Use Force In African Deadlock

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Troops and police clubbed hundreds of Negroes in the Cape Town area today who failed to join a native back-to-work movement. Police also staged house-to-house raids and shooting was heard in one township.

Nikita Sticks To Separate German Pacts

Tells Russians He Clarified Soviet
Stand With French

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union will do "everything for the solution of the question of a German peace treaty on a basis acceptable to the Western powers."

But at a Moscow homecoming rally reporting on his visit to France, Khrushchev once more insisted on signing separate treaties with East and West Germany, a proposal repeatedly rejected by the West.

Khrushchev said the German question had bulked large in his talks with President Charles de Gaulle and he expressed belief those talks had clarified the Soviet position for the French. The Soviet Premier returned Sunday from an 11-day visit to France.

Khrushchev once more lashed out at Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany. He said on his visits to the United States and Japan, Adenauer tried to mobilize "the cold war champions" against a German peace treaty.

TURNING TO the question of disarmament, the Premier told about 17,000 persons at a French-Soviet friendship rally in the Sports Palace: "As for disarmament, which is the most important question facing the world today, I would say that our Khrushchev-De Gaulle opinions coincide."

A final communique in Paris Saturday said both leaders agreed on the need for disarmament. De Gaulle said nothing about Khrushchev's plan for total disarmament within four years, which the French delegation at Geneva has called unrealistic.

Khrushchev conceded there are differences in the positions of France and the Soviet Union on major issues.

"No doubt they resulted in a better understanding," he said of the talks. "On the most important questions we were obviously not always in agreement, but on the most important we came closely together."

Khrushchev impressed the French people during his visit with an attitude of massive confidence in himself and his country, according to Preston Grover, Associated Press chief of bureau. Continued on Page 6, Column 8

Boston Police Seek Hotel Slayer Of 2

BOSTON (AP)—Police are looking for a man who registered in two Boston hotels over the weekend and left behind a dead woman in each of his rooms.

Police said autopsies showed no signs of injury or violence on either body. Chemical tests were ordered to determine the possibility of poison.

The man registered under the same name at both hotels and gave a fictitious address at Norwood, Mass.

The women were identified as Anna Kennedy, 74, of the South End, and Joan Pelechowicz, 24, of the Roxbury section.

A register showed the man and the Kennedy woman entered the Hotel Berkeley in the South End late Thursday. Hotel personnel found her dead on a bed at 3 p.m. Friday.

Several hours later the same man registered at Hotel Broadway, several blocks away, with Mrs. Pelechowicz. Her body was discovered at 12:45 p.m. Saturday. She was identified by her husband, George.

RIVER BOILS OVER LEVEE

Inundates 80,000 Acres Near Quincy

(Pictures on pages 7 and 17.)

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

The Mississippi River rolled over 80,000 acres of Illinois' richest farm land today and hundreds of northern Illinois residents were forced from their homes by the Fox River.

Thousands of volunteers manning a 50-mile stretch of Mississippi River levee near Quincy lost their battle when the nation's mightiest stream crashed through at Meyer, 14 miles northwest of Quincy.

Thousands of valley residents had been evacuated before the breakthrough came and weren't there to see the river swirl through their homes and barns and submerge their $500-an-acre fields.

THE MISSISSIPPI River bulged into rich farmlands of Western Illinois today, carrying a 50-mile-long crest that was expected to bring record flooding.

There was trouble along the mighty river from Clinton to Cairo and thousands of workers stacked sandbags atop levees to keep the waters confined.

Army Engineers at Rock Island said the break may ease the situation downstream, but could not guarantee it.

The crest was somewhere between Muscatine and Burlington, the river's depth there will be 25.5 feet, two feet above the 1947 "flood of record" mark. The figures were revised by the engineers Sunday to higher predictions.

The engineers said there may be trouble later this week when the Illinois River's crest reaches the Mississippi above Alton. About the same time the Missouri River's crest may reach the Mississippi below Alton.

Farther downstream, at Cairo, where the Ohio empties into the Mississippi, hundreds of acres of bottomlands were flooded in what was described as the worst flood since 1947. A crest is expected at Cairo April 13.

The Wabash River at Mount Carmel is expected to crest Wednesday and the Big Muddy is expected to crest at Murphysboro next weekend.

BEFORE THE BREAK occurred at Meyer, residents had been removed. Livestock and farm machinery were moved to high ground.

While workers fought the river for 48 hours, farmers organized a truck convoy to get their corn grain and livestock out of the flood's path.

The water level stood at 24.3 feet, fourth-tenths of a foot higher than the previous record, set in 1947, when the Mississippi inundated 6,000 acres of farm land.

The Fox River, swollen by heavy rains and spring thaws, battered the Chain o' Lakes area in Lake and McHenry counties. Thousands were homeless. Damages were set at at least a million dollars.

Police said water was standing five deep in all but the downtown area of Fox Lake. A dozen expensive subdivisions containing 40,000 homes were flooded.

Coal Spills At Martinton As 38 C&E Cars Derail

MARTINTON (JNS)—Work will continue around the clock to clear away approximately 2,600 tons of stoker coal and 38 coal cars which piled up here during a train derailment Sunday night.

Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad officials estimate it will take until about 9:30 a.m. Tuesday before the tracks are repaired and cleared for traffic.

Until then, C and E trains will be detoured. At Watseka, they will be sent to Sheldon, where they will ride the New York Central tracks to the C and E tracks at St. Anne.

MORE THAN 50 crewmen, two derricks and four bulldozers are working on the east edge of this community to clear away the coal and hopper cars. According to R. J. Spicer, C and E assistant superintendent, Danville, a hopper car carries approximately 70 tons of coal.

The debris, stacked like abandoned toys in a sandbox, stretches approximately 100 yards just off Martinton's business section and against the Martinton Grain Elevator, which was damaged.

According to railroad officials, the derailment occurred at 8:55 p.m. Sunday when a journal box on one of the coal cars burned, locking the wheels. The journal is that portion of the axle on a freight train where the bearings are housed. This caused the wheels to rip from under the coal car, which dropped to the tracks about a half mile south of Martinton. The train's northbound forward momentum brought the disabled car into Martinton, where it tore loose from the front section of string of cars.

Railroad officials said the break in the train was immediately noted in the diesel engine, where the drop in steam pressure was registered. The steam lines run the length of the train and are used in its braking system.

FIRST ON THE scene of the huge pileup was Ted Ulfers, whose television viewing was interrupted when the coal cars began to pile up on the west side of his property, dumping tons of coal on the lawn and damaging a shade tree.

Board Dumps Rail Dispute In Ike's Lap

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Mediation Board today temporarily abandoned its efforts to settle a wage dispute between the railroads and 11 non-operating unions.

The action clears the way for a nationwide rail strike May 3 unless President Eisenhower steps in to block a walkout before that date.

Eugene C. Thompson, executive secretary to the board, said he would write union and management officials later today to notify them of the board's failure to get an agreement through mediation.

This frees the unions to strike after a 30-day waiting period.

THE PRESIDENT can delay a strike for another 60 days by naming an "emergency" board to investigate the dispute and make settlement recommendations.

The National Mediation Board usually recommends that such an emergency panel be created if it believes the rail dispute will deprive any section of the country of essential transportation service.

The non-operating unions, composed of telegraphers, shop craftsmen, signalmen and others who do not actually operate the trains, are seeking a 25-cent hourly pay increase plus insurance benefits.

The railroads have proposed a 15-cent an hour pay cut and take the position that life insurance demands are not subject to negotiation.

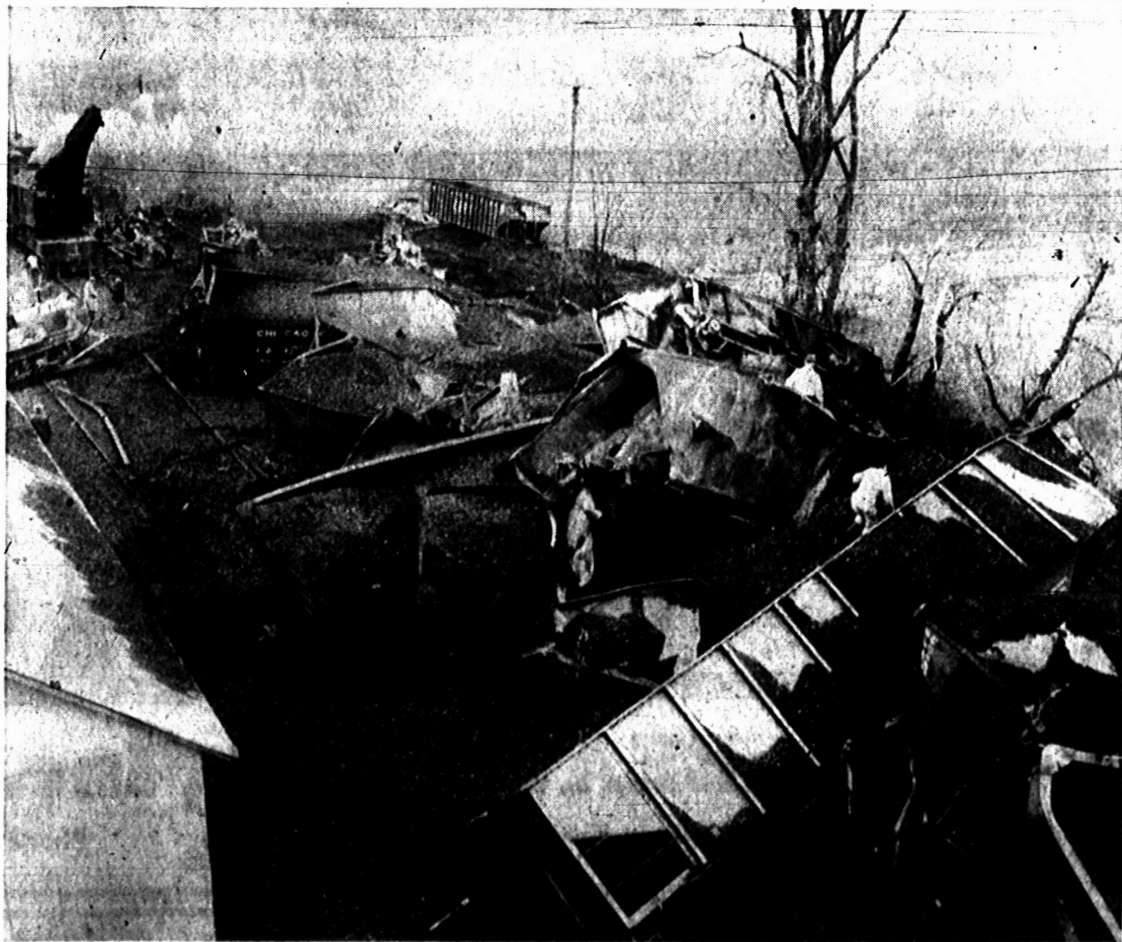

The 600,000 non-operating employees now average about $2.50 an hour.

Chicago Woman Helps Red China Build A Bomb

LONDON (AP) — A British newspaper said today an American woman scientist is helping the Chinese Communists build their first atomic bomb, and they plan to explode it in June or July.

The Daily Mail, in a dispatch from Hong Kong, said the woman was Joan Chase Hinton, 39, a former University of Chicago student who went to China as a welfare worker in 1948. Her mother operated the Putney School in Vermont.

In Chicago, the University of Chicago said Mrs. Hinton studied physics there from the spring of 1946 to the winter of 1948 but did not receive the doctorate degree. The university said records showed she obtained a bachelor of science degree from Bennington (Vt.) College in 1942 and a master of science from the University of Wisconsin in 1944.

Dog Nabs Burglar, Second One Leaves Shoe Behind

A dog aided Kankakee police in capturing one burglar at the scene of his crime today.

Authorities sought a second man believed implicated in the break-in. The second suspect ran out of one of his shoes in escaping.

Held in jail on a burglary charge is Larry Travis, 19, Harvey, found hiding underneath a pick-up truck in a motorcycle shop owned by Chester Tooper at 2000 E. Maple St.

A statewide police radio broadcast was put out for the second suspect, a 20-year-old resident of Posen.

Travis was also charged with possession of a tear gas gun, found in his pocket when he was arrested. Police Capt. George Fredrick said it was a pencil-type gas gun. It is illegal for anyone but peace officers to have gas guns.

Officers Ronald Homberg and John O'Reilly spotted the front door of the motorcycle shop open about 3:55 a.m. today. They went in and found parts and accessories piled near the front door. An east window and the front door had been pried open.

The officers contacted Tooper, who arrived with two dogs. One of the dogs began barking and growling near the pick-up truck and officers found Travis huddled beneath it.

They had previously looked beneath the truck and found nothing, so they theorized that Travis had pulled himself up and was hanging beneath the frame of the vehicle.

IN TRAVIS' POCKETS the officers found motorcycle parts as well as the gas gun. Travis at first told police he had no car, but later one registered to Travis' mother was found in the 600 block of Wood court, a block west of Maple street.

Two billfolds were found in the glove compartment. Cards inside showed one belonged to Travis and the other to his companion.

Police reported that under questioning, Travis admitted the break-in and told them the other man acted as the lookout.

At 5:55 a.m., William Flowers, who lives across the alley from the motorcycle shop, phoned police and said that he saw a man running down the alley and through yards.

Three police squad cars and a sheriff's auto converged on the scene, but authorities could find no one.

A shoe believed to have been lost by the running man was found in a yard.

The suspect being hunted was described at 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing 172 pounds, with red hair and hazel eyes, wearing blue trousers and a dark gray jacket.

Know Your Candidates

(The Journal today presents sketches of the two Democrats and four of the nine Republicans running for state representative from the 1st District, composed of Kankakee, Ford and Livingston counties. The remaining GOP candidates will be presented Tuesday. Republicans will nominate two candidates, Democrats one in the April 12 primary. Since this equals the number to be elected, nonpartisan assures the candidates of election in the fall.)

MAYNARD R. BISSONNETTE

A Kankakee attorney, Maynard R. Bissonnette, 35, of 708 St. Lawrence Ave., is running for nomination as the Democratic candidate for state representative in the 1st District. He is opposed by Joe Russell of Piper City.

A native of Kankakee, he served in the Marine Corps overseas for 31 months, graduated from St. Ambrose College in Dayton, Ohio, and received his law degree at the University of Notre Dame.

PAUL F. DAVIDSON

Paul F. Davidson, 35, Kankakee police magistrate, is a Republican candidate for state representative from the 1st District. An attorney, Davidson is now in his second term as police magistrate. He is also a former member of the board of education of School District 111.

Born in Twila, Ky., Davidson graduated from the University of Michigan and DePaul University Law School.

He is a former agent of the FBI and a Marine Corps veteran of World War II. He is a member of the Illinois State and Kankakee County Bar Associations, the American Legion, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Davidson and his wife, Jean, live at 809 S. Willow Ave. They are parents of two daughters, Cathy, 8, and Cynthia, 2.

Florists To Attend Meeting

Members of the Kankakee County Florist Association will attend a regional meeting of the Florist Telegraph Delivery (FTD) in Aurora Wednesday night.

Members will meet at Spicet Greenhouse at 5:30 p.m.

The county association met last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Johnson in Momence. Plans were made for the Aurora trip. A report on a joint meeting of the Chicago and Peoria units of the FTD was made by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Faber. They attended the meeting in Peoria March 27.

The spring advertising program was discussed. There will be no May meeting. John Panozo will be the June host.

If you were born before 1900...

...let us tell you how you can still apply for a $1,000 life insurance policy (for people up to age 80) so that you can help take care of final expenses without burdening your family.

You handle the entire transaction by mail with OLD AMERICAN OF KANSAS CITY. No obligation. No one will call on you! Tear out this ad and mail it today with your name, address and year of birth to Old American Insurance Co., 600 Oak, Dept. 1412B, Kansas City, Missouri.

JOE W. RUSSELL

A Piper City farmer, Joe W. Russell, 36, is one of the two Democrats running for nomination as state representative from the 1st District. He is opposed by Joe Russell of Piper City.

He served as a state representative for seven terms before the redistricting of the Legislature. Russell and his wife, Adelaide, have a son, Jim, 18.

ARTHUR R. FALTER

Arthur R. Falter, 53, Sauemina, is one of the nine Republicans seeking nomination as a candidate for state representative in the 1st District.

The owner of five grain elevators, Falter is president of the Sauemina Grain Elevator Board. He has also been elected representative to terms on school boards at Paxton, Chenoa, and in LaCrosse, Ind.

Born in Kempton, he is a graduate of Pontiac High School who attended Illinois Wesleyan University for one year. He is a member of the Masons, Order of the Eastern Star, Odd Fellows, Moose, Elks and the Methodist Church.

Falter and his wife, Artie, have a daughter, Ann, 14.

Kankakee Daily Journal Monday, April 4, 1960 College Students Take Part In Meeting Exchange

There are exchanges of most everything these days, but at Olivet Nazarene College a new program has been worked out.

The effort is trading of student religious leaders of small Christian colleges, to bring about an interchange of ideas and observations.

David Bowman, a junior at Olivet and president of the Student Prayer Band, initiated the program this spring and so far has met with success.

Exchanges have been worked out with student religious leaders at Marion College, Marion, Ind., and Wheaton College in Wheaton.

The Student Prayer Band at Olivet is a coed group of students which meets at 6:15 p.m. four times a week for devotions, singing and to provide an opportunity for personal witness, Bowman explained.

Attendance averages 150 students. There was no precedent for the exchange, he explained.

Bowman said he felt it would help students to understand religious attitudes and beliefs at other colleges and provide new methods of improving the spiritual life.

Boyer served in the Army from 1941 to 1945. He and his wife, Jane, have a son and two daughters.

A native Kankakeean, Thomas R. Houde, 34, is one of the nine Republicans running for nomination as a candidate for state representative in the 1st District.

A World War II Air Force veteran, Houde operates a printing, direct mail advertising and public relations business here. He was elected Kankakee Town clerk in 1954, a post he still holds.

He attended St. Patrick's High School, St. Bede College, Loyola and DePaul Universities and John Marshall Law School.

A former state commander of the Disabled American Veterans, Houde is a member of the American Legion, VFW, Amvets, state and Kankakee County Township Officials organizations, the K of C, St. Rose Holy Name Society, St. Jude's League, Lions Club, South Side Athletic Club and St. Patrick Central High School Athletic Club.

Houde is also a member of the governor's commission to investigate the hospitalization of paraplegics.

He and his wife, Mary Jean, have a daughter, Linda, 9. They live at 1838 Linden St.

Ottawa Murders Appear Bound For Unsolved Files

(Robert T. Loughran is a veteran UPI police reporter who has covered such Chicago crime stories as the St. Valentine's Day massacre and the John Dillinger shooting. In the following dispatch, he says the slaying of three Chicago women appears headed for the unsolved list.)

CHICAGO (UPI)—The olive drab metal cabinet on the third floor of Chicago's central police headquarters is used so often it rarely needs dusting.

It is filled with manila folders holding data on Chicago's unsolved murders—942 gang killings since 1915, assorted additional murders and within the past five years, three of the nation's most spectacular multiple-death crimes.

LATEST OF THE multiple killings involved three suburban Riverside matrons, Mrs. Lillian Oetting, Mrs. Frances Murphy and Mrs. Mildred Lindquist. The women's beaten bodies were found at Starved Rock State Park, 100 miles southwest of Chicago.

Officially, Chicago police have no entered the Starved Rock case. They have, however, volunteered any assistance it asked.

The Starved Rock case, three weeks old today, thus appeared to be heading for the unsolved list.

Reside it, in Chicago area murders, were the cases of three young boys, found beaten and strangled in a suburban forest preserve, and the two Grimes

At the scene of the Grimes murders, too, no major clues were found.

In each of the cases, police had yet to definitely state how many persons were involved with the deaths.

The gangland slayings appear to be almost another matter entirely. Police rarely discuss clues, if any, in those.

School Petitions Get Board Attention

WATSEKA—A petition to combine the Goodwine School District with the Bryce-Ash Grove Grade School District will be considered at 7:30 today by the Iroquois County Board of School Trustees.

Petitions to exchange property between the Cissna Park Unit School District and the combined Bryce-Ash Grove Grade School and Milford High School districts will also be considered.

Both the Goodwine, Grade School District board and the Bryce-Ash Grove Grade School District board petitioned the trustees for the merger. At present there are 20 pupils in the Goodwine school in grades one through six taught by one teacher.

In exchange for this there is another petition to take approximately a section of land from the Cissna Park District and annex it to the Bryce-Ash Grove Grade School District and Milford High School District.

At the hearing tonight in the Iroquois County Court House the petitions will be heard, and may argue their case. The seven trustees will then vote on the petitions. If approved the changes take place July 1.

Trustees are Clyde Johnson, rural Watseka, president; and Arnold Albrecht, rural Watseka; Horace Sunderland, Donovan; Addison Goodell, Loda; Sebo Wilken, Danforth; Otto Schriener, rural Onarga, and Hugh Roark, rural Hopkinton. Brooks Courtwright, county superintendent of schools, is ex-officio secretary.

Also filed $5 each were Franklin L. Crandell, 19, RR 2, Kankakee, no tail lights; and John W. Lamour, 18, 109 St. Louis St., Bourbonnais, stop sign violation.

Traffic violation fines in Kankakee police court Saturday.

For speeding—Verla R. Jefferson, 21, 332 Hillcrest Ave., $12; Vernon P. Denton, 32, Monmouth, $14; Harold Denoyer, 28, Irwin, $15; Larry J. Wine, 16, 530 S. Curtis Ave., $19; Robert Worth, 27, 255 S. Elm Ave., $14; Louis Winfield, 22, 833 N. Wildwood Ave., $19.

Find Teacher Has Teacher By 2 Wives

LEE, Mass. (AP)—For seven months high school teacher Joseph R. Dischino, an admitted bigamist, kept two wives and four children in homes eight miles apart.

The secret double life of the respected civics instructor, exposed through an anonymous tip sent to Police Chief William R. Obarheim of Stockbridge, stunned this western Massachusetts community and cost Dischino his job.

The wives also were stunned, Obarheim said.

In Lee District Court Saturday, Dischino pleaded guilty to bigamy and was held in $100 bail for disposition Wednesday.

Dischino, 35 years old, dark and stocky, he is a mild mannered man who wears glasses.

Obarheim said Dischino divided his nights between the two homes and used a part-time job at a South Lee resort to explain his absence.

The teacher married the first Mrs. Dischino, Mary, 15 years ago at Westley. They had three children ranging in age from 3 1/2 to 9.

The second wife, Obarheim said, was Margaret Burnip of Waterbury, Conn., whom Dischino married July 28, 1958 at Westley. She remained in Connecticut until after a child was born last September, the chief said.

Then she moved to Stockbridge, adjoining Lee, where the first Mrs. Dischino resides.

Besides civics, he was an assistant basketball coach at Lee High School.

State Socialists Pick Candidates

CHICAGO (AP)—The Socialist Labor party of Illinois has nominated Edward C. Gross, a taxi cab driver from Chicago, as its candidate for governor.

The 45-year-old party Sunday also named Louis Fisher, a side spot remover and state party secretary, as its candidate for senator.

Both men also ran in 1956, a party spokesman said, and received about 10,000 votes apiece.

The party has about 200 members in Illinois, he said, all members of what he called the working class.

The party's presidential choice will not be known until the national convention at New York May 7-8. Candidate for the presidency in 1952 and 1956 was Eric J. Hase, New York, editor of the party's magazine, Twenty-seven presidential electors were picked at Sunday's convention.

Republicans Gird To Win North Dakota Senate Seat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are preparing for an all-out effort in a special North Dakota senatorial election which could influence the whole presidential campaign.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said that so far as the June 28 North Dakota balloting is concerned "this is it."

"If we Republicans lose this special election in the Midwest just prior to the convention, it will influence the whole campaign this year," he said. "If we can't win in a key pivotal state like this, we may lose the presidential election."

REPUBLICANS HAVE nominated Gov. John E. Davis to fill the seat vacated by the late Sen. William Langer. Democrats are expected to nominate Rep. Quentin N. Burdick at their state convention Thursday.

Because the farm issue is likely to be paramount, Goldwater said he has been urging Vice President Richard M. Nixon to go into the state and make a farm speech.

Goldwater thinks this program may prove to be something of an antidote to the policies of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Benson's ideas are "under heavy attack from Democrats and many Middle Western Republicans are considerably less than charmed with them."

"WE KNOW THAT Nixon doesn't agree with Benson," Goldwater said in an interview. "But we don't know the extent to which he doesn't."

Thus far Nixon has said no to the farm issue.

Then the moved to Stockbridge, adjoining Lee, where the first Mrs. Dischino resides.

Besides civics, he was an assistant basketball coach at Lee High School.

Hold Style Show In Reddick High

REDDICK (JNS)—"Fashion Time," the spring style show of the Reddick FHA, was held Tuesday in the high school gymnasium.

Mothers of the FHA girls were the honored guests. The chapter mother, Mrs. Patrick Masching, Campau, and the chapter adviser, Miss Mary Herbst, also were honored.

The theme, "Fashion Time," revolved around the idea of clothes suitable for wear at any time of the day or night. The girls modeled evening, formal, and semi-formal dresses.

Because the farm issue is likely to be paramount, Goldwater said he has been urging Vice President Richard M. Nixon to go into the state and make a farm speech.

Goldwater thinks this program may prove to be something of an antidote to the policies of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Benson's ideas are "under heavy attack from Democrats and many Middle Western Republicans are considerably less than charmed with them."

"WE KNOW THAT Nixon doesn't agree with Benson," Goldwater said in an interview. "But we don't know the extent to which he doesn't."

Thus far Nixon has said no to the farm issue.

Pro Cage Playoffs Tied; Cousy Shooting Icy .246

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — The riddle of "what's happening to Bob Cousy?" held all the attention today in the National Basketball Association championship play-off between the St. Louis Hawks and Cousy's Boston Celtics.

The Hawks evened the best-of-seven series at 2-2 Sunday, dropping Boston, 106-96, at St. Louis while holding the usually high-scoring Cousy to his lowest shooting percentage in 13 tries.

In all, Cousy now has scored but 17 of 69 field goals attempted in the four game series for a frigid .246 shooting percentage. "It just seems to be one of those things," Boston coach Red Auerbach said. "The ball simply is not going through the basket for Bob. He certainly is physically fit and all that. It's just not falling in. There doesn't seem much that can be done."

The series now is scheduled to move to Boston for the crucial fifth game Tuesday, then return to St. Louis for a sixth game on Thursday. A seventh game, if necessary, would be played in Boston on Saturday.

The Hawks had jumped to an early lead over the Celtics Sunday, outscoring Boston 14-4 in the first four minutes of the first period to take a 28-18 edge at the quarter. By the half, St. Louis had built its edge to 50-39, after earlier leading by 12 points, 40-28.

BOSTON FOUGHT back in the third period and twice managed to come within one point, St. Louis, however, pulled in front once again in the period's final minutes and led, 81-83, at the end of the third quarter. In the final period, the Celtics never could come closer than nine points.

Boston did try a last-minute drive, however, but was severely hurt when Frank Ramsey fouled out with four minutes left and, still later, Tom Heinsohn had to be helped from the floor with a cut eyebrow suffered during action under the backboards.

Key men in the Hawks attack were Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan. Pettit wound up the game's top scorer, with 22, and Hagan added 25 before a national television audience and a crowd of 10,612.

High for Boston were Bill Sharman and Ramsey, each of whom scored 20.

St. Louis wound up scoring 42 of its 91 field goal attempts for a 46.2 percentage mark, compared with Boston's 33 of 93 for 35.5. In rebounds, the Hawks claimed 67 to Boston's 64.

White Sox Finally Get Sievers

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Washington Senators today traded one of their most powerful hitters, Roy Sievers, to the Chicago White Sox for catcher Earl Battey, first baseman Don Mincher and an estimated $150,000.

Sievers, a first baseman, is expected to give the White Sox some badly needed power. In six seasons with the Senators, he hit 180 home runs and averaged 96 runs batted in.

Mincher had 22 homers and batted in 92 runs with Charleston, W. Va., while hitting .272.

Battey hit only .219 with the Sox last season but his defensive work is regarded as superb.

Last June, Bill Veech, president of the White Sox, offered the Senators five players and $250,000 for Sievers, Courtney and pitcher Russ Kemmerer. This deal was rejected by the Senators.

AP Writer Picks Sox To Win AL Flag Again

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The Chicago White Sox don't scare you. They just beat you. They slash, dash, and eke out a tight defense to protect a veteran pitching staff. In short, the Sox are a solid ball club with the age of their pitching the only questionable factor.

Since the World Series, Manager Al Lopez has added power to his lineup with kid pitchers. It might be too much to ask of a young staff.

BECAUSE THE SOX appear to have strengthened a pennant-winning club, they figure to repeat in the American League. For the long-range future, look elsewhere but for 1960 this should be the ball club.

New York, it says here, is the main threat. The trade that brought Roger Maris to the Stadium from Kansas City gives the Yankees a batting order that should be the strongest in the league. Maris, Mickey Vernon, Yogi Berra, Bill Skowron and Hector Lopez can erupt at any moment.

Boston's hoped appear to be tied closely to Ted Williams who may not be able to play many games. Here's the way it looks from here:

Cleveland's trades built a solid infield. Frank Lane got second baseman Johnny Temple and third baseman Bubba Phillips but may have given up too much in Cal.

St. Louis ended the Florida section of its exhibition schedule Sunday by whipping New York, 6-3. It was the National League club's fifth triumph over the Yankees in six games and the Stengel's last with one of the poorest records in big league exhibition play, 7-15.

THE CARDINALS (18-7) boasted the top exhibition record among the 16 major league teams when they left Florida Monday to play for Arizona to tackle the four big league clubs training in the Southwest.

Ron Kline, the right-hander, the Cardinals obtained from the Pittsburgh Pirates, pitched his second complete game of the exhibition competition and the fifth by a St. Louis pitcher when he scattered 10 hits against New York Sunday.

The Cardinals now will test their pitchers against some of the game's best long-ball hitters. They'll face the home-happy San Francisco Giants Tuesday at Phoenix.

The Giants reeled off one of their typical games Sunday, as Eddie Bresnahan hit two triples and drove in five runs during a nine-run sixth inning to spark a 4-0 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. Willie Mays hit his eighth homer and Orlando Cepeda hit his sixth of the exhibition season for the Giants. Frank Thomas hit two for the Cubs, another game of home hitters who play the Cards next weekend.

Nieporte Cops Azalea Open Title, $2,000

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — Tom Nieporte bunched his wife and three small children into his station wagon this morning and headed for Bronxville, N. Y., $2,000 richer after winning the Azalea Open Golf Tournament Sunday, 117 7/10 for 72 holes beat Gay Brewer of Crystal River, Fla., by two shots.

Meanwhile, many of his fellow touring golf professionals headed for Augusta, Ga., and the Masters Tournament opening Thursday.

Nieporte didn't get an invitation to the blue ribbon event. He was only one other major event in his 16 years as a pro. That was at the 1959 British Open, Arnold Palmer (upper right) in this year's biggest money winner so far.

The first big golf event of the year, the Masters, is set to run Thursday through Sunday at Augusta, Ga., and these are the four major tournaments in golf.

Nieporte, the leader after each round, had scores of 64-68-72-73, 11 under par for 72 holes around the 6,800-yard Cape Fear Country Club course.

Brewer had rounds of 67-71-70 for 278, worth $1,000.

Don Whit of Borrego Springs, Calif., tied Dow Finsterwald, of Tequesta, Fla., for third place at 281.

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL. The St. Louis Cardinals had a ball in Florida and no team is happier to see them leave than Casey Stengel's bedraggled New York Yankees.

St. Louis ended the Florida section of its exhibition schedule Sunday by whipping New York, 6-3. It was the National League club's fifth triumph over the Yankees in six games and the Stengel's last with one of the poorest records in big league exhibition play, 7-15.

THE CARDINALS (18-7) boasted the top exhibition record among the 16 major league teams when they left Florida Monday to play for Arizona to tackle the four big league clubs training in the Southwest.

Ron Kline, the right-hander, the Cardinals obtained from the Pittsburgh Pirates, pitched his second complete game of the exhibition competition and the fifth by a St. Louis pitcher when he scattered 10 hits against New York Sunday.

The Cardinals now will test their pitchers against some of the game's best long-ball hitters. They'll face the home-happy San Francisco Giants Tuesday at Phoenix.

The Giants reeled off one of their typical games Sunday, as Eddie Bresnahan hit two triples and drove in five runs during a nine-run sixth inning to spark a 4-0 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. Willie Mays hit his eighth homer and Orlando Cepeda hit his sixth of the exhibition season for the Giants. Frank Thomas hit two for the Cubs, another game of home hitters who play the Cards next weekend.

IN OTHER SUNDAY action, Bob Buhl went all the way and allowed only four hits in pitching the Milwaukee Braves to a 3-2 triumph over the Washington Senators; and in a game halted by rain after five innings, Hank Aguirre of the Detroit Tigers led the Pirates to a single by Danny Kravitz while winning, 1-0. It was the sixth consecutive loss for Pittsburgh.

Pumpkin Green's single in the 10th inning gave the Boston Red Sox a 5-4 victory over the Cleveland Indians; the Los Angeles Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds were tied at 4-4 when rain halted play after eight innings; the Baltimore Orioles downed the Kansas City Athletics, 5-2, and the Chicago White Sox defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2, in a night game at San Juan, P.R.

Big O, West Head U.S. Olympic Cage Squad

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — All-American Oscar Robertson and Jerry West head the brilliant east of U. S. Olympic basketball team that will play in Rome this summer under the command of Coach Pete Newell of California.

The college stars for the first time showed aside veteran ABA players to dominate the 12-member team chosen Sunday by the Olympic Basketball Committee.

The selections followed the three-day trials here climaxed by the NCAA University all-stars' 124-97 conquest of Peoria's ABA champions in Saturday night's finals before 10,000 fans.

THE VICTORY earned the NCAA team six Olympic berths and won for Newell, their 44-year-old coach, the honor of directing the team in the Olympic competition. He'll be assisted by Peoria's Warren Womble, who coached the 1952 Olympic champions.

West, 6-3, Comet from Cedar Creek, W. Va., riddled Peoria with a 39-point burst, 24 in the first half, to set an individual high for the trials. Robertson, 6-7, able playmaker and collegiate scoring leader from Cincinnati, poured in 20 points to take scores, 125-103.

Soni, a 21-year-old six-footer from the Dominican Republic, never has been stopped in 15 points. The 180-pounder has a 12-2 record, including 8 key.

Waterweights Jay Fullmer, a weight king from Peoria, and Gale Kewen of Ottawa and Valley Stream, N.Y., are matched in the Wednesday night TV-9 p.m. CSI-net at Miami Beach, Fla.

ALSO PICKED from the NCAA team were 6-foot-11 defensive stars, All-American Darrell Imhoff of California, and Walt Bellamy of Indiana; Purdue's 6-8 sophomore Terry Dischinger, who led the Big Ten in scoring, and Texas' 6-2 back court artist, Jay Arnette.

Ron Vadenbrouck, one of Kanakake's top hopes, was unable to attend the meet as he was at a YMCA leadership school at George Williams College.

Jeff Bonser, another bright prospect, finished sixth in the 25 yard freestyle heat and seventh in the 25 yard butterfly. Only the top five qualified for the finals.

Other Kanakake entries include Larry Westerhoff, Gene Morgan and a cadet relay team of Morgan, Mike Bonser, John Merritt and Gary Schmitt.

Peoria and Rock Island teams dominated the meet.

Vets, Dependents Face Pension Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is decision time for about 1½ million veterans and widows and children of deceased veterans who are receiving pensions from the Veterans Administration.

They have a choice between continuing to receive benefits under the present system of flat payments or shifting to a new system that bases benefits on financial need of recipients.

A law approved last year by Congress, which is effective July 1, provides higher payments for eligible persons with low incomes and lower payments to those with higher incomes.

NO ONE HAS to shift to the new system, but once the change is made a beneficiary cannot go back to the old basis.

There is no deadline within which the choice must be made, but if a beneficiary feels the new system is best the change should be made promptly so the increased payment will become effective July 1.

Persons coming on the rolls after July 1 will be under the new system.

The VA says it has informed each beneficiary of the details of the new law. It has also provided the necessary cards to be used to effect a change, and is prepared to assist those on the rolls in reaching the decision that is best for them.

The big problem for recipients involves estimating their probable income in future years. A person with low income now could qualify for a larger pension under the new system, but an income increase in the future could result in a lower pension than now being received.

The changes effective July 1 also make it possible for an estimated 277,000 additional persons to qualify for pensions who could not do so previously.

About 74 per cent of these will be widows and children of veterans of World War II and the Korean conflict. They have been made eligible by elimination of a requirement that they had to submit evidence the veteran had a service-connected disability.

THE OTHER 26 per cent will be living veterans, widows and children made eligible by an increase in the maximum income limitations.

President Eisenhower's budget message said the net effect of the new cases made eligible by the new law was to add an estimated nine billion dollars to the U. S. pension costs over the next 40 years.

The new law has nothing to do with service-connected compensation.

The VA figures that about 70 per cent of the veterans now getting pensions will get increases July 1 if they shift to the new system, but urges close consideration of the long-range outlook.

Now a veteran who is totally and permanently disabled from a non-service-connected disability and who has no dependents can draw a pension if his yearly income is $1,400 or less, and a veteran with dependents is eligible if his income is $2,700 or less.

He gets a flat sum with no regard for number of dependents or income with the maximum limitations.

In most instances the veterans under 65 can draw $66.15 a month and most veterans 65 or older can collect $78.75 a month as long as their income is within the limits.

Under the new system, the income limitations are raised to $1,800 for the qualified veteran or $3,000 if he has dependents.

The amount of his check will depend on how many dependents, if any, he has, as well as the amount of his income within the limits.

A VETERAN WITH no dependents and income of not over $600 a year will receive $85 a month; with income from $600 to $1,200 his pension will be $70 a month; and with income from $1,200 to $1,800 it will be $40.

The veteran with dependents and income of not over $1,000 will draw $90 a month if there is one dependent; $95 if there are two, and $100 if there are three.

The situation as to widows and children:

Now a qualified widow gets $50.40 a month if her income is not over $1,400 a year. A widow with one child eligible for benefits gets $63 a month if income is not over $2,700. For each additional eligible child there is an additional benefit of $7.56.

For children where no widow is being paid a benefit, the payment is $27.30 a month for a child with income of not over $1,400; $40.95 for two children; $54.60 a month for three children, and an additional $7.56 for each additional month with income from $600 to not over $1,200; and $25 a month with income from $1,200 to not over $1,800.

UNDER THE NEW law, the widow with no dependents will receive $60 a month if her income is not over $600 a year; $45 a
