I. C. Viaduct Must Wait Till After War

City's Request For Priority Is Rejected

Government Needs All Available Steel For The War Effort

Hopes for construction of the new Central viaduct over the Illinois Central railroad in the near future were dashed last night when the city council received word that its request for a priority rating on steel had been denied by the government.

After protracted negotiations, the city and state highway department came to agreement several months ago on plans for rebuilding of the span to provide four traffic lanes with a divider in the center and pedestrian walkways on either side.

An application for a priority rating on steel was immediately filed, the request being based on the contention that state highway 17 which traverses the viaduct, connects with main routes to the Wilmington munitions plant and therefore could be considered a defense highway.

Win the War First

The government bureau, however, denied the request, stating that the outcome of the war is to be decided by the rapidly with which munitions can be placed in the hands of soldiers in the field and indicating that all other projects requiring steel or other restricted materials would have to wait.

It now appears unlikely that the viaduct can be constructed before the war is over.

Alderman Edmund LaPorte, third ward of the street light committee reported that nothing can be done about lights on the west side of the 100 and 200 blocks on South East avenue. "We only had two good boulevard poles remaining and one of these was knocked down last week-end by another motorist," he stated.

Abandoned Entirely

The suggestion of placing hanging lights from poles on railroad property cannot be followed because the wires on them carry high voltage and the railroad therefore objected. On recommendation of LaPorte, the lights in question are to be abandoned entirely.

He also reported that the lighting fixtures on South West avenue and West Court street had been corrected.

Former Employee Of Tile Company Is Awarded $600

Amand Bollaert of New Orleans, formerly of Kankakee, is the winner of yesterday's circuit court suit against the Kankakee Tile and Brick company, by which he was formerly employed.

He was not, however, awarded the full amount of his claim, $900 for wages and commissions. Judge Roxne C. South of Watseka, who tried the case, gave him a judgment for $600.

Bollaert, represented by the law firm of Gower, Gray and Gower, claimed he had been hired by the company for the flat salary of $300 a month. The company, represented by Attorney Wayne H. Dyer, contended that the arrangement was for $200 a month, with a $100 advance on commissions which, it was claimed, were not earned.

Listen On Radio Tonight To Find Your Order In Draft

Kankakee county men who registered for selective service Feb. 16 or the Saturday or Sunday preceding that date may determine their own order numbers this evening by listening to the radio.

It will be necessary, however, for them to write down in order all the serial numbers drawn before their lottery in Washington.

How Its Done

The first capsule drawn from the bowl will contain the order No. 1 for every selective service board in the county that has a number identical to the number drawn. That is, if the number 631 is in the first capsule drawn, serial number 631 will be given order number 1 in every selective service board of the nation.

The second number drawn will be given order number 2 in each board, the third will get order number 3, and so on.

However, local selective service boards will not assign an order

Local Boy Missing

Pvt. William Gooberlet, 18, son of Mrs. Frances G. Palmateer, 292 East Chestnut street, is among the marine corps men reported "missing" as a result of a sea battle off the Java coast.

Kankakee Boy Missing After Naval Battle

William Gooberlet On Ship Sunk In Defense Of Java

William Gooberlet, 18, son of Mrs. Frances G. Palmateer, 292 East Chestnut street, is a private in the U. S. Marine Corps, is among those reported "missing" as a result of naval action in defense of Java, it was disclosed today.

His mother received a telegram from Lieut. Gen. Thomas Holcomb, commandant of the Marine Corps in Washington, advising that William "has been reported missing in action in the performance of his duty. The commandant greatly appreciates your anxiety and will furnish you further information promptly when received."

The youth was aboard one of the two United States ships which the government announced last week-end as being sunk in a great sea battle off the Java coast.

Enlisted Year Ago

William, whose 19th birthday is on Friday of this week, was a senior in Kankakee high school when he quit to enlist in the marine corps last March 26. He was editor of the Kankakee Keynote, football, basketball, track and golf, was captain of the First Baptist church basketball team and for a time served as a sports reporter.

After joining the marines, he was sent to San Diego, Calif., for training and saw duty at Cavite, Philippine Islands naval base. He also was sent to the Japanese. He also was sent to the Japanese. He also was sent to the Japanese.

William's father died before William was born. His stepfather is Robert F. Palmateer.

ENLISTS IN ARMY

Delay Passage Of New Bicycle Code For City

License Fee Not Stated; Police Not Able To Handle It

A measure designed to regulate the operation of bicycles in detail within the city of Kankakee reached the verge of passage at the council meeting Monday night but was finally held up when it was found that it might be in conflict with certain sections of the municipal traffic code adopted in 1929.

After several weeks of study, the ordinance committee, with Alderman Jack Costello, sixth ward, as acting chairman, reported favorably on the measure last night and it was put up for passage.

When the proposed law was read, however, it was found to lack the phrase repealing any previous laws which might be in conflict with it. Also the amount of the license fee was not stated and the proposal to vest powers of enforcement solely in the chief of police was questioned on the grounds that he would be unable to spend 150 hours examining some 600 bicycles in this city in addition to his other duties.

Will Be Amended

Meyer Kaplan, spokesman for the Kankakee Bicycle Safety council, sponsors of the legislation, stated that his group was heartily in accord with the suggestion that the wording be amended to include the chief of police "or his delegated authority" to be charged with enforcement.

In regard to a previous ordinance covering this subject, he stated the group was led to believe that no bicycle regulatory ordinance as such existed in Kankakee.

On motion of Alderman Huntington James, second ward, the proposed measure was sent back to committee for further amendments.

Alderman Costello asked for and was granted more time for a committee report on the proposed ordinance regulating closing hours of gasoline stations. It was stated that at least 30 dealers had requested that no action be taken last night.

Oppose Night Closing

A petition received from P. J. Farr who operates a filling station and truck stop on highway 49 also was sent to this committee. Farr said that 90 per cent of his gasoline business is with trucks and about three-fourths of these run at night. He expressed the opinion that closing of stations from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. will do more harm than good.

More time also was granted the ordinance committee for a billiard and licensing measure. The bond of Alburn McCall to serve as special policeman without pay was approved. $5,000 was transferred from the working cash fund to the general corporate fund to meet current expenses and the United Spanish War Veterans were given permission to conduct a tag day on Saturday, May 2 in the city.

The request of the Sinclair Refining company for permission to cut 20 feet of curb for a wider approach to its bulk plant property at 1094 South East avenue was referred to the street and alley committee, superintendent of streets and building inspector.

New System For Inducting Of Draftees

Registrants of selective service boards Nos. 1 and 2 will be interested in a new system of induction into the army which became effective yesterday.

Heretofore men subject to induction have received notice from their local boards to report for the army physical examination, and it was usually about 10 days after they passed this examination that they received their induction orders.

Under the new plan, registrants will receive orders for immediate induction, and the physical examination will come after they are in the army.

The change was adopted at the request of the War department, which has agreed to grant immediate 10-day furloughs to men who need time to wind up their civilian affairs, it was said in Washington.

142 Are Killed In A Series Of Tornadoic Storms

Rip Across 600-Mile Strip Of Southern And Midwestern States

Washington, March 17—(AP)—The American Red Cross dispatched 50 disaster workers into southern and midwestern states today to direct aid for victims of widespread tornadoes and called 100 Red Cross chapters to duty in the affected areas.

Relief headquarters were established in Memphis, Tenn., with Nat C. Wilson of the Washington staff in charge. Assisting him were Glen E. Whisler, Frank Curless and Mrs. Edith McAllister. In charge of nursing activities were Miss Margaret Wales and Miss Virginia Kilman.

The Memphis Red Cross chapter telegraphed national headquarters that a caravan carrying 15 doctors and 20 nurses had left for the Grenada, Miss., area.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tornadoic storms ripped over a 600-mile long strip of six southern and midwestern states yesterday, leaving in their wake at least 142 dead, more than 900 injured and millions of dollars in property damage.

Terrific winds cut across the northwestern section of Mississippi where at least 65 were known dead, and approximately 620 others injured. High winds also left a trail of death and destruction in western Kentucky and Tennessee, struck south-central and north-central Indiana, and killed at least 20 in east-central Illinois. Storms were reported as far west as west-central Missouri.

The toll of dead and estimated number injured by states:

State	Dead	Injured
Mississippi	65	620
Illinois	21	170
Kentucky	16	20
Tennessee	20	100
Indiana	2	50

Mississippi Hardest Hit

Mississippi, hardest hit, rushed all available aid to the disaster zone, covering an area 150 miles wide and about 100 miles deep. The section is mostly rural with only a few scattered cities. Torrential rains followed the high winds and washed out many roads.

Nineteen were known dead and 206 injured in LeFlore county in northwestern Mississippi, and at least 18 were killed and 45 injured in the vicinity of Water Valley, a small town in the north-central section of the state.

Other Mississippi cotton belt towns reporting were Grenada, 6 dead, more than 100 injured; Baldwin, four dead, 80 injured, one missing; Avon, five dead, many injured; Oxford and Tula, five dead, many others.

Uruguayan Ship Torpedoed; 17 Men Missing

Uruguay Becomes Third South American Nation Whose Ships Attacked

Montevideo, Uruguay, March 17—(AP)—The 5,785-ton Uruguayan merchant ship Montevideo, formerly the Italian Adamele, has been torpedoed and sunk off Jeremie, Haiti, and 17 of her crew of 49 are missing, the government announced today.

The ship was skippered by Capt. Rodriguez Varela, a Uruguayan naval officer, who was rescued, and was partly manned by Uruguayan naval personnel.

Foreign Minister Alberto Guani who made the announcement did not disclose where the survivors were landed.

The Uruguayan government today ordered seizure of the interned German ship Tacoma in reprisal.

The 3,268-ton Tacoma was the supply ship for the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee, destroyed off Montevideo by Adolf Hitler's orders after being defeated by British cruisers in December, 1939. The Tacoma has been here ever since.

Guard Axis Nationals

Public excitement over the sinking caused authorities to throw guards around property of axis nationals.

The government suspended all further sailings of Uruguayan merchantmen until arrangements could be made for their protection. It was understood the government planned to arm these vessels.

Jeremie, on the northwestern spur of Haiti, is about 15 miles across Mona passage from Guantanamo, the United States' Cuban naval base. Guani said he had no further details on the Montevideo.

Third Nation Involved

Uruguay thus became the third South American nation whose ships have been attacked by Axis submarines in United States waters.

Although Guani refrained from comment, informed sources believed the attack would result in some form of reprisal such as Brazil's seizure of Axis property for the sinking of at least four Brazilian ships.

Guani's announcement came less than 4 hours after it was learned that a Chilean ship, the Tolten, had been sunk off New York harbor.

Uruguay already has severed diplomatic relations with the Axis. The Montevideo was commanded by an officer of the Uruguayan navy, Capt. Vasquez, and was partly manned by sailors of the Uruguayan navy.

Hero Of Philippines Arrives As Supreme Commander Of The United Nations' Armed Forces

Washington, March 17—(AP)—The arrival of General Douglas MacArthur in Australia to assume the supreme United Nations command in that region was announced today by the war department.

The assignment was requested by the Australian government, the department said, and President Roosevelt directed MacArthur on February 22 to transfer his headquarters from the Philippines to Australia as soon as the necessary arrangements could be made.

MacArthur requested a delay until he could perfect arrangements with his Philippine command, and this delay was approved by the President.

Accompanied by wife, Son MacArthur was accompanied on the plane trip to Australia by Mrs. MacArthur and their son, by chief of staff, Major General Richard K. Sutherland, Brigadier General Harold H. George of the air force, and several other staff officers.

His command in the southwest Pacific region will include the Philippine Islands, the war department said.

Direct command of the forces in the Philippines passes to Major General Jonathan M. Wainwright, the senior officer remaining in Bataan. A cavalryman, Wainwright, now 66, has been in the Philippines since October 1940, when he was assigned to command the Philippine division.

In Walla Walla, Wash., Wainwright was graduated from West Point in 1906 and he holds the distinguished service medal for staff duties with the AEF in France during the first world war.

Among the men now under MacArthur in Australia are the "considerable numbers" making up the expeditionary force of American ground troops and air corps units announced yesterday by Secretary of War Stimson.

MacArthur, since first reports, on December 19, of Japanese attempts to invade the island of Luzon in the Philippines, has commanded the amazing defense of those islands, fighting the numerically superior Japanese invaders to a standstill on the Peninsula of Bataan.

In accordance with plans carefully drawn prior to outbreak of the war, MacArthur withdrew his principal forces on Luzon toward Bataan, where for weeks he has stalled all attempts of the Japanese to destroy his forces or push them into the sea.

14 Survivors Of American Ship Land

New York, March 17—(AP)—Fourteen survivors of an American merchant ship, torpedoed last Saturday off Atlantic City, N. J., have landed at Staten Island. Twenty men were reported missing.

The third naval district said that six of the men were hospitalized for bruises, exposure and shock. They were taken to the marine hospital at Staten Island.

Capt. Gardner D. Clark, 57, of Machias, Me., said he was in his cabin when the New England steamer was attacked without warning at 1:45 a. m.

The first of three torpedoes struck midships wrecking the lifeboat on the starboard side, he said.

As the crew was lowering the port lifeboat, he said he reached the deck and after he had pulled away and others had jumped to life rafts, a second torpedo hit almost directly beneath him and the force of the explosion literally "blew off my shoes and left me in my stocking feet."

He said he then jumped into the icy water and swam to a life raft.

Plunged Into Sea

At that point, he said, after firing a third torpedo at the collier, the submarine surfaced and someone from its deck asked in perfect English—"Hey there, what's the ship's name?"

Crew members who left the vessel in the one good lifeboat said there were at least 21 men in the boat when it pulled away. The backwash from the explosion of the second torpedo, they said, capsized the lifeboat and plunged them all into the choppy sea.

French Authorities In Morocco Order Internment Of British

London, March 17—(AP)—Reuters reported from Tangier today that French authorities in Morocco have ordered internment of all British subjects between 18 and 50 residing in coast towns.

The number involved is believed to be about 2,000.

Reliable sources said the step was taken in reprisal for the RAF bombing attacks on occupied France. It was recalled that last summer the Vichy government ordered British Nationals in unoccupied southern France to move inland from all points on the Riviera and elsewhere along the Mediterranean coast.

Th possibility that the reported internment may have been prompted by British bombing of armament factories in occupied France is only one of at least three reasons why

20 Dead And 170 Injured: Central Illinois

Hundreds Homeless And Property Damage Estimated Over $500,000

Danville, Ill., March 17.—Twenty dead, 170 injured, hundreds homeless and more than $500,000 worth of property torn to shambles—that was today's accounting of the fury with which two tornadoes ripped across central Illinois yesterday.

In six counties, civilians studying first aid for possible use in war were plunged into active duty, assisting physicians and nurses in treating the injured and caring for those whose homes had been destroyed or made uninhabitable.

The first storm struck shortly before noon and cut a 60-mile path through three eastern counties, damaging or destroying half of the 100 homes and buildings in Alvin, a village of 359 population in Vermilion county, near the Indiana border.

Four hours later the second tornado loosed its first, assault after Canton, 80 miles northwest of the storm area, and tore up the blocks in Lacon, Marshall county, as it unspooled along a 30-mile course.

Seventy-five homes were wrecked or damaged in Lacon but the big wind missed the business district of the town of 1,600 population.

In the Lacon area the tornado cut a path 400 yards wide for a stretch of approximately 100 miles.

Incidental destruction of the $10,000 high school in Erie was the only damage to the town of 1,000 population. The gymnasium fell in without injuring a group of boys playing basketball. Also razed was the immaculate Conception church.

The Rev. Mrs. Althea Rowland, 52, near Mayview, Henry O'Farrell, Alvin, George Johnson, Alvin, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hoover, Alvin, Mrs. Smith, 12, Alvin, Mrs. Dewey Scott, Alvin, Mrs. Everett Schumacher, Alvin, Mrs. Ollie Thurnburg, Alvin, Mrs. Pauline Laughlin, 25, and her niece, Phyllis Laughlin, 4, and James Laughlin, 2, of near St. Joseph, Champaign county.

Louise Madeline Douglas, 6 months, near Hope, Mrs. Bunnie Gaylor, Mrs. Gottlieb Schupp, 80, and her sons, William and Edward, of near Mrs. Owen Baker, Lacon, Victor Goodrich, near Lacon, Herman Mowry, 83, Lacon.

When the tornado hit Alvin, Mrs. Catherine Bush, 40, was sitting in her kitchen with her two babies from a couch and ran for safety. The next thing she remembered was that she was walking alone down a debris-laden street, hurt and unaware of what had become of her children. Neighbors had found them unhurt except for minor scratches.

They found Richard, 18 months old, in the house, which was demolished, and Goldie, six months, on the ground outside the house.

Her husband, Leslie, was working on a farm north of Alvin and watched the storm pass by. "It hung close to the ground and never lifted," he related. "It didn't make much noise. It looked like a big black cloud with lots of timber flying around in it."

Judy Dufour, living near Fairview in the path of the second tornado, said he looked out his kitchen window and "saw a rolling, twisting cloud coming."

"I ran into a bedroom with my wife and three children, and something seemed like part of an other building—hit our house, crushing most of it."

The family suffered minor injuries. In Lacon, 17 women and two children were attending a church group when the storm came. They escaped injury by rushing to the basement but some of them had to be dug out by rescue workers.

The first storm appeared first at Danville in Peoria county. It passed almost a straight line for 60 miles, passing south of Champaign and north of Danville as it swept through Champaign and Vermilion counties, rural territory until reaching Alvin, about 15 miles north of Danville.

The town hall was unroofed, two grain elevators and other structures destroyed. The damage in Alvin was estimated at $150,000.

The second tornado followed a course from Cuba in Peoria county across Peoria county and to Lacon in Marshall county. At Lacon, communications lines were disrupted and officials called for medical aid from Peoria, 25 miles to the south.

Another windstorm in Logan county late yesterday injured five persons and damaged several farm buildings.

At Lacon Peoria Scouts helped make a house check to locate missing persons and to establish if any had been killed and injured. Twenty were hurt in Peoria county and four in Peoria county.

A LONG MEMORY BUT A SHORT TERM New York—(AP)—Magistrate Ambrose Haddock doesn't forget a face. When a prisoner appeared before him on a voluntary charge of vagrancy, Magistrate Haddock studied his face and turned his mind back to a sentence days.

"I sentenced you to 30 days," Jigger and you're lucky I don't give you an additional sentence for staying my steps 30 years ago," he said. "Jigger" blushed at the mention of his old nickname but denied it was he who had taken the judge's words when he was swimming in the river.

U. S. passenger traffic by train yesterday was greater than in any year since 1929.

Town Wrecked in Illinois Tornado

This is all that was left of "Main Street" in Alvin, after one of two tornadoes that ripped across Illinois counties struck it. The toll of dead in the state mounted to 18, with about 170 others injured.

and more than $500,000 in property damage estimated. In foreground is debris of the former postoffice building.

Town Hall Unroofed in Tornado

This is the wreckage of the town hall in Alvin, Ill., one of many buildings unroofed or demolished by a tornado which killed at least 18 persons injured about 170 others and caused at least $500,000 damage in central Illinois. Half of the 100 homes and buildings in Alvin were damaged or destroyed.

Research Finding Out How The Vitamins Work

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D. Something like a really sensible explanation of the way vitamins work is appearing. St. Patrick's Day Just Another For U. S. Troops

Those "Sojourning" In Ireland, Wish They Were Home For Day

By C. R. CUNNINGHAM United Press Staff Correspondent

With the AEP in North Ireland, March 16—(UP)—This St. Patrick's day promises to be just another day of hard work for American troops in training in northern Ireland.

The American soldiers of Irish ancestry are being lacerated by the fact that they are unable to cross the border into Eire for the March 17th and some expressed the wish for the first time that they were back in New York, at least for the day to see the parade down Fifth avenue.

Very Little Green Peter (chronicler) says that every other soldier in northern Ireland is closed on St. Pat's day. There is very little green showing in the towns and villages near the camps of the Americans. Only a few shamrocks or green ribbons on the Irish and the Irish-American Americans planned their own private celebrations in the evening.

There were a number of dances planned but many of the soldiers were unable to attend because they normally get leave on the week-end.

There is no public observance of the day in northern Ireland and even the usual splurge in Eire was ordered curtailed this year because of the war.

Private parties were planned with great enthusiasm, however, and some of the American soldiers said they expected to give the Irish a lesson in how the day ought to be observed.

One "Out of Bounds" Many of the Americans have relatives across the border in Eire but that country is the "out of bounds" for the expeditionary troops since they first arrived in Ireland.

One reaction to the war is a report that a group of Americans crossed the border one night and were involved in a street fight in which 24 were bruised enough to require hospital treatment.

One American Capt. Jack Steinberg of Council Bluffs, Ia., said he would like to go to Dublin again on St. Patrick's day because he was born there but some Irish friends of the United States soldiers told them confidentially that they had never had as much fun in Ulster.

"The Irish Republican army is always at least 'active' up here on St. Patrick's day," Naureen O'Kelly reminded them.

British Tanks And Infantry Crash Jungles

Guard Imperial Army From Japanese Columns In Northern Burma

BULLETIN
London, March 17.—British tanks and infantry, with the aid of "sufficient" air support, were reported today to be crashing through the Burmese jungles to guard the battered but unbent main imperial army from Japanese columns feeling their way north along the roads from Rangoon to Toungoo and to Front.

Military commentators predicted the British imperials and their Chinese allies would use these last two towns as the bases for their eventual drives on the Japanese, who have reached Yangon, 70 miles south of Toungoo, and Thakkyi, 115 miles south of Front. But they declared any offensive would be delayed until after June. H. R. G. Alexander had been in the line of his heavy forces and had been strengthened by troops from India. The Japanese had been driven back by land was possible. The Japanese had been driven back by land was possible. The Japanese had been driven back by land was possible.

Moving Toward Australia
London, March 17.—A dispatch from Australia to some London newspapers which informed that the Japanese navy force which had participated in the invasion of Java now is moving southward toward Australia.

This force was said to include cruisers, airplane carriers and scores of destroyers. The dispatches also reported the Japanese were massing heavy air reinforcements in New Guinea, possibly for large-scale air attacks to clear the way for a naval offensive against Port Moresby, on New Guinea's south coast, and on northern Australia.

Attack on Darwin
Melbourne, March 17.—Two persons were killed and 17 were wounded in the Japanese bombing attack on the Australian port of Darwin yesterday. Prime Minister John Curtin announced today. All were military casualties except for one Aborigine, who was wounded.

Curtin said that the raid was directed solely against Royal Australian air force installations and caused some damage to buildings, but that no aircraft were destroyed. There was no attack on the town itself.

The enemy planes dropped about 100 bombs, most of them of the anti-personnel (scatter-bomb) type, this announcement said. The prime minister also declared that contrary to rumors there have been no fresh Japanese landings in the New Guinea and Papua area.

Allied ships, including a Japanese submarine, were reported to have been sighted in the area.

War Production Chief, Nelson To Broadcast

Designed To Counteract Axis Propaganda In This Country

Washington, March 17.—War Production Chief Donald M. Nelson will make a "statement to the nation" tonight in a special broadcast designed to counteract Axis propaganda which officials said is being used to disrupt the production speed-up drive as an attempt to "sow" American industry.

WPB officials announced that the statement would climax a series of broadcasts in a membership drive over the National Broadcasting Company, Columbia Broadcasting System and Mutual Broadcasting network between 8:30 and 9 p. m. east, and that it "will cover a lot of ground."

Suddenly Scheduled
The suddenly scheduled speech, which was under consideration for some time, was arranged principally to block electrically-handled propaganda by Axis propagandists abroad. In this country, it was reported, Axis agents have been actively supplementing Berlin radio broadcasts aimed against the management-labor committees established by Nelson as a nucleus for the speed-up in armament production.

AS FORMER
As the first formal move to launch the production speed-up drive, government representatives will hold meetings during the next two weeks with industries holding prime war contracts to assist in organizing the management-labor drive.

Famine Orphans Cause For Alarm In Greece

Desperate Plight Of Populace; Children
In Hospitals

By DANA ADAMS SCHMIDT
United Press Staff Correspondent
Athens, Greece, March 17—(UP)—
A winter of starvation has left between 30,000 and 40,000 "famine orphans" in Athens.

That is part of the story of misery and lack of food that refugees are bringing out of Greece. The famine orphans have been collected from the streets and placed in asylums. Their parents, according to the refugees, either abandoned the children or died of starvation.

Picking together the stories of the refugees, here is the desperate plight of Greece:

Dozens of pale, haggard civilians collapsed daily on the streets of Athens and Piraeus from hunger. Hospitals treat other dozens whose joints are swollen and stomachs bloated—symptoms of acute starvation.

Commodities Scarce
Sugar and many necessary commodities no longer can be purchased in public shops.

In a first-class restaurant, a meal consisting of a small portion of vegetables, a slice of bread and a piece of meat the size of a matchbox costs the American equivalent to $15 to $20.

Those are the grim stories told by Greek refugees arriving in Turkey. And they fear the situation will gradually grow worse.

The actual toll of starvation victims even in Athens and Piraeus cannot be predicted accurately, but at least several hundred collapse and die daily. The pre-war death rate in these towns was 25 to 30.

Mavro Mihailis, former Greek foreign minister, has estimated at least 1,000 starvation deaths occur daily in the two cities, mostly among children and elderly civilians. Axis authorities have permitted Mihailis to make a personal appeal for aid in Turkey.

Many more thousands, he warned, would die soon if the Mediterranean blockade were not relaxed to permit the arrival of cargo ships. The relief food sent from Turkey was exhausted by the end of January, and since then the situation has become more critical.

There is some food in Greece—small reserves of potatoes, sugar, oil and dried vegetables left over from the war. But these have been impounded by the axis occupation authorities.

When axis propaganda proclaims that food has reached Greece from Germany or Italy, it may be assumed according to reliable reports, that some of Greece's own reserves have been released for public consumption. Generally these supplies are withheld for the occupation troops.

Food Taken by Germans
The German army undoubtedly exported large quantities of food from Greece. Competent sources report the axis troops lived exclusively off the land and did not even provide their own cigarettes.

Trucks and planes which arrived with axis troops and munitions returned to Germany and Italy with loads of hastily-preserved vegetables, the refugees claim. Some of the loot, it was said, was transported by airplane.

All prices have skyrocketed. The black market sugar price, when it is available, is 150 times higher than the peacetime scale.

The need is not so critical in smaller towns and villages, but the monopolization of transport by the axis and the absence of coal and gasoline have prevented aid from reaching the capital.

Aside from insignificant gestures by the Germans and Italians, the only foreign aid has been 6,000 tons of food landed from the small Turkish ship Kurtulush, which made its first journey last October. On its fourth trip from Istanbul, last January, she went aground and sank with a full load.

Even the meagre Turkish aid is credited with saving thousands of lives, providing at least 500,000 persons with plates of thin soup distributed through the international Red Cross.

There is a possibility that an embargo on Turkish food exports may be imposed because of rising prices and the need for commodities in Turkey. This would mean even less aid.

American funds supplied through the "Greek War Relief Association" have paid for nearly all relief. British and Greek funds also contributed, and Turkey herself paid for a small amount of food.
