BOBBY JONES WINS BRITISH CHAMPIONSHIP

AMERICA'S OUTSTANDING GOLF PLAYER WINS GREAT VICTORY TODAY

AT HOYLAK, ENGLAND

Come From Behind To Capture The British Open Golf Title

Hoyle, Eng., June 20.—(AP)—Final scores for the British championship were as follows:
Robert T. Jones, Jr., Atlanta (X) 116-29-291.
Leo Diegel, Mexico 218-75-293.
MacDonald Smith, New York, 117-21-293.
Fred Robson, England, 221-75-296.
Archie Compston, England, 215-75-297.
James Barnes, New York, 226-75-297.
Bert Hodgson, England, 227-74-298.

Ted Ray, England, 229-78-307.
A-Amateur.

Hoyle, England, June 20.—(AP)—Bobby Jones today won the British Open golf championship for the third time with a score of 291. The open champion of the United States increased his golf titles to three as he won the amateur championship of Great Britain last month. He is the first man to hold the British Amateur and open championships since John Ball accomplished the feat in 1890. The Georgian won in spite of two shaky rounds today. He took 74 strokes in the third round, when he carded a six and 15 in the afternoon when he had a seven on his card. His first two rounds of 70 and 72 pulled him through.

Leo Diegel and Archie Compston played the final round in the afternoon and Diegel remained in the hunt until the sixteenth hole when he took a 16. Jones, P. G. A. champion of the United States, made a great bid but finished two strokes behind Jones, taking 73 for the third round, the same score Bobby returned.

Although he had not definitely won when he finished his round, Jones was furnished an escort of police who guarded him on his way to the clubhouse as though he had just been arrested for throwing a bomb or something.

Archie Compston, Giant British pro went from the sublime to the ridiculous in his last day's play. He broke the course record in the third round with a 68 and then fell away to 82 in the fourth for a 72 hole score of 297.

Despite showers of rain as the fourth round playing began, the crowd grew steadily and as Jones came out of the clubhouse, wearing an extra sweater, with friends carrying other rain clothes, the dog-legged first hole was lined almost solid from tee to green.

Jones started with a par four at the first hole.
A gallery was estimated at 8,000. Jones alighted into a bunker over the fourteenth green in playing the second hole but he made a sensational recovery and holed a 30 foot putt for his three.
Jones played the third, which has been a jinx hole, in par five and

FARMS PROFIT BY KANKAKEE EXPOSITION

INTER-STATE FAIR PRIMARILY FOR THOSE ENGAGED IN AGRICULTURE

SHOW NEW METHODS

Demonstrations On Latest Types Of Farm Implements, Gasoline Engines, Etc.

That the Kankakee Inter-State Fair is primarily an agricultural exposition designed to serve and benefit the farmers of the vicinity becomes at once apparent when a survey is made of the broad fields it covers in agricultural, livestock, mechanical, and domestic exhibits.

Whatever may be said to the contrary, Kankakee's prosperity is largely dependent upon the fertility of the rich soil of the surrounding territory.

Perhaps the realization of that fact is what caused the founders of the fair to organize back in the early 1860's, the Kankakee county Agricultural Society, whose main purpose was to hold a yearly fair on the south fifteen acres of where the present mammoth exposition now stands.

All through the years the purpose of the Kankakee Fair has remained the same—to serve as a meeting place where those who are dependent upon agriculture as a livelihood may gather, not only to exchange views with one another, but also to learn how to better care for their livestock, how to raise finer crops easier and cheaper, and to provide good natured rivalry by means of competitions in all branches of farm products and livestock.

Large manufacturing companies of farm machinery exhibit their implements at the fair grounds. In this their purpose is not so much to sell as it is to explain the latest wrinkles and developments in farming implements to the agriculturally inclined public. Short cuts in using tractors, threshing outfits, plows, cultivators, planters of all sorts, and gasoline engines are explained and demonstrated.

Thousands of dollars in premiums will be paid to the prize winners in the various agricultural competitions during the week of the fair, August 10 to 18. Farmers of this vicinity are urged to compete in these various farm classes. Special contests will also be held for each township in Kankakee county.

Full details regarding these competitions, requirements for entrance, etc., may be found in the 1930 Kankakee Inter-State Fair Premium List which is at present undergoing revision and will be ready for distribution in several weeks.

C. H. POWELL LOSES IN SUPREME COURT

According to an Associated Press dispatch, the state supreme court today affirmed the decision of Circuit Judge A. W. DeSelm in which the will of the late James Powell, leaving money and property to Mrs. Anna Bechtel, was contested by Charles H. Powell.

Powell, in his appeal to the supreme court, claimed that Mrs. Bechtel used undue influence upon James Powell when he made his final will.

YOUNG PUPIL TO ENROLL IN HIGH SCHOOL

MARSHALL FRASER LAMORE AGED 9, TO BECOME A FRESHMAN

NEVER IN SCHOOL

Taught At First By His Mother, After The Third Grade By Private Tutors

Marshall Fraser Lamore, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lamore, 62 Main street, Bourbonnais, who has never been to school a day of his life, plans to enter Kankakee High School as a freshman this fall. Even now he is studying Latin—the first test of which was passed with a grade of 91—algebra, history, English, and other studies in preparation for his high school work.

Hampered since babyhood by poor health which is gradually being corrected as he grows older, the boy has never attended either public or private school, although his examinations were conducted by accredited instructors. Through the first three grades, he was taught entirely by his mother. Since the fourth grade, his education has been gained through a private tutress, Miss Marie Louise Beaulieu of Bourbonnais.

On April 25th of this year, Marshall took his eighth grade examination under Frank Saltzger, county superintendent of schools, for the purpose of securing his diploma preparatory to entering high school. In spite of his youth, the fact that he had never been away from home without the companionship of his parents, and despite strange surroundings, he passed the examination with an average grade of 83 and a fraction. This, with his average yearly grade of over 93, gave him a final grading of 94.

Instructors who conducted the examination stated afterward that Marshall's paper was one of the best written. Only two pupils, both of whom were 13 years of age, received a better grading. Both of these pupils had been taught by Miss Beaulieu.

His gradings by subjects as a result of the eighth grade examinations were: Arithmetic 99; geography 98, history 95, writing 87, spelling 98, reading 94, grammar 85, physiology 97, civics 96. His ratings on the subjects written during the morning session were not quite as high as those of the subjects written during the afternoon, possibly because of nervousness and because of the fact that he had been ill the night before. After lunch, however, his work was much better. During the afternoon session, he wrote the examination in three subjects in one hour and ten minutes with not a grade below 85.

Marshall's averages by grades since he has been under Miss Beaulieu's supervision were: fourth grade, 94; fifth, 96; sixth, 97; seventh, 93; eighth, 94. During his third grade course, while he was still being taught by his mother, he submitted to a spelling test of 467 words, making two mistakes.

History is the youngster's favorite study, his mother says, in fact with him it is not a study at all, but a diversion that he welcomes at every opportunity. He does not care for spelling, but always gets a good grade. He enjoys geography and arithmetic and reads a great deal. Assignments in his studies are given in advance by his tutress, then are studied during the day by the boy, with the recitations in the evening. Most of his lesson assignments are worked out by himself, with little assistance. He has no interest in a lesson that is not difficult.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. GROENEWOOD

The brief but impressive funeral service of the Episcopal faith was conducted yesterday for Mrs. Henry J. Groenewoud at St. Paul's church by Rev. Louis Martin, the pastor.

The crowded church and the abundance of flowers testified to the esteem with which Mrs. Groenewoud was held in the hearts of Kankakee people. County offices in the court house closed for the services and most of the county employees attended the funeral. A long procession of automobiles followed the body to the grave in Mount Grove cemetery.

LOCAL DELEGATION TO N. Y. C. PICNIC ON SPECIAL TRAIN

A large delegation of local New York Central railroad employees, and their families, left here at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in two Pullman coaches for Sandusky, Ohio, where they will attend the 15th annual picnic of the Lake Shore Pioneer Veterans' association of the New York Central. The outing will be held on Cedar Point, in Lake Erie.

Among those from this city who were on the special train were: Mr. and Mrs. Dode Rex, Mr. and Mrs. John Line and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Caron and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Line, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vickory, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blake and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Dwight and other employees between Kankakee and South Bend were also on the train which will stop at South Bend until 11 o'clock tonight. The local people will return to Kankakee at noon Sunday.

STEEL TO ARRIVE FOR THEATRE MON.

Two hundred and four tons of fabricated steel girders for the new Strand theatre are enroute to this city and are expected to be unloaded on Monday of next week, according to J. A. Roeder, local director of the Strand project.

Mr. Roeder stated that riveters will start work at once when the steel is unloaded at the theatre site. Work on the theatre is progressing satisfactorily and the brick and concrete installation is proceeding at a rapid pace.

FINAL TAX NOTICES HAVE BEEN MAILED

Final notices for the annual county personal property tax sale have been mailed out by County Treasurer L. B. Rogers. Collectors will be sent around next week.

Mr. Rogers stated that the real estate tax sale was completed this week. The figures have not been tallied as yet, but the total will amount to more than in previous years according to the treasurer's estimate.

P. T. LAMBERT REAL ESTATE AUCTIONED TODAY FOR $1,751

The entire real estate holdings of P. T. Lambert, former local hardware merchant who was forced into bankruptcy in federal court, were sold at public auction for $1,751 this morning on the north steps of the court house.

The property auctioned, subject to all encumbrances, was purchased by Mr. Lambert's son, Clement Paul, and consisted of the following: the Lambert residence at the corner of Chicago avenue and Hickory street; two apartments on Hickory street; a vacant lot on Cobb boulevard; two lots at Gary, Ind.; twenty acres of land near Tampa, Florida.

Attorney Charles W. Kurtz, trustee of the estate, had charge of the sale and the auctioneer was E. E. Fox. A fair crowd of bidders was on hand.

BAR ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL PICNIC AT DYER'S COTTAGE

Members of the Kankakee County Bar association enjoyed their annual picnic yesterday at Wayne Dyer's cottage along the river nine miles north-west of the city. The outing was one of the most successful ever held by the association.

The feature attraction of the day the baseball game between the attorneys whose offices are in the Volkman building and those of the City Banks building was called in a 13-13 tie, although up until the fifth it stood 13 to 2 in favor of the Volkman outfit. County Judge Henry P. Ruel was the umpire and called the game after being subjected to the usual abuse which is the lot of a baseball umpire.

There were plenty of fine "eats" and all kinds of refreshments on ice. The speaking program was cancelled as many of the attorneys who were members of the pea-shelling committee had visited the camp the night before and their vocal cords were not in condition for public speaking.

The annual vote on the prohibition question was dispensed with as the attorneys decided that the general trend of public opinion, including the newspapers, is now in sympathy with their views on the 18th Amendment and the Literary Digest poll. A suggestion was made that Andrew Volstead be burned in effigy, but no pictures of Mr. Volstead were available and there were no artists in the crowd.

BAUER WINS GOLF TITLE OF ICEMEN

The golf tournament played at the Tom Thumb Golf course Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, between the Ice Men's Club of the Kankakee Beverage Company was won by Walter Bauer.

The score of the final round was Bauer 52, Glassford 62.

Some nice shots were made by both players and it was not until the last few holes that the match was decided.

After the match Walter Bauer was presented with a trophy given by the Ice Men's club. J. L. Downs was also given a prize for having low score among the losers.

In the near future another tournament will be held.

WEATHER FORECAST

Otto Holtmann, Kankakee weather forecaster, received a call yesterday from Professor Miller at Lincoln Fields asking for a weather forecast for June 22, at which time Luther Harris will gather for the day. He predicts ideal weather. Mr. Holtmann says that the summer months will be dry and warm with bad storms.

SECY. HYDE'S TRIBUTE TO HOME BUREAU

PUBLISHED IN 15TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION OF BUREAU NEWS

PROGRESSIVE WOMEN

National Agricultural Head Is Pleased With Work Done In This County

The fifteenth anniversary edition of the Home Bureau News, monthly organ of the county Home Bureau, was issued today. The edition consists of 12 pages, the largest ever published by the bureau, and was edited by Miss Hazel L. Quick, county home adviser.

The front page of the edition contains a picture of Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde and the following letter of congratulation to the local bureau upon its 15th anniversary:

"Dear Friends:
"My attention has been called to the fact that the Kankakee County Home Bureau is soon to observe the Fifteenth Anniversary of its organization. I am glad to have the opportunity of extending to you greeting and my best wishes for the continued success of your organization.

"A desire to know more about the things which make for the satisfying home and life, is found among all progressive farm women today. Home demonstration work seeks to meet this desire in a practical way.

"A glance through your annual reports and those of the state leaders of Illinois received by the United States department of agriculture since 1915, shows that in your first year, the women in your state were working on food preparation and preservation, nutrition, buying for the home, budget making and expense recording, health improvement, clothing, and child care, and that the women of Kankakee County chose for consideration on that year the subjects of food and clothing conservation, health and child care. In your 1929 report we find that you were interested in home management, music, appreciation, and child care and training. This comparison shows that home demonstration work is always practical, for in each period the women are centering their attention on the foremost problems of the day.

"The home demonstration system of education as developed in this country appears to me to be particularly fortunate for the women of today who are confronted at every turn in home making with a multitude of choices to be made in order to provide the essential nutrients, setting, and security for a satisfying life. The rural woman is interesting in making her dollar go as far as it can but she is not interested in getting along on one dollar if she needs two. For this reason, we find her concerned to day in measures designed to make the farm produce the other dollar.

"Effective action to raise the living standards on our farms is necessary not only in the interest of the farm people immediately concerned, but in the interest of the nation. The farms of our country are a source of population as well as of food supply. The entire nation suffers when living conditions on the farm make it difficult to rear and educate young people adequately there. It is with satisfaction, therefore, that I view home demonstration work, and the progress made by modern farm women in meeting the problem of home making.

"Sincerely,
ARTHUR W. HYDE,
Secretary."

SUPREME COURT IN REVERSAL OF CASE AFFECTING LEHIGH

The state supreme court today reversed a decision in the Kankakee circuit court and upheld the decision of the Illinois Commerce Commission requiring the Illinois Central railroad to establish the same rates for transporting crushed stone from quarries at Thornton as are maintained from Lehigh to within 100 miles or more from Kankakee.

The Commerce Commission order was made on the complaint of the Brownell Improvement company, which charged that rates from Thornton to destinations on the Illinois Central were uniformly 13 cents greater than the rates from Lehigh. The Brownell company is the owner of the quarry at Thornton.

Notice of the order was received by the Republican in a special Associated Press dispatch.

MAKE EFFORT TO ORGANIZE T. B. ASSOC.

COMMITTEE SELECTED TO SE- CURE REPRESENTATION IN THE COUNTY

W. P. SHAHAN TALKS

Want Concerted Action In An- nual Sale Of Christmas Seals To Fight Plague

Preliminary steps toward the re-organization of a Kankakee County Tuberculosis and Public Health association were taken at a meeting attended by about a dozen interested local citizens who met at the court house last evening.

The following committee was selected to arrange for a representative from each township to attend the next meeting at which action will be chosen and a constitution adopted: Dr. Sophie Schroeder, Dr. A. L. Nicholson, Dr. L. G. Wimer, Mrs. Harry Lower and Miss Eva Minor.

Seek Members
Members of this committee will call upon various other organizations in the county to secure representation in the association which has been dormant in this county for several years. These organizations will include the Business and Professional Women's club, the city and county medical societies, Woman's club, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, Home Bureau, Soil and Crop Association and the Federation of Labor.

W. P. Shahan, executive secretary of the Illinois Tuberculosis and Public Health association, was in attendance at the gathering. He stated that there were 5,633 deaths from tuberculosis in Illinois last year, but that this was only half the number of deaths that occurred from the ravages of the white plague in 1900. The 50 per cent reduction in deaths, he said, is due largely to the campaign of education in the prevention of the disease through the sale of Christmas seals. This is particularly true of the work in the schools at childhood and takes its victim in the prime of life. Most tuberculosis deaths occur between the ages of 19 and 44.

Raised $1,800 Here
Last year, in Kankakee county, there was no organized effort in the Christmas seal sale. Despite this fact, there were over $1,800 in seals sold in the county by school children and others. The state association seeks to combine these organizations for more coordinated effort. County associations are being organized all over the state which raised $123,000 in the seal sale of 1929. From 75 to 85 per cent of the revenue secured in these sales is retained by the county, the balance to be divided between the state and national organizations.

Mr. Shahan stated that the county, with one united effort, should sell not less than $3,500 of these seals. The county's share then be used for special work in the schools, clinics, nurses, fresh air camps for children susceptible to tuberculosis, and, if the revenue is sufficient, for founding a county sanatorium.

The meeting was presided over by Assistant County Superintendent of Schools John Bouchard. Mrs. Elisabeth Mann, county welfare head, was named temporary secretary. Alpha Rodenberger, director of the state field service, who arranged the meeting, was also present.

The champions began to emerge early in the season. They defeated the Indians 4 to 2 and repeated the feat yesterday by a 3 to 0 margin, sending Cleveland down into fourth place by the two-fifths margin.

The Yankees there would not be shaken off from the New York throne so long as they were able to bring in Babe Ruth, who has been the mainstay of Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4. After losing in three attempts, the Yankees took the second home run in the seventh inning and provided the margin of victory.

The picnic was a very day interesting. There was something every one enjoyed. The day was very hot and the children played and different solos were sung by the young people. The picnic was a very day interesting.

the Chicago Cubs a game closer to the Brooklyn Robins, the league's flourishing leaders. The Cubs opened a home run assault on Sox pitcher Seibold in the first three innings and scored all three runs for a 3-0 lead.

1. Major League South Chicago Heights made four errors to their credit for far as the pitching was concerned it was a great game. Teams pitching ace for the Bloom high school, was pitching for South Chicago Heights. The score was a tie the ninth inning, one to one. In the eleventh inning Steag made two to take the game winning.
 Our pitcher was Mr. Berrig.

REAR ADMIRAL BYRD AND PARTY REACH WASHINGTON

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Byrd and his party, including his wife, Mrs. Byrd, returned today to Washington to receive the nation's highest honor, the Medal of Honor.

The admiral and his wife were met at the airport by President Hoover and the first lady, Mrs. Hoover. They were then taken to the White House where they were presented with the Medal of Honor by the president.

The admiral's expedition, which was the first to cross the North Pole, was a great achievement for the United States. The admiral and his party were in the Arctic for over a year, facing many hardships and dangers.

The admiral's expedition was a great success. They were the first to reach the North Pole, and they brought back a great deal of information about the Arctic region. The admiral and his party were also the first to cross the Arctic Ocean.

NEW YORK WELCOME FOR BYRD; MEETS MOTHER

Saw Great Naval Battle
The peninsula of Jutland embraces the area between the Skagerrak, the North sea, and the English Channel, and has an area of approximately 9,700 square miles.

The peninsula takes its name from the Jutes, an ancient people who once inhabited it. It was in May, 1916, that the famous naval battle of Jutland between the allied and German fleets was fought off the western coast of the peninsula.

Search for Missing Girls in Mountains
Yankima, Wash., June 20.—(AP)—A searching party today hunted Evelyn Krauthremer, 18, and Marian Conover, 17, Yankima Girls Scout, who have been lost in the upper Naches district near here since Tuesday.

Sheriff's deputies believe the girls were nearly exhausted from exposure and hunger. Rain fell in the mountains last night after an electrical storm.

Lot One Drive Up To Your Front Door

Interest is up and prices are down in the used car market today—and among this large list of fine bargain there is certainly something to suit YOUR needs

Here are just a few of the auto values Kankakee Dealers are offering today

JUST WHY SHOULD YOU BUY A USED CAR RIGHT NOW?

Contest Among Salesmen Is Given Big Start

The contest among the automobile salesmen of the city was given a flying start this morning at a breakfast held for them at McBroon's Cafe. Each of the salesmen is quite certain he is going to win the special prize of $50 offered as a first prize and there are none of them believing they might be second prize winners, which is $30. And it is a cinch there is going to be keen rivalry among the salesmen for the dealers of the city this morning quite plainly indicated all of their selling force are to participate as used car salesmen. The prize offered are for the sale of used cars only, which might make it almost impossible to buy a new car during this campaign. The dealers themselves may have to do the selling of the new cars, for the way it looks now, every car prospect in the county is to be canvassed for the sale of a used car.

It was brought out at the breakfast this morning that there is a natural market for used cars in this county. The farmers particularly are buying used cars for their shopping trips into town, for their business errands and to send the children to school in the city. And the farmers, it was said, are not as hard up as some people have been led to believe either, for the most of them are spending more money right now than their city brothers. More money is being distributed among the farmers of the county now than ever before, and the used car salesmen are going right after them.

Five Good Reasons Why People Buy USED CARS:

- To be able to visit distant friends.
- For cool relaxation on hot summer days.
- For transportation to and from work.
- For social prestige.
- For touring and week-end trips.

One Man's True Story of His Car

"I have never regretted the purchase of my car, which was a used car," a prominent citizen of this city stated to a Republican reporter this morning. "and I regard my experience as being a good reason why other people, situated as I was, should buy a used car."

"To accommodate the needs of my family we needed a large car. We were shut in every Sunday, could not go anywhere, and some of us actually became sick at the sight of other people, not blessed with as much of this world's material wealth as we, going here and going there, and then telling us about it. We did not have the money to buy a new car, even a small car, and not enough to buy a used car either, until we discovered our credit was just as good as the neighbors' and that we could pay for an automobile out of the weekly salary and as we used the car."

"We bought a big car—holds seven adults with comfort and ease, or it will carry our entire family, which is the size of three average American families. We have had the car four summers now, been all over the state of Illinois, visited relatives we never knew, saw things we never could have seen before and this summer we are planning a thousand mile trip with the entire family. We have never had any trouble, never had an accident, and the car has cost us only for gasoline and oil and once in a while adjustment of the brakes or some other trivial adjustment."

"The result is we get out into the country, enjoy ourselves, and it costs us not as much as the price of above tickets. Our car, we are careful drivers, is just as good now to us as it ever was, and although we have put 30,000 miles on it, we would not sell it for anything, unless we were more than we paid for it and could make a car just like it."

"Our car, if purchased new at the time, would have cost us $2200. We got it for $1200 because it was a used car. Investigation disclosed it had been driven only 4000 miles and was given up by its original purchaser because it would not go faster than 65 miles per hour, which is 30 miles faster than we drive it."

TAX SYSTEMS

UP TO VOTERS

Springfield, Ill., June 20.—(AP)—The voters of the Illinois taxing system will have their say today.

The proposed amendment to the state constitution's revenue article currently left all legislative bargaining until after the annual election. The new amendments to the constitution directing a referendum on direct election of judges and on the plan to modernize the Illinois judicial system.

The proposal house amendment to the constitution prohibits the legislature from passing any income tax law which would permit more than 15 percent of the revenue collected to be levied by the state except by approval of a two-thirds vote of members of the assembly.

The house adopted the senate resolution as amended, 103 to 26, one year earlier than they required two-thirds majority. The house limitation was guaranteed that 85 per cent of the income tax revenue would be retained among the counties and municipalities from which it was collected.

The senate concurred in the measure designed by downstate voters to appease Cook congressional districts by a two-thirds vote of the senate. If approved, the house can't pass its approval to the amendment for the relief of Cook county voters' bodies including the provision allowing local communities a referendum. Although downstate with the Cook county voters, the senate passed the bill although some opposition from downstate representatives developed to support the relief measure. It is the place where they are expected to be taken up where they were expected to be taken up.

The Chicago park board, the board of education and the mayor metropolitan park boards, a battle over the bill of minority House Minority Leader William H. Reardon, who introduced the bill of Review and Board of Assessments in Cook county preceded the passage of the revenue article amendment in the house. After being criticized by Republicans as a "taxing measure," the measure was deferred.

Among those who ride to the revenue amendment resolution was one of the most important measures and properties other than mineral lands and lands under re-forestation. The measure provides that the legislature are not to be disturbed. Defending the income tax clause in the constitution, Sen. K. M. Dunlap, Republican, said it is estimated that approximately $38,000,000 will be collected annually in the state through the revenue article. He would collect to the state but would be nearly three-quarters of the total income tax collected."

The passage of the amendment in the house, the relief bills by the lower house; the taking of final action by the house on senate bills providing for the sale of waterway equipment, even if the federal government takes over the Illinois waterway, and appropriating $70,000 to carry further studies of the needs until payments can be worked cleared up most of the work. The bill for special session was called and opened the first day of the summer, predicted by assembly leaders for next Thursday.

SEARCH FOR THE MANIC SLAYER GOES TO BROOKLYN

New York, June 20.—(AP)—Search for the manic slayer who in letters to a newspaper has admitted the killing of two men in Queens and New York City, turned to Brooklyn today after a third man was shot and critically wounded.

Police said the description of the slayer of Morris Horwitz, 50, an insurance broker, who was shot in a telephone early today, failed to fit the description of the slayer of Joseph Moynihan, 49, a lawyer in Queens.

Horwitz was shot near a second floor apartment building while returning to his home after having been summoned to the office of the slayer of Moynihan and the slayer of another man, who was killed at the same address as the earlier crime.

In the second letter, the writer said he had decided to spare six months to devote a certain amount of money to the slaying of him and he had received $17,000 in blackmail money from him, but that seven others were also involved in the slaying of him. The document was for death unless paid $18,000 additional blackmail.

The slayers mentioned were all listed by obituary notices—those who were spared were listed as W. R. A. Collier, Pointe: 8-12, College

The list of seven to be killed was given as X-14, X-21, Y-2, L-6, X-7, X-1, and V-4.

All initials "lined" too much of a clue for the super-detectors of "Paps" the writer said.

The writer which was quite long contained a rambling account of the slaying of Moynihan and Sowley. Horwitz told police that he was sitting with his wife in his car in front of his home on Carroll street, when about a dozen men sat on the porch when a man with a pistol in his hand thrust his head through the window of the car.

"Move over, start that car and keep going or I'll kill you," Horwitz said the man ordered.

Horwitz moved over and the man jumped into the car. He struck Dunlop over the head with his gun bullet took him in the shoulder. The bullet course a downward course and lodged in the abdomen. The man then fled.

SEEK TO OUST DETROIT MAYOR

Detroit, June 20.—(AP)—With a petition bearing 111,270 names officially on file demanding the recall of Mayor Charles Bowles, the ouster movement began more than a month ago was expected to find its way into the courts today. From sources close to the administration, it was learned that an injunction probably would be sought, enjoining City Clerk Richard W. Reading from calling the city for a decision on the recall of the mayor as far as it is required to do within five days if a sufficient number of bona fide signatures are found on the petition. The grounds to be used for such an injunction were not revealed.

Mayor Bowles characterized the filing of the petition as the most contemptible, cowardly and deplorable move ever for come to his attention, and a conspiracy on the part of certain selfish individuals to discredit me and to remove me from office so that their own selfish interests may be served."

John Gillespie, commissioner of public health, and contacted the mayor's "right hand man." Figures largely in the charges contained in the recall petition. It is alleged that the mayor gave him official direction of public garbage disposal despite Gillespie's "long private monopoly" of that business.

Other charges in the petition relate to dismissal of faithful employees, "substitution of secrecy for frankness in public affairs"; tolerance of "lawlessness by law enforcing agencies"; manipulation of patronage and public funds to weld a political machine and threats as the success of municipal ownership of the street cars; attempting to raise fares and the discharge of Frank Owens as street railway commissioner.

Carriage in Mythology

Tradition has it that the actual king of Carthage was Blama, a Phoenician, who took the name Dido, which meant queen. According to Virgil, Aeneas, escaping from burning Troy, stopped at Carthage on his way to Italy, where he fell in love with Aeneas, and when he sailed away he saw the city from the funeral pyre in which she burned herself.

Not Chinese Name

The name Confucius is the Latinized form of Kung-futze, meaning the Master Kung.

REASONS WHY ANESTHETICS DO THEIR WORK

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)
Ithaca, N. Y., June 20.—(AP)—Discovery of the reason why anesthetics cause unconsciousness was announced today at Cornell university.

They cause nerve cells to become thick and white, like tiny hard-boiled eggs. Oblivion accompanies this change, and consciousness does not return until the cells resume their normal state.

An amazing part of the discovery is that a knockout blow on the head, or the coma of narcotics or intoxication all produce similar cell changes. Thus the "kick" in a drink is actually in effect like a physical blow. "Boiled," "stewed" and "stiff" applied to drug and drink effects are more than slang; they are the simple truth about changes invisible to the eye.

The discoverer links together physical states formerly considered quite distinct, and open a new field for developing drug uses.

They were reported to the eighth colloidal symposium by Dr. G. H. Richter, national research fellow at Cornell who worked under direction of Dr. Wilder D. Bancroft, professor of physical chemistry.

They are results of studies in colloidal chemistry, one of the newer branches of science. Colloids are substances made of drops, bubbles, grains, filaments or films. The cells of the human body are composed largely of colloids.

"Research just completed," said Dr. Richter, "indicates the basic phenomenon back of all known types of narcotics or anesthesia. This is reversible coagulation of the cell colloids. This means precipitation of the material, such as is produced in eggs when they are cooked. The phenomenon differs from the coagulation of eggs in that it will return to its original state when the narcotic agent is removed."

"Direct observations with ultra-microscopes have revealed the complete changes in colloidal systems of an organism undergoing narcosis and recovery. These changes were photographed.

"When the organism is heated, cooled, shocked by electricity, treated with alcohol, chloroform or ether, etc., the changes are identical—namely coagulation. This shows that the cause of the loss of sensibility due to heat, coldness, electricity and drugs is one and the same phenomena. Whenever the coagulation is too extensive or irreversible, then death will result."

NAVY DESIGNERS PLAN DIFFERENT TYPE OF A SHIP

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—Plans for a drastically different hybrid fighting ship are occupying the navy's designers. It would be a combination cruiser and aircraft carrier, capable of engaging in a running battle as well as launching more than two dozen airplanes for scouting or combat.

It would be of a radical design in that its large guns and their number would place it in the fighting class, get a landing platform on its deck would equip it to carry from three to six times as many airplanes as the most modern cruisers now afloat.

Instead of launching its planes from a distance and running from an attack, as the existing carriers must, the proposed cruiser-carrier because its effectiveness might be lessened by a reduction in armor to allow for the weight of airplanes, the bureau of aeronautics said that a 10,000-ton or even a 7,000-ton cruiser-carrier is the vessel that all nations soon will be building because of the increased effectiveness of airplanes in battle.

Tentative plans for the vessel provide for as many as 10 six-inch guns as well as storage space of the planes. About 70 per cent of the deck would be devoted to a landing platform, while the necessary superstructure and two triple or quadruple gun turrets or houses would be grouped in the bow. Other guns would be at the stern, while the anti-aircraft batteries would be on platforms at the sides of the landing platform.

A ship of this type, naval designers say, would not come under the London naval treaty definition of a carrier. The treaty, classified as a carrier any ship "designed for the specific and exclusive purpose of carrying aircraft."

The United States, if the treaty is adopted, is interpreted as allowing the construction of six 10,000-ton cruiser-carriers of the contemplated type.

All the land on the Samoan islands is privately owned and there is a law forbidding foreigners to purchase such land. The natives are of a high class and all can read and write. The majority are Christians.

J. HAM LEWIS SAYS HOOVER IS BETRAYED

Waukegan, Ill., June 20.—(AP)—James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic nominee for the senate from Illinois, said last night that President Hoover is being betrayed by his party leaders and discredited by his political opponents in America's international relations.

"By such action," the former senator said, "the United States is embarrassed in all the relations for peace or commercial concord with foreign lands."

Addressing the Waukegan University Club and Bar association, Lewis declared that "political partisanship is destroying national patriotism." Blaming "blunders charged in our international dealings" upon lack of proper counsel from the president's party heads and failure of patriotic aid from his political foes, the Democratic nominee admonished both parties to differ as home affairs may demand but to unite in support of the president on an American foreign policy.

Affairs in Washington, Lewis said, seemed to be "that President Hoover is advised by his own representatives only after the country has been committed to the event that threatens our friendly relations or embarrasses our commercial prospects with foreign countries."

BLUEJAY ATTACKS ROCK ISLAND WOMAN

Rock Island, Ill., June 20.—(AP)—A Bluejay attacked Mrs. Chester Thompson, wife of Rock Island's mayor, yesterday, and inflicted a severe wound in her scalp.

Mrs. Thompson was hanging out clothes in the back yard when the Bluejay flew down and began beating his bill viciously against her head. She fought off the bird and called to her husband who later called police. The officers shot three birds and found a nest of young which the battling Bluejay apparently was seeking to protect.
