INTELLIGENCE TESTS FOR ALL AT ST. VIATOR

College President
Talks at Rotary
Meeting.

TELLS RESULTS

The value of intelligence tests in the individualization of education was stressed by the Rev. E. V. Cardinal, president of St. Viator college, who addressed the Rotary club Thursday night at the Kankakee hotel.

By measuring the thinking capacity of our students we are able to place them in classes according to their ability to learn. The extraordinary students can thus be advanced at a more rapid rate, Father Cardinal said.

Sometimes these intelligence tests reveal that the results of which are kept confidential, reveal that the faculty as well as the students occasionally think or fail to do their job well. The speaker pointed out. When college men with high I. Q. intelligence quotients do poor academic work it may be the fault of their instructors.

Discovers Talent

Another aim to which the I. Q. tests are put is discovering talent for extra-curricular activities. Several members of the debating team this year at St. Viator college were invited to try out on the basis of their I. Q. ratings. With a little encouragement they made good and helped the team place second in the 13 debating championships.

Such individualization of education is a distinctive advantage of a small college, the speaker showed. The faculty learn a student's tastes, likes, dislikes, and aptitudes and thus can handle his case on an individual basis.

Because of this many men finish at St. Viator who would probably drop out of some schools in disgust when the individual problems could not be understood.

History of College

Father Cardinal traced briefly the history of St. Viator and told of its growth from a little red schoolhouse in 1864 to its present proportions. The Victorians of Canada are invited to come to Bourbonnais to reach a decision, paid for their first building with their meagre revenue from tuition.

The high school department was added in 1868 and in 1874 the

Conclude Inquest Into Death of Carl Mason of Bradley

An inquest jury impaneled by Coroner A. E. Kerger learned yesterday afternoon how the accident occurred which caused fatal injuries to Carl Mason, 23, of Bradley, on Wednesday night.

The inquest jury was told that a cabinetmaker by trade was making a circular table top for himself.

He had fastened the top to the shaft of a high speed electric motor to revolve it, thus making the top a part of an improvised lathe while he used a chisel as a cutting tool to reduce the size of the top.

While the top was revolving rapidly, apparently centrifugal force caused it to fly apart and one of the sections struck Mason on the head, tearing out a section of the skull several inches long.

He died at 12:30 p. m. yesterday morning, three hours after the accident, at St. Mary hospital. Dr. Fred C. Hamilton, who testified before the jury, said nothing could be done to save his life.

New Building In Big Spurt Past Month

A building and remodeling program far surpassing that of last year is indicated for the 1937 season with the release of permits issued during March by Building Inspector Walter Ehrlich.

He regards March that construction last month was three times as great as for the same period last year. A total of 28 permits for $73,000 were issued last month and included in this figure were eight new homes.

A year ago only 16 permits were issued and three of them for new homes, total value of the work for March 1936 was $25,130.

Recent permits for new homes have been issued to T. C. Ford 1319 North Broadway, 5-room brick veneer, L. Fritz 755 South Osborn avenue, 4-room frame, Harold Wolff 388 West 388 West Mulberry street, 2-room and bath frame, J. W. Schaefer, 821 South Lincoln avenue, 5-room and bath, Louis Eppler, 301 East Sylvester street, 5-room frame, and a residence at 932 South Schuyler ave. being constructed by Ernest Bladt.

This Peddler Has Livered Chauffeur

Adolph Steiner, Chicago peddler, has achieved just about the ultimate in the transient hawking of merchandise.

His success in selling imitation oriental rugs is reflected in his manner of operating—he travels from town to town in a high powered automobile with inverted chauffeur, selects only the best customers in up-town business buildings, then sells the rug at a profit.

He has Kankakee yesterday but did not stay long. Adolph had heard of the city's nuisance ordinance which prohibits unlicensed transient peddlers from operating here. He attempted to sell oriental rugs in the local banks and soon was apprehended by City Detective Daniel Bergen, fined $425 in police court by Magistrate Hoenicke and ordered to leave town.

City officials point out that the Kankakee nuisance ordinance has been successful in every case tried since it was passed May 11, 1933. Recently the U. S. supreme court refused to review an appellate court decision in regard to a law of this type thereby holding the ordinance valid. Every peddler who comes to Kankakee will be prevented from soliciting without permits if the public will continue to cooperate by notifying police.

In connection with the operations of the salesmen the better business bureau of the chamber of commerce pointed out this morning that oriental rug peddlers usually claim their wares are smuggled into this country duty free and tax free, hence permitting them to offer exceptional bargains. But investigations repeatedly show that the rugs are manufactured in eastern factories and are only imitations.

USE DYNAMITE IN ATTEMPT TO RECOVER BODY

Dragging Of River
Fails to Yield
Suicide.

IN DEEP WATER

Efforts to recover the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Bellmore, 43 of Chicago, from the Kankakee river east of Mokena have been unsuccessful.

After Mrs. Bellmore, the victim of a recent river breakdown jumped into the water near the Garden of Eden resort Tuesday afternoon boatmen dragged the river at the order of Coroner Kerger, but finally the dragging was abandoned and dynamiting was to be tried today.

The water is deep the current is swift and there is an accumulation of debris on the bottom that made dragging difficult.

In Poor Health

Mrs. Bellmore, accompanied by her son Harold, 19, a nurse Marian Petersen and her son Gerald Gerald Zwiefel, 20, came to the resort early Tuesday afternoon with the intention of living at her summer cottage in an effort to recover her health.

While walking along the river bank with the nurse, she suddenly jumped into the deep water. Her son and Zwiefel, a short distance away, swam to her rescue but almost lost their lives in the attempt.

Ford to Advance Wages to Thwart Any Organization

New York, April 9.—UP.—The New York Daily News said in a dispatch from Washington today that Henry Ford planned to boost his employees' wages in an effort to thwart the United Automobile Workers' campaign to unionize his factories.

"The latest tip-off" the dispatch said, is that Henry Ford intends to "lick the unions with a generous distribution of that great pile of Ford cash."

"Henry to keep the unions out is getting ready to announce a wage scale and a chart of working conditions which will boost the average above anything which the C. I. O. (Committee for Industrial Organization) has won from General Motors of Chevrolet."

"The advance information is in direct line with the Ford tactics of the past. Ford a quarter of a century ago started American industry when he announced his $5-a-day minimum for every worker."

"If the 13-year-old auto magnate decides to pay every man at least $10 a day there will be very few objections. And that according to Ford men here is just what Henry intends to do."

"He will give the boys more money than the union leader ever asked for, and will adjust every grievance to the satisfaction of the workers and never recognize the union or give in to the closed shop."

Eight Bodies Removed To A Lumber Camp

McNary, Ariz., April 9.—P.—Curious crowds lined a highway today and watched a steady procession of officers and lumbermen bear the bodies of eight plane crash victims out of a mountain forest.

The bodies were wrapped in canvas and suspended from crude aspen poles, to be carried to this remote lumber camp. The six men and two women were killed Saturday when a Douglas airliner dashed against a mountainside in a snow storm.

After a freezing night in an improvised camp, 40 men trudged over three miles of the most difficult sort of country to reach the open highway.

Waiting at the roadside to take my son home was George Kent, Osgood, Kas., father of a Roland Kent, a Douglas employee, who rode the ill-fated craft out of Burbank, bound for New York.

Before the bodies reach a Winslow mortuary, they will be viewed by a coroner's jury.

Earl Platt, Apache county attorney, said he wanted to determine how many bodies were in the plane early reports having varied.

Pears expressed for four searchers after they became separated from the others in bitter cold weather, were banished last yesterday when they reached the wreckage scene.

OSHAWA STRIKE LEADERS SHOUT THEIR PROTEST

Premier Of Canada
Opposes Domination
by C. I. O.
OF INDUSTRIES

BULLETIN

Ottawa, April 9.—(Canadian Press)—J. S. Woodworth, cooperative commonwealth leader, calling attention today to "the grave situation of cooping in Oshawa," moved to adjourn the Canadian house of commons to discuss the automobile-strike and the concentration of police at Toronto.

Woodworth declared the situation was dangerous enough to warrant parliamentary discussion.

If the house should approve his motion, pending business would be dropped, under parliamentary procedure, and the members give their entire attention to debate on the strike. The motion is invoked only for subjects of "vital importance."

Toronto, Ont., April 9.—(Canadian Press)—Premier Mitchell Hepburn declared today General Motors of Canada "will get all the protection from this government that they require" in shipping automobile parts from their strike-bound Oshawa plant.

"Repair parts will have to be moved tomorrow or the next day," said the premier. "That is when the showdown will come."

Hepburn, supporting the company in the strike of 3,700 workers at the Oshawa plant, said an aide advised him that union leaders had threatened they would prevent moving of parts from the factory.

"That, of course, would be illegal," the premier asserted.

A special force of red-coated Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Ontario constables, estimated at 300, massed in Toronto, ready for an emergency. Authorities had heard the General Motors walkout was spreading to other industries.</

WAR CAUSES REMAIN

Terrible as war is, it is a symptom of the world's troubles rather than the cause of them. To work for a warless world without realizing that the maintenance of peace is only half of the job is to surrender to one of the greatest of delusions.
 An illustration is provided by the tragic case of the fierce Touareg tribesmen of the Sahara desert.
 For many years the Touaregs were among the most dreaded fighters of Africa. They fought with other tribes, they fought with each other, and they fought most of all with the French, providing the long-suffering Foreign Legion with some of its most desperate engagements.
 But at last the power of France grew to be too much for them. The Touaregs knuckled under before the white men's troops, just as the Sioux of our own west had knuckled under; and some three years ago the tribesmen stopped fighting and embraced the ways of peace.
 And then their troubles began.
 The Touaregs had always been nomadic tribes, roaming up and down and across the limitless Sahara. When peace came they stopped roaming and settled down, swarming to the oases and the villages, and multiplying in numbers faster than they ever had in the age-old era of unceasing warfare.
 Now the Sahara is not exactly a garden spot. The number of people it can support is strictly limited. When villages and oases increase in population, the Sahara's productivity is tested to the very limit. A brief run of bad luck promptly came. A long dry spell set in. The Sahara's power to produce was abruptly reduced. The Touaregs, centered in villages and around the waterholes, fell easy victims to famine.
 A United Press correspondent recently finished a tour of the desert and reported that never in his life had he seen such frightful scenes of starvation and suffering as are on view among the Touaregs. Thousands upon thousands of the tribesmen have died. Other thousands are reduced to the most pitiful beggary in the towns. Altogether the Touaregs are suffering far more than they ever suffered from desert warfare.

Now the point of this case is that the job of making the desert orderly and peaceful was only half done. Peace was established—but nothing was done to make peace workable. The age-old forces that drove the desert men to unceasing warfare were left untouched. And so peace spelled disaster.
 You can carry out the analogy elsewhere. Peace came to Europe in 1918. But the job of making peace workable was left undone. The causes of war remained as they had been; indeed, through human folly and neglect, they were permitted to grow stronger and sharper than ever. So Europe's peace became a painful sham, an uneasy lull between battles.
 Averting war is not enough. If the things that cause war are not attended to, our work for peace is a delusion.

UNCOVERING TAXES

It would be a fine thing if state and federal legislators would devote a few minutes of earnest thought to the report recently published by the Twentieth Century Fund's committee on taxation.

This report urges that sales taxes and similar "hidden" taxes be repealed as far as possible and replaced by personal income taxes. In no other way, it declares, can the average taxpayer be made to realize the constant rise in state and federal expenditures.

Aside from the fact that income taxes are far more equitable than sales taxes, it is quite true that they are additionally useful, as attention-callers. The income tax is to be blunt, hurts more than the sales tax.

Your Children Happenings in New York

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

As this is the Silver anniversary of the Girl Scouts in America, it is timely for us to give them a cheer. Mrs. Juliette Low of Georgia twenty-five years ago, was alert to the tremendous advantages being harvested by the boys in a four-year-old movement started in England (her new home) by Sir Robert Baden-Powell, who became to growing youth what Froebel had been to the little child, one of the greatest educators of character since time began.

Miss Low went on the theory, and commendably, that girls and boys alike need the same fundamental development, that character-building is not a matter of sex, and innate qualities are the same.

However, it is not my purpose to dwell on history, but to write into this tribute some thoughts of my own on a movement that can stand up under almost any analysis and deserves the heartiest thanks of the nation.

SOMETHING MISSING
 Long an observer of conditions I find a peculiar situation in our educational and home conditions that leaves a gap in the child's or youth's life.

Home and school both accent the ideal of the "individual." We have almost completely lost sight of the word "co-operation." As parents and teachers are largely interested in lining up the boy or girl as a person, with his own interests at heart.

Even the group of specific interest of our schools cannot cancel this entirely, because the youth wants to shine in his group, as well as to gain for his group.
 "To be good to be little, to be kind to be great."
 Believes in the immense educational value of the small group—managing its own affairs and making its own plans as far as possible, and learning by the way the first lessons of cooperation and good citizenship.

Once, this highest paid advertisement in the world, I have heard of a "dollar a night" in the chorus of the Metropolitan Opera company. Now, making a pay heavily for a Flashback bit of prose, which might have gone for a couple of dollars to a daily paper not too long ago.
 She called her first book, "I Feel Young Now." It was a best-seller. The most candid tales an author had ever chosen for a first work. It was something, Miss Fishback explains.

Cooperation. Service. The self-interest in the small-small, individual-group. The home is the intimate world that must be worked for and that should come eternally before self.

PEOTONE

By MORRIS FISHER

The peotone is a small, round, wooden instrument, and is used in the same way as a tambourine. It is a very old instrument, and is found in many of the oldest civilizations. It is a very simple instrument, and is easy to play. It is a very popular instrument, and is used in many of the most popular dances.

STORE OF KNOWLEDGE
 She is at her desk every morning by ten, and she has made it her business to know every department of the Metropolitan establishment where she is the chief mistress of exploitation. Business men come away from a conference with Miss Fishback with the sudden realization that she had made all the brilliant suggestions at the meeting. They only listen.

She publicized the slogan, "It's Smart to Be Thrifty," to such an extent that there are hundreds of departing stores throughout the land which have unobtrusively copied the profitable Fishback technique without acknowledgment to the originator, a slim dynamic young lady who still retains the naive enthusiasm which she had when she first set foot in New York.

Miss Fishback has three pet pees—side cars, chattering women and frills on dresses. Throwing "nails" easily let own personality. There is no waste motion or inefficiency in her activities. She doesn't see why a woman can't go as far in this work-world as the allegedly stronger sex.

It can hardly be said that Margaret Fishback is a young lady who will go far. It wouldn't be true. She has gone far already.
PERFECT X-RAY MOVIE CAMERA
 London, April 9.—UPI.—An X-ray camera which will take moving pictures has been perfected by a British radiologist. The invention enables a doctor to take a fast-moving X-ray picture, and then does it down, so that he may study it in detail. A feat which has hitherto been impossible. It is expected to prove a great aid to the study of gastric, abdominal and respiratory diseases.

PAIDULL BOY ASKS $100,000
 Aledo, Ill., April 9.—UPI.—Two paidull boys are asking for $100,000 each in damages. The boys, who are 12 and 13 years old, are suing the city of Aledo for damages to their property. The boys claim that the city of Aledo has been negligent in its duties.

WELL, I'LL TELL YOU
 By BOB CURNS
 Hollywood is fast becoming the "melting pot" of the nation. If you look around you can find fanatics of all stripes and there hardly a cult of any kind that isn't represented here.

I know one lady out here who is a fanatic of the "whirlwind courtship." She has had two of 'em. She married once for love and once for money and didn't get either—so she became a rabid advocate of long engagements. Not long ago, her long-suffering maid came to her and told her that she was "tired" of waiting. The lady says, "I hope it ain't that man that's keep callin' on you for two weeks." The girl said, "Yes." The lady says, "You ain't possibly hearin' anything about a man in two weeks." And the girl says, "Well, I ain't takin' no chances. I wouldn't marry him unless I knew all about him. You see, no one will friend me 'cepted to him for sixteen years."

Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge...

(NUMBERS XXXV XI)

FOUNDED on the democratic principle of "EQUAL JUSTICE UNDER LAW," the Supreme Court of the United States is the highest symbol of those Federal Courts that act as "cities of refuge" for the common man. So long as the Supreme Court remains free... every American has a refuge... a protection such as no city of old could afford.

Here human rights are safe... persecution cannot exist... religious freedom is guaranteed... freedom of speech is permitted every man and woman... property cannot be taken away. These are the treasures the Constitution holds for every American. AND THE COURTS ARE THE KEEPERS OF THIS GREAT SANCTUARY OF THE COMMON MAN—the protection of the weak against the powerful.

Do you want political courts? Do you want the Supreme Court of the United States to become the plaything of politics... a "rubber stamp" in the years to come?

Or, do you believe with the patriots who wrote our Constitution and with our fathers who have faithfully guarded it against all attacks—that so long as the Congress, the President and the Courts remain independent of each other—just so long will Americans remain free.

YOUR "CITY OF REFUGE" IS THE SUPREME COURT!

ORGANIZERS IN FORD'S PLANTS BECOME ACTIVE

Settlement of Hudson Strike is Announced.
SIT-DOWNS END

Detroit, April 9.—(UP)—The United Automobile Workers union redoubled efforts to recruit members in Henry Ford's plants today while 11,000 Hudson Motor Car company employees prepared to follow 65,000 Chrysler corporation workers back to assembly lines after settlement of their month-old strike.

Despite Ford's declaration "that he would never recognize" any union, U. A. W. organizers were active in the manufacturer's factories. Union officials admitted that it would be some time before they could approach the world's second largest automobile producer with a demand for recognition.

Four hundred employees of Ford's assembly plant in Kansas City met last night to discuss an organization campaign. Union members declared that they were prepared for a "relentless struggle" to win over a majority of Ford's workers to U. A. W. membership.

Hudson Strike Settled
Gov. Frank Murphy announced settlement of the Hudson strike last night, less than 24 hours after John L. Lewis, chairman of the Committee for Industrial Organization, and Walter P. Chrysler, chairman of the board of the Chrysler corporation, had reached an agreement ending a strike that had closed nine Chrysler plants in Detroit.

Terms of the Hudson settlement, which Murphy said were similar to those of the Chrysler-union pact, must be approved by the strikers before the agreement can be formally ratified. A mass meeting was scheduled at 8 p. m. tonight at which union officials will explain the agreement and the workers will vote.

The union was granted the right to bargain collectively for its members in Hudson's three Detroit plants, held by sit-down strikers since March 8.

Hudson workers will gather tonight at the state fairgrounds coliseum where Lewis and other union leaders warned Ford in speeches Wednesday night that eventually he would be forced to recognize the union.

Resume Production Soon
A. Edward Bari, who became head of the Hudson company after the death of Roy D. Chapin, announced that employees would start returning to work when the agreement is ratified. He said full production would be resumed within a week or 10 days.

Termination of the strike brought to an end a series of sit-downs and walk-outs affecting thousands of workers in the automobile industry, and gave Murphy the distinction of settling three major strikes in as many days. A strike of 2,400 Reo Motor company workers was settled yesterday.

Several thousand workers still were idle as a result of strikes affecting smaller "feeder plants" here and in Flint. Murphy said that James P. Dewey, federal conciliator, would attempt to settle a strike in a Yale and Towne Lock company plant here involving 500 employees. The company makes locks for Chrysler and other car producers.

Continue Conferences
Chrysler and union representatives meet again today for further discussion of supplemental features of their agreement. The union wants seniority rights based on length of service and other adjustments in working conditions.

Similar supplemental conferences will be held between Hudson and union officials beginning April 13. The Hudson-union agreement will remain effective until April 9, 1938. The Chrysler pact expires March 31, 1938.

Seek Early Action in House to Curb Sit-Down Strikers
Washington, April 9.—(UP)—Administration leaders are today to force early house action on the senate approved resolution condemning both sit-down strikes and violations of the Wagner labor relations act.

Party leaders were summoned to a conference to plan their strategy after word was circulated that the administration "hoped" for early house action.

The surprising house defeat yesterday of the Dies resolution for an investigation of sit-down strikes was reported to have disturbed administration labor circles. Chairman John J. O'Connor, D. N. Y., of the rules committee said he believed the vote would be "interpreted as official house approval of sit-down strikes."

Majority Leader Sam Rayburn of Texas said he did not regard the vote—236 to 149—as a lead of sentiment. It was understood, however, that administration leaders wanted to clear any doubt by forcing the senate resolution to a vote.

Rejection of the Dies resolution came at the close of a wild afternoon session punctuated by jeers, hoots, cat-calls and a challenge to a fight.

The vote was regarded as a defeat for the house leadership which vainly tried to rally support for the resolution. It did not touch President Roosevelt, however.

Peace is Reigning Over the American Automobile Fronts

By the Associated Press
Peace reigned over the American automobile strike front today for the first time in five months.

While union leaders cheered agreements with four Michigan automobile producers, their foray into the Canadian motor industry brought determined opposition from the Ontario government.

In announcing settlement of the Hudson Motor Car company strike last night, Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan said "our serious trouble in the motor industry is ended." Terms were similar to those in the Chrysler agreement.

Meanwhile, the automobile builders eyed John L. Lewis' prediction Henry Ford would deal with the U. A. W. "in time" and Ford's declaration that union recognition never would be granted.

Settlement of the Hudson strike sent 11,000 workers, due since March 8, back to their jobs. The Chrysler pact was signed Tuesday, and the Reo motor car agreement on Wednesday. The day General Motors strike ended March 12. At various times approximately 225,000 automobile workers were affected.

A short-lived sit-down strike in the A. C. spark plug plant at Flint, a subsidiary of General Motors, ended last night. A conference was scheduled today.

At East Peoria, Ill., 11,500 employees returned to work in the caterpillar tractor company plant which closed Tuesday.

Sit-down technique was abandoned in favor of organized picketing by striking members of the United Rubber Workers of America at the factory of the Thermoid company at Trenton, N. J.

Rain-drenched pickets kept quiet at the gates of the Hershey Chocolate factory at Hershey, Pa., while "loyal" employees went to work, then they dispersed for a conference between routed sit-downers and executives of the corporation.

The committee for industrial organization started setting up district headquarters in the nation's oil centers. Union officials seeking collective bargaining concessions and ultimately, minimum wage scale, said conferences with oil companies would be arranged.

The American Federation of Labor asked the labor relations board at Washington to poll workers by craft rather than by factory in elections to determine who should represent mass production workers.

A proposal to investigate sit-down strikes was turned down by a vote in the house yesterday.

Senate Committee is Set for Secret Debate Over Plan

Washington, April 9.—P. Leading members of the senate judiciary committee, apparently weary of the long hearings on the Roosevelt court bill, began preparing today for the next step—secret debate on whether to recommend its enactment.

It will be at least another week, however, before the committee can get to work on the numerous proposals for modification and for constitutional amendments designed either to remedy or supplement the administration program.

Witnesses called today were Prof. William M. Carr of the Notre Dame college of law, Frederic R. Coakley speaking for the New York City Bar association and William Masser, dean of the University of Missouri law school.

Carr contended in his prepared statement that the legislation would create uncertainties adverse to business stability.

Courier agreed with Carr that if the country favors energetic federal powers, the proper road is by constitutional amendment.

The committee will recess tomorrow, but will hear opposition witnesses for several more days beginning Monday. Whether the administration would present rebuttal testimony thereafter was a question.

Dissuaded yesterday from offering a resolution to close the hearings, Senator Hughes, D-Del., said he would bring the question up again next week unless an agreement was reached meanwhile.

Retired U. S. Army Officer Summoned; on a World Cruise

St. Louis, April 9.—P. A cablegram from China has informed relatives here of the death Wednesday of Brig. Gen. Thomas H. Jackson, U. S. A. retired, noted flood control expert. He was 64 years old.

Gen. Jackson was making a world cruise with Mrs. Jackson, Robert I. Pitzer, who received the news of the general's death. Said Pitzer is a brother of Gen. Jackson. The cablegram stated that Gen. Jackson had been stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage at an unnamed point on the north China coast.

As head of the Mississippi river commission created by congress in 1928, to formulate a flood control program for the lower Mississippi valley, Gen. Jackson supervised the major portion of the brilliant, elaborate system constructed by the government. The first test of the huge control system came last winter with the record Ohio river flood.

Gen. Jackson was graduated from the United States military academy in 1899. He served in the Philippines, and then was sent to San Francisco where he supervised a $50,000,000 flood control program for the Sacramento river. In 1920 he took command of the Twelfth United States Engineers at Camp Grant, Ill. In 1927 he was stationed at Kansas City. In 1932 was made corps area commander at San Francisco. He also served at Norfolk, Va. He retired only recently.
