15TH INFANTRY UNDER ORDERS AT TIENTSIN; VOLUNTEERS AID

Business Men Or- ganize and Start- ing to Drill FORTIFICATIONS

BULLETIN
Tientsin, July 21.—(U.P.)—The 15th United States infantry stood by under full war packs at Tientsin today to defend the American citizens and interests if Sino-Japanese fighting is carried into that city.

While tension between Japan and China brought new fighting in the North China area, American business men at Tientsin organized a volunteer company, started to drill and selected squads to build fortifications.

Taking a grave view of the situation, the United States consulate had asked that the company be formed to reinforce the regular army garrison.

Keep Railroad Open
Besides protecting American interests in the city, the 15th infantry was ordered to keep open the railroad to the eastern seaport of Chinwangtao.

What observers believed was a determination by Japanese to superintend positions held by the 37th Chinese division in the Peiping area and a decision to attack other strategic points also led British, French and Italian authorities to prepare protection for their nationals.

The Japanese commander south of Peiping, threatened "another and more deadly blow" against the Chinese.

Japanese destroyed Chinese barracks with an artillery bombardment in a general attack yesterday against Wanpinghsien, just north of the Marco Polo bridge west of Peiping.

Japanese answered reports that a number of civilians were killed in the bombardment by saying they had been "warned" to evacuate the area.

Festival For Bradley Held Next Sunday

A new sanctuary lamp donated to the church by the Daughters of Isabella in honor of the late Rev. H. A. Darche will be dedicated and blessed at the 11 o'clock mass marking the beginning of the annual homecoming of St. Joseph church in Bradley next Sunday.

It was during Father Darche's pastorate that the homecoming service started at the Bradley church and annually large numbers from all parts of the state were listed among the guests. Particularly was this true among the ex-servicemen since Father Darche was a popular personality at state and national conventions and had served as national chaplain of the American Legion. These same groups are expected to be present Sunday at a tribute to the former Marine chaplain, they have promised the Rev. R. B. Bernau, his successor.

Among the day's features will be a chicken dinner from 11:30 to 2:30 o'clock, supper from 5 to 8 o'clock, a variety of concessions and an amateur show in the evening.

BARKLEY NAMED TO LEADERSHIP IN THE SENATE

Kentucky Statesman will Succeed Late Sen. Robinson VOTING CLOSE

Washington, July 21.—(U.P.)—Senator Barkley of Kentucky won the Democratic leadership of the senate today in a close contest.

The vote was 58 to 37.

Barkley, who served as assistant to the late leader—Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas—was chosen by the senate's 75 Democrats over Senator Harrison of Mississippi.

The entire caucus took less than an hour. There were no nominations, but a quick secret ballot.

Harrison then moved to make the selection unanimous.

Before the meeting broke up, Barkley made a brief speech in which he promised to support Democratic policies and work for the nation and the party. He was cheered by his colleagues.

The Democrats then filed by and shook his hand and the hand of Senator Harrison, who stood smiling at his side.

Speaking into a radio microphone, Barkley expressed his gratitude for the "honor" accorded to him and expressed confidence "we will all be able to work together."

Party Unity?
He said the friendly nature of the contest, close though it was, foreshadowed party unity.

Senator Harrison following Barkley on the radio said he had just congratulated the victor and said "we are all going to work for harmony in the Democratic party."

Barkley gave out a brief statement saying:

"My policy is to be representative of the administration as well as the senate in working out to the best of my ability the problems that face the party, the administration (Continued on page four)

Above is a photograph from the architect's drawing of the new $1,500,000 corn mill plant of the General Foods corporation which will be located in a 32 acre tract east of Hobbie avenue and south of the New York Central right-of-way. Negotiations with the company were brought to a successful conclusion today by the industrial committee of the chamber of commerce after the company had considered several other sites in the corn belt. The new plant will employ 200 men when it is opened in the winter. Construction will start as soon as the company's attorneys approve the abstract of title to the property. Storage space will be provided for 1,500,000 bushels of grain in the rear of the seven-story modern building.

Community Leaders Pleased Over Newest Local Industry

Farmers, industrial and business leaders alike joined today in enthusiastic expressions of the importance to the community of Kankakee's newest industry when they learned that General Foods corporation was completing negotiations with the industrial committee of the chamber of commerce to locate its new corn mill products plant here.

W. A. Kraus, general agent of the New York Central lines, who is also chairman of the industrial committee together with George Luehrs and N. J. Ziemer of the commerce group who have been negotiating for some time with General Foods announced that the company settled upon Kankakee as a site after considering many locations in the corn belt.

Natural Advantages
The great natural advantages of this community as pointed out by the committee were factors influencing the decision—particularly the fact that it is located in the heart of one of the finest farming sections of the nation, free from congestion and high taxes, yet near an ample labor supply, fine public utility service and served by three trunk line railroads and nine concrete highways.

Of tremendous importance to farmers in this and surrounding counties is the fact that the new corn mill will provide a readily accessible market for their white corn. The company is interested in developing hybrid white corn and expects to encourage its production, according to the committee.

Farmers' Market
The company is also working out its manufacturing processes with the object in view of accepting corn from farmers delivered in the ear. Chairman Kraus said regarding the new mill, "This particular type (Continued on page two)

ONE NOTORIOUS OUTLAW SLAIN; PAL IS CAUGHT

Kidnaped Farmers End Depredations of Fugitives BOSWELL, OKLA.

Boswell, Okla., July 21.—(AP)—Fred Tindol, escaped Texas convict, was shot to death and his companion, Pete Traxler, Oklahoma outlaw, was wounded seriously today by two farmers they were holding as hostages.

While the automobile in which the desperados were attempting to escape a huge network of officers was parked on a highway eight miles northwest of here, the farmers grabbed the guns of their captors and shot them down.

Traxler was shot above the right lung.

The hostages, Frank Trimmer and J. E. Benton, brought the outlaws into Boswell after the shooting.

Low Tire Spelled Doom
They said the car had a low tire and the convicts were forced to pull off the highway to fix it. They grabbed the guns as the men climbed out of the car.

The shooting occurred unexpectedly in an area outside of the river bottom, sector around which almost 1,000 federal, state and local officers had thronged a tight trap.

A short time earlier, Traxler and Tindol were in a rough 10-mile area around Caddo, Okla. Boswell is located about 25 miles southwest of Caddo.

Wild Driving 6 Hours
Benton was kidnapped by the convicts early this morning in the Washita river bottoms near where officers had driven them after a gun fight in which Traxler's wife was captured.

Driving Benton's car, the fugitives broke through an officers' patrol and zig-zagged to a point near Caddo, where they wrecked the car at the dead end of a country lane.

Walking a half-mile to the Trimmer home, they kidnapped Trimmer and raced back through Caddo. After six hours of wild driving, during which they were pressed by officers many times, the convicts reached the Trimmer home.

Divorce is Given, Another Dismissed

Circuit Judge W. R. Hunter granted one divorce yesterday and dismissed another divorce action at the request of plaintiff's counsel.

Marie Antoinette Schweigert of Kankakee was granted legal freedom from her husband Alvin by default. The charge named in her complaint filed by Attorney John Mayhew, was desertion.

Upon motion of Attorney Frank Burns, the court yesterday dismissed the suit of Belle LaFaber of St. Anne against her husband, Arthur, which had been filed July 6. They have been married 27 years.

No Extra Money Was Spent; Earhart Hunt

Washington, July 21.—(AP)—President Roosevelt told reporters yesterday the navy spent no extra money hunting Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan, in the south Pacific.

He said the cost of operating ships and airplanes went on, no matter what duty was assigned them.

The Earhart search, he added, meant additional training for their crews—training they were required to undergo in maneuvers or otherwise.

COLORADO LICENSES TO BE ILLUMINATED

Denver, July 21.—(AP)—Colorado automobile license plates will be illuminated next year. Secretary of State George E. Saunders said today he ordered the plates dipped in a beaded solution to make them glister at night. The cost is about a cent a plate, Saunders said.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MAKES NEGOTIATIONS WITH BIG FIRM

"Cactus Jack" Garner Talks Behind Scenes MANY PRODUCTS

Washington, July 21.—(AP)—"Cactus Jack" Garner, who calls himself President Roosevelt's silent partner, is doing a lot of talking this week—but it's all behind the scenes.

The vice president scarcely had unpacked his bags yesterday after a five-week Texas vacation when he became the center of negotiations for a court bill compromise.

One senator after another walked into his roomy capitol office. Seven came in a body. They were reported to have told Garner they would vote to send the controversial bill back to the judiciary committee unless a settlement is effected soon.

A little later the bushy-eyebrowed Texan went to the White House. Apparently he delivered the senators' message, although he had nothing to say afterward.

His own views on the "court bill" have not been disclosed. Before he left suddenly on his vacation in the middle of the congressional session, insiders said he had urged Mr. Roosevelt to yield in his advocacy of additional supreme court justices.

Processing of Corn Will Be Done by Industry

Construction of a $1,500,000 corn mill in Kankakee was announced today in New York City by Udell C. Young, vice president of General Foods corporation, following negotiations for some time with the industrial committee of the Kankakee chamber of commerce. There will be employment for approximately 200 workers when the plant is completed this winter.

In addition to the new mill, storage facilities for 1,500,000 bushels of corn will be provided on the 32 acre site located immediately to the east of Hobbie avenue and south of the New York Central railroad. General Foods recently acquired this tract.

Huge Industry
"The new plant will be in the heart of the nation's white corn producing areas and will be convenient to the markets for the finished products," according to Mr. Young. "This new enterprise will supplement our cereal activities at Battle Creek, Mich., where General Foods has also been enlarging its facilities."

The H. K. Ferguson company of Cleveland, O., has been engaged as contractor and engineer and construction will start as soon as the abstract of title to the property is approved by the attorneys for General Foods.

Located on the Governor's Highway 49, on the outskirts of Kankakee, 60 miles from the center of Chicago, the new plant will be constructed of concrete, steel and glass, with the main portion of the building seven stories in height.

Modern Layout
"At least a year of study has been given to make sure that the new plant will embody the latest developments in industrial efficiency and consideration for favorable working conditions of employees," said Mr. Young. "The plans embody all the latest ideas of the U. S. department of agriculture for this type of milling operation. All citizens of Kankakee contacted through the industrial committee on the matter have been co-operative."

Just what products will be manufactured in the new plant have not yet been made known. James Mullins, now with the Post Products division of General Foods at Battle Creek, Mich., will serve as plant manager here.

Many Branches
As far as has been determined the corn will be given its first processing here, with that part used in the making of Post Toasties, Grape Nuts Flakes, Post Toasties, Grape Nuts, Whole Bran Shreds, Postum Cereal, Postum, Sanka Coffee, Maxwell House Coffee, Jell-O, Swans Down Cake Flour, Calumet Baking Powder, Log Cabin Syrup, Bakers Cocoa, Bakers Cocoa, Bakers Chocolate, Minute Tapioca, Diamond Crystal Salt, Certo, LaFrance and Satina.

Were They Kicked or Merely Pushed?

Peiping, July 21.—(AP)—Two American women were at odds with the Japanese embassy today on whether Japanese soldiers kicked them or merely "pushed them on their way."

A Japanese embassy spokesman declared an investigation showed Japanese sentries did not use violence in forcing the women to leave the vicinity of the embassy yesterday.

He said the United States embassy presented its view of the situation this morning but made no protest.

The women, Mrs. Helen R. Jones, of Detroit, and Miss Carol Lathrop, of Washington, D. C., told United States officials that the guards kicked and shoved them.

Japanese sources, however, said the lieutenant in charge of the Japanese embassy guard said one of the women slipped on wet pavement and fell.

The lieutenant's view was that the women crossed the street and tried to look inside sandbag barricades. He stated that when sentries asked them to leave and they refused and the sentries "merely pushed them on their way, doing no more than their duty in protecting Japanese military secrets."

When she heard the Japanese version of the incident Mrs. Jones declared:

"Their statement that no violence was used depends entirely on definition of violence. If being kicked and shoved as we were isn't violence, then I'd hate to meet the real article."

She said the assertion that she or her companion had slipped on wet pavement was false.

"It was my impression that the street was perfectly dry," Mrs. Jones said. "The minute we saw the sentries rise up and heard their bayonets we were terrified. Then they charged us."

"A wave of the hand would have sent us on our way only too gladly. But I wish the whole thing would blow over and be forgotten."

Hints of Police Participation in Negroes' Lynching

Tallahassee, Fla., July 21.—Determined to establish whether police were implicated in the lynching of two Negroes, State's Attorney George C. Parker, today ordered a check of the caliber and serial numbers of police pistols and shotguns. Parker said only policemen and sheriff's deputies were supposed to have shot the Negroes who were killed at the police headquarters and the Negroes' cells.

Parker said he was making the police pistol check so that the Negroes are implicated in the killing and if they are not, the evidence will clearly exonerate. We don't have many clues to work on but we are doing the best we can and a revelation will be furnished to Governor Fied Chas. McCall.

The executive who called the lynching "murder" planned a special investigation and promised protection to the limit of the law of anyone we kill.

and the country. The last ballot count depicted the count, senators said. Up to the last vote, the candidates were tied at 37 to 37. When the deciding ballot was announced, there was a burst of applause.

Senators' Tally Vote. Two white cards were passed among the senators for each vote. Each wrote the name of his own senator and the name of the senator he wanted to elect. Then they were examined individually and the votes were called out one by one. Listening excitedly the senators kept a rough tally of the vote as it proceeded. The tension was reached when, with one more vote to be called, the name of Senator Barkley was called.

Senators in the caucus said the count of the vote was not mentioned. A brief statement of its purpose was given by Senator John H. Harrison, who turned the chair over to Senator Pittman (D-Ore.), the senate president pro tem.

Senators said they were not calling, one to register those present and another as the senators dropped their written ballots.

Bankhead Absent. The only absentee was Senator Bankhead, who went to the Ala. home last week because of a wife's illness. Harrison supported him.

Senators Hayden of Arizona, who left the naval hospital to attend his appointment as he stood before the Senate, and Senator Barkley to shake hands with the Democratic senators, made statements to the press.

But some of the Mississippians supported were expected to vote. They had expected to vote in the caucus but today they had been called to the senate office building.

President Roosevelt publicly kept his hands off the contest. Both candidates participated in a legislative conference with him last night.

Both senators have supported the Roosevelt administration on nearly every issue, including court reorganization.

Added Unanimous Consent. Members said the names of Barkley and Harrison were placed before the caucus when Senator Tidings (D-Md.) rose and asked unanimous consent that they be considered the nominees.

In announcing the result, Pittman called it "the most interesting and exciting election of 24 years."

"It was neck and neck until the last ballot," he said. "These two men have been lifelong friends and they are friends now. There was no contest over any of the procedure. Senator Harrison with his sportsmanlike spirit asked for a unanimous ballot for Senator Barkley."

Harrison told Barkley: "I congratulate you and now we've got to fight together for the progress of our country and the success of the Democratic party."

"Thank you, Pat," Barkley replied. "I have been fighting to elect you since 1912, and this is the only occasion I can remember when our interests were separate."

It was the first contest for Democratic leader since Governor Robinson was elected in 1922.

VIEWING WITH ALARM

People generally are on the anxious seat these days. A war has long been brewing overseas, and any of these days, the lid is likely to topple off. In America, discussion over sidown strikes and court reform has the citizenry in a turmoil. And even Mother Nature has been acting up, with what scattered earthquakes, added seasons, advancing glaciers, and so on.

All in all, it seems another of those periods when the average human being is doing some pretty serious viewing with alarm. In that connection, he may want to glance over the following warning:

"The earth is degenerating in these days. There are signs that the world is speeding coming to an end. Bribery and corruption abound. Children no longer obey their parents. Every man wants to write a book, and it is evident that the end of the world is speedily approaching."

Before you start giving away your worldly goods and ordering sackcloth and ashes, though, it might be wise to mention that this "warning" appearing on an Assyrian tablet, written in 2800 B. C., almost 50 centuries ago.

So maybe we'll survive, after all.

CONQUERING DISEASE

Although medical science still has many knotty problems to solve, it has at least freed us from some of the perils which beset former generations. An illustration is provided in figures on the death rate from typhoid fever as compiled currently by the Journal of the American Medical Association.

In 78 American cities last year, the death rate from typhoid fever was 94 per 100,000 of population. This compares with a death rate of 2054 per 100,000 of population in 1910.

Here, in other words, we have the record of one dreaded disease which has been conquered. Doctors know exactly what causes typhoid fever and they know exactly how to prevent it. A maledy that took thousands of lives yearly a quarter of a century ago, is now reduced to comparative insignificance.

The figures are a striking testimonial to the advance of medical science.

UNPARDONABLE SIN

A New York Times dispatch, telling of the arrival in England of some 3800 children from war-torn Europe, contains some fearfully tragic paragraphs. As, for instance, this one:

"It was not the children's physical condition, however, that caused most concern. The children were suffering from the Spanish civil war by their overwrought mental condition, brought about by the terror of the air raids. The war has left many of them abnormally nervous, perhaps for the rest of their lives. They have spent hour after hour huddled in 'refugees' with their frightened mothers while Rebel air planes dived overhead, dropping bombs. Scores have seen brothers, sisters or little friends killed or maimed near their homes."

Can any sensitive person read that "without feeling that the bombing of an inhabited town—by anyone, in any land—is one of the most shocking crimes of all the ages?"

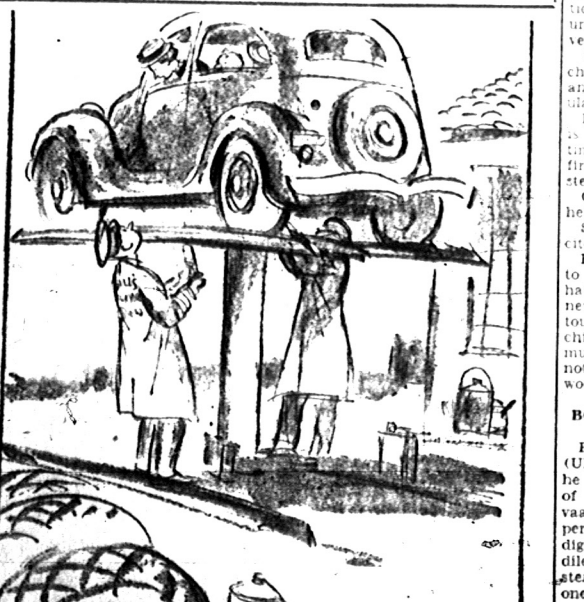

A WARRIOR'S REWARD

For a tiny nation, wracked with the plagues of the post-war era, Austria often has displayed surprising spunk. With practically no backing, it has buffeted various European powers and has kept the sage minds of the league of nations in a continual stew since 1919.

Latest evidence of this belligerent tendency is the government law forbidding dancing to military music and prohibiting the "jazzing up" of military theme songs.

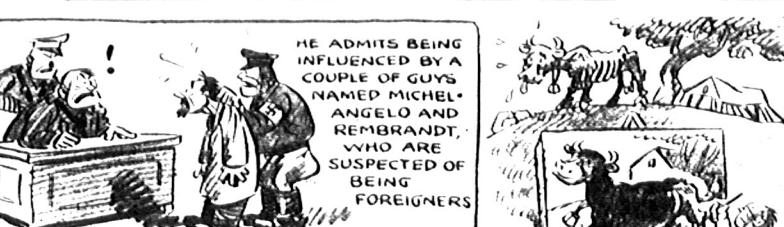

It could easily be said that Austria is still playing "Gaustrark again." But in fact, the decree has its elements of generosity and good sense. Why shouldn't military music be reserved as an obligato to a warrior's death? That's about all he can ever expect to get out of the proposition.

CHARGE ITALY SENDING ARMY TO AID REBELS

French Newspapers
Divulge German-
Italian Plans
2 NATIONS DENY

By M. S. HANDLER
United Press Staff Correspondent
Paris, July 21 (U.P.)—French newspapers reported today that Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy had sponsored a plan to send 10 divisions of soldiers to Spain to aid the Spanish Nationalists in the civil war.

Under the plan, it was reported, Mussolini would provide 10 divisions and Germany four. Hitler, in response, was reported to have informed Mussolini that he did not wish to engage in such a venture. He regarded Spanish policy until he knew the results of the discussion of British military intervention proposals at London.

The newspaper, Ouvrier, said that the radical Socialist party, the dominant element in the French popular front government, had after the fall of Hitler's German government, informed Mussolini that it needed 125,000 men to win the war.

"15 Divisions Needed"

According to Ouvrier, Mussolini sent a group of trusted staff officers to Spain and they estimated that 15 divisions were needed.

Then Ouvrier reported, Mussolini proposed that he send 10 divisions and Hitler five.

The story went on to relate that Mussolini proposed that in compensation Germany should send 10 divisions to Spain and Italy would supply the rest. It said that the French situation would become the paramount diplomatic problem of the Spanish civil war.

Italy, rapidly strengthening her army, launches one 35,000 men on Sunday and another August 22. She is to conduct gigantic army, navy and air force maneuvers in the Sicily area during the first two weeks of August. She is rapidly fortifying Pantelleria Island which dominates the narrow straits of the Mediterranean between Africa and Sicily.

Acute Problems

It is believed here that the Mediterranean communications must become acute soon. France depends on the Mediterranean sea route for her oil and Italy has her life line of communication in the Mediterranean. Great Britain uses the Suez-Mediterranean-Gibraltar route for communication with India and along the "all red route" to Australia.

As the French see it, Britain could cut off Italy's communication at the Suez end and Italy could fairly successfully block British shipping in the western Mediterranean. But assuming that France in any Mediterranean struggle would be on the British side, the French point to their own powerful fleet—bigger than the Italian fleet. If it came to a showdown, the feeling seems to be that France now might be able to impose its will to prevent free movement of the Italian fleet.

Denies Reports
Berlin, July 21 (U.P.)—A foreign office spokesman denied today reports published in Paris that Germany had proposed to send 10 divisions of troops to aid the Spanish Nationalists.

He said that the German government had no intention of sending troops to Spain. He said that the German government had no intention of sending troops to Spain.

Coroner's Verdict Speeds Prosecution

Chicago, July 21 (U.P.)—A verdict of justifiable homicide returned by a coroner's jury at an inquest into the death of 10 men slain in the Memorial day steel strike riot speeded prosecution today of 14 participants in the labor clash.

Six unemployed American Legion members who composed the jury absolved the police of responsibility for the slayings after hearing testimony for a week and deliberating for 50 minutes yesterday.

Mal Cochran, assistant state attorney, said he would push proceedings against the 64 strikers and sympathizers on the basis of the verdict developed at the inquest. They were charged with conspiracy to riot, an offense which carries a penalty of one to five years in prison upon conviction.

Each of the riot victims, the jury decided, was slain "by a bullet fired from a gun held in the hand of an unknown police officer."

The jury's report said the riot

MASSSED DRIVE

By RAYMOND BEARDON
Madrid, July 21 (U.P.)—The rebels, in a bold move, have begun a three-day offensive drive on the government's salient at the town of Madrid.

The government, which has been fighting a two-week campaign, has been forced to evacuate the town of Madrid after three days of fighting. The rebels, who are led by General Franco, have been attacking the town from the west, south and east.

The government, which has been fighting a two-week campaign, has been forced to evacuate the town of Madrid after three days of fighting. The rebels, who are led by General Franco, have been attacking the town from the west, south and east.

On the other hand, a turning of the tables of the battle for Madrid would force Majas men to withdraw from the "pocket" or have the exit closed against them.

Thus the insurgent strategy today was to subject the government salient to frontal attacks from the south toward Brunete. Flanking maneuvers were directed from the west toward Guadalupe and Valdemorillo and from the east toward Villanueva del Pardillo to help the salient or trap it at its base.

The slopes of "Peap 666" were turned into a proving ground for insurgent tanks and government tank defenses when Generalissimo Francisco Franco's troops charged again yesterday.

Large masses of insurgent infantry were preceded by numerous tanks which lumbered over the hilly terrain toward the government's fortifications. Insurgent gunners, lying back of the infantry, pumped shells into the opposing trenches ahead of the advance while insurgent planes rained explosives on Majas men.

The defenders destroyed two of the tanks with anti-tank guns and hand grenades but the overpowering number of the attackers, together with the bombing and shelling, forced them to mull back.
