AXIS HURL MIGHT INTO EGYPT

Germans Smash At Red Forces In New Drive

Open Offensive In The Kursk Sector, South Of Moscow

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, June 29—(AP)—Probing the long, resilient Russian line for a weakness, the Germans were smashing out from Kursk, about 280 miles south of Moscow, today in a new drive presumably aimed at cutting the vital railway connecting the southern and central fronts.

The new offensive—the fourth started by the Germans this spring—came as the battered and weary Soviet defenders of Sevastopol fought off a succession of brutal Axis blows at the Black sea fortress, now under attack for the 25th day. Other Red army units were counter-attacking fiercely in the Kharkov region and winning back some lost ground, front dispatches said.

The new blow in the Kursk sector came Sunday and the Russians said only that the Germans "had gone over to the offensive" there. The drive was pointed directly at Voronezh, 120 miles to the east, an important railway center 300 miles south of Moscow and about 400 miles north of Rostov, the gate to the Caucasus now held by the Russians.

Threatened Communications
The Russian winter offensive had failed to dislodge the Germans from Kursk and the Russian line in this region runs roughly north and south to the east of Kharkov, Kursk and Orel.

A German break-through east of Kursk would not only threaten vital Russian communications, but also could be maneuvered to bring the Russian forces in the Kharkov sector into reach of an encirclement movement from the north.

Dispatches from the Kharkov front said last week's German drive through Kopyansk, 60 miles south-east of Kharkov, had been blunted and that Russian troops had taken the offensive, throwing tanks, planes and even an armored train into the battle. The Germans were retreating in some areas, the reports said.

Although admitting that the German "succeeded in somewhat pressing our units" in one sector of the bitter siege of Sevastopol, the Russians announced that "on all other sectors the enemy attacks were repulsed with enormous losses to him."

Of the four major spring thrusts initiated by the Germans only the occupation of the Kerch peninsula has been successfully concluded.

16 Persons Get Small Fines For Parking Offenses

Of the 18 week-end traffic arrests two were for moving violations and 16 for parking rule infractions. Art Lagasse, 840 South Osborn avenue, arrested by Officer Robert Randle for running a stop sign at Main and Water streets on Saturday evening, was fined $1.

Willie England of East Willow street, arrested for failure to have a state license on his auto, was fined $4 and costs.

Eight motorists paid $2 each for alley parking and eight others were assessed the same amount for exceeding the two hour parking time limit.

Four Major Fights Headed By New Sales Tax Arguments

By DONALD A. YOUNG
Washington, June 29—(AP)—While technical experts prepared a draft of the once-completed $5,000,000,000 tax bill, house ways and means committee said today that four major fights, headed by new sales tax arguments, probably would be reopened before the measure reaches the house.

They said opportunities undoubtedly would be presented to consider again not only a "war consumption tax," but postwar credits for corporations and corporate excess profits tax rates, the "withholding" plan of income tax collections and proposed increases in second and third class postal rates.

Some members have contended that the postwar credit plan, based on redemption of bonds equal to 14 per cent of a corporation's excess profits income, which would be taxed at a flat 94 per cent, would not help small companies which currently might not have much excess profits income.

Less than 24 hours after the committee completed its first study of

Registration Of Youths Is Rather Light

Chicago, June 29—(AP)—Col. Paul G. Armstrong, state director of selective service, said today that the registration of youths of 18 to 20 was "lighter than expected" during the first two days of the four-day enrollment period.

He urged boys of 18 and 19, and those who became 20 after last December 31st, not to wait until tomorrow, which is the final day for registering.

"Register this afternoon or tonight," Colonel Armstrong advised. "Don't wait until tomorrow. If you do, you'll have to stand in line and you'll have the local board officers at the last minute."

Unofficial surveys estimated that only 25 per cent of the 228,000 expected to register in Illinois had made their visits to their local draft board offices. Armstrong said he was unable to give an official estimate on the progress of the enrollment.

However, many local board members have reported registration proceeding slowly, he said, adding "it appears a large number of young men are procrastinating."

Board No. 2 Sends 31 Men To Army July 6

14 From Board No. 1 Leave For Exams In Chicago Today

Selective service board No. 2 has received a call for 31 men to be inducted July 6, it was announced today.

A group of 14 from board No. 1 left the courthouse this morning after being fed coffee and doughnuts by women of the Red Cross canteen corps. Of the other two scheduled to go, Thomas Frederick joined the navy before the induction date and Robert Bauer obtained a transfer so that he might be inducted through the Paducah, Ky., board.

New Classifications
Registrants who write to either of the local boards about any matter are requested to give their order numbers if they have been assigned and to specify in which group they registered.

Of the five registrations to date, the first is designated by figures only, the second has the letter "B" preceding the order number, the third has "T" preceding the order number, the fourth has "U" preceding the order number while the young men being registered now will have "C" preceding order number.

Classifications of groups of registrants in the two local boards were announced today as follows:

Board No. 1
1A—Charles B. Hertz, Clarence Mink, Lloyd Morin, Carl Witte and Robert Woodrich.

Board No. 2
1A—Arthur Bartschfeld, William Barnes, Ronald McFarland, Fred Curio.

1C—Joseph Barsanti and John Kessler.

3A—Arnold Menke, Henry Figgash, David Mann.

4P—Thomas Swicki.

The new bill which contained a provision for payroll deductions of 10 per cent of the difference between an individual's income and his exemptions, Secretary Morgenthau disclosed that the "withholding" rate might be cut to 5 per cent.

The committee's plan contemplated that half of the deductions starting in January would apply against 1942 taxes due in 1943; the other half against 1943 taxes due in 1944.

But Morgenthau forecast the possibility that such a complicated procedure might give way to a 5 per cent deduction applicable against future year payments.

A peculiar question of jurisdiction may force abandonment of the ways and means committee decision to require the post office department to release second and third-class rates enough to make up current deficits of $109,000,000 in those categories.

Faced with protests against these increases, several members said they might yield to the house postoffice committee which has claimed the subject as its prerogative.

They are James Lund, 22, 255 North Greenwood avenue, and Jesse Leonard Prindle, 22, 569 North Harrison avenue.

At the Iowa base they will undergo three months of strenuous scientific physical conditioning that is designed to make navy fliers the most physically perfect group of fighters in the world.

They will also learn the fundamentals of navigation, military formations and drill and naval lore.

Damage Enemy's Air Field And Installations

One Bomber Suffered Slight Damage But All Returned Safely

Washington, June 29—(AP)—The navy announced today that United States bombers had attacked Japanese-occupied Wake Island in the Pacific last Saturday, damaging the enemy's air field and various shore installations.

The navy's communique, based on reports received up to 1 p. m. (cwt) today, said:

"Central Pacific area:
"1. U. S. bombers attacked Japanese-occupied Wake Island on June 27.

"2. Under favorable conditions of weather and visibility our planes, attacking in formation, damaged the air field and various shore installations.

"3. Enemy anti-aircraft and fighter defense was weak and, although one bomber suffered minor damage during the attack, all of our planes returned safely."

Wrested from U. S. Dec. 23

Tiny Wake Island, which overwhelmed enemy forces wrested from an American marine garrison Dec. 23, is Japan's nearest base to the Hawaiian area. It is 2,000 nautical miles west of Pearl Harbor and little more than 1,000 miles southwest of Midway, the American outpost nearest to Japanese territory.

The raid reported today was the second made by American aircraft on the Atoll. Planes from a task force led by Vice Admiral William F. Halsey wiped out shore installations and some minor surface units Feb. 24.

It was considered probable by authorities here that American raiders on Saturday were looking for a concentration of enemy shipping of the sort which they found in the Marshall and Gilbert Islands raid Jan. 31 when they destroyed 16 ships as well as 41 planes and land works. If that was their hope, apparently they were disappointed since the communique mentioned no damage to shipping.

The blow also was interpreted here as a "nuisance raid" coupled with reconnaissance activity with the objective of keeping Wake unusable for the Japanese even though no effort was made to recapture it.

The second course of the Kankakee County Defense Radio schools will open Wednesday night in the local WCLS studio, upstairs at 380 East Court street.

Gordon Changnon and James R. Wiles, radio experts who teach the free school, said there is still room for a few students who may register that night.

The course in radio and electrical fundamentals designed to prepare men for some form of military service is expected to run between four and five months.

The runaway "season" was on in full swing here last week-end.

Two girls from Dayton, O., Virginia Thompson, 15, and Mary Allen, 14, were arrested Saturday night at the Y.W.C.A. by Mrs. Pearl McCorkle, juvenile delinquency officer. Their parents were notified of their whereabouts.

Gertrude Gathling, colored, 604 North Wildwood avenue, reported her son Paul, 9, left home at 9 o'clock Sunday morning to go to Sunday school and hasn't been seen since.

The two youths from Lansing, Mich., who came here with three guns and a car to hunt deer, were returned to Michigan Saturday evening by their parents who came for them.

State police today broadcast reports of three Hopkinton boys reported missing. They were Richard Thomas, 15, Donald Grep, 15, and Francis Hurst, 14, who are believed heading for Hammond.

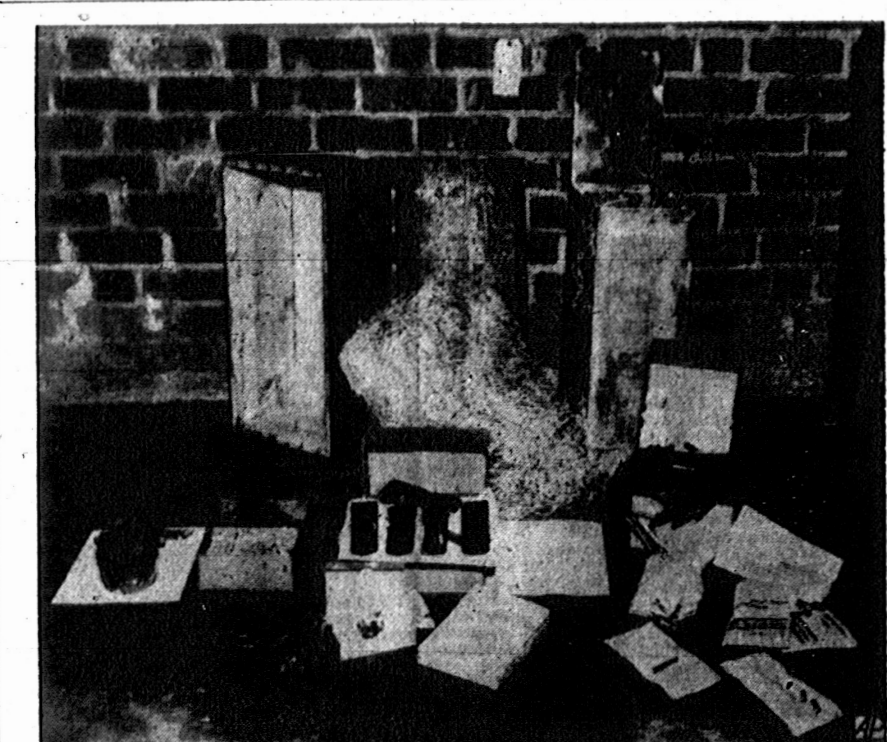

Two Kankakeeans Start Training As Navy Air Cadets

Two Kankakee young men, former students of the University of Illinois, have reported for duty as cadets at the navy pre-flight school at Iowa City for the first phase of their 12-month aviation training course.

They are James Lund, 22, 255 North Greenwood avenue, and Jesse Leonard Prindle, 22, 569 North Harrison avenue.

At the Iowa base they will undergo three months of strenuous scientific physical conditioning that is designed to make navy fliers the most physically perfect group of fighters in the world.

They will also learn the fundamentals of navigation, military formations and drill and naval lore.

Fugitive Convict Is Sent Back To Alabama Police

James Latham, 22, escaped convict from Speigner, Ala., prison, who was arrested by police here, started back to Alabama today in custody of B. W. Ulum, transfer agent from the Alabama state department of correction.

Latham waived extradition proceedings. He escaped last April after serving 18 months of a six year sentence for auto larceny.

Free School Of Radio Will Open Wednesday Night

The second course of the Kankakee County Defense Radio schools will open Wednesday night in the local WCLS studio, upstairs at 380 East Court street.

Gordon Changnon and James R. Wiles, radio experts who teach the free school, said there is still room for a few students who may register that night.

Change Manner Of Giving Sugar, Not The Amount

No change has been made in the amount of sugar allotted to each consumer; the only change is in the manner of distribution. This was pointed out today by George Luehrs, county rationing director, in an effort to clarify the apparent confusion existing since the new regulation was announced.

Instead of running to the store every two weeks to get one pound of sugar, the individual consumer in the future may obtain two pounds at any time within a specified four-week period. The allotment remains the same—one-half pound per person per week.

Sugar stamp No. 5 in the rationing books, therefore, is good for two pounds which may be obtained any time from June 28 to July 25.

Sugar stamp No. 6 likewise will be good for two pounds during July 26 to Aug. 22.

Not Many Buy Federal Auto Stickers—Yet

Purchase of federal $5 auto stickers is slow, despite the fact that Carter Harrison, deputy collector of internal revenue in Chicago, has said the stickers will be necessary if gasoline rationing is instituted.

Thus far the Kankakee postoffice has sold only 2,650 of the stamps which are to be on all autos before July. During February, when the stamps were put into effect for the first time, 7,654 were sold.

More Rationing In Store For Americans

Fifteen Additional Programs Planned Within Next Year

By RICHARD A. BLACKBURN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Washington, June 29—(UP)—Americans were warned today in a house report on a $1,630,437,615 appropriation bill for 19 war agencies to prepare for 15 additional rationing programs within the next year.

The bill, providing for operation of the agencies during the fiscal year starting Wednesday, was approved by the house appropriations committee this morning and sent to the house for immediate consideration. It was designated the first supplemental defense appropriation bill for 1943.

Major controversy is expected over funds for the office of price administration which would administer the rationing programs. The only major cut made in the bill was in OPA funds. The committee slashed that appropriation from $161,000,000 to $95,000,000 and warned OPA not to come back for more. It further specifically prohibited the agency from receiving any more money from the President's emergency fund.

"Foresees The Need"
OPA Administrator Leon Henderson told the committee he "foresees the need" for 15 new rationing programs in addition to present rationing of sugar, gasoline, automobiles, tires and typewriters.

The committee's report said it would be folly to name the specific items likely to be rationed because it would cause immediate runs on them.

The largest single item in the bill was $1,100,000,000 for the war ship-

Call For Help Issued Today By Red Cross

A call for additional volunteers in the Red Cross knitting and sewing project was issued today by Mrs. Adella Stierbenz, production chairman of the county chapter.

Among the projects for which materials are presently available are 425 women's and children blouses, 90 operating gowns, 100 children's rompers and 68 boys' shirts.

Within a few days a supply of yarn for knitting of 250 servicemen's sweaters is expected. The sweaters must be completed and ready for shipment by Aug. 15. No time limit is set on the sewn garments.

No Injuries In Three Accidents Over Week-End

In three auto accidents occurring in this vicinity no one was injured last week-end, but one driver was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Lucille Balducci, 411 North Grand avenue, Bradley, was picked up Sunday night by Officers Thomas Marotte and Curtis Fredt after her car ran into the rear of one driven by Norman Conn, 352 South Washington avenue, in the 200 block on Schuyler avenue. In police court this morning the charge was modified to disorderly conduct and she was fined $8.25.

Walter Kaufman, 212 South Prairie avenue, Bradley, parked his car Sunday in the 100 block on South Schuyler avenue and went into a store. The machine rolled down the hill and collided with a light pole.

G. W. Morgan and his daughter, 1099 South Elm avenue escaped injury when their car overturned while going down a steep grade near Highland golf course.

Three Kankakee Young Men Begin Naval Training

Three Kankakee men launched their careers with the navy as they reported at the Great Lakes naval training station last week to undergo a period of recruit training.

The three local bluejackets are Donald R. Johnston, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin G. Johnson of rural route 2; John W. Eller, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eller; and Lawrence Stutz, 17, son of Mrs. Vina Lammie, 411 West Cypress street.

Obtain Marriage Permits

Two couples obtained permits to wed last week-end in the office of the county clerk. They were Thomas Hess Jr., 23, and Dorothy Mattinsky, 21, both of Berwyn; Robert Hallman, 24, and Jeannette Engwall, 23, both of Chicago.

Rubber Drive Extended For Ten More Days

Collections To Date Have Brought A Disappointing Total

Washington, June 29—(AP)—President Roosevelt extended the rubber collection drive today for an additional ten days because collections through Saturday had brought in a disappointing total of 219,000 tons.

Originally scheduled to have ended at midnight tomorrow, the campaign now will continue through July 10.

The continuation was ordered upon the recommendation of Secretary Ickes, in his capacity as petroleum coordinator, and William R. Boyd, Jr., chairman of the petroleum industry war council.

Speaking for Mr. Roosevelt, Presidential Secretary Stephen Early told reporters:

"In the face of the very serious needs for rubber, the total collections as reported today are disappointing. Hence the continuation of the drive."

Due to Hoarding
The total of 219,000 tons was exclusive of rubber turned in since Saturday and also of that in the hands of some 20,000 junk dealers in the country, Early said. It compares with a total of 100,439 tons collected during the first six days of the campaign, which began June 15.

Ickes told reporters that he thought part of the lack of success of the scrap rubber campaign was due to hoarding, and he said there might even be people in official life who were doing a little hoarding.

Ickes said he suspected a great deal of rubber could be dug up in

Varied Charges Listed As Police Arrest 6 Persons

Among the police cases over the week-end were six for varying degrees of importunate conduct.

Three of the offenders were men with the 14 Star Expedition shows, arrested Saturday afternoon by Officer John McKenna for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was still in jail today while authorities investigated his case further.

He was said to be fighting with other men and during the scuffle a $125 plate glass window in the Paris Sweets cafe, 204 East Station street, was broken.

Woman's Clothing Torn
Lloyd Skeen, wrestler with the show, was picked up for drunkenness and fined $8.25. He did not participate in the fight, although he was in the vicinity.

Matruh Falls To Marshal Rommel, Nazi Commander

Desert Struggle Has Been In Progress Since Saturday

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Cairo, June 29—(AP)—The British defenders of Egypt have evacuated Matruh, coastal anchor of the defense line 175 miles west of Alexandria, British authorities announced today.

Third Day of Battle
The bitterly-fighting eighth army fell back in the third day of a great tank battle in which it had sought to stem the drive of Marshal Erwin Rommel's armored columns toward the Nile valley and the Suez canal.

The British used the term "evacuated," indicating that the main British forces were retreating in good order and fully capable of turning to give Rommel battle when the time and ground was favorable.

Matruh was abandoned as the battle, a wild melee of men and machines, spread over an ever-broadening battlefield southeast of that town.

(Both Berlin and Rome announced the capture of Matruh together with 6,000 British troops and there was little doubt in London that their claims were true.)

Many newly arrived planes, including those of the United States air corps, were thrown into the battle to help stem the Axis tide.

The desert struggle has been in progress without a break since Saturday afternoon, when an Axis armored force from the west, taking advantage of the glare of the sun in the defenders' eyes, struck at positions southwest of Matruh.

Marshal Rommel joined the full fury of his forces against the British as 6 p. m. darkness—his favorite time for launching attacks—took the east.

The battle then developed into fast-moving fights between tanks and mobile artillery, the latter being shifted from position to position the better to strike at opposing tanks. Mobile infantry has been used mainly to occupy points after rounding up prisoners.

Egyptian Moon Trick
A full moon permitted the fight to continue through Saturday night and last night with scarcely any waning in intensity. The great Egyptian moon, shining on the glittering sands, makes it bright enough to read a newspaper, but produces curious shadow effects which pose problems for gunners and tank crews.

Today's dawn found the battle for Egypt, now in its third day, moving deeper toward the valley of the Nile with one big battle swirling in to the desert southeast of Matruh, British headquarters here announced.

British and United States bombers, blasting hard and often at the advancing Axis forces, ranged over the eastward moving Axis columns all week-end, setting afire numerous fuel tanks between Salum, near the Libyan border, and Matruh.

General headquarters said details of the fast-developing ground action were not immediately available, thus leaving the general situation in doubt.

Could Adam Eat the Apple with Stomach Ulcers?
The biblical story of Adam and Eve eating the forbidden fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil has been a source of much speculation. One question that has arisen is whether Adam and Eve could have eaten the fruit without suffering from stomach ulcers. The answer is yes, they could. Stomach ulcers are caused by a bacteria called Helicobacter pylori, which was not present in the world until the 19th century. Therefore, Adam and Eve would not have been able to contract the bacteria and would not have suffered from stomach ulcers.

Prime Minister Awaits Debate On Confidence

Confident He Will Win An Impressive Vote In House Of Commons

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE
United Press Staff Correspondent
London, June 29—(UP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill has perfected his strategy and tactics for a two-day full dress war debate in the House of Commons, it was understood today, and is confident that he will win an impressive vote of confidence.

Churchill spent much of the week-end in conference with Maj. Clement Attlee, deputy prime minister and leader of the labor party; Sir Stafford Cripps, lord privy seal, and other members of the war cabinet.

It was indicated that Churchill, adopting the course which his advisers had recommended, would demand a vote on the most hostile of a series of motions on the direction of the war, a motion which attacks him directly in his capacity of minister of defense. Adoption of such a motion would mean Churchill's resignation.

Churchill's position in the debate was believed to have been strengthened by the joint statement issued on his talks at Washington with President Roosevelt, with its implied promise of intensified Allied action to aid Russia and China.

Trying Situation
But the government still was in need of some good news to reassure public feeling, and it was held in parliamentary quarters that bad news, such as a new defeat in Egypt, would increase the number of the prime minister's open enemies, now estimated to number hardly more than 25 in a commons membership of 615.

There were reports that the prime minister would like to hold his fire until the end of the war debate, leaving Sir Stafford Cripps or Maj. Attlee to open for the government. But members of commons who heard the reports seemed dissatisfied and it was believed that Churchill might decide to open himself, and then speak again at the closing.

It was evident that commons, and the public, wanted to hear Churchill speak frankly and fully not only on the Libyan defeat but on the entire war situation, including his talks at Washington and the shipping situation.

Hence it was indicated that the government, which at first wanted to keep Libya, the war generally and the shipping question separate, might have to turn the forthcoming debate into one which would cover every phase of the war.

Frank C. Kreeb Of Gilman Dies, Funeral Tuesday

Gilman, June 29—(RN Special)—Frank C. Kreeb, 35, Gilman grocery store proprietor and political leader here, died at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night at his home after an extended illness.

COLLEGES FOR JAP "EVACS"
Philadelphia—(INS)—Japanese-American college students who have been evacuated from Pacific Coast schools will be able to continue their studies in inland colleges through private agencies working in cooperation with the government. The American Friends Service committee, in conjunction with the War Relocation Authority, has planned a conference of educators to consider the problems of the Japanese-Americans and formulate guidance policies. It was estimated that at least $25,000 of private funds will be needed in 1942 for the project.

As the truck in which he was riding approached the intersection of two main highways, Albert B. Gilstrap of Pickens, S. C., a laborer in the South Carolina state highway department, noticed a crowd gathered around two wrecked automobiles.

The truck pulled over to the side of the road and Mr. Gilstrap jumped out and ran back to the wreck. He made his way through the crowd and saw on the ground the unconscious figure of a man whose right arm had been badly slashed and mangled in the collision. None of the excited onlookers knew what to do to stop the bleeding that threatened the man's life.

Mr. Gilstrap promptly applied digital pressure, had the victim wrapped to dispel the cold of shock, improvised a tourniquet and arranged for transportation to the office of a physician.

Mr. Gilstrap had only recently received his first aid certificate upon the completion of a course conducted in Pickens county for state highway employees. The Red Cross has trained 121 highway workers in first aid courses sponsored by the South Carolina highway department. Six employees have been awarded instructor certificates.

Ex-Army Officer, 85, Still Fighting To Clear Name

Chicago, June 29—(INS)—At 85 years of age, Oberlin M. Carter, an "American Dreyfus" in the eyes of champions of his case, still is fighting.

He still is determined to be exonerated of the charges which ruined his brilliant army career 43 years ago and sent him to Leavenworth prison. The former army captain, whose eyesight is failing, insists there "still is time to remove the blot from my name."

Carter said that his case was ready for another review in congress as soon as the pressing requirements of the war program are met.

Carter spent his recent birthday anniversary in his Chicago home, "as any old man should," as he put it. He disclosed that he has written an autobiography.

West Point Graduate
He was graduated from West Point in 1880 with one of the highest scholastic records ever attained there and entered the army engineers corps.

Success upon success came in his military career. When he had reached the rank of captain, Carter asserted, jealous army associates succeeded in having him convicted at court martial on trumped-up charges that there had been graft in the construction of the Savannah, Ga., harbor project, which he directed.

The war department contends that Carter's claim is baseless and that legislation exonerating him would create an uncertainty in military courts which would permeate the service.

But Carter still insists "there is no evidence of a crime in my case. My first and last task, while I live, is to prove that this is so."

Each soldier during his first year of service requires 200 pounds of wool, representing the fleece of 26 sheep.

ARMY USES POWDER PUFF

Randolph Field, Tex.—(INS)—American women ever face a powder puff shortage, they can alter the situation in part at least—by U. S. Army Air Corps aviation cadets.

Thousands of fluffy powder puffs with near circular holes cut in center, are used as padding pilots' radio headsets. They relieve pressure on cadet ears during hours aloft and exclude noise from plane motors.
