BROTHERS ARE ARRESTED FOR TAKING DUCKS

CLAIMED THAT THEY HAD NO
WORK AND NEEDED FOOD
AT THEIR HOME

OTHER ARRESTS MADE

Timothy Alvey, Jailed Sunday
For Burglary, Under Parole;
Pontiac Reformatory

The unemployment situation is given as the reason for the alleged theft of several ducks from the state hospital farm by Curtis and Charles Norton brothers, 806 South Main street. They were arrested at the hospital gate early this morning. Ben Merz, Illinois Central detective, it is said that they had the ducks in their possession.

Police officers stated this morning that the brothers readily admitted the theft, saying that they did so because they had no money for anything to eat at home. It is said that they were unable to find work.

Charged with disorderly conduct, Bruno Gervasi, Bruno Gervasi, Jr. and Henry Brogale, all of Joliet, were arrested last evening by Sergeant Henry Endres and Officer C. F. Mathy at the Hammann garage at 736 East Court street. It is said that they were drunk and had taken a quart of oil. They and their car, a Ford, are being held at police headquarters while their previous record is being investigated.

Fred Levy, 444 North East avenue, and his brother Timothy, 662 West Merz street, who were arrested Sunday afternoon by Chief John Stack on a charge of burglary and larceny, and suspected of robbery with guns, are still prisoners in the city jail.

The pair was arrested after the Frank Miller store on West avenue had been burglarized and it is claimed that they were implicated in two holdups near Kankakee the night before and the victims were brought to the city jail last evening to view the brothers in an attempt to identify them as the robbers. The police are still working on this angle of the case.

Timothy, it is claimed, is a parolee from the Pontiac reformatory, having been sent there for the alleged theft of chickens in Iroquois county. It is expected that his case may be turned over to parole officers.

Meddie Burton, Cabery, Illinois, was arrested at Kankakee last evening by Officers Clifford, Imming and Mathy with a warrant issued at the request of his wife, charging drunkenness and non-support. He was to be given a hearing before Judge Bert L. Fitzgerald today. It is claimed that a pop bottle filled with liquor was found in his possession.

Preliminary hearing for Mrs. Ruth Gail of Chicago, who was arrested here on July 4th on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated, was to be held in the police court today but has been postponed for a few days. It is said that a civil suit, involving alleged damages done to a car struck by her auto, is pending.

VISITED HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gardner and children, Dorine and Elmer, of Fairbury, Neb., who motored to this city for a visit with friends and relatives, left this morning for Gary, Ind., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans. They were accompanied to Gary by Mrs. Hal McCleary and sons, Lloyd and Paul. Mrs. Martha Aicher, Mrs. Arthur English and sons, Frederick and Arthur, Mrs. Gardner was formerly Elsie McNulty of this city.

"Next to takin' the pins out of a new short the most tryin' an' laborious an' aggravatin' thing I know of is gittin' the wrappers, uncookin' directions, an' sealin' wax, off a quart of counterfeit Scotch" mused Tell Binkley, today. Just spadin' a petunia bed makes my heart go out to the farmer.

Items of Interest in and About the City

SUPRENT'S PLAN

Louis Suprenant Sr. is grooming his automobile for a two month's trip upon which he, Mrs. Suprenant, and their son, Elzar, plan to leave within the next few days.

At the age of 63 and still hearty and active, Mr. Suprenant wishes to visit again his boyhood haunts in Canada and to visit the many relatives of he and Mrs. Suprenant who still live there. They also plan to visit in the south before they return, particularly in New Orleans. They are not planning their trip in advance but will travel as their fancy directs.

ARSON THREAT

Deputy sheriffs are seeking clues to threats made to burn the Avon dance resort. The resort is alleged to have been scheduled for destruction last Saturday night, but the officers were on the job. The threat is believed to have come from a group of Chicago Heights men who were recently barred from the hall.

CONGRESSMAN HERE

Congressman William P. Holaday, of Georgetown, Ill., near Danville, representative from this, the 18th District, was a Kankakee visitor today. He paid the Daily Republican a call while in the city.

SAROWATZ EXONERATED

Jack Sarowatz, South Seventh avenue, was exonerated of all blame in connection with the death of Walter Berry of Manhattan at the inquest held in Joliet this morning. Berry was killed in an accident while attempting to drive his car past the Sarowatz machine in Joliet a week ago.

COUNTY GIVES $192,444 IN STATE TAXES

ROGERS TURNS OVER BIG SUM TO STATE ADMINISTRATION TODAY

$45,000 INCREASE

County Taxpayers' Money Goes To Pay For Increased State Expenditures

County Treasurer L. B. Rogers this year collected $192,444.70 in state taxes in Kankakee county according to the report which he filed personally today at Springfield. This is approximately $45,000 more than was received by the state last year when Mr. Rogers turned over about $147,000.

The state's increase this year amounted to more than 33 per cent due to the raising of the state tax rate for residents of this county nine cents. Expenditures of the present state administration resulted in the increase in state taxes, although the county and local administrations made substantial reductions in taxes.

The figures are in accordance with those given to the public by the regular Republican faction in this county during the Spring primary election campaign.

Of the amount of state taxes collected, $39,176.54 was turned over to County Superintendent of Schools Frank Saltgiver. This amount is usually deducted by the state and turned over toward the state's contribution for the maintenance of the public schools. Almost the same amount was deducted from the $147,000 which the state received last year. The net amount turned in by Mr. Rogers today was $153,268.06, which exceeds by several thousand dollars the gross amount collected for the state last year.

Mr. Rogers, before his departure for the state capitol, stated that he had collected a total of approximately $1,600,000 in taxes in Kankakee county this year, the amount being levied on the 1929 assessment figures. Some of this money will go to drainage districts and other special improvement funds.

STREET WIDENING ALMOST FINISHED

About 70 percent of the new widening of South East avenue is completed, it was announced today by Frank Shidder of the Triangle Construction company of Kankakee, which is doing the work. It is expected that the new portions of the street will be ready for use in a few days.

This street, a part of state highway 49, was formerly 18 feet in width and is now being widened to 36 feet. This work will complete the present contracts of the city with the Triangle company.

START SEARCH FOR MAN WHO DISAPPEARED

IS GONE 3 DAYS

SUSPECT FOUL PLAY

Missing Patient Is Believed To Have Possessed Valuable
Information

No trace had been found at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon of Paul Taberka, Kankakee State Hospital patient who mysteriously disappeared Saturday noon. City and county officials joined with authorities at the hospital in the search for Taberka who it is suspected, may have met with foul play.

An intensive search along both banks of the river was made by hospital attendants and physicians last evening but to no avail. Taberka left all of his clothing, his bicycle and other personal belongings in the hospital ward Saturday when he left and told other patients that he was going fishing. His disappearance was discovered Saturday evening when he did not return for supper. His absence in the afternoon held no special significance as Taberka was in the habit of going fishing at various times.

"I can't understand Paul's disappearance," declared Dr. H. S. Lowrance who was in charge of the farm ward where Taberka was confined. "He was a model patient, gave us no trouble and never ran away before although he has been with us for a number of years. He was not violent and was as rational as many people who are regarded as perfectly sane."

Although Taberka was awarded $2,500 by a jury in circuit court here only a few months ago, he took none of this money with him. An announcement to this effect was made today by his guardian, P. A. Vadeboncouer, and his attorney, John A. Mayhew. The money is on deposit in a local bank in Taberka's name and has not been touched. The only money the man could possibly have had was five dollars which Mr. Vadeboncouer had given him about two days prior to his disappearance.

Johnston Worried

State's Attorney T. R. Johnston expressed anxiety over the report published in last evening's Republican concerning Taberka's disappearance and indicated that his special investigator, William L. Cantlin, would be put on the case. Although Johnston did not comment on the matter, it is understood that Taberka was in possession of valuable information which was being investigated.

Taberka was given the $2,500 by a jury when he sued Frank Belleau an official of the Illinois Light and Power company. Taberka claimed that Belleau had taken a $1,000 Liberty bond which he owned and had cashed it, appropriating the funds claimed for labor stating that Belleau paid him practically no wages the three or four years that he worked on Belleau's farm. Belleau had obtained Taberka's release from the state hospital in order to have him work at his farm. Taberka later left Belleau and returned to the hospital where Vadeboncouer was named as his guardian.

Kidnap Farm

The Belleau farm was located on the river road just beyond the village limits of Bourbonnais. Taberka had claimed that Belleau forced him to eat and sleep in the cellar and treated him as some sort of an animal.

The farm was finally sold by Belleau to Adolph Gosselin, who died recently. Gosselin had rented the place to Andrew Cappellano who is now serving a sentence of 25 years in the Joliet penitentiary for the kidnapping of 10-year-old Billy Barker of Chicago. The Barker boy had been held prisoner on this farm for 13 days during September of 1928.

WITNESS ANXIOUS TO AID MOONEY.

A fight for freedom has been launched at Baltimore for John MacDonald, the witness whose testimony in 1916 sent Tom Mooney to jail for life as one of the instigators of the San Francisco Preparedness Day parade bombing which killed eight persons. Held by police as the widely sought missing witness, MacDonald declares he is now anxious to go to California and repudiate his testimony in an effort to secure a pardon for Mooney. MacDonald is shown, center, with detectives.

TAYLOR HOME BURGLARIZED; JEWELRY GONE

LOOT VALUED AT ABOUT $150
ROY D. TAYLOR

THIEF IS TRACED

Police And Mr. Taylor Find That
Suspect Had Checked Out
From Local Hotel

The home of Roy D. Taylor, 917 South Evergreen avenue, assistant cashier of the First Trust and Savings bank, was burglarized last evening by a young thief who escaped with jewelry valued at about $150. Other merchandise which the thief had piled up in preparation to take was left as he was frightened away. With the help of information given by other parties, Mr. Taylor and John Stack, chief of police, and Ed Imming, city detective, this morning traced the activities of a young man who is believed to be the guilty person. They traced him to a hotel where he had been staying, only to find out that he had checked out. Whether or not he has left the city is not known.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and their daughter found the intruder in their home when they returned home from the theatre just before 10:00 o'clock. They intended to enter by the rear door but found the screen locked on the inside. They then went around to the front. Mr. Taylor unlocked the door, which opened only about a foot, being blocked by a heavy chair placed against it.

Convinced that they had an unannounced visitor, Mr. Taylor quietly went inside and heard the intruder upstairs. He went to the telephone and called the police. The thief must have heard him talking, as he went to the window, out upon the roof of the porch, and jumped to the ground, escaping in the darkness.

Going upstairs, Mr. Taylor found that the house had been thoroughly ransacked, with articles of clothing and his shot gun made into a bundle which the thief left in his haste. Checking over their possessions, they found that the following articles had been taken: one diamond ring, three other rings, one gold bracelet, a ladies' gold watch with hunting case, one diamond set Elk pin, one gold chain with pearl setting, and one cameo ring.

This morning Mr. Taylor learned that Stanley McBroom, 896 South Wildwood avenue, had seen a strange young man near the Taylor home, describing him as being young, tall and slender, with a small mustache. With information gleaned from other sources he was traced to the hotel.

BLOOMINGTON MAN ON STAND IN FUND QUIZ

W. D. ALEXANDER, LUMBERMAN, TELLS HOW HE AID-
ED MRS. MCCORMICK

HE DONATED $7,207

States That His Services And Money Were Given Voluntary in Last Campaign

Chicago, July 15.—(P)—W. D. Alexander, lumberman of Bloomington, Ill., the first surprise witness before the senatorial inquiry into Ruth Hanna McCormick's primary campaign testified today that he spent $7,207.56 of his own funds in behalf of her campaign.

Mr. Alexander said he assumed direction of Mrs. McCormick's campaign in McLean county because of his friendship for her, and not because of any request from her headquarters.

The witness said he had informally told Mrs. McCormick of his activities and his expenditures without submitting any report.

In her testimony yesterday Mrs. McCormick had named McLean county as one of several in which her campaign had not cost anything, and the expenditure of $7,207.56 disclosed by the lumberman swelled the total of expenditures in Mrs. McCormick's behalf to about $327,000.

Mr. Alexander said he had volunteered his services and his funds "in my own behalf," explaining his activities were of benefit to him in his community. In response to a question by Senator Gerald P. Nye, committee chairman, Mr. Alexander said he might aspire to public office. He said he had no other interests aside from his lumber business, in answer to a question concerning his connections if any with public utilities. He said he did own some utility stocks.

Mrs. McCormick appeared in the committee room while Mr. Alexander was on the stand, but did not exercise the privilege granted her to cross-examine witnesses.

W. R. James, president of the Chicago west parks board, who directed Mrs. McCormick's campaign in Chicago and Cook county, said he volunteered to assist her and received no compensation for it. He denied he had solicited or received any contributions to her campaign. "Did you place on the pay rolls of the west park system any persons who worked in Mrs. McCormick's behalf?" Senator Nye asked. "No sir," was Mr. James reply.

He said he was not familiar with the political activities of the regular west park employees and did not know who they supported in the senatorial campaign.

Mrs. McCormick's financial secretary, James W. Rodgers, said his only duty in the campaign was to sign checks.

Frederick A. Smith, newspaperman, who has been in Mrs. McCormick's employ for two years, said he left the services of Senator Charles S. Deneen and Roy O. West, National G. O. P. committeemen, to join Mrs. McCormick's staff.

Smith said he drew no additional salary during the campaign.

Sensor Nye's attention to various newspaper articles which had linked Mrs. McCormick's name with the "Chicago Underworld" as a result of the Senatorial Inquiry. He said he felt the committee should go into these matters and give Mrs. McCormick a "clean bill of health."

James W. Snyder, political secretary of Mrs. McCormick described the conditions which confronted her in various downstate districts where Senator Deneen controlled the patronage of Prohibition agents, Postal Employees and similar Federal workers. He said it was often difficult to find persons willing to take over the county and city manager positions for Mrs. McCormick.

Sensor Nye asked if Snyder had visited a Springfield bank a few days before the primary to change eight $1,000 bills and one $500 bill into small bills. Mr. Snyder said he had no such transaction during the campaign. "You must have the wrong fellow," he said. "Can you tell me the right one?" Nye asked, but Snyder said he could not.

COUNTY FARM HEAD IS CRITICALLY ILL

P. A. Vadeboncouer, superintendent of the county farm, is confined to his bed today in a very weakened condition as the result of several hemorrhages which he suffered last night. The hemorrhages were caused by the pulling of a tooth which Mr. Vadeboncouer had suffered with up until several days ago.

Physicians were called four times during the night to attend Mr. Vadeboncouer and check the flow of blood.

SPIRITED CLASH OVER LONDON PACT

COPY OF PROPOSAL

Reed Advocates Adoption Of Treaty; Sen. Robinson Of Indiana Assails It

Washington, July 15.—(P)—The text of the first American proposal made at the London naval conference was given to the senate today by Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, one of the delegates, during a briefing exchange with Senator Johnson, Republican, California. The chief, one of the most spirited of their many encounters over the treaty, followed a lengthy exposition of the pact by Senator Reed in closing debate for the proponents.

Johnson had asked the Pennsylvania for a copy of the first American proposal. As the senator-delegate drew it from his brief case, the Californian thanked him and said he would put it into the congressional record.

"I will put it in the record myself," countered Reed.

Johnson said today was the first time Reed had indulged in an explanation of the treaty.

Reed replied he had discussed it before and that he had offered to explain the treaty before the foreign relations committee of which Johnson is a member.

The Californian denied this. Reed obtained verification of his assertion from Chairman Borah, of the committee.

"Furthermore, I have offered time and again, publicly and privately to show the senator from California these so-called mysterious secret documents," continued Reed.

Recalling the ban of secrecy placed on these documents, if read, Johnson declared "I don't understand men who would accept such an offer and I can't understand the temperamental make up of the senator who makes such an offer. That kind of an offer, thank God, isn't in my make up to accept."

ISSUE WARNING ABOUT "RUBBER" CHECKS IN CITY

The Kankakee Credit Bureau today issued a warning to the public to be on the look-out for worthless checks, two samples of which were passed to Kankakee business houses last Saturday.

The Big Little Store on East Court street and the National Tea Company store on South Schuyler avenue each received one of the worthless checks. In both cases the amount of the check was $18.50 and they were written on blanks of the First Trust and Savings banks, signed by E. C. Gibson and made payable to Earl Lambert.

At both stores, the checks were passed by a woman accompanied by a child appearing to be about eight years of age.

AVIATOR IS FOUND ALIVE IN WRECKAGE

ALL-NIGHT SEARCH OF THE
VERMONT HILLS LOCATES
INJURED PILOT

RECOVERY DOUBTFUL

Frank Goldsborough Crashed
With Donald Mockler
Yesterday

Bennington, Vt., July 15.—(P)—Frank Goldsborough, 19 year old aviator, was found alive in the wreckage of his airplane in the fastness of a wild mountainside near here today, but surgeons fear he may have made his last flight. Examination at Putnam Memorial hospital showed a badly fractured skull and the flier's condition was said to be extremely critical.

Goldsborough crashed in the wilderness on the side of Woodford mountain, half way between here and Dunville, N. Y., about noon yesterday while flying from Buffalo, N. Y., to Keene, New Hampshire, with Donald Mockler, a lecturer. Mockler, thrown clear of the wreckage, was unable to extricate Goldsborough and wandered about five hours before he reached a farm house and summoned help.

Searching parties combed the mountainside throughout the night and found the youth, unconscious, about 6:30 o'clock this morning, approximately 18 hours after he had fallen.

When Leonard Lawrence, a stage driver and a member of one of the parties came upon the airplane this morning, Goldsborough was lying clear of it, the wreckage apparently having shifted during the night. His teeth had been knocked out and he was cut about the head and chest. One hand firmly grasped the cord ring of his parachute.

Information sent down by a boy from the party which found Goldsborough said his pulse was beating regularly, although he was unconscious and groaning badly. He was severely cut across the head and chest and his legs were probably broken.

The two were flying from Buffalo, N. Y., to Keene, N. H., and had stopped at Schenectady, N. Y., taking off from there, intense fog was encountered within 15 minutes, and the men became lost, crashing about noon.

Mockler was thrown free but was unable to pull wreckage off his companion's body and, after an hour, started down the mountain side. He became lost but following a small stream, arrived at an outlying farm house at 5 p. m. Searching parties were immediately formed and airplanes were notified to fly over the country.

The crash occurred on Woodford mountain. Mockler, although nearly exhausted, returned with a searching party and stayed on the mountain all night. He remembered a swamp and a water-fall near the scene of the crash and the information led woodsmen to the scene.

DRIVING NET A FEATURE OF GOLF COURSE

NEW MACHINE IS NOW BEING INSTALLED AT THE TOM
THUMB GOLF LINKS

PLAN TOURNAMENT

Preliminaries For Big Tourney
On Saturday Evening Will Be Opened Today

A new driving net, an ingenious contrivance and the latest wrinkle in golf, is being installed now at the Tom Thumb miniature golf course in Kankakee, operated by W. C. Burrell and A. C. Bothfur at River street and South Indiana avenue. Installation is being made by Frank Laking of Grant Park, the inventor of the machine, which is protected by patent rights. It is expected that the new driving net will be ready for use in a few days. This is the first machine of its kind ever put into operation and it is expected that its use will spread like wildfire over the country as it may be used in connection with the miniature golf courses now so popular.

The machine occupies a space of about 40 by 12 feet, surrounded by nets to prevent the escape of a ball. At one end, a curtain extends across the width of the platform and in this curtain are a number of pockets, of various sizes and positions.

Any Club Used
The player stands at the opposite end of the platform, using any club that he wishes except a putter. He drives from a cocoa mat toward the curtain, aiming at the pocket which will give him the best score. The ball enters the pocket which he aimed at (if he is a good shot) then passes through flexible tubing back underground to the golfer's feet where an indicator, under glass, shows the score he had made.

Par for each hole is four. The player uses eighteen balls, a ball for each hole of an eighteen hole course. The pockets are so arranged that the one which he hits will indicate the approximate score which he would make if playing on a regular course. At the bottom, top and sides of the curtain is the "rough." Balls striking these portions of the curtain are returned in the same way to the indicator, showing that the player has gone into the rough. If the player hits a certain hole, he had made a hole in one. Another hole, less hard to hit, is an eagle, another is a birdie, another is par, and so on through various scores for each hole.

Eighteen balls are awaiting the player as he steps up to the tee. He drives off, then presses a pedal, and up comes another ball, all teed up and ready for play. He continues this procedure until his eighteen balls have been played, and the indicator at his feet shows the score he has made for each of the eighteen holes.

New Tournament
A. C. Bothfur, one of the proprietors of the course, announced today that the preliminaries for a tournament to be held on the Tom Thumb course Saturday evening. Players may qualify from today until 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, a score of 50 being required from the men, and 55 from the ladies.

Contestants may play Saturday evening at any time during the tournament period, which will open at 7:00 o'clock and continue until 10:30 or later. All that they have to do is announce to the management that they are competing in the tournament, having previously qualified, and an official scorer will be sent around with them.

The valuable prizes will be given for the best scores of the tourney. For the ladies, a high grade sweater is the prize. For the men, a high grade putter is the prize.

Women's Tourney
The semi-finals and finals of the women's club golf tournament were played last evening at the Tom Thumb course. The semi-final was a big upset. J. L. Downs and Earl Radeke were favorites to play in the finals but did not come through in the pinches.

In the semi-finals Earl Radeke, the favorite and dark horse, was defeated by Jerry Hajek, one up. Although Mr. Radeke shot holes number 4, 7, and 9 in one he was out-smarted by Hajek.

In the second game of the semi-finals, J. L. Downs was upset by Walter Willenbrock. Neither man played at his best. Mr. Willenbrock won two up.

In the final round Walter Willenbrock defeated Jerry Hajek one up. This was one of the closest and most exciting of the tournament. It was not until the eighteenth hole that the tournament was decided.

It was a very close game, first Hajek taking the lead and then Willenbrock. Of the two Willenbrock played the best game and was not as nervous as Hajek.

Mr. Willenbrock was presented with the trophy given by the B. and B. Amusement Co. After one man wins the trophy twice it becomes his possession.

Wednesday night a thirty-six hole tournament will be played by the ladies of the women. Friday night the women will play two rounds of another tournament, to see if the same man will get to keep the trophy.

SALVATION ARMY CONFRONTED WITH PATHETIC CASES

Times of business depression bring about unexpected events in the lives of people. Many who have never known the hand of want until, after many months of unemployment, find themselves with the wolf at the door, and those who are depending upon them helpless.

Such was the case of one woman who came to the Salvation Army one day last week. Her husband had been out of work since fall, and now her daughter was extremely ill. There was not a penny in the house for bread, let alone a few delicacies for the sick one.

The mother burst into tears as she told her tale. Of course help was forthcoming, and what could be done to lighten the burden of these parents was done.

This is just another incident which occurred in connection with the work of the local branch of the Salvation Army. This organization, carried on its work of bringing relief to body, mind and soul, regardless of creed, color, or nationality.

In recognition of this fact, this worthwhile work is endorsed and recommended wherever the Salvation Army operates. The same spirit which carried it into the trenches to bring cheer and comfort to the boys "Over There" is manifested in its work among those in adverse circumstances over here.

This is the reason that Mrs. W. C. Babst, as chairman of the local tag day, is calling on the citizens of Kankakee to rally round their own Salvation Army on Saturday, and provide the necessary funds to keep this good work operating in Kankakee.

FOURTEEN KILLED IN RIOTING TODAY; ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT

Alexandria, Egypt, July 15.—(P)—Fourteen persons, of whom eight were Europeans, were killed in serious rioting during a general strike here today. About 250 persons were reported injured, many of them seriously. One of the dead was an Italian citizen.

Another of many reports circulated about the city administration buildings was that seventeen persons had been killed and 130 injured. This report mentioned no Europeans.

Two senior police officers were known to be wounded and a large number of lower grade police and soldiers also were on the casualty list.

The situation tonight was somewhat quieter.

Cairo, Egypt, July 15.—(P)—The Exchange Telegraph company reported tonight that Mohamed Ali Square, in Alexandria, had been occupied by a detachment of Egyptian army troops and that reinforcements were being rushed from Cairo.

Most of the European shops fronting upon the square had their windows smashed. The crowd tried to set fire to a police station but was driven off.

One English police officer was wounded. The exact number of casualties was not established.

HOME BUREAU WILL CONDUCT A CENSUS

At the meeting of the executive board of the county Home Bureau organization, held yesterday afternoon at the court house and presided over by Mrs. Robert Worrell, plans were made for an emergency fund drive and also for a customer census for the benefit of local merchants.

The committee in charge of the census is composed of Mrs. Worrell, Mrs. E. A. Dennison and Mrs. Charles Koch.

Others in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. E. C. Streeter, Miss Thelma Taylor, Mrs. C. V. Hulbert, Mrs. Robert Wright, Mrs. I. L. Willis, Mrs. Louis Peterson and Miss Hazel L. Quick.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Washington, July 15.—(P)—The Department of Justice announced today that executive clemency had been extended James Murray convicted of connection with the Roundout, Illinois, mail robbery several years ago reducing his sentence from 25 to 12 years.

The action was taken to make Murray eligible for parole. He was said to have helped the government investigation of the robbery and to have restored a large amount of the stolen money.

Murray, who is confined in the Atlanta penitentiary, has applied to the Federal Board of Parole but the application has not been acted upon.

Proposition in Euclid
"Pons asinorum" is Latin, and means "asses' bridge." It is the name given to the fifth proposition of the Book of Euclid, in which it is required to prove that the angles at the base of an isosceles triangle are equal to one another.

Two Men Held At Morris In Slaying Case

Morris, Ill., July 15.—(P)—Two men, Louis Hobbs of Braceville, Ill., and Thomas A. "Sandy" Wood, were held in the Grundy county jail today in connection with the death of Odell Olson, who died in a fight at a roadhouse early Sunday morning, July 6.

After three hours' deliberation yesterday the coroner's jury recommended that Wood be held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter.

Immediately after the verdict was delivered Hobbs was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Olson's father and had testified at the inquest that he had attempted to separate Olson and Wood but lacked sufficient strength.

REAL ESTATE MEN CONSIDER TAX QUESTION

A meeting of special interest to tax payers was held last night in the July meeting of the Kankakee county Real Estate Board at McBroome's cafe. Louis E. Beckman and Elmer C. Wilson, state representatives, were present to explain the proposed amendment to the Revenue Section of the Illinois Constitution.

Although this proposed amendment is familiar to many there is a more detailed explanation necessary to understand it better. This understanding was given to the Real Estate Board members last night by the two above-named men. This proposed change to the Revenue Section is the first one submitted to the voters for 60 years. In all these years the tax has been raised from real estate alone, personal property carrying only a very small portion of the tax burden. Real estate, then, has been the only commodity carrying the tax burden.

The voting on this proposition will take place this fall and the local board is arranging to have speakers of prominence in the state present at several of its meetings, which will be for the public at which time this proposed amendment will be explained to them in detail. It is of great importance to all property owners therefore their interest should be shown in a better understanding of the bill.

HOOVER VACATION IN THE ROCKIES

Washington, July 15.—(P)—President Hoover was said today at the White House to expect to spend at least two weeks in the northern Rocky mountains late in August or early in September, "solely for purposes of an outdoor holiday and rest."

The length of the trip was said today to still be dependent upon the length of time the senate spends on the naval treaty. If it adjourns before August 1, it was believed the president would depart from the capital about August 15.

A statement made public said: "The president will require some time in Washington to complete important matters after the adjournment of the present session. He expects, however, to be able to spend at least two weeks in the northern Rockies late in August or early September, solely for purposes of an outdoor holiday and rest."

A'S WIN FROM ROCKVILLE 4-1

The Kankakee A's won a tight game from the Rockville sluggers Sunday at Alpiners' park. Hamond on the mound for the losers and Richa for the A's.

Richa pitched one of the best games of his career, never allowed a hit until the last inning when with two "outs" the third man walked and the next batter made a lucky hit spilling a no hit, no run game.

The A's will hurl next Sunday against Hobbie Heights a good game is expected. The A's expect to chalk up number twelve.

STATE DEAFENED?

Chicago, July 15.—(P)—Investigation of practices whereby the State has been defrauded of gasoline taxes by irresponsible concerns will be started, State's Attorney John A. Swanson announced today after conferring with Garrett D. P. Kinney, state director of Trade and Finance.

According to Kinney, a number of firms operate between tax payment periods, charging the consumers the tax, but dissolving business before paying the State Gas Taxes.

OFF FOR BUENOS AIRES

Roosevelt Field, L. I., July 15.—(P)—The monoplane of New Haven took off at 3:24 P. M. this afternoon on a non-stop refueling flight to Buenos Aires.

DANCER CHARGES HE HIT HER

Exhibiting a badly swollen eye as evidence, Vivian Duncan, of the Duncan sisters dancing team, hailed Rex Lease, film actor, into a court near Los Angeles on charges of battery. She said Lease beat and kicked her after she refused his advances following a party at the home of another actor.

Dr. E. Starr Judd of the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn., was elected president of the American Medical association to take office at the opening of the 1931 convention.

GERMAN ATTITUDE ON U. S. OF EUROPE

Berlin, July 15.—(P)—The text of Germany's reply to Foreign Minister Brand's memorandum for a "United States of Europe" was made public here tonight. It answers favorably France's suggestion for a European union but stresses the objection that such a program could succeed only upon principles of full equality and the same security for all participants.

Discrimination against countries or continents and exclusion of European states not members of the League of Nations, such as Russia and Turkey, must be avoided, the reply stated.

European cooperation in the proposed League, according to the German answer, should not be made dependent upon the creation of military considerations affording greater security.

Military consideration, the reply urged, should not be placed in the foreground.

The reply made it clear that Germany welcomed the proposal and favored discussion of the whole plan at the next session of the League of Nations in September.

Shooting two women with machine gun and pistol fire, five bandits, in one of the most daring bank robberies in the northwest, held up the bank of Willmar, a $3,000,000 institution today and escaped with loot estimated at between $45,000 and $50,000.

Neither of the women was seriously wounded. One, Mrs. Emil Johnson, being shot in the arm and the leg, and the other her 23 year old daughter, Mrs. Don Vildia, wounded in the leg.

Two of the bandits were believed to have been wounded by shot gun slugs poured into their car by aroused citizens as they dashed away from the building. They had herded 25 customers and employees into a huddle during the raid and held 100 more at bay outside the bank under menace of the machine gun.

Sheriffs of nearly every county in Minnesota were warned to watch for the bandits and the alarm also was broadcast to Iowa and North Dakota. Two of the robbers were described as about 45 years old and the others about 35.

BUS AND AUTO CRASH
Cleveland, O., July 15.—(P)—Four persons were hurt and 36 passengers of a Greyhound bus were shaken up late today when the bus crashed into the rear of a passenger car here.

SPRINGFIELD HOLD UP
Springfield, Ill., July 15.—(P)—A daylight hold up of the Sangamon Building and Loan Association, one block from the center of Springfield's busiest corner, at noon today, netted the robbers $330. Two well dressed men engineered the hold up while a third kept a dark blue sedan running, across the street.

A Missouri license plate was the tangible clue. One of the robbers wearing dark glasses, ordered all in the bank into a back room, while the other ransacked the safe.
