AUTOMOBILE SHOW TO BE IN FEBRUARY

ALL ARRANGEMENTS COM-PLETE FOR BIG EXPOSI-
TION AT ARMORY

BY AUTO DEALERS

22 Lines Of Autos To Be Shown;
Special Show Models Are Arranged For

Plans for the automobile show to be conducted by the Kankakee Automobile Dealers association are now being completed. This show will be held in the Kankakee Armory on February 5, 6 and 7. The general committee elected at a recent meeting of the Auto Dealers association is composed of George Portin, C. L. Markert and Romy Hammes. They have appointed several sub-committees, each of which is responsible for a certain definite amount of the work necessary in putting on a show of this nature. The committee in charge of tickets and entertainment are A. H. Henneberger, chairman, H. M. Weaver, and V. C. Hamann. Another committee is in charge of the advertising and publicity. This committee is composed of Harry Mang, Robert McKay, and E. F. Gerrity. The space and decorations committee is made up of P. J. Bunker, A. G. Marquette and Vernon McBroome.

Arrangements have already been made to have special show models in the number of lines of cars which are to be represented in the show. To date the Automobile Dealers association has been assured that there will be twenty-two lines of automobiles exhibited by the eleven dealers who make up this association. These eleven dealers are: Bunker Bros., Inc., Portin Bros., E. F. Gerrity Motor Co., V. C. Hamann, Romy Hammes, Inc., A. H. Henneberger, Jeffers and McBroome, Kankakee Buick Co., Mang-Zeiser, Marquette Motor Co., and Robert McKay. The lines of cars which will be displayed are: Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Dodge, Essex, Ford, Franklin, Hudson, Graham, LaSalle, Lincoln, Nash, Oakland, Packard, Pierce Arrow, Plymouth, Pontiac, Studebaker, Whippet, Willys, Willys-Knight.

The Kankakee show will immediately follow the Chicago show and will present to the motoring public of Kankakee the unusual values now offered. The new lines are the best that have been offered for a number of years, and in many instances the price much lower, considering the values that are offered.

During the next few weeks each dealer will present to the public their explanation of just how their lines are improved and the values which their particular car offers to the buying public of 1931.

1. URTH DAY OF STORM IN BLACK SEA AREA

Instanbul, Turkey, Jan. 21.—(AP)—What is said to be the worst Black sea storm in thirty years continued unabated today, its fourth day. Enormous waves destroyed all the wharves at Zonguldak, crushing scores of small craft. Three fisherman were drowned. Several Turkish cargo boats have been wrecked.

The only time to catch Mrs. Lafe Bud at home is when the gang plays bridge at her house. It must be tough to be overwhelmed by the elected as a wet an' then have to siphon off a lot o' home brew an' cap it.

AMERICAN TRUST BANK CREDITORS TO MEET SUNDAY

At a meeting held yesterday morning at Adelma's shoe store, thirty depositors of the American Trust and Savings bank decided to unite their efforts to investigate the affairs of the now defunct bank. Impatient with waiting more than a year with little or no results obtained in the liquidation of the affairs of the bank these persons voted unanimously to take steps to protect their interests which they felt were not being amply protected under the present system of liquidation.

The group appointed a committee to arrange for a big mass meeting to be held next Sunday afternoon at the next meeting it is hoped to complete the arrangements for a creditor's protective committee to carry on an investigation into the affairs of the bank and the method of liquidation as carried out by the receiver, Fred C. Snow.

The meeting next Sunday will be held at 2:30 p. m. at the City Hall where everyone who has any money on deposit or is interested in the enterprise is urged to be present.

LIMIT REPEAL DEBATES TO ONE HOUR

EACH FACTION WILL HAVE ITS HOUR TO PRESENT CASE
AT SPRINGFIELD

STATE LEGISLATURE

Illinois Drought Relief Bill Is Presented This Morning; Aids 38 Counties

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Two hours will be devoted by the house of representatives here next Wednesday to debate over the proposal to repeal the Illinois search and seizure act. "Wets" will have one hour to attack the Illinois prohibition laws, and "drys" will have an hour for answering.

Speaker Shanahan announced that leaders of the two sides had agreed on that division of time, but that it was still to be decided by them whether they would give the whole hour to some speakers imported by the factions, or divide the time among interested members.

The agreement to limit the time to one hour was reached in a conference late yesterday, in which Roger Little, Republican, of Champaign and Homer Tice, Republican of Greenville represented the "drys" and Thomas O'Grady, Democrat, Chicago, sponsor of the repealer bill, spoke for the "wets."

Relief for the drought stricken area of Illinois was subject of a concrete proposal for expenditure of $70,000 in thirty-eight counties, or a total of $2,680,000, for county hard road construction, in a bill offered by Dr. F. W. Kuehler, Democrat, Hidalgo, this morning.

Doctor Kuehler's bill declares that an emergency exists "due to unprecedented losses from crop failures, due to the great drought," and that "many persons are in need of immediate financial assistance in the drought area." He asks that the bill be made an emergency measure, effective on its passage. Hard road work provided for in the 38 counties, would be supervised by the various county superintendents of highways.

Homer Tice advised the house that the Illinois waterway fund is about exhausted, that all except six or eight thousand dollars had been spent, and asked that senate bill eleven introduced by Senator Barr last week, and advanced in the senate yesterday, be put on order of second reading without committee reference. This bill would permit the state to lease or sell land or property not needed for the waterway, to utilities companies, and put the proceeds in the waterway fund, for immediate use.

Mary B. Davidson, Democrat, Carthage, introduced three bills, one providing that benefits of the absent voters act shall be extended to ill and physically disabled persons, and to voters absent from the county on business might use the absent voters ballot. Her other two bills provided that tax collectors shall pay library tax money directly to the library board, instead of to the city, village or township treasurer.

FOUR ROBBED AND ABUSED BY BANDITS

BLANCHETTE FAMILY OF NEAR MOMENCE ARE VICTIMS OF GANG OF FIVE

BOUND AND TORTURED

Masked Bandits Took $70 In Cash And Ransacked House In Search For More Money

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Blanchette and their two young sons, who reside on a farm two miles south and one mile west of Momence, last night were robbed, threatened with death, bound, and their house ransacked and disarranged by five young men who are believed to be a gang from Indiana.

The bandits took $70 in cash from their victims. They remained in the farm house for more than two hours and during that time tortured their victims in an effort to make them reveal the supposed hiding place of more money.

The robbers came to the house about 7:00 o'clock last night. Without warning, they kicked in the front door, then tore the bed linen into strips which they used to bind their four victims. In the cellar they found a five gallon can of kerosene which they poured over the kitchen floor, threatening the Blanchettes that they would burn the house down, and the victims in it, if they were not given money.

The family revealed the hiding place of the $70 without resistance. The robbers, however, believed that more money was hidden about the house and threatened the family with torture and death if they did not succeed in these threats, they proceeded to ransack and disarrange the house in search for the money. During their stay of more than two hours, the bandits played the radio for their own amusement.

One of their acts in making this search was to tear the stair carpet entirely off the stairs in the supposition that money was concealed under the carpet.

Finally, about 9:00 o'clock the bandits left. During the time that they were at the house, they kept their faces covered with handkerchiefs but the victims were able to see that they were young fellows. A part of the time, they talked together in a strange tongue which the Blanchettes believed to be Italian.

After the departure of the bandits, one of the family managed to release himself from his bonds and released the others. Having no telephone, they went to Momence and telephoned Albert Goodknecht, sheriff of Kankakee county. By this time it was nearly midnight and the bandits had had time to put many miles between themselves and the scene of the outrage.

However, Sheriff Goodknecht, accompanied by Deputy Leo Tetrault, made a trip to the farm house for an investigation. They learned from the family that members of the gang had been at the farm house twice previously, several days ago. The first time, some of them asked to use a telephone. The second time, they came in an effort to purchase hogs. It is believed that these preliminary trips were made to get the "lay of the land."

Sheriff Goodknecht had learned that a gang similar to this had been operating in Indiana and eastern Illinois. Apparently this gang works on the theory that many people dislike to put their money into banks during the business depression and keep their money at home. Sheriff Goodknecht advises that people place their money in Kankakee county banks to guard against such outrages as occurred last night.

After leaving the house, the bandits took an automobile south to route 17, then turned east toward Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams of Daytona Beach, Florida, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller have returned home.

A. B. Lager, Democrat, Carlyle, introduced to close the hard road gap between Carlyle and Pinckneyville, at a cost of $1,500,000 and thus provide Illinois with a complete "Black Diamond Trail"—the shortest route between Galena and Cairo. Closing the gap was not provided in the bond issue.

President Chase of the University of Illinois today invited the legislature to visit the University on March 5 and 6 or March 12 and 13.

Dry Law Report Suits Nobody, Declares Press Of The Nation Today

(By The Associated Press)

New York Times: The fact of outstanding interest in the entire report is that six of the eleven commissioners are of one mind as to the one form of modification that should be adopted, if any.

Spokane Spokesman Review: The big wet association against the prohibition amendment and its ally, the Modification League, Inc., will find no cheer in these declarations.

Los Angeles Times: While, in the main, the document is strongly dry it has the appearance of an effort to compromise conflicting views which cannot, in fact, be compromised and, as such, will suit nobody.

Halifax (N. C.) News and Observer: The conclusions and recommendations are in accord with the views of those who believe in the wisdom of national prohibition.

Indianapolis Star: The opinions of the members of the commission are indicative of what might be expected from any group of intelligent and conscientious people selected at random. They are for law enforcement even if the law is not 100 per cent satisfactory.

Philadelphia Enquirer: While it advocates enforcement, it gives reasons why enforcement is next to impossible.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Victory on Capitol Hill goes to the dries on points.

Atlanta Journal: If the report does nothing else it at least should serve to remind fanatics in both camps that there are not the only opinions which can be held in high conscience and good faith.

Kansas City Star: Settled nothing.

New Orleans Item: The report will doubtless prove a source of political grief to Mr. Hoover.

Little Rock (Ark.) Democrat: Mr. Hoover appointed the commission as a political gesture and it has made a political report.

Baltimore Sun: Taking the report as a whole, the public is not very far from the starting place. The commission has told us facts that we already know.

Denver Rocky Mountain News: The flood of Wickersham reports simply adds fuel to the raging prohibition fire.

Dallas Times Herald: Decidedly dry. Prohibitionists have room to be assured.

Duluth News-Tribune: A majority of the commission agrees, as a majority of the people will agree, that prohibition has failed.

San Francisco Chronicle: A perfect picture of the state of the public mind.

Decatur (Ill.) Herald: "Hoover appointed the commission in an effort to side-step an embarrassing political issue, and now what has he? The original issue, as lively and dangerous as ever, plus three minority reports. The cat came back with kittens."

Peoria (Ill.) Journal-Transcript: "The Wickersham reports constitute a mosaic of judicial confusion, political desperation, and spiritual exhaustion. The commission should be discharged from further duty."

Chicago Daily Times: "Five years ago these eleven commissioners would have been convinced that prohibition had not yet had a fair trial. Today they are almost evenly divided upon that vital question. Most of us wait five years until another commission, studying the history of another half decade of gang war, prohibition killings, disintegration of our native respect for law, corruption in high places, finds that prohibition not only is not enforced, but can not be enforced, and agrees that the noble experiment has had an adequate trial and must be discarded."

Blonds And Fleas Spread
Heart Ills

Chicago, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Science is now blaming fleas for the spread of heart disease.

That was the message brought to the Chicago Heart association last night by Dr. Hugh McCulloch of St. Louis, associate editor of the Heart association Journal.

Certain kinds of fleas, he said, are believed to carry the germs of rheumatic fever which heart trouble develops from.

He added that medical research indicated blondes are more susceptible to the ailment than brunettes.

IN DRY LAW REPORT

President Is Now Welcomed By The Drys As Their Leading Champion

Washington, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, said today President Hoover's message transmitting the Wickersham report to congress made him the nation's outstanding dry leader.

"President Hoover has removed all doubt of where he stands on prohibition, and at one courageous stroke has rallied behind him the united strength of the dries of America," she said in a statement.

"From this day henceforth the president is not only the outstanding dry champion of the republican party but the leader behind whom the dry forces of America will rally their support."

Washington, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The growing tumult of discussion, dispute and speculation over the Wickersham prohibition report centered today around two salient queries:

How far did the commission mean to go toward recommending revision of the eighteenth amendment? And what will be the political result of President Hoover's opposition to such a step?

As aroused were the commission members over reports that the president had intervened to forestall all unequivocal modification proposal that the following statement was issued by Chairman Wickersham:

"The statement this morning in the Washington Herald that the president persuaded this commission to abandon a tentative recommendation in favor of revision of the eighteenth amendment is absolutely untrue and without foundation."

Refuses to Talk

Neither the chairman nor any member of the commission now in Washington, however, was willing to tell the full story of the weeks of discussion within the commission, or explain how or when the decision against an out and out revision proposal was reached.

As it appears in the combined commission report, signed by all of the members but one, the suggestion (Continued on Page Six)

Beg Your Pardon!

The Republican owes an apology to hundreds of truck drivers who went to 1211 E. Chestnut street last evening, in response to an advertisement for ten truck drivers, only to find an empty house. The nearest residents to the number given in the ad was a newly married couple, who were quite positive they had no need for ten truck drivers. The Republican received the advertisement over the telephone Monday afternoon, and the operator understood the advertisement was being given by E. F. Peterson, address 1211 E. Chestnut street. If the Republican erred in giving the message it is sincerely sorry for the men, whom it inconvenienced. If we did not err, and some practical joker has been at work, we would suggest he try his stunts in some other manner than to mislead unfortunate persons who are seeking an honest means of sustenance.

TRIAL OF TWO COLORED MEN GOES TO JURY

JUDGE DE SELM DELIVERS IN-

JACKSON CASE NEXT

Trial Of Thomas Mann Postponed
Because Of Absence Of One Of The Witnesses

The criminal case of Jesse Williams and Robert Wilson, colored men charged with burglary, went to the jury in the circuit court this morning. Judge A. W. DeSelm finished his instructions to the jury before the noon adjournment of court.

The two men were arrested by night officers of the Kankakee Police Department at about 12:30 o'clock on the morning of November 25th. According to the evidence presented by the state, the men were caught in the act of burglarizing the People's Credit Clothing store on East Court street. No charge of larceny has been made against the defendants, although the management of the store reported to police after the robbery that about $1 was missing.

The testimony offered by the state showed that, after the arrest of the two men, they made a confession to John Stack, chief of police, freely admitting their guilt and stating that they entered the store for the purpose of stealing clothing.

The Kankakee Police Department was put "on trial" by the defense counsel, Foster Smith, appointed by the court to represent the two defendants and who was assisted by Attorney Joe Tolson, Jr.

On the witness stand yesterday, the defendants claimed that they had been framed and denied that they were ever in the store. They claimed that they were arrested on the street and that after they had been taken to the station they were so frightened at being arrested in a strange town that they made a fictitious confession.

The case of Thomas Mann, Kankakee youth charged with armed robbery, was scheduled for trial next. Jesse Thompson, restaurant proprietor, who is one of the state's principal witnesses, has been called out of town, however, by the illness of a relative, and the case probably will not be called tomorrow as originally planned.

It is expected that the trial of Frank Jackson, alias Fred Stetson, charged with having broken into the office of the Luehrs Coal company on the night of December 12th, will probably be called next. It is alleged that after Jackson's arrest by officers of the Kankakee Police Department he claimed that he had been an inmate of an insane hospital in the east and had escaped.

Both Sides Present Opening Arguments To Nation's Highest Tribunal

Washington, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The Clark decision holding the eighteenth amendment invalid was put to test today in the supreme court. Oral argument on the government's prompt appeal began shortly after noon.

Chief Justice Hughes withdrew from the case, announcing he submitted a brief to the court when prohibition was before it in 1920, and thus considered himself disqualified.

The decision of Federal Judge William Clark of New Jersey was based on a contention that the amendment to be valid should have been ratified by state conventions rather than by state legislatures.

After brief preliminaries, Solicitor General Thacher launched into the government's argument.

Ample Authority

He said it seemed clear that article five of the constitution had conferred ample authority upon congress for its determination to refer the amendment to state legislatures.

He added the article was a mandate upon congress and left it free to use its own judgment in determining whether the prohibition amendment should be referred to state legislatures or conventions.

The solicitor general then reviewed the decisions of the supreme court since 1824 to sustain his contention.

In closing he said:

"This attack against the eighteenth amendment fails utterly and completely to the ground because based upon a fundamental misconception of the character of the government which had been created by the constitution."

Solicitor General Thacher took only a half hour in presenting the government's appeal although allowed two hours.

Julius Henry Cohen then began the argument for those seeking to sustain Judge Clark's decision.

He said such an important case had not been presented to the court in years and that he and the other lawyers supporting him fully believed in their cause.

Originally there was no power in the government to prohibit or regulate the sale of liquor, he said, except by an amendment conferring this power. The eighteenth amendment, he added, was a purported grant of such new power.

He said he would attempt to show it was the intent of the framers of the constitution to have such amendments as the eighteenth ratified by conventions and not state legislatures.

The members of the court followed the arguments closely. Not once while Thacher and Cohen were speaking did they interrupt with question, a departure from usual procedure.

Every available seat was taken, by a crowd which stood in line several hours before the doors of the chamber were opened, but the quiet was so intense that the crackling of a wood fire could be plainly heard.

Selden Bacon of New York followed Cohen in presenting arguments supporting Judge Clark.

EDISON SAYS REPORT
FAVORS THE DRYS

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Thomas A. Edison, who arrived in Florida today, said the report of the Wickersham commission on prohibition was "equal to nothing but slightly in favor of the dries."

The inventor, en route to his winter home in Fort Myers, did not elaborate his statement which was made in answer to a written question from newspapermen.

THE UPSET SLEIGH

By Mary Graham Bonner
John was very proud of Peggy. She was not at all frightened from having been overturned from the sleigh, and landing in the snow. "Are you all right, Little Black Clock?" they both asked.

"They were somewhat worried for fear the snow might not agree with him, but he shouted back at once, from a tiny snow bank into which he had fallen:

"Quite all right. Are you both all right, too?"

"We are!" shouted Peggy and John cheerily.

They picked themselves up from the snow and began to quiet the horse. "He was quickly quieted and, although he trembled and felt startled, he tried to be brave and calm.

"He took the wrong road," the Little Black Clock told John and Peggy in a low voice. He is really a trifle ashamed that such a thing could have happened. And it did startle him so to find that he was in the heart of the woods.

"With such a heavy snow storm it is only natural that he made this mistake. There has evidently been a short road built through here for the wood cutters in the logging camp not far away."

"They all helped right the sleigh and turn the horse around.

"Well," said the Little Black Clock, "it's the first upset we have had, but I think it was fun and rather jolly to have had a little excitement like this."

The children both did agree with the Little Black Clock.

The snow was not so blinding now. They made their way back to the real road and continued their drive until it was time to get back to the magic path and home.

John was proud of Peggy for behaving as she had when they had upset. She was no cry baby and no 'fraid cat! She was a real sister. -He wanted to tell her so, but all he could think of saying was:

"You were fine, Peggy."

And she knew all that meant!

Tomorrow: "The Proud Team."

GAS relieved

What most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. Food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.
The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For this 50 years since its invention, it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.
One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate with no harmful after-effects. Once you learn this perfect way you'll never deal in any other manner with the headaches, gas, bloating, nausea, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness, etc., due to an over-acid stomach and bowels. Be sure to get genuine Phillips. It is always a liquid; never made in tablet form. Look for the name Phillips on the bottle. All drug stores—25c and 50c.
