could barely tell the difference between day and night.

Patty stared today at her first Christmas tree, then ran to the window to sample the sights of the great outdoors, then raced to the kitchen to delight in the vivid colors of her mother's clothing.

"IT'S A WONDERFUL thing," said Patty's mother, Mrs. George Shively. "It's something I've hoped for and prayed for and never believed possible. Patty can see again. It must be Christmas."

And Patty's father, school teacher Richard Shively, 38, echoed happily. "It's a miracle. Patty was stricken blind at birth when she was placed in one of the last incubators without oxygen control. Excessive oxygen formed a film over her optic nerve fibers, causing a condition called retrolental fibroplasia, which kills all measurable vision."

Patty was totally blind for her first year. Then she began to distinguish light and her hopeful parents began a four-year round of eye specialists. All told them it was hopeless.

BUT THERE WAS one more specialist—a New York man who was experimenting with a finely graded combination of four 1/2-inch thick lenses.

He told the Shiveleys the lenses might work for Patty. She put them on and slowly day by day, her sight returned.

Today, Patty can read a little and the Shiveleys plan to enroll her in regular first grade soon. They have their doctor's prediction that her daughter some day will be able to live normally.

"It's like a new world opening up each day," Mrs. Shively said. "Patty came up to me while I was cooking today and said, 'Gee, mommy, that's a nice green and white striped blouse you have on.'"

In the two years following the removal of World War II price controls in 1946, the cost of living increased more than 30 per cent.

Armours Forms Company For Foreign Sales

Armour Pharmaceutical Co. has formed a company to sell and produce pharmaceuticals in Italy and the Near East.

The firm in Milan, Italy, will be known as Armour-Erba Farmaceutici S.p.A. Armour purchased the Italian firm of Carlo Erba, one of the largest chemical and pharmaceutical houses in 1953.

The new overseas firm may also introduce veterinary products from the Armour plant in Kankakee.

ROBERT A. Hardt, in Europe to complete the Erba contract, attended an installation dinner for G. F. Siniokamp, formerly of the Kankakee plant, as managing director of the Armour wholly-owned subsidiary in Eastbourne, England.

University VP Quits Deerfield School Board

DEERFIELD (UPI)—A university vice president resigned from the Deerfield school board Friday night, charging the board tried to block a proposed integrated housing project in the all-white Chicago suburb.

Wells D. Burnett, vice president of Roosevelt University in Chicago, said he resigned because he was "ashamed" of the board.

In a letter to board president David Whitney, Burnett charged that Whitney had worked actively to "achieve" to condemn Floral Park—site of the proposed project—and build a junior high on the land.

"MY ONLY recourse is to resign from the Citizens' Advisory Committee and call for the resignation of those who are not only conspiring to defeat integration in Deerfield but are openly using our school as a 'front' to secure passage of the bond issue," Burnett said.

Deerfield residents are to vote next Monday on a $50,000 bond issue to buy several tracts of land, including Floral Park, for the new junior high school.

Meanwhile, Burnett said, Deerfield police someone placed a 9 by 8 foot wooden cross in the front yard of his home. Burnett's wife is on the steering committee of the Deerfield Citizens for Human Rights, which favors the integrated project and opposes the bond issue.

The integration controversy here was sparked by an announcement by Progress Development Corp. that they planned to build 51,300 homes in Floral Park, a subdivision of Deerfield, and sell 10 or 12 of the homes to Negroes.

Judge Orders Dog Executed; Expels Cow In Tampa

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—A dog got a death sentence and a cow was ordered out of town Friday in City Court.

Judge Bob Johnson ruled that a cow owned by Francisco Alvarez, 85-year-old resident of Ybor City (local Latin quarter), was a nuisance. Three "character witnesses" who testified to the good behavior of the animal did not sway the judge.

Tony Fernandez, prominent Tampa grocery dealer, was given the choice of having his boxer dog, "Bruno," destroyed or serving six months in jail. Bruno had been biting residents of fashionable Davis Islands, where Fernandez lives. Faced with the alternative, Fernandez chose to stay out of jail.

School Bus Crash Hurts 2 Students

ANNA (UPI)—A school bus loaded with 25 children careened off a country road Friday and rolled off an embankment landing upside down. Police said only two of the children were injured, and their injuries were termed minor.

All Face 5-Year Terms For Conspiracy

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal court jury Friday convicted 20 delegates to the 1957 Appalachian underworld convention of conspiracy to hide the real purpose of the convocation.

The conviction was hailed by Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers as "a landmark in the government's fight against organized crime and racketeers."

The verdict was returned by a jury of eight men and four women after more than 15 hours of deliberation to climax the 33-day trial.

Some of the well-dressed defendants slumped in their seats, several sobbed. One moaned in Italian, "I'm innocent."

Judge Irving R. Kaufman commended the jury for its "intelligent verdict." He set Jan. 14 for sentencing. Each of the convicted men could get up to five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

The defendants had explained the meeting of more than 60 underworld figures Nov. 14, 1957, at the Appalachian, N.Y., hillside estate of the late Joseph Barbara Sr. as a visit to a sick friend or a social affair. Some said they were there because they had auto trouble nearby.

FROM ALL OVER the country and even Cuba and Italy, the delegates had converged on the mansion of Barbara, a 53-year-old beer and soft drink distributor who died of a heart attack last June. The meeting never got underway. State police began recording the license numbers of the delegates as they entered the estate.

Many delegates scrambled into their cars and sped straight into the roadblocks. Others fled on foot into the nearby woods. John C. Montanar, 66, a usually dignified former Republican councilman in Buffalo and longtime man of the year there, was caught when he hopelessly tangled himself in a barbed wire fence.

A few delegates got away, but the others were held for questioning. In the months following the raid, the delegates were interrogated by state and federal agencies. A result was the federal charge of conspiracy to give evasive and false answers.

Throughout the trial, the government conceded that it did not know the secret purpose of the meeting. However, Arthur L. Reardon, acting commissioner of the country that grand juries and other federal agencies cannot be of investigation, said in a report for former Gov. Averell Harriman that the convocation was believed to have been called to split up territories, divide proceeds and discuss extension of racketeering in labor unions.

Treasury Urges Congress Not To Cut Taxes In 1960

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Treasury urged Congress Saturday to avoid any "piecemeal" tax cuts which would jeopardize a future general tax reduction "so ardently desired by all."

Acting Treasury Secretary Fred C. Scribner Jr. promised Chairman Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark) of the tax-writing House Ways & Means Committee that the Treasury would cooperate with Congress in "developing sound and attainable legislative proposals to improve the tax laws."

Scribner made the pledge in a letter to the lawmaker after Mills until 1961 to digest the flood of ruled out any major change in the overall tax structure during the coming election-year session of Congress.

IN A STATEMENT marking the end of five weeks of committee hearings on tax reform, Mills said it would take the committee a staff and treasury experts at least a year to digest the flood of suggestions and draft a feasible program.

Reliable sources said the Eisenhower administration would not propose any general tax cut in 1960. Democratic congressional leaders have indicated they are willing to go along on this point.

Scribner said the House hearings, at which 175 witnesses testified, were a "major contribution" to improving understanding of the strength and weaknesses of the federal tax system.

Until the testimony can be analyzed, Scribner said, "prudence counsels that we avoid piecemeal tax relief amendments which may well jeopardize future opportunity for general tax reduction so ardently desired by all."

Deadline Near For Entries In Christmas Coloring Contest

Youngsters from at least 18 area communities were represented in the Christmas Coloring Contest sponsored by the Kankakee Journal up to noon Saturday.

First entries arrived Thursday morning and have been coming in at a rapid pace since. Entries must be received at the Journal by 5 p.m. Monday to be judged.

Youngsters entering the contest range in age from 3 to 10. No one over 10 years old may enter. Entries will be judged on beauty, imaginative coloring, neatness and originality and must be the work of the child. Sketches to be colored are to be judged on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the Journal. Contest rules accompany this story.

Winners will receive cash awards ranging from a $25 savings bond to $100 honorarium prizes. Winners will be announced before Christmas.

CHRISTMAS COLORING CONTEST RULES

- The contest is open to boys and girls 10 years old and under except children of employees of the Kankakee Journal and WKAN Inc.
- Sketches appearing in the Journal Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are to be clipped out.
- The drawings, or reasonable facsimiles, are to be colored or painted without assistance.
- Drawings may be colored only in crayon, colored pencil, chalk or paint. Additional decorative material may not be used. Drawings are to be unmounted.
- The art of three drawings must be submitted at one time, preferably paper clipped together. They may be mailed to: Christmas Coloring Contest, Kankakee Daily Journal, 180 S. Dearborn Ave., Kankakee, Ill., or brought into the Journal office.
- Entries must be received at the Kankakee Journal by 5 p.m. Monday, Dec. 21, whether brought in person or sent by mail.
- Judging will be based strictly on the basis of beauty, imaginative coloring, neatness and originality.

Up 'til Now

A Scrapbook History, Old And New, Compiled By The Kankakee County Historical Society

Kankakee History
THE CHANGING SCENE
By HAROLD W. SIMMONS

The comfortable-looking home shown in the accompanying photograph was located on N. Schuyler avenue within one block of Court street. So many changes have taken place along our streets it is hard to realize how the town must have appeared in days gone-by. Business establishments now occupy many of the locations where once stood the homes of our leading citizens. The lot upon which this house once stood is now occupied by a popular eating establishment at the northeast corner of Schuyler Ave. and Oak St.

On Jan. 19, 1859 it was bought by one David Casseday from Ketchum and Gray, Trustees, for $100. About 1877 it was bought by Herman Kirchner for $800, and the property has been in the possession of his descendants ever since. Identification of these "the picture" was made by Miss Caroline Ehrlich, granddaughter of Mr. Kirchner. Standing in front of the steps is Mrs. George H. Ehrlich (nee Emma Kirchner), an unidentified girl, Louis Kirchner, Grandson and Grandpa Kirchner. The old home was torn down about 30 years ago.

The old copies of the KANKAKEE GAZETTE, preserved in the museum of the Kankakee County Historical Society, contain many old items which give a picture of a small town over three-quarters of a century ago.

Jan. 22, 1875—"Kankakee boys who have a grudge against their mothers attempt to square the account by going out and sliding along the ice on their knees. This operation results in very cold knees and a very warm spot about 22 inches below the back parting of their hair."

March 4, 1875—"It is said that three wolves were chased from the vicinity of Merchant street and Wildwood avenue, in the east part of town, to Cobb's Grove the other night. They had attacked a cow belonging to a woman named Stora and were in the way of making a meal from the animal as they already chewed her caudal appendage pretty badly. Parties were going in search of the beasts next day."

Note: Cobb's Grove was that area south of River street extending along the Kankakee River from Chicago avenue to Evergreen avenue.

Nov. 4, 1878—"The dry goods merchants have adopted the early closing plan, and until March their stores will not be open after 7 p.m., except on Saturdays."

Nov. 15, 1878—"A rascally, but very observing boy in crossing the street the other day gave his left hand a grand swing to the rear, and gathering the ample folds of his pants nearly raised himself off his feet in sacrilegious imitation of the lady in front, who had in like manner raised the trailing skirt of her pull-back from the mud. It was a severe thrust at the fashion of trailing street dresses."

Nov. 25, 1875—"HOLIDAYS. Our merchants are already preparing for the approaching holidays, and are filling their shelves with toys, fancy articles and all manner of attractive goods where-with to inveigle the spare change from the generous pocket. For the next month we may expect the store windows to loom up with the grand display of holiday goods which come once a year to remind us of childhood's happy days."

Dec. 2, 1878—"The time card on the I.C. calls particular attention to "Special Instruction No. 6," which forbids the running of freight trains faster than fifteen miles an hour, or a mile in four minutes, or seven telegraph poles in one minute. This frightful rate of speed suggests that some protection will have to be devised this winter to keep the trains from freezing to the track."

This Day In History

Today is Sunday, Dec. 20, the 35th day of the year, with 11 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

In 1793, Samuel Slater started the first successful American cotton mill at Pawtucket, R. I.

In 1861, South Carolina became the first state to secede from the Union.

In 1864, GEN. WILLIAM Sherman's "March to the Sea" came to an end as his Union troops occupied the city of Savannah, Ga.

In 1880, New York City's main thoroughfare, Broadway, became the "Great Way" as parts of it were illuminated by electricity for the first time.

In 1922, 14 republics of Russia combined to form the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

In 1941, Gen. Douglas MacArthur was promoted to the rank of full general.

Mennonites Thrive In Paraguay's Wilds

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP)—Like the early pioneers who fled religious persecution to find a haven in North America, Mennonite colonists have carved out a civilization in South America's Paraguayan wilds.

They started coming more than 30 years ago, from Canada and then the Soviet Union.

Their sect believes in pacifism, and they have lived, for the most part, in peace with their neighbors, primitive Indians, wolves, jaguars.

IN A JUNGLE-LIKE terrain that defied settlement for almost 40 years, they built thriving colonies with schools, churches, hospitals, a telephone system, a railroad and an airport. Today there are seven colonies of some 12,500 members; three in the Chaco in West Paraguay, four in the isolated section of East Paraguay.

The first Mennonites, 1,778 of them, came from Canada in 1918 when the government forbade them to conduct their schools in the German language or to teach religion. Other Mennonites, persecuted in the U.S.S.R., escaped and also made new homes in Paraguay.

Their first sturdy band found the Chaco rugged, desolate and challenging. Its semi-jungle vegetation and lack of water had proved handicaps too severe for the natives. But the Mennonites refused to turn back, even after a typhoid epidemic took almost 200 lives.

They pushed into the Chaco where land had been bought, carrying their primitive farming implements, driving their small herds of cattle.

The three thriving Mennonite colonies in the Chaco now number 3,000 people. They have elementary and secondary schools, electric power, cotton gins and oil presses.

THE LITTLE CITY of Filadelfia has almost 1,000 people. Although primitive by U.S. and European standards, Filadelfia is a modern marvel for the Chaco. The four colonies in East Paraguay have not done so well. They lack the superior organization of the Chaco settlements, and are often strapped for funds. Many have left.

Under terms of a contract signed by the government with the original settlers the Mennonites are almost completely autonomous.

Their charter exempts them from compulsory military service, allows them to run their own schools and to handle their own affairs virtually without supervision.

All seven Mennonite colonies are independent of each other. Each village elects its own leader—called the schuler. The village members also elect one representative for every 10 adult male property owners. The representatives serve as a village council and as delegates to colony meetings.

A governing committee and a colony manager—called an obereschulze—are elected by all the voters to run the colony affairs as a whole. Each man owns his own property, cattle and equipment. Goods are marketed by a colony cooperative. Colony stores sell supplies too and bills are settled at the end of the year.

Main crops are cotton and peanuts, with beans and sweet potatoes grown to some extent. The land is especially suited to wheat, corn, and soybeans, which grow as large as 60 pounds. Milk is obtained from a semi-wild native breed of cows.

THERE IS NO criminal code since crime is not prevalent. Punishment—fines, compulsory labor or even whippings—are decreed by the colony committee or the obereschulze after trials. The most frequent offense has been cattle rustling. There have been isolated cases of murder, manslaughter and rape. There are five general hospitals and two mental hospitals in the seven colonies. Education is compulsory for boys from age 6 to 14 and girls from 6 to 12. There are high schools in four of the colonies. Classes are taught in German.

Although the Mennonites are a religious body, not all the colonists are church members. The Mennonites do not believe in infant baptism, and decisions to join the church are made when a person becomes an adult.

In the Russian settlements of Fernheim and Volendam, between 20 and 60 per cent of the adult population do not belong to the church. However, the other colonies refuse to sell property to non-members and ministers will not marry anyone who has not been baptized.

The Rotary City (JNS) — Gerald Hagaman of Watseka will be the speaker at the Rotary Club meeting Monday.

The Rotary-Ann will be guests at the 6:15 p.m. session at Soran's Harvest Room.

Hagaman, a former minister, is secretary of organization, Illinois County Farm Bureau. He will speak on "A Roy Rogers Christmas."

A gift exchange will follow the program.

Some astronomers believe that the moon may be covered with dust up to two-thirds of a mile deep.

The piece de resistance at the Olivet College all-school dinner party last week was turkey wings—and senior thumbs!

The dinner was held in the Bourbonnais Elementary School gymnasium. Forty senior men were hosts. When they arrived to carry out their duties they found at each of their tables a 14-pound delicous roasted turkey—and a carving set. Each host's task—carve the turkey!

Necessity to say, there was many a sweaty brow as the hosts wrestled with their turkeys. When all was done there was no question about who was the most clever.

He was the fellow at the table of Dr. and Mrs. Harold W. Reed, the president of the college. Somehow the senior host prevailed upon the president to do the carving.

There will be no hallooing necessary this year on selecting the senior most likely to succeed!

Speaking about that dinner—the annual survey of faculty and staff members showed that slightly more than half of the 86 who participated in the survey expect to leave the community for the holidays.

Thirty-one said they intend to remain at home. Ohio is the most popular state with nine expecting to travel there with their families. Five said they will be at different locations in Illinois. Michigan and Indiana will attract three each and Florida and Missouri two each. Other states rating visits from the Olivet faculty are Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, Nebraska, Iowa, Texas, Tennessee, New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and California. Person traveling the farthest is Mrs. C. T. Corbett, book store manager, who is going by jet to California.

Dean Willis Spawhanger has a little work ahead for the holidays—working on the college catalog. Two—Dr. Ralph Perry and Prof. O. G. Hahn—will be moving into new homes.

One reported his family will have a banquet under their Christmas tree. They're expecting an addition to the family during the holidays.

Speaking of Kankakee and nationwide publicity—the old town got another unsolicited plug in a New York publication the other day.

The columnist writing about music in general was discussing some of the jazz at one of the New York night spots.

"The jazz on tap," he wrote, "came up the river from Memphis, Kankakee, Chicago, and maybe the Jersey shore."

Ah, fame!

For bowling consistency—along with ability—how about Kankakee's George W. Nance.

Bowling in the Commercial League, George has bowled 45 games this season.

He carries a 187 average.

He has been up to a 600 series only once!

George, who is one of the best spare bowlers in the league, has a high game of 242 and a low of 139 (last time out). His high series is 629 and his low (last time out) is 514.

The greater percentage of his series have been between 500 and 600.

In this season of "peace on earth good will toward men" it seems an appropriate time to offer this "Shortest course in good human relations."

State Boards Convene At Manteno State Hospital

Two firsts were recorded when the Illinois Civil Service Commission, Department of Personnel and Personnel Advisory Board met Friday at Manteno State Hospital.

It was the first time the groups have met at a state mental hospital and it was the first meeting attended by Lionel G. Thorsness, new member of the Civil Service Commission.

Thorsness succeeds Saul Epton who this week was named a Chicago Municipal Court judge.

The meetings were held at Manteno State Hospital to give members an opportunity to become acquainted with state institutions. The September meeting was at Southern Illinois University and Miss Maude Myers, Civil Service Commission chairman, said it is planned to hold meetings at various state institutions.

The Civil Service Commission approves the rules and regulations prepared by the Department of Personnel, hears appeals on dismissals or transfers and considers problems dealing with state employees.

The meetings at state institutions, Miss Myers pointed out, gives employees an opportunity to meet board members and discuss questions with them.

The Personnel Advisory Board is a nine-member group of bipartisan industry and business leaders appointed by the governor. Their broad, extensive experience with employ personnel helps guide the Department of Personnel in developing rules and regulations.

Chicago attorney Thorsness attended his first Civil Service meeting within days of being appointed to the commission to replace Epton.

Thorsness has served at the governor's appointment as a member of the Illinois Judicial Advisory Council. He also was a master in chancery for three years. He is past commander of the American Legion second month.

Khrushchev Keeps A Promise

Russians Send Children To Parents In Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI)—Ginas and Tomas Leonas will spend Christmas in Chicago because Nikita S. Khrushchev kept a promise.

Actually, they may not arrive here by Dec. 25. "But when they come, that will be Christmas," their breathlessly happy mother said. "If they are here for Christmas, it will be double Christmas."

It's been 15 years since Paulina and Elena Leonas, both 42, last saw their daughter and son, Ginas and Tomas.

In THAT TIME they built a prosperous real estate business in Chicago while Ginas, now 20 and a librarian, and Tomas, 17, and a student grew up behind the Iron Curtain.

Now the family will be reunited because the Soviet Premier decided to play St. Nik and give the Leonas the finest Christmas present of their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonas filed the Communist invasion of their native Lithuania in 1944, leaving their children with their parents.

PLEA AFTER PLEA was rejected and hope nearly had died when Khrushchev made his historic U.S. tour last summer.

The Leonas cornered the Russian premier in a D.C. hotel lobby, posing out their story and made a tearful plea that their family be reunited.

Khrushchev patted Mrs. Leonas' hand and turned to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. "See to it," he said.

Gromyko saw to it. The U.S. Embassy in Moscow announced Friday that exit visas had been granted the Leonas children and they should be in Chicago by Christmas.

Send $182,000 Book By Mail

NEW YORK (AP)—A 13th century book costing a record-breaking $182,000 has been delivered to its new owner—by ordinary mail.

Book dealer H. P. Kraus bought the illuminated manuscript of the Apocalypse at a London auction two weeks ago. It arrived Wednesday. The price was the highest for a book since J. P. Morgan bought one 30 years ago for $125,000.

"Wednesday, called December 28, would be the 666th day. A world holiday, it would follow December 28, 1959," Kraus said. "It would also be a world holiday and follow June 28, 1919."

Advocates of the modern calendar say 1961 is the time to adopt the new one. Both the year 1961 and the proposed World Calendar (see above) start on Sunday. Our present system is not only confusing, but wasteful when it comes to accounting, says Elisabeth Achelis in a current book, "The Calendar for the Modern Age."

This system would give quarters of equal length and give each month 28 weekdays. Extra holidays fall outside the framework and make things come out the same.

Keeping in Step

By Mary Jean Houde

"When you live in Kankakee, and have two small sons to care for, the chances of making a contribution to world peace are few and far between," says Mrs. Dana Lewis of 1125 Justice Dr. But she adds, "if you look for them, things can be done."

To prove it, Mrs. Lewis has been the inspiration behind a Merry Christmas for 40 foreign students at the University of Illinois and four local families, including her own.

Mrs. Lewis took a United Nations course in a WSCS program at the First Methodist Church. Since then she has been more interested in the cause of better world understanding. She thought Christmas would be a good time to start, and she asked (via the church bulletin) if any other families would be interested in entertaining foreign students on Christmas Day.

Plans have since been made for four families: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will entertain Sami Abdella from Egypt and Al-Reza Onomoni from Iran at their home, 1125 Justice Dr. Mr. and Mrs. William Hubert of Arona Park will be sharing the Christmas with a Japanese girl, Momoko Ito.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fife of 1872 E. Duane St. are expecting a native of India, D. N. T. Rao.

The Robert G. Cooks of 1847 S. Poplar Ave. made a request for the foster parents plan and felt they could learn more about the country. The students who will come to the Cook home are John Terrell and Demetrius Spang from Greece.

The students will be driven to Kankakee by John W. Price of the University of Illinois Y.M.C.A. on Thursday afternoon. They will return on Saturday. In between, there will be an exchange of Christmas joy and understanding.

"We can't do spectacular things like President Eisenhower," says Mrs. Lewis, "but we can all do more than we do."

On Christmas day, an English woman who lives in Enfield, Middlesex, England will pick up the phone for a conversation with her daughter and a son-in-law who have never met or spoken with before.

The daughter is Mrs. Thomas Clark of 401 S. Cannon Ave. She came to America in 1951 for a vacation, was married and has lived here since. She visited her native country four years ago but her husband has never been to England.

Mrs. Kent's mother, who is Mrs. James Bridges, will also speak to the youngest of the Kent children, whom she has never seen. Carol Ann, 4, is already a professional model and her picture can be found in several of the Christmas catalogues.

The kind of Christmas spirit that lasts all year is possessed by two Kankakeans, Mrs. Bernard Langlois of 73 Bourbonnais road and Mrs. Frank Miller of 40 W. Bourbonnais St.

Last October, the two women were pictured in the Journal with a display of 47 articles which were distributed for use by mission workers for three months, and Mrs. Miller was interested because she serves as world mission chairman for the Catholic Daughters of America.

When the Rev. Peter Rodriguez, C.M.P., a Cistercian missionary from St. Jude's Seminary at Muncie, saw the article in the news paper, he contacted Mrs. Langlois for help for a classmate of his.

Father Rodriguez' classmate is the Rev. Joseph G. Montero, now serving in Kita On, Takatsukiki, Osaka-Ju, Japan.

When Father Montero came to Japan as a missionary, he was given by his bishop a small wooden house (wooden roof, then wooden walls and straw matted floor), a bare wooden altar and a small stand and 400 yen or $11 a month.

His job was to start a mission. His needs and expenses, including equipment for the chapel, must come out of his allowance.

Mrs. Langlois listened and then shared the problem with her friend Mrs. Miller. Together, they made plans to supply the things that Father Montero made vestments and altar linens. They contributed other people for donations. Some gave money and some gave articles. Father Rodriguez contributed from gifts given him at his ordination.

The long list of contributions includes five complete sets of vestments and everything needed for a chapel.

Father Rodriguez was so moved by the efforts of Mrs. Langlois and Mrs. Miller that he wrote to the Vatican City of Rome of their work. They have received Papal blessings in written form.

Holiday Schedule

At Y Includes Christmas Parties

Special holiday schedule for the Kankakee Y.M.C.A. has been announced for women and girls by Mrs. Ruby Melberg, women and girls secretary, and for boys by Wesley Walker, physical director.

The events will get under way Monday with the girls Christmas party in the Crow's Nest from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The events will include games, movies, singing, grab bag, lunch and a swim.

Tuesday the boys Christmas party will be held with the feature being a showing of the movie, "The Littlest Angel." Stories, singing and a grab bag will be included.

The girls schedule calls for swim team practice on Dec. 22; girls swim team practice on Dec. 23; a co-ed skating party and free swim on Dec. 28; a swim meet with the girls junior leader party in the Crow's Nest on Dec. 29; girls swim team practice on Dec. 30 and a mixed swim and movies on Jan. 2.

The students will be driven to Kankakee by John W. Price of the University of Illinois Y.M.C.A. on Thursday afternoon. They will return on Saturday. In between, there will be an exchange of Christmas joy and understanding.

Our New Neighbors

MR. AND MRS. Elzie Clark and family were surprised when they received a telephone call this week from their son, Gene, from Frankfurt, Germany, wishing them a Merry Christmas.

Mr. Clark is a U.S. Army aviator and is now stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. He will be home this weekend for a furlough with his parents, the Glen Taylors, after which he will be assigned to a different camp.

Returning to the United States from Madrid, Spain, Kankakee newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wellands, found that their daughter, Judy, who was still learning to talk, could say only Spanish words.

She had been subjected to Spanish through her nurse, a Spanish-speaking woman. Judy is now 4.

Wellands was an export representative, and his territory included Spain, Italy and Portugal. Mrs. Wellands worked for the United States government in Spain.

However, the Wellands' most recent home, before their move to RR 2, Kankakee, the first of November, was Ottawa. Wellands is now a territory manager for Lindsay Bros. Inc.

The Wellands are both originally from North Dakota. They attended the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks where Wellands received his degree in 1951. More recently, he received a bachelor's degree in foreign trade from the American Institute.

Lennon Sisters Happy Because They're Not Career-Minded

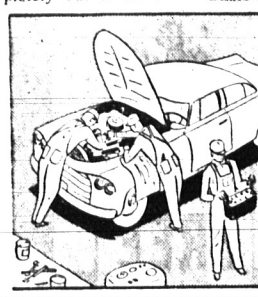

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Most homes will be happy on Christmas, but few will be any happier than that of the singing Lennon sisters.

The four girls, who can count the President and Mrs. Eisenhower among their fans, are part of a big family that was happy.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

If you haven't already prepared your car for winter driving conditions, now is the time to do it. Minor defects that won't normally cause you any difficulty in mild weather can stall your car completely when the temperature drops below freezing.

Things like dirty spark plugs, faulty points, a battery that's not up to par, leaks in the cooling system can put your car completely out of action on a cold morning.

Make sure, too, your brakes are pulling equally. It is dangerous enough on dry pavement to try to operate a car whose brakes pull to one side, but on the ice and snow conditions you will encounter during winter, that defect could cause you to skid and lose control of your car completely.

Winter is hard on a car in the best of conditions and the driving circumstances are hard on the driver. Don't handicap yourself by trying to operate a car that increases your possibilities of having an accident.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Ill.

CLIFTON (JNS) — The Future Homemakers of America of Central High School held their Christmas meeting Monday night with Mrs. Betty Tammeling, president, presiding.

Miss Sherel Reinhard, secretary, called the roll and the minutes were read. Members decided to invite the Bradley chapter to attend the February meeting instead of a Christmas gift exchange, a collection was taken to go to Fortin Villa, Bourbonnais.

Mrs. Lynda Mink read the Christmas story while Miss Nancy Lamone played appropriate music. After a series of games, refreshments were served by the chapter members. Mrs. Frank Brenneisen, Mrs. Al Hendon and Mrs. Jerry Woods.

Two guests who attended the meeting were Mrs. Donald Dicks and Miss Mary, a student teacher at Central High School.

MR. AND MRS. Millard Adelsch and son, John, of Harvey spent Wednesday evening with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Brown.

150 Attend Cub Pack Meeting In Morness School

MOHAWK (JNS) — One of the largest groups ever to attend a meeting of local Cub Scouts met at the Morness school on Thursday night. The count was 150.

Chairman Glen Van Blaricum and Cubmaster Ralph Colborn were in charge of the business session. Colors were presented and retired by David Colborn and Donald Appelberg.

Dens 5 and 6 tied with 100 per cent in the uniform inspection. Several other dens rated almost perfect. Den 2 won the attendance award. Cub Scouts presented gifts made for their parents.

Games were played, with parents and scouts participating. The seven dens each presented a skit. Santa Claus arrived and presented treats.

Awards were made by Cubmaster Colborn. Gary Nagel received the bear badge. Ronnie Hasso and Bobby Lipak, silver arrow under bear. Gary Nagel and Bobby Lipak, gold arrow under bear. Jimmy Nagel, Ron Hasso, Mike Van Blaricum and Richard Kurth, perfect ac audience pins. Ken Baushman, dinner stripe. Clyde Mansberger Jr., assistant dinner stripe.

Mark Colborn, den chief, cord. Mrs. Colborn, three-year pin. Refreshments were served by Mrs. L. with Mrs. Robert Appelberg and Mrs. Leo Kibbons in charge. Neighboring communities, Mrs. and Mrs. Clinton Bissip, Peotone, were special guests.

Nearly two thirds of America's 22 million people are without electricity.

Dead Quarry Dangerous, Too! Skunk Hunter Has Had Few Narrow Escapes

NEW YORK (AP) — The chase went on for several minutes through the Arizona chaparral, pushing every now and then while the antagonists blasted away at each other. Suddenly, it was over. "I got him," said Dr. Richard G. Van Gelder. "He was a skunk."

Dr. Van Gelder, recently named chairman of the Department of Mammals at the American Museum of Natural History, is well on his way to becoming the world's leading authority on skunks.

HE IS ENGAGED in a comprehensive study of all skunks, the first such investigation since a German named a m. d. Lichtenstein traced their family tree 125 years ago.

Kitchen Gifts Aid The Homemaker All Year

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Hub of Christmas home activities promises to be the kitchen, and gifts beamed for this important center rank high in style, color and usefulness. Appliances, utensils, cookware, and accessories; each group offers an intriguing and varied selection to the shopper.

By Christmas, major appliance manufacturers will have introduced most of their new models or ranges, refrigerators, dishwashers, laundry equipment and the like. Tiny gift, replicas and elaborate cards will inform lucky homemakers just how generous Santa can be in updating their kitchens.

In this day, when a lovely, resilient tile floor in the kitchen is the rule rather than the exception, one new appliance is almost certain to bring joy on Christmas morning. This is an electric floor washer with which a dirty floor can be scrubbed clean and vacuumed dry, rapidly and effortlessly.

When the area is clean, another control is pushed to suck the dirty water into the plastic bag, which is easily emptied when the floor is clean.

And here's more: The idea that mixing spoons, ladles and spatulas make perfect gifts might seem ridiculous until you see the new sets. Outstanding is a Lazy Susan pedestal-type holder in genuine mahogany with steel knobs on which hang an assortment of utensils. Two different glass and assortment are offered, and they can be put anywhere one chooses for convenience.

Small electric appliances show no signs of losing any of their holiday popularity as gifts for a bride or for the experienced homemaker, although few radical changes have been made in their designs in the last year.

For the family that entertains a lot, large electric griddles might prove a help. A small refrigerator only 20 inches wide and 30 inches high offers 2½ cubic feet of cold storage and could easily fit into a family's kitchen.

Almost as much in demand as good, sharp knives are good knife sharpeners.

One new electric model is a small, compact sharpener you can hold in your hand, precision guides direct the blade down the honing path.

A flashlight battery powers another new gadget. It's a single-blade mixer. This inexpensive mixer will stir milk drinks, juices or eggs for scrambling.

Independable in the kitchen at Christmas are cookies and a well-filled jar. Cookie jars are enjoying renewed attention partly because of the numbers of modern and amusing designs now available, many of them imports.

The children, however, would agree that one of the nicest is a round replica of Santa Claus, when filled to the top of his red cap with home-made cookies.

The program included a skit, "Kindergarten Kapers," given by former pupils of Mrs. Post's Sunday school kindergarten class who are now Sunday school teachers. Those participating in the skit were Joan Bruns, Edna Janssen, Joann Carley, Martha Janssen and Ruth Wilken.

The Rev. Robert Spang, pastor of the congregation, was master of ceremonies and gave a talk on the theme, "The Joy of Serving."

The committee in charge of the supper included Mrs. Fred Steinhilber, Mrs. LaVern Carley, Mrs. Dennis Harms and Mrs. Verlin Meyer.

The family of NINA NOURIE wish to thank everyone for their kindness shown with cards, Masses, flowers, food and cars during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife, mother and grandmother.

Crescent Scouts Receive Awards

CRESCENT CITY (JNS)—Boy Scout Troop 52 of Crescent City met Wednesday evening in the grade school.

Awards were presented by Stanley Courson, scoutmaster, to Robert Bruns and Paul Botz, three-year pin and patrol leader badge; John Mizer, two-year pin and tenderfoot badge; and Larry Hill, two-year pin.

The scouts presented a Christmas gift to Courson.

San Flato, Steve Werkeus, and Ross Nightengale were initiated as new members.

Onarga Bank Robbed

An armed man robbed the Onarga State Bank of an undetermined amount of money today.

The bandit, believed to be carrying a revolver, thrust a paper sack at a teller with instructions to fill it.

The teller, Lindsey Blotky, was unable to tell how much the gunman got.

Charles Struble, a state trooper, said the man left the bank, ran south and turned a corner. So far, authorities have been unable to trace his course beyond this point.

The man was said to be between 20 and 30 years old, five feet 10 inches tall and weighing about 150 pounds. He wore a blue sweater and dark glasses.

It was understood that only two other employees, besides Blotky, were in the bank when the robbery took place. They were Vivian Pruett and Mildred Lambert.

Allies Seek Summit Talks Next Spring

Both Sides Hurl Charges During The Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Union and steel company negotiators meet today for the first time in 10 days. As they gathered, the companies were saying new and higher union demands prove the union is responsible for the deadlock.

Union President David J. McDonald retorted it is the companies that are out of step.

As the aluminum settlement took form, McDonald issued last week a new 10-point steel demand.

In a weekend development, Dr. George W. Taylor, chairman of President Eisenhower's fact-finding board, sent letters to the 33 steel firms involved, asking them to submit their last offers to the union by next Monday.

IF NO SETTLEMENT results—and the chances were rated small—the board will submit the last offers to a secret ballot of the workers between Jan. 6 and 21, as provided by the Taft-Hartley Act.

The 500,000 unionists will be free to resume their strike on Jan. 26 if the vote is negative. On that date the 80-day federal injunction will expire.

The union's prior offers were unacceptable to the companies," McDonald said Sunday night. "This is the union's responsibility. It moves beyond question that it is the union's policies and bargaining practices that have been the cause of the deadlock."

McDonald said Sunday night he had not received the companies' letter.

The aluminum pact, according to the union's figures, provides a 30-cent increase in wages and fringe benefits over the three-year period. Some of the aluminum pact's details were in the architecture in Paris. It was the third marriage for the Shah, who was married to a Persian princess in 1937. His first marriage was to a Persian princess in 1937. His second marriage was to a Persian princess in 1937. His third marriage was to a Persian princess in 1937.

Ike Welcomed In Spain

MADRID (AP)—Hundreds of thousands of cheering Spaniards today gave President Eisenhower the warmest welcome this country has received in a foreign visitor in modern times.

Flag-waving crowds lined the streets and hung from trees and jammed balconies as the President and his wife, Mrs. Eisenhower, arrived in Madrid today.

Francisco considers this presidential visit a tribute to his support of the Western Allies against communism. It is a far cry from the atmosphere of a few years ago when the United Nations held the Franco regime to be a menace to peace.

Today, as United States bombing bases in Spain.

IN FACT, Eisenhower landed at one of those bases near Madrid, and Franco in his welcome commented on that.

"This base of Torrejon, built with the formidable assistance of the United States, and sheltering both Spanish and American wings in close companionship, is a symbol of our friendship," Franco said.

Francisco expressed hope Eisenhower's "epoch-making tour" would lead to a just and durable international order.

Eisenhower said his visit fulfills the ambition of carrying a lifetime message of wishes for a brilliant future and a cooperative effort for liberty and peace.

"I say to Spain and the Spanish people that we are working together for a world free of war and hunger and for peace, liberty and justice."

THEN THE TWO moved toward Franco's car for a short tour of the big air base before a triumphal drive through the city.

A cold wind of nearly 30 miles an hour howled across the city as the President and his wife, Mrs. Eisenhower, arrived in Madrid today.

On reaching the outskirts of the capital and the start of a six-day tour, the President and his wife, Mrs. Eisenhower, arrived in Madrid today.

Fred Balthazor, Injured In W. Kankakee Crash, Dies

Frederick H. Balthazor Jr., 34, 500 S. May Ave., a West Kankakee volunteer fireman and a busman for the Public Service Co., became Kankakee County's 10th traffic fatality at 5:25 p.m. Sunday.

Balthazor was injured in a head-on collision with a car on St. and May Ave. in West Kankakee, as he was returning home with a family.

He had a son and daughter in the car with him, Richard, 7, and Barbara, 6, Richard was, reportedly, killed.

DRIVER OF THE other car was Roger Lehman, 17, Loganport, Ind., who was not reported injured. However, he was charged with two traffic violations. Deputy sheriffs cited him for failure to yield the right of way, for which Justice W. Roy Beach fined him $24. A hearing on the second charge, not having a driver's license, was continued for 10 days by Beach.

Lehman was going west on Hickory street, and Balthazor south on May Avenue.

The Balthazor car was hit broadside at the driver's door and the impact of the collision spun the car over the curb and onto the terrace. The car struck the curb and incurred an estimated $800 damage.

Balthazor was born May 27, 1925 in Kankakee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Balthazor Sr. He moved to Monmouth with his family when he was 3 years old, and returned to Kankakee 10 years ago. On Oct. 15, 1947 he married the former Edna Broadstreet in Monmouth.

HE WAS A member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers local 1473, the American Legion, Illinois Firemen's Association, Monmouth Methodist Church and was a World War II veteran, serving in the Navy nearly three years.

For the past 12 years he had been a lineman for the Public Service Co.

Surviving are his wife, mother, Mrs. Frederick H. Balthazor Sr., Monmouth; daughter, Barbara, 6, sons, Richard, 7, and Brian, 2, sisters, Mrs. Priscilla Leas, Papas, and Miss Jeanne Balthazor, Monmouth; and brother, Bernard, Monmouth. His father died a year ago.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in Herz Memorial Temple, The Rev. A. J. Copeland, pastor of Monmouth Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Memorial Gardens. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 p.m. Tuesday to time of services.

Forrest Boy Critical After Fatal Crash

FORREST (JNS)—A 17-year-old Forrest boy remains in critical condition today in Fairbury Hospital, Fairbury, following a head-on crash Sunday which took the lives of two California residents.

Suffering severe head and hand injuries is Ronald E. Walker, driver of one car involved in the fatal accident.

Dead are William Sturm, 27, Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Geraldine Gill, about 35, San Francisco, Calif. Mrs. Gill's husband, Lawrence, 37, also is reported in critical condition in Fairbury Hospital with face and chest injuries. The Gill were passengers in the Sturm car.

Passengers in the Walker car, reported in fair condition in Fairbury Hospital, were Roger Read, 17, and Maurice Ringler, 16, both of St. Louis.

According to authorities, the accident occurred about 5:20 p.m. Sunday as the Sturm car was heading east from California to Pennsylvania for the holidays.

State Trooper Clarence Hodges of Marionville, who investigated, said the Sturm vehicle swerved into the westbound lane on Route 24, about 2 miles east of Forrest, crashing into the westbound Walker car. Hodges said a car operated by Charles Danielson, 17, of North Dakota, was parked on the side of the road with tire trouble.

"There was a light snow falling at the time of the collision. Both cars are total wrecks."

The bodies of Sturm and Mrs. Gill were taken to the Cullin Funeral Home, Forrest, where attempts are being made to contact relatives in California.

FTC Chairman Earl W. Kintner said the two-day "conference on public deception" was aimed to educate consumers on how to detect and avoid "being victimized" by illegal selling methods, particularly false or misleading advertising.

SALINGER, who heads the President's Council of Economic Advisors, contended that most reductions in the consumer index in recent years result from lower food costs.

Says Business, Industry Fail To Seize Price Cut Opportunities

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower's chief economic adviser today accused business and industry of failing to seize every opportunity to cut prices.

Dr. Raymond Saulnier also questioned the practices of labor unions in the opening session of an unusual seminar sponsored by the Federal Trade Commission to show the buying public how to guard against "trickery in the marketplace" and phony advertising.

FTC Chairman Earl W. Kintner said the two-day "conference on public deception" was aimed to educate consumers on how to detect and avoid "being victimized" by illegal selling methods, particularly false or misleading advertising.

SALINGER, who heads the President's Council of Economic Advisors, contended that most reductions in the consumer index in recent years result from lower food costs.

But he also warned that the problem was "by no means licked" yet.

Nyborg said work by the FTC over the past year indicates that most businessmen voluntarily halt such practices "when the rules of the road are spelled out."

Nyborg said the press, radio and television were making valuable contributions in helping the government and better business bureaus fight the problem.

A SURVEY of 219 newspapers, he said, showed that they projected advertising totaling $8,696,400 last year because it didn't come up to snuff.

Nyborg said he agreed with the American Newspaper Publisher Association that the survey was "another clear demonstration of the fact that the daily newspaper puts its integrity above all other considerations."

"Broadcast media, the local radio and television stations, likewise endeavor to police the price level should be shared by industry and not by a few individuals," he said. "It should be recognized that the National Association of Broadcasters has done much to eliminate certain types of advertising."

Kintner said in a prepared statement that the conference could prove a boon to the public, as he was an aide to her father, King Edward VI. Their marriage was widely predicted, but she bowed to a Church of England statute against remarriage of a divorced person while her first husband was still living.

Margaret's Old Suitor Also Weds

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Peter Townsend, onetime suitor of Britain's Princess Margaret, today married a woman in London.

Princess Margaret met Townsend, daughter of an Antwerp tobacco magnate.

It was a civil ceremony in a suburban town hall, with no religious announcement.

"There was no religious ceremony of any kind," said a friend. Townsend is 44, his bride 20. His romance with Princess Margaret broke up four years ago.

HE HAD BEEN divorced in 1952 after fathering two children with her. Townsend said he was an aide to her father, King Edward VI. Their marriage was widely predicted, but she bowed to a Church of England statute against remarriage of a divorced person while her first husband was still living.

Chessman Faces Execution Feb. 19

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cary Chessman, convicted murderer who has won the execution of 11 years of appeals and petitions, today was sentenced to death for the eighth and possibly the last time.

Superior Judge Herbert W. Walker set Feb. 19 as the execution date for Chessman.

Shah Of Iran Takes A Bride

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Pretty young Farah Diba became the new Queen of Iran today amid hopes that she will provide a son and heir for the throne.

With radiant smiles the 21-year-old brunette with brown eyes and light olive complexion married Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi in a Moslem ritual in the marble palace.

SHE THUS BECAME Queen Farah Pahlavi.

It was the first marriage for the young Iranian commoner, who until recently was a student in blue.

The Shah was a full ceremonial dress of dark imperial blue, trousers and a navy blue coat covered with medals.

The capital was in a gay, festive spirit. Flags flapped in the breeze. Many buildings were decorated with bunting and the national colors.

The Shah divorced his first two wives. The bride wore a flowing bluish-pearl gown wedding gown. Farah took the traditional white in a fur-trimmed coat.

Plan Abominable Snowman Search

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI)—Sir Edmund Hillary, the New Zealander who conquered Mt. Everest, has been authorized to conduct a nine-month hunt for "abominable snowmen" on 27,000-foot Mt. Makalu.

The 14-man expedition that Hillary is to lead up the slopes of Makalu in September also will attempt to master its towering peak with oxygen and will map the effects of high altitude on the human body.

Rail Wheel Shatters At Gilman; Man Hurt

GILMAN (AP)—A railroad employee was seriously injured and some 600 passengers were delayed today when the Illinois Central's City of New Orleans shattered a coach wheel.

Hurt in the accident about one mile south of Gilman—about 50 miles south of Chicago—was Herman Fox, 59, a machinist for the railroad. He was en route from work at the Chicago roundhouse to his home in Paducah, Ky.

THE RAILROAD said that a wheel of the lead truck on one coach shattered, and a piece of the wheel struck a passenger, striking Fox. He was taken to Iroquois Hospital at Wat-

More Donors Are Needed

Judy Werner, left, and Susan Schuller find one of the 200 Christmas baskets donated by Girl Scout Troop 308 to needy families in the Kankakee area. But 117 baskets are still needed to fill all the requests received by the Community Welfare Council. The council says more than 50 needy families failed to get any Christmas basket last year.
