Sees World Carved

Observing his 86th birthday in Cambridge, Mass., the noted historian, Professor Albert Bushnell Hart, above, foresees a future in which Hitler and Stalin will attempt to divide the world between them. Famed as a prophet, Hart sees these as future possibilities: (1) Hitler swallowing up Italy; (2) Hitler western Europe dominated by Germany; (3) Russia reaching into central Asia and India to take an empire there and engage in a great war with Japan; (4) Hitler attempting an invasion of the western hemisphere within the next five years by way of Mexico.

Rumania Rushes More Troops To Two Borders

Hungary And Bulgaria
In Demands For Return
Of Lands Once Owned

Bucharest, July 2.—(AP)—A movement among extremist members of Rumania's Fascist-inclined Iron Guard to compel the abdication of King Carol, holding him responsible for the loss of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina in diplomatic dispatches from Bucharest.

These dispatches said Iron Guard leaders who returned recently to Bucharest from exile in Rome and Berlin held the monarch personally accountable for Rumania's present plight.

By ROBERT ST. JOHN
Bucharest, July 2.—(AP)—The Rumanian army rushed more troops to the Hungarian and Bulgarian borders today in fear of invasion after reported attacks there.

A Rumanian diplomatic report said apparently concerted Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks against Rumanian frontier posts had occurred simultaneously Sunday night and Monday morning.

Some official circles said these attacks were a form of pressure on Rumania in Hungary's claim for return of Transylvania and Bulgaria's demands for return of Southern Dobruja, territories which Rumania won in the world war settlement.

There were rumors, meanwhile, that Rumania might conclude a military and political alliance with Germany following her renunciation last night of allied guarantees. These could not be confirmed. Germany, it was believed in diplomatic circles, was believed in diplomatic circles.

Report 1 Case Of Infantile Paralysis

Disease Found In County; This Is
Season For It

Three new cases of infantile paralysis were reported in the state last week. One of these is in Kankakee county. The other two are in Cook and Chicago counties.

Already the annual upward summer trend of the disease has been noted with 17 cases now reported in Illinois. The present total, however, is well under last year's mark to date of 32 cases.

State Health Director A. C. Baxter said today at Springfield that special preparations have been made to minimize the human damage caused by poliomyelitis, commonly known as infantile paralysis, whose greatest prevalence occurs between July 1 and the last of October.

In a message to local health officers, Dr. Baxter informed that "all of the state district health superintendents are available in the capacity of consultants to assist local physicians in the diagnosis and treatment of 'polio' patients."

"Each district superintendent has on hand a supply of convalescent attending physicians without cost to the patients," he said.

Dr. Baxter said that poliomyelitis can nearly always be recognized in its early stages before paralysis develops, through careful examination. Early treatment, he added, brings recovery without serious impairment in a great majority of cases.

Prevention of the disease, the director pointed out, is practically impossible, but the affliction can be controlled to a remarkable degree.

He urged alertness for signs of the disease during the next four months, disclosing that 148 of the 193 cases reported in Illinois last year occurred in the period from July through October.

A special conference on "polio" was held by the medical and nursing staff of the state health department last week in preparation for the season.

Examinations for those who wish to obtain certificates for teaching in this county will be held July 11 and 12. It was announced today by Gilbert A. Willis, county superintendent of schools.

The examinations will begin at 8 o'clock in Mr. Willis' office.

Will Enroll 46 From Here In CCC Camps

Offers Solution To Youths Unable To Obtain Employment

Young men who face the dilemma of not being able to get a job without experience, and not being able to obtain the experience without first getting a job, may find a solution to their problem in the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Applications for the next CCC recruiting here July 15 are being received daily at the local IERC office in the Veikman building. The Kankakee county quota has been set at 43 white and three colored youths above those figures since some other counties in the state may not meet quotas.

In Will county 114 are to be enrolled. Grundy county, 22; Livingston, 18; Iroquois, 21; and Ford, 6. In the state a total of 5,764 will be enrolled. This is about 70 per cent more than in April.

To Wisconsin camps
Boys enrolled here will be sent to camps in Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois. As in the past, boys from families not receiving public assistance are eligible. They must be single, citizens, unemployed, between 17 and 23 years of age, of good character, in good health and willing to accept $22 of their $30 monthly wage to dependents.

As a member of a CCC camp a young man may work at several different occupations. He can learn a trade such as auto mechanics, bridge construction, carpentry, Diesel engine operation, drafting, landscaping, state routes and government buildings along with brief items of local interest.

The number of telephones now in service on the Kankakee exchange is 1,160, which is just an even-odd number under the all-time peak recorded here in the early 30s, according to Manager Alfred J. LaBarre.

Today's total represents an increase of 408 over the 5,752 telephones in operation here at the time the last directory was published.

To illustrate the greater use to which the telephones are put, Manager LaBarre produced statistics to show that in 1937 the average number of week-day calls, 27,526, was handled by 45 operators. Today with virtually the same number of phones, 51 operators are needed to service 32,450 average daily calls.

The peak day last month was on June 8, the day that Mussolini declared war when more than 37,000 calls were placed.

Kiwanians To Hold

Arrangements for a steak fry at 6 o'clock the evening of July 15 at the Country club were made in yesterday's session of the Kiwanis club at the Country club.

W. A. Schneider was appointed by President C. A. Rollison to head a committee investigating the advisability of sponsoring a magician show in the fall to raise funds for the club's program for underprivileged children.

The speaker for next Monday's meeting will be the Rev. Hugo Malick, pastor of the Methodist church at Frankfort, who recently returned from a trip through Russia and Siberia. Vernon McBroome is program chairman for the day.

Wendell L. Willkie (right), Republican presidential candidate, and his secretary, Fred Rahrter, clean out Willkie's desk as the latter returned to his office in New York for his last day's work as president of the Commonwealth and Southern Utilities company.

New Directory Lists 408 More Phones Here

Distribution of new telephone directories has begun in the city today and will be completed in about three days. The new books contain a map of Greater Kankakee showing state routes and government buildings along with brief items of local interest.

The number of telephones now in service on the Kankakee exchange is 1,160, which is just an even-odd number under the all-time peak recorded here in the early 30s, according to Manager Alfred J. LaBarre.

Thieves Use Axe At
Thawville Store

Watska, July 2.—(RN Special)—Thieves used an axe to smash the back door of the Ray Diercoff mercantile store in Thawville last night.

They obtained $15 in cash. Sheriff Guy E. Redman this morning obtained what he termed "good" fingerprints.

Officer Harry Balk sped to the Big Four railroad station where a Chicago train was about to pull out.

They located West, took him off the train, but found no revolver, but did discover 38 caliber bullets in his coat pocket. They called Chicago railroad authorities and had them search the train when it pulled in. The revolver was found shoved down under a seat where West hid it when he saw the officers.

Rumania Looks To Germany For Needed Support

Territorial Claims An Important Issue In The Balkan States

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An intensified German U-boat campaign, striking while the British escort system was upset by the collapse of France, has scored "admittedly heavy" losses among British merchant shipping, an authoritative London report said today.

The wholesale sinkings—recorded in the 3-week period from June 2 to June 23—of as escort ships were diverted to windward British, French and other allied troops "all the way from Brest to St. Jean De Luz"—cost an estimated 186,837 tons.

It was indicated that Italian submarines might be helping the Germans in their renewed undersea war to cripple imports of vitally-needed foodstuffs for Britain.

In the darkest month in the world war—in April, 1917, at the peak of Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare—Britain lost 196 ships totaling 600,000 tons. At that time, the island kingdom had only a 6-week supply of food left.

Late official and unofficial figures placed British total losses in the current war at 784,140 tons up to May 26, followed by a week's hiatus in which none was reported sunk.

This figure, with today's announcement covering the 3-week period from June 2 to June 23, would make a total British loss of 970,977 tons.

British reports estimated German losses up to June 4 totaled 830,000 tons, including many Nazi ships captured or scuttled to avoid capture.

Losses during the week ended June 23 totaled 88,239 tons, but it was pointed out that of this amount 30,446 tons were sunk in embarkation operations off the French coast and "therefore are not mercantile losses in the ordinary sense."

Balkan Situation
In southeast Europe, amid an apparent lull in the critical Balkan situation, Rumania looked anxiously to Germany to prevent further dismemberment of her borders by her hostile neighbors, Hungary and Bulgaria, both reportedly emboldened by Soviet Russia's successes.

A purported BBC broadcast from London said that Hungary, in a move "inspired" by Germany, has ordered a partial demobilization and proposed a demilitarized zone on both sides of the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier.

The arrival at Brasov airport, in the center of Rumania, of a fleet of German-made bombers, further strengthened circles that the Reich is supporting Rumania in her stand to prevent Russia from making further advances and to settle peacefully the territorial claims of Hungary and Bulgaria.

The planes were said to have been purchased by Rumania but their delivery at this time was considered highly significant.

Tass, Soviet official news agency, reported the Red army had completed its occupation of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, the provinces which Rumania ceded upon Russian demand.

Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks on Rumanian border outposts were reported in Rumania, with casualties on all sides.

In Budapest, with Hungary going on a wartime footing and an army corps moved to the Rumanian frontier, a showdown on Hungarian claims on the Rumanian province of Transylvania was believed imminent.

Land Included In F. L. Mau's Estate

Two hundred forty acres of land in Pilot and Milks Grove townships are disposed of in the will of F. L. Mau, formerly of Herscher, which was filed today in the office of County Clerk Hector J. LeBeau by Attorney Ben Gower.

The will gives the entire estate to the widow Sophia for life. At her death 40 acres in Milks Grove goes to a daughter Mrs. Lucy Clodi and an adjoining 40 acres to a daughter, a daughter-in-law, and a son.

To a son Harry goes $100, to a son Clarence 80 acres in the same township. The son Harry is to pay his brother Arthur $100 and his sister Mrs. Clodi $100. The son Clarence is to pay his sister Mrs. Schwarck $100.

The will is dated Jan. 8, 1931. The estate of Mrs. Rosetta Munro Milburn, late of Kankakee, is to be divided equally among daughters Mrs. Henrietta Tanner and Mrs. Rebecca Dubois and a son, Warren Milburn. From the latter's share, however, $500 is to be deducted and divided between his sisters.

The son is named executor of the will, dated Oct. 30, 1923.

In response to a request by several attorneys, Anker C. Jensen, president of the association, called the meeting for noon at McBroom's cafe.

Then, unable to decide when noon was to be, he set the meeting for 11:30 o'clock, standard time, as a compromise.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Official figures indicated today that the United States navy, building at top speed toward two-ocean strength, already has become the world's largest both in number of ships and in total tonnage.

Not counting the 500,000-ton battleships, the navy's fleet of 1,200 ships, including 100 other vessels under construction, Uncle Sam has 395 completed combat ships and 1,207 tons.

Latest available figures on the British navy give its strength on June 30 as 313 ships of 1,277,180 tons. These figures are generally exact, but they take into consideration the best information obtainable on losses suffered in Europe's war.

The 500,000-ton new warship order was the biggest in navy history. It covered 12 cruisers, 20 destroyers, 12 submarines and a large fleet of tenders. The contracts were closed without competitive bidding, as authorized by the new speed-up legislation which President Roosevelt signed last two months.

Other departments kept up with the preparation pace.

The HRC's two special tax material agencies arranged to buy 150,000 tons of rubber and 75,000 tons of tin for strategic purposes. It was disclosed that the government already has acquired about $12,000,000 in vital materials, ranging from optical glass to Manila fiber.

The war department, acting to meet the needs of the expanding army, cut short the leaves of 444 recent West Point graduates. The President signed bills providing for $18,500,000 for the construction of land acquisition at 25 military posts.

Sidney Hillman, labor specialist of the national defense commission, announced the enrollment of 150,000 student workers would get underway immediately to accelerate training of skilled men for armament industries.

In rating the existing United States navy the largest, naval experts also estimated that the present fleet, plus units now ordered for construction, would give this country a navy equal to any other fleet. They include not only Britain's navy, but also the fleet that might be formed by a coalition of German, Italian and French sea strength.

'HE PLESS' BROWNS KNOCK OFF FIRST PLACE INDIANS

Jersey's Civic Spirit Backs Tony Galento

By Henry McElmore

United Press Staff Correspondent
Jersey City, N. J., July 2.—(UPI)—The calm and peace of this lovely old manufacturing city was shattered today by the battle and clatter of the thousands here to watch Tony Galento and Max Baer come to grips tonight in their celebrated battle of the bums.

Those of us who know and love Jersey City for the restful stretch of its trolley cars, the haunting rumble of its trucks, the sweet fragrance of the coal smoke that comes from its classic industrial plants, and the leisurely pace of its citizens in leaving the saloons along the fire-along shored streets, hardly knew it today.

Civic Saleman
None of Jersey City's civic leaders, which are so definitely a part of the charm, could be heard of the uproar of the fight that was going on. One standard-bearer of the city still could be heard of the voice of that gracious, benevolent master of Jersey affairs, Mayor Frank Hague. The fight is being held under his patronage, and the mayor was up early and long to see to it that every single soul who enjoys his patronage brought a ticket.

Galento, being a Jersey citizen, and Jack Dempsey, who is in training to meet Cowboy Luttrell, a wrestler, in a boxing bout in Atlanta.

Manassa Mauler Of Old Knocks Out Opponent

By Lewis Hawkins

Atlanta, Ga., July 2.—(UPI)—The cry of the crowd and the clang of the boxing gloves were heard as Manassa Mauler, a solid Jersey businessman, King, proprietor of two prosperous pubs which give employment to dozens of worthy Jersey taxpayers, principally bouncers.

But even if he were none of these things the hometown crowd would be for him tonight, because the crowd's heart is warm and Galento will enter the ring an injured man. Sunday night, shortly after he had completed his training and was getting gay in his luster pub in way of celebration, he fell into an argument with his brother-in-law, Jack Dempsey, down the comeback trail today after his lop-sided knock-out of a lanky wrestler.

It took the old Manassa Mauler only four minutes and 32 seconds to knock out Clarence "Furber" Luttrell, a 22-year-old grappler, who was a former champion of the world in the 125-pound class.

The mug caught Tony on his third chin, to the second, and the crowd roared. The former wake of ails, ricocheted off to land squarely on his original, or chin.

He will have the scar which resembles a Heidelberg slash, when he goes into the ring against Baer. The fight probably would have been postponed had not everyone felt that Baer, being a perfect sportsman, would make every effort to land a blow on the injured chin. So positive is everyone that Baer will not take advantage of Tony's mishap, the betting is even that his foe in the clinch until 1 and 2-4th seconds have passed in the first round.

One skeptic, however, has wagered $5 at even money that Baer will get at Tony's ear while they stand in the center of the ring for final instructions from the referee.

These final instructions incidentally, should be listening to no one but the referee. The referee will be, but from a source so reliable that anyone would be crazy to trust it, I have learned six or seven of the rules which will govern the fight between the beer barrel and the butcher boy.

Routine Rules
The throwing of and in the clinches will be forbidden. Any man caught doing so will lose the round. Each fighter will be limited to one bite, three gouges and four head butts per round.

Blackjacks can be used only when the fighting is in a neutral corner. Jumping on opponent while down will cost the jumper a round and a sharp rebuke from the referee.

A fighter will be allowed to use the rabbit punch only when he is in a position to deliver a really worthwhile one. In other words, no little size rabbit punches.

There are other rules, but the ones mentioned will give you an idea. On yes, I pick Baer to win.

MORAL: BY CLOTHES YOU CAN USE
Huntington, W. Va.—(UPI)—The cap and gown worn by Genevieve Sullivan at Marshall college commencement was the same worn by her parents on five occasions when they received degrees.

R. W. Butler, former superintendent of schools at Chesapeake, O., received two degrees from Colorado State Teachers college, Mar. Sullivan received degrees from the same school, from Valparaiso (Ind.) and Genevieve's younger brother, Fleming, expects to wear the same outfit when he graduates from Marshall in 1942.

The

Kills Three Crows With One Bullet

Danville, Ill., July 2.—The man who killed two birds with one stone was too generous with his ammunition. He should have waited for a better chance—like Bill "Pop" Bowman.

Bowman, a Danville rifle expert, uses bullets instead of stones, but he has bagged 15 crows with seven pellets in his time.

He came across four crows feeding on the carcass of a rabbit while hunting between Fairmount and Sidell last week. When the heads of three of the birds were in line, he fired from 241 yards with a .25-caliber bullet. It was his first "triple," added to six previous doubles.

TOO LONG IN LEAGUE

Philadelphia—(INS)—Fe... college baseball players make the grade in the majors because they play in the same "league" for three seasons, in the opinion of Pop Young, coach at Temple university.

"The best years for advancement in play should come between the ages of 18 and 22, the average age of the college ball player," Young said, "but the type of competition never varies in that time. It's just as though he were stuck in a class C league for three years."

Russians Surprise Rumanians

In a writer of speculation over the meaning of the Russian move into Rumania, a Rumanian delegation sailed from Constanta for Odessa (1) to confer over the Russian occupation of Bessarabia. The shaded portion in the area bounded by the Prut and Danube rivers is the territory Russia said was included in the Russian secession marked by bloody battles at Cernavoda.

His Death Puzzles

Mystery is seen in the death of Italian Air Marshal Italo Balbo, reported killed in action during an engagement with British planes over Libya, following the statement issued by the British foreign office that Balbo's death was "unexplained" and claiming that no British planes were concerned in the crash of the Balbo plane. The British foreign office pictured friction between Mussolini and Balbo.

FOR YOUR OLD TIN CANS

Medford, Mass. (INS)—What to do with your old tin cans is answered by Professor Edwin B. Rollins of the Tufts college department of chemical engineering.

Professor Rollins has made a note of making interesting and useful things from old metal containers.

The first part of his only tools are a soldering iron, two pairs of tin snips, and a hammer. Included among things he can do on display in Constant's Gymnasium are candle-sticks, lanterns and waste baskets made out by the professor in his spare time.

STILL SALT TO USE

Sacramento, Cal. (INS)—A salt used by the Wells Fargo Express company, and brought around the world in 1895 to California is still in use at Angels Camp.

Millions of dollars in gold dust have been stored in the ancient stronghold. At present the salt is used by the Railway Express company's successors in the coastal mining day express stage.
