FAIRBANKS' SON AND WIDOW ARE BENEFICIARIES

Will Providing Millions Filed for Probate

New York, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Douglas Fairbanks left the bulk of his estate, estimated at several million dollars, to his widow, the former Lady Sylvia Ashley, and his son, Douglas Fairbanks Jr. It was disclosed today when the late screen star's will was filed for probate.

Fairbanks, a film pioneer and one of the most financially successful of Hollywood's screen colonies, died at his California home last Dec. 12.

The will, filed in the surrogate's court here, provides that not more than $2,000,000 of the estate is to be placed in a fund, of which Mrs. Fairbanks is to receive one-half and Douglas Jr., three-tenths. The remainder of the fund, under the terms of the will, goes to other beneficiaries, including Robert Fairbanks, a brother, who receives one-tenth.

All property not specifically bequeathed is to be divided between his widow and his son.
The will made no provision for Mary Pickford, Fairbanks' second wife.

Fairbanks provided that, after specific bequests had been deducted, one-half of his estate, not to exceed $1,000,000, should go to Mrs. Fairbanks; three-tenths, not to exceed $600,000, to his son; one-twentieth, not to exceed $100,000, to his brother, Robert; one-fortieth, not to exceed $50,000, to Norris Wilcox, identified in the will as Fairbanks' half brother but not otherwise described.

Cash bequests included:
To the motion picture actors' relief fund of Los Angeles, $10,000 to be administered as the Douglas Fairbanks fund.

LYONS, BROOKS ENDORSED BY COUNTY G. O. P.

Speakers Tell of Voters' Sentiment
for Party

The candidates of Richard J. Lyons for governor and C. Wayland Brooks for United States senator in the Republican spring primary were unanimously endorsed in a meeting of the Kankakee County Republican Central committee here last night.

Thirty-five of the 41 precinct committeemen of the county were present and all of them joined in a resolution to that effect and signed a statement as follows:
"We, the undersigned members of the Kankakee County Republican Central committee, this date, Jan. 4, 1940, hereby endorse the candidacy of C. Wayland Brooks for United States senator and Richard J. Lyons for governor."

The other members of the county committee were unable to be present because of serious illness or other emergencies.
Unity Apparent
Unity, enthusiasm and determination in the Republican party of this county and surrounding counties were apparent in this meeting of committeemen and their friends.

Preparing for the all-important presidential year campaign just ahead, the Republican committeemen laid plans to accelerate the "back to the party" movement that has been so obvious in Illinois during recent years.

Pointing out that the American citizen wants security more than anything else during these troubled and uncertain times, speakers emphasized that security, peace, prosperity and freedom have always been outstanding precepts of the Republican party.

They're Turning Back
It was while the Republican party was in control of government that these fundamental principles of American life reached their greatest scope, it was said.

The present trend of government toward involvement in foreign wars, mounting taxes and curtailment of personal liberty is causing millions of citizens to turn again to the Grand Old Party founded on more reasonable and secure doctrine.

Among the 100 men who gathered at McBroome's cafe at the call of the officers of the Kankakee County Republican Central committee were almost all of the committeemen of this county as well as representatives of surrounding counties.

Special Guests
Notable among these were Edward F. Moore, Cook county Republican chairman; Charles A. O'Connor, Kane county chairman; C. Frank Daly, McHenry county chairman; James E. Hill, LaSalle county chairman; Ralph Harper, Grundy county chairman; and George Townsend, Iroquois county chairman.

Woman Kicks the Bucket; Breaks Leg at Manteno

Mrs. Mary Nixon, Manteno widow, kicked a bucket yesterday and sustained a fractured leg.
She went to the cistern of her neighbor, with two buckets, pumped one full of water, set it down, then filled the other. As she turned to pick up the first pail, Mrs. Nixon tripped over it, fracturing her right leg above the ankle.

No Action on Manteno Indictments

Today had been set for preliminary action in the prosecution of three state officials and employees charged with malfeasance in office but action was continued.
Circuit Judge Roscoe C. South of Watseka was here to hear motions in behalf of Archie L. Bowen, head of the state department of public welfare, Dr. Ralph T. Hinton, former managing officer of Manteno state hospital, and Mrs. Lillian Williams, dietitian of the institution.

Attorney John A. Mayhew, representing the three, said, however, that he was not yet ready. State's Attorney Samuel H. Shapiro said he was prepared.

The motions in behalf of the three defendants, indicted in connection with the recent typhoid epidemic in the hospital, ask that the indictments be quashed and, if this fails, that the trials be held in some other county than Kankakee. The date upon which these motions will be heard has not yet been determined.

It was indicated this morning that similar motions are to be filed in behalf of Dr. D. L. Steinberg, assistant managing officer of the Manteno institution, against whom there are similar accusations.

Half Ownership of Reddick Farm is Decided Today

A claim by Peter A. Jeffers and Mary Elsworth of Wisconsin and Kankakee respectively to ownership of a half interest in a 200-acre farm near Buckingham was affirmed today by Circuit Judge Roscoe C. South of Watseka, presiding in the local court.

After two hearings before him on this case within the past several months, Judge South had taken the suit under advisement.
His decision, besides giving the two above named persons ownership of the half interest in the farm, also untangles a maze of legal and family relationships which caused the suit.

The litigation arises out of the will of Semer Coleman which, after his death in 1909, gave a life interest in the farm to his widow Alice but did not specifically provide for disposition of the property after her death. There were no children.

Therefore, after she died, Peter Jeffers and Mary Elsworth, heirs of Alice Coleman, claimed ownership of half the property which would have been her's as widow if she had not been killed only a life interest.

But, it was revealed, Mrs. Coleman had conveyed her interest in the property to a nephew Jesse Coleman on the agreement that he was to manage the property and pay her half the net proceeds. At this time she was 90 years of age.

Republican Leaders in Seven Counties Convene Here

When the candidates of C. Wayland Brooks for U. S. senator and Richard J. Lyons for governor on the Republican ticket were unanimously endorsed by the Kankakee County Republican Central committee here last night, representatives of seven counties were present. Seated, above, left to right, are George B. Allen of Braceville, state representative; Louis E. Beckman, state senator of Kankakee; Victor McBroom, Republican chairman of this county; Edward F. Moore, Cook county chairman; standing, Charles A. O'Connor, Kane county chairman; C. Frank Daly, McHenry county chairman; James E. Hill, LaSalle county chairman; Ralph Harper, Grundy county chairman, and Harry L. Topping, state representative of Kankakee. George Townsend, Iroquois county chairman, had not yet arrived when this photo was taken.

ASKS BUSINESS MEN TO WRITE CONGRESSMEN

Commerce Chamber
Head Urges Costs
Kept Low

The necessity for business men making known to congress their desires for economy and retrenchment during the session just opened in Washington was pointed out today by Ron Hennekin, secretary of the chamber of commerce, in a talk before the Rotary club Thursday noon in the Hotel Kankakee.

"Every merchant knows that if costs are kept down, he can continue to sell more merchandise. But increased taxes will certainly raise costs and cause fewer sales. It behooves merchants, then, to voice their pleas for economy. This can best be done by individual telegrams and letters to their respective congressmen," Hennekin said.

These remarks were made in a discussion of the outlook for business in 1940 which, he asserted, is bright provided costs can be kept down. Hennekin also cited evidence of communities coming to the front again in state or national governmental units, he contended.

Three Rotarians spoke emphatically during the luncheon meeting at the request of Program Chairman Ray Bjorklund.
Too Many Hogs
George Swain, county farm adviser, asserted that farmers will do well to grow more soybeans and less corn not so many hogs next year. Normally about 82,000 hogs are marketed each year; already this fall the production of hogs is 17 to 20 per cent above normal.

Made an Orphan by Minneapolis Fire; Goes to New Home

Minneapolis, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Little Sander Coover, 6, played happily with his friends today and prepared to leave tomorrow for Muncie, Ind., to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Campbell.
Sander didn't know the visit would be permanent, that Mrs. Campbell planned to adopt him.
He didn't know, either, that he was an orphan, who was alive only because he had been too sleepy Tuesday night to ride home across town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coover, to the Marlborough apartment hotel, where they, and his 10-month-old brother, Edward, died in the fire that took 9 lives early Wednesday.

The friends with whom he was staying hadn't the heart to tell Sander the rest of his family had been wiped out.

Manteno Play is Rated High For District

One-act plays by the Manteno Community unit and by a Home Bureau unit of Livingston county were given two-plus ratings in the annual district music and drama festival here last night.

In the music section of the contest, the double trio of the Chebanse Home Bureau unit and a clarinet trio from Livingston county were given plus ratings.

The judges, also to officiate at several similar district contests, will determine finally what plays and what music groups will appear at the annual Farm & Home week at the state university soon.

The Manteno play was "Who Gets The Car Tonight?" and the cast consisted of Sidney Thompson, Mrs. Addie Gurney, Walter Weber, Miss June Jacobs and Edward Kimmelshue. Mrs. Emil Huber is director.

The Livingston county play was "The Tenth Word." The cast was composed of Rose Brown, Gladys Taylor, Mary Ella Hallmeyer, Marian Reynolds, Audrey Wheeler, Wanda Stokes, Vivian Metz, Ethelmarie Williams, Irene Stokes and Emily Sass. Mrs. Audrey Wheeler is director.

The Livingston clarinet consisted of Margaret Ann Tombaugh, Phyllis Berry and Jean Volights. The Chebanse double trio was composed of Mrs. John Spies, Mrs. Paul Huthel, Mrs. Emil Helwig, Miss Ethel Peters, Mrs. Andrew Witt and Mrs. Roy Haigh.

MIDDLE WEST TEMPERATURES TAKE A PLUNGE

Sub-Zero Weather
Blows Down from the Northwest

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A wedge of sub-zero weather, in some districts the coldest in three years, drove eastward from the plains state today giving the weather-map its oddest appearance of the season.

While the temperature in lower Michigan sank as far as an unofficial six-below-zero at Jackson, the weather in the north-central part of the state was almost mild. Ludington, a lake Michigan port, reported 21 above.

A light snow fell in western Nebraska where the temperatures ranged from 13 above, but farther east, at Burnell and Norfolk, it was a frigid 21 below.

Another contrast was presented in Kentucky, with the temperature ranging from nine-below-zero in the west to 15 above in the east.

The frigid belt, extending from central Nebraska to Ohio, drove the mercury below zero in Chicago for the first time since Feb. 19, 1936. It was four below at 4 a. m. Downstate, at Decatur, 12 below was reported.

Goering Now Economic Dictator of Germany
A new economic plan was understood in the making, based on the premise that the man at home should not live better than the man at the front. It is understood that the living standard of the average medium-paid workman was to be taken as a norm. On that basis, clothes already are being rationed with the average worker's five-year needs in mind.
"Money is needed badly to pay the war costs, estimated by some Nazis at $40,000,000 a day. Millions daily still are being spent on extensions to the west wall which Hitler was quoted in the British white book as having estimated as costing $38,000,000,000,000.
Increased taxes on luxuries—liquor, tobacco and theater tickets—are expected next. Industrial, wholesale and financial enterprises are expected to be called upon for more taxes soon. Those producing "strength through joy" products would be exempt.
Taxes as high as 30 per cent are considered for "unearned income" such as that for attending directors' meetings. Construction of expensive villas, if permitted at all, probably will be taxed heavily.

NEGOTIATIONS STARTED WITH THE JAPANESE

Commercial Pacts;
Japs Seek Source of Supply

Moscow, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Soviet Russia was reported to have concluded a commercial treaty with Bulgaria, opening a largely undeveloped trade field, while similar negotiations were begun with Japan and continued with Germany.

Bulgarian sources said the pact, which might be signed today, dealt principally with Black sea shipping accord, and that political questions were not involved.
(There had been rumors in Sofia that Russia might make military demands in connection with the treaty).

Jap Delegates Arrive
A Japanese delegation which arrived in Moscow yesterday was expected to conduct lengthy trade negotiations.
(With the imminent end of Japan's trade treaty with the United States Jan. 26, Japanese quarters have said Japan must find other sources of supply, suggesting Russia for this role).

Tass, official Soviet news agency, said that Constantin Smetanin, Russian ambassador in Tokyo, received last night a check for 5,809,565 yen ($1,365,247) as Manchoukuo's final payment for the former Chinese eastern railway.
Japan acted as intermediary in 1937 when Russia sold her share in the 1,000-mile line to Manchoukuo. Final payment had been withheld pending settlement of other issues, but was agreed upon when Japan obtained a one-year extension of fishing rights in Russia's far eastern waters last Dec. 31.

Increase Production
Soviet workers are increasing production in all industries to aid the campaign against Finland, the Soviet government declared yesterday in greeting to the red army of the Leningrad district and the Baltic fleet. It told the armed forces they were "liberating the people of Finland from medieval barbarism."

The polling place is the St. George high school and the voting hours are 1 to 7 p. m.
Joseph A. Ruel and Eugene P. Lambert will act as election judges and Mrs. Helen Raymond as clerk.

FINED FOR RECKLESSNESS

Henry Neitzger of 343 South Seventh avenue, motorist who mistook Hunter avenue for Hobbs avenue on the night of last Dec. 19 and crashed into the Big Four railroad yard office at the dead end street, was fined $6.25 for reckless driving this morning in police court. He also paid damages to the building.

Today is Coldest Day in City in Four Years

Residents of Kankakee arose this morning to be greeted by the coldest weather of the past four winters. The mercury skidded to a cool 7 degrees below zero during the night at the government thermometer at the pumping station of the Kankakee Water company.
The recording thermometer of the Republican-News, located in a somewhat warmer spot, touched a low point of 3 degrees below zero at 7 a. m. At noon the chill was less pronounced with a reading of 6 above.

Remember This One?
No zero weather was recorded here during the winters of 1936-37, 1937-38, and 1938-39. But few Kankakeans can forget January and February 1936 when the temperature dropped below zero and stayed there for weeks, with the coldest day, 23 degrees below, registered on Jan. 23, 1936. Water mains all over the city froze.
With weather favorable for ice skating, city firemen went out again to Waterman park this morning to flood an area. The concrete tennis courts in Alpiner and Southside parks also have been flooded and are reported in good shape now. Several persons are risking river ice, but the safety margin is none too great yet.

THE WEATHER

(Friday, Jan. 5, 1939)
Hourly temperature readings from 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon to noon today are:
High at 1 p. m. 22, low at 7 a. m. -3.
A year ago cloudy, rain, high 51, low 31.
1 p. m. 22, 2 a. m. 4, 3 p. m. 21, 4 a. m. 2, 5 p. m. 20, 6 a. m. 0, 7 p. m. 15, 8 a. m. -2, 9 p. m. 13, 10 a. m. -3, 11 p. m. 7, 12 a. m. -1, Midnight 6, Noon 8.

SEN. HARRISON HAS A BUDGET PLAN CONGRESS

Wants Lawmakers to Work Out Their Own System

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Washington, Jan. 5.—A Democratic proposal that congress work out its own budget and compare it with President Roosevelt's before voting any appropriations or tax laws, stirred strong approval today among leading legislative leaders.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) of the senate finance committee, which handles tax legislation, advanced the novel suggestion for a 24-member senate finance committee to study budget and tax needs, for 60 days while congress concerns itself with other matters.

House Democratic leaders gave the idea as good a reception as they did when Secretary Morgenthau offered it last session. They objected particularly to the proposal that no appropriations bill be passed until the special joint committee reported.

The "House" appropriations committee had worked out a budget on the floor of one measure a week. To amend this would leave the house with nothing to do, its chiefs said.

Representative Taber (R-N.Y.), senior Republican on the committee, said he would "welcome any study that would tend to show what the situation is, but added: 'I am sure we can get along with the present system, but the $8,424,000,000 the president estimated was needed for 1940-41.'

A few senators thought Harrison's idea sound, but said they did not believe that house work should stop while the joint committee sat.

Most members of both houses expressed gratification that the president, in proposing lower appropriations except for defense and a consequent diminished deficit, had least made a start toward balancing the national and foreign accounts.

House Deficit
Even Senator "Fats" of Ohio, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, who speaks in Chicago tonight (WED) and MB8 at 8:30 p. m. on "Mr. President, Here's How to Balance the Budget," expressed the opinion that Mr. Roosevelt had made a "daring" approach toward that goal.

But he added that the chief executive's effort proposed a deficit of nearly $3,000,000,000 instead of an estimated $4,714,000,000. He said that the estimated return to the treasury of $700,000,000 of RFC surplus and the proposed new taxes of $600,000,000 were suggested "to put off the necessity of increasing the federal debt limit before the election and calling the people's attention to the fact that the debt has reached the incredible statutory limit of $45,000,000,000."
