RAIN SAVES COUNTY CROPS SAYS COLLIER

GRAZERS AND PASTURES WERE ON VERGE OF BECOMING WIPED OUT

BOON TO GARDENERS

Only Damage Caused By Storm This Morning Was To Empty House In City

A rain of inestimable value to farmers and truck gardeners of Kankakee county, began to fall yesterday afternoon with light showers and was followed by a fairly heavy downpour this morning. John O. Collier, county farm adviser, stated that the rain caused no damage whatsoever but did considerable good to crops.

Grain and pasture had been badly dried by the rain and were watered with dryness and withering. It is not been for the arrival of rain. Collier and soy beans were in need of the rain which was called a "life-saver" to the truck gardeners in the vicinity of Great Park, Wickert and Monmouth. The corn crop had not needed rain lately, but the shower did it no harm.

There was no rain west of Reddick yesterday, but a heavy shower fell in the county, this morning.

A small frame cottage on Fairway street was struck by a bolt of lightning which caused the minor electrical storm of the day. The house was unoccupied, and the owner, who would have remained in the house, was not in the house. The house is the property of the William Rauzen company, owners of Sunnyside subdivision and is located on the lot next to "Honeymoon Cottage."

The bolt struck the large brick chimney of the fireplace in the living room of the cottage, splitting it open from top to bottom and scattering bricks over the front yard. It then followed the electrical wiring through the house, entering into the plaster ceilings as it followed the path of the wires. The whole of the living room was shattered. Wires were burned away, leaving a hollow tube of insulation. The family of Floyd S. West, a West Station street, occupied the house until just a few days ago. If post office employee residing at 338 they had been still living there, it is believed that no one in the house would have escaped instantaneous death.

The shock was felt in the houses nearby, but no damage was reported other than burned out fuses. One truck of the fire department answered the alarm, which was reported at headquarters at 5:37 o'clock, but no fire was found. The smell of sulphur was noticeable in the house when the firemen entered.

MINISTER GUILTY OF ABDUCTION

REV. A. L. SHOEMAKER FACES FROM ONE TO TEN YEARS IMPRISONMENT

IS CONVICTED TODAY

Was Charged With Taking Two Members Of Choir From Illinois To Missouri

Alton, Ill., June 6.—(AP)—The Rev. Alonzo L. Shoemaker, Pentecostal minister, was found guilty of abduction by a jury in Alton City court here today, after more than ten hours of deliberation. Conviction carries a penalty of from one to ten years imprisonment. Sentence has not been passed.

The jury started its deliberations late yesterday afternoon after more than three days of trial. The Rev. Shoemaker, 38 years old, was charged with taking Miss Bernice Ford, former member of the choir of the Edwards street Pentecostal church here with him to Charleston, and Morley, Mo., in April 1928.

Testifying as the last witness in his own defense he denied her testimony given Monday in which she said that he induced her to go on the trip and told her to give her parents the excuse she was going to St. Louis to seek work. He denied too, her testimony that since his indictment he had offered to divorce his wife and marry her if the charges were dropped.

The minister, who was conducting a revival in Nutwood, Jersey county, when the trial started, said on the witness stand Miss Ford had been forced to testify against him, and offered an alibi that he was in Sikeston, Mo., at the time he was charged with being in Charleston with the girl.

Formal sentencing of the minister by Judge Levi Yeager will be delayed pending a motion for a new trial filed by his attorney after the verdict.

Cautioned by Judge Yeager when the jury filed in, there was no demonstration when the verdict was read, a large gathering which filled the court room remaining quiet.

Rev. Shoemaker, seated at the counsel table, remained impassive as he was through the three days of trial.

Shoemaker was in the courtroom awaiting the verdict when the jury was locked up for the night, as were two girls, former members of his choir. Orchestra, who disappeared from Alton the same day. He left last October. In February the preacher and the girls were found in Lakeland, Fla., where he was conducting a revival. He was indicted and the girls also returned home.

Shoemaker faces charges of abduction in connection with their disappearance.

The case which the City Court jury resumed deliberations today grew out of Shoemaker's alleged taking of Miss Ford to Charleston, Mo. He presented alibi witnesses to prove he was in Sikeston, Mo. at the time and also offered testimony the girl had been forced to appear against him.

Mrs. R. C. Pruitt of Hoopeson was a Kankakee caller yesterday.

Believe Grundy County Fire Victims Died In Slumbers; Funeral Today

Morris Ill., June 6.—(Special)—Although the origin of the fire that destroyed the Oliver Peterson home three miles south of Newark on Monday night has not been fully determined, the fact has been practically established that neither Mr. Peterson nor either of his two sons, Carl and Sheldon, former residents of Herscher who lost their lives in the blaze, ever left their beds before their deaths.

The fire that caused this triple tragedy was discovered by a neighbor at about 10 o'clock. He entered the home and attempted to rouse the occupants, but receiving no response left in the belief that there was no one at home. It was impossible for him at that time to make a search of the house on account of the flames and smoke, which were gaining great headway.

Despite the frantic efforts of the few neighbors who responded and the work of the Newark fire department, the house burned to the ground. About midnight it was learned that three lives had been lost in the fire and a search of the ruins was started.

Mr. Peterson was found near where the kitchen door had been, but in view of the fact that he slept in a bedroom upstairs it was believed that he was suffocated by smoke and met his death in bed. The two bodies of the boys were found in the basement. They slept in an upstairs room and they, too, were believed to have died without awakening from their slumbers. In each case the bodies were found almost directly under the location of their individual sleeping places in the bed rooms, and it is believed they dropped through the floors as the house was consumed.

All that remains of the home which Mr. and Mrs. Peterson had toiled hard to pay for during the last 12 years they had resided on the farm, is a foundation and basement filled with ashes. At one end stands piles of melted crockery and dishes. A blackened cook stove, marked where the kitchen stood. In a corner of the basement a cream separator badly damaged by the heat rears up out of the ashes.

Funeral services for the three victims were conducted at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon at the Larson funeral home in Newark, and at 1 o'clock from the Lutheran church, of which the father and two sons were faithful members. Burial was in Helmar cemetery.

Mrs. Peterson has not recovered sufficiently from her terrible shock to say what she will do in the future. Crops are in on the farm, the home is gone and the family circle divided in half, but in all likelihood, with the assistance of her son, Graydon, they will turn their attention to harvesting the crop and carrying on the work which a good and kind father had started.

EMPLOYEES OF KANKAKEE LINE ASK FOR WAGES

The "strike" of employees of the Kankakee Electric Railway yesterday morning was not exactly a strike, it appears, but rather an organized request for wages which were several days overdue. It is reported. Arrangements were made which were satisfactory to the employees, for the time being at least, and service was resumed with hardly a hitch.

With the constantly growing problem of automobile transportation cutting into the receipts of the street railway, it is no easy matter to meet the payroll and other current expenses. Although the system has been able to make some payments upon its debt for power to the Public Service company, it is reported that it falls short of making expenses sometimes as much as $25 a day.

The situation is a serious one for the railway, and unless business picks up or the system can be re-financed, it is believed that it will be only a question of time before the Commerce Commission must be requested for permission to discontinue service, or else the railway might be forced into receivership.

Since taking over the local management of the railway, Fred Selley has made a decided effort to put the system on its feet, but little can be done without new capital. He is quoted as saying that as long as it is possible, the wages of the employees will be paid among the first of the obligations.

GRAF ZEP SAFE IN HOME PORT

GIANT GERMAN AIR LINER ARRIVES AT FRIEDRICH- SHAFEN THIS EVENING

18 THOUSAND MILES

Completes Last Leg Of Her Long Journey At 7:22 P. M., Or 1:22 P. M., EST.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, June 6.—(AP)—The Graf Zeppelin, home from her 18,000 mile voyage to South America and the United States, landed at Friedrichshafen at 7:22 p. m. (1:22 p. m. EST).

The Graf thus completed safely a cruise lasting 19 days during which she made landings in Spain, Brazil and the United States and flew over the north African coast.

The Graf left her home port of Friedrichshafen on Sunday May 18 and since then made her sixth and seventh crossings of the Atlantic.

She left Seville, Spain, on May 20, arrived at Pernambuco, Brazil on the 23rd, visited Rio Janeiro and left Pernambuco on May 26 for the United States, arriving at Lakehurst on May 31. Two days later she was off again for Seville, arriving yesterday and remaining just 31 minutes. She discharged some passengers and took on supplies.

Her voyage from Seville to Friedrichshafen, which lasted 24 hours and 47 minutes, was without incident except for the last few hundred miles when the Graf veered away from the Rhine valley, near Valencia and swung off to the northeast to Friedrichshafen in order to avoid a terrific electrical storm in the region of Lyons.

A tremendous crowd which had been waiting for hours for the return of the ship of which all Germany is proud, was on hand to welcome the homecoming voyager.

The weather was clear and warm as the great air liner, a beautiful sight, maneuvered slowly to the landing field after her adventurous flight.

As the landing crew grasped the ropes and brought the Graf back again to her home port, a great shout went up from the crowd.

SIX N. Y. C. TRAINS WILL BE CUT OFF

PERMISSION GRANTED TO RAILWAY BY ILLINOIS COMMERCE COM.

CITY PROTESTED

Action To Eliminate Passenger Service Between Kankakee And Streator

According to an Associated Press dispatch from Springfield, Illinois, today, the Illinois Commerce Commission has given the New York Central railway permission to discontinue six of its passenger trains. The trains which may be removed from service include the following: numbers two and five between Streator and South Bend, Ind.; numbers one and four between Streator and Kankakee, and numbers 12 and 13 on the Danville division.

By this action, the New York Central has permission to eliminate entirely the two following trains: number two leaving Kankakee at 6:00 a. m. for South Bend; and number five arriving in Kankakee from South Bend at 7:50 p. m. Also number one, arriving in Kankakee from South Bend at 9:45 a. m. may be discontinued between Kankakee and Streator; and number four which arrived in Kankakee at 3:20 p. m. from Streator on the way back to South Bend may be eliminated between Streator and Kankakee.

In other words, there will be but two passenger trains on the Kankakee to South Bend line per day, or it might be said that there will be but one train per day making the round trip between Kankakee and South Bend, with no passenger trains between Kankakee and Streator. Number one arriving in Kankakee from South Bend will turn here instead of going on to Streator and will then return to South Bend as number four.

It was emphasized this afternoon by New York Central officials that the only action taken thus far is that permission has been granted to discontinue the trains, but that they are still in operation and no definite date has been set to discontinue them. It was also said that there might be changes in the schedule of numbers one and four, but that the present schedule would be adhered to until announcements to the contrary were made. Arrangements might be made, it was stated, to carry passengers between Kankakee and Streator by mixed trains.

The growing use of automobiles for transportation to take the place of trains until passenger fares between the two points were almost negligible was given as the reason for the action. Also, the elimination of the passenger trains which are all first class trains and thus have right-of-way over freight trains, will improve freight service, which is the real paying business of the railroad.

Several weeks ago when the city government of Kankakee learned of the railway request to discontinue the trains, a protest in the city's name was filed with the Commerce Commission, on the grounds that taking off the trains would be an inconvenience to Kankakee.

The taking off of the trains numbers 12 and 13 on the Danville line will be an inconvenience to railway employees on trips to Chicago. They left Kankakee on number two, meeting number 12 at Schneider, Ind., to transfer to Chicago, then leaving Chicago by number 13 and meeting number 5 at Streator to return to Kankakee.

MILLIONAIRE SENT TO JAIL FOR CONTEMPT

TRIED TO PUNCH NOSE OF LAWYER WHO TRIED CASE IN KANKAKEE

IN HINDERER DIVORCE

Thomas Condon Now Wielding Mop In The Cook County Jail; Is Repentant

Attorney Benjamin B. Davis of Chicago, who was associated with Attorney Charles W. Kurts of this city in the divorce action brought by Mrs. Margaret Hinderer against Gottlob Hinderer in the local circuit court at the January term in 1929, is attributed as being the man who is responsible for Thomas Condon, millionaire, being sentenced to serve sixty days in the Cook county jail for contempt of court.

Davis, on Wednesday of this week, was representing Mrs. Condon in Judge Sabath's court in Chicago. Condon's former wife was seeking back payments on $600 a month alimony. Davis, in his plea to the court, said some things that were not to Condon's liking.

Condon became so incensed at Davis that he stood up in the court room and shouted, "It's all his, his!"

Held By Lawyers

Then the millionaire president of two corporations and director of several others lunged at Davis and attempted to punch the attorney in the nose. His attempt was frustrated by his own attorneys who grabbed his arms and pinned them to his side.

Judge Sabath then decided that it was his turn to become irate and decided the case in favor of Mrs. Condon and ordered Condon sent to the county jail for contempt of court. Efforts of his attorneys to save him from this humiliation were to no avail as the judge remained adamant.

Davis Given Pile

Attorney Davis even gave a pile in behalf of Condon, and stated that as long as his client had her case he did not wish to see a man of Condon's position subjected to such punishment because he lost his temper in a momentary fit of anger. The judge also turned a deaf ear to Davis' plea.

Condon's right hand — the hand that can write a check for a million dollars and cash it — is now wielding a mop in the Cook county jail. He asked for the job himself when time hung heavy while he was sitting in a cell. He was also bathed and disinfected and eaten porridge, soup and beef stew, the same as the other inmates of "almshouse."

Asks Release

A petition was presented to the court yesterday stating that Condon is repentant and eager to apologize to the court and that his outburst was the result of irritated nerves. It asks that he be permitted to return to his duties as head of the Condon Industries Inc., and the General Telephone Utility company.

Local court followers will recall that some remarks made by Mr. Davis have caused a similar outburst on the part of Mr. Hinderer's attorney.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk today for Fred Dandurand, 24, Kankakee, and Twilla Belair, 19, St. Anne.

CONGRATULATIONS

Tonight in the beautiful auditorium of the Kankakee High School, one hundred and nine of the finest Kankakee's young men and women will assemble for the last time as the Class of 1930—to receive from the hands of the Superintendent of Schools, A. F. Johnson, the diplomas emblematic of their successful completion of the high school course of study. After tonight they will no longer be students of Kankakee High School, but will be members of its alumni group.

Various organizations of the high school will participate in the program to make it more beautiful and interesting: the high school orchestra, the girls' glee club, and the boys' glee club. Superintendent J. C. Brown of Peabody, New York, who will recently be president of the Northern Illinois Teachers College at DeKalb, Illinois, will give the commencement address. Rev. Lorentz J. Hansen, pastor of the First Baptist church of Kankakee, will give the invocation and benediction. A member of the Kankakee Kiwanis Club will present the Kiwanis trophies to the boys and girls of the Class of 1930 who have proven themselves the best all-around boys and girls.

Surrounded by their parents, relatives, friends, and their fellow students of the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes—who are preparing and anticipating the day when they too will wear the traditional caps and gowns—the Class of 1930 tonight will be showered with honors and congratulations from the people of Kankakee and vicinity.

Some of these young people have excelled in athletic endeavors, bringing honor to their school through the victories they have won in inter-school competition. Others have become prominent in other activities of the school, its clubs, plays, bands, orchestra, glee club, and the like. Some have excelled in scholastic attainments. All have been successful in scholastic work to a high degree else their names would not appear on the list of graduates.

It will be a beautiful and inspiring sight, especially so to the parents of these young people, many of whom have unselfishly made personal sacrifices that their children might have the priceless privilege of the splendid educational facilities of Kankakee High School provides. Sacrifices will be forgotten tonight in the glow of pride and satisfaction that only an occasion of this kind can inspire.

It will be a time of satisfaction and pride too for the members of the high school faculty who for the past four years have enjoyed the privilege of helping to mould the young characters and personalities of these young people who will graduate tonight. They have had an important share in the coloring and shaping of the destinies of these young people and the personal interest of teacher in pupil will linger long after tonight's events are forgotten.

When the graduates of the Class of 1930 enter the portals of Kankakee High School this evening for the last time as students, there is one especially important thing for them to remember—your parents, your teachers, your school with all of its facilities and advantages, has given you as fine an opportunity for high school education as can be found in the world today. From now on, it is entirely up to you.

The Daily Republican joins with the people of Kankakee and vicinity in expressing hearty congratulations to the Class of 1930, and wishing them continued success and happiness. That includes every graduate of Kankakee county, irrespective of the high school from which he or she is graduating.

He is proud of the fact that he was the first democratic representative in the legislature from his home district; that he was the first democratic legislator from Massachusetts; that he is the first son of an immigrant parent to be governor of that state; that he was the first democratic United States senator from Massachusetts since the days of reconstruction.

When he goes out campaigning for office he styles himself "the people's candidate." And he succeeds in doing what no other demagogue in Massachusetts has been able to do consistently—capture the "silk stock" vote.

His opponents never have been able to quite understand how he can draw support from the top to the bottom.

SUNDOWN STORIES

THE BIRTHDAY ROSE

By Mary Graham Bonner

The Little Black Clock took them back to the garden they had visited the evening before and there they stood, a tiny rose bush had just been planted. "I'll turn the time forward slowly now," the Little Black Clock said, "and we'll see how that rose bush blooms each year."

The Little Black Clock did as he said, and the rose bush seemed to grow lovelier and lovelier and the roses upon it were so beautiful.

They were single roses and they opened wide after they had been buds, and their fragrance was very, very sweet.

"I'll tell you what happened," the Little Black Clock told the children. "That rose bush was planted just where you first saw it in honor of a baby girl who had just arrived in the house beyond the garden."

"It was called her rose bush and each year since then it has been growing stronger and more beautiful all the time—to keep along, so the rose bush says, with the girl, about the birthday of the rose bush."

"But every birthday the rose bush has grown upon it than at any other time or day of the year. That is so that the birthday girl can have a big bunch of roses from her own birthday rose bush."

"How lovely to have a birthday rose bush," Peggy said.

"I don't like it," agreed the Little Black Clock. "But dear me, dear me, we have a very long journey we must take—to see whether we are getting back now. It's a long journey, but we'll see it all the way."

"Tomorrow—Wait and See."

Familiarity with the house fly breeds an unwarranted contempt for the dangers it presents.

It is well if every parent appreciated that flies and babies do not thrive well together, and that unless special efforts are made to suppress the fly, the baby is liable to be the loser.

Many dangerous diseases so destructive of infant life are spread by flies.

Flies contaminate food, spoil milk and spread typhoid, erysipelas, tuberculosis, pink eye and skin infections. Flies have been suspected of spreading many other diseases.

Two volunteers, dressed in khaki shorts and wearing Gandhi caps, took their positions in front of each of twelve European shops and urged Indians not to enter. Europeans were not molested.

A humorous touch was added to the proceedings by one European firm of outfitters which provided stools on which the Nationalist volunteers might sit.

French Anxious About U. S. Tariff

Paris, June 6.—(AP)—A letter requesting that attention of the United States government be called to anxiety of French industry at proposed increase in American tariffs has been sent the French minister of commerce, M. Plandin, by the French Federation of Industries and the National Association for Economic Expansion.

The letter characterizes the proposed new duties as a prohibitive barrier to most of the principal French industries and predicts a tariff war "dangerous alike to world prosperity and peace."

The letter further refers to statements of American economists that high tariffs will increase prices in the United States with resultant dangers to the country's prosperity.

This Capone Was Not "Scarface" At

New York, June 6.—(AP)—A man with a scar on his face is not necessarily a relative of Alphonse (Scar) Capone. He might be a New York detective.

Rose Halperin, 25 years old, had a scar on her face that today in her cell in Harlem prison where she is held in default of $15,000 bail, a material witness in the killing of Jacob Rosenber, dress manufacturer, Irving Ashkenazy, a taxicab driver, is awaiting trial for charges of manslaughter, as Rosenber's assassin.

After the slaying of Rosenber during a strike riot last February, two private detectives followed Miss Halperin to Montreal, posing as Chicago gangsters they scraped an acquaintance with her and introduced a young man with a scar under his eye to her as "James Capone," a brother of Al Capone.

Yesterday accompanied by Miss Halperin, Capone walked into the office of District Attorney Clegg. The man with the scar disclosed himself as Eugene S. Canaveri, a New York City detective. He said while he was in Montreal, Miss Halperin had told him that she had lured Rosenber to the street corner where he was struck down.

Canaveri, said she also told him that she and Ashkenazy were in the pay of a garment union. The detective said she boasted of having a part in the slaying of two other men.

TARIFF MEASURE OPPONENTS GAIN MORE STRENGTH

Washington, June 6.—(AP)—The voting strength of the senate opposition to the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill was increased by one ballot today as the measure for the fourth time went back to conference for further revision.

Senator Steag, Democrat, Iowa, whose attitude has been regarded as uncertain announced he would vote against the bill. Terming himself a "Protection Democrat," he assailed the measure as "a fraud if not a crime."

Close voting is in prospect when the conference reports are put to roll call tests next week and the leaders of both sides are keeping a close check on how individual ballots are to be cast.

Chairman Smoot of the Senate Finance committee called the conference together today in the hope of rewriting disputed clauses in time to reintroduce the conference report before adjournment this evening.

The bill went back to the conference after Vice-President Curtis had sustained Democratic points of order contending the conferees had exceeded their authority in writing provisions affecting the rates on cheese, watch jewels and rayon and clause relating to the temporary importation of cattle from Canada and Mexico for pasture purposes.

Had been smoothed over with the definite adoption of the original bill for debating the point of order, to be called by President Hoover as soon as the present recess session is resumed.

This program was finally agreed upon after three days of conference between the chief executives and leaders of the two parties. The Young Republican group had been contending an effort to bring the treaty to a vote before adjournment.

Chairman Borah of the Finance committee which has been the part under consideration was among those who conferred with Mr. Hoover and he issued a statement last night saying he had told the President "that so long as the Senate remained in session" he would feel it "duty to urge the treaty be disposed of with all convenient dispatch."

He went on to say he would be glad to take the bill to the Senate after the conference report was reached, as soon as the Senate was in session.

Opponents of Naval Treaty Claim Gains

Washington, June 6.—(AP)—Opponents of the London naval treaty today claimed voting gains, but its sponsors were still confident the pact would be ratified.

Senators Johnson of California and Robinson of Indiana, Republicans, who are expected to lead the fight against the arms limitation agreement, made claims of increased strength. Robinson predicted the treaty would be rejected.

Meanwhile, procedural difficulties had been smoothed over with the definite adoption of the original bill for debating the point of order, to be called by President Hoover as soon as the present recess session is resumed.

This program was finally agreed upon after three days of conference between the chief executives and leaders of the two parties. The Young Republican group had been contending an effort to bring the treaty to a vote before adjournment.

Praise Given to Publicity Lassers Store

In the June issue of the "Furniture" leading periodical for furniture stores and factory executives, an entire half page is devoted to newspaper publicity and public relations of the Lassers store in this city as it appeared in the Kankakee Daily Republican at the time when a special advertising section of this newspaper was devoted to the Lassers store.

The page pictures one of the Lassers store advertising campaign in the Kankakee Daily Republican, telling how it was used, and features the Lassers store as a national leadership in bringing new and different publicity appeal to the buying public.

The Lassers store is congratulating the Lassers store for the honor and recognition given it by leaders of furniture stores and factories of the nation, not only because of the fact that it was a Kankakee store which received this recognition, but also because the Republican enjoys reflected honor since the advertisement was made up in the Lassers store.

Representative Red, Republican Illinois, was right when he said that the Lassers store was a complete surprise to him. "And this store is one of the pioneers in that movement. As such it has been fortunate in gaining national recognition and bringing honor thereby to the newspaper which interpreted its advertising to the community of which it is a part."

State Makes War on Auto Licenses

Springfield, Ill., June 6.—(AP)—The state is not only the month of brides and roses but it is also the season of the year when the state makes war on owners of automobiles who have failed to obtain new license plates. P. M. Harman, chief investigator of the state automobile department warned motorists today that there are approximately 100,000 automobiles in the state without proper licenses. The drive against these delinquents will be continued to the end of the month.

Particular attention will be paid to the automobile department to persons who purchase cars this month and attempt to evade the law until July 1 when the full rate becomes effective on license plates.

Rehearing of Five Criminal Cases Is Denied

Springfield, Ill., June 6.—(AP)—Rehearing of five criminal cases was denied by the supreme court here today. One petition for rehearing of a criminal case was allowed.

The court also refused to reconsider the appeal of the Stevens Hotel company in its fight against the Chicago Beach club and the South Park commissioners. The hotel company asked the courts to restrain the yacht club from building a clubhouse on the lake front on the grounds that a building would interfere with the hotel's right to view the lake.

When the Cook county circuit court refused to act in the matter, the hotel company appealed to the supreme court. At the last session, the supreme bench affirmed the action of the lower court in dismissing the suit.

The one rehearing allowed today was in the case of Percy Thompson, of Chicago. Thompson was convicted of obtaining $10 by confidence game and sentenced to from 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary.

David O. Rockola, who was convicted of conspiracy to bribe police officers in connection with the operation of slot machines in Chicago, was denied a rehearing. His conviction was upheld by the court recently.

Rehearing was also denied in the case of James Forsyth and Simon Gorman of Chicago who were convicted of carrying concealed deadly weapons.

The men appealed on the grounds that they had been denied the right of retaining counsel. The supreme court ruled at the last session that the case should have been appealed to the appellate court.

The court also refused to reconsider a decision handed down last term upholding the conviction of Raymond O. Lacey, of Bloomington. Lacey was convicted of stealing a cow.

Names, Dry Law, Intensify Jersey Primary

Newark, N. J., June 6.—(AP)—In a notable contest for the republican nomination for United States senator in New Jersey has been waged at the paramount issue.

Standing for repeal of the eighteenth amendment and restoration to individual states the right to determine their attitude on liquor traffic is Dwight Morrow, chairman of Calvin Coolidge, ambassador to Mexico and a delegate to the London naval conference.

Morrow will be opposed at the primary June 17 by Representative Franklin W. Fort, formerly secretary of the republican national committee and floor leader of the forces that nominated Hoover. Fort is an ardent advocate of continuation of the present prohibition laws.

Joseph S. Freinhuysen, intimate of Harding when he was president and formerly a member of the senate, seeks the nomination on a platform advocating control by the government of the liquor traffic, and also A. Kelly, the fourth contestant.

Rated himself as a "regular republican" opposed to prohibition, Morrow frequently the case, there is no opposition in the democratic party.

Alexander Simpson, formerly a state senator, seeks the long term nomination for United States senator and Miss Thelma Parkinson, a delegate to the democratic national convention in 1928, is striving for the short term.

Morrow and Kelly both are seeking the nomination for the United States senate. Morrow, who is married to become ambassador to France, and for the full six-year term. Freinhuysen recently withdrew his candidacy for the short term. Fort's petition covered only the full term.

Some of Morrow's supporters might have him withdraw for the short term believing since his name would appear once for the long period and again for the long many voters might be won by the mark the ballot but once. He decided, saying he would "not resort to political subterfuge."

JAMES M. COX OF OHIO IN FAVOR OF AMENDMENT REPEAL

Columbus, O., June 6.—(P)—Repeal of the eighteenth amendment is "unhesitatingly favored" by former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, the Democratic presidential nominee in 1920.

Cox injected the prohibition issue into his party's campaign as a "victory dinner" of Ohio Democrats here last night at which he acted as toastmaster. He announced preference for governor control of manufacture and distribution of liquor.

The former governor was joined in his stand against prohibition by former United States Senator Atlee Pomerene of Cleveland, but the party's attitude on the question was left unsettled when the final speaker, former Congressman Martin L. Davey of Kent, candidate for governor in 1928, urged that the issue be left alone.

"The people will never change the existing order by bringing back the saloons," Cox said, "nor will private interests ever again be permitted to become selfishly allied on any side of this issue."

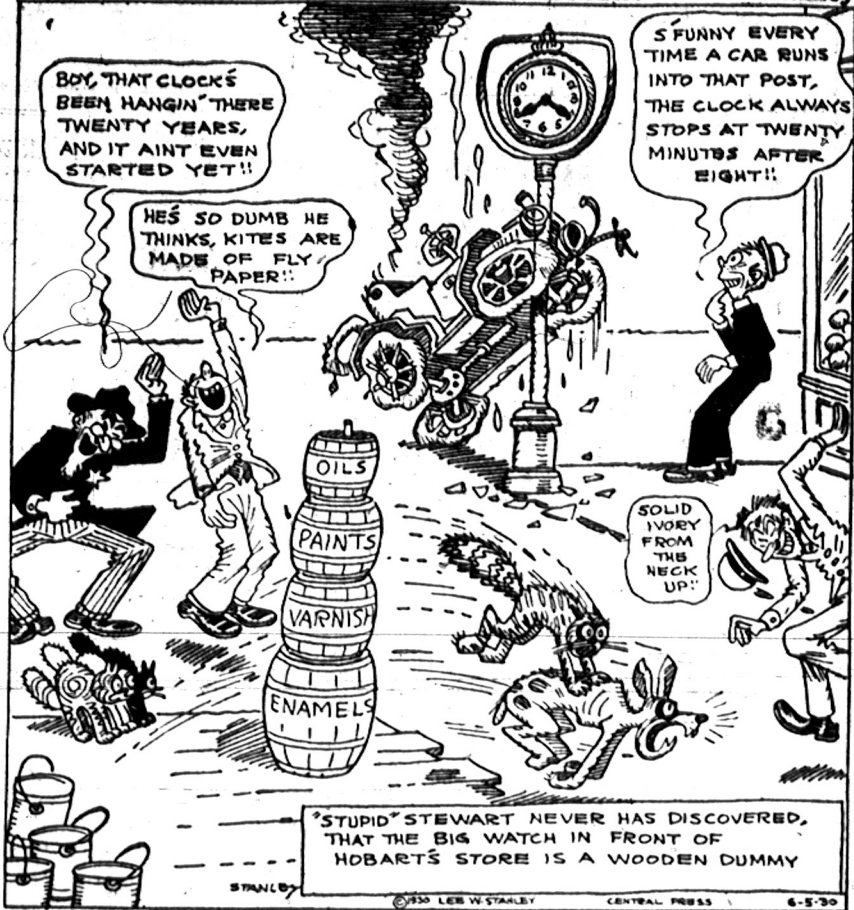

"With this understanding, I unhesitatingly favor the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. As between the old saloon order, with its brewery-controlled politics, and whatnot, and the present setup, I would prefer the latter, but we all prefer not being compelled to choose between these two extremes. Both are impossible."

Cox said there is need of another governmental provision "which shall in plain terms prohibit the manufacture or traffic in alcoholic liquors anywhere in America by private or corporate interests."
