R. W. SPENCER DIES; TOOK POISON ACID

LOCAL CITIZEN MISTAKES MU- RIATIC ACID FOR BOT- TLE OF "MOON"

FOUND BY STEP-SON

Jury Holds Death Was Acciden- tal; Funeral Will Be Held Saturday

Mistaking a bottle of muriatic acid for moonshine whiskey, Robert William Spencer, age 62, 232 North Indiana avenue, took a drink of the poison at his cottage on Highway 113 Saturday afternoon. He died at 8:10 o'clock last evening at St. Mary's hospital when all efforts to counteract the effects of the poison had failed.

Spencer's step-son, Raymond C. Marx, with whom he lived, testified at the inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner A. E. Karger at the court today. Marx said that his step-father had left home at about 10 or 11 o'clock last Saturday morning.

No excitement was created when Spencer failed to come home for luncheon, but when he was also missing for supper Marx started a search of the city but was unable to find Spencer in any of his regular haunts. At 9 o'clock Sunday morning Marx found his foster parent at his cottage along the west bank of the river near the But farm on Highway 113.

Wanted Stimulant
Spencer was in bed and in a very weakened condition when he was found by his step-son. He said that he had gone to the place Saturday afternoon. The cottage was cold and he had intended to take a drink of liquor to warm and stimulate him but found, after he had swallowed a large glassful, that he had partaken of muriatic acid, a deadly poison.

Marx summoned an ambulance and Spencer was taken to the hospital. Dr. E. G. Wilson, the attending physician, stated that Spencer's lips and tongue were badly burned by the acid and that he was in a semi-delirious condition. He said that Spencer told him the same story that he had told his step-son and that he had mistaken the acid for liquor.

Not Suicide
There was no motive for suicide, according to the step-son, as Spencer had no financial or domestic troubles. Dr. Wilson also stated that it was not suicide and that Spencer was anxious to recover from his fatal error.

Mr. Spencer was born in Liverpool, England, on Aug. 10, 1848. He had been a resident of Kankakee for the past thirty-eight years and was well known in the community. He was a painter by trade.

The jury returned a verdict declaring the death accidental. During his younger years Spencer traveled extensively in Africa and Australia. He landed at Pensacola, Florida, when he came to America and was married in 1892 to Rose Jarvis, who died in 1910. In 1912 Mr. Spencer was married to Mrs. Anna Marx, with her son Raymond, survives. He also leaves one son, R. W. Spencer.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at St. Patrick's church, the Rev. E. B. McNally officiating. Burial will be in Mount Calvary cemetery.

Friends may call this evening from 7 until 9 o'clock at the Phillips and Friday funeral home and up until the hour of the funeral on Saturday.

NEGRO JAILED FOR STABBING ANOTHER MAN

RUFUS ADDISON, 614 NORTH WILLOW, ARRESTED BY POLICE TODAY

OTHER IN HOSPITAL

Walter Cook, 757 North Ever- green, Is Patient At St. Mary's With Wound In Neck

Rufus Addison, 58, colored, of 614 North Willow avenue, today is a prisoner in the city jail, charged with the stabbing of another colored man.

Walter Cook, 757 North Evergreen avenue, is a patient at St. Mary's hospital with a deep stab wound at the base of his neck. His condition is reported as not being serious.

The trouble occurred about 4:00 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the establishment of Florida Michaels, 614 North Willow avenue, where Addison rooms and boards. It seems as though Cook owned Addison some money and went to see him about it. A quarrel was started and Cook was stabbed.

Addison fled and was arrested this morning by John Stack, chief of police; Ed Immung, city detective, and Officers Gene Lafontaine and Frank Neuman, at his hiding place at 629 North Evergreen avenue. The knife was not in his possession at that time.

It is said that when Cook went to the Michaels' home yesterday and asked to see Addison, someone told him, "If I were you I wouldn't go up to his room." Cook is said to have answered, "Well, I'll take a chance."

A little later, Addison came down stairs and went out the rear door. A few moments after, Cook also came down, covered with blood, and announced, "I've been stabbed."

Addison is as big a prisoner as the city hall jail has ever housed, standing 6 feet five inches tall. Cook is about five feet eleven inches.

SALVATION ARMY PLEAS FOR FUNDS

The Salvation Army is again making a plea to the citizens of Kankakee to help raise funds in order to carry out their program and good work in your city.

Owing to conditions locally the weight of work has been heavy during the past few months. It is needless to recite the countless instances of the unusual worthiness of this organization. Its work is testimony in its own behalf, for in various ways it makes life worth living for hundreds of men, women and children, annually.

Just recently we have had the privilege of supplying a bed for little children who had been sleeping on chairs, and another family with heating facilities and furniture.

This is just a small item in comparison to the work that is really being done.

The need for workers is urgent, if the day is to be a success, anyone who will assist, if just for an hour please call 2033 and report to the Salvation Army.

SUSPECT'S CAR FOUND TO BE "HOT"

FORD FOUND IN POSSESSION OF CHICAGO YOUTH IS STOLEN PROPERTY

HE IS A PRISONER

With Two Companions Was Ar- rested Last Saturday After- noon By Kankakee Police

The Ford coupe in the possession of Thomas Kilarski, 20, of Chicago, arrested last Saturday afternoon by police on suspicion, was found today by police to be a stolen car.

It was also learned, after a great deal of labor, that the engine number of the car had been changed. The real number of the car, according to John Stack, chief of police, is 3591658. The 9 and 6 in this series of numbers were both changed to 8's. It is claimed, so that the present number reads, 3581658.

The numbers were so cleverly changed, it was stated, that the change was discovered only after a great deal of investigation. The car was taken to a garage, partially taken apart and the secret number found. This secret number is identical with the first number above given.

After having learned the true number of the car, Chief Stack sent this information to the Automobile Protective and Information Bureau in Chicago for the purpose of learning who this car had been stolen from. He received a wire in answer this morning that a Ford coupe bearing this license had been stolen from E. Pryor Lewis of Chicago on January 8th.

Two other youths, also claiming to be from Chicago, were arrested on the same day as Kilarski and it is believed that the three came here from Chicago together. The other two are: Stanley Kuzmenka, 18, claiming to be a draftsman; and Andrew Mandelowski, 20, claiming to be a florist. Kilarski gave his age as 20 and claims to be a radio service man.

While making a tour about the city today noon, Chief Stack and Officers Ed Immung and Gene Lafontaine saw a Chevrolet car from Chicago standing in the 600 block North Dearborn avenue. Being in search for a Chevrolet car used in a recent robbery, they stopped to investigate.

While looking at the car, they saw two young men come from the rear door of a nearby house. These youths were Kuzmenka and Mandelowski. The officers started to the rear of the house to see what was going on, and as they did so, Kilarski drove up in front with the Ford. The minute that he saw the officers, it is claimed, he started the car again and drove away at high speed.

The police started in pursuit and after a few moments found the car parked on Bourbonnais street between West avenue and South Washington avenue. The driver was not there but he was arrested a few moments later on West River street. He had the keys to the car in his possession.

The other two men were arrested when they returned to the house for their overcoats, which they left in their haste to get away.

SON-IN-LAW OF CLIFTON MAN IS KILLED IN PLANE

The body of Walter E. Case, an aviator, son-in-law of Tom Hobson of Clifton, Ill., has been located in the mountains near Portland, Oregon, his home, it was learned today by the Hobson family. Mr. Case had been missing a week.

It is believed that the aviator was flying over the mountains when something went wrong with his ship and crashed. His body, although located in the wreckage of the plane by means of another plane, has not been recovered as yet.

During the World war, Mr. Case was a government flyer stationed at Camp Meade field at Randolph. During that time he became well acquainted with the young people in the vicinity of Clifton.

'SECURITIES' NOT ALWAYS SO SECURE

INVESTMENT TITLES MISLEAD- ING, DECLARES ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

NEVER BE RUSHED

Many "Smart" People Are The Easy Prey Of Stock Swindles Says Jackson

"All is not gold that glitters and everything in the line of investments which are labeled as 'securities' are not secure for the investor," declared David H. Jackson, head of the securities department of the state of Illinois in his address at today's meeting of the Rotary club in the high school cafeteria.

"Never let anybody rush you into buying securities—take your time and investigate," was the chief warning contained in Mr. Jackson's talk. "Very high school students should be taught how to intelligently read the balance sheet of a corporation so that they can readily see the value of the company with which they are planning to invest their life savings."

Easy Victims
"It is almost as easy to be swindled by fraud in stocks and bonds as it is to be the victim in a faro game," continued the speaker. How many of us look at the financial statement of a corporation when we buy its stock? Very few of us except the bankers. Do we study the company's earnings over a period of years? No, we buy mostly on hunches and tips and that is the reason for the condition of the stock market over a year ago. Stocks at that time were selling for two and three times their real value as they are worth only what the company is worth that stands behind them.

Do not believe that now is the best time to buy stocks. Poor stocks, no matter how cheap they are sold, are never a good investment. It is surprising the number of people regarded as 'smart' who fall victims to stock swindles."

Mr. Jackson, who is a former chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission and an ex-mayor of La Forest, stated that it is not the purpose of his department to stop legitimate speculation—only to stop preventing frauds. He was introduced by Attorney John A. Mayhew.

A record attendance of the club heard Mr. Jackson's talk. Members of the domestic science classes of the high school served a delicious chicken dinner and music was furnished by a girls' reed orchestra. Superintendent of Schools A. P. Johnson acted as program chairman and invited the club to dine at the school again on next June 11th.

Short talks were given by the following students: Jane Topping, Caroline Weaver, Francis Michaels and Robert Frame.

GORHAM, ILLINOIS BANK IS ROBBED

Gorham, Ill., Jan. 29.—(P)—The First National bank of Gorham was robbed of an amount estimated between $4,500 and $5,000 shortly after it opened today, by two men armed with shotguns. The robbers escaped in a small blue and green sedan, which was followed.

Cashier E. Schwartz, Flanche Peters, assistant cashier, and several customers were in the bank when the robbers entered. One of them stood guard at the door while the other forced Schwartz to turn over all current, that was easily accessible.

The men wore high top boots and corduroy trousers. The automobile bore a license issued to a Menard, Ill. resident. County officers were checking the whereabouts of the owner of the license.

Gorham is about 20 miles west of Carbon, Ill.

Former Kankakee Girl Slays Son; Attempts Suicide

Mrs. Gertrude Marty, 42, prominent Cleveland woman, formerly known as Miss Gertrude Evans, of Kankakee, killed her six year old son by slashing his throat with a razor and then attempted suicide a few days ago.

According to Associated Press dispatches from Cleveland, Mrs. Marty is still in the hospital and physicians expect she will recover.

A police warrant charges the young woman with murder but no action has been taken on it as yet.

Insanity is expected to be the defense, says the Associated Press.

Mrs. Marty, as Miss Gertrude Evans, was a very popular young girl in Kankakee many years ago. She was the daughter of a Methodist minister and on leaving Kankakee was married to a young man named Marty, who was stricken with pneumonia a few years ago and died.

A few months ago Mrs. Marty came back to Kankakee to attend the funeral of her father, Rev. B. B. Evans, who died in Peotone.

Miss Evans was a member of the graduating class of Kankakee high school in 1908. Her path seemed to be one of unusual sorrow. She, after removing to this city, later was called to her reward, followed soon after by the death of her mother and after her own marriage, which was unusually happy, her husband was stricken with pneumonia and died within five days.

The latest sorrow came when her father, Rev. B. B. Evans died last spring.

It is believed by her friends in this city that these circumstances led to despondency which resulted in her rash act of a few days ago.

AFFRONT TO ITALY

Secretary Of State Stimson Hands Apology To Ambassador De Martino

BULLETIN
Quantico, Va., Jan. 28.—(P)—Major General Smedley D. Butler, facing court martial under orders of Secretary of State Stimson, today issued an apology to the Italian government for a speech he made recently in Philadelphia.

The officer would receive no one other than officers of the huge post here, until today, commanded by him. Callers at his home were met by an aide and an unvarying answer: "General Butler is not receiving visitors today."

Washington, Jan.—(P)—An apology to Premier Mussolini of Italy by the American government and a court-martial for Major General Butler, today came as a result of the now-celebrated speech the marine officer made recently in Philadelphia.

It was confirmation of the fact that the fiery Butler had quoted a friend as telling him Mussolini had run over a child in an automobile and then driven off without notice.

$10,000 SUIT IS SETTLED FOR $850

AGREEMENT REACHED IN LA- BARGE DEATH TRIAL; WITNESSES NOT CALLED

AVERT TWO TRIALS

Mrs. Beulah Zahn Wins Divorce And Alimony On Cruelty Charges

The $10,000 damage suit filed against Andrew Surprenant by the estate of Louis LaBarge, Bradley man who was killed when struck by Surprenant's truck on Aug. 31, 1928, failed to provide any interest for court fans today when it was not even presented to the jury which had been selected yesterday.

The parties agreed to settle the claim for $850 and the jury was discharged shortly after 9 a. m. today.

Attorneys O. D. Mann of Danville and Butts and Taylor of this city, representing Surprenant, effected the agreement with the LaBarge estate and Judge A. W. Deane rendered judgment for $850 entered against Surprenant.

The case scheduled to follow the LaBarge trial, for which a jury had also been picked, ended just as abruptly when William Richmond agreed to pay the claim of the Northwestern Rug company of 28 Pauli—a claim of $72 for merchandise. Richmond operates a store at Manteno.

Charging that her husband, Claude, was guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty and had threatened to kill her with a butcher knife, Mrs. F. Zahn was awarded a divorce by Judge DeSelm late yesterday. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Charles W. Kuris.

The couple were married in Kankakee May 4, 1928, and have two children: Nola, 7, and George, 3. The custody of the children was awarded to Mrs. Zahn in addition to $40 a month for their support.

Five days after their marriage, the wife claimed, Zahn scratched her wrists to such an extent that they bled profusely and caused her great pain. At another time, she claimed, leaving his finger marks upon her throat in June of 1929 he is alleged to have attacked her with the butcher knife and on Jan. 6, 1930 he beat her face to such an extent that she left him and took refuge with relatives. Mrs. Zahn said her husband was a man of violent temper and addicted to the use of vile and obscene language.

ANOTHER MOVE TO WIDEN THE DIXIE

A movement, independent of one recently launched by the Chicago Motor club, to widen the Dixie highway to 40 feet, will be launched tomorrow evening at a meeting arranged by the Chamber of Commerce at Watseka.

State Representatives L. B. Bratton, James T. Burns and E. O. Wilson of this city have been invited to speak at the gathering as have the mayors of all the towns between Chicago and Watseka on the Dixie highway.

CORONER CARTIER IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Coroner Octave J. Cartier is confined to his home, 243 West Merchant street, with a serious attack of influenza. Mr. Cartier was reported to be on the road to recovery several days ago and was able to be up and about, but suffered a relapse.

Deputy Coroner A. E. Karger has assumed Mr. Cartier's duties temporarily and conducted two inquests today. One of these was in the death of R. W. Spencer and the other a patient who died of heart failure at the Kankakee State hospital.

WILL ROGERS says:

To the Editor of The Daily Republican
Dallas, Tex., Jan. 28.—Well, I see where they are still arguing over "Who is going to relieve who, and which is the way to relieve anybody." But I want to tell you that from my experience down here, when you really show folks that there is need, why they sure will respond. It's too bad the confessions as to the way of relief come up. I got a lot of sympathy with both sides, for I can see where they both think they are right. But I certainly can't see where the ones that are able are waiting to see what the government are doing before doing anything themselves.

Yours,
Will Rogers

What Is Gum-Dipping?

Gum-Dipping

Is the Firestone trade name for that patented, basic process which makes Firestone Tires fundamentally different from all other tires. It is one of the reasons why Firestone, through many years, has easily been able to make good the statement: "Most miles per dollar." It is not something done to a tire after it is made. It is something very vital, done before the tire is made.

If cotton rubs against cotton, the tire soon heats up and collapses. That is why the square-woven fabric tires were so short-lived. Then came the tires with parallel cords that could not saw each other. The best square-woven fabric tire would go scarcely four thousand miles.

Eight pounds of fine, pure rubber are, by the patented Gum-Dipping process, integrated into every one hundred pounds of cotton cords. This means three extra pounds of pure rubber added to an average set of tires—and added where it means most to the strength and the life of the tire. This extra rubber all goes into the cords of the tire—where you never see it.

To grasp the full significance of Gum-Dipping, it is necessary to know something about how a tire is made and what goes on within a tire on the road. The body of the tire bears the principal strains in service. To it is attached the tread which provides traction and takes the wear of the road.

The usual tire body is built up of layers or plies of cotton cords between which rubber has been forced. Rubber is incompressible. Hence the tire body practically does not expand or contract to meet road shocks. It flexes—that is, it changes form.

The strain of the flexing tends to pull the plies apart and also to pull the cords themselves apart. A tire flexes about seven hundred times in a mile—which gives some idea of the strains and the friction which a tire must endure.

The great enemy to tire life is internal friction. Years ago the fabric was square-woven—and the cotton cords sawed, one across another.

A poor cord tire will give at least twice that mileage. Making the cords parallel was a great advance—but it was only part of the battle against internal friction.

It was realized that if the fibers of cotton in a cord could be insulated one from another, then a step-up in tire life could be had comparable to that made by shifting from square-woven fabric to parallel cords. That is what all tire makers have been striving for. That is what Firestone has achieved.

Every cord used in Firestone Tires has been treated with a rubber solution which penetrates every cord and coats every fiber; and thus not only the cords, but also the very fibers within them are insulated.

Why
does Firestone put in this extra value? And what does it mean to you? It means just this. The performance—the extra value—has been shown for years on the road and in the laboratory. It has been proved that Gum-Dipping:

—increases the flexing life of a cotton cord by 58%.

—increases tire life by from 25% to more than 40%, according to the severity of the service—the more severe the service, the higher the percentage.

Firestone

Gum-Dipped Tires are not just tires. They are thirty years of organized experience. They are sold only through Firestone Service Dealers and Service Stores and only as Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires—bearing the Firestone name and bearing the Firestone emblem that appears on this page.

Wherever you live—city or country—a fresh and complete stock of Firestone products is near-by.
